School bus burns; no one hurt

BY DENNIS V. CARTER
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Where there is smoke, there is fire ... as several Clarkston students and their bus driver found out early Monday morning.

No one was injured in the early morning blaze at Stuckney and Michigamme roads.

Capt. Mike Fahrner of the Independence Township Fire Department received the call about the bus being on fire at 7:03 a.m. March 9.

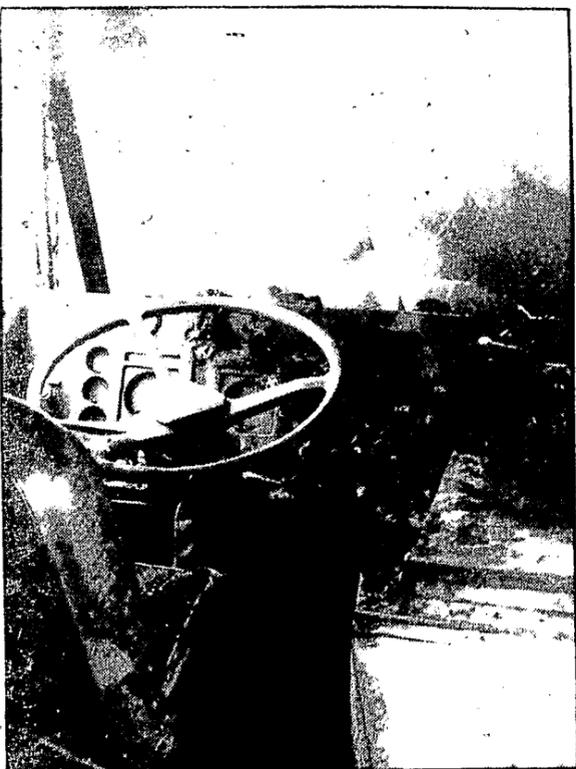

"It was an electric fire in nature," Fahrner said. "The front area of the bus where the driver sits was badly burned, and the rest of bus received a lot of smoke damage. But the driver had gotten the students off the bus before the flames broke into the compartment, so there were no injuries."

Bus driver Rosemary Grable said she smelled smoke and then saw a small trace of smoke come up through the floor of the bus.

"Once I saw the smoke, I pulled over and had the students get off bus," she said. "Once I had them off, I

Democrats and Republicans in the Clarkston area will have a say in who their party chooses as a presidential candidate.

The polls in Independence and Springfield townships are open 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 17, for the presidential primary election.

In the closed primary, registered voters who have declared membership in the Democratic or Republican party may cast votes for candidates in their party only, or they may vote "uncommitted."

Or they may enter a write-in candidate.

On the ballot will be the following candidates for president of the United States:

Democratic Party (Vote for not more than one): Edmund G. Brown Jr., Bill Clinton, Tom Harkin, Bob Kerrey, Lyndon H. LaRouche Jr., Paul E. Tsongas, Uncommitted.

Republican Party (Vote for not more than one): Patrick J. Buchanan, George Bush, David Duke, Uncommitted.

To vote for a candidate whose name does not appear on the ballot, write the name and office in the space provided on the ballot envelope.

As of March 9, Bob Kerrey and Tom Harkin had withdrawn from the race.

called by radio to the bus garage and told them about the smoke."

School Transportation Supervisor Kevin Bickerstaff said Grable was instructed to turn off the electric key, which shuts down the electrical system on the bus.

"Usually in these cases, once you shut down the electrical system, the fire will fizzle itself out," he said. "But in this case, it decided to continue to burn."

Grable, a 17-year veteran bus driver for the school system, said that when she saw flames shoot up inside the bus, she moved her 10 high school-bound passengers about a block away.

No one was injured, but Grable's belongings were burned.

"I left my purse on the bus because I didn't really expect it to catch fire," she said. "Usually when this happens, once you turn off the electrical system they send you out another bus and take that one back for repairs. But this time it caught fire and melted my purse."

Grable, who was driving a spare bus because her usual bus was in for repairs, said the bus was still on fire when a new bus was delivered — so she rounded up the students and continued her route.

"The students were hardly even late for class," she said. "We just boarded the new bus and went on our way."

According to Fahrner, it took less than 10 minutes to extinguish the fire.

The 1982 bus was worth about $5,000 to $6,000. An estimate of damage won't be available until March 11 or 12.

Classifieds sell!

Who says car sales are down?

Not Mary Fritch, Susanne Stroh, Mrs. J. Van Dellen or Connie Christy. All of these women sold their cars the first day their ad ran in The Clarkston News classifieds or to the first person who called.

"I had a great response," Connie Christy said. "My car sold the first day the paper came out." Connie sold her 1988 Buick Regal, loaded with low mileage. She asked for $5,700 or best offer.

If you're in the market for a car, don't look for these cars either: Susanne Stroh's "1990 Accura Legend, 36,000 miles. Leather interior, $15,000"; Mrs. VanDellen's "1980 Chevy Van, 350, V8, auto. Runs good. High miles. Body fair. $650, obo"; or Mary Fritch's "1980 Ford LTD. 4-door, runs good. Many new parts. $400."

All these cars were bought by the first caller.

Your classified ad runs two weeks in five papers, reaching over 36,300 homes in northeast Oakland County. For only $6, your 10-word ad (30 cents each additional word) runs in The Clarkston News, Penny Stretcher, Oxford Leader, Ad-Vertiser and Lake Orion Review papers.

Screening time for kindergartners-to-be

Clarkston Community Schools has scheduled the 1992 screening of students who will enter kindergarten next September.

Students must be five years of age on or before Dec. 1, 1992, in order to be eligible for the fall class.

Parents should contact the elementary school in their attendance area and reserve a screening time for their student. Screening can be done at another school within the district if that date is more convenient to the parent.

Parents should also bring immunization records and an official county or state birth certificate to screening. In addition, parents will need to bring proof of residency within the Clarkston school district attendance area.

The screening dates for elementary schools are as follows:

- North Sashabaw Elementary, May 4, 625-3139
- Bailey Lake Elementary, May 5, 625-2812
- Pine Knob Elementary, May 6, 625-1583
- Clarkston Elementary, May 7, 625-4900
- Andersonville Elementary, May 8, 625-5300

No principal hired at CHS; search continues

BY CURT MCALLISTER
Clarkston News Associate Editor

Clarkston Schools officials are hoping the second time around will be a charm as they continue their hunt for a Clarkston High School principal.

According to Duane Lewis, director of personnel services for Clarkston schools, the district came up empty on its initial attempt to secure a new principal. He said the district was "unable to bring the process to a close" for either of the top two candidates, for a variety of reasons. Lewis opted not to discuss the details of the two cases.

He said the school district has posted the opening again in hopes of attracting more applicants to the talent pool. Lewis added, however, that those individuals who initially applied for the job will be taken into consideration again.

Lewis said about 47 people applied between October and January. From this group, only one applicant was from within the Clarkston school district.

Lewis said the next round of interviews will occur April 6.

The selection process will remain a four-step procedure. It begins with Superintendent Gary Haner and administrative personnel reviewing all resumes and trimming the number of applicants to 16. Haner then interviews these candidates and narrows the number to seven. A selection committee, consisting of parents, teachers and administrators, screens the seven and recommends two finalists to Haner. The superintendent, in turn, listens to the recommendations and then narrows his own choices to two. From these two, Haner selects his top choice and takes that recommendation to the Clarkston school board for approval.

Lewis said this same process has been used for the hiring of four administrators in the past year and a half.

If everything goes smoothly, Lewis said he expects a new principal to be chosen by April 27.

Currently, Assistant Superintendent Mel Vaara serves as interim principal, following the departure of Principal Robert Burek, who left to become superintendent for Fenton schools.

Republicans rule

As expected, all candidates running unopposed were elected in Monday's Clarkston Village Council election.

These few write-ins were not a factor.

Of 788 registered voters, 130 went to the polls.

"In a general election, that's a lot of votes," said Clarkston Village Manager Artemus Pappas. "Sometimes we only get 30. Over a 100 is a good turnout."

All elected officials were Republicans.

Sharon Catalo was re-elected as president with 104 votes. Write-in Ivan Rouse received two votes.

Winning the three trustee positions were Eric Haven (109 votes), William Basinger (105) and Dominic Mauti (104). All are incumbents.

Steve Secatch and Joan Kopietz each received two write-in votes as trustees and Mike Thayer, James Weber and Charles Weber had one.

Pappas was re-elected as trustee with 113 votes.

Jeanne Selander Miller is the new clerk with 107 votes. Kristine Iid picked up five write-in votes and Sandra Conlen received one.

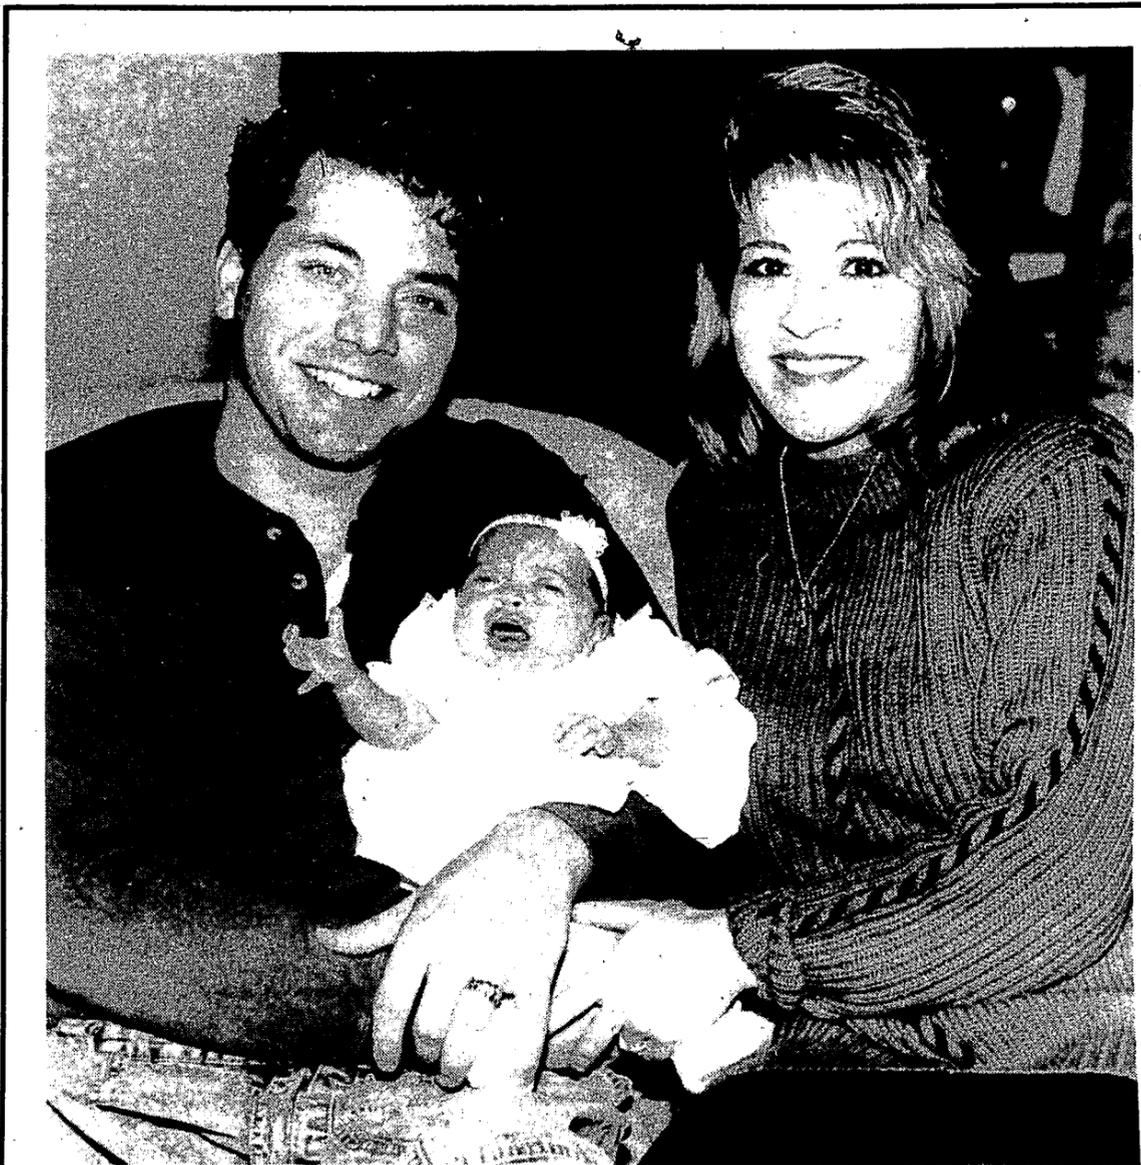

Douglas Roeser, who is also a trustee, won the assessor position with 96 votes. Write-in Tom Goldner received 12 votes.

Since the charter for cityhood was passed by voters Feb. 4, all seats on the council (the clerk and treasurer's positions will be appointed) will be open again in the June 15 non-partisan city council election.

MIRANDA Marie Palazzola protests loudly with her parents, Anthony and Kimberly. The youngster was born Feb. 6.

And baby makes three

Last month, Anthony and Kimberly Palazzola of Groveland Township saw two years of hard work pay off in the form of a baby girl.

On Feb. 6, Kimberly gave birth to Miranda Marie Palazzola at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac. Miranda weighed 6 pounds, 14 ounces, and measured 19 3/4 inches long.

Miranda's birth may seem commonplace for such a young couple, except for the fact that Anthony has been paralyzed from the waist down since 1986. He was injured when his plane was involved in a mid-air collision near the Oakland-Pontiac Airport in Waterford Township.

Anthony's pilot, CHS principal John Kirchgessner, was killed in the accident.

After the crash, he underwent rehabilitation in Las Vegas where he met Kimberly. They were married a year and a half later and settled in Groveland Township.

Eager to have children, the couple drove to the University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor, twice a month, to impregnate Kimberly. For two years, Anthony underwent electro-ejaculation treatments, with the hopes of impregnating his wife.

Eventually, the couple hit paydirt and are now proud parents. Kimberly said she's adjusted to motherhood.

"This is great. ... We're loving it. I still can't believe we made this little human being," she said, looking down at the baby in her arms.

Her husband concurred.

"I can't keep my eyes off her," Anthony said. "She was definitely worth the wait."

Retail revamping receives OK

One of the Clarkston area's most visible retail centers will be getting a new look soon.

On Feb. 27, the Independence Township Planning Commission voted 5-0 to grant final site plan approval for modifications to the existing retail center at the corner of Ortonville Road and Dixie Highway. Daniel Travis and Richard Oppmann were absent from the meeting.

The 3-acre plaza will be complemented with two additions to the existing structure.

One addition will be the expansion of the existing Sav-Mor Wonder Drug storefront area, encompassing 1,750-square feet of vacant space from two empty, adjacent stores. This area will be occupied by a new tenant—Perry Drugs, which will be located next to New York Carpet World.

The second addition will include a new storefront at the north end of the center, covering 3,381 additional square feet. Architect Ronald Jona said an ice cream-style establishment would be moving into this new storefront.

This northern addition will narrow the gap between the plaza and the upcoming public service center, which is to open in the former First Federal Bank property. This service center will include offices for the Independence Township Fire Department and the Oakland County Sheriff's Department (OCSD). A new fire station No. 1 is scheduled to be built at the rear of the bank property.

Access to the plaza and the new fire station is likely to be easier, via an extension of Citation Drive.

In addition to the extra space, the retail center will be gaining some new storefront facing, a modern roof line design and more streetscape, especially around the roadway and the neighboring Amoco gas station.

The planning commission has set up a sub-committee to help the developer with lighting, landscaping and parking considerations.

Board denies split zoning on Sashabaw Road

BY CURT MCALLISTER
Clarkston News Associate Editor

Odds are, there won't be another service station near

I-75 and Sashabaw Road anytime soon.

On March 3, the Independence Township Board nixed a rezoning request along the busiest stretch of the Sashabaw Road corridor. The board voted 6-0 against the proposal, with Supervisor Frank Ronk absent from the meeting.

The petitioner, Auto City Service, Inc., had asked to rezone only the front 62,500 square feet of the parcel, even though company officials intended to buy all four acres. They were seeking a partial rezoning, which would change the present freeway service designation (C-4) to motor vehicle service station (MS).

Township planner Richard Carlisle told the board that the proposal had several drawbacks. They included: an elevated slope at front of the property, wetlands in the rear of the site, lack of sewer and public water access and increased traffic generation.

Most importantly, Carlisle voiced disapproval of "split zoning" the site. He said this precedent could encourage similar requests in the area.

Trustee Daniel Travis echoed Carlisle's sentiments, reminding the board that the planning commission had unanimously recommended a denial of the request November 1991.

Steve Iamarino, attorney for Auto City Service, said his client's intended use would be less intensive than any covered under C-4. These uses include: convenience marts, sit-down restaurants, gift shops and drug stores.

Iamarino added that the lack of water and sewer to the area would hurt any development, regardless of the zoning. He argued that any usage under a C-4 designation would use double the water over a motor vehicle service station.

Carlisle refuted Iamarino's findings and said the split-zoning was still the biggest detractor to the request. Iamarino said the split-zoning aspect could be remedied. He said his client was willing to buy the entire property and rezone it accordingly.

Jail stint proves profitable for Cancer Society

BY JULIE CAMPE
Clarkston News Editor

Tari Hutchinson

Other than a few speeding tickets, Tari Hutchinson had never had trouble with the law — until March 4, that is.

On that day, the Lancaster, Independence Township, resident was arrested during a meeting at work (Dunlap Realtors/ERA) — and she actually found it a worthwhile experience.

"They called me up to the front," said Hutchinson, a few hours after the ordeal.

There, a uniformed deputy introduced himself and informed her that she was "under arrest for fraudulent real estate transactions."

"He handcuffed me in front of the whole office," recalled Hutchinson.

She quickly learned that her friend and co-worker Sharon Morse paid $25 to have Hutchinson locked up in the American Cancer Society-Great American Lock Up, which raises money for the non-profit organization.

Then she was driven in the Oakland County Sheriff's Department patrol car — where she sat in the back seat like any ordinary criminal — to the makeshift jail, where she found herself in front of Judge "High Bond."

She was expecting a bond of about $350, which she had heard was average. But, alas, things did not go well for Hutchinson.

"I forgot to call him 'Your honor,'" said Hutchinson. "He set bond at $1,000."

Hutchinson was given a black- and white-striped hat, uniform, number and ball and chain and was placed in a corner with a phone, where she had one hour to raise the $1,000.

Hutchinson knew just who to call. In the last eight months, she and her co-workers have raised about $115,000 for cancer patient Holli Schilling of Clarkston, a co-worker at Dunlap.

So Hutchinson went right to work.

"I called the same people I've been hitting up for eight months, and they came through one more time," she said.

In the hour before Sharon Morse picked her up, Hutchinson managed to raise $445 — not bad, she admitted.

Except for the car ride and the time it took away from work, she said it was a good experience.

$195,000 OK'd for school buses

The Clarkston Board of Education has added four new school buses to its fleet.

On March 9, the board voted 6-1 to purchase three 72-passenger buses and one 35-passenger special education bus. Trustee Paul Van Klaveren voted no because he preferred that the district only buy two buses at a time, with the upcoming 1992-93 budget picture still foggy.

The board was inclined to act after finding out that the chassis prices from the low-bidder was subject to change next week. Last December, the trustees voted to table a possible purchase.

The three full-size buses are replacing three 1982 models, which all have accumulated over 150,000 miles.

During the ride to the "jail," she was a little embarrassed, she said.

"You're in the back seat with handcuffs, and people look at you like you belong there," she said.

But she was happy to raise money for other cancer patients, she said.

"Holli is my best friend, and I've been working so hard trying to raise the money and get organized. To do it for somebody else felt good, too," she said.

Through the experience helping raise money for her friend's medical expenses, Hutchinson has learned a lot, she said.

"People are very, very generous," she said. "It's totally beyond my expectations."

Even when she called from the jail and asked people to donate with very little explanation, they came through, she said.

"I think they're wonderful," she said. "They just keep doing it and doing it. It's a nice feeling (to know that) with all the bad things that go on in this world there are good people out there."

They eventually will be sold.

The special education bus will be replacing a spare special education vehicle, which has over 150,000 miles and was purchased in 1980. This new bus will accommodate five wheelchairs, which is more than the older model could handle.

The cost of the three full-size buses is $145,785. The special education bus costs $48,703. They will be purchased from Hoeksma Truck, Inc.

The school district will pay for the buses through a 2-year loan with a banking institution.

The new buses should arrive in the district before the start of fall classes, 1992.

How to help Holli

Bowlers have a chance to help cancer patient Holli Schilling on Sunday, March 22.

A second bowl-a-thon is planned for 12:30 p.m. at 300 Bowl, Waterford. A free cellular phone will be given to those with $150 worth of pledges.

According to organizers, bowlers willing to collect pledges would make the fund-raiser successful.

Proceeds go to That's What Friends Are For, Inc., and would help pay the medical expenses of a bone marrow transplant for Schilling, a Clarkston real estate salesperson.

Schilling suffers from terminal breast cancer that has advanced to bone and spine. A bone marrow transplant — which is not covered by her medical insurance policy — is her best chance to save her life.

To sign up, pledge or donate cash or raffle items, call 625-0200.

If you're a ham, this show's for you

Would-be stars have a shot at the small screen — in the Clarkston area, anyway.

"K-TV," a cable-TV program that airs on Independence-Clarkston Channel 65, is taped the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at the United Cable public access studio on Waldon Road.

Hosted by Rick Molter, the program allows area residents to sing, accompanied by a Karaoke machine, which plays popular music (without the words) and prompts the singer with words on a screen.

Molter also hosts Karaoke at area establishments, where contestants sign up for the TV program, says Joel Burnell, director of public access in Independence-Clarkston.

However, not enough Clarkston-area residents know about the opportunity, he says.

"Anybody who likes to sing" is invited to appear on the program, says Burnell, who adds that the Karaoke catalog of available music includes everything from country to rock and roll.

"Everybody likes to sing," he says.

And the cable-TV program is a good outlet, he says.

"It gets a lot of people involved from the community. They can see a TV production and see themselves on the screen," says Burnell.

To sign up, call 625-7069, or go to the United Cable office at 6570 Waldon Road (next to Clarkston Junior High School) 3-7 p.m. Monday through Friday.

New fire station seems inappropriate

BY NEIL E. WALLACE

30-second messages

Julie Campe

Someday, someone somewhere might open a time capsule and find a video tape showing hours of television recorded randomly.

That could be frightening for those trying to understand the late 1900s from that medium.

Imagine the commercials alone.

"I'm cleaning my oven," says a smiling woman in a cheery voice, as she sits in her living room.

Her broad smile is shown intermittently, between flashes of closeups of her oven interior, coated in a foam.

Might future viewers think that women were overjoyed and simply delighted over the thought of a chemical working away in their ovens? Will they interpret that to mean that we were obsessed with cleanliness or with leisure or with small pleasures? Or will they think that we had nothing else to think about, so for hours we contemplated our ovens?

Or how about, "It's not fried chicken, Daddy! It's Shake 'N Bake, and we helped!" accompanied by a scene of twin girls (with Southern accents), grinning broadly at their father, who is eating chicken.

Posterity might figure that pleasing Pa with supper is the ultimate experience for the youngsters.

And if they see the commercial showing a stupefied man, completely lost in the laundry room, will they deduce that males are illiterate and can't read the laundry instructions? Might they conclude that only females can grasp such difficult principles of modern cleaning?

And consider glimpses of the evening news.

Scenes resembling fireworks appear on the screen, and soon a chart appears, showing the number of SCUD missiles that were successful in knocking down Iraqi missiles from the sky. The nation, the announcer says, is staying tuned to the news of the war as in no other broadcast.

Future boob-tubers likely will marvel that war became such popular entertainment. Of course, they won't have really marveled until they've seen "Entertainment Tonight."

"ET" appears with lively music and a news format, except the anchorwomen wear low-cut blouses and high-cut skirts. But soon, "news" items rapidly appear — Geraldo claims to have slept with who? Will Liz's marriage last? TV stars warn that the Earth will suffer if the rain forest disappears at its current rate. Now will people pay attention, since these experts have spoken?

Yes, our successors will quickly grasp the truth: Our news is entertainment, and our entertainment is news.

And what about soap operas? Of course, they'll probably still be popular a century from now — but the drastic events will have changed. Maybe in the future when a character is brought back to life, it won't be because he never really died — it will be because he was frozen and thawed back to life when medical technology had found a way to cure him.

Possibly the entire methods of TV programming will have changed. Maybe instead of bits of news, bits of entertainment, bits of drama and bits of comedy, each station will offer something completely different from all the others, such as is the trend on cable-TV: Channel 1, only news; Channel 2, only soap operas; Channel 3, only entertainment news; Channel 4, stand-up comics; Channel 5, only medical news; Channel 6, oddball sports; Channel 7, sports news; Channel 8, children's cartoons; Channel 9, business news; Channel 10, gardening news, etc.

It was just a few short years ago that two politicians suggested that they should be consulted first, before public dissent or rumors about the conduct of government business.

Apparently, this was an effort to quell public debate because significant decisions continue to be made without public notice, without public consultation.

Although the voters have twice defeated millages to expand the fire department, our local officials have found a way to get around the will of the people and provide favors to their friends in the bargain.

The first step was the sale of the village fire hall, even though a replacement facility had not yet been approved. This conveniently "forces" the need for a new facility. The next step is letting bids for the remodeling of the old First Federal branch on M-15 and doing work on it before the purchase transaction is even complete.

Then, they plan a too large addition and plan to pay for it by taking exorbitant "rent" money from the police millage ... when that same money would have paid for another deputy, the reason for the millage.

Now, for the fire hall (twice rejected), they initially intended to "borrow" from the sewer fund. It turns out this fund has an incredible multi-million-dollar surplus. This surplus should either be used to pay down the sewer bond or rebate it to the taxpayers. They have been "borrowing money" from the sewer fund to purchase equipment that we simply don't have the money to buy. If we don't have the money, we shouldn't be buying it.

Apparently, they have now been advised by legal counsel that this "borrowing" is inappropriate. So they will finance this construction by creating a building authority. Again, this allows them to circumvent the otherwise necessary approval of the voters.

The sewer money will also be used to buy the property down there for a new fire station. Next the township is trying to extract money from the Downtown Development Authority (DDA) to pay for the installation of a road back to the new fire station (that will, of course, significantly benefit the current landowner, but at taxpayers' expense). This kind of expenditure is well beyond the DDA's mission to increase the tax base and tax revenue with the money that would otherwise be going to the schools.

All of this is going to cost well over $1 million, and I suspect that's far more than we need to pay. But we'll never know because the decisions are largely made in private "executive sessions."

Do we need a new fire hall, fire department offices, sheriff substation, etc.? No, not until the voters decide that they are willing to pay for it. This is not merely some creative financing, but a blatant violation of the public trust. Frankly, we are not being properly represented when our public officials circumvent the expressed will of the people.

Importantly, I believe this information to be substantially true because at least one of our officials in a position to know would not deny it. If it is so important to these government officials that we have these facilities, they should again propose them to the public and this time use their energy to go into the community and persuade the voters to approve these facilities. Then, they should determine the least expensive way for the community to obtain these facilities consistent with the level of service we genuinely need.

This matter is serious enough that each of us should take the time to express our objections immediately. And, if that's not enough to make things right, we should not wait until the fall to find leaders who understand what "no" means.

Neil Wallace is an Independence Township resident.

Knock on wood just to be sure

It didn't take a Friday the 13th to remind someone to warn me it was bad luck to whistle in a print shop or newsroom. One little tweet one day in 1951 and I've seldom whistled in our shop since.

Not that I'm superstitious. I'm just not taking any chances.

The worry also goes to actors who whistle in dressing rooms and sailors whistling aboard-ship. It invites bad luck.

So, Friday's another day of concern and it should not be taken, lightly, nor is it to be scoffed at.

You know some office and hotel buildings (RenCen) do not list a 13th floor. Some airlines and arenas have no seat No. 13, but there were 13 at the Last Supper.

There's a practical reason not to walk under a ladder Friday. You may get paint spilled on you or the man on the ladder may chew tobacco.

If you do chance walking under a ladder on the 13th, immediately cross your fingers and make a wish.

Historians have rationalized that the ladder, leaning against a wall, forms a triangle, signifying the Holy Trinity. To pass through such sacred space is a punishable offense.

Perhaps you believe right is right and left is wrong. And, getting out of bed on the left may give you cause for concern and a day of misfortune and misery.

For gosh sakes, don't spill salt Friday. But if you do, toss a pinch of it over your left shoulder into the face of the devil. Trust me, the devil will be there.

This superstition is rooted in the ancient and biblical importance of salt. Salt purifies; hence it became the symbol of incorruptibility. Salt is also an emblem of justice; spill it and it's injustice.

Had enough? Naw! You'll either get seven years bad luck or a death in the family could be caused if you break a mirror. You should immediately (do not pass GO) take the pieces outside and bury them in the ground.

Incidentally, before mirrors man used a pool to see his reflection. If the surface rippled, disaster was sure to strike.

Now comes the black cat superstition. However, it's real easy to overcome any bad luck that may be generated by a black cat crossing your path. All you have to do is go right home.

The cat was linked to Satan and witches in the Middle Ages and you know what happens when you cross Satan. Bam!

Of superstitions, Mark Twain wrote, "Let me make the superstitions of a nation and I care not who makes its laws, or it songs either."

A statement like that must bring bad luck, especially if he said it on Friday the 13th.

Reporter's Notebook

Property taxes collected in Independence and Springfield townships included money paid by Consumers Power Co. in 1991. In Independence, the private landowner paid $221,973. In Springfield, it paid $114,492. In all of Oakland County, it paid $8 million to local units of government.

On March 3, a Clarkston News reader called in with the news that she had spotted the first robin of the year, so spring must certainly be on its way.

Bond issue would be a start

Curt
McAllister

It's now T-minus one month and counting until area residents are asked to vote on a bond proposal for a new elementary school.

The April 11 election will mark the third time in three years that the Clarkston Board of Education has come to the voters with a facility proposal. So far, the board is 0-2.

This time, voters will be asked to consider a bond proposal for a 70,000-square-foot elementary school at a cost not to exceed $8 million. If approved, the school will be constructed at a district-owned site near Holcomb and Bridge Lake roads. The property is about 50 acres.

The proposed building will be financed by selling current interest and capital depreciation bonds. By using this route, school officials say that the debt millage won't increase and will instead only extend current debt millage, resulting in no increase in property taxes.

However, residents will be asked to pass a subsequent millage for operational purposes. Earlier estimates from the district indicate that it would take about 1 1/2 mills to get the school on its feet.

Unlike the previous election, the board is facing no organized opposition on this proposal. Members of the disbanded Red Ribbon Committee have come forward at meetings and pledged to support this endeavor.

Even though they push for building additions and portable classrooms, they see the immediate need of the district's overcrowded elementaries.

Nearly every one of Clarkston's five elementary schools have reached or exceeded maximum capacity. Bailey Lake Elementary has well over 700 students in a school made for 500. Pine Knob and North Sashabaw elementaries are either flirting with 600 or exceeding that total.

At North Sashabaw Elementary, about half the time the music program is taught in the hall. Clarkston's kids deserve better than this.

And things are bound to get worse. So far this year, nearly 50 more students have enrolled in Clarkston's schools than projected last year. Next year, the district is projecting nearly 130 additional kids in Clarkston schools.

Many of these additions are expected to be at the elementary level.

Speaking of statistics, some very interesting ones were dropped on the visitors of the school board's Town Forum March 5. It appears that those voters who say they've got no reason to vote on school issues because they haven't any kids aren't as numerous as we thought.

According to a recent General Motors regional survey, 42 percent of all the households in the Clarkston area has a school-age child. And that same report indicates that 57 percent of the area's homes has a child.

That means somewhere along the line, your child has or is going to be enrolled in an elementary school.

Numbers like this should eliminate the "gray vote," which so many people unfairly blamed for the past two election defeats.

I could sit here and preach all day about the importance of education and how everyone should vote, but why bother? Voter apathy has become a way of life in this community and country.

Do we need another Sputnik to cause an educational revival in America? As much as we hate to compare ourselves to the Japanese these days, you have to admire the lengths to which they go, for the sake of education.

I know Clarkston is a far cry from Japan, but we have to take a chance at crawling before we can walk. And a new elementary school could be a good first step toward helping Clarkston's kids.

Motel was the site of very happy times

Jim Fitzgerald

While vacationing in a 3-bedroom, 3-bath, 3-stairway, 3-porch villa on the Gulf of Mexico near Naples, Fla., I read in the newspaper that there'd been a 3-body discovery in the Monterey Motel in Highland Park, Mich. Onward and Upward.

In the early 1960s, my family regularly vacationed at the Monterey, just a few minutes from Tiger Stadium and downtown Detroit theaters. The great thing about the Monterey was my three children could swim underwater in the motel pool while I sat in the motel bar and watched them through a window, like aquarium fish. The friendly bartender guarded my beer whenever I had to run upstairs and prevent a sibling-assisted drowning.

It's not known who murdered the three women found last month in the Monterey, now abandoned. It is unsettling to recall that, 30 years ago, my family thought the Monterey offered the ultimate in gracious living, especially when I could afford two connecting rooms - four beds! - and it wasn't necessary for the five of us to squeeze into the single room to which we were more accustomed as we motel-hopped around the nation. Because my youngest child so often had to sleep in a wheeled-in bed that unfolded, for years he was nicknamed "Rollaway Ed."

It was at the Monterey that Ed, impressed by the televised champagne christening of a new Great Lakes freighter, used a bottle of my bourbon to break the sanitary seal on the toilet seat.

In those days I was a small-town newspaper editor, and, these days, Ed is the same thing. There is satisfaction in such immortality-tinged constancy. Just as there is sorrow in the realization that today there's bloody crime and empty eyeshades where yesterday there were happy children and happier father, swimming and swilling.

As for the three-stairway villa, it also contained 10 table chairs. Which was fortunate because they were needed to build barricades in front of the stairways so 15-month-old Adam didn't add to the fortysomething stitches already scarring his fat-face. Similar precautions had to be taken to protect our landlord's property from Adam's predilection to shake, rattle and throw. It is a proud thing to be the grandfather of a child who, simply by his presence, can make a $300,000 home look like Ft. Slum under siege.

Incidentally, Adam has his Uncle Ed's red hair, but not his eating habits. I discovered this while reaching into a pretzel box and getting my hand damp. All his life, Ed has scraped off the salt before eating the pretzel. But Adam licks off the salt and puts the pretzel back in the box.

Finally, in this comparison of vacations yesterday and today, children and grandchildren, there was a 1992 moment in Florida slightly reminiscent of the 1960 "aquarium" window in the Monterey Motel bar. It was a moment that forced Grandpa to forsake his normally meek, never-complain-to-the-waiter attitude and behave like a boorish tourist.

Six-year-old granddaughter Tricia wants to be a mermaid when she grows up. Her favorite place is Florida's Weeki Wachee Spring, where Hans Christian Andersen's "The Little Mermaid" is performed by mermaids in an underwater theater. We arrived too late for the first show and, assured by spring employees that we'd be back in time for the 2 p.m. show, we took a boat ride. We did return in time, but the gate attendant proclaimed a sellout, "come back at 4:30."

Impossible; we had to be headed back toward Michigan before then. It was either see the mermaids now, or not at all. But the attendant said no way, no seats. The crushed look on Tricia's face would have made a rock weep. I announced there was always room for one more and pushed rudely past the attendant. She surely thought: "What a jerk!"

But I was a hero to Tricia, who got a good seat. I had to watch her pleasure from a distance, but close enough to note how very much Tricia looks like her mother when she swam in the Monterey pool.

At Weeki Wachee there was no beer or friendly bartender to guard it, but Onward and Upward, anyway.

Split board OK's 600-foot flag at I-75

BY DENNIS V. CARTER
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Controversy erupted over the U.S. flag at a recent Springfield Township Board meeting.

In the end, the board voted 4-3 Feb. 12 to allow Saturn North car dealership at Dixie Highway and Interstate 75 to erect a U.S. flag — a 20-by-30-foot flag atop a 80-foot flag pole, that is.

Voting yes were Supervisor Collin Walls, Clerk

Calvin Walters and trustees Dennis Vallad and Charles Oaks. Voting no were Treasurer Lois Stiles and trustees Margaret Bloom and Nancy Strole.

Strole expressed disapproval of the flag. "I feel this flag is being used as a sign," she said. "It is on an 80-foot pole and placed on a hill so it can be seen from I-75. It will be lit up at night, and I feel it is being used as marketing tool. I don't feel patriotism is measured by the square footage of a flag."

She added that the dealership was a planned unit development (PUD), which would not allow a sign of that size.

"Under the PUD, it is our (the board's) responsibility to watch out for the residents who live close to there," Strole said. "I feel this flag will be noisy and flapping all the time. It will dominate the residents of that area."

Walls, however, voiced approval of the plan. "I don't feel, given the relation to surrounding area,

"This flag is being used as a sign. ... I don't feel patriotism is measured by the square footage of a flag."

Trustee Nancy Strole

that the flag would be a detriment," said Walls. "It will be on the hill, and when you look at the other sign at this location on the hill, it doesn't look that large at all. Being on an 80-foot flag pole will make it look in proportion to the rest of the area."

Jack Houser, a representative from JH Corp. of Dearborn that will install and maintain the flag, the 80-foot flag pole is best suited for the site.

"All of the ropes and workings for the flag are inside the pole," he said. "This helps to reduce noise on windy days. Also this pole has the best structure as far as wind resistance."

According to officials at Saturn North, the flag is expected to be in place in the next few weeks.

Two charged with fast food break-in

Two Independence Township residents were arrested March 3 for allegedly breaking into and robbing the McDonald's restaurant on Sashabaw Road.

Corey Harroun, 21, and Christina Horn, 17, both of River Street, were arraigned on breaking and entering charges March 3 at the 52-2 District Court, Independence Township.

According to Oakland County Sheriff's Detective Doug Edgar, the pair broke into the restaurant on Sashabaw Road about 3 a.m. Tuesday using a key.

A VCR and the canister where people drop spare change to support the Ronald McDonald House charities were taken from the restaurant.

According to Edgar, Deputy Daniel Toth spotted the stolen goods when he stopped Harroun's car because it had improper plates.

The pair's preliminary examination is set for 8:45 a.m. Tuesday, March 10. They were released on personal bond.

Girl OK after mishap

A sixth-grader at Clarkston Junior High had quite a scare last week, but she's OK now.

On Wednesday, March 4, Andrea Blair suffered a pinched nerve in her neck while participating in gym class. The pain caused her to lose feeling in her torso and legs, so school officials called for an ambulance and the girl was rushed to Crittenton Hospital, Rochester.

CJHS Vice Principal Jan Gabier said the student doing fine, and she reported back to school on Friday, March 6.

Equipment purchased for parks department

Spring is in the air, and the Independence Parks and Recreation Department is about to gain some additional maintenance equipment.

On March 3, the township board voted 6-0 to purchase a pickup truck, a tractor and a utility maintenance vehicle. Supervisor Frank Ronk was absent from the meeting.

The 3/4-ton, extended-cab pickup will cost $16,153 and be used in parks-related tasks. The sale was awarded to the low-bidder, Dittrich GMC of Waterford, who was chosen from a field of five companies.

This truck will replace a parks-owned 1986 pickup, which has already been sold for $1,100.

The John Deere 5300 tractor will be purchased for $25,118 from Capitol Equipment in Washington, Mich. This tractor will also be used in and around the parks. Capitol Equipment was chosen over Munn Ford Tractor of Lapeer.

The diesel Cushman utility maintenance vehicle will be purchased from Lawn Equipment Sales of Pontiac for $9,805. This company outbid another business from Novi for the right to sell their machine.

This vehicle will be primarily used to clear the township's safety paths during spring, summer and fall.

All three purchases will be paid for from the township's vehicle equipment fund.

Title shared with Northern ...

BY JAMES GIBOWSKI
Clarkston News Staff Writer

An 11-2 run in the third quarter, largely created by some strong rebounding, helped Pontiac Northern to a 73-64 victory over Clarkston.

The game was played before a packed house at the Husky gym.

The win earned Pontiac Northern a share of the Greater Oakland Activities League title as both teams finished with 9-1 marks.

"We didn't do a good job of blocking them out," said Clarkston coach Dan Fife.

The loss was the second for the Wolves in nearly 24 hours (Clarkston loss the previous night to Troy Athens).

"I couldn't tell you when we last lost two games in-a-row," said Fife, whose team went from 16-2 to 16-4 after the two nights of action.

The two losses came before the Wolves began districts. Pontiac Northern coach Sy Green, who said he likes his team's chances in their own district especially after the way the Huskies played against Clarkston, predicted the Wolves' two-game losing streak will end.

"Don't worry. Danny (Fife) will get them ready for districts," said Green.

Green's Huskies and Fife's Wolves had a seesaw battle in the first half. A hot-shooting Luke Fedio, who finished with a game-high 24, kept the Wolves within striking distance.

Seconds after Freeman Jones' dunk thrilled the Husky faithful to give Northern a 16-10 lead with 1:14 left in the first quarter, Fedio answered with a 3-pointer from the right side. That successful launch was just the start as Fedio scored 11 points in less than 90 seconds. Three 3-pointers and a field goal by Fedio (along with three Dugan Fife free throws after being fouled in 3-point range) gave the Wolves a 24-20 lead with 7:45 left before the half and suddenly lifted the spirits and noise-level of the Clarkston fans.

"Luke played extremely well," said Dan Fife.

But the lead because of Fedio's dramatics ended up being one of the Wolves' last leads of the night.

Northern regained the lead and took a 44-40 advantage into halftime. Clarkston pulled to within 1-point several times but then never recovered after the Huskies' 11-2 bulge gave the hosts a 55-45 lead.

Sean Whitlock (23 points) and Jones (21 points) were the two main Huskies that hurt the Wolves.

Clarkston's Dugan Fife, suffering for a second-straight day with the flu, was off the mark and scored 20 to go along with Fedio's 24. Jon Wyniemo and Nick Shires each scored six, Sean Halleran had four and Chris Combs and Jeremy Fife each had two.

Troy Athens 58, CLARKSTON 57 (March 5 at Troy Athens)

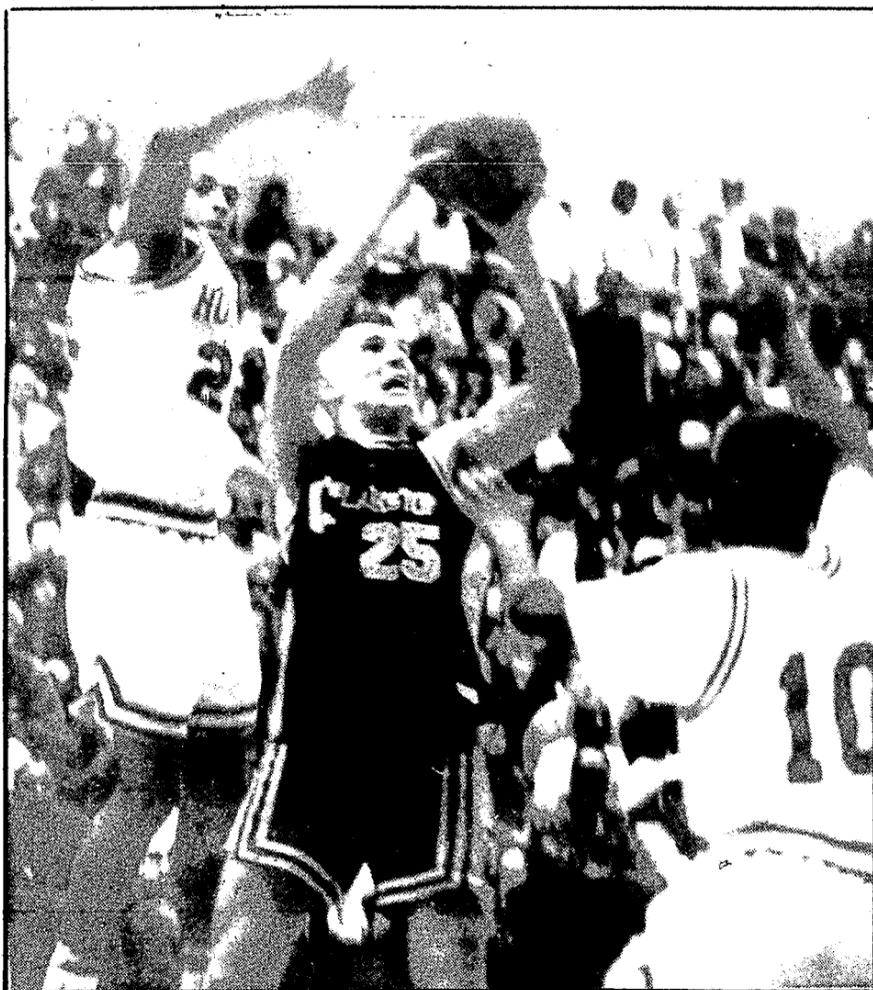

A 3-point buzzer beater at the finish by Troy Athens' Mike Johnson gave the Red Hawks a 58-57 upset over Clarkston.

Athens, 7-13, jumped out to a 14-7 first quarter lead. The Red Hawks continued to lead 27-19 at the half and 46-36 after three quarters.

The Wolves came back in the fourth and Dugan Fife's two free throws put Clarkston ahead 57-55. But then Johnson hit the game winner.

Fife, suffering from the flu, scored 24. Luke Fedio netted 14, Nick Shires had seven, Sean Halleran, Derek Wiley and Jeremy Fife each had four.

Bill Eminger scored 14 for Athens and Johnson had 10.

LUKE Fedio (25) was trouble for the Huskies all night, scoring 24 points. But it wasn't enough as Northern topped Clarkston, 73-64. (Related photo on page 19-A)

... 'March Madness' begins

Clarkston's pressing defense wasn't as tough as normal but it was good enough to stop Lapeer East in the Class A district opener Monday.

The Wolves defeated Lapeer East, 69-58, on the Eagle court.

"Defensively, we didn't play well," said Clarkston coach Dan Fife, whose team raised its record to 17-4 after the win. Lapeer East ended its season at 14-7.

NOTE: Results from Clarkston's second district basketball game against Holly were unavailable because of press deadlines. If the Wolves did defeat Holly, Clarkston will play the Lake Orion-Lapeer West winner at 7 p.m. Friday at Lapeer East High School for the district championship.

In the opening minutes of action, the game was stopped after Lapeer East team high-scorer Brandon Fisher, son of Lapeer East coach Ardie Fisher, was injured. After Fisher became airborne because of a Dugan Fife head fake, the Eagle landed on Fife's shoulder, fell to the floor and hit his head on the floor. Fisher was unconscious for about a half minute and didn't leave the floor for about 30 minutes as an emergency medical crew worked on him.

The game continued with Clarkston taking a 15-11 lead after the first quarter and a 31-24 halftime advantage.

The Wolves extended that lead to 53-41 after three quarters and then held on for the win.

Dugan Fife finished with a game-high 26 points (three 3-pointers) and Jon Wyniemo had a strong offensive game scoring 17.

Derek Wiley, who sat out parts of two recent games because of disciplinary reasons, scored eight. Luke Fedio (one 3-pointer) also totaled eight, Sean Halleran had seven and Jeremy Burke added three.

There were 52 fouls called in the game. Clarkston sank 19-of-27 free throws and Lapeer East made 16-of-26.

Netters reach district finals but fall to Mott

HEATHER Steinhelper concentrates on the ball before a kill against Lakeland.

Wolves forced to come back twice against the Corsairs

BY JAMES GIBOWSKI
Clarkston News Staff Writer

The waiting is over for Waterford Mott.

The waiting continues for Clarkston. Mott won its first-ever district volleyball championship March 7 by stopping the Wolves in the finals 16-14, 15-3.

Clarkston last won a district in 1987. "We didn't play badly, but we couldn't take advantage of what we created," said Clarkston coach Gordie Richardson, whose team reached the finals by first defeating host Lakeland and then Pontiac Central. "Mott played good defense. And they really came after us."

The two teams had split matches during Greater Oakland Activities League regular-season action (the Wolves finished second in the GOAL and Mott was third).

Clarkston finished its season at 22-14-6. Mott, 21-11-4, advances to the regionals which will also be played at Lakeland.

Mott, which reached the finals by edging arch-rival Waterford Kettering in three games after first stopping Pontiac Northern, opened with big leads in both games against Clarkston. Laura Langdon's steady serving helped the Corsairs open with a 9-1 advantage in the first game.

But strong serving by Stacey Tinkis, Stephanie Ranta and Heather Steinhelper helped the Wolves win 13 of 16 points to put Clarkston ahead 14-12.

Mott cut the lead to 14-13, where it stayed for several volleys as both teams played tough defense.

But the Corsairs finally broke through and took the first game, 16-14.

Did the comeback, which fell a point short, seriously hurt the Wolves in the second game?

"It sure seems like it," said Richardson. The coach said Mott is a very emotional team and the Wolves needed to stop that emotion in the opening game.

Instead, Mott's emotion and solid play helped build another huge lead (9-0) in the second game. But Clarkston couldn't muster another comeback and the Corsairs won easily, 15-3, for the title.

Richardson said there was one facet of the Wolves' game which was below normal.

"The only thing that let us down was our serving," said the coach. Clarkston served less than 80 percent.

Richardson said the Corsairs also did a good job of keeping the ball away from Clarkston's top killer, Heather Steinhelper. The junior only had four kills, which was still a team high.

Steinhelper also was 13-of-13 in attacks and finished with 14 digs, seven assists and four blocks.

Laura Garlitz, Deanna Lisle and Stephanie Ranta each had two kills. Ranta served 3-of-3 with two aces.

Lisle returned 8-of-8 serves, Caroline Allison was 7-of-7 and Stacey Tinkis 11-of-12.

Tracey Ortwine led the Wolves with 18 digs.

Clarkston reached the finals by topping Pontiac Central in the semifinals 15-11, 15-12.

"Pontiac Central did some smart things," said Richardson. "They put the ball right back in play and caught us scrambling around a lot."

But the Wolves managed to do some effective unscrambling with some heavy net action. Steinhelper pounded 18 kills, Garlitz had nine and Jennie Oliver four.

Heather Austin had 10 assists, Steinhelper seven and Tinkis six.

Ortwine served 7-of-7 with one ace. Lisle and Allison each had a pair of aces.

Tinkis led the Wolves on defense, returning 15-of-15 serves and hitting 11 digs. Austin had nine digs, Steinhelper seven, Allison six and Lisle five. Garlitz had three blocks.

Clarkston eliminated Lakeland in the opener 15-6, 15-7.

"We played very well," said Richardson. "We attacked the ball real well. They (Lakeland) had a lot of serve return errors."

Austin led the Wolves in three areas: assists (six), digs (eight), and serving (13-of-13 with three aces).

Steinhelper was 17-of-21 in attacks with 11 kills, Garlitz 5-of-6 with two kills and Ortwine 4-of-5 with one kill.

Ortwine served 9-of-10 with a team-high six aces and Tinkis served 6-of-6 with three aces.

Defensively, Allison returned 6-of-7 serves and Ortwine 3-of-3. Garlitz had one block.

The Wolves will be losing about half of its team to graduation: Tinkis, Ortwine, Garlitz, Lisle, Allison and Brenda Bailey are seniors.

THE Wolves shared a joyful moment after winning a point against Lakeland, but Mott later stopped the fun in the finals. (Related photo on page 19-A)

Morgan top walker at national meet

Gary Morgan is getting in step for the Olympics this summer in Barcelona, Spain.

Morgan, an Independence Township resident who competed in the Olympics four years ago in Seoul, South Korea, finished first in the 5,000 meter walk at the TAC (The Athletic Congress) National Indoor Track and Field Championships in New York Feb. 28.

Morgan, 32, finished the walk around the Madison Square Garden track in 19:55. Tim Lewis of Colorado Springs took second at 20:17.

"That was my best time ever," said Morgan, who won the event for the first time in the 10 years he has competed in the event in New York.

Morgan's goal is to once again compete in the longer 20K walk at the Olympics.

"I feel good. I'm on the right road. My goal is to win the trials like I won it four years ago," said Morgan, who will compete at the United States Olympic Trials in New Orleans June 24.

Before going to the trials, Morgan will face some of the world's best speed walkers at a meet in Mexico in April.

Morgan said his 20K (about 12 1/2 miles) in Mexico will give a good indication of how well he might do in New Orleans. The walker would like to cut his time down to one hour 24 minutes at the trials.

Mat Leineke

Sophomore will ski at Lake Placid

This weekend, Clarkston High School sophomore Mat Leineke will be competing at the USSA Mogul freestyle junior nationals in Lake Placid, New York.

Leineke earned the trip to the nationals by finishing sixth in his age group at the central divisionals in Minnesota (at the Giant Ridge Ski Resort) Feb. 29.

Two other skiers from Michigan will compete with Leineke at the event, Wendy Wagner of Romeo and Tim Warner, a student at Pierce Junior High in Waterford.

Clarkston AD jailed for good cause

Clarkston Athletic Director Paul Tungate has seen plenty of referees wearing stripes.

Last Friday, Tungate was wearing stripes of his own... in the Oakland County Jail.

Tungate was "arrested" at 9 a.m. as part of the American Cancer Society Great American Lock Up (see related story on page 5-A).

"My first reaction was 'What did I do?'" said Tungate when he was arrested.

People can pay $25 to have someone arrested. As of Tuesday, Tungate still didn't know who paid to send him to the slammer.

He was driven to the jail in a sheriff's car and then a judge sentenced him to $500 bail after accusing him of "having too much fun with jocks."

Tungate then was allowed more than the traditional one phone call, dialing numbers of friends who he hoped would bail him out.

In only two hours, Tungate received $620 of pledges and was set free.

Freed in time to attend the Clarkston versus Pontiac Northern basketball game in Pontiac that evening.

2 local skiers help Marian at finals

Two Birmingham Marian High School skiers who live in Independence Township placed high at the state finals at Sugar Loaf Resort March 2.

Natalie Burge, a senior, finished 11th in the slalom (58.42 seconds) and 19th in the giant slalom (47.84).

Sophomore Beth Garrett finished 43rd in the G.S. at the finals. Earlier in the season, Garrett had finished second overall at the annual Don Thomas JV meet at Pine Knob Ski Resort.

Marian's team ended up fourth at the state finals.

Local man sinks ace on Florida course

Terry Thomas of Independence Township recently sank a hole-in-one on the par-3, 155-yard 16th hole at Tanglewood Golf and Country Club in Milton, Fla.

Balzarini earns trip to 3rd nationals

For the third time, Don Balzarini will be skiing in the Grand Marnier Chefs Ski Race finals.

Balzarini earned a trip to the nationals at Taos, N.M. in April by placing first (in the 56-and-over division) at the Midwest Regional at Boyne Highlands.

The manager of the Pine Knob Ski Resort finished second in the finals two years ago in Aspen, Colo. and second three years ago in Sun Valley, Idaho.

"I'm going with the intention of winning," said Balzarini about his trip to Taos.

Pine Knob Ski Resort assistant manager Lori Walker just missed a trip to finals, finishing second in her age group at the midwest regional. Clarkston High School assistant ski coach Steven Townes, a chef at Haymakers in Lake Orion, finished third.

Nintendo game floors Clarkston wrestler

Jon Roy

BY JAMES GIBOWSKI
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Clarkston heavyweight wrestler Jon Roy had been pinned before but never the way the "American Gladiators" sent him to the floor.

Roy, a junior, suffered a grand mal seizure after playing Nintendo's "American Gladiators" Feb. 9 at his house. The seizures can be triggered by the game's flashing lights.

The illness prevented Roy from competing in the last few weeks of the wrestling season.

He has been playing Nintendo since Christmas and just started to play "American Gladiators" the weekend of the seizure.

After playing the game for about 15 minutes, Roy fell back on a folding chair after suffering the seizure. His mother heard the sound and immediately called an ambulance.

"I blacked out for six minutes," said Roy, who never had any previous sei-

(This warning is included with most Nintendo games)

READ BEFORE USING YOUR NES

A very small portion of the population may experience epileptic seizures when viewing certain kinds of flashing lights or patterns that are commonly present in our daily environment. These persons may experience seizures while watching some kinds of television pictures or playing certain video games. Players who have not had any previous seizures may nonetheless have an undetected epileptic condition. We suggest that you consult your physician if you have an epileptic condition or if you experience any of the following symptoms while playing video games: altered vision, muscle twitching, other involuntary movements, loss of awareness of your surroundings, mental confusion, and/or convulsions.

zures.

He regained consciousness before the ambulance arrived but still went to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital emergency room for tests. His electroencephalogram (EEG) and CAT scan tests proved negative. Roy also had to stay overnight.

He said his friends and family were "very supportive," visiting him at the hospital.

Roy, who said he always has been aware of the warning label fastened on the games, said, "I was told I can still play Nintendo, but just not the 'American Gladiators.'"

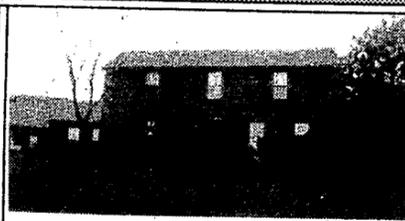

Anyone playing Nintendo has to wrestle with the possibility of a seizure.

Boost from boosters

CLARKSTON High School interim principal Mel Vaara received the Clarkston Athletic Booster's annual Recognition Award during halftime ceremonies of the Brandon versus Clarkston varsity basketball game Feb. 25. Inscribed on the award are the words, "In appreciation of his continuous support throughout the years to our athletic programs in the Clarkston Community School District. Vaara, who has been a teacher, administrator and coach during his 37 years with Clarkston schools, said he probably has missed fewer than five varsity football games during that span. But Vaara added, "I'm not just partial to football and basketball." Vaara said some of his most favorite Clarkston sports events he witnessed included the state semifinal basketball game when Tim McCormick played, the state championship baseball game won when Steve Howe pitched, the last basketball game played by Dan Fife during his senior year against Pontiac Central and the state championship won by last year's wrestling team. Vaara said he is also proud of once coaching an undefeated JV basketball team in 1962.

KIDDIE KICKER SOCCER

Registration for Kiddie Kicker Soccer is now through March 31 at the rec. center. The soccer program is for 4-6 year olds (born between Aug. 1, 1985 and Aug. 1, 1988).

Soccer action begins May 2 and continues to June 13. Matches will be played at Clintonwood Park on Saturdays from 10 to 11 a.m. or from 11 a.m. to noon. Participants will receive a T-shirt.

ADULT SOFTBALL TEAM REGISTRATION

The rec. department is now accepting registrations for returning adult softball teams.

Starting March 9, registrations for new resident teams will be take. Starting March 16, registrations will be accepted for new non-resident teams on a first-come, first-served basis.

This year the Parks and Recreation Department is featuring a new Women's 30-and-Over league with games to be held on Monday nights.

All-league play begins the week of May 10.

The leagues being offered are co-rec, co-rec 55-and-over, men's, men's 35-and-over, men's 45-and-over, men's 60-and-over, women's and women's 30-and-over.

COUNTRY WESTERN DANCE SPRING CLASSES

Spring classes for Country Western Dance will begin Tuesday, March 24, from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Students will be introduced to the Texas two-step, western polka, cha-cha and line dances. Posture, balance and footwork will be stressed. Classes run eight weeks with fees being $28 for residents and $38 for non-residents.

MORNING AEROBICS

Reduce fat and lose inches.

This class will be a combination of high and low impact aerobics followed by muscle toning.

Classes are held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. The spring session will begin April 6 and continue for eight weeks. Cost is $39 for two days per week, $49 for three days per week and $54 unlimited.

WALK MICHIGAN PROGRAM

Walk Michigan is a non-competitive annual fitness program, organized to promote good health, sponsored by Blue Cross Blue Shield, Blue Care Network, the Michigan Recreation and Park Association and the Independence Township Parks and Recreation Department.

Walkers of all ages have an opportunity to participate in these walks. The Independence Township Walk Michigan-sanctioned walks are scheduled as follows: (March 24) Clarkston High School, 3 to 7 p.m.; (April 1) Clarkston High School, 3 to 7 p.m.; (April 14) Clarkston High School, 3 to 7 p.m.

For each Walk Michigan-sanctioned event, participants can register for an all-expense paid trip for two to the Governor's Annual Mackinac Bridge Walk on Labor Day morning.

HORSEBACK RIDING APPETIZER

This is a one-day class that will allow you to experience horseback riding without signing up for a full session.

The riding, which is for anyone 7 years old and older, will take place Saturday, March 21 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The cost is $10 per person.

BASEBALL CAMP INFORMATION

The junior varsity baseball coaching staff, along with other baseball personalities, will be offering a baseball camp for those boys and girls between the ages of 7 and 15.

The camp is designed to enhance and improve overall baseball skills and sportsmanship. Controlled scrimmages will also be incorporated during the five-day camp.

The camp begins Tuesday, June 16, and runs through Saturday, June 20. Tuesday through Friday the camp meets from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., and Saturday it meets from 9 a.m. to noon.

Participants will be allowed 45 minutes each day for lunch. Beverage will be provided.

Each participant will receive a Baseball Camp T-Shirt (the camp will not conflict with the youth baseball/softball program).

The location will be announced at a later date.

JUNIOR BASEBALL EARLY-BIRD REGISTRATION

Junior baseball is only a few months away. Early-bird registration continues through March 23. Cost is $35 for residents and $45 for non-residents.

Regular registration is March 24-31. Cost is $45 for residents and $55 for non-residents.

Under the family fee schedule, the first two children pay full price and any additional children pay half-price.

SOCCER REFEREE CLINIC

A soccer referee clinic will be held this winter to train interested candidates. Youth leagues in Independence Township, Waterford, Oxford, Brandon and Lake Orion need more referees for spring, summer and fall leagues.

The clinic begins 7 p.m. Friday, March 13, and continues March 14 and 15 at Clintonwood Park.

Candidates must be 14 years old by April 1, 1992. The clinic and registration fee with USSF is $45, which includes a rule book and course materials.

The course includes 18 hours of instruction by certified USSF instructors with a written test at completion.

For more information, call Ken Wikle at 625-6438.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Absentee dead'line nears for primary

Anyone wanting to vote absentee ballot in the March 17 Presidential Primary election will have to act fast.

The deadline for ballots to be mailed is Saturday, March 14, at 2 p.m. However, those qualified to vote absentee may vote in the clerk's office until 4 p.m. on Monday, March 16.

To qualify for absentee ballots, a person must qualify for one of the following categories:

■ I expect to be absent from the community in which I am registered for the entire time the polls are open on election day.

■ I am physically unable to attend the polls without the assistance of another.

■ I cannot attend the polls because of the tenets of my religion.

■ I have been appointed an election precinct inspector other than the precinct where I reside.

■ I am 60 years of age or older.

■ I cannot attend the polls because I am confined to jail awaiting arraignment or trial.

Independence Township residents who qualify and wish to vote absentee should call the clerk's office at 625-5111 or write the clerk at 90 N. Main St., P.O. Box 69, Clarkston, MI 48347, for an application, which must be signed and returned before a ballot can be issued.

Board amends, OK's Lake Shore site plan

Within the next couple of months construction should begin on an 11-unit condominium project in Springfield Township.

Plans for the project were amended and then unanimously approved by the Springfield Township Board Feb. 12.

"What we did was to amend an already exiting plan which had called for 27 units," said township Supervisor Collin Walls. "The 27 units had already been approved and recorded. So we felt this was a better option than the 27-unit project."

According to Walls, the developer of the 2-acre Lake Shore Pines plans to begin construction in the next two months.

The project is located behind Springfield Pines on Dixie Highway and is to feature ranch-style, 13,000-square-foot units with attached two-car garages.

Makeovers call forth glamour

HEIDI Deo of Independence Township colors the hair Charlene LeRoy of Utica after cutting off 8 inches. LeRoy, the mother of twins, changed from a brunette to a redhead at the advice of Jeffrey Bruce, who said everyone on the panel was "good looking this time."

BY JULIE CAMPE
Clarkston News Editor

Charlene LeRoy calmly looked in the mirror, while hair dresser Heidi Deo squeezed a reddish color into her hair.

Now and then, LeRoy smiled as she and Deo talked. LeRoy had driven all the way from Utica for this hair appointment at the Glitz Salon of Clarkston.

But this was no ordinary trip to the salon. This was an event, an adventure.

For this day, LeRoy had left her twins — Paige and Lily, 4 and 2 — with her mother. And in another week, LeRoy would appear on television, along with a few other "models," for makeup artist Jeffrey Bruce's appearance on "Kelly & Co."

Reflections

The Clarkston News

Wednesday, March 11, 1992

LeRoy was chosen for the program on the basis of a Polaroid snapshot and a short letter. She said she told Bruce that she was "a stressed-out mom." A makeover would be just the thing to improve her spirits.

So there she was, sitting in the Glitz Salon, relaxing even — despite the fact that Deo had just cut 8 inches from her brown hair and was now turning it red.

"It's a drastic change," admitted LeRoy. "But I feel I'm in good hands. I'm not nervous at all."

Neither was Deo, even though her work would be seen by thousands on Detroit television.

She — and six other top stylists at the Glitz — have done all sorts of makeovers, explained Deo of Independence Township, though never for television.

And in the end, it all worked out. LeRoy was beautiful as a redhead, and her makeover was probably the most pronounced change of the panel that appeared on "Kelly & Company."

JEFFREY Bruce gives makeup pointers with help from Charlene LeRoy's "new" look. Bruce regularly appears on "Kelly & Company" and gives makeup consultations occasionally in the Detroit area. He appears at the Glitz Salon in Clarkston on Saturday, March 7.

AFTER her makeover, Charlene LeRoy of Utica had become a redhead and had lost 8 inches of her thick brown hair.

Salon takes part in Detroit TV makeover program

All in all, it was an enjoyable project, said Cherie Barnett, owner of the Glitz.

Barnett met Bruce through her sister, Lori Brewer, who works as a sales representative for Bruce.

"I love him," said Barnett. "He is more darned fun. He's such an example."

Even though he's a national celebrity from New York, "he's very friendly and so reachable," said Barnett.

And she's thrilled that he chose her salon to work with and sell his makeup products, she said. He has boosted business — not that it needed any boosting. Open about two years, the Glitz business has been booming — as has its Rochester location, open only one year.

"I'm just over the moon," said Barnett. "There's no recession in our business. We're breaking records every week. Women are spending money. It's a myth that they're not."

And she understands that search for beauty. "Everybody wants an extra step to be more beautiful," she said.

After a makeover, "everything is re-done. They walk out of the salon a totally different person," said Barnett.

Bruce, who gave a phone interview for the occasion, also understands that search, that yearning of women, he said.

"I love (Jeffrey Bruce). He is more darned fun. He's such an example."

Cherie Barnett

Women make themselves up "because they can," he said.

"It's totally accepted" by society, said Bruce.

He particularly understands the aging woman, he said, explaining that most of his TV audience is composed of middle-age women.

When women begin to age, they need more makeup, better applied, he said, adding, "There's nothing to making up an 18-year-old."

For instance, women in their 40s are in a "time warp."

"They don't realize their faces change," he said. "Their clothes have changed, but their faces haven't. They hold onto the same look."

The average 40-year-old has two teen-age kids with no time to indulge herself, he said.

"I understand them — I don't take nonsense," he said.

"They cannot be objective about a subjective situation. They don't know when they look good. Their husbands see them as the same."

Makeovers can make a person feel better about herself, he said.

"People are concerned about the most vulnerable part of their bodies — their face. They're not happy with how they look," he said. "They have to be happy with themselves."

But if you look good, you often feel good, he said. "If you have a cold or the flu, put on a little mascara and lipstick, — you'll feel better."

Bruce, who doesn't use professional models for his TV appearances, said he never follows trends.

"I have never varied a look for 28 years. ... Can you imagine Barbara Bush in heavy eyebrows and eyelashes?"

He noted that khaki was popular for years, although it made 90 percent of people look sallow. He also said that black, white, brown, beige, green and red make most people look faded. The solution? "Just wear more makeup," he said.

And women should once a year go for "a tuneup" with someone whose work they admire, he said. It can be refreshing and can keep women on the right track.

Artist Jeffrey Bruce to 'converse' with Clarkston clients

The demand for "conversations" with Jeffrey Bruce is so high that Glitz owner Cherie Barnett has scheduled a third day of consultations with the nationally known makeup artist.

The first two sessions filled up immediately, she said. "We were totally booked."

But area residents have another chance to talk with Bruce 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday, April 20, at the Glitz Salon of Clarkston in Independence Pointe, M-15, Independence Township.

The $50 (pre-paid) session includes the following:

- Bruce will talk with four clients at a time for 20 minutes.
- Then, an individual follow-up appointment takes place with a makeup artist trained by Bruce or his assistant. In that, the client will receive a makeup "lesson."
- The final session includes a meeting with a makeup artist during which the client does her own makeup and may ask questions or receive comments from the makeup artist.
- $10 of the cost goes toward the makeup product.

REAL ESTATE UPDATE

IF THE IRS CALLS

QUESTION: We sold our home two years ago and took a lot of deductions. We were just audited by the IRS and I had a problem substantiating the deductions. How do you minimize this type of trauma?

ANSWER: Make a permanent file of all ownership papers - mortgage, cancelled checks showing purchase costs, etc. Also keep all evidence of home improvements - receipts, contracts, and cancelled checks.

Document maintenance costs for fixing up within 90 days of the sale. Many of these items can be deducted from your capital gains and reduce the tax you'll have to pay as well as satisfy an audit.

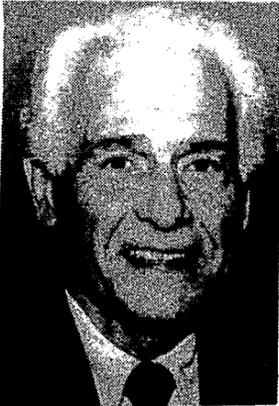

GOOD RECORD KEEPING will minimize the trauma of an IRS audit of your home sale.

Mallett, daughter of Charles Mallett of Perry Lake Road, Independence Township, and Marjorie Mallett-Chandler of Richmond, Va., is a senior with a major in sociology and human services.

She is a 1988 graduate of Clarkston High School and was one of eight seniors honored for development work.

Phonorama is a semi-annual fund-raising campaign where students and alumni telephone parents and alumni on behalf of the college.

Freshman Jennifer L. Fussman of Glenburnie Lane, Independence Township, was named to the dean's list for the fall semester 1991 at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio. She is the daughter of Betty Jo Fussman.

In service

Pvt. Jacqueline A. Messing has completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C. A 1987 Clarkston High School graduate, she is the daughter of Jermia W. and Jean A. Messing of Paula Drive, Independence Township.

New arrivals

Robert and Judy Lawson of Delhi Street, Independence Township, are the proud parents of a new baby boy. Matthew Garrett Lawson was born Sunday, Feb. 16, 1992, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac at 9:11 a.m. He weighed 7 pounds, 2 ounces, and measured 20 inches long. Matthew's three brothers are: Scott Lawson, Christopher Lawson and Jason Pace. Scott and his wife, Tammy, live on Crabapple Street. Chris and his wife, Debbe, live in Attica and just had a baby, Kyle, in January. Jason is in eighth grade at Sashabaw Junior High. Proud grandparents include Marion Lawson-Cox and her husband Bernie Cox of Clarkston, and Norbert and Delphine Wier of Detroit. Matthew's only aunt and uncle are Les and Sue Skalski of Mount Clemens. According to Matthew's mother, "There are a lot of people in Clarkston who followed my pregnancy and anxiously awaited Matthew's birth. I want them to know he's happy, healthy and cute as a button."

John M. Waddell Jr. of Orange, Calif., and Jeanne (Herron) Waddell, formerly of Clarkston, are the proud parents of a new baby boy.

John (Jack) Morris Waddell III was born Feb. 5, 1992, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Orange, Calif. He weighed 8 pounds, 6 ounces, and measured 20 inches long.

He has one brother, Mark Garland, 5 1/2.

Sutton, Walsh exchange vows

Kylie Lynn Sutton and William Bradford Walsh II were united in marriage Sept. 14, 1991, at St. Augustine Anglican Church, Vancouver, British Columbia.

The Rev. Patricia Black performed the 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony.

The church altar was decorated with fall flowers on the altar, and each pew had bows with dendrobium orchids and baby's breath. Chamber musicians entertained family and guests.

The bride, a 1990 graduate of Lake Superior State University, Sault Ste. Marie, currently attends the University of Washington in Seattle.

The bridegroom, a 1985 graduate of Our Lady of the Lakes High School, Waterford, also attended Lake Superior State University and is currently a mechanical engineer at Fatigue Technology, Inc., in Seattle. He is the son of Linda Walsh of Clarkston and the late William B. Walsh.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother, Jim and Noella Sutton of Port Alberni, British Columbia.

The bride wore a full-length white satin gown, featuring a V neckline, lambchop sleeves and fitted bodice sparkled with beads, sequins and lace. The cathedral-length train with lace and beaded inlay glowed behind her.

The bride and her matron of honor Toni McCormick (her sister) both carried a bouquet of rhubrum lillies and baby's breath.

Philip Rutowski of Clarkston was best man. Julie Walsh of Clarkston, sister of the groom, and Jason Sutton of Port Alberni, British Columbia, brother of the bride, were the attendants.

A reception and formal dinner was served during a cruise aboard the Gulfstream II. Family and guests were entertained with music and dancing while cruising the harbor of Vancouver.

The couple visited Disneyland in Anaheim, Calif., for their honeymoon. They now reside in Seattle.

NEWLYWEDS: Mr. and Mrs. William Walsh II.

Club notes

Several received awards from Chief Pontiac Post No. 377 American Legion and Auxiliary recently during the annual Americanism Dinner.

Free trees offered

Joining The National Arbor Day Foundation in March will harvest you 10 free Colorado blue spruce trees.

The free trees are part of the non-profit foundation's Trees for America campaign.

According to the foundation, Colorado blue spruces were selected for this campaign because of their many uses in the home landscape.

"They lend a beauty to their surroundings with their silver blue-green color and compact conical shape," said John Rosenow, the foundation's executive director. "They can be used as individual ornamental, and energy-saving windbreak, a privacy screen, or as living Christmas trees."

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between April 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions.

The 6- to 12-inch trees are guaranteed to grow, or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to TEN BLUE SPRUCES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE, 68410, by March 31, 1992.

ACT workshops set

High school students have two opportunities for help before they take the ACT test this spring.

Registration for two workshops is underway at the Clarkston Community Education Center.

A six-hour workshop by Profiles Corp. of Iowa is set for 6-9 p.m. Monday and Tuesday, March 16 and 17, at Clarkston High School on Waldon Road. The workshop is designed to help students achieve the highest possible score, reduce test anxiety and negative effects and teach general and specific strategies. The $42 workshop fee includes text.

On May 18, a second workshop is set for 5:30-8:30 p.m. at Sashabaw Junior High School off Maybee Road. Cost is $22. The workshop offers a text plus many strategies, which include shortcuts and practice materials and a general overview.

The Clarkston Community Education Center is at 5275 Maybee Road, Independence Township. For more information, call Jeanne at 674-3141.

Pet of the Week

Baby Gray's OK

Baby Gray is a little on the shy side and he's looking for a home.

This 2-year-old Russian blue is housetrained and neutered. He has a sweet disposition but is scared of other pets, so he's recommended for a household void of other animals.

His adoption fee is $25.

To see Baby Gray, visit the Michigan Humane Society, 3600 Auburn Road, Rochester Hills, 852-7420. Hours at the non-profit shelter are 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Irish introduced potato to America in 1800s

They say that on St. Patrick's Day everyone is Irish. If that's true, then everyone can claim the potato as their native food.

Although it was introduced to North America in the early 1700s, the potato did not catch on in this country until over 1 million Irish immigrants brought it to the New World when they fled from the Irish potato famine of 1845.

Catching on quickly, the potato became an American favorite until national affluence and the increased consumption of animal foods caused it to be labeled a "poor man's filler."

According to Weight Watchers International, an average potato contains only 100 calories, no fat and is high in complex carbohydrates, vitamin C and vitamin B6 — an excellent food for healthy Americans.

Weight Watchers' St. Patrick's Day ideas for serving potatoes follow:

BAKED POTATO BAR

If you're having a party, consider having a baked potato "bar," with toppings such as reduced-fat sour cream, grated low-fat cheeses, salsa, mustard, chives, steamed broccoli in low-fat cheese sauce, chili made with lean ground beef, or cream chipped beef made with a white sauce using reduced calorie margarine.

POTATO CREPES

(Makes 2 servings, 2 crepes each)

6 ounces pared baking potato, shredded

1/2 cup grated onion

3 egg whites

1 tablespoon all-purpose flour

Dash each white pepper and ground nutmeg

2 teaspoons vegetable oil, divided

12 asparagus spears, cooked

3/4 ounce reduced-fat Swiss cheese, shredded

1/4 cup plain low-fat yogurt

1. In medium mixing bowl, combine potato, onion, egg whites, flour, pepper and nutmeg; mix well.

2. Spray 9-inch nonstick skillet with nonstick cooking spray and heat; brush with 1/2 teaspoon oil. Pour 1/4 of potato mixture into skillet and, using the back of a spoon, spread mixture over bottom of pan; cook over medium-high heat until bottom is browned, about 1 minute. Using a pancake turner, carefully turn crepe over and cook over medium heat until other side is browned, about 1 minute longer.

3. Repeat procedure 3 more times, using remaining oil and potato mixture and making 3 more crepes.

4. Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Onto center of each crepe, arrange 3 asparagus spears; fold sides of crepes over to enclose asparagus.

5. In 8 x 8 x 2-inch baking dish, arrange crepes, seam-side down; sprinkle with cheese. Bake until asparagus are heated through, about 10 minutes.

6. Top each crepe with 1 tablespoon yogurt.

(Per serving: 233 calories, 16 g protein, 7 g fat, 27 g carbohydrate, 223 mg calcium, 127 mg sodium, 9 mg cholesterol, 3 g dietary fiber.)

PIZZA STUFFED POTATO

(Makes 2 servings)

1 baking potato (6 ounces), baked

1 1/2 ounces mozzarella cheese, shredded, divided

1/4 cup each tomato sauce and part-skim ricotta cheese

1/8 teaspoon each oregano leaves and garlic powder

2 teaspoons grated Parmesan cheese

1. Preheat oven to 450 degrees. Cut potato in half lengthwise. Scoop out pulp from potato halves into a bowl, leaving 1/4-inch thick shells; mash pulp and reserve shells.

2. Add 1 ounce mozzarella cheese, the tomato sauce, ricotta cheese, oregano and garlic powder to potato pulp and stir to combine.

3. Spoon half of potato mixture into each reserved shell; top each with half of the remaining mozzarella cheese and half of the Parmesan cheese. Set potato shells in 1-quart casserole and bake until thoroughly heated, about 10 minutes.

(Per serving: 182 calories, 11 g protein, 8 g fat, 19 g carbohydrates, 233 mg calcium, 339 mg sodium, 27 mg cholesterol, 2 g dietary fiber.)

SCALLOPED POTATOES AND LEEKS

(Makes 2 servings)

9 ounces pared all-purpose potatoes, thinly sliced

1/2 cup thoroughly washed sliced leeks (white portion and some green)

1 1/2 ounces reduced-fat Swiss cheese, shredded

1/8 teaspoon each salt and white pepper

1/2 cup canned ready-to-serve low-sodium chicken broth

1. Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Spray 9-inch pie plate with nonstick cooking spray and arrange half of the potato slices in plate. Top with half of leeks, half of the cheese, the remaining potato slices, and the remaining leeks. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and then top with remaining cheese.

2. Pour broth evenly over cheese and bake until potatoes are fork-tender, 15-20 minutes.

(Per serving: 193 calories, 12 g protein, 5 g fat, 28 g carbohydrate, 288 mg calcium, 199 mg sodium 15 mg cholesterol, 2 g dietary fiber.)

The legend of St. Patrick's Day

Irish eyes, and even those that aren't from the Emerald Isle, seem to smile all the more come St. Patrick's Day, a holiday with a long and interesting history — and that's no blarney, say the people at George Killian's Irish Red, an Irish beer brewed in the United States since 1981.

It's not known if March 17 is celebrated as the feast day of St. Patrick because it is the date of his birth or his death. Some say both; some say neither. The only definite fact is that St. Patrick was most certainly not born in Ireland but is acknowledged as the patron saint of that land.

Of all the legends surrounding St. Patrick, the most long-lived is the story of St. Patrick driving the snakes from Ireland. As the population looked on, he pounded a drum and charmed the snakes into the sea.

In Ireland today, St. Patrick's Day is a religious holiday, celebrated with Mass, sporting events and big parades. Here in America, St. Patrick's Day is also celebrated with grand events.

Reading olympians receive medals

Just a few weeks after the winter Olympics were finished, Clarkston Elementary pupils received a few gold, silver and bronze medals of their own.

Through the "Bear" reading program, pupils received coupons for each hour of reading. Younger students received coupons for each hour someone read to them. Every two weeks, 15-20 coupon-holders' names were drawn to receive prizes.

And at the end of the program, a final assembly marking the end of the "reading olympics" was held, during which pupils received medals and certificates, according to program co-chairwomen, Wendy Burleigh and Alix Katnik, who are parent volunteers.

The reading program also called for the entire school to read for a half hour each Friday. And two Bear "read-ins" took place, where children brought their sleeping bags to school, along with a good book or two, and read for two hours.

Throughout the whole program, a few lucky readers won stuffed animals — bears, of course — through raffles.

Burleigh said the PTO contributed money for prizes, but parents and teachers donated many of the prizes.

Winners named in SCAMP contest

Fourteen have won money so far in the 1992 SCAMP Raffle.

Raffle winners for January and February were:
$100 winners: J. Roeser, Leslie Haight, W. Clissold, Hannah Farnsworth, Jack Hunt, John Priebe and H. Haddock.

$50 winners: Cindy Carr, Bill Basinger, Jim Conlen, Scott Brumback, Kathy Calcaterra, Gail Roeser and Edna Scheett.

The raffle serves as a fund-raiser for North Oakland SCAMP Funding Corp., which funds Clarkston SCAMP, a five-week summer program for special needs youth in north Oakland County.

The raffle continues until July 8, with two winners chosen per week. All winning tickets are placed back into the raffle for future drawings. A few raffle tickets are still available. For more information, call Bunny Newmarch at 625-3330.

OXFORD CINEMA 48 S. Washington 628-7100 Showtimes Week of Mar 13th-19th HELD OVER

"The HAND THAT ROCKS THE CRADLE" (R) (When the bough breaks, the cradle will fall. But when the nanny snaps, the whole household is rocked. This tidy little psychological thriller about an evil nanny (Rebecca De Mornay) is neither original in conception nor unique in execution. But it's actually not bad and more than a little entertaining. Rated R; violence, vulgar language.) Nightly 7:15-9:15

"Adventures of the Great Mouse Detective" (G) Sherlock Holmes a rodent? Elementary, although this diminutive detective, who lives beneath those famous Baker Street digs, is named Basil. What isn't elementary is that this movie would be so watchable. Released before, in 1986, this Disney feature is an entertaining, fast-paced animated cartoon that, though aimed at kids, will not bore their parents to death. Rated G; nothing objectionable. Daily 1:00-2:30-4:00-5:30 SAT 10:30-1:00-2:30-4:00-5:30

"Memoirs of an Invisible Man" (PG-13)... "This attempt at an existential slapstick about an invisible man in 90's San Francisco is just another variation of a Chase chase movie. That's Chevy Chase, who plays the hero of the H.F. Saint novel. "Memoirs" is little more than a one-joke sitcom with amusing special effects - cartoon Kafka for kids. Or "Terminator 2" for the genteel. Rated PG-13; brief sexual scene." 1:00-3:00-5:00-7:15-9:15

Rush Road Reports

By Don Rush

Room to spare in Chevy Caprice

My first reaction when I hopped into the 1992 Chevrolet Caprice Classic was, "Wow. There's about 19 miles of dashboard in here."

While that is a slight exaggeration, there is a ton of room in the four-door sedan model. This full-sized sedan is actually full sized and I have no doubts that it will seat six adults comfortably.

The folks who sit up front have 42.2 inches of leg room; 39.5 inches for the people in the back seat. The four-door sedan is nearly 18-feet long, and six and a half feet wide..

This 3,951 pound car was powered by a 5.0 Liter, V8 engine. The estimated gas mileage is between 17 and 26 miles per gallon -- theoretically this means you could travel 598 miles on one tank of gas. Or for you folks who like examples: without stopping for gas, you could go from Pontiac to Copper Harbor. Copper Harbor is at the very tip of the horn in the Upper Peninsula. You might have to stop for Mother Nature or food, but not gas.

Reaction to the styling change brought about in 1991 has been polar. Some folks absolutely think it is an ugly car. Others thought the styling was, well stylish. Those who like it thought it looked like something from the 1940s. Those who wouldn't be caught driving it, said it looked like a turtle.

Regardless, the car handled extremely well over dirt roads. I gave it a little gas on the curves of Newman Road by the new section of Paint Creek Golf Course. Nice.

On the ever popular section of M-24 in Oxford Township -- that's the section that truly needs to be repaired by the road commission -- the Caprice gave a pretty darn smooth ride.

The car I drove had sport suspension, heavy duty frame and heavy duty brakes and a trailering package. Four-wheel anti-lock brakes are standard on all models. They all have power front disc and rear drum brakes. All models also have a driver's side airbag.

One feature senior citizens might appreciate is the digital speedometer. The numbers on this thing are about 2.5 inches-tall and about a quarter-inch thick. I could read it without my glasses.

While the car won't be made in Willow Run for much longer, it's still a car to consider if you're looking for a roomy, comfortable, long distance ride. >

Highlights: roominess, comfort
Lowlights: won't be made in Michigan in a very short time
Base Price: $19,300
Model Tested: $22,739

THENDARA ROAD MAINTENANCE SPECIAL ASSESSMENT
PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on the 18th day of March, 1992, at 7:30 p.m., in the Township Hall Annex of the Charter Township of Independence, 90 North Main Street, Clarkston, Michigan, the Township Board of the Charter Township of Independence shall meet for the purpose of hearing comments and objections to the special assessment roll prepared in connection with the proposed assessment to finance the project to undertake winter maintenance of the roads in the Thendara Park Country Club Subdivision recently paved in the project financed by special assessment districts. The special assessment district includes the properties previously assessed for the road improvement project.

The cost estimate for the annual winter road maintenance prior to acceptance by the Road Commission for the County of Oakland is in the amount of $11,000, and the estimate of the annual extraordinary winter road maintenance following acceptance by the Road Commission is in the amount of $5,500, and such costs have been allocated in the special assessment roll among the properties in the special assessment district according to benefits.

It is proposed that your annual assessment will be $50.00 for the temporary short-term (until the Road Commission for the County of Oakland accepts the roads) and $25.00 for the long-term.

A complete copy of the special assessment roll is on file in the offices of the Township Clerk, 90 North Main Street, Clarkston, Michigan, for public examination during normal business hours.

Appearance and protest at the hearing is required in order to appeal the matters to be considered at the hearing to the state tax tribunal. An owner or party in interest or his or her agent may appear in person at the hearing to protest the special assessment, or shall be permitted to file his or her appearance or protest by letter and his or her personal appearance in such case shall not be required.

OVER 100 people tried their luck at ice fishing during the second annual contest at the Davisburg Mill Pond Park. Warm, sunny weather may have enticed the contestants, said Sherry Swindell, director of the Springfield Parks and Recreation Department.

Ice fishing contest draws a crowd

More than 100 people showed up for the second annual ice-fishing and chili contest at the Davisburg Mill Pond Park Feb. 22.

The pond, on Broadway, Springfield Township, was filled with ice fishermen, said Sherry Swindell, director of Springfield Parks and Recreation Department.

"The whole thing was covered with people," she said, adding that unseasonably warm weather may have contributed to the high turnout.

In the student category, Frank Lafferty of Hillcrest, Independence Township, caught the largest fish at 7 3/4 inches. Jessica Brewer of Waterford placed second with a 7 1/2-inch fish.

In the adult category, Bart Hopkins of White Lake won an award for most fish caught.

Jim Cobb of Springfield Township and Jacob Capling won door prizes.

In the family category, the Dennis G. Vallus family of Linden caught the most fish (34); the Larry Wright family of Holly caught the second-most fish (20), and the Wayne Hopkinson family of Highland caught the third most fish (16).

The Butch Wilson family of Pontiac caught the most bass (5), and the Mike Kiester family of Clarkston caught the largest fish (7 3/4 inches).

About 130 people took advantage of the chili and apple pie-baking contest, said Swindell, tasting and voting for their favorites.

Cheryl O'Mell and Jean Snider, both of Springfield Township, tied for first place for the best apple pie.

Lois Benfield and Georgia Chase, both of Springfield Township, also tied for first place for the best chili.

Other chili contest contestants were Kay Dettloff, Donna Rogers, Sandy Mellado and Helen Vergin.

Volunteers Bertha Dennis, Rollin Bird, Maureen Losh and others helped organize the event, said Swindell, adding that many businesses also contributed prizes and money.

However, Lloyd and Helen Vergin deserve credit for the bulk of the work.

"This was their original idea to have the event in 1991," added Swindell.
