Long-time planners to be ousted

By Julie Campe

Two members of the Independence Township planning commission will not be reappointed to their posts if Supervisor Frank Ronk has his way.

Ronk is not recommending the reappointment of Chairperson Neil Wallace and Vice Chairperson Holly Stephens, he said.

He plans to recommend appointing Timothy Palulian, Richard Oppmann and Kenneth Winship to the planning commission.

As township supervisor, Ronk makes recommendations for appointments to the planning commission. The township board has the final say.

"I think the commission needs new blood," Ronk said after the Dec. 23 meeting.

"We're looking for a little less controversial, a little more harmonious feeling between the commission and the petitioners," he said. "Another reason, I'm looking for a business person on the commission."

Stephens, who has served on the commission for about 12 years since 1970, commented on the recommendation.

"It was a pleasure to serve the township, and I hope that someone guards the wetlands," she said.

"There's never been a raise since I've been there, and I think the members should be compensated more," she added.

Wallace, who has served on the commission six years, also commented on the proposal.

The years of experience and knowledge from Stephens and John Gray will be missed, he said.

Gray opted not to seek reappointment.

"For myself, it doesn't really matter to me personally," he said. "I enjoyed the opportunity to serve the community and I'm sure I'll find other ways to help out where I can."

"I don't understand why," he said, adding he received a letter from the supervisor thanking him for his valuable service to the community.

"I think there's something deeper that's not being said. . . . If he and I differ in policy or approach, he's never confronted me on it."

"I've done what I believed is good for the community. I wouldn't shy away from controversy and ignore my beliefs."

The board is to vote on the appointments at the Jan. 6 meeting.

The matter was tabled at the Dec. 23 meeting at the request of Trustee William Vandermark, who said he wanted the consideration of a full board.

In a memo to the board, Treasurer John Lutz also requested the appointments be tabled. Lutz was absent from the Dec. 23 meeting.

Planner resigns

After three years on the Village of Clarkston Planning Commission, Laurie Stern has resigned.

"It interferes with something else I have on Monday nights," she said. "It was a good educational process and a nice group of people to work with."

The Clarkston Village Council has not yet appointed anyone to fill the vacancy.

Post office adds early bird hours

The Clarkston post office is now open at 7 a.m. weekdays, one hour earlier than before.

The change is the result of success with earlier hours for the Christmas season, which resulted in a 47 percent increase in business over last year during the same time period, said Clarkston Postmaster William O. Kinsley II.

In all, there were 6,600 more transactions, he said.

"People made it cost-effective," Kinsley said. "The customers really gave it their support. They proved our theory."

Because most people who live in the Clarkston area drive to work elsewhere, Kinsley had requested the earlier opening for the holidays.

"We've tried to be pretty innovative," he said. "My boss (in Royal Oak) gave me the leeway to do that."

The new hours at the Clarkston post office, at 5886 M-15, are 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

Kinsley said he's also proud of the post office for another achievement related to the holidays.

The post office won one of the awards for best holiday decorations in the United States Postal Service's Detroit division, which includes about half of the state. The award includes a plaque and a letter.

Gar Wilson: 16-year firefighter

By Julie Campe

Gar Wilson has grown up with Independence Township.

Born in 1943, he's seen many changes in the area. None were unexpected, he said, since he changed along with the town, but traffic is a problem.

"A lot of my work today is due to traffic—more accidents," he said.

He graduated from Clarkston High School in 1961 and has worked for the Village of Clarkston or the Independence Township Fire Department or both ever since.

Now, he's part-time director of the Department of Public Works for Clarkston and the full-time assistant fire chief for the township. Including volunteer service, he's been a part of the fire department 16 years.

His father, Bill Wilson, was also involved with the fire department. He served as assistant fire chief of the volunteer department for years, said Gar.

Gar looks toward a long career in the department.

His responsibilities include organizing fire prevention activities, investigating the cause of fires, helping with some of the daily department work, fighting fires and answering medical emergency calls.

"There seems to be a new challenge every day," he said.

The excitement and the chance to help people are what originally drew him to the job, he said.

"There's something new to learn every day. Every run is different. . . . It gets your adrenalin pumping," and the people are really in need of help, he said. "I guess it just does my heart good to help them."

In his spare time, he and his wife Shirley run a furniture making business. He builds shaker furniture, and she finishes the pieces.

Most of all, Gar said, he likes spending time with his children: Cherie, Steve, Brian and Chaun.

Do you know someone who works in the Clarkston area and deserves recognition for a job well done? We'd like to share your praise. Call The Clarkston News at 625-3370 weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. or drop us a line at 5 S. Main, Clarkston, MI 48016.

Gar Wilson was born and raised in Independence Township.

2 die in crashes

Two traffic-related deaths marred the holiday season in the area last week.

Richard Lee Cascaddan, 39, of East Church Street in Clarkston, was killed Christmas Eve when he lost control of his car on Main Street and it overturned, according to the accident report.

The incident occurred at approximately 11:50 p.m. Cascaddan was traveling southbound on Main Street near Miller Road in the rain. His vehicle struck the curb and went airborne and then hit a tree and rolled over, said the report.

A 60-year-old Pontiac woman was hit by a car and killed while running across Dixie Highway Dec. 22.

According to the traffic report, Charlotte Smith was hit by a car driven by John Chalmers of Clarkston on Dixie near Pine Ridge Drive at about 6:15 p.m..

The report said Chalmers, driving southbound on Dixie, saw the car in front of him swerve to avoid Smith and he attempted to do the same.

Christmas tree sparkles with 900 lights

By Julie Campe

Donna and Carl Melinat decked their house with a 10-foot-8-inch tall Christmas tree this year.

They usually chop down a big tree, but this year's 9.5-foot wide tree is the largest, said Donna of Oakhill Road, Groveland Township.

The Melinats spent three days decorating with 900 lights, 486 ornaments, 480 feet of garland and 10 packages of icicles.

Donna placed the icicles on the tree one by one. It's the only way, she explained, or else they wouldn't look right.

The Colorado blue spruce cost $15 in Columbiaville, and they searched 80 acres to find just the right one, she said.

"We got our money's worth," she said.

They borrowed a truck to transport it and bought a custom-made tree stand.

To squeeze the tree into their house, they removed the back sliding glass doors and secured the tree with ski ropes, she said. It took five people and two hours, she said.

Donna made about three-quarters of the ornaments and hung the top ones by standing on a ladder and using a notched yard stick to reach the high branches.

The ornaments included Mickey Mouse, bears, mice, oriental items, sand-painted and glow-in-the-dark items, she said. They even have Carl's first ornament, given to him the year he was born in 1938.

"I just like the old-fashioned tree," said Donna. "It just reminds me of a church tree."

The whole family likes the tree: the kids, Dawn and Jeff; the dogs, Taffy and Trixie; the cats, Dillon and Muffin; and the parakeet, Gonzo.

Friends and relatives usually stop by during the holidays to see the it, she said.

And the entire house is decorated with poinsettias and garland and ceramic Christmas displays. Many of the decorations were made by Donna.

She makes things all year round, she said.

After New Year's Day, the tree comes down, she said, and then she makes grave blankets for her grandparents' graves out of the tree branches and the holiday poinsettias.

She wouldn't have it any other way, she said. If the time came when they couldn't have one huge tree, they'd have two normal-sized ones, she said.

Donna Melinat's height of 5 feet provides a good contrast for her 10-foot-8-inch Christmas tree. She and her husband Carl spent three days decorating.

'Emergency' action allows DDA money in '86

By Julie Campe

An emergency ordinance adopting a downtown development plan and tax increment financing plan was approved Dec. 23 by the Independence Township Board.

The emergency ordinance bypassed the need for two readings required under a charter township and allows the effective date of 1986 to be used instead of 1987, said township attorney Gerald Fisher.

By adopting the plans in 1986, the 1986 tax increment revenues could be gained instead of waiting until 1987.

The downtown development authority was established to improve sewage, water, lighting and landscaping on parts of Dixie Highway and M-15 in the township.

The authority captures the taxes from that area and uses the money for improvements to that area only. No additional taxes are required, and residents from other areas are not taxed for the projects.

The decision on the plan, prepared in part by township planner Richard Carlisle, came after about 35 minutes of discussion.

Trustee Dale Stuart objected to the funding proposal of borrowing $1,660,000 from the sewer fund to be repaid from the DDA revenues within six years.

"I think it's ridiculous to borrow from another fund. . .," he said. "If the funding were challenged by the taxpayers, we have no means by which to pay back the fund."

"We have very limited power to tax, and certainly, we should not jeopardize the sewer fund."

Clerk Richard Holman said the document could be changed, but approval of the plan was necessary before the end of the year in order to capture $86,000.

"Approval of the document doesn't lock us into spending it," he said.

"I agree with Dale," said Trustee William Vandermark. "To spend that sewer money, it just scares the daylights out of me. . . It's just a bad idea to borrow money from the sewer fund until it's resolved."

He mentioned the ongoing lawsuits in Michigan regarding the constitutionality of diverting funds.

Fisher recommended forming a special assessment backup plan to be included in the proposal before any improvements are made and any money is spent.

Stuart objected to adopting the plan with ideas of changing it.

"I've been on this board long enough to know that once a thing is started, it will go on that way," he said. "This flies in the face of everything we said when we formed it. I don't think we should adopt this plan even if it means we lose the $85,093."

DDA Chairman Gerald Darnell spoke in favor of the plan.

By adopting the program, the township can capture the money and maximize cost effectiveness, he said. The plan would allow DDA improvements to be timed with the road construction planned for the spring of 1987.

Vandermark recommended adopting the plan subject to a special assessment backup plan.

The board approved the proposal in 4-1 vote. Stuart voted "no."

Supervisor Frank Ronk, Holman, Vandermark, and Trustee Carol Balzarini voted "yes." Treasurer John Lutz and Trustee Daniel Travis were absent.

Clarkston coed wins state 'Make It With Wool' contest

By Julie Campe

Sarah Scott wears custom-made designer clothes. She makes them.

The Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, senior won a statewide competition and plans to compete nationally with the most recent outfit she has made.

A lined jacket of 100 percent wool is trimmed in leather. Her lined black wool slacks with one pleat and stitched-down creases are also trimmed in leather.

With them, she wears a black, satin-finish polyester blouse, black patent leather shoes, and black and white checked socks.

The design came from Vogue patterns, and she sewed it to fit her body shape, said the 1983 Clarkston High School graduate.

The cost was about $150, two to three times lower than a retail price for the outfit, she said.

"I got my inspiration to sew from my mom," said Sarah, adding her mother used to make a lot of her clothes.

The "Make It With Wool" competition was held last fall. Sarah won at the district contest in Alma and finished first of 14 people in the senior division at the state level competition in Lansing.

"It was great," she said. "I was so excited. I got back to school and I had a dozen roses from my mom and dad."

She was judged on how well the clothing fit and how well it was constructed.

As her prize, the Independence Township resident is to compete in the national competition in Nevada in January.

Top prize is a $7,400 scholarship to a designer school in California plus a trip to New York or an extra $1,000 scholarship.

Sarah already has plans to travel next summer to study in Scotland, Paris and London for college credit.

In the future, she would like to sew.

"I'd love to own my own shop some day," she said. "I love the satisfaction you get of making something and have someone compliment you on it. I like the fact of starting out with a fabric and ending with a three-dimensional form."

Sarah is majoring in clothing and textiles at CMU, with a concentration in fashion and merchandising.

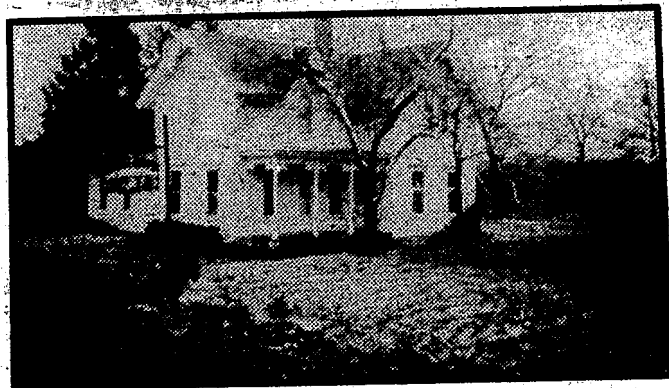

She is the daughter of Russell and Sharon Scott of Roselawn Road.

Sarah Scott wears the wool outfit she made for the "Make it with wool" competition. Her work received first place honors at the state competition. The 1983 Clarkston High School graduate is a senior at Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant.

Christmas chaos

Kathy Greenfield

Remind me never to prepare a dish I've never tried before when I'm having 14 (plus an infant) for dinner.

I know better, but I squelched any misgivings because my brother and his wife are vegetarians and I have this great new cookbook.

I skimmed the recipe, made a list, fought Christmas Eve afternoon crowds at the grocery store and set to work with the able assistance of my daughter.

She took the salad and the cookies—we couldn't have Christmas Eve without special cookies. I took the main course and a fresh fruit salad.

Some three hours later, we were still chopping, baking and boiling. Cooking for total vegetarians is no easy matter. You don't just boil some veggies.

Everyone arrived. They're used to me, so they made themselves at home. One of my sisters prepared the garlic bread; my niece opened the freezer and a pitcher of drinks fell all over the refrigerator, the juice from the sectioned oranges and grapefruit overflowed from the cutting board onto the kitchen floor, and so on.

I began putting the casserole together. I sauteed the broccoli, onions and mushrooms; shredded the Cheddar cheese; stirred the cottage and ricotta cheeses into the noodles—and found the words "add 1 cup sour cream."

My brother-in-law was dispatched to the store for the newly discovered ingredient. The casserole was finally tucked into the oven.

By popular demand, we then opened our family exchange gifts. Cameras flashed. Wrapping paper covered the floor. The dog sat on the 2-year-old's unwrapped gifts and wouldn't move.

I have to give my family credit. They were nice about the dinner that followed. The salad and cookies were wonderful; the fresh fruit tasty; the garlic bread seasoned to perfection.

The casserole should have been right up there with the side dishes. By rights, anything that took that much effort should have provided the best Christmas Eve dinner anyone ever tasted.

It didn't.

1987 — the signs are mixed

This part of southeast Michigan is full of economic conflict as we get ready to open up on 1987.

There's a new sports arena going up, while another sports arena a couple miles away appears to be going down.

Research and development buildings are being built in Auburn Hills and Orion Township, while unemployment is rising in the neighboring auto related plants.

Road building projects are set for spring in Lake Orion and Auburn, and the county road commission is practically pleading poverty . . . unable to meet demand, they say.

It seems downtowns continue to have vacant buildings, yet strip malls fill rather rapidly.

One of the biggest conflicts is the steadiness of inflation . . . insurance rates are climbing (jumping?), public worker wages are going up faster than inflation, and a variety of consumer products are also exceeding the inflation rate.

What this all means to the common man, business and industry is caution. Proceed with caution.

That's not bad advice any time, of course. Those who rush in are often tread upon, but we expect they will be stomped, bloodied, and perhaps buried in an economic morass if they extend financially beyond realistic goals next year.

Though the laid off workers, and there will be thousands in the lines this coming year (according to announcements already made), may draw 95 percent of their wages for several weeks; they have to observe caution.

Then there are more thousands who have, or will be getting, pink slips, let go entirely, and are untrained for other jobs, if there are any. For them caution is vital. Only those who believe in cradle to grave, the Lord and the state will provide me, philosophy will not proceed on tiptoes.

During the 1979-84 recession/depression in Michigan many workers left the state. One survey shows more left Michigan than any other state in the union. We can expect that movement to continue in 1987 . . . regardless of what state leadership says about jobs, jobs, jobs.

Southeast Michigan, even the whole United States, may be headed toward a "service" society, such as we see developing in Southfield, Troy and Auburn Hills, but a whole bunch of us need General Motors to do more than carve out an existence.

Forty hours at EDS doesn't pay the same as 40 hours at GM. This area needs a strong GM before we can relax our caution guards.

You read the papers just like we do, and right now strength is GM's weakness. The scene will change. GM will rise again. They just need time . . . and we just need caution.

Caution and common sense.

If Will Rogers were around today he might have defined robotics thusly: Robotics is when an outfit operates even though no human being is working. It's a little like City Hall.

Also as we end another debt-ridden year, with our country even more billions in the red, try to relate to a billion. Troy Gordon, columnist in Tulsa, wrote, "One billion seconds ago, the first atomic bomb had not been exploded. One billion minutes ago Christ was still on earth. One billion hours ago men were still living in caves. Yet one billion dollars ago, in terms of government spending, was only yesterday."

What do these brand names have in common: Days Work, Apple Thick, Apple Thin, Brown's Mule, R. J. Gold, Reynolds Natural Leaf, Cup, Top, Reynolds Sun Cured and Work Horse. They are names of chewing tobaccos. R. J. Reynolds was expected to quit selling Nov. 1.

However, R. J. Reynolds has a lot more name brands to bandy about since their merger with Nabisco, Del Monte and Heublein. The tobacco maker has come a long way since 1899 when it marketed 169 different brands of chewing tobacco.

Here we are closing out a year of fun, sweat and fears. Like they say about some wines, it wasn't a great year, but it was a good year. We all lost someone close to us, and hopefully, we all found someone new.

I'm not anxious to see 1986 go, the years go too fast anyway. But, it has to be, and I sort of look forward to trying to make Jottings worth reading another year.

Have a Happy New Year.

"Today was the day," said Harris about his ankle test. "It was a mild day, so I thought I'd come out and see if I could stand up on them." [Photo by Kathy Greenfield]

Some Sears Sales depressing

Jim Fitzgerald

A peaceful Sunday afternoon at home was interrupted by a phone call from Sears. Did we want to renew the maintenance contract on our washer and dryer?

"It depresses me to get a call like that from Sears on Sunday," my wife said.

I told her she didn't know the half of it. I told her about Frank Carlucci, who was just named President Reagan's national security adviser to replace Vice-Adm. John Poindexter, the famous Fifth-taker.

According to a newspaper report, Sears confirmed that Carlucci "supervises a consulting subsidiary of Sears Roebuck & Co. involved in international arms sales."

Sears Roebuck sells military weapons on the international market? That is depressing.

Forty-five years ago, I swept and oiled the hardwood floors in a Sears Roebuck store (I've never been comfortable calling it simply "Sears"). For me, Sears Roebuck always meant woolen clothing, sturdy shoes, snow shovels, friendly farmers and a tattered catalog in the privy.

I'M NOT COMPLETELY naive. Today, with Sears stores open seven days a week and most evenings, why shouldn't Sears try to sell me appliance insurance over the phone on Sunday? I have to get with it. This the high-tech, computer-fed 1980's and most citizens think a privy is a Marine privy with a pipeline into President Reagan's bathroom.

But now we have to wonder if it's a conflict of interest for the president's national security adviser to work for Sears in the secure international armaments department. That's too much.

Another depressing phone call came from a suburban woman who'd just spent several fruitless days in several shopping centers, trying to buy a T-shirt with a peace symbol on it for a grandchild. "You can find thousands of T-shirts with Rambo stuff on them and military camouflage and that sort of violent theme," she said. "But no dove of peace, no laurel wreath, nowhere. That's depressing."

Yes. But also there was a phone call from Lillian Genser, director of the Center for Peace and Conflict Studies at Wayne State University. She was disturbed that a popular three-credit-hour course on dispute resolution was accidentally left out of the center's winter catalog, and she wondered if I would write that it was available. I said I couldn't possibly use this column for delivering narrow messages of peace (phone 577-3453 during normal business hours if you want to learn how to resolve disputes without buying armaments from Sears).

LILLIAN ALSO TOLD me about an art project for youngsters called "The World We Want to Live in - a World of Peace and Justice." It is being co-ordinated by Deanne Bednar, an art and humanities teacher at Orchard Lake Middle School in the West Bloomfield Township district. Subsequently, there was a phone call to Bednar, which wasn't depressing.

Students in grades 4-12 in all public and private schools in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties were asked to "close their eyes and imagine what a world of peace would be like" - and then paint/draw what they saw. The results are now being judged and winning entries will be exhibited in the Fisher Building lobby next month.

Also displayed will be peace paintings by youngsters from other countries, including the Soviet Union. Bednar is active in Children's Art Exchange, a Vermont group that arranges such touring art exhibits.

"We are all one," said Bednar, who teaches art in opposition to violence. "My biggest art project is peace."

The art-peace exhibit runs Jan. 27 through Feb. 8. In the meantime, I'll fight depression by thinking about what Deanne Bednar said. It will help me forget that Sears Roebuck, where I bought my first ice skates, is involved in international arms sales.

Ode to snow

*From the late Stillman Elwell's
"Sleigh Tracks"*

Just a tiny little snowflake,
Oddly fashioned it is true,
Shining brightly on the window,
White as lilies, pure as dew.

Ah! What mystery surrounds it,
In its drifts the children play,
Yet is locked the wealth of kingdoms
In its icy prisons gray.

Falling gently as a blanket,
Soft and sweet as babies' breath,
Or in swirling, raging madness,
Driving men to bitter death.

Trackless forests know its grandeur,
Barren wastes its fetters feel,
Mighty regions are imprisoned,
As it were with bonds of steel.

All the wisdom of the ages,
All the truths the sages know,
Come to naught before the power,
Of the tiny flake of snow!

Holiday helpers

Five families had a better Christmas thanks to the efforts of Independence Township resident Bill Mountain and his staff.

Mountain, the broker at Century 21-Hallmark West in Waterford Township, and the realtors supplied gifts, food and Santa Claus for the families—two in Independence, two in Pontiac and one in Waterford Township.

The five families included 11 children who received "everything they asked for" on their modest lists, said realtor Karen Reichle of Brandon Township.

The items were "anything from Cabbage Patch dolls to Santa Bears to snowsuits, pajamas, gloves and mittens," she said.

Each family also received a turkey and enough food staples to last about two weeks.

In place of gift-giving among themselves, the Century 21 staff started the Christmas tradition a few years ago.

This was the first year Reichle participated because she recently joined the staff.

"It's nice," she said.

New library aide

A new library aide was hired for Independence Township Library to begin Dec. 22.

Vera Johnson is to fill the vacancy caused when the previous aide quit in November.

Her pay for 35 hours per week is $6.41 per hour, minus 50 cents per hour for the first 90 days.

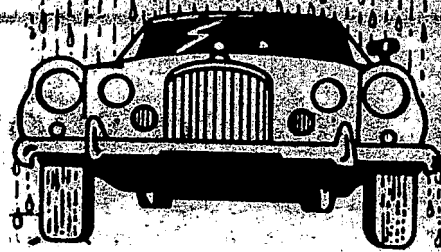

The board approved the hiring, 4-1, at the Dec. 16 meeting. Supervisor Frank Ronk, Clerk Richard Holman, Treasurer John Lutz and Trustee William Vandermark voted "yes."

Trustee Carol Balzarini voted "no."

"I would like to see more budget cutting in the library," she said. "I can't support the library aide hiring at this time."

Trustees Dale Stuart and Daniel Travis were absent.

Volleyball begins with few bright spots

Inconsistency marked Clarkston's volleyball season debut last Saturday at the Second Annual Rochester Kiwanis Classic.

Twenty teams, including several of last year's powers, gathered at Rochester Adams High School and the Oakland University campus.

Sports

The Wolves were knocked out in the quarter-finals of the tournament, losing to Birmingham Marian, 15-7, 15-9. Marian went on to capture the tourney title.

In the preliminary pool matches, Clarkston either won big or lost big. The Wolves won two, lost one and split a fourth match.

"They're very good," said Clarkston coach Nancy McCarrick about Marian. "They had us running a lot. We played a lot of defense against them."

"It was a good match, we were in both games," she said. "We'd win a rally, but we couldn't get any points together."

In pool play, the Wolves split with Temperance Bedford, winning 15-1 and losing 15-9, defeated

Grand Blanc, 15-4, 15-1, lost to fourth-seeded Dearborn, 15-8, 15-3, and beat Port Huron Northern, 15-3, 15-8.

McCarrick wasn't pleased with her team's effort, but was able to find some bright spots in the front row.

"Kelly Laidig played well all the way around, hitting in the front row, and in the back row she played much better than I thought she would," said McCarrick, who added that Maggie Gdula and Ali Fedio also contributed up front.

Still, she's looking for improvement when Clarkston hosts Brighton Jan. 6.

"Things didn't click like I thought they would," she said. "We didn't have the intensity I thought we should."

1986 — the year in sports

For Clarkston high school sports, 1986 was a year of winning seasons for many of the teams, heartbreaking disappointment for others and controversy for a few past and present players and coaches. Here's a glimpse at some of the year's highlights.

Feb. 19—Clarkston's own Tim McCormick makes an appearance with the Seattle Supersonics at the Silverdome against Detroit. The Pistons win, 118-113.

Feb. 28—Clarkston loses at Pontiac Northern, 72-66, in boys basketball. The Wolves and Huskies share the Greater Oakland Activities League championship.

March 1—The volleyball team bows out in the district finals, falling to West Bloomfield, 10-15, 15-8, 12-15. Clarkston finishes 33-5 and co-champs in the GOAL.

March 8—The Wolves outlast Pontiac Northern, 77-73, in triple overtime to win the district title. Senior Ed Whitaker scores 28 points and Steve Secatch hits two clutch free throws to send the game into a third overtime.

March 12—Clarkston's basketball season ends with a 71-65 double overtime loss to Flint Northwestern in the regionals. Whitaker makes the Class A all-state list.

May 9—The boys tennis team wins the GOAL championship.

May 31—Clarkston's girls track team runs third at the state meet, its best showing ever and Jennifer Farough, Shivonne DeBoer and Jane Selent make all-state. The Wolves had previously won their regional meet and the Oakland County meet.

June 18—Clarkston grad Kurt Norman signs a contract with the Cleveland Browns, but is later released in training camp.

Paul Tungate returns to full-time duty as Clarkston's athletic director.

July 23—A syndicated newspaper story paints an ugly picture of pitcher Steve Howe's upbringing in Clarkston. His parents, Virgil and Barbara Howe, say they plan a lawsuit against the writer of the story. Steve Howe had been suspended from a Class A San Jose team for the second time in the season for reported drug use.

Sept. 5—Stacy Turner runs for 244 yards as Clarkston wins its football season opener, 34-21, over Romeo.

Sept. 29—McCormick is traded from Seattle to Philadelphia and eventually becomes a starter at center for the Sixers.

Oct. 10—Clarkston loses its only football game of the season, 34-20, to Flint Central, and it ends up costing the Wolves a spot in the state playoffs.

Oct. 11—Cross country runner Kathleen McInnis wins the Oakland County meet.

Oct. 16—The girls basketball team defeats Waterford Kettering, 49-39, to avenge a double overtime loss to the Captains in the district final the previous season.

Oct. 17—The football team beats Lake Orion, 17-14, in double overtime to win the GOAL.

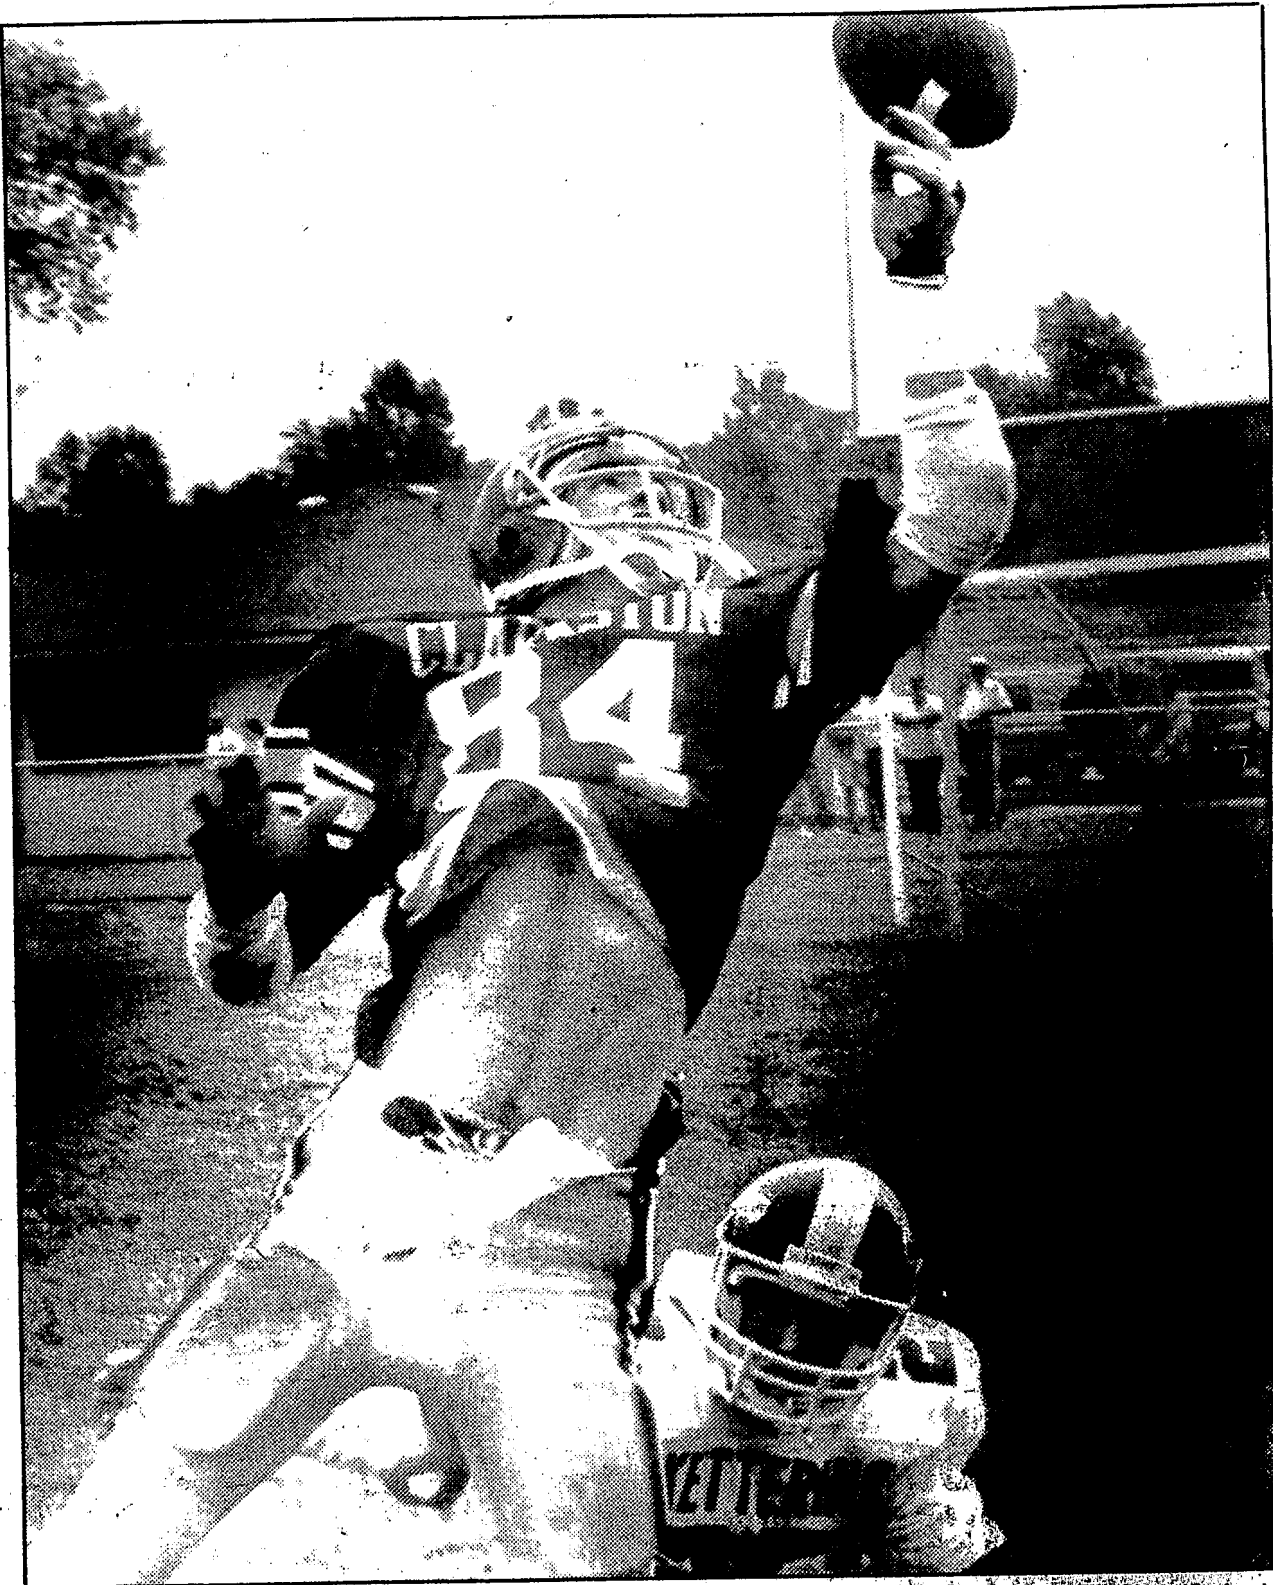

Oct. 31—Clarkston's 42-7 victory at home over West Bloomfield is called with 54 seconds left when a fight breaks out and both teams pour onto the field. Several Oakland County deputies, along with coaches and officials from both schools, help restore order.

Both school's administrations will review films and reports on the game.

Clarkston finishes 8-1, but narrowly misses the playoffs.

Dan Jokisch, shown here on the receiving end of a pass against Waterford Kettering, made the Class A all-state football team as a safety and helped Clarkston to an 8-1 record.

The 1986 season was also the last for coach Walt Wynnemko, who resigned after eight years.

MBWBIGIDTTT(!) award

Chris Gerbasi

"Go west, young man." —Horace Greeley
"The west is the best." —Jim Morrison

California, here I come. Goin' to California. With a banjo on my knee.

Yeah, I'm jetting out to the coast for the holidays. Gonna catch some rays, wear some shades, kick back, chill out, cruise the strip, comb the beaches and watch Michigan destroy Arizona State in the Rose Bowl.

By the time you poor Midwesterners read this column, I'll be rubbing elbows with the movie crowd and bending my elbow at the Hard Rock Cafe. Of course, I don't mean to rub it in.

I'm leaving on a jet plane, don't know when I'll be back again. But it's been a good year for traveling for me.

While most U.S. citizens have been seeking thrills traveling to bomb-ridden European cities and guessing what the terrorists' trip de jour will be, I've been having fun within the confines of this country.

I started the year in Chicago, am ending it in Los Angeles and in between I've gone to New York, St. Louis, Cleveland—and Clarkston. Pretty much the Big Six.

In general, 1986 was good to me and it was a good year for Clarkston sports, despite more than its share of controversy. Here's some year-end awards for some deserving people:

Most photographed: Missy Odell. Looking through our papers of the last couple years, along with other area papers, Odell is a clear winner. She's posed for more pictures than Christie Brinkley.

Most cooperative coach: Dave McDonald. He even invited me to the girls basketball banquet.

Longest interview: Dan Fife, who talked about a variety of things for two hours last summer and didn't seem to mind.

Toughest interview: The Wyniemkos; talking to a teary-eyed Michele after the basketball team lost to Kettering again in the playoffs and having to ask Walt about why he resigned as football coach.

Saddest interview: Virgil Howe, defending his son, Steve, after a newspaper story made it sound like Steve blasted his family and upbringing in Clarkston.

The Much Ado About Nothing Awards: Mike Norman being suspended from the football team for chewing tobacco, which then drew a large number of letters, for and against, to this paper. But his suspension was upheld.

Most likely to succeed: Dan Jokisch. If he has a good basketball season, Jokisch can pick his sport, either football or hoops, and he's looking at three major universities, Michigan, Michigan State and UCLA.

Most successful Clarkston team: The girls track team. The Wolves finished third in the state; their best showing ever, and no other Clarkston team in any sport went further this year.

The Eli Zaret Golden Throat Award: To raspy-voiced Gordie Richardson.

The "Find the Coach in the Picture" Award: To softball coach Carla Teare, who's difficult to pick out among her players because of her size and youthful appearance.

Biggest heartbreakers: The football team just missing the state playoffs and the girls basketball team losing to Kettering again in the playoffs.

The "Michigan Better Win Because I'm Going Into Debt To Take This Trip" Award: To myself.

1986, in review

Nov. 18—The Wolves win a share of the GOAL girls basketball crown with a win at Lake Orion.

Nov. 19—Clarkston and West Bloomfield schools issue an apology for their football teams' behavior. The statement says, "Steps have been and are being taken to address the situation and to prevent further such actions by our student-athletes."

A Jan. 13 basketball game between Clarkston and West Bloomfield is canceled and West Bloomfield will not be on the Wolves' football schedule in 1987.

Nov. 22—Kettering ends the Wolves' girls basketball season, 55-42, in the district playoffs. Clarkston's 17-4 record is one of its best ever, as is a 10-game winning streak during the year.

Dec. 12—Walt Wyniemko resigns as Clarkston football coach after eight seasons and two GOAL titles. His record at Clarkston is 44-28.

Pressman Larry Hauxwell with the presses in the then brand new, 9,000 sq. ft. plant in 1971. Below, he's still doing the same thing, only with a lot more presses.

Sherman Publications, Inc., like all companies that expect to stick around, is always preparing for the future. Whether it is giving scholarships to college, donating to journalism foundations, or just giving local students the chance to be published, SPI is looking ahead. Printing plant tours give youngsters the opportunity to see the presses "perform their magic", as some students call the printing process. And, they can see the magic of producing the printed word on the very latest word processing machines.

Preparing for tomorrow . . .

The most obvious example of SPI's preparation for tomorrow is in the pressroom. The battery of five presses prints nearly 50,000 copies in six publications of Sherman Publications each week . . . copies that reach every household in northeast Oakland county plus Auburn Hills. SPI, renamed from The Oxford Leader, Inc., has printed a weekly paper every week since 1898. It stayed in there, on top, by always preparing for tomorrow.

To walk again is his dream

By Julie Campe

Tony Palazzola has conquered a lot of challenges in the past year.

Like dressing himself, for example.

"That was a trip getting dressed," he says. "Just putting on my socks took me 45 minutes. I'd get up at 8 and start getting dressed. I'd be done around 11."

He laughs about his troubles. But the memories of the plane crash that left his legs paralyzed are still too close.

On March 1, he and a friend, Clarkston High School Principal John Kirchgessner, were flying when another plane collided with theirs above the Pontiac Oakland Airport.

Kirchgessner died from the accident.

Tony, 24, didn't regain consciousness until eight days later. He had suffered head, back and arm injuries.

"I was lucky," he says. "Mr. Kirchgessner, unfortunately, wasn't."

"Not that I was counting, but I was in the hospital 96 days, 8 hours and 32 seconds," he says.

His healthy look and good natured personality belie the trials he's met in the past seven months.

During that time, he underwent back and arm surgery and eventually regained the use of his left arm, regained his memory and began therapy for his legs.

Fund helps Tony

"Help Tony Walk Again" reads the flier prepared by Donald Kevern.

His goal is to collect enough donations to help pay for therapy that might enable Tony Palazzola to walk.

Tony was in a plane crash over the Pontiac Oakland Airport last March. It left his legs paralyzed and killed his flying partner John Kirchgessner.

His spinal cord was not severed, but no one knows if he'll ever regain the use of his legs, said Tony.

In the meantime, he plans to attend a rehabilitation center in Las Vegas that will strengthen his muscles and prepare him for the possibility of walking.

One major obstacle stands in Tony's way. The program costs about $16,000, and Tony is not eligible for most types of charitable aid.

Most programs are for children or people with birth defects—not for accident victims, said Kevern.

"The only help he gets is a little check from Social Security, and that's it," said his mother Barbara.

They've contacted at least a dozen organizations including their insurance company and the veterans, but none can help, she said.

To contribute money or for more information, write: Help Tony Walk Again, in care of Donald H. Kevern, 5976 Hummingbird Lane, Clarkston, MI 48016, or call 625-2223.

Tony Palazzola plans to begin therapy in March to strengthen his muscles in hopes that he'll be

In his back, he has three Harrington rods—about one-foot long metal pieces that support his back and protect his spinal cord so he can sit up. His injuries left him without two vertebrae.

"The spinal cord isn't severed, so there's a good chance of something coming back," he says. "But they don't know."

He plans to begin therapy to regain some of his leg muscles, so he'll be ready if he's ever able to use his legs again, he says.

The whole ordeal was awful, he says, but he had the support of family and friends. So many people sent flowers and fruit and cards that he was overwhelmed.

His family also appreciated the support.

"There were so many people, my daughter had to go down to the hospital and answer the phone," says his mother, Barbara.

"I always wanted to be popular, but I didn't want to go to these extremes," says Tony, again laughing.

After leaving the hospital, Tony lived at his parents' home on 20 acres on Oakhill Road, Independence Township.

There, he began his real rehabilitation. He learned to drive a car, to cook, to shop. He also went through some emotional turmoil.

"Some of hardest things I've done, I went to the airport and saw the plane. I saw the crash site. . . . It just freaked me out," he says.

"I went to the high school and saw the new principal. . . . I drove around four times before I finally went in. I did it because I knew that's what Mr. Kirchgessner would have wanted me to do. I did it for him and myself.

"John and I, we always went flying. . . . We [See CHALLENGES, Page 24].

Tony is surrounded by two of his chief supporters, his sister Kathy and his friend Donald Kevern. Kevern is organizing a fund to collect donations to pay for Tony's therapy.

Incredible edibles

A simple yet scrumptious meal of soup and salad is perfect for a frosty January day.

The recipes are reprinted from "Incredible Edibles," the cookbook published by the Clarkston Community Women's Club.

The Albondegas recipe was submitted by Mary Couzens of Union Lake and spinach salad is from the kitchen of Marie O'Shaughnessy of Waterford.

ALBONDEGAS

- 4 (or more) carrots, cut diagonally
- 3 small zucchini, cut diagonally
- 1 large can chicken broth
- 1 large can peeled tomatoes, chopped and use juice
- ½ teaspoon garlic
- 1 teaspoon ground coriander
- ½ pound (or more) ground beef, browned and drained

Cook the carrots first in the chicken broth, then add the zucchini (remember that it overcooks easily). Add the tomatoes, seasonings and ground beef. Ground turkey can be substituted for the ground beef for a low-calorie soup.

SPINACH SALAD

Salad:

- 12 to 16 ounces fresh spinach
- ½ pound bacon, cooked and chopped
- 4 or 5 hard-boiled eggs, chopped
- 1 can sliced water chestnuts
- 1 large can bean sprouts, drained
- 1 pint mushrooms, sliced and sauteed
- 1 red onion, sliced and separated (optional)

French Salad Dressing:

- 1 cup salad oil
- ¼ cup sugar
- ½ cup vinegar
- ¼ cup catsup
- 1 medium onion, chopped fine
- Italian seasonings

Combine salad ingredients. Combine French salad dressing ingredients in blender and chill before using. Put dressing on salad just before serving. Makes 12 to 15 servings.

Proceeds from the sale of "Incredible Edibles" cookbooks are used for community service projects. The $6 cookbooks are available at the Independence Township Library, Village Book Store, Carol's Village Grill, Gayanne's Floral Concept and Pontiac State Bank's downtown Clarkston branch.

CORRECTION

A telephone call from a reader resulted in the discovery that directions were inadequate for preparing the glaze for the Rum Cake recipe that appeared in the Dec. 17 Incredible Edibles column.

Several telephone calls later, another reader provided the solution. The complete recipe follows.

RUM CAKE

Cake:

- 1 cup chopped nuts
- 1 yellow cake mix
- 1 package Jello instant vanilla pudding
- 4 eggs
- ½ cup cold water
- ½ cup oil
- ½ cup rum (dark)

Glaze:

- ¼ pound (1 stick) butter
- ¼ cup water
- 1 cup sugar
- ½ cup rum (or more)

Preheat oven to 325 degrees. Grease and flour Bundt pan. Sprinkle nuts in bottom. Mix cake ingredients and pour over nuts. Bake 1 hour. Cool. Invert on serving plate.

To prepare glaze, melt butter in saucepan. Stir in water and granulated sugar. Boil 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and add rum.

Prick top of cake with toothpick or fork. Pour glaze over cooled cake very slowly. Allow cake to absorb glaze and repeat until the glaze is used up.

Man survives plane crash and hopes to walk again

would just fly and just talk. . . . He was always asking about my life. He'd talk about his sons playing baseball and all. Mostly, we'd talk about flying. He was a great man."

His family also went through rehabilitation. They learned how to lift him into their van, how to care for him and when to let him care for himself.

By September, he was ready to take up his life where it had been interrupted.

He started studying electrical engineering again at Lawrence Institute of Technology (L.I.T.), where he is now in his junior year.

He lives on campus, and the school modified everything to fit his needs. His roommates have also been helpful.

He and his girlfriend, Denise, have taken excursions—to Ortonville Days, to Niagara Falls, to Glen Arbor.

"She's a terrific, terrific girl," he says. "I was in the hospital for all those days, and there was not one day she missed (visiting me)."

They plan to get married, but they're not sure which year.

"John and I, we always went flying. . . . We would just fly and just talk. . . . He was a great man."

—Tony Palazzola

On March 1, 1987, he hopes to begin therapy in Las Vegas, hopefully enabling him to walk again.

"That's ironic that it falls on March 1, the same day as the crash," he says.

His friend, Donald Kevern, is collecting donations to help pay for the $16,000 program.

Since Tony is not a child, and he doesn't have a birth defect, most organizations can't help him with the costs.

For right now, he'll concentrate on his classes, he says.

After graduating from CHS in 1980, Tony served three years in the Navy and flew search and rescue missions. Afterward, he was in the Navy reserves, attended Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, for a year, and then switched to L.I.T.

Since the accident, many people have helped him overcome the "down times," he says.

"He's got a certain drive that just keeps him going. . . . He's come a long way since March 1."

—Barbara Palazzola

He received letters from President Ronald Reagan and Gov. James Blanchard.

His dogs, Tuffy and Benson, never leave his side when he's home. He talks to Don Kevern every night on the phone. And his girlfriend is always there for him, he says.

His whole family also helps him—his mother, his dad Anthony, his brothers and sisters: Joe, Kathy, Karen, Linda, David and Lisa.

But it's easy to help Tony, they say.

"He's got a certain drive that just keeps him going," says Barbara. "He wants to get on with his life and make it complete. . . . He's come a long way since March 1."

OFFICIAL NOTICE

Charter Township of Independence Notice of Approved Ordinance Amendment Regarding Downtown Development Authority Boundary Adjustment

At a special meeting held on December 23, 1986, the Township Board of the Charter Township of Independence approved an amendment to Chapter 22 of the Code of Ordinances of the Charter Township of Independence.

The proposed ordinance pertains to enlarging the boundaries over which the Downtown Development Authority will exercise its powers.

STATE OF MICHIGAN COUNTY OF OAKLAND CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING FIRST AMENDMENT TO DOWNTOWN DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY ORDINANCE

The Township Board, having determined that the intent purpose of Article II of Chapter 22 of the Independence Township Code of Ordinances shall be furthered by amending the boundaries of the Downtown District, as provided below, and the procedures for adopting the ordinance creating the authority in the first instance having been complied with in connection with the adoption of this amendment.

THE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE, COUNTY OF OAKLAND, STATE OF MICHIGAN, ORDAINS:

PART I OF AMENDATORY ORDINANCE

Section 22-22 of the Independence Township Code of Ordinances shall be amended so as to extend the boundaries of the Downtown district by adding to the property within the Downtown District that certain property described on Exhibit B, attached and made a part of this Ordinance by reference. Henceforth, Section 22-22 shall read as follows:

The boundaries of the Downtown District, within and with respect to which the Authority shall exercise its powers are hereby designated by the description set forth on Exhibit A and B, attached and made a part of this Ordinance by reference. This designation is subject to alteration or amendment as the Township Board may deem appropriate in the future, subject to limitations provided by law.

PART II OF AMENDATORY ORDINANCE

In all other respects, the Downtown Development Authority Ordinance shall remain in full force and effect as previously adopted and effective.

PART III OF AMENDATORY ORDINANCE

This amendatory ordinance shall be codified so as to incorporate the final language of Section 22-22, as designated above, as part of the Independence Township Code of Ordinances, in the place of the language initially adopted.

PART IV OF AMENDATORY ORDINANCE

In view of the fact that the Development Plan and Tax Increment Financing Plan have been based and calculated upon utilizing the initial assessed value of all real and personal property in the Township as of December 31, 1985, and upon capturing tax increment revenues to be derived based upon increases in assessments during the calendar year 1986, and taking into consideration that such premises would be materially undermined if this Ordinance were not effective prior to December 31, 1986 inasmuch as inclusion of the tax increment revenues for such one year period would be in the public interest of the Downtown Development District and the Township of Independence, it is hereby declared that this is an emergency Ordinance which shall be finally passed by the Township Board at the same meeting at which it is introduced, to be effective immediately upon publication following such meeting.

The legal description of the Downtown Development Authority District boundaries, as amended, reads as follows:

Charter Township of Independence Notice of Approved Ordinance Regarding Downtown Development Authority Development Plan

At a special meeting held on December 23, 1986, the Township Board of the Charter Township of Independence approved an amendment to Chapter 22 of the Code of Ordinances of the Charter Township of Independence.

The proposed ordinance pertains to the adoption of a Development Plan and Tax Increment Financing Plan for the Downtown Development Authority District (DDA).

The ordinance is adopted as follows:

CHAPTER 22

ECONOMIC GROWTH PROMOTION

ARTICLE III: Approval and Adoption of Development Plan and Tax Increment Financing Plan.

Section 22-51: Determination of Public Purpose.

STATE OF MICHIGAN

COUNTY OF OAKLAND

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE
ORDINANCE TO APPROVE AND ADOPT A DEVELOPMENT PLAN AND TAX INCREMENT FINANCING PLAN FOR THE DOWNTOWN DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE, COUNTY
OF OAKLAND, STATE OF MICHIGAN, ORDAINS:
Section 1 of Ordinance, Ordinance Adoption.

CHAPTER 22

ECONOMIC GROWTH PROMOTION

ARTICLE III: Approval and Adoption of Development Plan and Tax Increment Financing Plan.

Section 22-51: Determination of Public Purpose.

Following a duly noticed public hearing on the Development Plan and Tax Increment Financing Plan for the Downtown Development District (together referred to as "the Plan"), and having made the findings set forth below, the Township Board has found and determined that the Plan constitutes and seeks to accomplish a public purpose, and that the Plan is consistent with and seeks to accomplish the intent and purpose declared by the Board for the establishment of the Downtown Development Authority in Article II, Section 22-17 of this Chapter:

(a) The Tax Increment Financing Plan is consistent with Sections 14 and 15 of Act 197, P.A. 1975, as amended.

(b) The Development Plan meets the requirements set forth in Section 17(2) of Act 197, P.A. 1975, as amended.

(c) The proposed method of financing development is feasible, and the Authority has the ability to arrange the financing.

(d) The development is reasonable and necessary to carry out the purposes of Act 197, P.A. 1975, as amended.

(e) The land included within the development area to be acquired for the extension of Maybee Road, and any easements required as indicated in the Development Plan, are reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of the Plan and of Act 197, P.A. 1975, as amended, in an efficient and economically satisfactory manner.

(f) The Development Plan is in reasonable accord with the Master Plan of the Township.

(g) Public services, such as fire and police protection and utilities, are or will be adequate to service the project area.

(h) Changes in zoning, streets, street levels, intersections, and utilities are reasonably necessary for the project and for the Township.

Section 22-52: Approval of Plan.

(a) Premised upon the findings and determinations made in Section 22-51, above, and upon the further finding that pursuit and execution of the Plan appears to be in the best interest of the Charter Township of Independence, the Plan, in the form made a part of the Township Board minutes on the date this Ordinance was adopted, is hereby approved and adopted.

(b) No amendment of the Plan shall be effective unless and until submitted to and approved by the Township Board in accordance with the procedures set forth in Act 197, P.A. 1975, as amended.

Section 2 of Ordinance, Declaration of Emergency.

In view of the fact that the Development Plan and Tax Increment Financing Plan have been based and calculated upon utilizing the initial assessed value of all real and personal property in the Township as of December 31, 1985, and upon capturing tax increment revenues to be derived based upon increases in assessments during the calendar year 1986; and taking into consideration that such premises would be materially undermined if this Ordinance were not effective prior to December 31, 1986; inasmuch as inclusion of the tax increment revenues for such one year period would be in the public interest of the Downtown Development District and the Township of Independence, it is hereby declared that this is an emergency Ordinance which shall be finally passed by the Township Board at the same meeting at which it is introduced, to be effective immediately upon publication following such meeting.

Section 3 of Ordinance, Incorporation Is Part of Ordinance Code.

This Ordinance shall be codified, as designated above, as part of the Independence Township Code of Ordinances.

The motion to approve the proposed ordinance was made by Holman, and supported by Vandermark. Vote on the motion: Ayes: Balzarini, Holman, Ronk, Vandermark. Nays: Stuart, Absent: Lutz, Travis.

The motion carried. This emergency ordinance is effective immediately upon publication.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard A. Holman
Township Clerk

PRAYER TO THE HOLY spirit. Holy spirit you who make me see everything and who show me the way to reach my ideal. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget the wrong that is done to me and you who are in all instances of my life with me. I in this short dialogue, want to thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires may be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Amen. Thank you for your love towards me and my loved ones. Pray this prayer 3 consecutive days without asking your wish, after the third day your wish will be granted, no matter how difficult it may be. Then promise to publish this prayer as soon as your favor has been granted. Wish granted. M.R. ILLX20-2p

Among Lori Newlon's praises for the evening woodshop class at Sashabaw Junior High is that it provides a mother-son project. "It gives us time—just me and him," she said. In the background instructor Tom O'Brien helps another student enrolled in the class.

Mothers and sons work together in shop

By Kathy Greenfield

When Lori Newlon was in junior high school, the girls considered the shop room a big secret.

"Every time you walked by, you tried to look in," she says, and that's one reason the shop class she took with her son Jeff "was a big treat."

The class for mothers and their seventh-graders enrolled in woodshop classes at Sashabaw Junior High School took place Monday and Wednesday evenings for four weeks.

Teacher Thomas O'Brien had originally planned to offer the four-session class one night a week, but when 24 pairs signed up, he added the second session. Participants paid for materials, but there was no fee for instruction.

He offered the program so the moms and their youngsters could do something together, O'Brien said.

As a result of the classes, which ended Dec. 17, he said he expected many mothers to add band saws to their Christmas lists.

Praise for the program came from parents and youngsters alike.

"I really enjoy it," said Diana Phipps, who was making a quilt stand with her son Mark. "It's nice to be able to work with your children."

Anna Treder and son Greg's project was a custom platform for the TV.

"I thought it was great," Teder said. "I was hoping my husband would volunteer to make this. I never thought I'd end up doing it."

"I think it's good because she was in a wood-working class herself," said Greg.

Carol Thompson and son Jeremy chose to make a gun rack, a Christmas present for their husband and father.

"Sometimes at home we don't get along, but this is working out good," said Thompson.

"I like it," said Jeremy.

The Newlons' creation was a cup and saucer shelf for their home.

"This has been super," she said. "It really has, plus I think we should all give the teacher an 'A.' He's been very pleasant and helpful—so cheerful about it."

"I think it's pretty cool," said Jeff. "I like the idea of making something for the house and, like my mom said, Mr. O'Brien has been very helpful and patient."

Greg Treder sands as his mother, Anna, brushes the sawdust away.

Mark Phipps holds the wood in place as he and his mom, Diana, work together on a quilt stand during Monday night woodshop class for mothers and their seventh-graders.
