Refreshment break

THE MOTHER-Son Dance May 8 is just in time for Mother's Day. Here, Sheree Haladik and her son Jeffrey, 6 1/2, of Ridge Trail take a break from dancing to enjoy some refreshments and conversation. The two dressed for the '50s theme with help from Sheree's daughter, who provided the poodle skirt (a Halloween costume), and mother, who provided Sheree's sweater. The dance at Bailey Lake Elementary School was offered by Clarkston Community Education for elementary-age boys and their mothers.

Water woes

After 14 years of waiting, residents of Soundtiesa Township demanded last week that tainted ground water be cleaned as soon as possible.

On May 4, Springfield Site Action Committee members and residents heard the ideas from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the "principal responsible parties" on how they will clean up the site.

The problem

In the late 1960s, 1,500 drums of toxic waste were dumped on the Woodland Trails site. Partial cleanup took place in the late '70s and early '80s, but the soil and water remain contaminated.

Traces of lead, arsenic and other toxins were found in the water in test wells on the site. These toxins have not migrated to the residential well 500 feet from the site. If humans were to ingest these toxins over a prolonged period, they could be susceptible to serious health prob-

Earlier this year, a plan that would have transported contaminated soil from the Springfield site to a cleanup site in Rose Township was nixed, due to Rose residents' concerns about transporting toxic waste on their roads.

An alternate cleanup date and plan were not set. Chris Moore, spokesman of action committee, said (See CITIZENS, next page)

Spring cleanup days May 15, 22

Spring is finally year, and so are Spring Cleanup Days in Independence Township and the City of Clarkston.

Saturdays, May 15 and May 22, township and city residents are encouraged to haul any large items to the Department of Public Works, 6050 Flemings Lake Road, for disposal. The site is open 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. both weekends.

Residents must present some form of identification before they're allowed to dispose of their refuse. The township will not accept barrels, propane tanks, automobiles and chemicals.

Tires can be dumped at $1 apiece, with a limit of 10. Refrigerators and air conditioners cost $20 each to dump.

Residents will be charged for dumping, based on the size of the hauling vehicle. They include: Car, $5; car and trailer, $10; pick-up, $20; pick-up and trailer, $25; double-axle truck, $25.

(CITIZENS, from previous page) his group formed out of frustration. Their goal is to restart the cleanup process for the Springfield site.

'We don't want 14 years of frustration to turn into 15," said Moore.

Proposed plan

pump 10 gallons of water a minute; the water will run through carbon canisters, which will take out the organic impurities; and the "cleaned" water will be discharged to wetlands to the west.

However, DNR officials said the final step isn't a sure thing. Those wetlands designated to receive the cleaned water are not owned by those involved in the cleanup. Plus, DNR permits are required before any change to wetlands occur.

Members of the action committee asked why permits were necessary if the water is clean.

"Why don't you just dump it down a hill? It's clean water — who cares where it goes?" asked Joe Gorka.

Township Supervisor Collin Walls explained, "By definition, it's not clean. Those of us who are 'plain country folk' may think it's clean, but by definition its not

The tentative schedule for cleanup calls for a completed plan in July or August with construction for the treatment center starting in September or October. The plant, if there are no delays, should be operational in February 1994.

A possible delay

William Bradford of the DNR said that his staff had informally reviewed the plans for the proposed treatment center, and the concept probably would work if an adequate monitoring system is included.

Action committee members voiced concern that the monitoring problem was not yet solved and asked if that would delay cleanup. "I believe we're all committed to this working ... and having a system we can go ahead with," Martin said, trying to calm some fears about a delay.

"Our concern," said action committee member Chip Acey, "is by the time you all agree on what you're going to do, it'll be too late. ... We've lived with this for 14

A paragraph in "From Our Perspective" in last week's Clarkston News was missing a line, due to a typesetting error. The paragraph about Clarkston school bonds should have read: The total amount financed came to a little over $22 million. Of this amount, approximately $15.5 million is in conventional bonds and approximately $6.5 million is in CAB's. Apparently, Clarkston was left out of the Free Press article because of the newness of our bonds.

Park merger in planning stages; waterpark isn't

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE Clarkston News Staff Writer

Plans for what would be the biggest metropark in Oakland County were laid out for Springfield and White Lake township officials May 6.

Township officials and park representatives took no action on the proposed park merger plan last week. The merger is just at the beginning stages, and nothing is concrete about when, how or if the combining will take place. Any construction would require approvals from the township in which it takes place.

However, the informational meeting last week allowed representatives of the Huron/Clinton Metroparks to present the possibility of merging Indian Springs Metropark in Springfield Township with Pontiac Lake Recreation Area in White Lake Township to create a 6,000-acre metropark.

It has not been determined how the HCM would acquire the Pontiac Lake park. Suggested ways include a long-term lease or a transfer, but not a purchase.

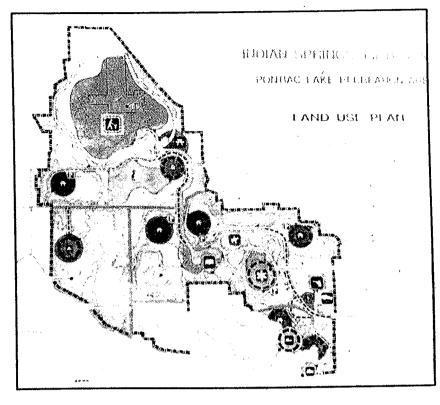

Bill Sherman of HCM told local officials that the Oakland County Board of Commissioners had directed the metropark system in 1972 to develop a major metropark in the center of the county. So HCM investigated the Pontiac Lake park, which would provide more land—plus water facilities, which are missing from Indian Springs.

Some daily newspapers reported earlier this year that plans for a high-tech water park — consisting of a wave pool, an adjacent swimming pool, water slides, and "lazy river" for rafts and inner tubes — were in the works if the Pontiac Lake merger fell through.

However, Springfield Township officials said that was not the case. Clerk Nancy Strole said the "two issues are separate and need to remain separate."

Sherman clarified that issue. If the metropark system acquired the Pontiac Lake park, he said, it wouldn't have the money to create a waterpark. Plus, the metropark's need for water facilities would be satisfied with the merger.

Indian Springs Metropark is on White Lake Road, bordering Springfield and White Lake townships. The park offers a variety of hiking and biking trails, an 18-hole golf course, a nature center and numerous picnic sites.

A rendering of the proposed new metropark was presented to officials from Springfield and White Lake townships. The park, the largest metropark in the county, would be a combination of Indian Springs Metropark, Springfield Township, and Pontiac Lake Recreation Area, White Lake Township and Waterford.

The Pontiac Lake Recreation Area, which backs up to Indian Springs Metropark, has a beach, boat launches, hunting, a gun range, family camping and trails for hiking and horseback riding. All of these activities would remain if the HCM were to take over the operations of the park.

Sherman said the HCM would do more for the park than the state parks division is doing now. Metropark would hire lifeguards for the beach, increase security, add regular food service and generally maintain the park more efficiently.

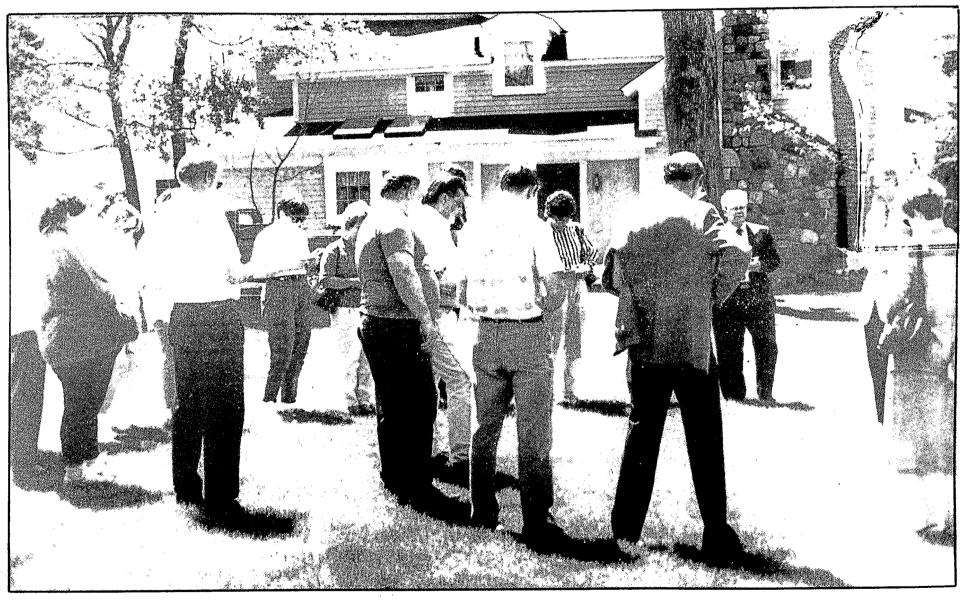

Some short-term goals include the development of an interpark road, paving the trails from the camp sites to the swimming area, constructing irrigation for the turf, and enhancing the campground.

A long-term concept, however, raised some eyebrows. A possible resort/ conference center would have 80-100 rooms, meeting rooms and dining facilities, an idea that received little discussion.

Neither the resort concept nor the water park comply with Springfield Township's master plan of land use. The park land has been designated for conservation use.

Strole advised officials to save time by researching thoroughly at the start. "I'd really suggest you look carefully ... and see if the concept is in concert with the land use plans (of the townships)," She said.

Township board tables 10-acre rezoning request

BY CURT MCALLISTER Clarkston News Associate Editor

The rezoning of a 10-acre parcel near Clintonville and Maybee roads was tabled by the Independence Township Board May 4.

That evening, the board voted 4-1 to table discussions of a short-term deferral and the possible secondreading of a rezoning revision. Trustee Bruce Mercado voted no, and Trustee Jeffrey McGee and Clerk Joan McCrary were absent from the meeting.

A deferral would leave things status quo until the township could make properties in this area adhere to revisions to its master plan of land use. This deferral has been in effect since November 1991.

The 10 acres — presently zoned single-family residential (RIA) — is owned by Michael Clark. The local developer wants to build 19 homes on this site, under the present zoning.

R1A allows for a residence to be built on a lot with a minimum of 15,000 square feet.

However, the board is considering rezoning certain properties in Section 25 and 36 to suburban residential (R1B) to keep consistent with other master plan revisions in the vicinity. Clark's land is one of these properties.

R1B requires a 33,000-square-foot minimum lot size. So, if this were adopted, Clark would have to settle for 11 units rather than his proposed 19.

First-reading approval of the R1B was granted on March 3, 1992. Second-reading approval is pending further deferral discussions at the May 18 township board meeting.

Clark was granted preliminary plan approval on a different plan, called Clintonwood Condominium Subdivision in February 1991. However, this plan expired a year later.

Clark would like his new plan to be the "cornerstone" project to a larger development to the east, The Morgan Lake Golf Classic, which he intends to develop.

This 300-acre development would include 133 detached condos, 80 attached condos and 151 homes with a minimum of 15,000-square-foot lots. Plans also call for a 6,600-yard, par-72 golf course; a club house with a swimming pool and tennis court; and driving range.

This land is owned by Roy Portney and Al Semaan, who are trying to obtain a planned residential development (PRD) zoning. A PRD is a rezoning tied to a specific site plan larger than 160 acres. It requires planning commission and township board approval.

Clark argues that his 10 acres has been zoned R1A for the past 27 years and that the township decided to revise the master plan only after his intentions were Attorney Gerald Fisher said this northern sector of the township has long been contemplated for rural purposes, whereas land south of I-75 is slated for more urban development.

After an hour of discussion, the board decided to table the matter. Mercado voted against the tabling motion because he wanted the matter settled that evening, he

Visitors take over bathroom

Julie Campe

My bathroom has become a birthing room for spiders.

Hundreds --- no, thousands --- of tiny red arachnids burst forth overnight.

At first, The Thinker and I didn't know what to think. He saw them first and warned me, "I wouldn't go barefoot in the bathroom. Little bugs are crawling all over."

Imagining the worst, I pelted him with questions, "What kind of bugs?"

"I don't know."

"Do they fly?"

"I don't know."

"What color are they? Do they bite? How big are they? Where did they come from? ..."

But The Thinker had left the room.

It was up to me to investigate.

Actually, they weren't frightening at all — just tiny red dots swarming over the bathroom floor. I suspected spiders right off, having been attacked by a similar herd in my lifetime. But just to be sure, I got the magnifying glass from our condensed Oxford Dictionary of the English Language.

Yep, they were spiders all right. Eight legs. Bright red. Busy little creatures.

But how did they arrive overnight in our bathroom? Did a stork drop by?

Hmmm. I thought back to my days of working in a greenhouse, where tiny spiders spent the entire day in our hair while we worked among poinsettias. Yes, this was a similar family. If my hypothesis were correct, these were newly hatched babies, and their mother should be nearby.

I wiped them up by the hundreds from the floor, leaving tiny red streaks in some cases. I crawled all over, wiping and streaking — but there were always more, just tiny specks noticeable only when they

Finally, I wiped the floor all the way back to the darkest, tiniest spot behind the toilet and there found a small web with a small brownish-red spider — the

"Aha!" I shouted, bumping my head and felling the spider in one swipe of the Kleenex.

Triumphantly, I flushed her down the toilet. But some unsettling questions still remained. How many babies had this little mother left behind? And how would I ever find them all? And how did a pregnant spider get into my bathroom in the first place?

I gasped at the thought that she had been living in that unseen spot behind the toilet ever since we had moved into our house. She probably had enticed the father of her children into her parlor and then delivered her brood just two days after Mother's Day.

I cursed my house-cleaning habits. If only I had vacuumed more or used Spider Spray more diligently or more thoroughly reached into the darkest recesses of our home (or asked The Thinker to reach into these scary spots) ...

I vowed to be ever vigilant against these household invaders. Then I returned to a more pressing

In the wild jungles of a flower garden, a mother spider's babies would be cast away by the wind, spreading forth and multiplying all over the yard. But what would happen in a windless bathroom?

I knew the answer and also knew that Spider Spray was the only solution. As I searched the house for bug killer, I faintly heard The Thinker.

"Julie? I have to go now. Where are you?" "Bye!" I yelled, not giving up on my quest. I don't know if he heard me.

Park merger could benefit area

A CONTRACT OF THE PARTY OF THE

The new park would combine Indian Springs Metropark (Springfield Township) with Pontiac Lake Recreation Area (White Lake Township) to make the largest Metropark in the county.

Although we foresee some traffic problems and possible loss of tax money for White Lake Township, we believe the park merger would be an asset to the

The Metropark system — with a bit more money to spend than the state, which operates Pontiac Lake - would clean up and maintain the Pontiac Lake park better than it has been in the last few years. In addition, state money would be freed to benefit other area parks.

Another plus — if the Metropark system took over the park operation, it would not pursue a plans to design a traffic-generating waterpark at Indian Springs.

Though the waterpark concept doesn't match

Springfield Township's master plan of land use and likely would not be approved, area residents still are nervous about that possibility.

The merger with Pontiac Lake would provide recreational water use — the same as offered now by the state — and the so-called waterpark money would be used for park repairs and maintenance.

The 6,000-acre park would give residents somewhere nearby to camp, hunt, golf, swim and hike at the same place — in essence, the same activities provided now by the two parks combined.

The merged park — if spruced up — may attract a few more visitors, which is where the possible traffic problem might occur. However, it wouldn't add any more attractions, so the traffic increase should be minimal.

If the parks merged — which probably is years away from being a reality — we all would win because the park would be cleaner and nicer, and our other state parks might also be nicer.

Military should stay out of Bosnia

As this is being written President Clinton is considering spending American lives in a war in Morality, conscience and stopping the possiblity of a larger war are some of the reasons given.

We understand there is suffering. Tube and print reporters have made us aware just as they did in Somalia, and just as they have in various countries in Africa, Cambodia, Ireland, etc.

And, just as they will in the next "hot spot."

Why do we pick and choose? If we, with six percent of the world's population, are going to be the caretakers of the globe, why not send planes, munitions, peace keepers and the cavalry everywhere?

Since we do pick and choose, we (president and Congress) apparently realize we cannot patrol and control troubled countries everywhere.

So, why are we pinpointing Bosnia?

We're told religious factions have been at odds there for some 400 years. Only Marshall Tito kept the peace for a few decades. Do our leaders believe sending our men in planes will convert one side to the other's belief? They can't believe that bombing any or all targets will change a single mind.

Our country's urging through diplomatic channels to achieve a truce and possible peace in Bosnia is about the only way we want to see our citizens involved. We hope our leaders continue supporting this effort. And, we hope these same leaders do not involve us in a shooting, religious war.

Congressional leaders say they won't support our sending manned planes to Bosnia without an "exit" plan.

Forget the "exit." Don't enter! JAS

Questions from me to me

Sherman

What do you think of the new Lotto format? Remember when you were young, and every time someone mentioned anything to do with gambling, some boy would say to some girl,

"Wanna take a chance on a blanket?" I suppose the same question is being asked these days, but girls are probably doing the asking.

But, the Lotto. Ah, yes, Michigan's answer to funding education. Has anyone told those people in Lansing that this funding method doesn't work?

I played the Lotto when it got to be worth $10 million. For a while I bought $5 in chances. Then I dropped it to $2. Then the Lotto lords doubled the price of tickets and I quit buying.

During this period I was in Florida. When I arrived the jackpot was $8 million. When no one won, the prize jumped to $20 million. Last I knew it was $83 million.

Michigan's goes up $2 million at a time. I guess that gives more to education. Kalkaska schools send their thanks.

I've heard it said, and it's true I'm sure, you dislike hearing men introduce their Wives, or mention them on TV shows like "Wheel of Fortune," with, "My beautiful wife, Xenia."

Now, Xenias of the world, don't get upset! I just picked that name. But if it did upset you, the rest of this will really make you mad.

When we get to see Xenia, we see her looking as lovely as a doorknob and having the same personality.

Can't men just say, "This is my wife, Xenia?" Let the audience decide her beauty, if any, charm, if any, and wit, if any.

Which reminds me of a saying I heard one time: Show me a man who praises his wife loud and often in public and I'll show you a marriage headed for divorce court.

You've expounded on golf balls and golf shoes, what about clubs?

As a cover-to-cover reader of the magazine Golf World, supplied to me by Uncle Al Dittrich, I couldn't miss PowerBilt's ad on their new irons.

It's a tear-out, fold-out piece with 3-D viewing. With the caption "You'll never look at irons the same way again," PowerBilt boasts their "Ellipsoid of Power' irons.

Webster's Ninth says an ellipsoid is "a surface all plane section of which are ellipses or circles." Circles is where PowerBilt's ad sent me.

Has Jerry Kelly, Oakland's humorist, sent you anything lately that you'd like to pass along?

Stuart calls for fire station input

Beginning on May 18, at the Independence Township Board meeting, the township board will begin to analyze the best method to deal with Fire Station No. 1 located in the City of the Village of Clarkston.

It is critical that the board receives your input. The township sold the current location of Fire Station No. 1 and is now paying rent for the premises. By contract, we are allowed to remain on the premises for a specific time period, and then we must vacate. The board must decide whether to replace the facility, where the station will be located, and how a new station should be financed.

I believe that it is important that you, as township residents, support whatever action the board takes.

Please get involved. Attend the township board meetings. Write or call to give us your advice.

Dale A. Stuart, Independence Township Supervisor

Clarifying points

I would like to clarify a couple of points raised by Mr. Carlson in his last column regarding Capital Appreciation Bonds (CAB's).

Capital Appreciation Bonds were explained to the board. In fact, they were discussed in detail in a public meeting. Furthermore, the decision to use CAB's could not be made by the administration, but only by the school board itself.

Finally, I would like to make it clear that this is my personal perspective, which is not necessarily the perspective of the entire board.

Me, selfish?

After a recent letter by me, which appeared in The Clarkston News, that the Proposal A would be a tax increase to senior citizens who file Homestead Tax credit, I received a couple telephone calls and even one from a state representative.

The implication was that I was being selfish for only considering myself and not the overall good of the pro-

Cheers to cheers

McAllister

In just a couple of weeks, we'll be bidding a fond farewell to one of the greatest sitcoms in television history — "Cheers."

Over the years, this Emmy-winning show has provided Americans with a chance to laugh at the antics of our favorite bar flies, Sam, Norm and Cliff. And during this time, the characters have become as close as family members.

Not since M.A.S.H. has there been such a grand assortment of performers, who work so well together. If you'd told me a decade ago that the most entertaining show on TV was going to revolve around a Boston bar, I'd given it one season tops.

But perhaps the best concepts are the simple

About staff editorials

We at The Clarkston News realize that an important duty of a newspaper is to provide more than just the facts found in news stories. Since we're out there uncovering the news, we get an inside look at the issues. In our staff editorials, we will give our opinions on those issues, just as other writing on this page — letters and columns — also offers

We leave the editorials unsigned because we've written them as a staff. Every week, we talk about the issues and take notes on everyone's opinions. Then one of us writes it and the rest of us change it until we're all satisfied.

While our opinions aren't always unanimous, our editorials reflect the majority views of the staff. If the staff splits evenly on an issue, we'll write two editorials

We welcome your response to our views.

Personally, my favorite characters have always been Cliff and Norm. These lovable losers smacked of a modern-day Laurel and Hardy, with an affinity for the suds. They had the ability to bungle the easiest of tasks, much to the chagrin of the viewers.

There isn't one character I won't miss, from Sam to Lilith to the PMS-prone Carla. I'll even miss Paul, for what reason I don't know.

At one time or another, I think everyone has dreamed of taking a seat at Cheers, the place where everyone knows your name. I think people yearn for that sort of camaraderie in their life, but rarely find it.

That's what made Cheers so great. This bar represented a haven where its customers could drop all airs and let their hair down. Well, everyone but Frasier Crane that is.

There's been rumors of a spin-off, but I hope this doesn't occur. It seems that every time someone tries to follow a successful sitcom with a last-ditch spinoff, it cheapens the memory of its predecessor.

Take M.A.S.H. for example. How long did that nameless spin-off last? Four or five weeks?

Nope, there'll never be another Cheers, and, luckily for us, we can enjoy it for years to come through syndication. Like "I Love Lucy" or "Gilligan's Island," re-runs should make Cheers a timeless commodity.

My Thursday nights won't be the same, though. I really got a kick out of watching Norm stroll into the bar, as everyone blurted out his name. Heck, the President doesn't get that much respect. But that's not saying much these days.

So thanks for the memories, Cheers. You showed us that television can still be entertaining devoid of gratuitous sex. Or as Norm would say, "Like a night with Vera."

'If it Fitz ..

Some things, people are only at home

Jim Fitzgerald

When you return home from vacation, people ask if you're glad to be back. Yes, let me count the reasons... 1. The Turtle Soup Inn, on 6 Mile near Conant.

There's a restaurant where I vacationed in Florida that loudly claims to serve the best spare ribs in the world. No way. I've chawed ribs off hundreds of Formica tables, in dozens of states, and no where do they taste better than at the Turtle. The neighborhood and 1945 ambience might not be much to look at these bad-economy days, but you'll never see an unhappy eater. Besides, owner Andy Horattas doesn't care how many noisy little grandchildren I bring, or how many paper napkins we use fighting off the rib sauce. Also, there's a picture of Sonny Eliot on the wall.

2. Olga restaurants, in shopping malls all over the

According to my search, there's not one Olga in Florida or along I-75 between here and there. Bummer. It must be the secret-formula bread that makes Olga's lamb sandwiches so uniquely delicious. They are the only sensible reason for going to a mall.

3. Vegetarian relatives.

Every time our extended family meets, I discover another descendant or in-law who's quit eating red meat. Granddaughter Emily, 11, is the latest. I sincerely admire them for their healthy, noble, humanitarian motives. I thank them for their good example. And for leaving more meat for me.

4. The McDonald's in Lapeer, because on its wall there is a photo of Emily.

Why, if she rejects hamburgers? I'm glad you asked. Because McDonald's sponsored a statewide "When I Grow Up" speech contest and, in her age group, Emily won the local and Flint regional competitions. Out of a field of 30,000 contestants, she was one of 24 youngsters to make it to the state finals in Lansing.

Where she didn't win. Hey, I'll concede some other old poop's grandchildren might possibly be brighter than mine. But it's more likely the lousy judges made a rotten mistake.

5. Lawyers.

Because, according to Emily's prize-winning speech, that's what she wants to be when she grows up. Although there are still several years of education ahead, I figure it's not too soon for Emily to begin working toward the goal I've set for her: that she will some day achieve the immense satisfaction of being rich enough to support her grandfather in his golden years in the grand manner he never enjoyed in his tin years.

To attain such wealth, Emily should start looking for several bereaved passing acquaintances of the late Malice Green and represent them in billion-dollar lawsuits against the City of Detroit.

6. Lillian Genser.

The former director of the Center for Peace and Conflict Studies at Wayne State University, Genser is now working for the "Convention on the Rights of the Child," as formally christened by the United Nations. It's sort of a Bill of Rights detailing the individual rights of children to develop to their full potential, free from hunger and want, neglect, exploitation and other abuses.

Also, as part of her Children's Peace Art Research Collection at Wayne State, Genser urges you to see "Visions of Peace," an exhibition of Detroit area children's art, grades 4-12, in the lobby of the City-County Building through May 19.

Genser is an unpaid volunteer putting Children First. I've never heard Mayor Coleman Young mention it, so I will: Lillian Genser is one of Detroit's jewels.

7. The Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The first few days home I watched the marvelous Neeme Jarvi conduct the music of Johannes Brahms and Duke Ellington, plus the solo talents of Midori, the 21-year-old Japanese woman who probably weighs 90 pounds and, pound for pound, is undoubetedly the finest violinist ever made by a generous God.

In Detroit's Orchestra Hall, just a few blocks from my home, there are consistently wonderful sounds rarely if ever hear in Florida or any place else.

All in all, despite whatever, I'm always glad to be

Proposal A looks good for Clarkston schools

After weeks of study, questions and analysis, details about Proposal A on the June 2 ballot are falling into

Last week, the Oakland County Superintendent's Association endorsed the proposal with this comment by Dr. Seymour Gretchko, chairman, "We felt that the governor and legislators have made a significant effort to permanently reform school finance and the property tax structure in Michigan."

For residents of the Clarkston school district, there will be several advantages to the passage of Proposal A.

■ A dramatic decrease in the school millage rate.

Currently, the rate is 38.83 mills for operations. This will be reduced to about 22 or 23 mills. (The debt levy rate, 1.72 mills, will remain the same.)

One mill is $1 for every $1,000 in assessed property valuation.

Constitutional guarantees that what happened to the Lottery money for schools cannot happen again.

A rollback in this year's assessment increases.Limits on future increases in your assessment.

The State School Aid Bill is the second step in this critical tax reform year because the passage of Proposal A will effectively put all school districts back "in formula." For several weeks we have been closely watching the state's decisions on this year's school aid bill.

Through the efforts of Sen. Dave Honigman and Rep. Tom Middleton, along with many school groups, the State School Aid Act benefit Clarkston. It was passed in the Michigan House and Senate last week and is expected to be signed by the governor. Here's how the State Aid Act will affect Clarkston:

The state has decided that new students can be counted in next year's Fourth Friday census. After the first 25 new students, we'll receive $2,400 per new student. This decision "gave" Clarkston Schools about $400,000 for 1993-94.

The School State Aid Act provided an additional $100 per student for districts with high operating millage, including ours. This decision will provide about $600,000 for 1993-94.

■ Our district will be permitted to count the property value of our Downtown Development Authority (DDA) as part of our total state equalized value (SEV). We will not be penalized by having that value deducted from the district's SEV. (Under the reform plan, the higher a district's SEV, the more aid it will receive.) This decision adds about $1 million to our district for 1993-94.

If the above three decisions stay in the State School Aid Act, Clarkston should receive enough school funding to continue our current programs with no reductions for next year. Of course, this assumes a June renewal of our current millage rate, which effectively tells Michigan that we want to continue our programs as they currently exist.

Not only does Proposal A promise substantial savings to local property owners, it also goes a long way toward solving the dilemma of unequal funding in Michigan. Furthermore, the 2-cent sales tax increase is constitutionally guaranteed to go into the School Aid Fund to make up lost revenues from the property tax cut.

Poorer districts will get a boost in funding, and richer ones can ask for more mills from their voters if they want to spend more than the state guarantees.

We hope these observations about Proposal A and the State School Aid Act will help district voters as they assess the importance of the June 2 election.

Wake up taxpayers! Proposal A not what it seems

BY JAMES BRENNAN

Once again, the governor and state legislators have proposed so-called tax reform, couched in inaccuracies and deceit. Here are some facts about Proposal A.

The proposed tax savings fictitious

■ The purported property tax savings does not take into account the fact that the recent assessment increases will trigger the Headless Amendment, which requires each unit of government and school district to reduce its millage, limiting the aggregate tax increase to no more than inflation (3 percent). This will not happen if Proposal A passes.

■ The assessment cap is not a cap but merely a delay

Letter to the Editor

Poppy days here

The poppy, because of its bright red color, symbolizes the memory of veterans who have died in wars.

The American Legion poppies are handmade by veterans who are patients in veterans' hospitals. The American Legion Auxiliary, Juniors and Sons of the American Legion will distribute poppies on May 13, 14 and 15 to finance programs to aid veterans and their families.

The public can obtain their poppy to wear proudly from the Campbell Richmond Unit 63 or Chief Pontiac 377. Be sure to get yours.

"In Flanders fields ... the poppies flow between the crosses ... row on row."

John McCrae (1915)

This eulogy to the dead of World War I, buried in Flanders — in Belgium and northern France — is the basis on which Poppy days on the American war veterans was established many years ago. The history of our country now includes several wars. Please help us honor or veterans — wear a poppy.

Ivy Lee Reinhardt, secretary, Chief Pontiac 377 American Legion Auxiliary in the assessment increase. Property will assume full value when sold or purchased or when the property is improved. This savings is only temporary.

■ Taxpayers who qualify for the Homestead Credit, particularly senior citizens, will see their credit disappear rather than receiving a tax cut.

■ Sales taxes are not deductible for federal income tax purposes, whereas property taxes are deductible. Increased federal income taxes will offset part of the so-called tax savings. This will be even more important after the Clinton federal tax increases.

There is no constitutional cap on county, city, township or village millages. Townships and villages can avoid the 40-mill limitation by incorporating. Charter millages are not counted in the 40-mill limitation. As the state continues to violate Article 9, Sections 29 and 30, pressure will increase on local governments to seek new millages from the taxpayers.

School millages are not reduced to 18 non-voted mills, plus 9 additional citizen-voted mills. The Legislature may add back the additional 9 mills if they presently exist as voted mills.

Contains constitutional contradictions

■ This proposal violates the overall state tax limitations established in Article 9, Section 26. There is no reference in the proposal regarding amendment of Section 26, as required by Article 12.

■ The proposal destroys the uniformity requirement in the constitution, violating your right to be taxed nor more than your neighbor for the same services.

The proposal contradicts itself in regard to the equalization process. The assessor is forced to appraise some properties at full current value and others at a supposedly capped value. These assessment rolls must then be equalized by assessing district and by county (state equalized value). The final state enabling legislation may require equalization at a higher level or at the lower capped level. Which do you think the Legislature will choose? History shows they always rule against the taxpayer, even if it means a violation of the taxpayer.

If the state equalized values are set at the lower capped levels, it will trigger the contradiction to the existing constitution. "Heads the taxpayer loses, tails the taxpayer loses."

Provides the wrong incentives

■ Sales taxes suppresses economic activities and exacerbate the adverse effects of recessions, particularly on big ticket items.

The property tax inequity resulting from the return to full assessment at the time of sale or improvement to the property will depress the residential real estate market.

☐ Citizens will be less likely to trade up to more expensive homes.

Retirees will leave Michigan in even greater numbers as purchase of a retirement home will be tax prohibitive.

Property buyers will demand substantial price discounts to offset the excess property tax over neighboring property.

☐ Property owners will be reluctant to make improvements.

Unfair or unequal taxation will encourage cheating. Citizens will attempt to hide sales transactions. They will avoid permit requirements for improvements, etc., and who could blame them?

In conclusion, Proposal A will not provide a tax cut. It will not control assessment or property tax increases. It will raise your sales tax 50 percent; it will violate your constitutional right to uniformity in taxation. Its impact on school financing is questionable.

Vote no on Proposal A. Then tell your state legislator you have had enough tax increase proposals. You want a property tax cut, which the Legislature can do simply by lowering the state equalized value of proportion of true cash value to something less than 50 percent. The result is a property tax cut with no complications or constitutional violations.

From Our Perspective

Schools: Money isn't enough

The following editorial was in last Sunday's Detroit News. We are printing it exactly as it appeared in the paper.

Schools: Money Isn't Enough

One of the main benefits of Proposal A is that it will provide a stable base of financing for Michigan's school districts. But total state and local funding has not been a major problem with Michigan public schools. Despite constant pleas from school boards, superintendents and teachers, school districts are anything but underfinanced. New figures compiled by the state Treasury Department reveal that average annual per pupil spending in Michigan during the last dozen years has been nearly double the rate of inflation.

Average annual per pupil spending, state and local, has increased at the rate of 8.1 percent per year on a statewide basis, while inflation has increased at an average annual rate of 4.2 percent. But as the chart below reveals, some districts have enjoyed average per pupil spending increases at the rate of 10 and 11 percent. In Oakland County, six school districts have had average annual increases of 10 percent or more.

The chart shows the school district in each of the three counties in the Detroit area with the highest rate of increase, the lowest rate of increase and one school district in between. The chart also includes the Detroit

These recently compiled figures from the state Treasury Department are not a statistical anomaly in one isolated study. The Council of Michigan Foundations, in a recent publication, noted that from 1970 to 1990, operating expenditures for K-12 schools increased 25 percent after adjusting for inflation. Combined with a drop in enrollment, per pupil expenditures during this period increased 68 percent in constant dollars.

At the same time, college test scores have remained essentially flat for the last 20 years. In 1992, the average score of Michigan students taking the American College test was 20.7; the national average was 20.6.

Teacher pay, however, is well above average. In 1992, according to the National Education Association, while the national average for teacher pay was $34,148, the average in Michigan was $41,149.

Regardless of whether Proposal A is adopted, any requests for more millage or more state funds for K-12 education ought to be met with skepticism and hard questions. This state's education system needs real school choice and other measures to introduce accountability for performance more than it needs additional money.

One man convicted in area father's 1991 murder

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE Clarkston News Staff Writer

One of four people charged with the Feb. 8, 1991, murder of a former Clarkston-area resident was convicted April 26 in California.

Army Sgt. Jeffrey Hunter, 28, was found guilty of first degree murder with special allegations, including

'MacGyver' bombs explode in township

While the TV MacGyver uses his knowledge for good, the homemade bombs named after him have caused damage throughout Independence Township.

Oakland County Sheriff's Department Detective Joe Duke said two Independence Township boys, ages 15 and 16, are suspected of making and setting three bombs.

The first bomb exploded April 29 on Cramlane. The force of the explosion blew out the window of a bedroom where a 13-year-old boy was sleeping.

The second explosion blew up a mailbox on Snow Apple on May 2.

A third bomb was found prior to its explosion in Waldon Woods on May 3.

The MacGyver bombs, said Duke, are so named because they're easy to make, and the components are readily available in almost any home. He said the bombs are extremely dangerous because they have forceful explosions and because they're unstable and could explode prematurely.

The boys could be charged in Oakland County Probate Court next week.

Hunter was charged in connection with the death of former Clarkston-area resident Curtis Dean, even though Hunter was not at the scene of the crime. He was also convicted of conspiracy for an attempted murder of his former wife in Louisiana, said Gary Fagan, supervising deputy district attorney.

Dean, 38, who was living in Victorville, Calif., at the time of his murder, was stabbed 38 times and beaten on his head with a blunt object. He was killed in his children's bedroom. The girls, then 3 and 5, witnessed the

The children are now in the custody of their maternal grandmother.

Also charged with Dean's murder are his widow, who is the mother of the two girls; and two soldiers from nearby Fort Irwin, Calif.

According to Fagan, Hunter and Jennifer Dean were lovers and hired Christopher Geier and Mark Reeden to commit the murder, so she could inherit her husband's $96,000 in life insurance.

Jennifer Dean is out on bond and living with her parents and daughters in southern California, said Fagan She is charged with conspiracy to commit murder and first degree murder with special allegations, including financial gain and laying in wait. 'No dumping' signs nixed on Oakhill

The Independence Township Board has nixed a suggestion to erect "no dumping" signs along Oakhill

The sign proposal was defeated 5-0 at the May 4 meeting. Trustee Jeffrey McGee and Clerk Joan McCrary were absent.

According to Supervisor Dale Stuart, a Brandon Township resident had asked both Brandon and Independence townships to erect "no dumping" signs after he cleared a refrigerator and refuse from his roadside. The resident thought such signs would curb the amount of illegal dumping along Oakhill.

However, Independence board members disagreed with the proposal, saying they weren't advocates of such signs, especially in high-traffic areas.

On May 4, the township board voted to table a revised final preliminary plat for the development because board members couldn't agree on the connector. This item has been placed on the board's May 18 agenda. The meeting takes place at 7:30 p.m. in the township annex, 90 N. Main St.

Clarkston postmaster calls for Advisory Council members

Community members have a chance to affect Clarkston's postal service - if they join a Customer Advisory Council.

Postmaster Richard Neal is accepting applications for such a council, and he's hoping for a cross-section of Hopefully, he said, the council will let him know the needs of the community and help figure out the best way to meet those needs. And it's a good way to get ideas and suggestions and to answer questions, he said.

"We're really out here to serve," said Neal.

For example, he said, he already has expanded the window hours are Saturdays to 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. (instead of 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.) to improve service. Weekday hours remain the same: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. However, he said, the council could have a say in Saturday hours.

Neal also said that additional postal routes should help solve problems with late mail.

Council guidelines and applications are available at the Clarkston Post Office on M-15, Independence Township. For more information, call the postmaster at 625-proval of a connector road, which would run from proposed Spring Lake North to Lake Waldon Village.

A 125-site development, Lake Waldon Village is located to the north on Waldon Road and is still under construction.

The Spring Lake South residents fear that a connector road would more than double traffic flow through their subdivision, endangering the lives of its inhabitants. Together with their developer, The Selective Group, the residents have asked that this access road be "gated off" and only used in emergency situations.

However, the Road Commission for Oakland County is reportedly against this idea, said Independence Township Supervisor Dale Stuart.

A Road Commission representative is to attend the May 18 meeting to speak on the issue. For more information, call the township at 625-5111.

Township joins traffic improvement group

Independence Township has signed up for a yearlong membership to the Traffic Improvement Association of Oakland County.

The township board approved the $100 membership

The TIA conducts traffic accident location studies and prints an annual Traffic Accident Report, plotting the number of accidents in any given area in the state. Besides offering a variety of historical accident data, TIA is also heavily involved in safety belt usage and drunken driving prevention campaigns.

The TIA has existed for over 25 years, and it's regularly used by the township's engineering consultant, Hubbel, Roth and Clark.

More smoke detectors recalled

120,000 affected units purchased since July 10, 1992

Six brands of battery-operated smoke detectors are being recalled because they may not sound in the event of a fire.

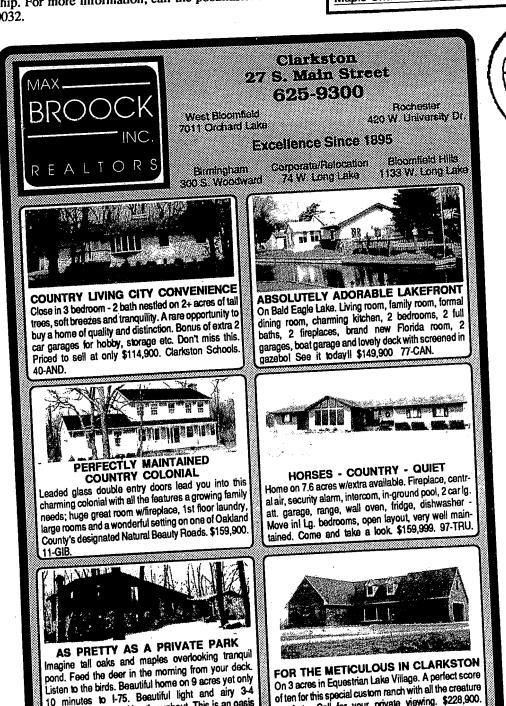

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission urges anyone who purchased a battery-operated smoke detector on or after July 10, 1992, to check the unit immediately to see if it is involved in this recall.

To identify an affected detector, examine the label on the back of the unit for the model and date codes listed above. If these codes match, call the following "hotlines" to obtain a free replacement smoke detector: For Black & Decker units, (800) 952-1331. For all other brands, (800) 492-4949.

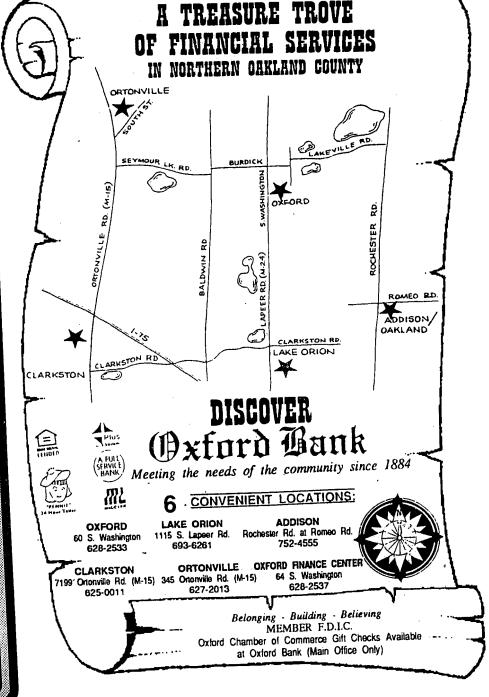

The Safety Commission asks that all consumers with affected smoke detectors call for a replacement unit even if the smoke detector sounds when tested and appears to be working properly.

Wolves push winning steak to six games

BY CURT MCALLISTER Clarkston News Associate Editor

The Clarkston varsity boys' baseball team stretched its winning streak to six games by hammering Pontiac Northern May 10.

The Wolves walloped the Huskies 10-0 to push their record to a perfect 7-0 in the GOAL and 10-3 overall.

Eric Carlson threw a two-hitter, striking out 10 Northern batters. With the shutout, the senior raised his record to 5-0 on the year. Prior to the game, Carlson had sported a 2.10 earned-run average, but it's sure to sink lower after this performance.

Against Northern, senior Matt Underwood (.517 batting average) provided the clincher by belting a three-run home run. Scot Matusz was a perfect 3-for-3 at the plate, while Dan Eby and Jeff Marshall chipped in with two hits apiece for CHS.

Last Thursday, Clarkston blanked Brandon in consecutive games, 6-0, 10-0.

In the opener, senior Eric Ryan tossed a no-hitter, while striking out nine Blackhawks. It was his second win of the season against one defeat. Ryan has also earned four saves thus far for the Wolves.

Coach Roy Warner was pleased with Ryan's outing.

"It's always great to see one of our pitchers throw a no-hitter," he said. "Eric had a great game and we didn't make an error."

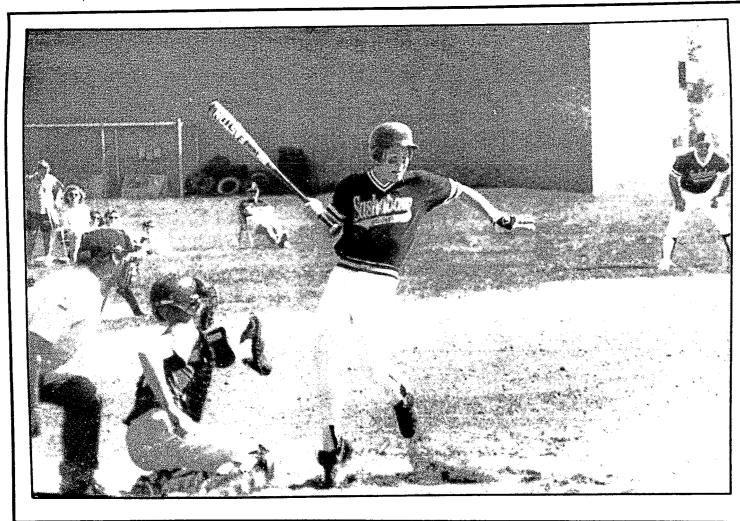

Offensively, Ryan was supported by Tom Doyon, Underwood and Adam Rice who collected two hits apiece.

In the nightcap, Aaron Phillips took the mound and held Brandon to just two hits. Going all the way, the senior was able to lower his E.R.A. to 0.58 this year, after 12 total innings of work.

At the plate, Phillips also helped his own cause by going 2-for-4 with a double. Brent Bundridge, Marshall, Eby and Chris Simko also collected two hits in Clarkston's 13-hit attack.

Howe injured in accident | Fishing contest slated

Clarkston High School alumnus and ex-University of Michigan standout Steve Howe will be out of the New York Yankees' lineup for at least a week, due to a freakish injury.

X-rays at Henry Ford Hospital came back negative, but the Yankees didn't want to take a chance with their pitcher.

Howe started his career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in the early 1980s, but has had numerous setbacks related to substance abuse problems.

Girls win, boys lose in showdown against Orion

The Clarkston boys' track team lost a heart breaker to Lake Orion May 4, while the girls' squad remained perfect in the GOAL.

The boys' team fell to the Dragons 74-63, in a meet that went down to the final two events.

As expected, the Wolves (2-2, 2-1 GOAL) dominated the field events by winning four of five. The winners included: Steve Locher (pole vault), Kyle Powell (discus and shot put) and J.R. Kirk (long jump). Clarkston also garnered five second-place and two third-place finishes in the field events.

From then on, Lake Orion dominated the running events by winning all but the 400-meter and 800-meter relays. Clarkston's 400-meter relay team consisted of William Martin, Greg Shupe, Andy Howe and Steve Bennett.

The Wolves' 800-meter relay team was made up of John Zamora, Jason Graves, Howe and Bennett.

CHS was able to keep the meet close with numerous second place finishes from the likes of J.R. Kirk (100-meter hurdles), Jason Graves (400), Bennett (200) and Steve Cohoon (800). However, Lake Orion (4-1, 3-0 GOAL) was able to sweep the 3200-meter run and win the 1600-meter relay to clinch the victory.

Clarkston's girls team had an easier day of it as they beat their counterparts 97-

The Wolves (3-1, 3-0 GOAL) grabbed 12 events, sweeping three of them. Earning individual first-place honors were: Michelle Wade (shot put), Rachel Seifferlein (discus), Kristen Stanton (high jump), Derenda Howard (100-meter hurdles), Angie Brown (100 and 200), Nikki Winn (400), Nikki Hurd (300-meter hurdles) and Leah Scharl (3200).

Clarkston was also successful with the 400-meter, 800-meter and 1600-meter relay teams. The 400-meter team consisted of Melissa Lozon, Shannon Binkley, Howard and Becky Moore. The 800-meter and 1600-meter teams were both made up of Stanton, Carey Haven, Winn and Brown.

The girls' team will be hosting the Clarkston Invitational Saturday, May 15.

CHS takes 2nd place

The Clarkston boys' track team overcame a field of 13 teams to take second place at the Ashley Relays,

The Wolves collected a total of 62 points at the meet, 29 points behind champion Pontiac Central. Central has won this Waterford-based meet the past three years.

The Wolves earned two first-place medals May 1. Steve Locher won the pole vault with a vault of 12'2", and Kyle Powell claimed the shot put area as his own with a heave of 48'10".

Other medal-winning performances were turned in by Powell (3rd - discus), Steve Bennett (2nd - pole vault), and the second-place, 1600-meter relay team.

Township grants liquor license to local cafe

The Main Street Deli Cafe has been given the green light to add beer and wine to its menu.

The Independence Township Board granted this business a liquor license May 4. Owner Carol Bradley said she'll offer only beer and wine to her patrons, even though a liquor license would cover all types of alcohol.

Bradley said she decided to apply for the license because many of her patrons had requested beer and wine with their dinners. She said the license would help her remain competitive with other area restaurants, while retaining her existing customer base.

This was the last liquor license available to area establishments for 1993.

The Main Street Deli Cafe is located at 7071 Dixie Highway in White Lake Commons.

Cookies for kids

Through June 6, people who buy Archway cookies from a few area stores will be contributing to children's services at William Beaumont Hospital.

For six weeks, Archway Cookies will donate 5 cents to children's services at William Beaumont Hospital, Birmingham, for every promotional package of cookies sold in the metro-Detroit area.

Food chains participating in the "Cookies for Kids" program are: A&P/Farmer Jack, Arbor Drugs, Foodland Distributors, Hollywood Supermarkets, The Kroger Co., Oakridge Markets, Perry Drugs, Sav-Mor Independents, and Shopping Center Supermarkets.

Last year, more than 80,000 children were treated at Beaumont's Royal Oak and Troy hospitals, as well as its outpatient clinics. About 6,000 babies were born at Beaumont during this time span.

Ranking as the fifth cookie brand in the United States, Archway Cookies, Inc., bakes 45 cookie varieties in nine bakeries across the country and Canada. Since 1991, the Cookies for Kids program has raised more than $175,000 in donations to children's charities.

Named Employee of the Month

A Clarkston-area resident has been selected as Oakland County government Employee of the Month for April.

Mona Kempf, who lives on Edgar Road, Springfield Township, with her husband, Jay, has been an account clerk with the county's reimbursement division for the past five years. Prior to moving to Michigan, Kempf worked for various CPA firms in Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

Kempf won the award because she single-handedly caught a $100,000 error made by the Department of Social Services in billing Oakland County for juvenile "Anytime someone can save the taxpayers that kind of money — well — that's music to a finance guy's ears," said Robert Daddow, director of the management and budget department.

Kempf said, "I'm very pleased with winning the award. I think it's terrific. Reimbursement is a great división, filled with a lot of nice people, who do a good job and who deserve this award, too."

As Employee of the Month, Kempf will receive a certificate, a coffee mug and a dinner for two at a local restaurant.

The Kempfs, who have been married for 33 years, have two grown daughters.

The Clarkston (Mich.) News Wed., May 12, 1993 19 A

Oakland County Executive L. Brooks Patterson established the Employee of the Month program in March to reward employees who go the extra mile and who do a little more than is expected of them.

QUESTION: How can you find a bargain home today?

Ron Rodda

Career in Real Estate? "ASK RON"

ANSWER: It happens. As you drive up to it, perhaps you see an old pickup truck in the driveway, the shaggy lawn, rusted toys on the front walk, soggy newspapers under the shrubs and a torn screen door. A disaster? No, a possible opportunity!

When you locate such a house, if it has had decent maintenance (as opposed to poor housekeeping), then you may have stumbled upon a bargain. Tenant-occupied houses sometimes fall into this category. Most buyers cannot see past sloppiness. The above house may eventually sell far below its true market value.

Mower tips assure quality

You've brought your new lawn mower home, taken it out of its box and gathered those "few hand tools" needed to set it up.

Your owner's manual is the first and last word on set-up and operation of your particular machine, but some general tips for good performance are universal.

Howard Doss, agricultural safety specialist at Michigan State University's Cooperative Extension, notes that many tips for new mowers also apply to "seasoned" machines as well.

First, when setting up the machine, fill with oil to the "full" mark. Avoid overfilling — it can damage the Fuel a lawn mower or other gasoline-powered lawn or garden equipment with clean, fresh, lead-free gasoline. Most small engine manufacturers recommend lead-free gasoline in their newer engines, Doss notes.

Follow the set-up instructions carefully to do it right

Township chips in to fix Maybee Road

Maybee Road, near the Independence-Orion border, has been slated for a facelift.

On May 4, the Independence Township Board agreed to contribute about $40,700 toward re-designing and paving part of the curve on Maybee Road, as it enters the township. Orion Township has agreed to pay for its half of Independence Township will utilize Tri-party money to cover its share. Under this funding formula, the township pays one-third the cost, as does Oakland County and the Road Commission for Oakland County.

In all, Independence Township's share is $13,666. The project is expected to begin this summer.

the first time and avoid problems with the mower later, he advises.

Whenever you're servicing, repairing or unclogging a mower, remove the spark plug wire from the engine and attach it to the metal part of the engine to ground out the spark. Leaving the spark plug connected to the engine can result in the engine's starting with potentially serious consequences to the operator, Doss explains.

Before tipping a lawn mower to work under the deck, shut off or empty the fuel tank, and keep the engine muffler side up. This prevents leakage of fuel and crankcase oil.

The most important thing you can do to maintain the engine is to change the oil every 20 to 25 hours of operation, Doss says. At the same time, or anytime you notice a lack of power, clean or replace the air cleaner filter or paper cartridge

Check the spark plug every season and replace it as needed. Most newer small mower engines have few, if any, carburetor adjustments. Check the directions in your owner's manual.

If you have trouble with your new mower, keep in mind that most manufacturers' one- or two-year limited warranties do not cover the following: normal wear, abuse or neglect, bent or broken crankshaft, plugged cylinder cooling fins, improper-infrequent air cleaner service, wear from cleaning spark plugs by sandblasting, insufficient oil, stale gasoline or tune-ups.

"Often problems are due to the operator's failure to read and study the owner's manual," Doss observes. "When all else fails, follow directions' is not very good advice. Reading the manual first can save time and money."

Clarkston residents recently received a bulletin from the Clarkston Historic District Commission.

The bulletin informed residents that they can borrow a special paint removal tool, which speeds the tedious process of removing old paint from historic clapboard buildings and also protects the wood.

A completely refundable $50 deposit is required to use the tool, which may be borrowed for up to one week

In addition, if you have any building projects planned, you can obtain an easy-to-follow information sheet from the Clarkston Historic Commission, which must approve many changes in the district.

Finally, the Commission is collecting information about the history of all buildings in the village for use by future historians. Survey:

City residents want own police, whatever the cost

Only one-third of Clarkston city residents spoke up, but they're ready to keep their force, whatever the City Manger Art Pappas said that 300 letters were sent to city residences, explaining that the police effort took more money than expected. The 100 responses he received showed two-to-one that the residents wanted to keep the police force, whatever the expense.

Police protection became a problem for Clarkston when it became a city last July. The city could no longer contract police services from Independence Township, and it cost too much to pay for coverage from the Oakland County Sheriff's Department directly.

Pappas said that officials had expected the police department to cost $115,000 per year, but it was closer to $140,000. The higher cost, said Pappas, was due to unforeseen start-up costs.

The city council meets in June to discuss the preliminary police budget for the 1993-94 fiscal year and may consider an additional police millage.

Board supports ballot proposal

Budget cuts possible otherwise

BY CURT MCALLISTER Clarkston News Associate Editor

The Clarkston Board of Education has publicly endorsed the passage of Proposal A.

On May 10, the school board unanimously approved a resolution of support for the proposed constitutional

Proposal A, which appears on the June 2 ballot, increases the state sales tax from 4 percent to 6 percent, rolls back school operating mills to a maximum of 27 mills, and caps property assessments by 3 percent this year and5 percent or the rate of inflation — which ever is less — in the future.

Schools would be guaranteed at least $4,800 per pupil. In Clarkston, the existing millage rate of 38.83 would be rolled back to around 22 mills. In turn, the district would be allocated about $5,270 per student, compared to the $5,154 it presently spends on each pupil.

According to Steve Lenar, deputy superintendent of business and operations, Clarkston's present millage rate (38.83) is slightly above the 35-mill average for school districts in Oakland County. However, if Proposal A passes, the district's new rate of 22 mills would be below an adjusted average of 24 mills for the county, he said.

Lenar said the passage of Proposal A would also allow the district to balance next year's budget with the possibility of money left over.

If Proposal A fails, the district could enact about $1.7 million in budget reductions for the 1993-94 school year. A list of designated cuts was approved May 10.

Ranging from athletics to transportation to elementary physical education, these cuts touch a variety of district activities, programs and operations.

Supervisor Gary Haner said the cuts represent a worst-case scenario for the district, which can't be determined until after the June 2 election.

First 'first' for Barbershop

Vocalists take top honors at state festival

The Clarkston High School Barbershop Ensemble earned its first "First" at the State Choir Festival, and other vocalists also performed well.

Barbershop tops

The April 27 festival took place at Jackson Community College, Jackson. The First Division rating is awarded for excellence in performance and sight reading. The volunteer ensemble meets 45 minutes a week after school. Only half of the students are within the daily curriculum of music.

Others perform well, too

The Barbershop Ensemble isn't the only success story coming out of the CHS music department, however. Eight soloists and two ensembles also participated in the State Solo & Ensemble Festival at the University of Michigan-Flint on April 3.

Receiving a Second Division overall rating were: soprano soloists Nicole Greer, Melissa O'Dea, Sarah Hranach and Roxanne Bruscha, and a soprano, alto, baritone ensemble of Sarah McNew, Julia Freeland and Bobby Vance.

Earning a First Division overall rating were: soloists Sarah King, Amy Desrochers, Joshua Surre and Robert Tankersley — and the Madrigal Singers.

The Madrigal Singers are: soprano: Amy Desrochers, Derenda Howard, Melissa O'Dea, Staffinea Van-Camp; alto: Charity Evans, Amy Leininger, Erika Srugis, Holly Zorka; tenor: David Byrne, Jeff Jones, Casey Zeman, Jeremy Zeman; bass: Mike Schweitzer, Josh Surre, Rob Tankersley, Nathan Werner; accompanist: Brendan Kelly; and public relations representative Shawna Thompson.

Grayce Warren, director of the vocal music department, noted that all of the above-mentioned students received the highest rating possible in the sight reading category — a difficult test of their musicianship.

We in Clarkston are so fortunate to have so many talented young people who are willing to share their talents with others," said Warren. "I thank their parents, them and you, the community, for supporting our performing arts program. Music is an integral part of each of our lives. May it continue to live and thrive."

Heritage Hunt II

Pending law endangers vital records

BY VIRGINIA BLOCK

The preservation of your family history begins with you. Few parents have taken time to routinely tell a "bedtime" story to their little ones.

A family rocking chair that used to be used to rock the baby to sleep has been replaced these days with a crib that has "piped in" lullabyes and a monitor that can be heard throughout the house, where one can judge the degree of importance in the wails emitting from the nonsleeper.

Your grandmother was quite a gal, making modernday grannies pale at the thought of starting the day at 5 a.m., building a fire in the cookstove, cooking a breakfast of meat, eggs, potatoes or grits, gravy and home-canned fruits to feed the farmer and hired hands before they went into the fields by 6 o'clock.

The microwave was yet undreamed of to provide a meal to be eaten as one traveled to work, eaten between business conversations on the car's telephone.

Smoke signals of our Native American families used communication that did the same things, yet their traditions are virtually unknown until recently. Many French-Canadians intermarried, creating some greater degree of resistance to successfully researching the family lines of many of you today.

The opening of birth and death records to the public is threatened in Michigan Bill 378, currently awaiting action in the Legislature. It desperately needs your attention and requires you to contact your state representative and senator to urge that our vital records will remain open for our use, for whatever the need.

They are OUR records, you know, so speak up before it's too late. Time is of the essence.

Michigan Week (May 15-22) begins with the Saturday celebration of Heritage and Community Pride Day, followed on Sunday with observance of Religion and Family Day.

Please drop me a note to let me know how you plan to use genealogy in following this year's theme: Celebrating Michigan's Diversity," because there are 9.4 million citizens living in Michigan, and we all need to speak loud and clear.

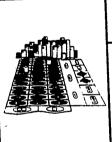

Like we said in the beginning, preservation is the key to telling it like it was, and is. If you need help, there is no charge for anything we can do to get you started or to help you climb over the stone wall you are facing. All you have to do is ask us, and at least we'll direct you to the answer, if we don't have it at hand.

Fill up on "family"; it's future lies with you and your heritage.

HAPPY HUNTING!

Genealogist Virginia Block can be reached by writing to her in care of Sherman Publications, Inc., 666 Lapeer Road, Oxford, MI 48371.
