A newborn for the new year

THE BERDAN FAMILY of Independence Township, proudly hold their newest addition, Jessica Lynn, who was born Jan. 1, 1994 at 12:19 p.m. She was the first baby of the new year born at St. Joseph Hospital, Pontiac. Jessica is the daughter of Michael and Jane Berdan of Independence Township. She was welcomed home by her brother, Christopher, 7, and her sister, Alicia, 5. She weighed 8 pounds and 15 1/2 ounces and measured 21 1/2 inches. Her proud grandparents are Carol and Dave Mathieson of Markham, Ontario and Mathilde and Karl Berdan of Midland, Ontario. In honor of the special occasion, the hospital staff presented several gifts to the Berdan family including a Sunday brunch, flowers, formula, toys and a case of diapers. ## Two cops, two promotions

Two Clarkston police officers were promoted to corporal effective Jan. 1.

Mark Ladetto, as DeVore's administrative assistant, will be responsible for following up criminal cases. He will be in charge of the department's paper work and work with the courts.

Scott Dickey, as road patrol supervisor, will be in charge of vehicle maintenance and scheduling. "With these promotions, it frees me up to do more out in the community," Chief Robert DeVore said.

DeVore said he has initiated a crime prevention program. Residents wishing to participate in the home security surveys are asked to call the department to set up an appointment.

Officers will examine a resident's existing locks and windows and will offer suggestions on how to improve security systems.

The first crime prevention quarterly newsletter will be sent out Feb. 1 with the city's sewer bills. It will offer tips on how homeowners can make their homes safe.

For more information, call 625-0088.

Insurance is costly Businesses, residents could soon get a break

BY DEBORAH DZIEWIT
 Clarkston News Special Writer

Many area businesses and homeowners could pay less for insurance as early as April because of a lowered fire protection class rating.

Independence Township is under a re-evaluation which began last fall by an organization responsible for assessing townships and municipalities of their fire protection methods, water systems and equipment, said fire chief Gar Wilson.

"We asked for it this year," Wilson said. "People are supposed to have a good fire department and we are. It's time to get the benefits from the department."

The Insurance Service Organization (ISO) rates townships and municipalities from one to 10, with 10 being the highest and costliest because it means that municipality has little or no fire protection.

Insurance companies use the ISO rating system

Escape, steal . . . caught

Three runaway juveniles were found in a stolen car early Jan. 5 at the Muffler Shop on M-15.

Corporal Scott Dickey discovered two 13-year old boys and a 16-year-old boy asleep in the parked car at 2 a.m., during a routine patrol.

After the driver of the car failed to produce identification, Dickey ran a computer check on the vehicle which showed that the car had been stolen from Arenac County.

It also showed they were juvenile wards of probate court and had escaped Jan. 3 from a juvenile detention facility in Oscoda County.

After further investigation, the boys admitted to stealing three other cars.

During their two days on the road, the trio also failed to pay for gasoline five times and had stolen cigarettes from a food market.

They were taken to Children's Village over to and later turned over to Oscoda County Sheriff's department.

Briefly . . .

Got something to show?

Independence Township Library has two showcases available for nonprofit community groups or individuals to use. Preference will be given to Clarkston/Independence residents.

The cases should be used primarily for educational or information purposes. There will be no charge to use them, but it is necessary to call ahead for available dates ranging anywhere from one week to one month of display.

Displayers are responsible for setting up and taking down displays. The library is interested in unusual and off-beat displays, which may be of interest to the general community.

The cases can be locked and both have lighting and removable shelves. The small case measures 56"x40"x14" and the larger case is 174"x53"x16".

The library is not responsible for lost, stolen or damage of display items.

To reserve a date, or for more information, please call 625-2212, Ext. 19 and ask for Mrs. S. Meyer.

Correction

In the Dec. 22, 1993 issue of The Clarkston News, the phone number for Wayout Company should have been 674-3636. The Wayout Company sells "Pop Goes the Weasel" wiggling window caricatures of President Clinton.

Congregations unite

Local congregations will come together for an Ecumenical Celebration of the Word of God this Monday, Jan. 17.

The service, which will be held in conjunction with the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, is slated to begin at 7 p.m. in the Independence Township Library's community room. The library is located at 6495 Clarkston Road.

Originating in 1908, the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is observed annually in communities across the globe.

For more information on this local event, call the library at 625-2212.

Water reminders coming

For some city residents, township water will become a reality this spring. But for the majority, residents rely on wells for their water supply.

The council would like to hear residents' input on whether or not a city-wide water system is wanted or needed.

A Feb. 28 public hearing will be held to hear ideas and opinions regarding the feasibility of extending the water main.

"The city council wants to know what the resident's feelings are about extending the water main to include all residents," said city manager Art Pappas.

Last fall, Pappas said he contacted engineers to give a "top of the head" estimate of such an extension. The cost ranged from $2 million to $4 million.

"But those are rough," Pappas said. "Until we hear from the residents, we are not going to involve engineers."

All city residents will be sent reminders of the meeting in their Feb. 1 sewer bills.

He Never Turns Away

They come to him for help when they need it the most. Some numbed by their loss, some shattered, they say: "This is someone we loved. We entrust him to you." And even when he's faced with the crumpled innocence of the youngest asking, "Why?"-and he has to find childlike words to answer a question that even theologians struggle with-he never turns away. He gives them the consolation of tradition. He shows them how to accept their tragedy with dignity. He helps them cope with their grief. He guides them back to the active world of the living. He is a funeral director. He practices the most emotionally demanding and least understood of all the professions. He faces up to traumas every day that most people only have to deal with once or twice in a lifetime. He would never turn away. He has earned the deepest thanks from anyone who has ever leaned on his compassion for support. Who turned to him and found that he would never turn away.

Crime Capers

Assault with a phone

Randy Wolfe, 31, of Independence Township has been bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court in connection to an alleged assault on his ex-wife.

He will be arraigned on charges of felonious assault in front of Judge Edward Sosnick on Jan. 20 at 1:30 p.m. If convicted he faces a maximum of four years in prison and/or a $2,000 fine.

Wolfe allegedly threw a portable phone at his ex-wife after they argued on Dec. 23, 1993. She was hit in the face and required medical attention. The attending physician contacted the police.

Arrest in jacket thefts

A 19-year-old Pontiac man was arrested Saturday for allegedly stealing $1,100 worth of jackets from an area Foot Locker store.

Eugene F. Pickard was arraigned in 52nd District Court, Clarkston on Jan. 10 on charges of breaking and entering with intent to commit a larceny. His preliminary exam is scheduled in front of Judge Gerald McNally on Jan. 21 at 10 a.m. If found guilty, he could face up to 10 years in prison.

According to Det. Chuck Young of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department the Foot Locker store on Dixie Highway, Independence Township, was broken into on Sept. 24, 1993. He said 10 Starter brand jackets with the Detroit Lions and Dallas Cowboys logos on them were stolen.

Young said Pickard supposedly sold the jackets to a girl in Pontiac who was going to return them to area Foot Locker stores for money. Young is still looking for two other men allegedly involved in the theft.

One week, three crashes

Alcohol was a factor in three area accidents, according to reports by the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

The first accident occurred at 4:26 a.m. on Jan. 1 on White Lake Road, north of Andersonville Road. According to the report, Matthew Bert, 20, of Waterford was driving his 1988 Pontiac too fast, lost control of his car, hit an embankment and rolled over. Bert was not injured, but his three passengers — Matthew Rentschler, 20, of Union Lake, Erika Graham and Sarah Basinger, both 18 and from Clarkston, were treated for minor injuries at area hospitals.

The report said Bert had been drinking. All four were wearing seatbelts. Bert was ticketed in the incident.

Two days later at 4 a.m., Rhonda Runyan, 37, of Waterford lost control of her 1987 GMC on Sashabaw Road west of Pine Knob Road, ran over a fence and into a swamp.

The police report said that she had been drinking. She was treated for minor injuries at North Oakland Medical Center and was ticketed. She was not wearing a seat belt.

On Jan. 4 Joey Ender, 24, of Independence Township was arrested for allegedly driving under the influence after he rear-ended a car on Maybee Road at 5:25 p.m.

According to the OCSD report, Ender hit a car stopped for traffic which was driven by Gale Kauten, 31, of Clarkston.

Helping the county plan

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Robert Olsen of Independence Township has been appointed to Oakland County's Business Leaders Roundtable by County Executive L. Brooks Patterson.

Olsen is the president of Planned Financial Services, Inc. of Clarkston which he formed with the late L. Mack Oakley in 1974. He is currently the president of the Clarkston Foundation and served as recent chairman and trustee for the Oakland County Local Development Corporation.

The Business Leader's Roundtable combines the expertise of 125 business and education leaders to develop a strategic plan to help the county government lead its citizens into the next century.

"I'm delighted to be associated with this," said Olsen.

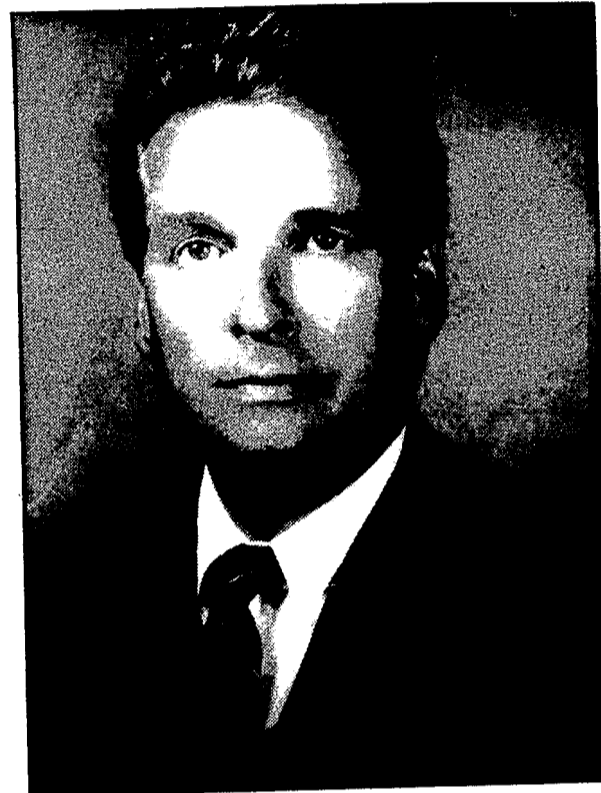

The appointees are divided into 12 committees including transportation, financing and venture capital, quality of life and higher education collaboration. It is co-chaired by Robert Stemple, formerly of General Motors, and Patsy Fulton, president of Oakland Community College.

Olsen is co-chairman of the Small Business Incentive Committee. He said each of the 12 committees will develop five ideas in the next year. All of the ideas will be gathered and then combined, polished or discarded before the final ideas are presented to Patterson and the county.

"One of our (committee's) ideas — one of the best so far — is to develop a physical place where people can come to get information about starting and running a small business," said Olsen.

He said that the committee found out that such a place was in operation at the Executive Building in the county complex on Telegraph Road. Now, the committee can publicize the existence of this office to the public.

Olsen said people in this area may not benefit from committees such as foreign trade, but other committees can enhance life in the township.

ROBERT OLSEN, president of Planned Financial Services, Inc., has been named to the Oakland County Business Leaders Roundtable.

One committee idea is to time lights to make traffic flow smoother throughout the county. There could be lower interest loans to encourage small businesses. Also, the quality of life in more rural areas may remain the same when cities already equipped with water and sewer can court factories and big businesses with incentives.

Olsen said that he is excited about the group and his part in it.

"When I'm sitting here 20 years from now, I'll know I had a hand in the development (of our county). It's exciting," said Olsen.

Teacher receives Grammy nomination

DANIELLE BLANCHARD has taught choir at Clarkston Middle School for five years. She is nominated for a Grammy Award in the Contemporary Pop Gospel field by The National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences. "The Rosary Tapes: The Joyful Mysteries," is one three recordings she was involved with as a vocal arranger, as well as lead and back-up vocalist. Blanchard said it was a good feeling to be recognized for her work. "It's a starting point. Your hope other opportunities present themselves through your life to take it one step further," she said. Fourteen original songs were written and produced by Bill Gildenstern of Saginaw and John Gialer of Troy; Gialer also sang on recording. The tapes were recorded at G.T. Record out of Saginaw and the first tape was released December 1992. The Grammy Awards are given out March 1, 1994 at Radio City Music Hall. (Photo by Catherine Passmore)

Don't Rush Me

My dog Mickey -- a liberal operative

Don
Rush

What is going on here?
How cunningly evil the mind must be to have pulled off such plot of sabotage. Who would have guessed?
Certainly not I.

The little she-pup I saved from animal equivalent of Stalag 17, (Oakland County Animal Shelter) must have been a plant. I have been set up.

I am living with a dog that is a liberal -- most likely a Democrat. I know, I know, you all are saying to yourself, "Rush, ol' boy -- you're having yourself Ross Perot conspiracy delusions."

You can say that now, but wait. Hear me out.

The other month a gal at work let me look at some Limbaugh Letters. These are the newsletters, chock full of the opinions of conservative, liberal-basher Rush Limbaugh. He fills them with cartoons, news from across the country and interviews with such people as John F. Kennedy and Jack Kemp.

A subscription goes for about 30 bucks a year.

Anyhow, I was given these letters to look at. I took the liberty to take them home and put them on an end table. The next morning when I got out of the shower, Wife Desiree (who is also more liberal, yours truly) had some bad news.

The dog, Mickey, had put her snout up on the table, pulled down the Limbaugh Letters and proceeded to shred them to pieces. The "Hush Rush" campaign had hit home. No longer are liberal Democrats satisfied in just trying to silence Rush Limbaugh by forcing "fairness" in broadcasting regulations, they have dispatched trained canines to dispose of the printed Limbaugh views. The operatives, I assume, are to take up residence in homes with conservatives.

"But teacher, the dog ate my homework."
"Right, kid. You flunk." (Those liberal academe types are all the same.)

I didn't even get a chance to read the letters before they were eaten -- thus this act of sabotage denied me access to conservative slanted information.

When I thought about the consequences of her dastardly deed I came up with the conspiracy theory.

This dog could have chewed on any number of things that were also on the table. Things, that were I a dog, I would have chewed on -- things like tissue paper, the pencil or pen, and I definitely would have gone for the candy jar.

Not Mickey. She went for Limbaugh.

That is why I call my dog an agent of the liberals. So, all you conservatives out there, beware. Those big brown eyes that look up to you with nothing but love could be just the guise of liberal agents out to take over the nation.

Man's best friend, ha!

Letter to the Editor

You can be proud

Dear Editor,

We accompanied the Clarkston High School Marching Band and Symphonic Band to London, England over the Christmas holidays. While in London, they gave three performances: at the South Hampton Public School, Wembley Arena, and The Lord Mayor of Westminster's New Year's Day Parade.

The members of the band performed marvelously on and off the stage. The 173 young adults involved endured long airline flights, a five-hour time shift, rain, 30-degree temperatures and a two-mile parade that lasted almost three hours.

Their stamina and patience was amazing.

The parents who worked so hard to send them, the merchants and organizations who supported them, and the entire community can be very proud of these young people.

Les and Rhoda Haight

Jim's Jottings

Mishmash

Jim
Sherman

I will not forget actor Don Ameche and none of my reasons were mentioned in the obituaries I read or heard.

Nowhere did I note the comedy skits he did with Frances Langford in a series called, "The Bickersons."

One big reason I won't forget him is I have a cassette tape with a half-dozen of their radio skits. Miss Langford is the bickerer, Don Ameche gets the laughs.

Another reason I won't forget him is his appearance in a play at The Fisher Theatre. I don't remember the name of it, though it was very funny, but I do recall being told the play would never make Broadway, "because they don't like Don Ameche."

Another star raised in radio who became very popular in TV, who I remember differently than the obit writers is Gary Moore.

He used to appear on my favorite piano player's radio show, Jimmy Durante (In Poysen). Each week the two would get into a tongue twister skit where each word began with the same letter, like a "t" or "b". Funny stuff, ending with an exasperated Durante.

We all know some vacation resorts are very popular. Free Press travel writer David Standish wrote this description of one recently . . . "St. Thomas has become a busy, sun-drenched shopping mall with cruise ships attached to it like great white lamprey eels." When we were there some years ago I thought it was the most beautiful harbor I'd ever seen.

Got a card from the "Bleak House Rest Home" in Metamora. Concerned reader Graham Bodwell is proprietor and sometimes the only tenant. He suggests, "How about having Jim's Jottings share part of his column with Mr. Francis Baldwin, then we would get some truth to some of those Jottings!"

When Noah built his Ark he chose these two along with two of everything else. And they were not young then.

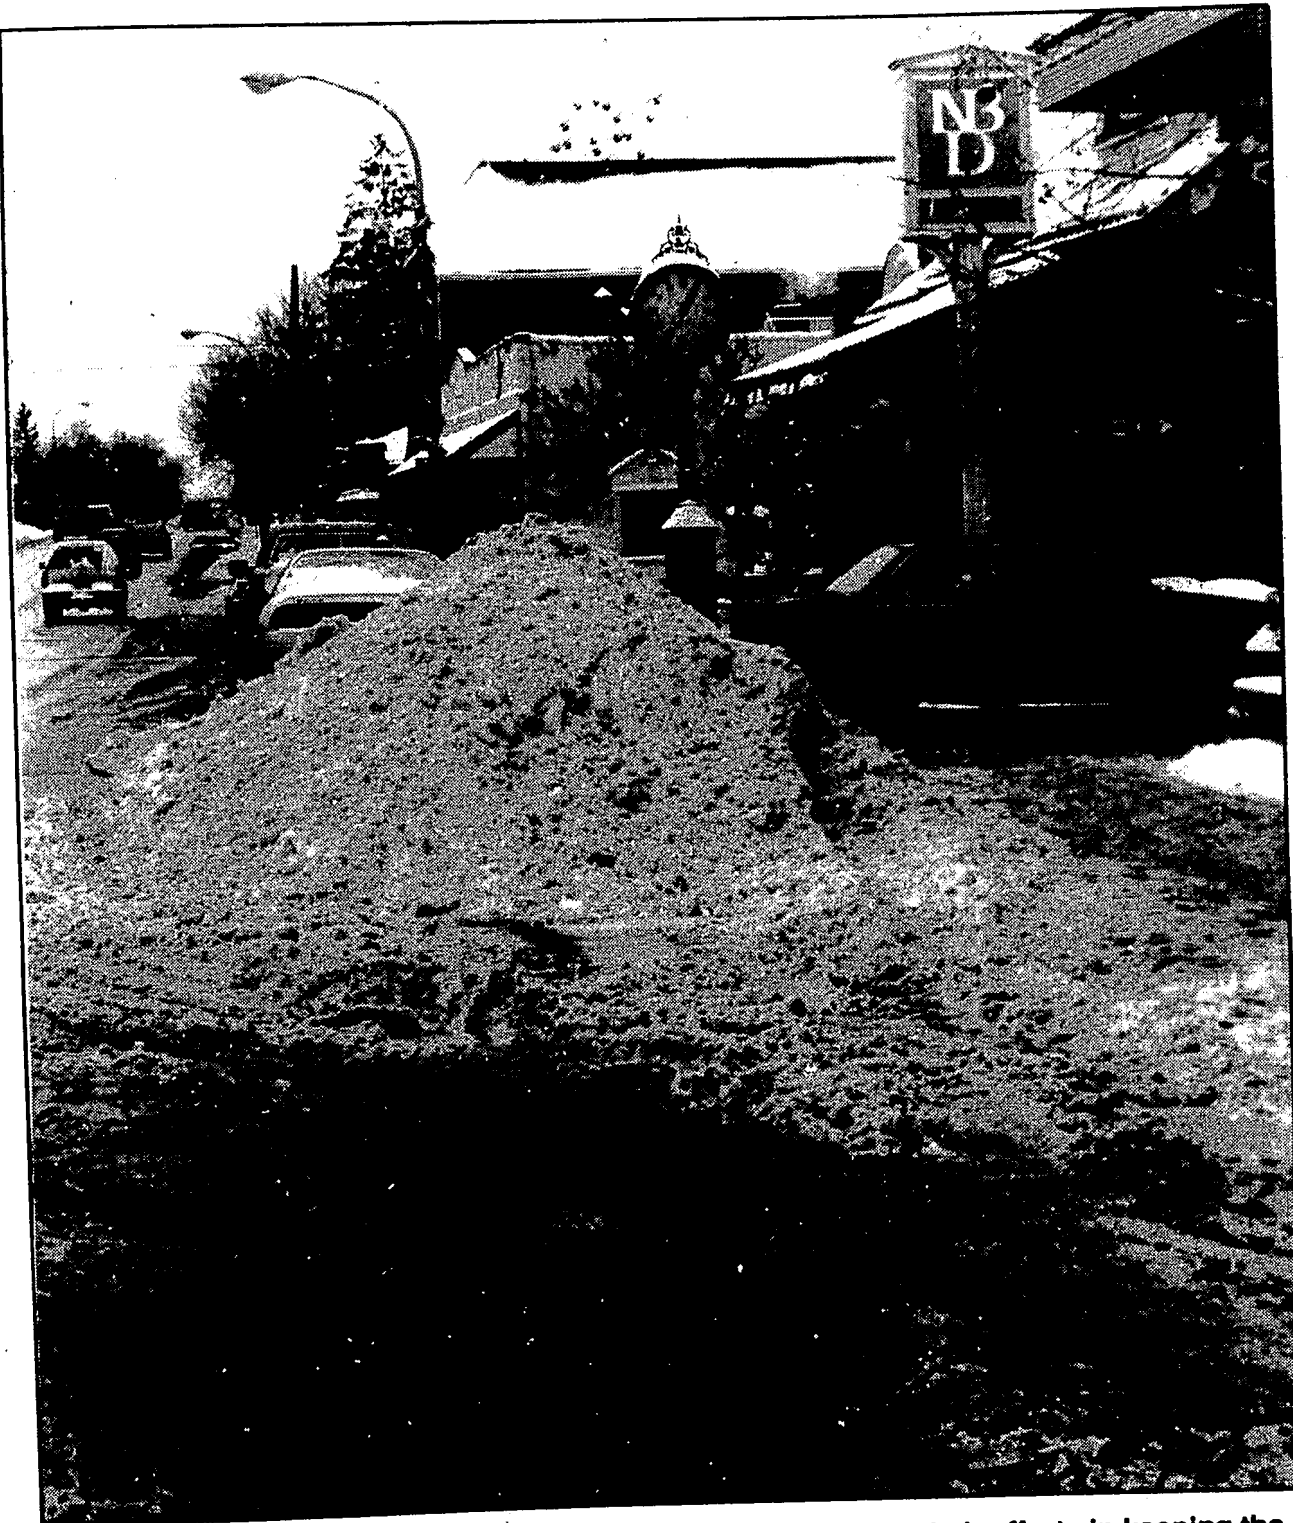

Let me drop one more name on you and I'll switch to something more informative. Mickey Hiatt has lost some weight recently, but he is still considered round and heavy by most pro football tackles. All this talk about people lifting weights to lose weight prompted him to remark, "Heck, I lift a lot of weight everytime I get up and I don't lose weight!"

Why did I jot down this note: My memory is as long as a gnat's tongue?

Song titles to which I wish there were lyrics:

"You're the only thing that's rising in the sour dough of life." That's by Maxine Edwards.

The Late Abe Burrows will be remembered for this one: "If I had to do it all over again, I'd do it all over you."

Don't lose your temper when you see a pile of snow taking up a parking in downtown Clarkston after a heavy snow. The DPW should be given a hand for their efforts in keeping the streets clean.

'If It Fitz . . .'

Life of pain deserves dignity of choice

Jim Fitzgerald

It was exactly one year ago that I first wrote about the sixtysomething suburban Detroit grandmother who has the same unbearably painful pelvic ailment that forced one of Jack Kevorkian's patients to seek assisted suicide. Time for an update.

She asked that I withhold her name, which would be widely recognized because she is publicly active in several social causes unrelated to her illness. Last week, she described her physical condition:

"I have lived with pain for over 16 years. My condition is chronic, incurable and devastating. But I love my family and do not want to leave them yet. I am hoping for a miracle, although I have undergone 10 surgeries with poor results. I don't know how much longer I can go on.

"I would like to know that, if the time comes when I can stand no more, I could have help in leaving this life . . . I would never ask anyone in my family or any of my good friends to help me. It would be too painful for them and I would not want to put them in legal jeopardy. For now, I am holding on as hard as I can and praying.

Praying?

So how does she respond to such pray-to-God proponents as syndicated columnist Cal Thomas, who recently wrote: "When government begins deciding who is fit to live and who deserves to die, we are all potential victims. But this is the inevitable outcome when society moves from a view that all human life is sacred to one that considers the right to life a privilege granted by government, and not something endowed by life's Creator."

The pain-wracked grandmother answered Thomas: "In no proposed law is it left to 'government' to make the decision. Those of us in favor of assisted suicide would not support such a law. A properly written law would involve choices and decisions made by the patient, at least two doctors, and a psychiatrist.

"While we do not want 'big brother' making life and death decisions for us, neither do we want people who use the name of God to tell us we must suffer in agony when we would choose death . . . The God I pray to is loving and caring. I believe He gave me life, but I also believe He gave me the choice of what to do with that life."

Another syndicated columnist, Debra Saunders, wrote about Kevorkian: "Maybe his so-called patients would change their minds, given a few extra days."

The woman who may someday choose assisted suicide responded: "None of his patients got up one morning and, on the spur of the moment, decided to give Dr. Kevorkian a call. All of them fought the good fight and reluctantly, but with determination, chose to end their own suffering, with Dr. Kevorkian's help. All of them would have preferred life, if that life had not been one of constant pain. A few extra days would not have changed anything."

A year ago, the suburban grandmother wasn't sure how she felt about "Dr. Death." How about now?

"My feelings are more ambivalent than ever. I went from thinking he was great to despair about his attitude and methods. I just wish people could hear him speak when he is not being manipulated by his lawyers or badgered by the media. He is so articulate and compelling on the subject. Even his ideas on medical experimentation on cadavers and prison inmates come across as logical and not, as has been reported, ghoulish . . . There is more to the man than rusty vans, needles and gas canisters."

Finally, it should be noted that the suburban grandmother speaks not only from her own unending pain, but from having watched people she loved die in agony:

"I watched my mother and mother-in-law die that way. Both of them begged for help. My husband and I had to stand by and just let it happen. If I had had the opportunity and the means, I would have given them the release they begged for, and I would not have considered it murder.

"It would have been the last loving thing I could have done for them."

Under construction

What an encouragement

Catherine Passmore

When I was young, a spelling error could have ended my public writing career.

I misspelled "bomb" when I was nine, changing the whole meaning of a story. I was crushed when the reader laughed at what was suppose to be scary.

For the next eight years I was a closet story writer. I loved to research the scenes and work out the endings in my mind, but I didn't allow anyone to read my work. I wasn't sure if anyone would like what I wrote and I didn't want to chance it.

I've since found out that most writers are the same way — the story is their baby and it is frightening to allow someone to critique it.

When I was 17, I finished a story I had worked on for a year and decided to finally let someone read it.

I didn't want my parents to read it — they of course would tell me it was wonderful. I didn't want my friend Laura to read it — she was so deep I was afraid my story would seem childish. I needed to find an intelligent person with a good heart I could trust, who would tell me the truth if it was good and soften the blow if it wasn't.

I decided to let my friend Doreen read it. We'd been friends since elementary school — I knew she'd be honest if she liked it and compassionate if she hated it.

After I handed it over on Sunday morning I panicked. I was terrified that I had exposed my "baby" to criticism too early. I was afraid she would laugh. I was afraid I wasn't a good writer and she would point it out — destroying any hope I clung to about my "talent."

She (thankfully) gave it a good review.

I don't know where that story is today — probably buried in a box in my closet. But a letter Doreen wrote to me about my story, my talent and what it meant to her that I shared it with her that has been in my wallet since 1986.

I have read and re-read that letter many times over the past seven years. Whenever I am tempted not to allow a story to be published, when I have writer's block or when someone complains about what I wrote I take the letter out and, encouraged by her words, I go on or I take the chance.

I thought about that note a couple weeks ago when her younger sister, Danette (see I told you I'd mention you one day in a column), told me how much she enjoyed reading what I wrote. Her two sentences of praise turned my dreary little spirit around that day just as her sister's letter urged me to share what I have to say with others through my writing.

Thanks for the encouragement Stuart Ds.

Seller's now must let buyers know

A Michigan law known as the seller's disclosure law went into effect Jan. 8, and requires home sellers to furnish potential buyers with property condition disclosures that cover everything from the insulation to the kitchen sink.

Officially Act 92 of the Public Acts of 1993, the law requires disclosure from all sellers, whether they are working through a licensed real estate agent or selling their house on their own.

This mandatory disclosure is beneficial to both buyer and seller. By preparing for property condition disclosure, sellers are less likely to overlook a defect for which they may later be held liable. This procedure also serves as a guide for buyers who can immediately address any concerns about the condition of the property.

"It's a major change in the industry, and it benefits all parties involved," said Ed LeVoor, Regional Director for RE/MAX detroit metro, inc.

Medicare reminder: you have until March

"If you don't have Part B of Medicare and you want it, you have from now until the end of March to sign up." That reminder comes from Robert Clevenger, Social Security manager in Pontiac.

Every year, the government offers a three-month enrollment period - from January 1 to March 31 - during which people who turned down or previously dropped the Part B coverage can sign up for it.

"If you enroll during this period, your coverage will begin July 1, 1994," Clevenger said, "and you'll probably pay a slightly higher monthly premium."

The current cost for Part B coverage is $41.10 per month, but most delayed enrollees pay a 10 percent surcharge for each year they could have been enrolled but weren't.

Part B coverage, also called "medical insurance," helps pay for doctors care, outpatient hospital visits, and other medical services.

People are offered the option of signing up for Part B at the same time they are automatically enrolled in Medicare's Part A program. Part A helps pay for inpatient hospital care and certain other services.

Clevenger said people who want to sign up for Part B should call the Pontiac Social Security office or call Social Security's toll-free number: 1-800-772-1213.

Hoping to spread the wealth, the Clarkston wrestling team split its roster last weekend so it could participate in two tournaments.

The result was a second-place trophy at the South Lyon Invitational and a sixth-place finish at the Wildcat Invitational, Oxford.

In South Lyon, the Wolves amassed 179 1/2 teampoints, but fell just short of tournament champ Fowlerville, who finished with 187 1/2 points. Fowlerville is presently the second ranked squad in Class B.

The host Lions took third with 174 points at the 14-team tournament.

CHS Coach Mike DeGain said he was proud of his team's effort.

"I thought everyone wrestled pretty well," he said. "It was one of our best showings of the season."

In all, nine wrestlers brought home medals from this meet. They included: heavyweight Bob Lipinski, fourth; Ryan Mick (103 pounds), second; Jesse Laycock (125), third; Corey Grant (130), first; Joe Roy (135), third; Armin Michelson (152), second; Brett Rebb (160), third; P.J. Vandermeer (171), third; and Joe DeGain (189), first.

Coach DeGain said Vandermeer's weight class proved the toughest with two all-staters and the county's reigning champ in the same bracket. Yet, the junior was still able to take home a medal in a weight class he's only wrestled in twice this season.

Vandermeer is accustomed to wrestling at 160 pounds.

In Oxford, Clarkston's "B" team took sixth place out of 10 teams. Crosswell-Lexington ended up winning the tournament, followed by Yale and Harper Woods.

The Wolves' Chad Auten took home a first-place medal by winning the 125-pound weight class. Scott Hund also grabbed third-place honors at 140 pounds.

Last Thursday, CHS opened league competition with a 64-9 win over host Pontiac Northern. The Wolves recorded seven pins enroute to victory. Wins were picked up by: Jason Tiefenbach (103), Mick (112), Laycock (119), Grant (125), Auten (130), Roy (135), Jeremy Lafferty (140), Jack Dyer (145), Michelson (152), Rebb (160), and Vandermeer (171).

This Thursday, Jan. 13, Clarkston hosts league nemesis Lake Orion. The Dragons are ranked among the top-10 teams in the county this year, making them a serious threat to the Wolves' championship aspirations. This meet will begin at 6 p.m. in the CHS gymnasium.

Water ski team looks to increase its ranks

The Spray Masters Water Ski Show Team, based on Big Lake in Springfield Township, is already looking for some new members for next season.

This six-year-old club won third place in last year's state competition and is hoping to do even better this year with a revamped show. There will be room for experienced barefooters, jumpers, kneeboarders, swivel skiers, as well as non-skiing positions such as boat drivers, D.J.s and dock helpers.

The Spray Masters team consists of many families, as well as individual members, ranging from 8 years of age to over 50.

Simulation practices begin this month at Andersonville Elementary, with actual skiing taking place on a weekly basis throughout the summer.

"That's the hardest part about being on the team," says member Ben Schneider. "Making all the practices is quite a commitment."

Last year, the team showed its generous side when it held a benefit performance for Jeremy Leach, a local teen who's afflicted with leukemia. The Spray Masters wound up raising $600 for the Clarkston High student.

"That was our best show. I think because we were doing it for such a good cause made us work even harder," said member Dan Bassett.

Even though Spray Masters need experienced skiers, it will welcome all new members who are willing to put forth the effort to gain new skills. Show director Bob Dowling offers his services as a boat driver to any member for private water time at a nominal fee of $10 per hour.

This helps team members perfect new skills without taking up precious practice time.

Both family and individual memberships are available at reasonable rates and include membership in both the American Water Ski Association and the Michigan Water Ski Association.

For more information, call either Skip Wendt at 625-0974 or Clare Bassett at 625-9488.

LAURA WENDT of Springfield is among several area skiers on Spray Masters' roster.

Spikers start season with 3-4-3 record

BY CURT MCALLISTER
Clarkston News Associated Editor

Barely a month into the regular season, the Clarkston varsity volleyball team finds itself flirting with the .500 mark.

Presently, the team stands at 3-4-3, following a Dec. 18 tournament at Lansing Waverly, a Jan. 4 tri-meet at home and a recent invitational at Walled Lake Central.

In Lansing, the Wolves started the season with a record of 0-2-2. They took on Potterville in the first round of action, losing 7-15, 3-15. Later that day, CHS tangled with Davison and split a pair of games, 4-15 and 15-9.

In the third round of action, the Wolves were pummeled by Charlotte

6-15, 5-15, before splitting with Lansing Eastern, 15-5, 10-15, in the finale.

Looking back, Clarkston Coach Gordie Richardson attributes his team's sub-par play to inexperience.

"I wouldn't say we played badly, but our inexperience definitely showed through," he said. "We played young."

The Wolves returned to action after the Christmas break by hosting Rochester Adams and Troy in a tri-meet.

Clarkston lost to the Colts 5-15 in the first game, before winning 16-14 in the second contest and 15-12 in the third.

CHS was paced by Andrea Slavin who was 14-for-15 attacking with 12 digs and five kills. Nickie Winn had eight assists and Christa Herron was 11-for-11 serving.

Against Adams, Clarkston jumped out to a quick victory in the first game, 15-9, but fell in the remaining two, 8-15 and 12-15.

The Wolves were led by Lisa Goforth who was 11-for-14 attacking with five kills and Slavin who recorded four kills on 18-of-20 attacking. Winn had 15 assists, while Beth Eby recorded 15-of-15 serving with two aces.

Richardson liked what he saw in these two matches.

"We showed some marked improvement in this meet, compared to the first one in Lansing," he said.

This past weekend in Walled Lake, Clarkston competed against four teams and sported a record of 2-1-1. The Wolves split with Brighton in the opener before knocking off Wyandotte

Mt. Carmel and Walled Lake Western in straight games. They later lost to Birmingham Seaholm, 15-17, 9-15, in the finale.

For the tournament, CHS was led by Slavin with 33-of-40 attacking and 14 kills, and Carey Haven who was 28-for-34 attacking with 15 kills. Winn also chipped in with 22 assists as Goforth collected 15 digs.

Richardson said his team is getting better, but at a gradual pace.

"I see improvement every time we play," he said. "The team is starting to come together, especially our five sophomores. They've begun making some great strides."

Clarkston will host Waterford Mott in the league opener Jan. 17.

Fife wins No. 200 as hoopsters roll

Clarkston High basketball coach Dan Fife reached an impressive milestone Friday night as he won his 200th game via a 58-31 victory over Lake Orion.

"To be honest with you, I really don't keep track of wins. It's nice to win 200, but no big deal," Fife said. "It doesn't seem like I've been here long enough to get 200. But, hey, I guess it's better than 200 losses."

In honor of his accomplishment, Clarkston Athletic Director Paul Tungate presented the 12-year coach the game ball after his team's rout of the Dragons.

"That was really nice," Fife said of the post-game ceremony.

The win raised the Wolves' record to 4-2 this year and Fife's lifetime record to 200-58. According to Tungate, Fife's win total ranks No. 1 in school history among boys' basketball coaches.

Ironically, Fife's 200th victory might have been one of his easiest ever. The Wolves jumped on their hosts quickly by running up a 14-2 advantage after the first period. This steady onslaught continued into the second half as CHS proceeded to pad its 20-point cushion.

"Orion got off to a really bad start and never recovered," Fife said of the league opener. "I credit our defense for forcing turnovers that lead to a lot of fast-break baskets. It was just an excellent effort on our players' parts."

Offensively, the Wolves were paced by Brad Agar and Jeremy Fife who scored 12 points apiece. Rusty Mitcham and Rick Vollmar also chipped in with 10 points each for Clarkston.

The Wolves' next home game is Friday, Jan. 14, against Waterford Mott (3-3, 1-0 in the GOAL).

Wrestling club excels at Oxford invitational

Fifteen members of the Clarkston youth wrestling club took home medals from the Oxford Invitational Jan. 2.

This tournament was the first sanctioned Mid-Michigan Wrestling Association invitational of the season, with nearly 570 grapplers participating. Because of the number of wrestlers involved, team scores aren't kept at these tournaments.

Wrestlers earning medals for Clarkston included:

8 years and under — novice: Matt Hunter (46 pounds), third; Steve Kiester (49), third; and Eric Ogg (58), first.

9-10 year olds: Chris Webb (75), second; and Clint DeGain (80), second.

9-10 — novice: Carlos Lugo (90), third; and Ali Eghbalian (100), third.

11-12 year olds: Ryan McAleer (80), second; Pat DeGain (119), third; and Ryan Clement (light heavyweight), third.

11-12 — novice: David Geliske (95), second; and Rick Green (133), third.

13-14 year olds: A.J. Grant (80), first; Eric Losee (80), third; and Andy Auten (107), second.

Palace cites Clarkston

The Clarkston varsity and JV cheerleading squads each took home team trophies from the First Annual Palace Classic Cheerleading Championships this past weekend.

The JV Wolves took seventh place out of 24 teams at this inaugural event, while the varsity team garnered a twelfth-place finish.

Their seventh-place tournament trophy marks the fourth of the year for the junior varsity. Team members include: Jill Cascone, Melissa Tatu, Betsy Sari, Brianne Summers, Nichole Irwin, Erica Thompson, Jamie Barnett, Jennifer Crawford, Heather Locher and Kelly Kozma.

The team is coached by Deb Hool. The varsity squad picked up its first trophy of the season with their showing. Team members include: Val Johnston, Jeani McNamee, Angela Schaefer, Kristen Stanton, Jenny Wisser, Robin Currie, Jennie Nelson, Kristen Peterson, Kelly Simko, Crystal Smith, Tricia Victory and Jenny Walters.

Gymnast wins

In only his first year of competition, Jackson Shader, 7, has been coming up big for his Rochester Hills-based gymnastics squad.

The Clarkston native is a member of the Gymnastic Training Center of Rochester's Class 6 compulsory boys' team. So far, this season, the team has a record of 3-1 at invitational meets.

Shader participates in all six Olympic-style events. They include: floor exercises, the vault, rings, high beam, parallel bars and the pommel horse.

Shader has received ribbons for earning top-10 honors in several of these events. His highest finish thus far has been third place in the parallel bars at the "Big Chill Classic," held in Warren.

REAL ESTATE UPDATE

SURPRISE!!

SURPRISE! Most buyers

QUESTION: Is it true that with rising home prices, buyers are now willing to give up comforts and frills in order to get a home at a lower price?

ANSWER: You'd think so, but it isn't the case. A survey by Builders Magazine has found that today's buyers do not want to buy houses stripped of extra features, such as air conditioning, dishwashers and carpeting to keep the price down.

The low-end shoppers who you'd think should be, are just not ready to make compromise in the kind of housing they will accept. Most still want a single family house and will undergo a long commute to have it.

Retired priest wins maritime award

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE
Clarkston News Staff Writer

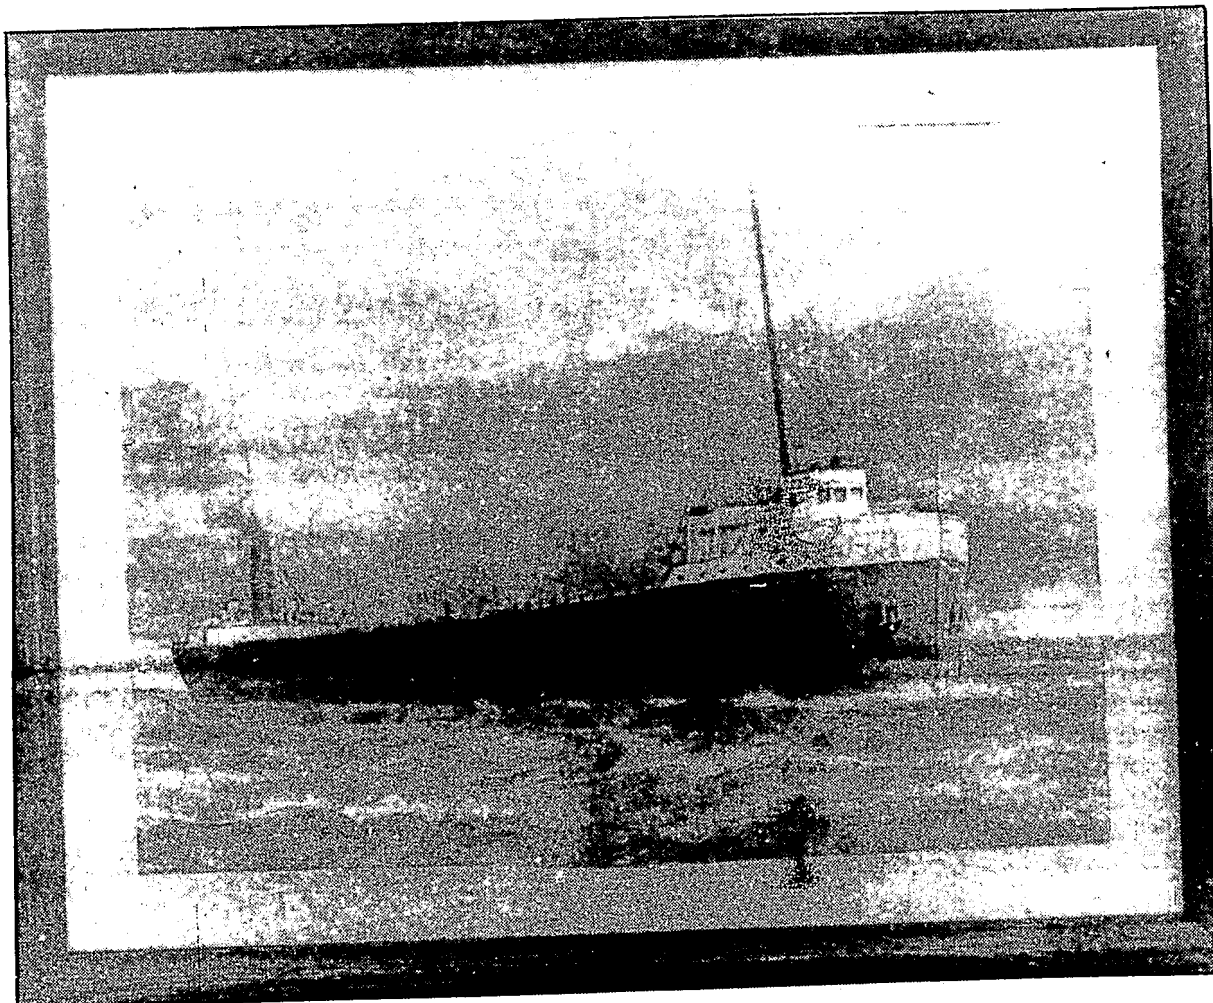

When young priests come to the Rev. Edward Dowling, S.J. for advice he tells them "Have a hobby, it will be a blessing."

Father Dowling's hobby of Great Lake shipping has spanned nearly 80 years and garnered him the American Merchant Marine Museum's 1993 Nathaniel Bowditch Maritime Scholar Award.

The Bowditch Award is given to an individual judged to have made a major contribution to the field of maritime scholarship. Father Dowling is the first scholar of the Great Lakes to receive this award.

"I knew nothing about it (the award). It was suppose to be a surprise. It is very gratifying," he said. Father Dowling, 87, began his love affair shipping when he was about seven-years-old. He said he was given a toy boat on wheels and then asked to see the big boats in Lake Michigan. He and his family lived in Chicago and his father, who also liked boats, was happy to take his son.

What's new in business

Everything you want for your truck and more

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE
Clarkston News Staff Writer

You just bought a new jeep, van or truck and need accessories. Well, you're in luck because a new business in Independence Township can help.

Truck King U.S.A. Inc., is scheduled to open Jan. 14 at 10 a.m. Township Supervisor Dale Stuart is to be on hand for the opening.

Truck King, which is located on Dixie Highway just north of White Lake Road, is the brain child of Terry Lederman of Rochester Hills and Nick Micelli of Royal Oak. The friends have been involved in the automobile business for about 30 years each.

The store boasts the biggest showroom in the Midwest for stores of this type. Lederman said the store will have anything from caps, bed liners, running boards, sun roofs and more. "If we don't have it we can get it for you," he said.

The men did their homework before opening their store. They attended shows and visited similar stores around the country to get ideas on what merchandise is available for trucks, jeeps and vans.

"This truck thing is out of control," said Micelli.

About 40 percent of the vehicles bought in the United States are trucks, and women buy one-third of those vehicles. Lederman and Micelli want their store to be accessible to all vehicle owners, and they said they are trying to focus in on the woman customer.

There is an area in the store where products can be installed, windows can be tinted and suspension can be raised or lowered. Lederman also said there will be detailed displays so customers can see what they're buying, and a VCR tape running to highlight various accessories.

The pair said they like their Independence Township location. There is a lot of traffic on Dixie Highway and they said they liked the area and people.

The pair hopes to open other Truck King stores in the future in Oakland County.

Both men say they're excited about their new venture and what they will be selling. "We're going to have quality merchandise with fair prices. Our goal will be to satisfy the customer," said Lederman.

Truck King U.S.A. will be open on weekdays from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Good news report

An appeal to the abortion-minded

The Rev.
Glen Currie

While the debate about abortion will continue for years, I would like to appeal to the abortion-minded person in this community. The debate/issue would cease if women would quit having abortions. That would shut down the abortion clinics faster than any legislative action.

What about the rights of the unborn child? We as a society have sought to protect the helpless and those who are discriminated against. Yet, the most helpless of all victims, the unborn child, are given no rights.

I've heard all the arguments about a woman's right to an abortion, none of which supersede the fact that the body placed in her womb by God is a miracle of God's creation. He/she has a separate heartbeat and separate brain-waves. The fetus is not simply a mass of tissue to discard. He/she is a human life that has the right to live.

The Bible clearly states that life begins at conception. Jeremiah 1:5, "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations." The Bible says John the Baptist "... shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb." (Luke 1:15)

The Psalmist writes a beautiful word picture of the Creator's handiwork in forming the human body in the mother's womb. "For Thou didst form my inward parts; Thou didst weave me in my mother's womb. I will give thanks to Thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Wonderful are thy works, and my soul knows it very well." (Psalm 139:13-14 NASV)

I pray and trust that instead of defending a woman's right to destroy a life, more people will recognize the sanctity of life and seek to protect the unborn child. This is not merely a social issue. It is life and death. What God has miraculously formed, we have no right to destroy.

Glen Currie is Pastor of Maranatha Baptist Church, 5790 Flemings Lk. Rd., Clarkston. His phone number is 625-2700.

Clarkston toy show

For the past several years the Clarkston Toy Show has made people smile. Remembering childhood toys, marveling at the mechanism of a mechanical toy or just plain liking the toy has been and will be first and foremost for the 40-plus dealers displaying toys for sale.

On Jan. 22, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the K of C Hall, 5660 Maybee Road will once again be the site of the show.

The 40-plus dealers will be specializing in tin, cast iron, and character toys. In addition, pull toys, candy containers, dolls, doll furniture, some early model trains, cap guns, some early GI Joe, Lehman, Schoenhut and Disney will be displayed for sale. Toys for sale will span from 1890 to 1980. Arcade and Hubley pieces will be for sale. Mickey Mouse toys will be for sale. Bing toys will be for sale. The list is endless!

Admission is $2 and children are admitted free. Breakfast and lunch will be served.

We are SIDING and GUTTER Specialists

We are not a Jack-of-all-trades. We can not guarantee you the absolute lowest price, as we will not sacrifice the quality products or workmanship that you deserve. But what we will guarantee is an honest and fair price with products and workmanship of the highest quality. We also do our own work. We don't get your job and sub-contract it out, or sell it. So if you are only looking for the cheapest way out, call someone else who claims they can beat any price. If you are looking for an honest and fair price, quality products and workmanship, dependability, and someone that will still be here after your job is completed, give us a call. Helping you make your home the one you've always dreamed of is what we do.
