Trustee offers facility option

BY CURT MCALLISTER
Clarkston News Associate Editor

Clarkston school officials are pondering a ballot proposal that would give voters the option of choosing between two facility projects.

School board Trustee Kurt Karlstrom presented the plan July 13. He said his plan was one that would appeal to residents on both sides of the critical needs issue.

"After striking out three times with the voters, what have we got to lose?" Karlstrom said. "Hopefully, this plan will show the public that there are school board members willing to look at all alternatives to better the facilities in this district."

Karlstrom's proposal would provide voters with the option of building a new $8 million elementary school and/or making $14.5 million worth of renovations to all the district's schools.

Karlstrom said the new elementary school would resemble the 70,000-square-foot building that was nixed by voters last April. The $14.5 million package would entail a long list of renovations and classroom additions, depending on each individual school.

Karlstrom said this project's proposed additions came from the failed 1990 millage package worth $85 million. In order to come into close accordance with 1992 cost figures, Karlstrom added: $2 per square foot for construction, a 5 1/2 percent fee for construction, a 5 1/2 percent charge for professional fees, 15 percent additional charge for furnishings and equipment and 8 percent to cover building contingency fees.

At the elementary school level, Karlstrom proposes

Timely signs

A WEEK before the Aug. 4 primary election, political signs line Main Street, Clarkston. On Monday, reports of stolen and defaced political signs were pouring in, particularly from Springfield Township, where the clerk, treasurer and trustee races are heating up. However, along some streets, all signs were stolen, regardless of party affiliation.

Primary election Tuesday, Aug. 4

The Tuesday, Aug. 4, primary election will determine which candidates will appear on the November ballot for each political party.

Candidates in three political parties appear on the ballot, so that means voters must choose one and only one party in which to cast votes in the primary.

In Independence Township, only Democratic and Republican candidates appear, so those who wish to cast votes for the Tisch Independent Citizens Party must follow instructions for "write-in" votes.

The polls are open 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. election day, and absentee voters may cast ballots up to 4 p.m. Monday, Aug. 3, in the office of their township or city clerk.

For more information, call 625-5111 in Independence Township or 625-4802 in Springfield Township.

Classic cars, ice cream, free concert ...

Eighty to 100 vintage cars will be featured at the annual Concours in Depot Park in downtown Clarkston Friday, July 31.

In addition to the event at the Clarkston park, car lovers can also view more than 250 classic cars Sunday (Aug. 2) at the Concours d'Elegance in Rochester or watch historic auto races Saturday and Sunday (Aug. 1-2) at the Waterford Hills Raceway in Independence Township.

Friday: Concours, ice cream social and free concert in the park

The display of vintage cars at the Concours in Depot Park takes place 6-9 p.m. Also displayed will be some of the nation's finest automotive art selections. While looking over the cars or some paintings, people will be treated to the sounds of the Balduck Mountain Ramblers, an American string band ensemble, which plays 7-9 p.m. as part of Clarkston's free Concert in the Park series.

Depot Park's event also features SCAMP's annual ice cream social. Proceeds help out SCAMP, a summer camp for children with special needs.

Saturday and Sunday: Historic races

The Eighth Annual Pioneer Meadow Brook Historic Races at Waterford Hills Raceway (Waterford Road in Independence Township) hosts Trans-Am races 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Race day admission is $10, with children under 6 free.

Sunday: Concours in Rochester

Sunday's Concours d'Elegance at Oakland University's Meadow Brook Hall takes place 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children.

A 1965 Jaguar Roadster owned by William Scott of Independence Township is one of those cars featured.

Karlstrom hopes to woo board, voters with plan

spending about $6 million to help add 25 new classrooms among the five schools. Another $2.1 million could be added to pay for kitchen and cafeteria additions, resulting in a total elementary package of $8.1 million.

Karlstrom also proposes that Sashabaw Junior High School receive about $1.9 million and Clarkston Junior High $1 million to cover additional classroom and upgrading costs.

At the senior high level, Karlstrom suggests allocating about $3 million toward renovations, such as a proposed two-story wing on the south side of CHS.

Other facilities or programs Karlstrom would funnel money toward include: Special Education, $100,000; bus garage, $250,000; and Clarkston Community Education, $100,000.

Karlstrom said passage of one of these options would mean the projects would be paid for by selling current interest bonds and capital depreciation bonds. He plans to tack the debt onto the current debt millage, so

"We've got to try to come up with some other strategies because these problems won't go away."

residents won't see an extra millage on their tax bills. Instead, they'll pay the current debt millage rate for a longer period of time.

While this proposal only exists hypothetically,

Karlstrom sees it as a start.

"I think this idea will prove that we aren't going to sit on our hands just because the elementary school issue has failed three times already," he said. "We've got to try to come up with some other strategies because these problems won't go away."

Karlstrom said this topic will be discussed further at the school board's 7 p.m. Monday, Aug. 10, meeting.

Law is curbing drinking, driving

Everyone knows that it's against the law to drink and drive.

But state legislation adopted Jan. 1, 1992, makes the penalties stiffer for those who snub their noses at the community by risking their lives and others with drunk driving.

The legislation makes it mandatory for officers to take the driver's license at the scene. That may be just the incentive needed to keep drinkers from driving, according to Lt. Doug Quisenberry of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department (OCSA).

"Of course, drunk drivers don't like to have their licenses taken away," Quisenberry said. "It has been effective in keeping them off of the road."

However, the new law has a few drawbacks. For instance, the confiscation of licenses adds some paperwork to the officers' already full schedule. Quisenberry said there's no problem with the paperwork — it just took a little period of adjustment.

And the law doesn't mean an end to drunken driving, he said.

"I think that some people will continue to drink and drive, but public awareness of the new laws have kept some of them off of the roads," said Quisenberry.

Planners recommend rezoning on Sashabaw

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Despite loud protest from about 20 residents, the Independence Township Planning Commission voted to recommend the rezoning of five parcels of land July 23.

After an hour-long discussion, the commission voted on three separate motions to recommend rezoning about 66 acres west of Sashabaw Road, north of Flemings Lake Road and south of Clarkston Road.

It requires approval by the township board, which has the final say in rezonings.

Commission members voted 5-0 to recommend rezoning section C (see map), which is about 11.25 acres, from single family residential to office service II. The new zoning would allow such business as doctors' offices, sit-down restaurants or support businesses.

The second motion referred to section A (see map), three parcels south of Clarkston Road that measure about

"I'd rather see homes go in with children playing than offices like they have in Troy."

Barb Petrof

14 acres. The developers requested that the land be rezoned from rural residential with a minimum lot size of three acres to R1A single-family residential, which has a minimum lot size of 15,000 square feet. However, the commission voted 5-0 to recommend rezoning these parcels R1B single-family residential with a minimum lot size of 33,000 square feet.

The final motion recommended the rezoning of section B, about 41 acres, from rural residential to the requested R1A single-family residential.

The commission voted 4-1 in favor of this rezoning. Joseph Figa cast the lone no vote, stating that he was afraid after the rezoning passed that someone else would buy the property and build on the 15,000-square-foot lots.

Voting yes to all three of the motions were: Brent Bair, Richard Oppmann, Cecilia Yarber and Rainee Stricklin. Daniel Travis was absent and Joseph Figa voted for motions one and two, and against motion three.

MIK Developers of Rochester Hills plan to develop a subdivision of 90 to 100 homes. They also hope to build businesses on Sashabaw Road as the final part of the development.

Before the voting took place on the recommended rezonings, the commission heard the concerns and fears of residents.

Mason Ashby of Clarkston Road summed up the crowd's main concern by saying, "This explosion (of new developments) needs to slow down."

One resident requested that the developers pay to protect her property.

"I want my property to all be fenced in by them (the developers)," said Flemings Lake Road resident Marian Johnson. "I don't want any kids playing ball in my fields."

"If you bring in small lots, you'll have those low-income people coming into the area, and they'll turn it into a slum."

Don Marceau

Johnson's acreage will touch part of the proposed subdivision.

Don Marceau of Clarkston Road objected to the lot sizes.

"If you bring in small lots, you'll have those low-income people coming into the area, and they'll turn it into a slum," he said.

Developers later said homes in the subdivision would likely range from $200,000 to $400,000.

Overcrowding in schools and traffic problems were also listed as problems the new subdivision would create.

Commission member Richard Oppmann, stated that the office service II rezoning was consistent with the township's master plan, and with the other developments on the south side of Clarkston Road there was a good precedent for the requested rezoning.

The township's master plan calls for the areas in question to be rezoned some day for research office space, which would bring office buildings such as those in the southern part of the county.

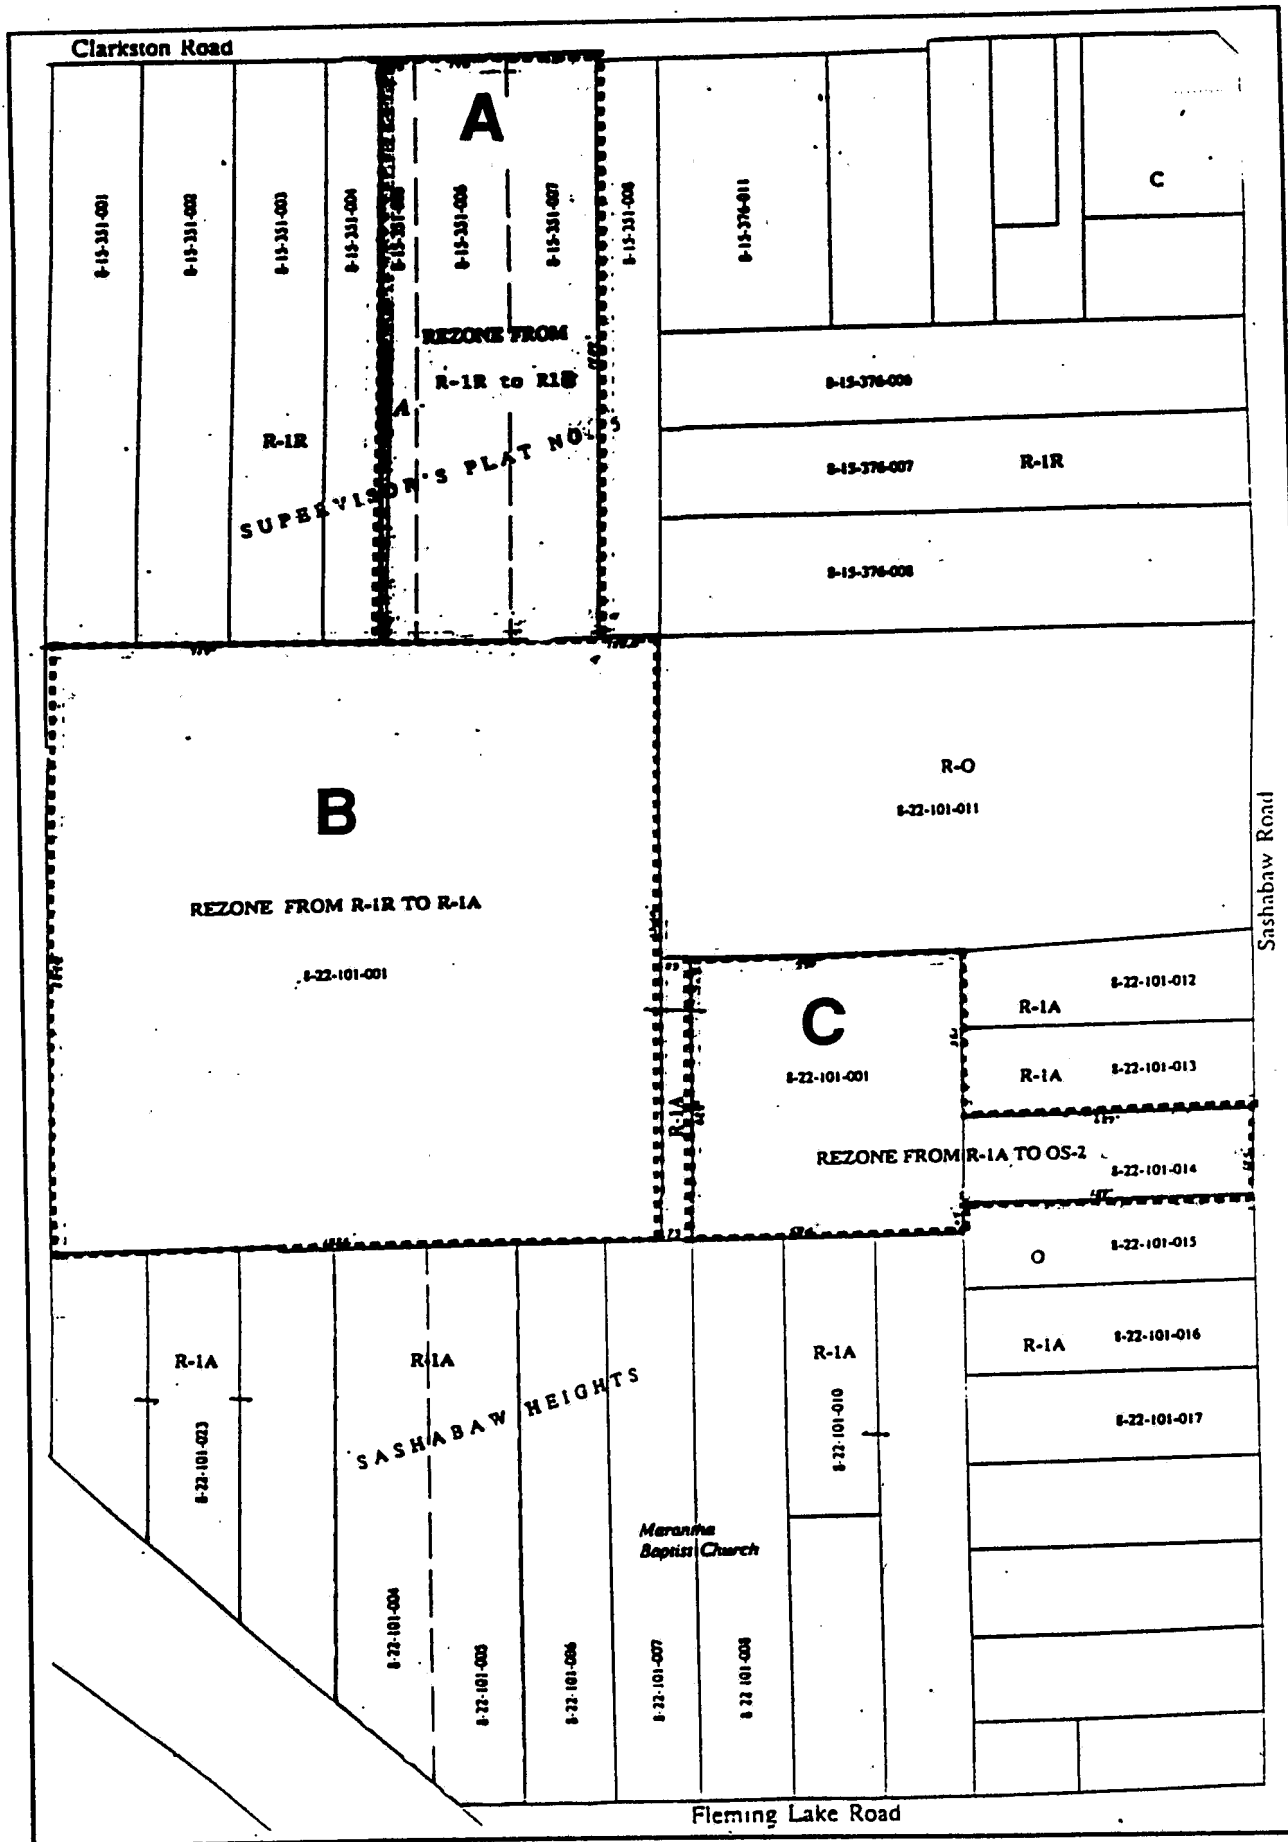

However, the commission said residential use of the property also was appropriate because it would bring less traffic and would be less noticeable.

Resident Barb Petrof favored the residential zoning. "I'd rather see homes go in with children playing than offices like they have in Troy," she said.

Convenience store hearing Aug. 6

A convenience store proposed for a gas station is the topic of a public hearing before the Independence Township Planning Commission Thursday, Aug. 6.

The addition is planned for Payless gas station on Dixie Highway. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. at the township annex, 90 N. Main St., Clarkston. For more information, call 625-8111.

ABOUT 66 acres west of Sashabaw Road, south of Clarkston Road (parcels A, B and C), received the first approval for a rezoning. If the Independence Township Board approves and adopts the rezoning, too, then the developers plan to seek approval to build 90 to 100 homes across from Pine Knob Music Theatre.

Director fired

State to decide fate of Ivy Hall Montessori school

BY CURT MCALLISTER
Clarkston News Associate Editor

Barely a year old, the Ivy Hall Montessori school has found itself embroiled in a drug scandal that could close its doors indefinitely.

According to records at the state Department of Social Services (DOSS), the pre-school/day-care center was suspended May 15 after program director Scott Niederluecke admitted to using illegal drugs at the school. Located on Ortonville Road, Independence Township, the facility catered to 13 pre-school and kindergarten-age children.

The suspension prohibits the school from taking in children until further notice.

A DOSS hearing has been set for Wednesday, Aug. 5, in Detroit, where a panel will consider revoking the facility's license altogether. According to Tom Rabette, attorney for Brandon Montessori, Inc., he and Ivy Hall personnel will present a re-structuring plan to the panel, in the hopes of retaining their license.

"Let's not tip over the apple cart on account of one person."

Attorney Tom Rabette

Ivy Hall will be represented by new program director Adele Kieras. She was hired after Niederluecke was terminated a couple of months ago.

The Montessori schools' teaching practices are based on the philosophies of Italian Maria Montessori, a world famous doctor, scientist and educator around the turn of the century.

In a letter to Niederluecke in May, the DOSS cited moral character and child safety as the reasons behind the school's suspension.

Penning by Joseph L. Webster, director of the Bureau of Regulatory Services, this letter said that Niederluecke "placed the care and safety of children and the overall operation of this center in jeopardy by (his) repeated and chronic use of a number of mind altering or judgment altering drugs, while at the center, in a position of responsibility."

In an interview with Lt. Lewis Langham, Michigan Department of State Policy, Webster wrote that Niederluecke admitted using heroin, crack cocaine and marijuana at the center. Niederluecke reportedly told Langham that he felt he could respond properly to children while under the influence of these drugs.

Niederluecke's behavior was also documented by some of his staff workers who testified that they found drugs on the premises and knew of his usage. On one occasion, a worker reportedly found Niederluecke passed out in his upstairs office.

Niederluecke was unavailable for comment.

Ted deWolf, director of the Child Day Care Licensing Division, said Niederluecke "checked out" when his school was given a license last year.

"Besides checking out the building's space requirements, we ran a criminal check on the program director as part of standard procedure," he said. "We didn't come across any criminal convictions during this investigation."

Despite the school's suspension, Ivy Hall personnel held an open house this past weekend to promote upcoming registration. According to deWolf, this act isn't illegal, but could be misleading.

"They can do whatever they want at the facility, just as long as they don't care for children there," he said. "I guess it could be construed as a misrepresentation to the parents because their future as a school is still in doubt."

Rabette said the school personnel may have been taking a risk at promoting their school, but only because they're optimistic about its future. He hopes the DOSS panel will be equally as optimistic and not close the school.

SCOTT Niederluecke, former program director at the Ivy Hall Montessori school, Independence Township, has put the facility in jeopardy. His alleged use of drugs at the school has put the school on suspension and pushed it to the brink of indefinite closure.

"I don't see the death penalty for a school, its staff and students as fair, based on the misconduct of one individual," Rabette said. "As far as I know, there was never a suggestion that any of those children were exposed to any harm or risk, when (Niederluecke) was there."

"Let's not tip over the apple cart on account of one person," he added. "By the school disassociating itself from Niederluecke, I think the Department of Social Services will be receptive to our proposal and keep a fine school open."

Miss Manners
on etiquette

Jim
Sherman

It would certainly be appropriate to write something political this week. Maybe about candidates and their double-meaning answers to ridiculous questions.

Or about our privilege to vote, but it's also our privilege not to vote. In the end, or beginning, I'd get into name calling and that wouldn't be proper etiquette.

I know all about etiquette, having listened to Judith Martin, who is "Miss Manners." She was guest speaker at our state press association's summer meeting at Mackinac Island.

The lady lives her reputation. We witnessed it first hand, impromptu.

Miss Manners spoke at the Friday evening session. Following Dale Carnegie's advice, we thanked her for coming and complimented her speech, and did so sincerely.

We were seated for breakfast the next morning when she came into the dining room. We said, 'Good morning,' she turned and waved and promptly fell to the floor.

Several rushed to help her. Once on her feet she turned to us, asked how we liked her entrance and bowed at the waist.

We learned later she had twisted an ankle.

Here are just a few of the 'etiquette' remarks Miss Manners made:

What to say to a drunk: 'You must be on some medication and it's reacting badly;' 'You obviously don't feel well and I'd like to drive you home.'

Fifth- and sixth-grade boys wearing hats in school is not good etiquette.

Dress, or lack of it in fashion, should be handled by etiquette, not by the courts.

This one I really like: 'Call waiting is rude, rude, rude. It's based on last call, first served. A busy signal tells people you are on the phone.'

The grounds around the Grand Hotel on the Island are more beautiful than ever, and I've been there probably a dozen times. The weather was absolutely perfect July 17 and 18.

It has not been great much of the season. Between the cold, wet weather and the business climate the economy dropped 34 percent at the Grand and is down a lot elsewhere on the Island.

Our convention registration was off considerably. We won a press association contest and had free food and lodging, else we would not have attended this year.

Here's what pro golfer Chip Beck had to say about his game: "Golf is like life; life is like golf. You get a lot of unplayable lies, but you have to play them anyway. There are frustrations, but if you spend so much time being angry or feeling sorry for yourself, you're wasting a lot of energy."
Wow, have I wasted a lot of energy.

Change isn't always for the better

The big word for office-seeking people in campaign '92 is "Change."

It's time for a change! Elect me and I'll change things! We need a change!

Blah, blah, blah.

The way politicians use the word 'change' they probably want us to believe it is guaranteed good change, a change for the better.

'Tain't necessarily so. The weather changes.

Like the song says, "There'll be a change in the weather, there'll be a change in me." Politicians leave out that last part.

Weather and politics are comparable. There's a saying, "There's a feel of change in the air," and soon thunder roars and lightning strikes.

Don't get a picture of better things conjured up in your mind when a politician promises a "change."

It could be for the worse. JAS

Correct choice

Megan O'Neill is the correct choice for U.S. Congress in the 9th district. While all the candidates are young and have very little experience with being elected to office, O'Neill is the candidate who clearly stands out as the one who will represent the best interests of the taxpayer.

Megan is a very bright and articulate young lady. I have also been very impressed with her fiscal responsibility and ability to understand the changes that need to be made in our government and its fiscal policy. It's time that we, as responsible voters, send a person to Washington who will consistently vote to balance the budget, while providing the basic services we expect our government to provide.

Government must provide for a sound infrastructure, good health care at a reasonable cost, protection for our environment and a country that is safe from illegal drugs and crime.

I believe Megan is the person who best understands the challenge and will advocate a responsible approach to research on the issues as AIDS and global warming.

O'Neill is a leader and not a career politician, and I encourage you to actively support her. She is a winner; make her our next congresswoman.

Fire renewal means 20 percent hike

BY NEIL WALLACE

On Aug. 4, the taxpayers of Independence Township will be asked to "continue" a 3-mill tax for the fire department. But this is not merely a continuation of a tax. To call it that is an intentional sham, a misrepresentation. It is, in fact, a tax increase.

When each of us pays our taxes, we don't write out a check for a particular rate, we pay in dollars. If this millage proposal is approved, we will be paying more dollars. We will be paying 20 percent more dollars. That is a tax increase.

The Headlee Amendment requires that the amount of tax dollars collected stay the same (adjusted only for inflation). So when our community's property valuations rise, the rate is reduced. In this way, we continue to pay the same amount of tax.

This law reduced our fire tax rate to just about 2.5 mills. So if we now "continue" at a rate of 3 mills, we will actually be paying 20 percent more dollars in taxes.

I believe that the provision of competent fire service is one of the most important functions of local government. However, that does not justify this kind of misrepresentation: a back door tax increase.

Twice this community voted "no" on a new fire hall. Both times I voted "yes," but I was disappointed that there was no leadership from our township officials. The township is so used to handling things in a closed and secretive manner that they did not have enough trust in us to explain and persuade us of the need for a new fire hall. So now we must stand silently by, marveling at the slight-of-hand that creates something out of nothing.

As difficult as it may be, it is important that everyone vote "no" and defeat this fire millage ... because it is a tax increase. Then with some accountability from a new administration, we will have a realistic assessment of our actual needs for fire services and approve just what we need and want.

I urge everyone to vote on Aug. 4 to defeat this sham and to give us new leadership. Enough is enough.

Neil Wallace resides in Independence Township.

Someone to trust

Dale Stuart represents not only change, but integrity. Dale Stuart is someone who we can trust, someone who will listen.

It's time that we had a government that concentrates on the efficient delivery of legitimate local services rather than wasting taxpayers' dollars competing with private enterprise by building glorious ball fields for people from all over the metropolitan area.

We can trust Dale Stuart to understand the consequences of the decisions he makes. Then our schools will not be overwhelmed by developments that are structured so they pay less than their fair share of the cost of educating our children.

I know Dale Stuart supports a strong fire department, but not some tax increases that are unnecessary to maintain services. Dale Stuart will support needed infrastructure improvements, but not just for his friends — for the children in our schools, too.

More importantly, Dale Stuart can give us the change and effective leadership we need for the years ahead.

Hooray for M-15 road widening

Your last week's headline about M-15 announced an event few were holding their breath waiting to see really happen.

After all those efforts toward it, and the years of waiting, "it's here!"

Hooray! Now, I probably won't be in jeopardy of getting another ticket for passing on the right. How many years will it take before Sashabaw Road will be widened?

Money, money and more money will be the key. The spirit is willing but the deep pockets are quite empty. Drivers, owners, tourists please have patience, control tempers, endure slow-ups, weather some business losses, expect business increases on other roads.

Old-timers, middle-comers, and newcomers hang in there; it will better some day — just like on the Dixie.

"This, too, shall pass."

Iva Sommers Caverly

Tickets issued as money-makers

The July 22 edition of the Clarkston News reviewed the "busy beginning" of the Clarkston police.

What it did not indicate was how many of the 120 traffic tickets given in less than one month were given as money makers and for statistics — not because of traffic violations.

I have always respected those who are in law enforcement, but my recent experience with the Clarkston police has changed that. After stopping at a stop sign (where I was able to see the police car down the road) and then proceeding, I was pulled over and ticketed for not stopping.

I am not guilty and have a court date, but what chance will I have when it is only my word against "Clarkston's finest?" Who can protect us from the police? Residents beware, and warn your family and friends who may be coming to visit you. Clarkston's capricious police are on the loose.

Re-elect Ronk

Interesting that of the seven former Independence Township board members endorsing Dale Stuart for supervisor that only three live in the township and would be eligible to vote.

Will Mr. Stuart have the concerns of the township at the forefront or those of his friends residing outside? Could that be the reason they're "former" board members?

Re-elect Frank "Tink" Ronk for township supervisor. Tink is well acquainted with the present needs and interests of this community.

Your vote in the Aug. 4 primary will determine the leadership for the next four years.

Jackie Mack

Pro-incumbents

Mr. Dale Stuart's platform consists wholly of derogatory statements against our fire department and decisions concerning its operation.

Our department is a unit of men here for the protection of the community and all who live here. Only this one issue stirs Mr. Stuart's ire and seemingly gives him a basis for a campaign.

If this issue is all Mr. Stuart can find fault with in our present government, then I cast my vote confidently for our incumbents and for the renewal of the fire millage that has existed since 1980. Our government officials and our fire-fighters have all done a commendable job.

Name withheld upon request

Time to go

Several of our precincts are going to get a sneak preview of our new township hall next week when they go to Dr. Charles Munk's office building to vote.

You see, your elected officials have already decided to spend probably between $2.5 million to $3 million to buy that building, and you're not going to have anything to say about it. They have already spent $80,000 on engineering plus $260,000 for the old First Federal Building. They will continue to do this without our approval unless we retire them.

When elected officials start acting like dictators, that is the time for them to go, and fortunately we have a great opportunity to start at the top with the Supervisor Tink Ronk.

If you feel and believe in the Headlee Amendment that the voters approved in 1978 that says, government shall not borrow money or place the taxpayers in debt without their approval, then you must vote for Dale Stuart on Aug. 4.

Rudy Lozano,

Former Independence Township Trustee

Hard working

I would like to encourage the voters of Springfield Township to vote for Lois Stiles for treasurer on Aug. 4.

Lois continues to be a full-time working treasurer and an informed member of the township board. She has worked hard to computerize the tax rolls and keep our township current.

Lois and her late husband, Jim Stiles, had a successful business in Clarkston and Holly that spanned 30 years. She is aware of the problems that the small businesses and residents face in these difficult times.

Thank you for supporting Lois Stiles as treasurer of Springfield Township.

Mr. & Mrs. Robert A. Bloom

True leader

Our government is at a crucial point, and with the August 4th primary approaching quickly, we have the opportunity to elect a true leader; someone to give us effective and fair representation in the United States Congress.

I strongly believe that Megan O'Neill, a Republican running for Congress in the 9th district, is the most qualified to fill this position.

Megan O'Neill has been an area resident for all of her 30 years. She has a sense of what the 9th district needs, as well as the know-how to get the job done.

Megan worked extensively in the private sector of the health-care field. She worked for the rights of the patients. Megan has a sincere concern for people and their needs and is prepared to work for legislation of those needs.

Megan is a person of commitment and integrity. She is tough and is not afraid to ask the questions that need to be asked and to tackle issues head on. I don't feel that there is another candidate running for this position that possesses this depth of character and concern.

As a Republican voter, I am going to vote for Megan O'Neill in the Aug. 4 primary and allow her to make the difference that the 9th Congressional District needs.

Sandwiches with God

Jim Fitzgerald

When my granddaughter Melissa was around 3 years old, she was tremendously fond of the minister at her parents' church. When he visited their home, he ate peanut butter sandwiches with her, and sometimes took her out to lunch at McDonald's. I figured the minister certainly should be nice to Melissa, in view of what she called him. She called him God.

That was many years ago, when grandchildren were still something new for me. Melissa had a brother a little younger, and a sister a little older. They lived many miles away, and when they first came visiting, I was reminded of all the things I'd forgotten about having little kids underfoot.

It had been 15 years or so, depending on your criteria, since babies lived at our house. It's hard to say exactly when our youngest child ceased to be a baby, but I remember getting suspicious when he began changing his own diapers and heating his own bottle.

I'd forgotten how it feels to hear a baby cry at 3 a.m. It took me a few seconds to remember what to do. What you do is push your foot softly to the south. If this doesn't work, you kick more firmly. Finally, your wife wakes up. You then tell her the baby is crying.

I'd forgotten about the spot on a baby's neck, up under the chin, not far from the ear. That's where you nuzzle a baby. It feels great.

I'd forgotten how your heart stops, and then pounds, when you hear a baby scream and the sound of a small body going bump, bump, bump.

And I'd forgotten the mixed relief of discovering the baby fell only two steps. A potted plant went the rest of the way.

I'd forgotten to look before I sit. Have you ever sat on an abandoned Popsicle?

I'd forgotten a grown man can somehow enjoy eating his dinner while watching a kid with a runny nose stick her face in chocolate pudding.

I'd forgotten how grand it feels to return home from work and be greeted by a little kid who wants to climb up your legs and stick fingers in your nose. I'd forgotten that babies, unlike teenagers, don't watch TV and you don't have to knock on the heads to say hello.

I'd forgotten the marvelous innocence of small children; the trust and the dependence and the eagerness to love and be loved. I'd forgotten that some smart adult like me must teach little kids how to hate, and who to hate.

Forgive me, but that's the type of corny forgottens I put in a 1976 column after a visit from Melissa and her siblings. My wife dug up that old column last weekend for the amusement of Melissa, now 19, when she came visiting again. These days, my three oldest grandchildren awaken memories of how incredibly fast my three children grew up and made me crazy.

On Friday, we went to the Long Branch in Oxford to hear Phil Guerra, a superb singer. I'd say that even if Guerra and Melissa's big sister, Michele, didn't have a gorgeous baby named Gracie. That's really crazy. I may be old enough to be a great-grandfather, but I'm much too young to be the father of a grandmother.

There was also a young woman who beautifully sang a country western song named "Grandpa" that almost made me cry. That also was crazy, because the singer was Melissa and I had no idea she could even hum.

The next day we went swimming. Melissa wore a bikini, and I discovered the craziest thing of all. Melissa has two hearts. One heart is the same place as yours and mine.

The second heart is a tiny tattoo over one breast. Surprise, Grandpa!

Melissa's mother, the grandmother, isn't thrilled about the tattoo. I told her to cheer up; Cher, another good singer, has several tattoos.

And besides, God knows tattoos are only skin deep. And God would still be pleased to eat peanut butter sandwiches with Melissa.

Concerned about future of town

This is to acknowledge support for James Ashley for clerk of Springfield Township.

Jim has a bachelor of arts degree in politics and education from the University of Michigan. He has been a resident of Springfield Township for nine years, his wife Loretta a resident for 21 years. They have four sons.

Jim has been active in school and community activities, served on the Holly school board, school football coach, Davisburg Little League (Davisburg Youth Association) Board member and coach.

He also has managerial experience in the health club industry for six years.

I feel James Ashley is qualified to be elected clerk of Springfield Township. He is concerned about the future of our community, the growth, recreation and a good place to live and watch his family enjoy this rural community. Jim has a willingness to communicate with and work for the residents.

I encourage you to vote Aug. 4 primary election for James Ashley, clerk for Springfield Township.

Cal Walters, retiring
Springfield Township clerk

Voting burden

Was I dreaming? It seemed like the weight of the world was on me to see that the right man gets elected.

The burden of getting old is the responsibility to vote for that best man, and a double burden gets heavy when there are others to weigh in the balance. The scruple is to cross someone off the list, leaving the choice to the person who could make the greatest difference, especially in the Congress.

Democrats have little choice as "the Decision" seems to already be made. Perhaps they should consider the selection of a Republican representative from a field of four or a township supervisor at the Aug. 4 primary election. It would be more important than November as the selection must be made now.

The burden would be lighter if only an experienced young lady and young man were not running. Who do I cross off my list?

Is it a challenge to eliminate the challenger who wants to rule, rather than consider that there are others whose vote counts as much as theirs? Does experience count? Isn't influence important anymore?

Pro-life, investment tax credit, education, health care, waste, strong family values; or what about honesty, integrity, intelligence, parity and purpose? Who decides?

My guess is that Frank "Tink" Ronk knows best and has helped in the past. Todd Tindall's family values and experience in the Republican party also get my vote. These are the leadership qualities I have come to trust.

It shouldn't be

I have stewed and boiled for several weeks over the Clarkston school board's decision to re-instate junior high sports, granted on a pay-to-play basis for all inter-scholastic sports 8th through 12th grades.

My disappointment is that ONLY ONE of the items cut because of the defeat of the 2-mill increase is being replaced in the budget. It shouldn't be!

It shouldn't be that children in elementary school who love music and a chance to express themselves through that media will only have music class one semester. And now kindergarten music time will not exist because it was cut when the 2-mill increase didn't pass. No one thought of pay-to-sing.

It shouldn't be that children in elementary school, who are eager to learn about another language and culture, won't have the Elementary World Language program in grades fourth through sixth because it was cut when the 2-mill increase didn't pass, and no one thought of pay-to-learn another language and culture.

It shouldn't be that sports-minded children in the elementary school will have their physical education time reduced from 50 minutes to 35 minutes per week because it was cut when the 2-mill increase didn't pass, and no one thought of pay-to-participate in the additional 15 minutes of elementary gym time.

It shouldn't be that children who benefit from the gifted support program in the elementary school will notice a 50 percent reduction in the services provided because it was cut when the 2-mill increased didn't pass, and no one thought of pay-to-get enrichment.

It shouldn't be that school supplies will decrease, class size will increase, some support services will be eliminated, and some programs may suffer because the budgeted items were cut when the 2-mill increased didn't pass, and no one thought of pay-to-properly educate children.

I am deeply bothered that what seems most important to many in the Clarkston school district is SPORTS. I fear that we've lost our focus about what should be included in the education of the youth of Clarkston.

When the millage was defeated, I was disappointed, being both a taxpayer in Clarkston and a teacher at Clarkston Elementary. I was more disappointed when ONLY ONE of the items cut because of the millage defeat was re-instated, albeit on a pay-to-play basis. Do not the children with interests in music, language, academic enrichment and other activities have the same need and desire and right to pay-to-participate?

Shredded bark fraud lauded as vital case

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE
Clarkston News Staff Writer

A "landmark" case settled in Oakland County Circuit Court July 16 when Roy Garcia of Pontiac was found guilty of cheating an area business for the past two years.

Richard and Bonnie Hale of Sunburst Gardens on Ortonville Road, Brandon Township, had bought shredded bark from Garcia for two years. They had ordered and faithfully paid for 50 yards of bark while receiving only 30 yards.

"Most people don't know how to measure bark," said Bonnie Hale. "He told us his truck held 50 yards of bark."

After a time, the Hales became suspicious about Garcia and contacted the Michigan Department of Agriculture (MDA), which handles cases where weights and measures are concerned.

The Hales measured Garcia's truck to back up their suspicions and found it could only hold 30 yards of bark. Garcia was also stopped at a highway weighing station and was measured again. The measurement agreed with the Hales'.

Garcia was found guilty of one felony and five misdemeanors. His case was heard in Oakland County Circuit Court in front of Judge Deborah Tyner. He will be sentenced sometime in August, said Hale. He could be fined up to $10,000 for the felony.

"People are shorted all of the time but have no proof," said Bonnie Hale. "Ours was the first case (like this) to go to court — that is because I have kept accurate records."

Al Haffner of the MDA said, "About 99 percent of the people out there are honest and just trying to make a living. It's the other one percent that are giving us so much trouble."

Dedicated trustee

The voters of Springfield Township deserve nothing less than the continued, dedicated service of incumbent trustee and life-long resident Margaret Bloom.

Margaret has earned voter confidence through many years of active interest and hands-on participation in the politics of controlled growth for Springfield Township.

We've known Margaret and Bob for 31 years. We know how serious she is about the responsibilities of serving as a trustee. She doesn't take it lightly. Retain someone who cares. Retain Margaret Bloom.

Lyle and Sharon Howard

Honest candidate

As the election in the 9th Congressional District heats up, I believe that it is important for voters to remember the type of person we want making our decisions in Washington, D.C.

In all my experiences with Megan O'Neill she continually proves her honesty, integrity and intelligence. She will be one of many new faces that have the ability to change the status quo of legislators in Washington.

Along with her strength of character, Megan cares about her community. For years, she has been involved in activities to support the area and will represent the 9th District with pride.

I find it unfortunate that her opponents lack the integrity and sense to run a clean campaign. Megan's campaign signs have been broken, defaced and stolen, and individuals whose lawns host these signs have been hassled. I believe that this is precisely the type of individuals we are hoping to kick out of office in November.

I openly support Megan O'Neill for U.S. Congress because I know her to be the candidate with the strongest overall qualifications.

Peter Sans

Wanted: Real life experience

I see Megan O'Neill being endorsed by the rich and the powerful of this county, but no one ever really says why. Is it because she is qualified or because she is the daughter of a successful local doctor?

The best I can come up with is that being the daughter of a prominent doctor she does not need to work and can volunteer her time to other politicians. She lives at home and does not work, so I assume her parents support her. This qualifies her for congress?

This is scary. If this is her experience, then she should fit right in with the millionaire politicians running the government ... those who have inherited their wealth and have never had the experience of supporting themselves. Should we give them our tax dollars to play with? Not!

I want someone running my government who holds a job and is self supporting in the real world.

Remember, voter, vote against incumbents and vote for those with some real life experience.

C.L. Weber

Good work ethics

We would like to inform you of our decision to support Megan O'Neill for Congress. Megan is the Republican candidate for the new 9th Congressional District.

Megan has strong leadership qualities and good work ethics. These are qualifications necessary to rebuild the integrity and confidence in one of the highest offices in the United States.

For many years, Michigan has sent money to Washington and received very little in return. We want someone in Congress who knows the community, the problems of the community and is willing to work with the local officials.

So please join us on Aug. 4 to elect Megan O'Neill for Congress. We're certain she will work hard for all of us. We need her leadership in Washington.

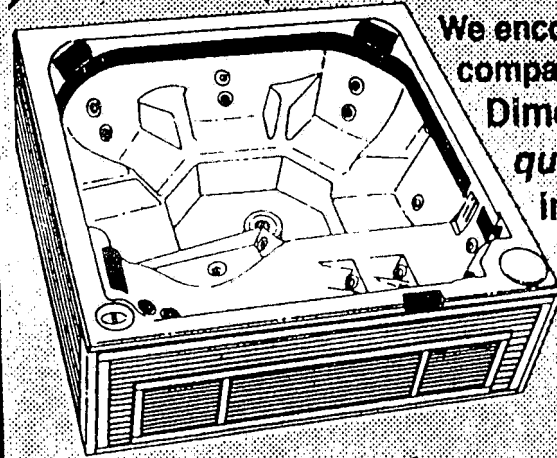

Vote Republican! Let's elect a Republican we can count on!

Library proposal slated for fall

BY CURT McALLISTER
Clarkston News Associate Editor

In the wake of the failure of a proposed districtwide library, Independence Township will ask its voters to support operations at the Clarkston Road facility.

On July 21, the township board voted 6-0 to hold a special election Tuesday, Sept. 15, with the Act 164 Library as the sole item on the ballot. Trustee Daniel Travis was absent from the board meeting.

This proposal asks township residents to approve one additional mill for the revamped library. This would bring the total millage rate for the library up to 1.75 mills.

If passed, both the one-mill and existing 3/4-mill packages will need to be renewed in two years.

One and three-fourths of a mill is $1.75 for every $1,000 assessed property valuation. That means that the owner of a $100,000 home assessed at half its market value ($50,000) would pay $87.50 per year for library operations.

Under Act 164, the library would operate for a single entity — Independence Township — and be governed by a library board. An interim board, made up of township residents, will be appointed by the township, with a regular election slated two years away.

According to library director Mollie Lynch, money from the additional mill will be used to upgrade the library's book collection. Down the road, she foresees services such as Sunday hours and an outreach program for homebound residents as other targets for this tax money.

This library proposal was approved nearly a week after the City of Clarkston and Independence Township officials failed to agree on a shared library millage. Since that time, Lynch secured 50 signatures from township residents who'd favor such 164 Act proposal. The petition gave the board the legal grounds to set a special election.

The specific ballot language will be up for approval at the township board's Aug. 5 meeting in the township library.

The Clarkston City Council has a contract with the library for services through Dec. 31 of this year. If a 1.75-mill contract is not agreed on by this time, Lynch said city residents wouldn't be allowed to use the library at all.

Hershey runners end with sweet finishes

Thirty young Clarkston area track athletes placed in nearly 20 events at the Seventh Annual Hershey State Meet July 17 at Howell High School.

The local team, which is sponsored by the Independence Township Parks and Recreation Department, trained for six weeks at the Clarkston High School track prior to the state finals.

Gene Attaman is the team's head coach and Jack Leech is the assistant.

Athletes (ages 9-14) qualified for the state meet by finishing strong in a local meet.

The event is sponsored by the Hershey Foods Corporation and through volunteer participation from over 80 Michigan cities, townships, YMCAs, or recreational department. A record 1,600 athletes competed in the state finals.

Ribbons were awarded to the top eight finishers.

Clarkston area athletes who placed at the Hershey Track State Finals were:

Standing long jump: (boys 9-10) 5. Kevin Breen; (girls 13-14) 5. Nicole Bauer

Softball throw: (boys 9-10) 2. Clint Powell - 125 feet

1600 meter run: (girls 13-14) 7. Debra Ponton - 5:32.8

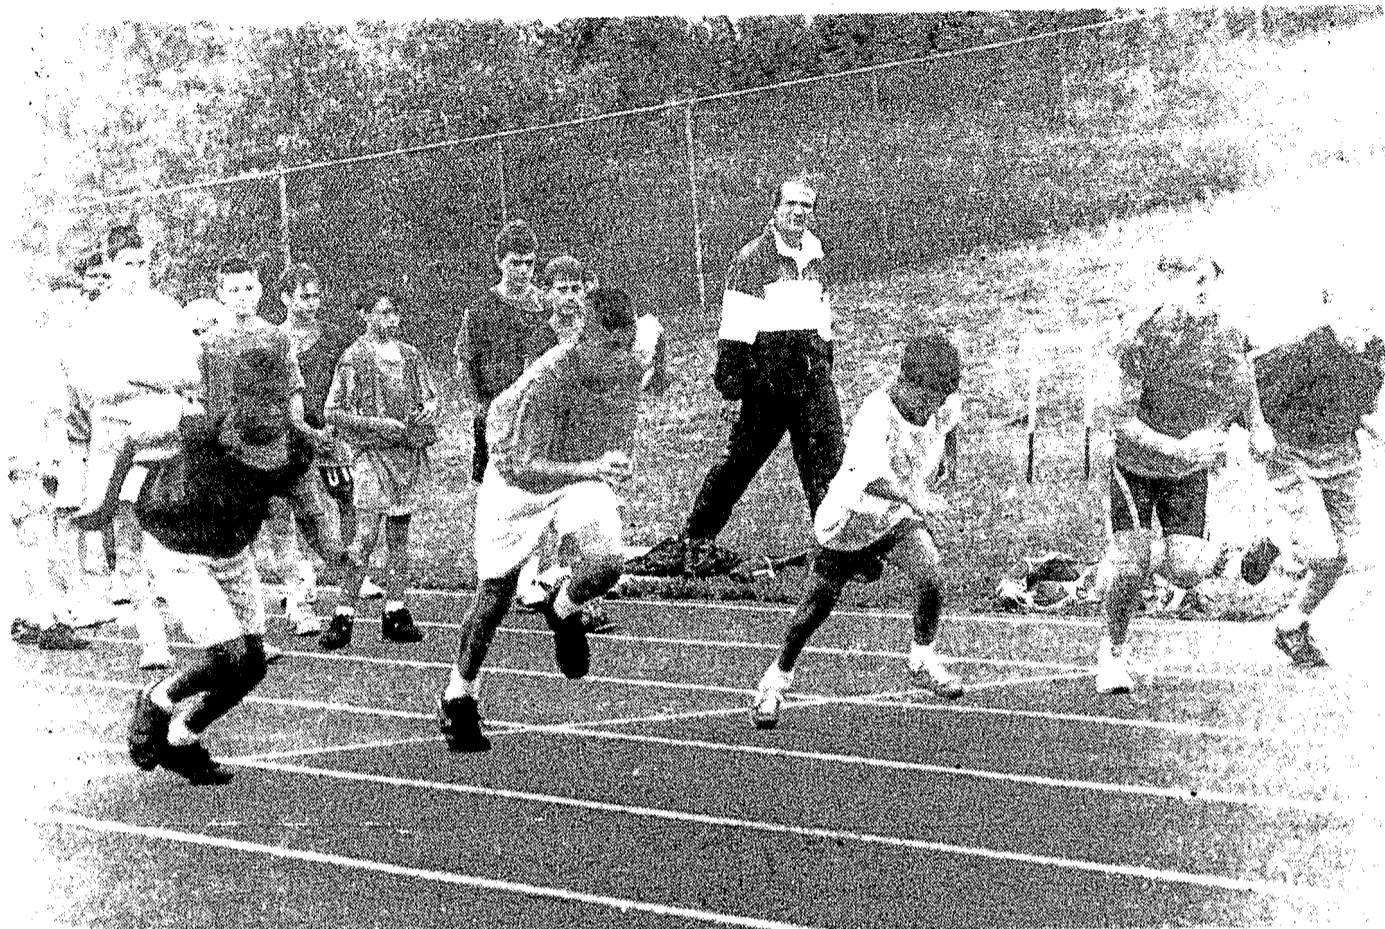

100 dash: (boys 9-10) 6. Jordan Preuss - 15.64

800 run: (girls 11-12) 2. Jennifer Bauer - 2:52.13; (girls 13-14) 2. Stephanie Bruklow - 2:37.18; (boys 9-10) 7. Adam Leech - 2:44.1

50 dash: (girls 9-10) 7. Alexis Williams - 8.17

200 dash: (girls 9-10) 3. Alexis Williams - 33.14; (boys 9-10) 1. Cody Senkyr - 31.63

400 run: (girls 9-10) 7. Katie Tripi - 80.72; (girls 11-12) 1. Nicole May - 67.5;

(boys 9-10) 7. Jared Bauer - 74.72; (boys 11-12) 2. Paul Ponton - 69.2

400 relay: (girls 9-10) 4. Natalie Stutzman, Tara Crawford, Becky Hart, Katie Tripi - 68.27; (girls 11-12) 2. Eilene Hart, Amanda Yarber, Georgia Senkyr, Nicole May - 59.45; (girls 13-14) 4. Kelly Simko, Stephanie Burklow, Nicole Bauer,

Becky Moore - 56.9; (boys 9-10) 5. Cody Senkyr, Brett Crawford, Kevin Breen, Jordan Preuss - 65.32

Other Clarkston area athletes who competed at the Hershey state finals were Jonathan Burklow, Ben Greenway, Laura Greenway, Josh Lafferty, Jackie Tripi, Roxanne Tripi and Kevin Weit.

Girls' sports cause biggest jump in attendance

An increase in spectator interest of five girls' sports in 1991-92 helped set an all-time Michigan high school post-season tournament attendance record.

According to the Michigan High School Athletic Association, 1,125,785 fans attended post-season contests last school year.

Attendance at girls' sports jumped by nearly 20 percent to a record 265,208. Five girls' sports (basketball, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, and volleyball) all had records at various tournament levels. Tournament series records were set in basketball (171,929), soccer (10,763), swimming and diving (3,699) and volleyball (34,108). The finals of the soccer (1,254), softball (3,720), and swimming and diving (3,212) set new marks.

Attendance at boys' tournaments remained relatively stable last school year

However, the team wrestling tournament continued to set records at all levels, including a tournament series record of 25,350 fans (an increase of over 10 percent from last year's record). The baseball regionals and finals each set new marks, with the finals at Battle Creek drawing 1,690 spectators.

The football playoffs, affected by poor weather during the first three rounds, drew 234,819 fans, compared to 268,815 for the first year of the eight-division format.

The total attendance for the year tops the old mark of 1,063,099 in 1987-88 (The MHSAA began keeping attendance totals in 1983). The actual attendance figure is slightly higher, as the MHSAA generally does not charge admission for alpine skiing, golf and tennis post-season events.

A star in the East

This Saturday Jon Wynnemko has a few more chances to drive defensive backs crazy.

Wynnemko, a Clarkston graduate and Class A all-state wide receiver, will be competing for the East squad in the East-West All Star football game 1:30 p.m. at Spartan Stadium on the campus of Michigan State University in East Lansing.

The annual game is sponsored by the Michigan High School Football Coaches Association.

The 6-foot, 175-pounder caught 55 passes for 782 yards and nine touchdowns during his senior season.

Wynnemko will attend Central Michigan University in the fall but will not be playing football for the Chippewas.

Football region announced

High school football regional assignments have been announced.

Clarkston will battle 20 other schools (through the computerized point system) for post-season play-off spots in Class AA Region III. The top four teams from each region (there are four regions in each of the eight classes) qualify.

The 21 teams in Class AA Region III this fall are:

Clarkston
 Dearborn - Fordson
 Detroit Chadsey
 Detroit Cody
 Detroit Cooley
 Detroit Henry Ford
 Detroit Mackenzie
 Detroit Mumford
 Detroit Redford
 Detroit Southwestern
 Lincoln Park
 Pontiac Central Pontiac Northern
 Redford Catholic Central
 Rochester Adams
 Rochester
 Southfield
 Southgate - Anderson
 Troy
 Waterford Mott
 West Bloomfield

Swinging from the heels

Smooth infields, Olympic women, WJR backstabbers

James Gibowski

Thumbs up or thumbs down.

Sports Illustrated stole the idea from Siskel and Ebert. Siskel and Ebert probably stole it from Roman emperors.

With that in mind, I have no guilt in presenting my own "Thumbs Up or Thumbs Down:"

To Independence Township Chief of Parks Mike Turk and his staff of Tom McDonald, Rob Ward, John Koslosky and Larry Hess for their upkeep of the Clintonwood Park softball diamonds (Fields No. 1, 2 and 3).

I play third base and never worry about any bad hops on the smooth-as-silk infields. I've played softball on leagues in Bay City, Cheboygan, Camas, Wash. and Gold Beach, Ore., and the Clintonwood fields are easily the best infields I've ever played on.

To the Independence Township Parks and Recreation Department for having breakaway bases only on fields No. 1 and No. 2 at Clintonwood Park. This thumbs down will become a thumbs up once field No. 3 gets the breakaway bases which have been proven to reduce the most common type of injury in softball games, players injuring their legs while sliding.

To anyone who spent $129 for the triple-cast of the Olympics (especially those who paid that amount while voting down the Clarkston School District's 2-mill increase a few weeks ago). You may not know what to do with your money, but just remember, you are helping the networks think more and more about eliminating free TV sports events and including more pay-for-view ripoffs.

To the U.S. women's basketball team for refusing to stay at a plush hotel, unlike their men's team counterparts.

The ugly American men's Dream Team is getting all of the TV coverage, promos and sponsor contracts while staying away from the Olympic Village, away from the rest of the world. The women, however, will win medals and win my respect for associating with the world's athletes.

To any golf courses that require golfers to use electric carts. Golfers should always have the option to walk, which is at least half of the sport's exercise.

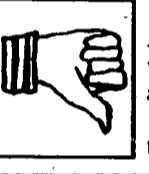

To Detroit Tigers owner Tom Monaghan for taking $23 million of profits from his baseball team and transferring it to his ailing Domino's Pizza company. The next time Bo and Psycho Tom cry about how they need a new baseball stadium (and they hope funded by the taxpaying suckers of Michigan) to compete and make a profit, think about that $23 million transfer (You also may want to think about that new church in Nicaragua). Who knows, maybe Lightning Rosary Tom will cry to the public to help make payments on an addition to Domino's Farms.

To WJR-AM radio for its non-answer when I asked the station about whether it would have the gall to re-hire Ernie Harwell if Tom Monaghan sells the team.

Phil Boyce, program director for Where Jerks Rule radio, told me that the Tigers are under contract with his station for the next four years, whether Monaghan sells the team or not. When I asked him about the chance of Harwell coming back in the radio booth if there is a new owner, Boyce said, "Stranger things have happened." And when I asked him about why the same station that helped fire Harwell last year would re-hire him, Boyce said, "I can't give you an answer."

If there is a new owner ("Adios Bo") who wants Ernie back, you can bet on WJR's yes-men to go along with whatever the owner asks. If that happens, plan on backstabbers J.P. McCarthy (the self-proclaimed voice of Michigan), Frank Yehhhhhman and other WJR personalities to suddenly welcome Ernie back.

To the red-white-and-blue outfitted parents of U.S. swimmer Anita Nall for letting their daughter accept $30,000 for a contract with The Gap, thus making the 16-year-old ineligible to compete for a college swim team.

I suggest the Nalls wear something in a cold green the next time the NBC cameras zoom in on them.

IF YOU THINK YOU CAN

Graduated June 30th, 1992

I went to a local college then I began working and realized I needed more. The computer and accounting experience I received at PBI-Oxford is just what I needed to get this great JOB. PBI also taught me how to deal with co-workers, I'm so glad I came here.

Dolphins sixth at league meet

Several swimmers from the Deer Lake Swim Club (the Dolphins) placed at the Tri-City League Meet July 23 at the Pontiac Central High School pool.

The Dolphins as a team finished sixth out of seventh squads, the club's best showing ever in the league.

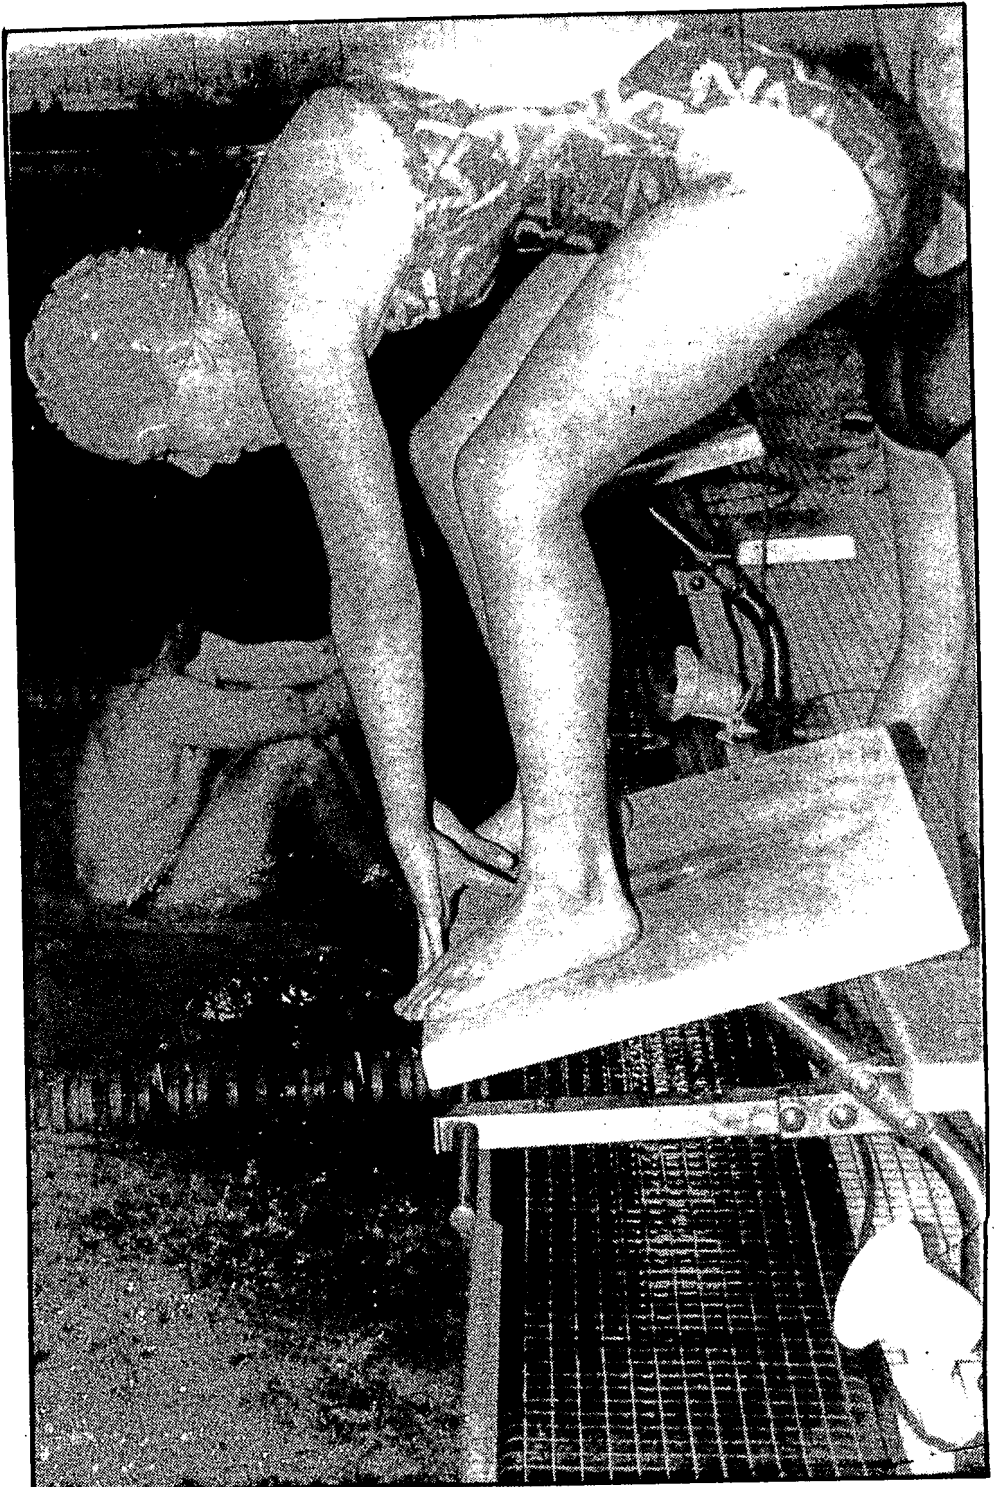

Jayson Scheiderer had the two top finishes for the Dolphins, placing second in both the 50 freestyle and 50 butterfly for 11-12 year olds.

Kelly Wall placed fourth in the 50 backstroke (15-17) and her brother Pat Wall took fourth in the 50 breast stroke (15-17). Also finishing fourth were Dennise Vidosh in the 50 freestyle (11-12) and Mike Howell in the 50 breast stroke (11-12).

Fifth-place finishers were: Amy

Licatovich (25 backstroke for 8-and-under); Kelly Wall (50 freestyle for 13-14); Ashley Halleran (50 breast stroke for 13-14); Kim Deacon (50 breast stroke for 11-12); Jennifer Zorza, Vidosh, Angela Ruth and Renee VanKlaveren (200 relay medley for combined ages); Jay Pace, Scheiderer, Howell and Pat Wall (200 relay medley for combined ages).

Placing sixth were: Lorne Deacon, Nicholas Body, Andrew Body and Travis Jewell (100 relay freestyle for combined ages); Kim Deacon, Heather Jewell, Colleen Ramsey and Elizabeth Harlton (200 relay freestyle for combined ages); Mike Moran, Andrew Body, Donn Vidosh and Lorne Deacon (200 relay for combined ages).

Fox Hills swimmer places first

Fifteen-year-old Fiona E. Brown, an Independence Township resident who attends Birmingham Marian High School, won two swimming events at the July 23 Tri-City League Meet.

Brown, who swims for the Bloomfield Hills Fox Hills Swim Club, finished first in the 100 yard individual medley for 15-17 year olds (1:01.32) and first in the 100 freestyle (1:00.0).

Chief sign-up this Monday

The Clarkston Football Association will be holding its annual sign-up and physical night Monday, Aug. 3, for the Clarkston Chiefs football players, cheerleaders and pom pon squad.

The sign-up and physicals will take place at the American Legion Hall on M-15 in Independence Township from 6 to 8 p.m.

The cost of registration for one participant is $50 (two or more within the same family will cost $60). In addition, physicals will cost $7 per participant.

Each registrant should bring in a copy of his or her birth certificate, along with a current wallet size photo of themselves. For more information, call 623-9319.

Fall practices open Aug. 10

Fall practice officially begins Aug. 10 for high school sports.

Over 100,000 boys and girls statewide are expected to take part in the eight fall sports sponsored by the Michigan High School Athletic Association.

The Aug. 10 date means that football schools will have the option to conduct four weeks of practice before opening play on Sept. 4.

Football schools will still be required to conduct three days of drills without pads before contact can begin and have 14 days of practice before the first game. Some schools may use the extra week of practice for an additional scrimmage.

Football is the only sport in the fall which requires practice minimums prior to competition. All other activities can engage in competition as soon as member schools determine their teams are ready.

The MHSAA Football Finals will be at the Pontiac Silverdome Nov. 27-28. Fall tournament competition begins in mid-October with activity in boys' golf, girls' tennis and cross country, and ends with the girls' basketball finals in Battle Creek, Dec. 4-5.

One major change in fall sports takes place in Lower Peninsula boys' golf, with a two-day final making its debut. There will action on four courses in the greater Lansing area Oct. 16, with individual and team qualifiers advancing to the final round Oct. 17 on the Forest Akers Golf Courses in East Lansing.

Golfers raise $10,000

Twenty-nine foursomes helped raise $10,000 in profits at the 5th Annual SCAMP Golf Outing July 17.

The golfers braved a constant rain at the par-72 Spring Lake Country Club course in the best-ball event.

Over $3,000 in prizes were awarded. Firing a 10-under 62 and winning the men's division were Dan Angelli, Mark Brzezinski, Dave McGear and Bob Diedrich.

The top foursome of women, who shot a 65, were Mary Crabtree, Pat McFarland, Cheryl Nagy and Sally Hukka.

The mixed division winners also shot a 65. They were Marilyn Porter, Eric Booker, Gale Clauw and Dave Jacob.

Lancaster Lakes

Are you looking to make a move, but ordinary isn't good enough? In recent years, the living habits of Americans have changed dramatically. One reason is the emergence of the modern, luxury apartment communities. We are finding people just don't have time to be bothered with continual maintenance problems and expenses of home ownership. They are opting for the style of apartments like those available at LANCASTER LAKES.

Nestled amidst 50 rolling acres, they are located at 5147 Lancaster Hills Dr. in Historic Clarkston (only 2 minutes from I-75). LANCASTER LAKES offers personalized lease packages to suit your lifestyle, as well as many amenities other communities may not.

In addition to regularly scheduled residential activities, they have complimentary vacation services and hospitality suites. They also feature a complete fitness center with a personal trainer on staff, a dry sauna, whirlpool, tennis, basketball and volleyball courts and an outdoor pool.

Well planned, soundly constructed and professionally maintained one and two bedroom apartments are available. Each features a private entry way, plush carpeting, appliances, cable TV hook up and a carport. There are also apartments available with cathedral ceilings, a den and a fireplace.

Visit LANCASTER LAKES and begin living in a pleasant environment, conveniently located off Dixie Hwy. Call 625-6007 for a tour of the community and a chance to see how surprisingly affordable all this really is.

SMITH'S DISPOSAL & RECYCLING, INC.

Family Owned & Operated

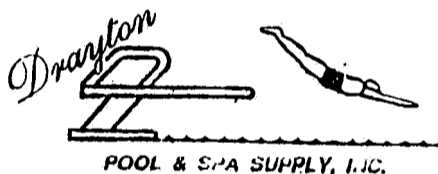

Probably the most unappreciated member of any community is the local refuse collectors. When the service is good, which is what firms such as SMITH'S DISPOSAL & RECYCLING go out of their way to provide, there is little thanks.

But the facts are that a good refuse collection and container service, despite its lack of recognition, is vital to any community.

Located in Clarkston, phone 625-5470, this firm offers weekly service for homes, apartments, businesses, factories and mobile home parks.

The containers come in a variety of sizes and aren't permitted to overflow or become rodent-infested; thus, becoming a health hazard. SMITH'S DISPOSAL & RECYCLING offers 2 to 8 yard rearload containers and they have waste wheelers available.

SMITH'S DISPOSAL not only offers residential and commercial disposal services, but they also offer curbside recycling, as well. Their services help make our future brighter by recycling products for tomorrow's needs. So don't let anyone give you any trash about who has the best collection service in this area. Rely on SMITH'S DISPOSAL & RECYCLING, INC.

POOL & SPA SUPPLY, I.N.C.

has been serving the community with quality products and dependable service since 1955. Contractors are always welcome at DRAYTON POOL & SPA SUPPLY. The writers of this "Messages From Your Business Community" Section take pleasure in referring CAMPBELL, KEENAN, HARRY, COONEY & KARLSTROM for legal assistance. Call 625-0600 today for more information. We know you'll be glad you did!

BRETT CHIROPRACTIC FAMILY CARE

Did you know that an extensive amount of college training is required to become a licensed Chiropractic physician? Initially, a 4 year college program is the normal course of study. Immediately following, there are 4 years of on-campus training, including a clinical internship.

Chiropractic is not a new concept. It is almost 100 years old. Today, Chiropractic has become the largest drugless healing profession in the Western World. This science explains that some of the causes of pain or disease in the body are the vertebral subluxations which create pressure upon nerves and interfere with the normal transmission of vital nerve energy.

The Chiropractor's objective is to locate the place in the spine where the nerve pressure exists and by specific adjustments, restore vertebrae to their normal function. These corrective adjustments release pressure on nerves, and thereby allows the body to heal itself. In addition to traditional "back pain," other conditions which may respond to Chiropractic care include treatment of headaches, whiplash, work accidents, sports injuries, pinched nerves, and numbness, to name just a few.

This message has been brought to you through the courtesy of BRETT CHIROPRACTIC FAMILY CARE. Dr. Brett's office is located at 857 N. Lapeer Rd. (M-24) in Lake Orion, phone 693-6564. He is a member of the Christian Chiropractors Association Inc. He also offers discount plans including family plans and pre-payment savings plans.

CARING HOME SUPPORT SERVICES

"Nursing is Caring"

As Americans grow older their needs change. They often need a little help in order to remain living at home. Traditionally, this help has been provided by family members, but as lifestyles have changed, family members are not always able to provide this assistance.

CARING HOME SUPPORT SERVICES can provide home care aids to help the elderly, handicapped or convalescent maintain their independence in the privacy of their home. They offer long term, basic care and support to help their clients maintain their independence. They offer help with daily activities such as shopping, bathing, meal preparation, light housekeeping, safety monitoring, etc. Care can be scheduled either round the clock or intermittently during specified hours on a day to day basis as dictated by the clients particular needs.

The writers of this "Messages From Your Business Community" Section are pleased to call the services of CARING HOME SUPPORT SERVICES, located at 3093 Sashabaw Rd. in Waterford, to our readers attention. Phone Mary Ann at 673-9820 for further information or details.

SILVER SADDLE

If you enjoyed the movie "City Slickers" and would love to do some horseback riding of your own, call SILVER SADDLE at 627-2826.

Horseback riding is an exciting, challenging and fun sport, one that can be enjoyed from childhood until well into the senior years. SILVER SADDLE, located at 2991 Oakwood Rd. in Ortonville, phone 627-2826, offers trail riding on 150 acres of both wooded and open trails.

If riding seems a little too bone-jarring for you, ask about their hay rides where you can enjoy the beauty of the country side in the comfort of a hay filled wagon.

All in all, for a day or evening of fun, the writers of this "Messages From Your Business Community" Section suggest you call SILVER SADDLE at 627-2826. We know you'll be glad you

DOUG BARKER HEATING & COOLING

TEMPSTAR

Heating & Cooling Products

When you want year 'round comfort in your home or place of business, call DOUG BARKER HEATING & COOLING. They have served the area's heating and cooling needs for many years.

With all the issues related to our environment today, DOUG BARKER HEATING & COOLING would like to make you aware of the new Clean Air Act which was recently passed by Congress, backed by the E.P.A. and went into effect as of July 1, 1992. The law requires all technicians who work with freon to be certified and meet E.P.A. standards.

The venting of freon into the atmosphere is a threat to our environment. However, the passing of this law will affect everyone from the local consumer to anyone in business who uses freon. DOUG BARKER HEATING & COOLING presently has technicians that are needed to properly handle the new requirements for venting freon.

DOUG BARKER HEATING & COOLING features complete sales, installation, regular maintenance and repairs of heating and air conditioning systems at a competitive rate. "They install The Best & Service The Rest."

Located at G-4425 Richfield Rd. in Flint, their staff invites you to call (313) 736-4450 (Flint) or (313) 658-2884 (Davison) with any questions you may have regarding the new Clean Air Act or for heating and cooling needs.

S & L AUTO BODY

Locally Owned & Operated By Larry Smith

Maybe you don't need to read this, but if you or someone you know has been involved in an auto accident, consider having the professional staff at S & L AUTO BODY repair the vehicle to its pre-accident condition. The recent changes in auto designs and repair technology require the proper training, equipment, and materials. For example, most every automobile manufacturer both foreign and domestic, have introduced unibody construction (which constitutes the majority of cars on the road today.) A special measuring system is needed to secure, measure and repair these cars to their strict tolerances.

With vehicle manufacturers increasing the length of rust-proofing through warranties on new cars, restoring the corrosion protection is probably the most important process. If the process isn't followed, a manufacturer will void the warranty after repair. Finally in order to duplicate the factory finish the final refinishing and accurate color matching is done with an extremely durable urethane refinishing system. The finish is applied in a state of the art Down-Draft booth, which maintains a constant warm, dry, and dust-free environment so your car will look and stay like new.

All of the above procedures can be performed at S & L AUTO BODY, located at 4712 Sashabaw Rd. in Clarkston, phone 674-3443.

Area man intends to continue what Perot started

BY CURT MCALLISTER
Clarkston News Associate Editor

It's been nearly two weeks since Texas billionaire H. Ross Perot pulled out of the presidential race, crushing the dreams of thousands of ardent supporters.

However, a Clarkston-area man has vowed not to throw the towel in quite yet.

Henry Watson of Allen Road, Independence Township, said Perot's short-lived candidacy proved that the public has become disenfranchised with the country's power structure.

"If anything, the Perot movement proved that the American public is tired of the status quo," he said. "Perot may be gone, but the public's need for a third political party still remains."

With this in mind, Watson said he intends to meet with 12 other area supporters from the former Perot campaign and map out a long-term strategy for preserving this grass-roots fervor. He said he'll likely have an organizational meeting in Holly in a couple of weeks.

Watson said he and his wife, Rosemary, jumped on the Perot bandwagon shortly after he appeared on the "Larry King Show" a few months ago.

"When he said he was interested in running for president, we called down to Texas right away," he said. "We really believed that he could make a difference."

However, months of gathering ballot petition signatures and garnering support came to end on July 15, when the former EDS mogul dropped from the race.

"I was very disappointed, but a lot of the younger folks were down-right angry," Watson said. "For most of them, it was their first taste of politics, and then Perot goes and reneges on his intentions. They couldn't help but feel betrayed."

Perot still remains on about half the states' ballots, including Michigan's. However, Watson said he isn't quite sure who he'll vote for in November.

"It's still up in the air, but there's no way I'll vote for either Clinton or Bush," he said. "I imagine I'll probably go with Ross when the time comes."

Even though Perot let down a lot of people, Watson said he believes Perot's efforts got Americans interested in politics again.

"His campaign spurred a lot of young people to look into politics for the first time and got some of the older folks re-involved in the political process, as well," he said. "With many of the supporters, like myself, we know what we've had in our lives and lost along the way. We're just trying to preserve the future for our children and grandchildren."

"You haven't seen the end of this movement yet," Watson added.

Park may open next year

BY CURT MCALLISTER
Clarkston News Associate Editor

The dilapidated Baycourt Park is about to receive a shot in the arm, which will enable it to re-open its picnic area to the public sometime next year.

On July 21, the Independence Township Board agreed to pay its share of a $314,270 state grant, awarded by the Department of Natural Resources last October. The board voted 6-0 to adopt the resolution. Trustee Daniel Travis absent from the meeting.

The township's share of the grant will be $104,750. The Andersonville Road park has been dormant since the township purchased the 50-acre parcel with the help of state grant money in the late 1980s.

Ann Conklin, director of parks and recreation, said the much-needed money will go toward a new entrance, the parking lot, gazebos, picnic shelters, on-grounds infra-structure, and bathrooms in one building. She said only the "park" area would be open to the public, upon completion.

Conklin hopes to break ground this spring and to re-open the park by either late spring or early summer of 1993. These plans must travel the route of the planning commission before any construction begins, she added.

Conklin said it would cost around $5 million to revamp the entire park, including the beachfront and large community center. Township voters have denied two millage requests to do so over the past couple of years.

DNR to study lake

Boat control on Softwater Lake was one topic of discussion before the Springfield Township Board July 8.

The board decided to ask the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) to investigate the lake, hold a public hearing and write an ordinance concerning what vehicles and motors can be used on the lake.

Softwater Lake covers 40 acres between Dixie Highway and I-75.

Supervisor Collin Walls said that while reviewing a plan for new condominiums on the lake, the rules governing the lake came up.

Some residents believed that no motors were allowed on the lake, while others thought that only electrical motors were to be used. However, there are no set rules for the use of vehicles on the lake.

The DNR investigation will result in a township ordinance by which to govern the lake.

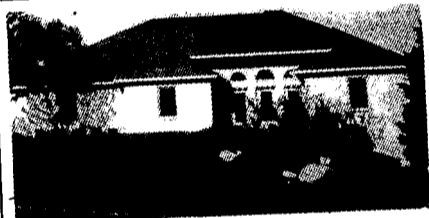

Go figure

A theft of cymbals from Clarkston High School has caused bafflement for some.

On July 20, a CHS maintenance person reported a case of breaking and entering at the school.

Apparently, an unidentified person entered the school through a door that had its latch taped, then stole three cymbals near the band room. The person then left by another door, which had an alarm but was disarmed by him or her.

The case is under investigation by the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Youth movement sparks Congressional race

On the ballot

BY ANNETTE KINGSBURY

Is this the year Dale Kildee is vulnerable? What with redistricting and the house banking scandal, it could be that the longtime Democratic incumbent from Flint will face a serious challenge for his job in November.

But the outcome could just depend upon which of four Republicans the voters choose next week to challenge him. Each candidate is very different in personality, style, beliefs and experience. Here's a profile of each of them.

Michael J. Balian

Balian, 31, of Rochester, is a graduate of Adams High School, George Washington University and the University of Detroit Law School. A lifelong area resident, he has a law practice in Rochester and is a member of the State Bar of Michigan.

If elected, he pledges to have a direct line available to his constituents so they can easily voice their concerns.

"It is the people, and not special interest groups, that should have control in Congress," he says. "We must return to the core values that made America strong."

The environment: "There are contaminated waste sites in the Ninth District, and we have to get them cleaned up. The people of Michigan pay more in taxes than they receive back from the federal government, and it is time we ask for our share to restore our area to its pristine beauty."

The economy: "We must make better use of tax incentives to control business movement into the state, and to promote job retraining and job protection."

The federal budget: "You have to go beyond balancing the budget. You have to cut spending." He cited less regulation, and overhauls in welfare and military spending as ways to do that.

Health care: He supports tax incentives to businesses which provide insurance for employees. "Government has an obligation to ensure that those Americans who truly need assistance receive help from public or private sources, but people also have an obligation to take steps to provide for their own needs, and those of their families, to the extent that they are able to do so."

Trade: "I favor fair trade. As long as it's fair I see it as free."

Abortion: "I believe abortion is the termination of life, but it's an individual's decision to make." He would allow states to set limits, however.

Free speech: Balian feels free speech ends when it becomes intimidation. He supports a recent Supreme Court ruling banning prayer at school functions.

Gun control: Opposes gun control except for assault weapons.

Term limitation: No.

Chuck Forrest

Forrest, 31, has already led an interesting life. A Birmingham Seaholm High School graduate, he received his law degree from the University of Michigan in 1987. Law school was financed by his winnings on the TV quiz show "Jeopardy," where he was at one time the all-time biggest money winner.

After graduation from law school he entered the U.S. State Department as a foreign service officer and served in the U.S. embassy in Saudi Arabia and the consulate in Dubai.

In the private sector, he worked for Delta International, a Saudi-based investment company. He has a BA in Near Eastern languages from Yale and an MA in Islamic studies from the University of Michigan. He was a Fulbright Scholar at the University of Damascus and is fluent in Arabic.

He has also published a book called "Secrets of the Jeopardy Champions." He is single, lives in Grand Blanc

Balian

Forrest

O'Neill

and practices law in Flint. He has received the endorsement of the North Area Citizens Conference.

Trade: "Trade is not a threat, it is the only way for Michigan to move forward," he says. "It is time we had a leader in Washington who will fight to keep the jobs we have, and fight to bring new jobs, created by new technologies and new markets, into our areas."

Term limitation: Forrest says he will limit himself to four terms. "We need term limits and we need to reform the seniority system. While Dale Kildee builds seniority, his district falls further and further behind economically."

The economy: "I will introduce legislation to require that the federal budget process include a mechanism to prevent huge disparities between the amounts of federal spending each state receives. If the people of Michigan received fair value for the taxes we pay, we could fix our roads, revitalize our infrastructure and vastly improve our economic future."

The environment: "I believe that the industry that can serve as the engine for Michigan's growth is environmental technology--the techniques and equipment that reduce pollution and clean up waste. Environmental technology is an exceptionally fast-growing field. Before the end of this decade the industry is expected to provide 1.5 million new jobs for Americans and grow into a $300 billion world market."

Abortion: "I think it's a choice that should be left to the woman involved."

Health care: "We've got to guarantee health care to everybody." Favors shifting tax deductions for insurance from employers to employees and vouchers for the uninsured.

Federal spending: "Congress is micro-managing the government . . . Congress has got to get out of the business of making discreet line items on how things are done."

Free speech: "I'm basically an absolutist. I think we need to have as little regulation as possible. That's part of the democratic process."

Gun control: Feels it's a state issue. "Crime control begins at home."

Megan O'Neill

O'Neill, 30, of Clarkston, is a University of Detroit graduate in biology who has worked on the Bush/Quayle advance team for the last two years, including trips to Moscow and Japan. She also has experience in the health care field in marketing and management. She has been endorsed by NACC.

The budget: O'Neill believes in a mandatory balanced federal budget without raising taxes. Citing Dale Kildee's vote against such an amendment, she says, "If the average household or business had not balanced their budget once since 1969 our country would be in dire straits. Taxpayers have a right to demand that their money is spent prudently . . .

Abortion: Is endorsed by Right to Life. Is against fetal tissue research.

Health care: "Health care is needed which places the welfare of the patient first and foremost. Medical services that stress quality and not dollars are essential to people of all ages."

Trade: "We need fair trade, not free trade. American products are competitive when given equal market opportunity."

The environment: "I don't think protecting our environment and business interests are mutually exclusive."

The economy: "We rank 47th in terms of dollars sent back to our state."

Free speech: "The problem is if government starts to restrict it in one place it will start to erode away."

Term limits: Yes.

Gun control: No.

D. Todd Tindall

Tindall, 31, is a lifelong resident of Lapeer County, a county commissioner and an insurance business owner. He and his wife have five children.

Tindall says the moral fiber of America is deteriorating and the country's leadership is at fault. He sees himself as a patriot rather than a politician, saying he "loves his country like a dad loves his kids."

"I am committed to reestablishing trust in Congress and returning to the moral and ethical principles our country was founded upon."

Abortion: "I am firmly on the side of a child's right to live . . . and am proud to proclaim that in any crowd."

Health care: "We will never solve the problem of health care until we solve the problem of cost." Doesn't favor a federal health system.

Federal spending: Favors a balanced budget amendment and a presidential line-item veto.

Free speech: Supports prayer at school functions. "As I read history our nation was founded upon God and upon Godly principles."

The environment: "There must be a balance between the EPA and property owners' rights." Says over-regulation is having a "stifling effect."

Trade: Supports eliminating the capital gains tax. "Capital goes where capital grows."

The economy: "Waste has got to be cut out of government. We've got to be fiscally responsible."

Gun control: No. "They'll pry it out of my cold, clammy hands when they come and get mine."

Term limitation: Yes.

Races heat up for Springfield Township seats

On the ballot

Voters in Springfield Township will see many candidates for local seats on the Aug. 4 primary ballot. Following is a list of candidates plus a profile of some who face opposition.

Only Supervisor Collin Walls, a Republican, is unopposed in his re-election bid for the township board.

Michael O'Hearn is the sole Democrat running for the township Parks Commission, while Republicans and Helen Vergin are the only Republicans vying for spots on the commission. Since six positions are open on the parks commission, write-in candidates could win seats.

Township clerk

No Democrats appear on the ballot for township clerk. Those voting Republican may choose one of the following four:

Cynthia M. Ashley

Cynthia M. Ashley, 32, of Big Lake Road has resided in the community for 12 years. She and her husband Edward have two children, Stephen, 8, and Sarah, 14. Both attend Clarkston schools.

Previously employed in retail management, Ashley now works on volunteer projects. She is a current board member and past president of the Parent Teacher Organization at Andersonville Elementary School and served on the Clarkston's Schools of Choice Committee. She also volunteers in many ways at Andersonville Elementary.

Ashley is treasurer for Big Lake Quality Water Association, co-chairs the weed harvesting program for Big Lake, and is a citizen representative for the Oakland County Drain Commission Board.

A Pontiac Central High School graduate, Ashley is majoring in business and accounting at Oakland Community College - Highland Lakes Campus and plans to continue her education toward a law degree.

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

"Taxation is a problem, and we need more services. New development is a challenge.

"We have a really good master plan. If the township board supports and stays consistent with it, it will make things better.

"We should limit spending with better research into outside contracting, not just limiting ourselves with local contracting in Oakland County. We should apply for more grant money.

"The clerk's office should be friendlier and should provide more information for residents."

James A. Ashley

James A. Ashley, 31, of Ely Road is a lifelong area resident. He and his wife Loretta have four children: James, 8; Jonathan, 6; Justin, 5; and Jared, 2 1/2.

A self-employed physical fitness therapist, Ashley has worked in the health and fitness field for 15 years. He holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Michigan and earned an education degree with minors in economy and history from U-M.

Ashley served for two years on the Holly Board of Education and has coached seventh- and eighth-grade football as well as assisting with varsity football coaching in Holly schools. He is a Davisburg Youth Association Board member, a Little League baseball coach and has been beach director in Holly Township.

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

"The biggest problem is growth. They predict the township to be the fastest growing township in the county.

"We need to control that growth in a positive way, with a good master plan that can be reviewed and renewed yearly.

"With growth is the problem of added waste. Recycling is a good solution for that. In addition, the increasing amount of traffic has caused problems on dirt roads in the area.

"It's important to listen to the citizens in the community."

Nancy Strole

Nancy Strole, 50, of Davisburg Road has lived in the township seven years. She and her husband, Wayne, have one son, Michael, 13.

Strole was an honors graduate from The American University, Washington, D.C., where she achieved dual majors in international studies and communications.

A communications consultant, Strole was elected to her current township trustee position in 1988. She is a township delegate to the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments; an alternate member, Areawide Water Quality Board; member, Springfield Business Association; member Lighthouse North Steering Committee.

Springfield Township

She was an officer on the Patterson/ Anderson Proposal Committee (property tax reform initiative headed by Brooks Patterson), a co-founder of RAID (Springfield-area citizens organization that challenged the state's plans to locate a criminal offenders facility on Springfield's border); a member of Holly Prison Fact-Finding Committee — and drafted the committee's report the the community; past committee chair, Springfield area Cub Scout Pack; and previously active in parent school activities.

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

"I don't think there is one single 'problem.' Rather, I think Springfield will face a continual and multi-faceted challenge of balancing township growth and competing demands for expanded services with the goal to protect Springfield's environment, retain its quality of life and small-town character and live within a limited township budget.

"Springfield's recently updated master plan, together with its goals and policy document, will serve as tools for effectively and rationally managing township growth and protecting Springfield's natural resources.

"Controlling spending is a matter of budgeting: Setting priorities, making hard choices."

Kathleen Woods

Kathleen Woods could not be reached for comment.

Township Treasurer

No Democrats appear of the ballot for township treasurer. Those voting Republican may choose one of the following two candidates:

Geraldine Rumph

Geraldine Rumph, 51, of Rattalee Lake Road has lived in the township 16 years. She and her husband, Jerry, have two children, Janice, 16, and Joe, 9, who attend Our Lady of the Lakes schools in Waterford.

Rumph holds a bachelor of science degree in accounting with minors in finance and psychology from the University of Detroit.

She worked for the City of Detroit for over five years in the accounting office and was employed by Advance Mortgage Corp. for over eight years filing corporate taxes, preparing general ledger entries, reconciling bank statements and serving as office manager. She is now a part-time bookkeeper for a family-owned business.

Rumph has been involved in Cub Scouts, Latch Key and Oakland County 4-H.

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

"We are growing industrially and residentially. We have to adequately meet the needs of the community."

(See POSITIONS, next page)

On the ballot

County race

Springfield Township voters also must select a commissioner for Oakland County's 2nd District.

Oakland County Commissioner, 2nd District

Democrat John S. Marcus is unopposed in his bid for a spot on the November election; however, Republicans John Ingamells, Michael L. Odette and Donna R. Hutton face each other for the Republican spot in November's election.

Treasurer, clerk, trustee positions contested

On the ballot

Lois Stiles

Lois Stiles, 60, of King Road has lived in Springfield Township for 25 years. She and her husband, the late Jim Stiles, had one son, the late Adam.

She has been Springfield Township's treasurer since 1988 and was the deputy treasurer from 1985 to 1988. Prior to working for the township, Stiles owned and operated her own business for more than 25 years. She holds associate degrees from Oakland Community College and Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, and is a certified municipal finance administrator.

Stiles is a member of the Young at Heart club and GOALS (Getting aLong After Losing a Spouse) support group.

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

"The entire township faces three serious problems: (1) Taxes, taxes, taxes and the state of the economy. My taxpayers are carrying a terrible burden. (2) Disintegrating rural roads that are being eroded by Michigan weather and increased traffic. (3) Development and its impact on schools, roads and the environment.

"I wish I had all the answers. Membership in various treasurers' organizations and their committees provide a network for the exchange of ideas. Ideas are the beginnings of solutions. Good solutions often come from people working together on mutual problems.

"We also (need to) keep a close eye on legislation pending at the state and federal levels. We watch anything that will take from the taxpayer's pocket. The township board is currently working with Michigan Department of Transportation, Oakland County Road Commission and U.S. Rep. Carr on the road problems."

Township trustees

Five people are vying for four township trustee slots. All are on the Republican ticket.

Dennis Vallad

Dennis Vallad, 39, of Sunset Cove has been a Springfield Township resident for 12 years. Vallad and his wife, Jean, have three daughters.

Vallad holds a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from General Motors Institute and a master's degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Michigan. He has been employed by General Motors Corp. since 1969 and is currently assistant staff engineer with the Powertrain Group in Warren.

Vallad has been a township trustee since 1988 and also has served three years on the Zoning Board of Appeals and one year on the Planning Commission.

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

"Most of the roads in Springfield Township are gravel and require constant attention. We need to continue with the county's Tri-Party program and attempt to expand it. Increased privatization for chloriding, ditching, gravel and general maintenance and improvement projects could stretch our very limited resources. The township board has initiated dialogue with Congressman Carr to bring more federal dollars back to this area.

"The township's master plan was updated in 1987 and has recently been updated in spring 1992. We must continue to adhere to the principles of this document and continue to review and update it — a fine tuning if you will. My experience with both the Zoning Board of Appeals and the Planning Commission will prove invaluable in managing growth."

Margaret Bloom

Margaret Bloom, 56, of Rattalee Lake Road has been a lifelong area resident. She and her husband, Robert, have two sons: David, 23; and Jeff, 19.

Bloom, a medical transcription secretary at Midwest Diagnostic Imaging in Waterford, is a Clarkston High School graduate and attended Pontiac Business Institute for one year.

Bloom has served as a township board trustee for four years and also served as recording secretary for the Zoning Board of Appeals and the Planning Commission.

She is secretary of Northwest Oakland Community Services, Springfield Historical Society, and the Clarkston Farm Bureau. Past community involvement includes Clarkston schools, Boy Scouts and 4-H.

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

"Continuous growth is the biggest problem facing Springfield Township today. The influx of new site condominium developments has a large impact on our natural resources, our schools, roads and essential services. Solid waste management could be a problem now that the county's plan has failed."

"As a township board member I will strive for quality development in the appropriately zoned areas such as residential, commercial and industrial. Adhering to our master plan and the updating of ordinances will help to control our density."

Roger J. Horton

Roger J. Horton, 53, of Eaton Road has lived in the community for 28 years. He and his wife Myrna have two children: Ron, 29, and Kim, 26.

Horton, a retired General Motors Corp. supervisor, holds a degree from Ferris State University, Big Rapids.

Springfield Township

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

Horton was unavailable for comment.

Elaine Field-Smith

Elaine Field-Smith, 37, of Ormond Road is a life-long township resident whose roots to the community go back 150+ years. She and her husband, Jerry, have one child, David, 5.

A Holly High School graduate, Field-Smith holds an associate's degree in X-ray technology from Ferris State University, Big Rapids. She attends Oakland Community College, where she's studying business administration.

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

"I think that development should progress, covering all different zoning requirements, closely following established guidelines."

Charles M. Oaks

Charles M. Oaks, 45, of Broadway has lived in Springfield Township for 18 years. He and his wife Marlene have three children: Thomas, 16; Carrie, 13; and Rachel, 10.

Oaks, owner of Davisburg Auto Service, served on the Springfield Township Parks Commission for eight years and has been a township trustee for two terms.

He worked with Nancy Strole on the Patterson/Anderson Tax Cut Proposal (property tax reform initiative headed by Brooks Patterson) and has been a member of the Springfield Township Fire Department since 1976. Oaks has been involved with the Jaycees and with the Springfield Township Zoning Board of Appeals.

What's the biggest problem facing Springfield Township, and what's your solution?

One of Oaks' major concerns for the area is growth. "(We should) try to be reasonable... roach and control the density."

Solid waste is another problem, he said.

"I support the inter-government program," said Oaks, explaining that it calls for local governments to promise to take their garbage to the county incinerator and recycling plants.

"My number one priority would be recycling," he said.

COSMETIC SURGERY

QUESTION: My home needs quite a bit of repair before I put it up for sale. How far should I go financially in order to make it "salable"?

ANSWER: If it's a relatively small amount for improving appearance, fine—but think twice before investing large sums into making EXTENSIVE improvements prior to selling. You'll be lucky to get back 50% on every dollar spent.

The exception to the rule is what we call "cosmetic treatment." A paint and paper job once over lightly may be prudent.

You may find that you can sell the house faster, with more profit by dropping the price the same amount you expect to spend on repairs.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Schebor of North Holcomb, Clarkston, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn Lynn, to Jeffrey Raymond Dufour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dufour of Clark Road, Davisburg. The bride-elect is a 1985 graduate of Clarkston High School and a 1989 graduate of Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant. She currently is employed as an executive assistant at DMC Health Care Centers, Novi. The prospective groom is a 1984 graduate of Clarkston High School and is currently pursuing a bachelor's degree in engineering technology from Lawrence Technological University, Southfield. He is employed as a designer by Takata Corp. of Auburn Hills. An Oct. 10, 1992, wedding is planned.

Grads

Joseph S. Attia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Attia of Elk Run, Independence Township, recently was graduated from Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo.

He majored in economics/business administration and studied at the London School of Economics, London, England, as a part of the college's foreign study program.

For his senior individualized project, he worked as a warehouse manager for Back to Basics in Silver Spring, Md. After graduation, he plans to work for Back to Basics for a few years before attending graduate school.

Shannon K. Duffie of Clarkston is among the 126 graduates from the Detroit College of Business-Flint who took part in commencement exercises June 20 at the Masonic Temple, Detroit.

Shannon earned an associate of business administration degree in computer information systems.

Marylea K. Brondyke of Clarkston received a bachelor of applied science degree in nursing and general studies from Siena Heights College, Southfield Center.

Honors

Six area college students were named to the dean's list for the winter 1992 term at the University of Michigan College of Engineering, Ann Arbor.

These students were: Dale Chandler of Ellis Road, Kyle Chenet of Old Cove Road, Paul Jensen of Allen Road, Craig Litherlan of Hummingbird Lane, Stacey Secatch of South Main Street, and Douglas Treder of Pleasant View.

Heidi Barnes, 14, of Clarkston just completed a week at the "Aviation Challenge" in Huntsville, Ala. At this camp, Heidi learned how to be a fighter pilot by using F-14 and F-16 jet simulators.

Aviation Challenge is a non-profit, educational program patterned after the U.S. Navy Top Gun fighter pilot competition.

Douglas Treder of Pleasant Ridge, Independence Township, has been named to the winter's dean list at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

A 1989 graduate of Clarkston High School, Treder is majoring in computer engineering. The 20-year-old begins his senior year of college this fall.

Amy Davis, daughter of John Davis of Detroit and Bobbie Davis of Clarkston, was named to the dean's honor roll for the spring 1992 at Abilene Christian University, Abilene, Texas.

Jess D. Killion of Allen Road, Independence Township, recently was among the additional 1,300 named winners of Merit Scholarships funded by colleges and university.

Killion, a Clarkston High School graduate, plans to study engineering at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo. While at CHS, he was a member of the National Honor Society, Blue and Gold Club, Environmental Concerns group and Senior Leadership Club. He also was part of the Video Yearbook and took part in skiing, weight lifting and a basketball league. He also is a ski instructor.

Killion won the Chenile Letter Award for four years, the Western Board of Trustees Scholarship, USN Mathematics Award and Phi Beta Kappa Award.

The Merit Scholarship awards between $250 and $2,000 for each year of undergraduate study.

NEWLYWEDS: Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Rausch.

Irish-Rausch wed

Rashalle Ann Irish, daughter of Fred and Connie Irish of Clarkston, and Patrick Michael Rausch, son of William and Carole Rausch of Clarkston, were united in marriage on Dec. 28, 1991, at Carvary Lutheran Church, Clarkston.

The bride is a 1983 graduate of Clarkston High School and a 1988 graduate of Michigan State University, East Lansing, with a bachelor's degree in nursing. She is currently employed at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

The groom is a 1983 graduate of Clarkston High School and a 1987 graduate of Olivet College, Olivet, with a bachelor's degree in biochemistry and biology. He is currently employed at General Motors, Flint.

The newlyweds reside in Ortonville.

New arrival

It's a girl for Patrick and June Czech of Dearborn. Christina Rose was born July 16, 1992, at Providence Hospital, Southfield. She weighed 8 pounds, 15 ounces, and measured 21 1/2 inches long.

Welcoming her is her proud brother, Matthew and her sister, Sarah.

Grandparents are Jeanette and Ken Barks of Clarkston and Alfred and Bea Czech of Allen Park.

Freshmen introduction

AT OAKLAND University, Rochester, university President Sandra Packard chats on campus with incoming students Barbara Bishop (middle) and Karen Taulbee of the Clarkston area. More than 1,100 first-year students are expected to attend classes this fall. Packard is somewhat of a "new student" herself, having assumed the presidency of Oakland on June 15. Oakland University serves an enrollment of about 12,500 students.

Two face off in township supervisor race

Independence Township

Two vie for the position of Independence Township supervisor Aug. 4. The term of this four-year office runs until fall 1996. Both candidates are running as Republicans, which means that next week's primary election will determine who will hold office.

Frank 'Tink' Ronk

Frank "Tink" Ronk, 63, of Northview Drive is a lifelong resident of the township. He and his wife Mary have three children and three grandchildren.

Ronk has been supervisor of Independence Township for the past eight years. Prior to that, he served as township fire chief for 12 years and also was a barber.

A Clarkston High School graduate, Ronk is a past member of Clarkston Jaycees, Rotary Club and American Legion. He is presently involved with Lighthouse North and is a member of the Clarkston United Methodist Church.

What's the biggest challenge facing Independence Township?

"The management of development."

What are your intentions if re-elected as supervisor?

"To continue on with business as usual, such as insuring well-planned development to make sure it fits in with the aesthetics of the area."

Dale Stuart

Dale Stuart, 49, of Mustang Drive has resided in the area for 18 years. He and his wife Deborah have three daughters and two grandchildren.

Stuart, an attorney for 15 years, holds a bachelor of science degree in management from Lawrence Technological University, Southfield, and was graduated cum laude in 1977 from the Detroit College of Law.

He is a past Independence Township Board trustee (1980-88), past Zoning Board of Appeals member, and former negotiator for two township-based contracts (Fire Department & American Federation of Municipal and School Employees). He presently is involved with the SCAMP program and is an active member of Clarkston Free Methodist Church.

What's the biggest challenge facing Independence Township?

"Maintaining the quality of life in a myriad of areas, such as the schools and among the municipalities. We also must be concerned with the township's continual prosperity, while protecting the area's semi-rural atmosphere."

If elected supervisor, what are your intentions?

"I'll re-evaluate all township operations and make sure to keep an eye on spending in accordance with the budget. I'll also keep all township board members and residents apprised of the issues, so a topic isn't thrown at folks out of the blue. A broader discussion of all the issues is a top priority."

On the ballot

Local races: Different candidates run in various precincts

On the Aug. 4 primary ballot locally in Independence Township are candidates for the township board — all Republicans.

Independence Township Board

The only contested race is between incumbent Frank Ronk and newcomer Dale Stuart for the township supervisor slot. (See profiles on both.)

Incumbents Joan E. McCrary and John Lutz are unopposed for clerk and treasurer, respectively.

Likewise, incumbents Bruce P. Mercado, Daniel F. Travis and Mel Leroy Vaara and newcomer Jeffrey McGee are unopposed for four open trustee spots.

Since Oakland County Commissioner districts have been redrawn, Independence Township now contains parts of three districts, so voters will choose between different sets of candidates depending on their voting precinct.

County Commissioner, 4th District

Voters in Precincts 1, 4, 5, 8, 9 and 10 are part of the 4th District and must choose between Republicans Larry K. Banks or Larry Crake. Democratic candidate Elizabeth Russell Brown is unopposed.

Fire millage up for renewal

Independence Township

Voters in Independence Township will see only one proposal on the ballot Aug. 4. Following is an explanation.

What it says:

Shall Independence Township continue the previously authorized levy of three mills for an additional four-year period commencing in 1993 to provide fire protection. This levy would renew the $3 per $1,000 of state equalized value increase above the total tax limitation imposed by Article IX of the Michigan Constitution?

What it means:

Independence Township is asking voters to renew the current three-mill package for fire protection. If approved, the millage renewal would begin Jan. 1, 1993, and would expire at the end of 1997.

Three mills is $3 for every $1,000 assessed property valuation. That means that the owner of a $100,000 home, assessed at half the market value ($50,000), would continue to pay $150 a year for townshipwide fire protection.

If this operational millage were to fail, voters would likely face the proposal again because the fire department wouldn't have the money to function, said assistant fire chief Neil Ashley.

Independence Township

County Commissioner, 3rd District

Voters in Precincts 2 and 11 are part of the 3rd District and must choose between Republican candidates Lawrence A. Obrecht, Niles E. Olson and Judith A. White. No candidates are running in the Democratic Party.

County Commissioner, 2nd District

Voters in Precincts 3, 6, 7 and 12 are part of the 2nd District and must choose between Republicans Donna R. Huntoon, John Ingamells and Michael L. Odette. Democratic candidate John S. Marcus is running unopposed.

Delegates to the county convention

In Precinct 1, Republican Neil Wallace and Democrat Sue Ann Learmont each are running unopposed as a delegate to the county convention.

In Precinct 2, James R. Maddox Jr. is unopposed in the Republican Party, while no Democratic delegates will appear on the ballot.

In Precinct 3, Republican William R. Keller is unopposed, while no Democratic delegates will appear on the ballot.

In Precinct 4, voters must choose between Republicans Todd R. Moss, Lawrence Rosso and Jack C. Walker Jr. No Democratic delegates will appear on the ballot.

In Precinct 5, Republican Tamara A. Ellsworth is unopposed, while no Democratic delegates will appear on the ballot.

In Precinct 6, Republican John Lutz is unopposed, but those voting on the Democratic ticket must choose between Kenneth R. Schaffer and Barbara J. Snyder.

In Precinct 7, Republican voters may choose between Carolyn A. Mack, John Van Havermaat and John C. Weiler. No Democratic delegates appear on the ballot.

In Precinct 8, Republican voters may choose between Donn R. Colbrunn and Dale A. Stuart. No Democratic delegates appear on the ballot.

In Precinct 9, Republican J. Timothy Patterson is the sole delegate listed. No Democratic delegates appear on the ballot.

In Precinct 10, Republican Thomas W. McCloskey is unopposed, while no Democratic delegate appears on the ballot.

In Precinct 11, those voting on the Republican ticket may choose between Robert Campbell, Craig J. Fuller and Rudy D. Lozano. No Democratic delegates appear on the ballot.

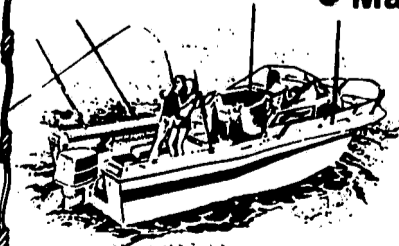

In Precinct 12, Republican Russell Schulte is unopposed, while no Democratic delegates are listed on the ballot.

Researcher studies auto safety

In the past 28 years, Donald Huelke has seen the after-effects of more than 3,500 traffic accidents involving more than 5,000 people.

Huelke does not just happen upon these grisly scenes. He seeks them out. A research scientist at the University of Michigan Transportation Research Institute and a U-M Medical School anatomy professor, Huelke is a nationally recognized expert in vehicle accident investigations and crash-related injuries.

The results of his and other researchers' findings have helped influence significant changes in how automobiles are designed — from the composition of windshields to the types of occupant restraints used.

Huelke admits that his work differs significantly from that of other researchers.

"We at the University run a very unusual research project because we do not, like other scientists, do the experiment. ... The people are doing the experiment for us, and we're collecting the data. We don't get human volunteers to do this type of research," he said.

If it is a serious crash, Huelke's team will be on the scene within 48 hours. A police report of the accident just won't do, he said. If the vehicle has been removed from the crash scene, researchers will examine it separately to photograph and measure the car and look for clues to help determine what may have caused the injuries.

"We often ask the people involved in the accident to get back into the automobile to re-enact whatever happened," Huelke said.

Surprisingly, he said, in the majority of crashes his team investigates, most people agree to relive the accident — even though it caused thousands of dollars worth of damage and possibly serious or fatal injuries.

Huelke and his team will then assess those injuries and identify contact points in the vehicle — a skill that has earned him national prominence. They carefully scan the car for clothing particles, hair strands and other telltale signs that indicate the location of each occupant at the time of the accident, which helps determine how the injuries were sustained.

"Contact points are like fingerprints. Sometimes you look for subtle things, and other times, it's very obvious where a knee smashed through the instrument panel," Huelke said.

Even safety-conscious drivers leave some clues behind in an accident. When a crash occurs, the seat belt tightens around the passenger, often causing friction that produces heat. This can cause a sweater to fuzz or a polyester blouse to "melt," leaving traces of fabric on the safety belt.

Huelke's research has caused improvements in automotive design. For example, in the early 1960s, he found that exposed interior door handles often caused doors to open during accidents. Auto designers eliminated that type of door handle after the mid-1960s.

In another study, also in the early 1960s, Huelke reported that many people were receiving severe lacerations when they hit the car windshield during an accident. Soon after this finding and similar studies by other researchers, car companies altered the composition on windows.

"You used to poke a hole in the windshield with your head. Now you hardly ever see that occurring," Huelke said. "This is a great improvement."

One of his more significant findings occurred in the mid-1960s, when he hypothesized that lap-shoulder belts would be the wave of the future. Based on a four-year study of fatal accidents, Huelke's team concluded that one-third of the people would have survived had they worn a lap-shoulder belt. "The statistics are holding up after all of these years," he said.

Over the years, Huelke has seen tremendous strides in interior car design, including "head rests, padding, seat belts and energy-absorbing steering columns that compress upon impact, rather than being rigid."

The proof of these improvements is reflected in the types and severity of injuries that are common today. While still significant, many car accident-related injuries today are less severe than in the past.

The most common injuries for people who fail to buckle up are split lips, broken noses and knocked-out teeth, while the more severe implications include brain injury, multiple fractured ribs and tears in abdominal organs.

People who buckle up have the clear safety advantage, Huelke said. There is a more than 60 percent reduction in serious head, neck and back injuries among those who wear safety belts.

The above information is provided by the University of Michigan News and Information Service.

Discount amusement park tickets offered

Whether you're planning a summer vacation or just interested in a one-day trip, Springfield Township Parks and Recreation has discount amusement park tickets for sale through the end of September.

That means you don't have to pay full price to go to: Bob-lo Island, Canada's Wonderland, Cedar Point, Crossroads Village, Detroit Zoo, Four Bears Waterpark, Geauga Lake, Great America, King's Inland, Michigan Renaissance Festival, Sea World the Beach Waterpark, and Pleasure Island.

The department also will sell Michigan State Fair tickets later this summer.

For more information, stop by the Parks and Recreation office at the Mill Pond Park, 495 Broadway, or call 634-0412.

Six roles up for grabs in 'Orphans'

The spotlight calls: Auditions for the Clarkston Village Players' production of "Orphans" are set for Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 5 and 6.

Actors and actresses may try out for one of three male and three female roles in the play.

The comedy, written by James Prideaux, centers around Lily and Catherine Spangler, who have lived in seclusion in their hotel room for the past 25 years.

When they first moved in, it was the best hotel in town, but the years have taken their toll. Their only visitor has been their lawyer who delivers, in cash, the profits from the steel mill they inherited from their parents after their tragic death.

Sheltered from the cares and evils of the world, they know little of the changes that have taken place. Enter Herman, the bellboy. Is he a robber, a con artist, or their long-lost cousin, the only other surviving heir to the Spangler millions?

Other roles include a next-door prostitute and Mr. Franklin, the hotel manager. For more information, call the theater at 625-1826.

Suncatchers workshop

A "suncatchers workshop" is offered this fall by the Springfield Township Parks and Recreation Department.

Taught by Pat Kazlouskas, the three-hour workshop takes place 1-4 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 24, at the Hart Community Center at Mill Pond Park, 496 Broadway. Students will learn the technique for the craft, which imitates stained glass.

Pre-registration is required by Wednesday, Sept. 9, at the parks and rec. office. Cost is $7 plus a fee for materials. Senior citizens are offered a discount.

For more information, call 634-0412.

21st-century math offered for teachers

The Professional Development Committee of Oxford Schools is offering all area elementary educators a methods workshop in teaching 21st-century math.

Dr. Terrance Coburn of Oakland Schools will be the workshop instructor, and two sessions will be offered. On Tuesday, August 18 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., kindergarten through second-grade teachers are invited. On Wednesday, August 19, third- through sixth-grade teachers are invited for the same hours.

Registration fee is $5; the location for the workshops is yet to be announced. Call Tony Bronzo at 628-2591 to register or for more information.

Karaoke cable-TV quickly catching on

RICK MOLTER, originator of United Artist Cable's K-TV show, was hit with the inspiration for the program while looking through his wallet.

Last fall, Rick Molter was looking for something in his wallet, saw his cable-TV producer's card and got an idea that has turned into one of the most popular shows on Clarkston's cable station — "K-TV."

Molter, 37, of Sashabaw Road is an Independence Township native and has been a professional musician for 12 years. He has opened for several acts at Pine Knob Music Theatre, including the Temptations.

Molter used to do a single act with an acoustic guitar in bars and clubs. "I'd have people in the club come up and play percussion and sing along," he said.

This was a perfect segue to Karaoke television. Karaoke is one of fads of the '90s. People can pick a song — words, background music and a microphone included — and sing it in front of an audience.

Singers can choose from 896 songs that Molter has ready. He and his crew tape about 42 people at one sitting and then show them on cable seven at a time.

"Everyone who sings is on the show," said Molter.

The following for K-TV has grown so large that the show has moved from the cable station on Waldon Road to the Deer Lake Inn on Dixie Highway.

"K-TV" airs on Independence-Clarkston Channel 65 at 8:30 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays. For information on singing on K-TV, call the United Artist Cable station at 625-7069.

Recipe corner

Fudgy and fun

This cookie recipe comes from Sharon Kohs, mother of Katelyn, a pupil at Bailey Lake Elementary School. The school Parent Teacher Association included the recipe in the school cookbook that's for sale for $5 as a fund-raiser. Contact the school at 625-2812 to purchase the recipe book.

FUDGY OATMEAL SQUARES

1 cup quick oats	1 teaspoon baking soda
1 1/2 cups boiling water	1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup flour	1 stick margarine
1 cup sugar	1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup cocoa	2 eggs

Stir together oats and water in small bowl; set aside. Stir together flour, sugar, cocoa, soda and salt in large bowl. Add margarine, oat mixture and vanilla; and beat at low speed just until combined. Beat at medium speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl frequently. Add eggs and continue to beat until thoroughly combined.

Pour into greased 9x13-inch pan and bake at 350 degrees for 35 minutes or until toothpick comes clean. Cool and cut into squares.

Vactioning with Fido and Kitty

It's that time of year when vacationers are packing their bags and getting ready for a little rest and relaxation.

Many are also considering taking their family pets along on the trip. The Michigan Humane Society offers safety tips for those traveling with pets.

■ It's important that each pet is up to date on shots and that the owner carry a copy of the pet's health certificate and vaccination record. If the animal is a nervous traveler, veterinarians often prescribe a mild tranquilizer of sedative for traveling.

■ When packing your pet's baggage, be sure to include enough food for the entire trip. It may be difficult to find the brand of food the animal is accustomed to in another city or state. And, of course, be sure to include any necessary medication. Most pets adjust better if the owner bottles water from home. This helps prevent stomach upset caused by different water.

■ Pets enjoy familiar settings, so it's helpful to bring along items that belong to your pet. Items such as food and water dishes, grooming accessories, a favorite bed or blanket and toys will help make the trip more enjoyable for your pet.

■ Keeping the animal in a crate provides it with a feeling of security. It also offers the owner the satisfaction of knowing that the pet is secure within the vehicle. Even if the pet is enclosed in a crate, it's important that a collar and ID tag or license be on the animal at all times. If the pet were to escape from the vehicle without identification, it would be virtually impossible to locate the animal in a strange town or city.

■ It's best not to give your pet any food or water for two hours before leaving home. Starting off on an empty stomach can help prevent motion sickness. It's also wise to stop frequently and let him exercise. Always keep your pet on a leash.

■ A final safety tip is to never leave your pet alone in the car. Even with the car window open slightly, summer temperatures can turn the interior of a car into a deathtrap.

What would woodchucks worry about?

Garden Corner

Q. How can I keep woodchucks out of my garden?
A. Electric fencing or a C-shaped fence of chicken wire will keep woodchucks out of your garden plot.

For electric fencing, use two wires: the inside (garden side) wire should be 4 inches from the ground at all points, and the outside wire should be 2 inches high. (Note that if the soil surface is uneven, the height of the wires will vary, perhaps allowing woodchucks to step over or creep under the wires.)

The wires should be 3 to 4 inches apart, or the width of the two insulators set on opposite sides of the post. Use a small charger designed for use with gardens, and keep the wires weed-free at all times.

You can also make a fence from 1-inch mesh chicken wire 4 feet wide. Bend the wire into a C shape and fasten it to stakes around the garden with the open side of the C facing away from the garden. The top of the wire should overhang 6 to 8 inches, and the bottom should extend 6 to 8 inches outward on the ground.

These fences will also be effective in keeping rabbits, raccoons and other small mammals out of the garden. The wire overhang at the top will prevent them from climbing over it, and the bottom of the C will keep them from going under it.

A chemical repellent, Hinder, will also keep rabbits out of the garden and will repel woodchucks, deer and squirrels. Hinder must be applied every 10 to 14 days and after every rain or garden watering that wets the foliage.

The above information was provided by Outreach Communications, Michigan State University.

Community education at a glance

Summer Kids Connection

In partnership with Independence Township Parks and Recreation, Kids Connection offers an eight-week summer program 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. through Aug. 14. Children in Kids Connection spend the early morning at school, then are transported to the parks and recreation day camp. After camp, they return to school, where their parents pick them up. Registration takes place 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Community Education Center. (Linda Irwin, 674-3141)

Employability development

"Directions," a course offered through the Clarkston Career Center, is designed to build employability skills. At its conclusion, students may begin occupational training, on-the-job training or employment. The three-hour-per-day class is Monday through Friday, Aug. 3-28. Call 674-4791 for eligibility requirements and details.

Funshine Preschool

Summer and fall 1992 registration underway for the eight-week 3- and 4-year-old preschool (9-11:30 a.m.) or extended care (7 a.m. to 6 p.m.). Registration costs $25 per family.

Lacrosse Camp

Coaches teach kids ages 7-13 the basic skills of the sport of lacrosse, including dodging, feeding, scooping and shooting. All equipment is provided. The program takes place 9 a.m. to noon Aug. 3-7 at the Clarkston Community Education Center. Fee: $75. Registration deadline: Friday, July 24.

Fall Kids Connection

Current users of Kids Connection (before- and after-school child care) may register for the fall session 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday at the Clarkston Community Education Center. New users may register 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. now through mid-August. The program is open to children in kindergarten through fifth grade. (Linda Irwin, 674-3141)

Book store opens

A Clarkston High School alumnus has opened his own paperback exchange store in Waterford, called Paperback Trader.

Courtney Borrer operates the store at 6486 Williams Lake Road, Waterford Township, six blocks west of Airport Road.

At the Paperback Trader, customers may buy books from the store or they may trade in books for a reduced price purchase. The store also offers comic books and book rentals.

Borrer attended Michigan Christian College, Rochester, after graduating from CHS in 1989.

BRENDA and Richard Haines of Independence Township recently opened a Merle Norman studio in the White Lake Commons shopping center. Their store offers free facials and makeovers, along with various cosmetic and skin care items.

New restaurant owner

CONNIE BURGESS (pictured), her husband Ron and their sons Randy and Rick of Holly recently bought J.L. Wishbone in Harvard Plaza, Dixie Highway, Waterford Township. The restaurant still serves its flame-broiled chicken along with homemade soups and desserts, and the Burgess family has added healthier food to the menu. "In this day and age, people are concerned about health, their cholesterol level and fat. We cater to that. The chickens are fresh, and we're putting healthier foods on the menu," said Connie. "We want people to enjoy the food because we enjoy it so much." (Photo by Catherine Passmore)

Makeup is this couple's new life

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE
Clarkston News Staff Writer

A year ago Richard Haines of Foster Road owned Tri County Power Rodding and cleaned sewers.

Now he and his wife, Brenda, own and operate a Merle Norman studio in White Lake Commons, Dixie Highway, Independence Township.

"I wanted a change," said Haines. "I thought about the bar business, but that is too hectic. She (Brenda) knows the (cosmetic) business. It's a product that sells itself."

"I wanted to own a Merle Norman several years ago," said Brenda. "Now we have the chance."

The Haineses just completed a two-week training session in Los Angeles. While there, the couple learned the newest makeup techniques, makeup color coordination and the latest developments and products for effective skin care.

"They taught us all about makeup artistry and a lot more," said Brenda. "They showed us how to run the business, do advertisements, order products and set up the studio. We were really busy."

The studio offers free five-minute facials and mini makeovers, which are unique to Merle Norman stores.

The Haineses offer the full line of Merle Norman cosmetics for all skin types and shades. They also stock various sun products, bags, bath products, cologne and Luxiva — a product line designed to help people achieve a more youthful complexion.

"Merle Norman people are Merle Norman people," said Richard. "(We) don't have to convince them to buy anything. They come in knowing it's a good product, and they know what they want."

Food to go: Tips to have a safe picnic

A summertime picnic need not be ruined by a case of food poisoning if some common-sense food handling tips are followed, according to Bill Schuette, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture (MDA).

He said storing foods properly is the key to avoiding a food-borne illness such as salmonella.

"Prevention is the watchword in food safety," said Schuette. "By following proper cold storage, sanitation and thorough cooking rules, you can keep food safe anytime you pack it to go."

Preparing food for the picnic

■ Keep everything that touches food clean. Wash your hands before preparing food. And wash utensils, bowls and countertops between work on each dish.

■ Use a fork — rather than your hands — to mix meat, macaroni, eggs, tuna or green salads. Using your hands can be a problem because bacteria dig in around the fingerails and the creased skin of the hands.

■ If cooking food ahead of time, cook it thoroughly so bacteria doesn't grow.

■ Make sure all your ingredients are the freshest you can buy.

Packing for the picnic

■ Plastic foam coolers are ideal for picnics. For hot food, wrap the dish in several layers of newspaper before placing it in a separate cooler. For cold dishes, place in the cooler with ice or blue gel cold packs.

■ Freeze iced tea and lemonade in plastic containers and freeze small boxes of juice. They will thaw on your way to the picnic site and you won't need ice. Keep in mind that before freezing a liquid, make sure there's some space at the top to allow for expansion.

■ Try not to use the trunk of your car to store the food because it is the hottest place in the car.

Preparing food at the picnic

■ Keep food in coolers until ready to serve. Whenever possible, keep the cooler and other foods in the shade. The heat from the sun speeds up the growth of bacteria.

■ If using a public grill, make sure the fire is very hot to kill bacteria on the grill, or cover it with aluminum foil and make holes in the top of the foil to allow grease to drop through.

■ If soap and water are unavailable, use wet hand-wipes to clean your hands.

■ It's best not to set out most foods until you are ready to eat, but if you must, consider covering the food with a net tent made especially for this purpose. Flies are much more than pests. They can create serious problems because they are agents for 50 human diseases and often carry the eggs that cause pinworm, roundworm, whipworm, hookworm, and tapeworm. Nearly every part of a fly carries disease-producing organisms.

Take steps to lessen summer allergy symptoms

Hay fever is one of those odd names: it's not caused by hay and it doesn't cause a fever.

But to the estimated 50-40 million Americans who sneeze through the summer, allergic rhinitis (to give it its proper name) is a real illness.

Most people who suffer from allergies are allergic to things that come from the outdoors. About 10 percent of allergy sufferers can blame ragweed and rye grass that pollinate in late summer. July and August mark the peak of the allergy season.

But there are several things you can do to reduce your suffering. Here are some tips from Research Products Corp., maker of Space-Gard high-efficiency air cleaners:

■ Avoid outdoor activities first thing in the morning. Many plants release their pollen between 5 a.m. and 10 a.m., so pollen level may be highest then.

■ Do not hang sheets and bedding outdoors to dry.

Even though sun-dried sheets smell and feel great, they may also collect a load of pollen and other allergens when hung outdoors.

■ Keep your house closed up, especially during the morning hours when pollen may be more prevalent.

■ Consider central air conditioning for your home. Air conditioners alone with conventional filters aren't very efficient at filtering air, but they do allow you to close up your house and still stay comfortable. If your air conditioner allows you to recirculate indoor air instead of bringing in pollen-laden outdoor air, use the recirculating feature.

■ Add a high-efficiency, nonelectronic air cleaner to your heating and cooling system. A high-efficiency air cleaner removes up to 99 percent of dust and pollen and doesn't produce ozone, which can aggravate breathing problems.

■ Run your air conditioner and/or high-efficiency air cleaner when you are home and moving about. Pollen is relatively heavy and settles out of still air in about 20 minutes. However, activity stirs up the pollen and gets it airborne again where it can be captured by your nose, or your high-efficiency air cleaner, whichever comes first.

Be aware that pollen is just one of many irritants that may cause allergies and asthma. Spores, dust and the feces of the common house dust mite also cause problems. It is virtually impossible to avoid all allergy causes, but following these suggestions can reduce your exposure to many of them.

"Prevention is the watchword in food safety."

Bill Schuette

After the picnic

■ Foods should sit out for no more than two hours. After that, the food should be packed away in a cooler and placed in a shady spot.

■ Used paper plates, napkins and cups should be placed in a garbage bag or a covered garbage tin. They still have organisms on them and can attract flies and animals.

■ Any used dishes or plates should be stored separately from food and should be washed in very hot, soapy water upon arrival home. Never wash in streams, rivers and lakes.

■ Upon arrival home, examine the leftover food immediately, and if at a safe temperature, place in a refrigerator, using it up within a day. If the food needs to be reheated or cooked, make sure you cook it thoroughly.

For more information about food safety, contact the MDA Food Division at (517) 373-1060.

To a kid from the Bronx, town 'was like heaven'

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Stanley White can remember when Clarkston offered free movies on Saturdays and M-15 was a gravel road.

A New York City native, the Clarkston "transplant" as he calls himself, spent time here in his youth.

"I came here every summer and stayed on a farm in Ortonville," he said. "You can imagine what it was like for a kid who lived in an apartment in the Bronx to come to Clarkston and see the big houses and the Mill Pond and the lake — it was like heaven. I decided when I was very young that Clarkston was one of the prettiest places I'd seen, and I wanted to move here."

He recalled those earlier days in Clarkston when entertainment was a mite simpler.

"We used to come in to town and go down to the bus stop and watch the Blue Goose (the forerunner of Greyhound) when it came in from Detroit. That was when M-15 was dirt from Main Street all the way up north," he said.

White, 74, married Clarkston native Martha Miller in December 1941, soon after the attack on Pearl Harbor. White, who had enlisted in the Army in October of 1940, left his new bride and went to fight in the European Theater of World War II.

Master Sergeant White participated in three campaigns against Nazi Germany and was a member of War Crimes section. He went to the concentration camps throughout Germany where millions of people had been killed or had starved to death.

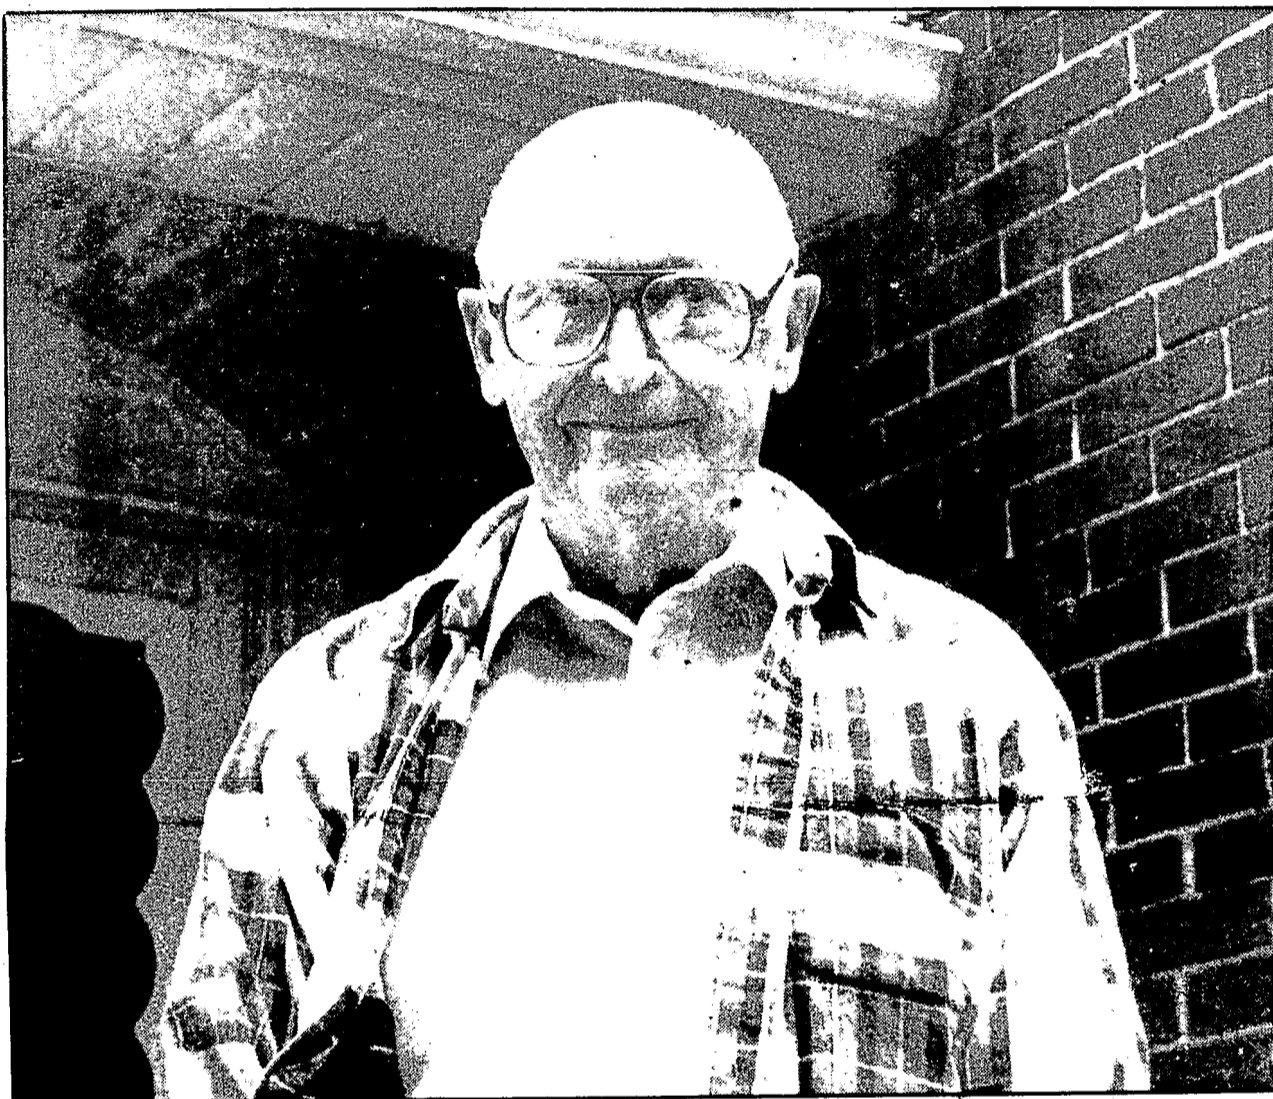

White was first sent to the camp in Mauthausen, where in one four-month period more than 30,000 people were killed or starved to death. The graves in the concentration camp were exhumed, and autopsies were performed on some of the prisoners. White participated in this.

"The town people who dug up the graves had on long gloves and gas masks. We didn't have anything. We all got sick. We got sick at each camp we went to — it got worse and worse," he said.

White was at the Buchenwald camp where medical experiments were conducted on the Jewish people. Some of the experiments included infecting 20 men a week with malaria, infecting women with various diseases to ascertain the healing affect of sulfa drugs and introducing glass or wood into women's bodies to see what infection would do to the body.

White also investigated homes of Nazi officials. While "looting" one home, he came across a document with Adolf Hitler's signature on it. "I knew that this would be a great souvenir to have," he said, so he took it.

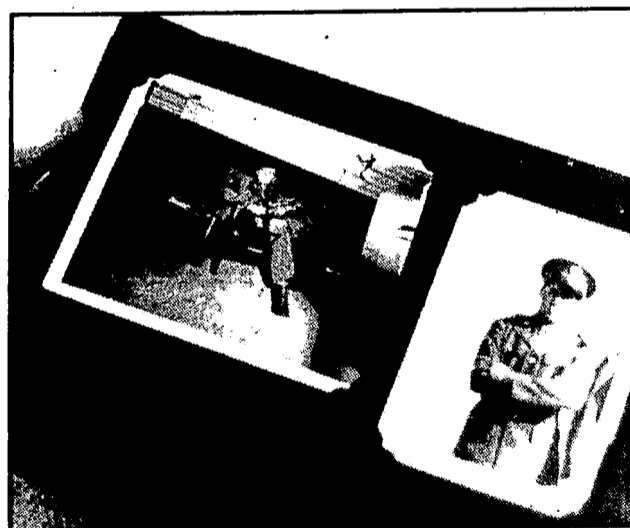

After the war, White returned to Michigan. He and his wife lived in Ortonville for a few years and then moved to the house that they still own and live in on Main Street, Independence Township, in 1948.

He said he has fond memories of Clarkston when it was still a little town.

"On Saturdays the farmers would put on their clean overalls and come to town," he said. "There were free movies over by the bank. Everyone came to town and saw everyone. It was wonderful."

The Whites have raised two children in Clarkston, one of whom is the principal at North Sashabaw Elementary, George White.

White said the greatest of the improvements he has seen in Clarkston over his time are the sewers. "It takes away all the problems with septic tanks," he said.

The biggest change, he said, is the population growth. "It used to be that everyone knew everyone," he said. "Now, I only know the fellows I meet at the coffee shop. The area is growing. It's sad. I'm just selfish I guess — it's just not beautiful like it used to be."

(Facts on the concentration camp Mauthausen were taken from "The Holocaust" by Martin Gilbert. Facts on Buchenwald came from "The Theory and Practice of Hell" by Eugen Kogon.)

Growth remains steady in first half of 1992

Families still choose Independence, Springfield for their new home sites

JIM SCHUBINER
Clarkston News Special Writer

Growth in the single-family home market remained steady for the first six months of 1992 in Independence and Springfield townships, but few commercial and industrial developments were proposed.

In the first half of this year, Independence Township issued 93 building permits for new home construction, a figure slightly higher than in 1990 and 1991.

Springfield Township officials anticipate a fair amount of residential construction as well. So far this year, 53 single-family residential permits have been issued.

"It doesn't appear that the recession has hit Springfield," (See NEW, next page).

New housing steady in Independence, Springfield field," said township Supervisor Collin Walls.

To many it appears that Springfield has undergone a drastic increase in new home development in 1992. But Walls explained that people have this perception because construction has been near the main roads. He said the growth rate in 1992 is consistent with past years.

Different from previous years is the intensity of commercial and industrial construction in Springfield and Independence townships.

"There's not much going on at all in the commercial and industrial areas," said Beverly McElmeel, director of the Independence Township Building Department.

She reported no proposals for industrial construction in 1992 and only a few commercial developments, such as the Oakhill Corners office building on M-15 at Oakhill Road, an addition to The Greenery on Clintonville Road, Dr. Harlton's new veterinary clinic on M-15, and two new eateries in Independence Town Square: Roger's Chicken, Dunkin' Doughnuts.

Similarly, Springfield residents will see little commercial or industrial development. The township issued no permits for industrial land use and only one commercial building permit so far this year.

Despite the lack of commercial and industrial ex-

Supervisor Collin Walls,
Springfield Township

pansion, Richard Carlisle — the planning consultant for Independence and Springfield townships — said the development activity throughout 1992 has gone according to plan.

He explained that the limited commercial development coupled with the steady growth in the single-family home market represents a healthy pattern for both Springfield and Independence townships.

"The townships have done a pretty good job of guiding growth," he said. "Most growth has occurred right in line with their master plans."

Independence Township's master plan calls for low densities north of Interstate 75 to preserve the rural environment of the township's northern portion. The township reserves the area south of I-75 for a higher density of development.

Although the lack of commercial and industrial construction might seem like a signal that the area's economy is suffering, most people welcome the trend.

Carlisle said the area has no need for additional commercial space.

"With the upsurge in the economy in the mid-late '80s, we had four substantial commercial projects built," he explained. "It will take a number of years before there is any additional need for commercial facilities."

Moreover, citizens in both townships would like to see commercial and industrial development kept to a minimum.

"People come to this area for its beauty, its aesthetic value, its rural setting," Walls said. "And people here want it to stay that way."

With the increase in development outside the townships, such as in Auburn Hills, area residents may see some of the negative consequences of commercial growth. Carlisle said that traffic congestion is a frequently heard criticism within Independence Township. And he attributes it to growth not in Independence or Springfield but in perimeter areas.

"Major roads have become crowded, and people are looking for alternative roads, sometimes through the townships," Carlisle said. "Unfortunately, it's coming from sources over which we have very little control."

GET THE 1-YEAR CD WITH A 6-MONTH ANNIVERSARY.

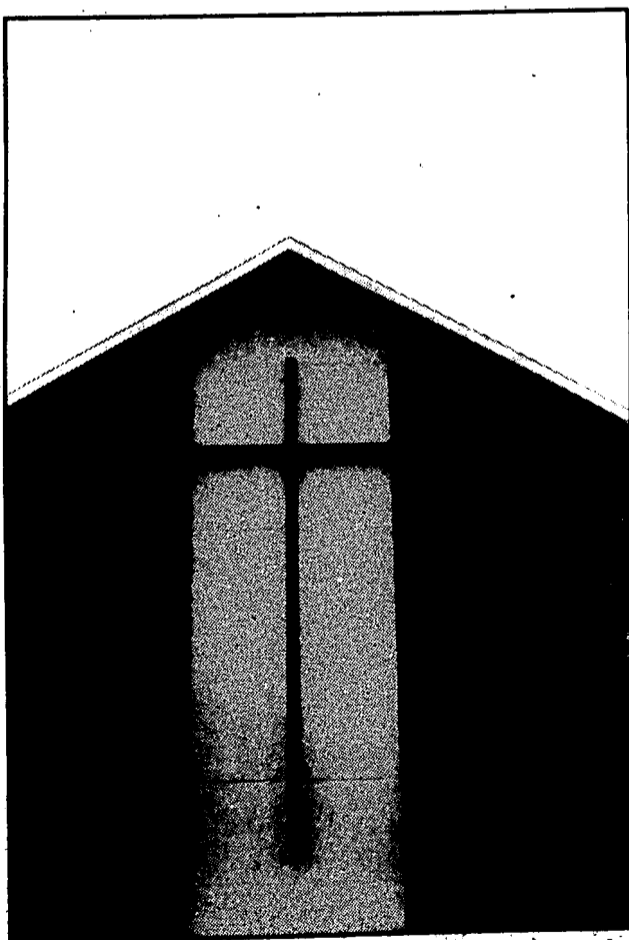

Old Kent's 1-Year Variable Rate CD has a built in advantage: rates are checked each year on the 6-month anniversary date of your CD. If the rate has gone up, your rate goes up automatically. And if our rate has dropped, no problem. Your rate will remain at the initial higher rate until maturity. So you'll earn the rate you started with - or more. And that's an advantage worth celebrating!

Clarkston schools crowded, but future still bright

BY CURT MCALLISTER
Clarkston News Associate Editor

Despite overcrowded conditions and budgetary woes, Clarkston school officials say their district is still one of the best in the state.

"We've got a few obstacles to overcome, with overcrowding and budget cuts, but we'll come out of this eventually," says David Reschke, director of staff development and curriculum.

Over the past few years, the school district has seen an increase in pupils at the elementary and secondary levels. This influx of new students has pushed many of these schools to their maximum capacity, causing the school board to attempt three separate bond issues for new buildings.

However, all three of these proposals have been overwhelmingly defeated by the populous.

In addition, the school district went out of the state's school funding formula last year, meaning the schools are no longer eligible for state money. These legislative cuts, coupled with a present state property tax freeze, required the school board to slash its 1992-93 budget by $1.2 million.

Reschke says the overcrowding issue is presently the district's biggest concern — especially at the elementary level.

"Our schools aren't set up to handle these populations, and it started to affect some of our programs," he says. "The simple fact is that it's going to get worse before it can better."

Reschke does see some hope on the horizon, however.

"I think our fortunes will be better in the coming years," he says. "I think the community is more understanding to our needs and will help us cope with our facility needs. Five years from now, we should have more space and different types of space, especially at the elementary level."

"In the near future, I'm positive the people of Clarkston will help us with our needs," Reschke adds.

Despite these problems, Reschke says the school district is one of the best around. He cites good discipline, a community atmosphere, a caring staff, above average state test scores, outstanding extra-curricular programs, and school spirit among Clarkston's numerous strengths.

These pluses have culminated in an unrivaled number of graduates seeking educational training beyond high school. Reschke says about 75 percent of Clarkston High's graduates usually go on to college or other avenues of professional training.

As director of curriculum, Reschke says he's excited about a revitalized physical science program at the high school and a revamped math program in grades K-12, set to start next year.

"Our schools aren't set up to handle these populations, and it started to affect some of our programs."

David Reschke

He says math, science and language arts will receive a big boost in coming years, which should result in more students meeting or surpassing the minimum standard in state testing.

Added pressure to excel academically will also come from the fact that all Clarkston's schools will have to undergo accreditation over the next five years. So far, only CHS has to vie for accreditation, but the state has decided to expand this evaluation process to all levels.

Overall, Reschke says the next five years should be an exciting time in education, with technology on the rise.

"I foresee our kids getting better global knowledge out of our schools. Several schools are already talking to students in other countries — via satellites," he says. "With technology like this at our disposal, our kids will be eager to learn more about their world and gain more of global citizenship."

Independence Oaks County Park on Sashabaw Road, Independence Township, offers wide-ranging activities, including camping, boating, swimming, picnicking, sand volleyball, cross country skiing and nature center events.

Welcome Wagon gives gifts and information

JULIE MOEHLIG of Almond Lane, Independence Township, is the new Welcome Wagon representative for the area. It's her job recognize "positive life changes" such as births, milestone birthdays and anniversaries, and becoming a citizen.

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Moving to a new town can be a scary experience. But Welcome Wagon representative Julie Moehlig tries to make the transition a little easier for Clarkston-area newcomers.

Welcome Wagon extends greetings from public officials and gifts from local commercial and professional businesses. Recipients of the calls find that commercial businesses also provide invitations redeemable for in-store gifts, information about the community and what it has to offer in recreation and services. It's free to those who receive the calls, and there is no obligation.

Welcome Wagon representatives find out about special events through friends, family and neighbors of the recipients. To sign someone up for the service, call Moehlig at 620-2708.

In addition to new residents, the Welcome Wagon provides baskets for someone who has just become engaged, has become a new U.S. citizen, or has become or is about to become a new parent.

Moehlig said that when she and her family moved to Independence Township from Troy three years ago, it was such a big place and she didn't know where anything was. She called Welcome Wagon and asked them to come out here.

"When we moved to Troy, the Welcome Wagon came and gave me a basket full of free things and told me where things were. It was helpful," she said.

The area hasn't had a Welcome Wagon representative for a least eight years, said Moehlig, who is paid for her efforts. "There was a Welcome Wagon club for a while. They would have teas and coffees, but they wouldn't go out to the homes."

Elect Stuart Supervisor

On August 4th, you will select the next Independence Township Supervisor. This Primary is your LAST chance to effect change for the next four years.

Dale's program for change is to:

Budget and use tax dollars with restraint to limit taxation.

End the conflict between the Township and the Village and Clarkston Schools.

Maximize the return of DDA funds to Clarkston Schools.

Provide full disclosure on all issues to increase citizen input.

Listen when the taxpayers say NO to new projects.
(like building a new Fire Station)

ELECT

Stuart

Supervisor

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE!!

As former Independence Township Supervisors and Board members, we know Dale Stuart will make an excellent Supervisor.

There is nothing old fashioned about cooperation with the Village and schools, Dale Stuart will get us back on track. We deserve a change to controlled, efficient government spending and responsive government that listens when the voters say "NO".

Dale Stuart will open government back up to involve its citizens in the important decisions that effect our quality of life.

Dale Stuart has the experience and dedication to provide genuine leadership of the many important issues that face us as a community. We urge you to support him in every way you can for the very, very best for our community.
