Candidates file for local elections

BY ANNETTE KINGSBURY Clarkston News Editor

Democrats and Republicans alike are excited about this year's Michigan elections. Though it's not a presidential election year, both sides are touting exceptionally high interest in state and local offices.

Voters in Michigan will elect a governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general, state and U.S. Representatives and Senators and county commissioners.

The petition deadline passed last week for the August primary, and for the first time in 25 years, the Democrats are fielding a candidate in every single state House district.

"People got a taste of total Republican control for a few weeks, and it included an abuse of power which circumvented the public's right to participate in the legislative process," said House Speaker Curtis Hertel. "House Democrats intend to resume their control after the November election."

Meanwhile, Republicans point to activity at the precinct delegate level as a sign their party is taking nothing for granted.

"Normally precinct delegate filings are down in off-election years," said Jim Alexander, Chairman of the Oakland County Republican Party. "This can only bode well for our candidates as we move into the November election." Locally, Independence residents will elect a state senator from the newly configured 16th district, as well as county commissioners in three districts encompassing parts of the township. Below is a profile of who is running. State House from Ortonville, in the November election.

> With only one Democrat and one Republican running, there will be no primary race for senator. In November incumbent Mat Dunaskiss (R., Lake Orion) will run for his second term against Democrat Kevin Kelly, also of Lake Orion. Kelly has worked for 22 years in the transportation industry, currently as a marketing consultant.

County Commission

Independence Township is represented by three different county commissioners. Most of the township north of I-75 is in District Two, most of the township south of I-75 is in District Four. The southeast corner, adjacent to Orion Township, is in District Three.

DISTRICT TWO: Incumbent Republican Donna Huntoon, a commissioner since 1990, faces a former state senator, a deputy police chief and a lawyer in her Republican primary.

Huntoon, of White Lake, said it was a "total surprise" when former state Senator Richard Fessler, a White Lake resident, filed his petitions.

"He's very experienced at campaigning; I'm not," Huntoon said. "I'll just work hard."

Fessler had a 20-year career in politics before retiring in 1990. He was a chief deputy treasurer of Oakland County, assistant prosecuting attorney and Waterford Township attorney before being elected to the state House in 1974. After three terms in the House he was elected Senator in 1982, then reelected in 1986. As to why he's returning to politics, he said, "I missed it. I enjoy working with people in that type of role. I'm not running against anybody ... I think I can do a very good job." Also running in the Republican primary is Mirl Spencer, deputy police chief of Farmington Hills and a White Lake resident.

Close shave

You had to feel sorry for the sheep.

There he was, surrounded by gawkers, dumped unceremoniously on his rump, legs akimbo, being stripped naked with an electric shaver.

That was the scene Saturday at Bellairs Hillside Farms, where sheep shearer Doug Hoolsen was brought in from Melvin, Mich. to provide the service to owners of pet sheep and goats in the area. The event was cosponsored by Oakland County Farm Bureau and the 4-H Livestock Club.

It only took Hoolsen, who's been perfecting the craft since he was 14, about five minutes to shear one large sheep. Afterwards he let visitors touch the sheep's soft skin. Lanolin gives it a slightly oily feel and makes the wool soft.

Though it didn't look like fun for the animal (who left a little pile behind, perhaps expressing his feelings on the whole thing), the annual process of removing wool doesn't hurt the sheep.

The news in brief

Kaars gets new job

Sherry Kaars has left the Lighthouse Organization to help senior citizens.

Kaars was the director of Lighthouse North in Independence Township for five years. She took a position with the Adult Retirement Education Association in Macomb County earlier this month.

"This is kind of back to her roots. This is a real positive thing for her," said Noreen Keating of Lighthouse who noted Karrs worked with seniors before joining the staff at Lighthouse.

AREA is a senior citizen empowerment organization that is expanding into Oakland and Wayne counties.

Plant exchange

The annual plant exchange sponsored by the Clarkston Farm and Garden Club will be held Saturday, May 28, 10 a.m.-noon in the village parking lot at Washington and Main. If you have plants to share bring them, but all plants are free whether you bring any or not. For more information call Gini Schultz at 625-3122.

Absentee ballots available

Voters registered in the Clarkston school district may request absentee ballots for the June 13 election if they are unable to appear at the polls on voting day. The deadline for applications is Saturday, June 11 but you may vote in person on Monday, June 12. Applications are available from the Independence Township Clerk's office.

Hummel named to township post

Lt. Doug Hummel is the new commander of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department's Independence Township substation.

Hummel, an Independence Township resident since 1973, began his new assignment on May 16 after Lt. John Taylor retired.

Hummel is a 25-year veteran of the OCSD who most recently was in charge of the detective bureau in Rochester. He was the commander at the Springfield Township substation from 1991 until January 1994.

Landfill bill progresses

A bill that would decrease the amount of landfill space counties are required to have has cleared the Michigan Senate and moved on to the House.

State Rep. Tom Middleton (R., Ortonville) said Friday he expects smooth sailing through the House for the bill, which drops the 20-year landfill requirement to 10, with only five years of space required at any given time.

Middleton said the bill could be on Governor John Engler's desk to sign by Thursday.

Debate scheduled

The North Area Citizens Conference has scheduled a debate between the two Republ.ican candidates for the 9th Congressional District. Kerry Kammer and Megan O'Neill, both of Independence Twp., will appear at the Orion Township Library at 7 p.m. on Monday, May 23. The public is invited to attend.

Pine Knob wants to be a good neighbor

New management has made an impression

BY ANNETTE KINGSBURY Clarkston News Editor

Relations between Pine Knob and its neighbors in Independence Township have improved since The Palace took over the outdoor concert arena. Just how much they've improved however, seems to depend on where you live.

Some neighbors said Arena Associates, operators of Pine Knob and the Palace, are working well with neighbors. Others say they don't even know who to call when problems arise.

Arena Associates has a contract with the Oakland County Sheriff's Department to provide police protection for all concerts, both on and around the grounds, with Pine Knob paying the bill. Lt. Joe Quisenberry is in charge.

"There is no cost to the residents of the township," Quisenberry said. He said the main problems are noise, traffic and the curfew.

Independence Township enacted a curfew ordinance which mandates that concerts end by 11 p.m. The ordinance has helped, Quisenberry said.

But, "There is no law or ordinance that dictates the level of sound emanating across the grounds," he said. "Noise is a problem and it has gone on since Pine Knob opened."

Quisenberry said the noise depends on weather conditions as well as the type of act performing on a given night.

Traffic is confined to the perimeter of the Pine Knob facility, which has three entrances, one on Sashabaw and two on Pine Knob Rd. "We do not flood the township," Quisenberry said.

Residents say traffic hasn't been too bad of a problem in the last couple of years, even though Pine Knob led the nation in both number of shows and total attendance the last two summers. Attendance in 1993 was over 700,000, the largest for any outdoor amphitheater.

Arena Associates, the owner of the Palace, has operated Pine Knob for the last three years, and this year adds Meadow Brook Music Festival to its lineup. This summer, Pine Knob will offer one of the largest schedules in the country.

Inman said she's tried to call Pine Knob management many times, but it hasn't been easy.

"They have improved somewhat. The first year they were so arrogant. They changed the phone number; we couldn't get ahold of anyone over there."

However for some residents who banded together and asked for a meeting, Pine Knob has been they were very open. They kept saying, 'We want to be good neighbors.'"

And, according to Fortinberry, they have been. Concert traffic is now limited to one lane on Pine Knob Rd. A police car is stationed at the entrance to the subdivision to prevent traffic from cutting through. "Before they took over we had drag racing," Fortinberry said.

Widening of Sashabaw over I-75 also has helped traffic clear out much faster, she added. "You don't have kids getting out to go to the bathroom because traffic is stopped," she said. "We're really pleased."

Hugh Lombardi, director of facilities for Pine Knob, said complaints are way down but he wants to speak to neighbors who have concerns.

"We were committed at the outset to clean up roads after each concert," he said. "We put in a new sound system when we took over. We've been tweaking it as we go and we monitor it every night. We made an agreement with the township to keep it low."

Lombardi said as to the curfew, a sign is posted backstage so performers know about it. Every minute they are late it costs them $1,000. "We have not had one problem," he said.

Lt. Quisenberry said there are still occasional problems brought about by concertgoers. He mentioned last year's Grateful Dead concert. "They flooded the community," he said.

However he credits management with making a significant difference.

"I'm real familiar with the days when Pine Knob didn't care what effect it had on its surroundings," he said. "In the last couple of years they've been good to work with."

"I think the success they've had is they've let Joe Quisenberry say, 'This is what I need; this is how many cops you're going to pay for," Fortinberry said. "If they back off that, if they say, 'We're only going to pay for seven and you want nine,' that extra officer makes a difference to this neighborhood."

A letter in last week's paper saying Clarkston teachers averaged 7.5 percent compensation increases in the last three years is incorrect.

According to Duane Lewis, Clarkston's assistant superintendent for personnel, teachers received 6.24 percent in 90-91, 6.5 percent in 91-92, 5.5 percent in 92-93, and 5.5 percent in 93-94. However, he said increases in health-insurance premiums are not included in those figures. The letter also said trustee Sheila Hughes "provided" those increases. In fact, she began her term on the board in July, 1990, after the two-year contract for 90-92 had been settled.

"We look forward to an exciting summer," said Jim McCue, director of events. "It seems to be the trend now for acts to tour in the summer. That trend should benefit our patrons at Pine Knob."

The schedule of acts should draw a real mixture of people. Everything from oldies to alternative rock, country and heavy metal is scheduled. It all kicks off Friday, May 27 with rocker Eddie Money at 7:30 p.m. Dee Inman, who has lived on Sashabaw Rd. near the Pine Knob entrance for five years, said the traffic doesn't bother her as much as the noise.

"They don't realize though the music stops at 11, the noise doesn't stop," she said. "I think they could visit us. Not when it's a mild concert. We can close our doors and we still hear the music. It vibrates our house ... You can hear the raw language."

good to work with.

Dana Fortinberry, who lives in the Pine Knob Village subdivision, moved here in 1990.

"At that time the concerts were getting out after midnight. There was a lot of noise and the egress was uncontrolled," she said.

Fortinberry said that summer a resident went into labor and her husband couldn't get to her because all lanes of Pine Knob Rd. were being used for concert traffic. "It was a big mess," Fortinberry said.

"People were loud and obnoxious, they relieved themselves on the road, there were tons of beer cans," she said.

Then the homeowners association decided to get involved. Beginning in 1991 they held yearly meetings with Arena Associates.

"They took a lot of griping; they had just taken over the situation," Fortinberry said. "He answered all our concerns. Between him and Lt. Quisenberry Do you have a story idea? Give us a call at The Clarkston News. 625-3370

City, township agree on service contracts

BY DEBORAH DZIEWIT Clarkston News Staff Writer

It took months to set up a meeting, but less than two hours to hammer out what appears are final contractual agreements between Clarkston and Independence Township.

Officials from both sides met in a joint meeting May 10 to work out the details of an intergovernmental contract regarding services and division of assets.

Both sides agreed that the city will pay in the 1994-95 fiscal year approximately $92,000 for fire protection and $23,000 for library services. The money will come from the 12.3 mills residents pay into the city's general fund budget, according to Councilman William Basinger.

One mill is $1 for ever $1,000 in assessed property value. In Michigan, property is assessed at half of its market value.

After Clarkston became a city almost two years ago, the township agreed to provide and has provided the services to city residents. While dollar amounts were verbally agreed upon earlier, a written contract was never made nor signed nor did any money exchange hands.

Attorneys and accountants were to work out the details and present each side with contracts. but that never happened.

In the interim, disagreements arose over the dollar amounts, length of payments and interest charged.

That all ended Tuesday after both sides pulled up their chairs, rolled up their sleeves and agreed without much argument that Clarkston will pay the township an equivalent of 3 mills for fire protection plus a 10 percent administrative fee.

Agreement came only after some argument between city and township officials.

"Should we pay above what township residents pay plus 10 percent administrative fee?" Basinger asked.

Township residents currently pay 2.7 mills for fire protection. Mayor Sharron Catallo and Councilman Doug Roeser questioned paying the higher amount, but all city council present agreed when the proposal was put to a vote.

For library services, a .75 millage and the additional 10 percent administrative fee will be paid by the city.

Basinger added that a 90-day cancellation clause be included on the library proposal if there is a change is the structure of the library financing.

Each service contract will run concurrently with the length of the township millag. When the millage expires, the contract will be reviewed if either party desires a change.

Serious negotiations began again between the two governmental units last fall to finalize the figures and close the books for the 1992 and 1993 fiscal years of the city.

"Our accountant was screaming to have our books closed," City Manager Art Pappas said.

But the road to agreement on the proposals didn't come easy. Snags arose when council and board members disagreed over the dollar amounts and interest charges each side believed was reached at a Nov. 11, 1992 meeting.

While there were points of disagreement at the Tuesday meeting, they were quickly snuffed out.

"I'm glad that we got it settled and out of the way," Catallo said. "I feel we're using the people's money wisely and that I have no complaints over the deals we made."

The township agreed to lease Deer Lake Beach from the city for one more year. The $1 lease agreement allows city residents to use the beach at the same rate as township residents. The township runs it under its Park and Recreation Department.

Asset division between the two, while in agreement with the amount --- $270,000 --- still remains in the township's court as to whether Basinger's suggestion to make it "a wash" will come to be.

With what the city owes the township in services rendered and what the township owes the city in assets, the dollar amount is close.

"We proposed that we owe the township for the two and half years is close to the $270,000 the township owes us. We would wash it out.

Forget the interest and not have them pay us over four to six years," Basinger said.

Township supervisor Dale Stuart said the township accountants are now reviewing the possible effects the proposal would have on its different funds and departments and expects an answer within the week.

"I'm sure we can work it out," Stuart said. "I think we all got a fair deal."

The revolution will not be televised, Gil Scott Heron warned us long ago.

However, it appears the execution will indeed be televised, if Phil Donahue gets his way.

Donahue, the silver-haired talk-show host, appears to be poised to fight for his right to televise the execution of a condemned man, with the man's blessing. So far, authorities are saying no. But it looks like Donahue is planning to take his fight to the courts, claiming the ban violates his first-amendment rights.

Well!

Where exactly does it say in the Bill of Rights that Americans have a right to view an execution? This is akin to the NRA saying we have the right to buy assault weapons and armor-piercing bullets, because the Bill of Rights protects the right to bear arms.

Even Geraldo Rivera has expressed some concerns. He says the execution should only be shown on public TV, so they don't show it and immediately cut out for a word from your local sponsor.

Personally, I'm not in favor of the death penalty. But I know many people are, seeing it as a deterrent to crime. They reason that if potential criminals can witness just what happens if you're caught, it might just turn them away from a life of crime.

Apparently the man to be executed buys that argument. I saw him on television saying something like, "If it helps just one person . . ."

Helps? I think the public spectacle of someone's death is dehumanizing to us all. And I'm truly afraid that if this awful event is televised, it will be inescapable.

Usually I buy the argument that if something offends you on TV, you just change the channel. But if Donahue gets to broadcast this execution, you can bet your bottom dollar that it will show up in the next morning's newspaper and on every newscast for the next 24 hours. After that, we'll be subject to repeat performances, even commercial breaks that use the clips.

_etters to the editor

A traitor amongst us

For those of you who don't know what happened last Thursday, I would like to inform you that you have just lost another freedom. The Congress voted to ban 19 so-called assault rifles and (this is an important part) any other gun that meets two of approximately 10-15 other aspects of gun nomenclature.

I have lobbied as heavily as I know how to stop this madness. I spent approximately an hour with my congressman talking about the proposed ban. I called his office many times. The last time I talked to him was the Tuesday before the vote. He told me that he would not vote for anything that would limit our second-amendment rights.

He voted for the ban. I watched as much of the debate as I could and was totally frustrated with all the inaccuracies that were brought before the Congress by the very people that are suposed to be the epitome of truth. At first I thought that these people were extremely ignorant, but as I listened more I see that they are not ignorant but they know exactly what they are saying.

They showed automatic weapons and talked about automatic weapons, although we banned nc automatic weapons. They talked about the so-callec assault weapons that have "no sporting purpose whatsoever" but there is a government program that sells us these weapons, ammunition, and sponsors annual national events on government ranges. There is a program mandated by the government that teaches us to shoot so-called assault weapons. I could go on and on but the most important part of this debate is usually missed. The right to keep and bear arms is a birthright given to us by the Constitution of the United States. Some argue that it is intended for the militia. I have read many quotes that were made by our forefathers and I have read the Second Amendment. Between this, my U.S. history classes, and some common sense, it is very evident that we as citizens have the right to keep and bear arms (guns common of the times), which has been infringed upon in many ways.

If you are anti-gun or a person who just doesn't care because it will not affect you, think again. It already has, you just don't know it yet. Educate yourself on what your government is doing to you before it is too late and rid us of these opportunists before you lose a freedom that you cherish.

We who attended the 1994 Kentucky Derby will probably remember it better than visitors of previous years.

We tend to remember the 'good times' more. Seven hours of rain at a horse race is a good time, isn't it? Walking through mud and flooded tunnels is fun, isn't it? Whether any crimes will be avoided as a result is something no one can predict. I'm no psychiatrist, but I think people who commit crimes subject to capital punishment will be titillated, not frightened, by the spectacle.

I wonder----did anyone tried to buy TV rights to the caning of the American teenager in Singapore?

We looked at the opportunity to go to the Derby with several friends on a tour bus as a three-day party.

We were right about that. The bus rides were one laugh after another. The coordinator, Mary Jean Hanson, was well organized. The 39 people were compatible, prompt and friendly. The hotel accomodations (Quality Inn in Covington) were great.

The down part was the darn rain.

We didn't mind too much the long wait between races (45 minutes). We didn't mind too much the greedy people who claimed the few seats that were unoccupied.

But we sure did mind the weather.

We didn't mind a 5:15 wake-up call for a 7:15 departure for a two-hour bus ride to the first race that wasn't going to begin for two more hours. The Derby is the eighth race, eight hours later.

We didn't mind that we weren't able to see any of a horse race in person . . . though we heard them thunder past one time . . . at the most famous horse race track in the world.

And we sure didn't mind the fellowship, the hours of laughter, dinner with friends at the revolving restaurant atop our hotel and, now that it's behind us, the experience.

But, at the time, we sure did mind the weather.

Abraham's the one

Dear Editor.

Fortunately, it takes more than a familiar name and good one-liners to represent Michigan and the United States. Fortunately for the state of Michigan, Spence Abraham has once again shown his leadership by stepping forward to be our next United States Senator.

Spence Abraham gives us the extraordinary opportunity this year to elect a person with the unique combination of convictions, intelligence and courage. Spence Abraham can go to Washington and actually have an effect on bloated government spending and out-of-control bureaucrats.

You will also be impressed with Spence Abraham's experience in listening to people and solving

I think it's a gender thing, but when it comes to the lawn -- or anything to do with owning/repairing/maintaining a home -- I get my self psyched up for it.

It's a classic plot in fiction: Man versus Nature. Me versus it, the lawn.

Of course it never starts this way. It starts out when the lawn begins to resemble a Brazilian Rain Forest. That's the time when turkey buzzard sized mosquitoes prowl the sky looking for blood.

Small critters have been known to wander into the yard during these times, never to be seen

As chairman of the Ninth Congressional District Republicans, I am proud that our grassroots committee of people from Flint to Lapeer to Pontiac examined all the candidates and decided to endorse Spence Abraham.

If somehow you have not yet heard of Spence Abraham, you will, and you will be proud you helped Spence Abraham to Washington to represent us in the U.S. Senate.

This August I urge you to vote for Spence Abraham to be our next United States Senator.

Kerrigan had it right about Mickey's world

The unbelievably dreadful TV movie about skaters Tonya Harding and Nancy Kerrigan, which I watched sporadically and incredulously over the top of my newspaper, reminded me of something I did while vacationing in Florida in March.

I read (and clipped) a Miami Herald column by Carl Hiaasen, a fine journalist and novelist. And I felt way ahead of my time, which is to say smug.

"God bless Nancy Kerrigan," Hiaasen wrote. "She looked Mickey Mouse square in his polymer eyeballs and muttered: 'This is so corny. This is so dumb. I hate it.' "Finally, somebody got the nerve to say so," Hiaasen declared. He declared wrong. I said so 19 years ago.

Hiaasen put it like this: "Mickey Mouse has no shame. Once upon a time, he was a harmless cartoon critter. Today he's an insufferable corporate logo, a hyperthyroid rat with a mission. He has forsaken Willie's steamboat for Madison Avenue."

In a 1975 column, written after a visit to Disney World, I put it something like this:

I never feel more un-American than when in the presence of Mickey Mouse. The family that reveres Walt Disney together is the family that stays together, prays together, and flees together from an R-rated world. Everyone knows that.

But I never saw a Walt Disney movie I liked. And the same goes for Disney World.

The Disney people grab you while you're still on the highway. They come on your car radio and suck you through the gate. The mammoth parking lot is divided into sections named after dwarfs, and the attendants warn you to remember the name of your section or spend the rest of your life on foot.

"We're in Dopey," my wife said.

"Certainly," I said.

After paying our life savings, we entered the world's largest combination gift shop and hot dog stand. Everywhere I looked, someone wanted to sell me something to eat or something to take home to prove to my neighbors I'd been robbed.

We'd purchased admission to eight of the "special attractions," all of which were easy to find. Because each one was at the Florida end of a line of people stretching to Utah. I wouldn't stand in a line that long if it led to Sophia Loren playing Snow White as a nymphomanic flirting with every man parked in Dopey's section.

We did sneak into the theater where life-size replicas of Cinderella, Mickey and the gang sang songs and told jokes. It's amazing how those inanimate dolls talk and move and appear just as human as the people in the audience (especially the zonked-out father with three kids who has been looking for his car for three weeks).

It must cost a million dollars to make a 6-foot doll that can tap dance and sing "Some Day My Prince Will Come." Only a jerk would point out that a real live girl would be cheaper and more entertaining.

"You're a jerk," my wife said.

I came away from magic land with tremendous again. Then it's up to me, the pale man without a tan, behind the lawn mower without any name. It's time to take care of business.

I fire that baby up, it belches out blue, gray, black smoke, screaming like a banshee, ready to venture in and cut through that rain forest. Tenderly with my left hand I back her down a little, pulling the throttle up so it revs only at about one gagillion RPM.

Then I pull the trigger with the fingers on my right hand, engaging the self propelling mechanism (when you live on a big hill and have just under an acre of lawn to mow, you arm yourself with the self-propelling lawn mowers) and go for about 40 feet. That's usually when the chain slips off the sprocket. This, of course, forces me into truly manual labor. Pushing the darned mower up and down and around that hill is not my idea of a good time.

And push and push.

When I get in this mowing frenzy I only stop to refuel the mower without any name and to dump the grass clippings. I cut the entire lawn, non'stop (except for those two exceptions) in three and a half to four hours.

After centuries of watering down the Celtic genes, I assume this is the nearest thing to a battle lust, berserker that I'll come to. No head hunting for me. "Pass the wine, waif, here comes Donal Padrig O'Rush, he who hacks down lawn." Somehow that just doesn't inspire the same romantic notions as say, with muscle and sweat broad sword and battle axe driving the Vikings out of Erin.

I suppose those warriors didn't tend flower gardens either. By the way, anybody see my pruning shears?

respect for the precision and efficiency of the Disney people. They handle gigantic crowds without wasting a movement or a minute. Endless railings keep you in line (please don't sit on the rails; they're for herding, not comfort). Recorded voices continually tell you to face right, turn right, and leave by the exits on the right. I wouldn't dare turn left for fear a giant neon sign would flash "TILT" and I would be banished from the kingdom forever for clotting Mickey Mouse's digestive tract.

As we drove out of Dopey's section, the same sonorous voice was on the radio, still urging us to come to Disney World and telling us how to park.

Disney won't be programmed to say good-bye until Mickey Mouse figures a way to freeze farewells on a stick and sell them for $5 a lick.

Clarkston school superintendent Gary Haner

On June 13 Clarkston Schools will be asking voters to approve an 18-mill tax on non-homestead property. Homeowners should understand that a 'yes" vote on the June 13 ballot question will not increase their property taxes. The request only affects non-homestead property such as second homes, rental property and businesses.

Q. Why do we need a millage vote?

A. When lawmakers drafted Proposal A, they fixed property tax rates on homesteads (primary residences) at six mills. This reduced our homestead millage rate from 38.83 mills to 6 mills, a reduction of 32.83 mills!

However, Proposal A did not automatically set 24 mills on commercial property because of Headlee Amendment limits. Instead, Proposal A requires that -- in order to levy 18 local mills on commercial property -- district voters must give approval.

Q. Will this ballot issue change the 6-mill rate on homes?

A. No. The primary residence tax will remain at 6 mills.

Q. Is this a tax increase for commercial property owners?

A. No! Owners of commercial property and second homes were paying a school operating rate of 38.83 mills prior to Proposal A. If approved, this ballot question will lower that rate to 24 mills for two years, a reduction of 14.83 mills.

Q. Are other school districts holding these elections?

A. Some districts are. Districts whose millage rates have not expired will continue to levy 24 mills on non-homestead property until those mills expire. But sooner or later every Michigan district will be required to get voter approval on non-homestead

A. "This millage will allow the school district to levy not more than the statutory rate of 18 mills against non-homestead property required for the school district to receive its revenue per pupil foundation guarantee.

Shall the limitation on the amount of taxes which may be assessed against all property, excepting therefrom homestead property as defined by law, in Clarkston Community Schools, Oakland County, Michigan, be increased by 18 mills ($18 on each $1,000) on state equalized valuation for a period of two years, 1994 and 1995, to provide funds for operating purposes; the estimate of the revenue the school district will collect if the millage is approved and levied by the school district in the 1994 calendar year is approximately $1,839,326?"

YES or NO

Q. What is a "foundation grant"?

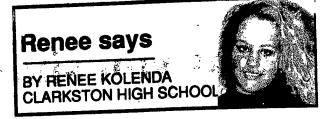

A. The amount of money per student that the state has decided to pay us to operate our schools. This amount for 1994-95 will be about $5,400 if we approve the non-homestead millage rate on June 13.

Q. What happens if voters turn down the request?

A. Our 1994-95 revenue will fall short of the state's "foundation grant" by the amount of local revenue we would have levied. The state will not make up this loss of revenue, which totals over $1.84 million.

Q. Are there are other issues on the June 13 ballot?

A. Yes. We will be electing Clarkston School Board members to two seats. One seat is a four-year term, the other is a two-year. Candidates for the fouryear term are Sheila Hughes and Lee Rogers; for the two-year, Barry Bomier. We'll also elect two OCC trustees to six-year terms.

One good class

Almost all the classes I've taken during school I felt like, "This class is so stupid. Who needs to know this stuff?" But I guess it's to help you become a wellrounded individual and have knowledge of everything. You can find out what you like and what you're good at.

I'm presently taking a class at school that is not only interesting but more than important to everybody. It's called Human Relations and is taught by Marlene Reed at CHS. The class is only offered to seniors to fulfill a social studies credit.

I feel this class should be required. It teaches you about suicide, marriage, drugs and alcohol, alcoholics, abortion, sexually transmitted diseases, rape, love, abuse and other important topics. We have guest speakers and we even have a real wedding.

Even though taking chemistry and physics is important to get you ready for the college world, I think Human Relations is important in getting you ready for the real problems in the world. Mrs. Reed will be retiring after this year.

This class isn't easy but it's so interesting. There isn't a boring day ever. So I urge parents of soon-tobe seniors to encourage their teenagers to take this class. We need to get the education we don't receive at home.

What you should know about immu

Second in a series

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE Clarkston News Staff Writer

Doctors have worked for decades to wipe out preventable childhood diseases with vaccinations, but lowered immunization rates have brought them hack.

In 1990, there were 26,527 cases of measles and 96 deaths, this from a disease public health officials had once considered virtually eradicated. From 1989 to 1992 the incidence of birth defects from rubella has increased 400 percent. Diseases like mumps, whooping cough and tuberculosis are also on the rise.

Babies are born with some immunities since they receive antibodies from their mothers. This immunity wears off within the first year and the best method of protection against disease is with vaccines.

Here are the immunizations your child will need and the diseases they help prevent:

DTP

The diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis (whooping cough) vaccine is first given at the age of two months in a series of three shots two months apart, followed by a series of boosters over the years.

Diphtheria is a disease that makes a person unable to breathe and can cause paralysis or heart failure. About one out of every 10 people who get diptheria die. Few cases of diphtheria are reported in the United States due to vaccinations.

Tetanus, sometimes called lockjaw, can occur after a cut lets the germ into the body. Tetanus makes a person unable to open his moth or swallow and can cause serious muscle spasms. Tetanus kills three out of 10 people who get it. From 1975 to 1991 only 50 serious and is easily passed from one person to another. Pertussis causes spells of coughing and choking that make it heard to eat, drink or breathe.

As many as 4,200 cases of pertussis have been reported yearly in the U.S. It is most dangerous to children less than one year old. Half of the babies get so sick they have to go to the hospital. As many as 16 out of 100 get pneumonia, two out of 100 may have convulsions and one out of 200 suffers brain damage. About one out of every 200 babies with pertussis dies. MMR

A measles, mumps and rubella shot is fist given at 15 months and is followed by a booster at age 10 to 12.

Measles is easily passed from one person to another. It causes a high fever, cough and rash that lasts for one to two weeks. Between 3,000 and 28,000 cases are reported each year in the United States.

One out of 1,000 children who get the disease suffers an infection of the brain that could lead to convulsions. One out of every 500 to 10,000 children who gets measles dise from it.

Mumps causes fever, headache and swollen, painful glands under the jaw. It used to be the leading cause of deafness in one ear. In recent years, 4,500 to 13,000 cases of mumps have been reported each year.

Mumps can cause meningitis in about one in every 10 people who gets it. Swelling of the brain is reported in about one case out of 200.

Rubella is also called German measles. It is usually a mild disease that lasts a short time. People who catch rubella usually have a mild fever, swollen glands in the neck, swollen joints and rash that lasts three days.

The Clarkston (MI) News Wed., May 18, 1994 9 A

But if a pregnant woman catches the disease she can loose the baby or the baby may be born with heart disease, blind, deaf or with learning problems.

Polio

This vaccine, which protects against three types of viruses that cause polio, is given in a series of four shots.

The OPV, a live oral polio vaccine is given in drops in the mouth. "Live" means that the polio virus used in the vaccine is alive but has been made very weak.

The other vaccine is called IPV (inactivated polio vaccine) and is given as a shot. "Inactivated" means the polio virus used in the vaccine has been killed.

For healthy children and teenagers up to their 18th birthday, most experts recommend OPV drops rather than the IPV shots. OPV is easier to take and is more effective.

HIb

Haemophilus influenza type-b disease vaccine protects against a bacterial disease, not the flu. Babies get the first in a series of shots at two months old and the series is followed by a booster.

This disease usually causes a mild illness similar to a cold. But in more serious cases it can take the form of meningitis, which can cause brain damage, deafness or death. It can also cause pneumonia and See SHOTS, continued on page 21A

Obrecht targeted for defeat by Patterson

BY DARREL W. COLE Lake Orion Review Staff Writer

Depending on who you listen to, he's either a troublemaker or a team player.

No matter what you believe, District 3 Oakland County Commissioner Larry Obrecht said it only means he's not afraid to speak up for the district he currently represents. It's because of his willingness to disagree that Oakland County Executive L. Brooks Patterson has publicly said Obrecht isn't a "team player" and should not be re-elected.

But County Commission Chairman Larry Crake says Obrecht is "an excellent commissioner who speaks what he feels" and should be re-elected.

Voters will get to choose what they believe Aug. 2 when Obrecht, of Orion, and Gerard Carlin, a suspended and demoted Sgt. from the Oakland County Sheriff's Department, of Oakland Township, square off in the Republican primary for the district covering Addison, Leonard, Lake Orion, Orion, Oakland Twp. and part of Independence.

Patterson and Carlin both said they have remained friends over the years but Patterson denies having asked Carlin to run against Obrecht. "I have not endorsed Gerard but I've made it clear if it was anyone I would endorse it would be him," Patterson said.

Carlin added, "It's more of a left-handed endorsement from Patterson, meaning anybody but Obrecht."

The primary winner will face Democrat Douglas Brown (not the Orion Township supervisor), also of Orion, in the Nov. 8 general election.

Patterson said there are several reasons he wants anyone but Obrecht elected to the commissioner's seat. No one else has been singled out by Patterson because he says Obrecht is the only commissioner who consistently fights his administration.

"It's more him singling out my administration," Patterson said. "Every time I present a program to the commission he opposes it."

Patterson said Obrecht has too often over-stepped his bounds and gets involved in his business. "He's only a commissioner but he's trying to be both a legislative member and an executive member. I have resented that in the past and I still resent it today."

Commission Chairman Larry Crake said it's true Obrecht is "very opinionated but he does his homework and when he speaks, he's doing what he thinks is right. We also differ on issues but that's what it's supposed to be about."

'He's just mad at me because he can't call me up and say, "Vote this way.""

Larry Obrecht County Commissioner

Crake said he supports Obrecht for re-election because he isn't afraid to speak out for his district.

"Larry is outspoken to the point that some people just don't like that, but I feel to be a strong commissioner you have to voice your opinion and then be able to put that issue aside and move on to the next issue. That's the kind of commissioner I want and Larry has always been able to do that."

Obrecht said he wasn't elected to serve Patterson or the executive's office. He said everything he has done is in the best interest of his district. "I didn't start this one and he's (Patterson) just mad at me because he can't call me up and say `vote this way."

The administration did not elect me. I was elected by the voters of district three and when it comes down to my representing my district it may not always put me on Brooks' team." Obrecht said Patterson wants him out for disagreeing with some of the cuts in the 1994 county

"I really think he's basing his opinion on the fact that I fought against the administration's recommendation that my district would see a 35 percent increase in sheriff's department costs, which would have caused us to raise as much as three extra mills in some communities," Obrecht said.

Obrecht and the commission finally won that battle and sheriff's cost increases averaged about 4 percent in each community.

CARLIN NOW BATTLES OBRECHT

Carlin awaits court dates on 33 charges, surrounding allegations he chauffered Patterson ---- while on duty --- to campaign functions in the fall of 1992 and for allegedly receiving $20,500 for anauthorized overtime while at the Rochester Hills sheriff's sub-station. He said he decided to run for Obrecht's seat because the commission has gotten too large and costs taxpayers too much

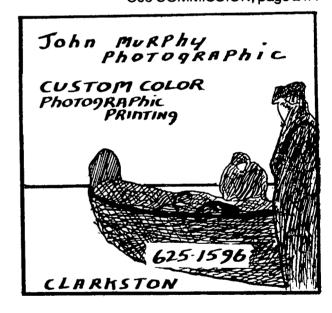

"I'll go on record today for the first time that if I get elected and if there is a legal way to do it, I will not take any money as a county commissioner," Carlin said. "My first proposal, if elected, would be to see if I could reduce the commission from 20 to nine and change the way they get paid. I would propose $50 a meeting rather than the $24,000 they now get each year."

Carlin said he's watched the commission much closer since he was suspended in October 1993.

"I've just started to pay a lot closer attention to what has happened at the county level and have not been happy," he said.

Carlin admits voters may be wary because of the pending charges against him but he says they shouldn't judge him too harshly because, "I have never waivered from the fact that at the end of all this I believe I will be found not guilty. If I am convicted of a crime then I would step down."

Carlin said a May 20 court date is set on eight of the See COMMISSION, page 21A

Graduating at or near the top of your senior class is something you never forget.

You may forget the proms, the games, the faces of your fellow classmates, but the sense of accomplishment that goes with academic achievement carries a young person far in life.

The 10 seniors in the Clarkston High School Class of 1994 presented here have reached that ultimate achievement. In a class of about 375 students, they finished at the top academically.

But that doesn't mean they spent the last four years buried in books. Each spent time engaging in extra-curricular activities and becoming an integral part of their high school and their society.

April brought DAR highlights for the Sashabaw Plains Chapter NSDAR.

Six members and two guests attended the Michigan DAR State Awards Day April 6 at the Kellog Center in East Lansing. They were Chapter officers Dorothy Lowe, Charlotte Maybee, Linda Miller, Nancy Woodruff, Francis Stewart along with Rae Anderson and guests Jo Miller and Charlene Lesley.

Attending the 103rd Continental Congress of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution April 20-23 in Washington, D.C., were Dorothy Lowe, Regent and delegate for Sashabaw Plains, and Nancy Woodruff, Chapter Treasurer and Alternate Delegate.

Among many highlights of the conference was presentation of the National DAR Good Citizen, American History Essay winners, and American History Teacher. The Postmaster of Washington, D.C., approved a special U.S. Postal Cancellation imprint honoring the 103rd Continental Congress used only during the five days of the conference.

Emphasis was placed on the restoration project beginning in June this year of the DAR's historic building, Constitution Hall, which is a registered National Historic Landmark.

Food drive a success

The Letter Carrier Food Drive on May 14 was deemed a success by those at Lighthouse North. According to Judy Chisholm, Clarkston and Waterford residents donated about 50,000 pounds of food in the second annual food drive. Chisholm said the Lighthouse volunteers, the St. Daniel Catholic Church Men's Group, G.M. Local #653 and the Waterford Kettering National Honor Society helped make the day a success. She also praised postal employees Paul Sharkey and Dave Mitch who organized the event for the area. "They've been very instrumental in getting this done," she said.

Fun Daze returns Saturday

Hit home runs, score goals or pile up servicing aces ? Call The Clarkston News at 625-3370.

Over 500 runners and walkers are expected to converge in Depot Park May 21 for the Eighth Annual Clarkston Fun Daze.

"I think it's an excellent community and family activity. That's why I got involved in it," said Marc Cooper, chairman of the event for the past four years.

Fun Daze features five- and 10-kilometer run/ walks and a one-mile fun run/ walk. Prizes are given to the first three finishers in various age groups and to the first three finishers overall.

Registration for the walks and runs begin at 8:30 a.m., but residents can pre-register at the Parks and Recreation Department before May 17. Pre-registration is $2 for the one-mile run and $10 for the longer runs. Registration on the day of the races are $4 and $15.

The fun run will begin at 9:30 a.m. and the fiveand 10-kilometer runs will start at 10 a.m.

During the runs there are many activities to entertain spectators and the Athletic Boosters will provide food and drinks.

The Rotary clowns will entertain, there will be games, a moon walk and dance and gymnastic shows.

This year the animal petting farm will be expanded. "That seemed like it was a big hit with the kids last year," said Cooper.

A Fun Daze duffel bag will be given to each registered runner the day of the race.

"We've done T-shirts for seven years and we thought the runners might appreciate something different this year," said Cooper.

Also new this year are the prizes. Winners will be given desk clocks with the Fun Daze logo instead of plaques.

The elementary school challenge is featured again this year. Whichever elementary school has the most participants in the one-mile fun run/ walk will get half of their student's registration money back.

For the second year, Lighthouse North will use Fun Daze as a fund raiser. Volunteers will sell Tshirts throughout the day and pledges can be made for the run and walk. If participants get pledges for $100 their registration fee will be returned to them.

For more information about Fun Daze call 625-8223. If you want to know more about pledging to Lighthouse North call 673-4949.

Invitationals give trackers directions

BY DEBORAH DZIEWIT Clarkston News Staff Writer

At Oxford's Invitational Track Meet May 14, the Wolves boys placed sixth out of 14 teams competing, which could give an insight into the upcoming regionals Mkay 21.

First-place honors should come to no surprise as JR Kirk continues racking up the points for the Wolves. He took first in the high jump with his 6'3" leap over the high bar. Kirk leaped 20'2 1/2" in the long jump for a first place position.

Jason Graves took a third in the 400-meter dash, Kirk a fourth in the 110 high hurdles and Graves took a sixth in the long jump.

The four-by-four relay team of Rich Bevins, Matt Wenger, Graves and Kirk ran to a third-place finish.

"We did real well . . . sixth out of 14 teams is good. The meet was much like a test and makes us zoom in what the regional meet will be like," Coach Walt Wyniemko said. "Kirk, Graves Wenger, Bevins, Zamora are having an outstanding season and we're hoping they have as good a day at the regionals coming up.

•May 10: Lake Orion Dragons breathed fire and defeated the Clarkston' boys track team 83-54.

JR Kirk kept up his winning moves as he took a first in the high jump with his 6-foot leap over the bar. Jeff Dengate took a third with his 5'2" jump. Kirk soared 20'5" for a first in long jump and Jason Graves took a second with his 19'3/4" jump.

Kirk also took a first place in the 110 high hurdles with a 15.9 second finish. Chris Evans took a third with his 17.0 finish.

Josh Preston hurled to a third-place finish in the shot put with a 38'4" throw.

In the pole vault, Mark More flew 10 feet up and over for a second.

John Zamora took a second for his 11.5 finish in the 100-meter dash. He flew to a 42.1 finish for a first in the 300-meter hurdles.

Graves placed first in the 400-meter dash with a time of 53.5. He also pushed to a first place finish in the 200-meter dash in 24.8 seconds.

Matt Wenger, one of the Wolves experienced middle distancers, recorded a 2:07.5 for a first-place finish in the 800-meter run.

high bar. She ended the day of competition with a second place finish with 5'2" final jump.

•May 10: The girls squeaked out a victory 68-60 against the Dragons. The Wolves were helped by taking 10 firsts out of 17 events.

Kammy Powell helped the team's efforts with her two first-place finishes in the shot put and discus. She hurled the shot put 30'10 1/2' and the discus 91'3''. Stephanie Bradford took second in the shotput with a 30'6'' push. Kristen Stanton placed first in the high jump with a 5-foot leap over the bar.

In the high hurdles, Nicole Bauer took second with a time of 17.47 and Derenda Howard took a third with a time of 17.55.

Angie Brown flew to a 11.97 finish in the 100meter dash and Kristen Howard, only seconds behind, took third with a 12.11 time.

Leah Scharl with her 5:41.35 time finished first in the 1600 run. Brown took first for her 1:02.95 finish in the 400 run and Nickie Winn took third with a 1:03.6 time. Brown finished first in the 200-meter dash with a 28.52 second finish and Winn 8 seconds behind took second.

Wenger took a first with a combined time of 3:43.1.

Out of 12 teams competing in Clarkston's Invitational Saturday, the Wolves girls track team came in third.

The 1600-relay team of Kristen Stanton, Derenda Howard, Nickie Winn and Angie Brown took a first with a time of 4:19.05.

Angie Brown ran to a third place finish in the 100-meter dash with a time of 12.96. Stanton, Howard, Winn and Brown placed second in the 800 relay with a time of 1:52.04. Senior Leah Scharl took a second with the 5:43.22 finish in the 1600 run. Brown placed second in the 400 dash with a time of 1:03.35. Scharl recorded a 12:34.39 time in the 3200 run for a second. Stanton spent the morning leaping over the In the 3200 run, Scharl again placed first in the long distance event.

The Wolves took second-place finishes in the 800 run and the 330 hurdles. Lisa Herron's time of 2:31.3 in the 800 was 8 seconds behind the first place Lake Orion finisher. Bauer's 50.9 second place finish in the 330 was fractions behind the opponents time.

Clarkston's 1600-relay team took a first — no time was available.

Marc Moore poles his way over the top in the Oxford Invitational. The Wolves placed sixth.

Sports in brief

JVs pounce on Kettering

The JV softball team met its nemesis but not with the usual outcome.

When the Wolves played Waterford Kettering May 12, the first game proved to be played true to form. The Wolves lost 7-4.

The Wolves clawed their way back in the second and beat the Captains 17-16 — a first in JV softball history.

"No more nemesis," Coach Karen Czarnecki said. "They said 'no, not any more," and overcame the Captains.

Overcoming a nemesis is hard and for the JV girls, the second game couldn't have been more difficult. By the end of the third inning, the Wolves were down 14-2.

The girls dug in and scored eight runs in the fourth. In the sixth, the Wolves crossed the plate five more times. But by the seventh, the Wolves were down by one run.

Megan Jones led off with a single. Beth Bills followed suit with a single. And with the third batter at home, they ran for a double steal. Jones came home after the Kettering catcher made a bad throw. The score board now flashed — tied.

With nobody out, Bills on third, Suzanne Schmidt drove a hard single to right. Bills ran home to score the game-winning run.

"Everytime before they beat us," Czarnecki said. "With this win, the kids really believe in themselves."

Aaron Przybylski was two-for-five and scored three runs. Kristin Peterson was two-for-four; Melinda Afka was three-for-five with two singles and one double. Jones was two-for-four and scored three runs and Bills was three-for-five and scored three. Peterson hit two-for-four and Mary Brewer hit twofor-three. Brewer came from short stop to pitch in relief and got the win.

In the Wolves last seven games, the only loss came from Kettering. They beat Waterford Mott 18-4; Brandon 13-3, 11-1; Pontiac Northern 26-6; Oxford 28-18. Their record spells success with a 11-4 overall and a 7-2 GOAL standing.

JV soccer team stomps Brandon

The freshman Wolves took on Waterford Mott May 12 and ended up with a fifty-fifty day.

The girls softball team won its first game 11-2. Tracy Harmon pitched and got the win. Becky Lynady was two-for-three with two singles. Heidi Bragg hit two for three with a single and a triple. Margaret Seitz hit was two-for-three and hit the game winning bunt.

The second game, the girls' attention span diminished and they lost the second 8-4, according to Coach Kim Olszak. Allison Prudhomme pitched and Lynady hit a triple.

Against Lake Orion May 10, the girls won 8-7. Prudhomme got the win. Seitz hit a double and single.

Freshman girls take 2 of 3

In the Wolves game against the Blackhawks May 16, the girls allowed no mercy and soundly thumped Brandon 5-0.

Kelli Simko lead the scoring attack with 2 goals. Emily Kortge kicked one in, Colleen Stumpf made one and Heather Loficki scored one. The Clarkston (MI) News Wed., May 18, 1994 17 A

Kickers cave in after shutout

BY DEBORAH DZIEWIT Clarkston News Staff Writer

Posting a big victory over Waterford Mott, the Clarkston girls soccer team had hoped to continue the winning motions.

Yet in the May 16 match against Brandon, missing two key players, the Wolves came up empty and lost 4-0.

"They dominated us. We lost to them in the beginning of the season 2-1. And they have certainly improved from then," Coach Dan Fitzgerald said of the Blackhawks.

In the game on May 11 against Mott, the Wolves fared much better.

They dished out their own shut-out against the Cosairs, winning 3-0.

Mary Forbes scored the first goal with five minutes left in the first half. She was assisted by Gabrielle Bielak in the breakaway.

With 10 minutes into the second half, Brynn Allen kicked one in, making the score 2-0.

Carrie Millen capped the victory 10 minutes later, breaking her scoring dry spell.

"They played well and once they scored they gained in confidence," Fitzgerald said.

The girls play Lapeer West tonight at 7 p.m. at home. On May 23, they start district play against Lapeer West on the Wolves' home field.

Key defense plays for victories

BY DEBORAH DZIEWIT Clarkston News Staff Writer

The Wolves varsity softball team just plain never got into any trouble in their win against Lake Orion May 16 as their bats sizzled.

Playing what Coach Al Land called, "excellent defense," the girls beat the Dragons 10-0.

"It's not that they didn't put the ball into play; they did," he said. "But we played good defense." Erin Patterson pitched a two-hitter with two strikeouts.

Crystal Lemke had an excellent day at the plate, perfectly going four-for-four at bat and driving in four of the Wolves' runs. Stephanie Giroux hit two-forfour.

The win caps a nearly perfect week for the lady Wolves. In Thursday's double header against Waterford Kettering, they split, winning the first 9-1, losing the second 5-0. The games were much like Land had hoped the team would do against the highly ranked team in the league. In the night cap, Kettering won 5-0. But the score does not reflect the true nature of the game.

"We got eight hits, but we could not get the runs across the bag," Land said. "We made mental mistakes . . . hits, walks, a bad throw."

• May 10: The Wolves landed another shutout against Mott. They beat the Wildcats 10-0.

Wolves earn win over Lake Orion

It took six unearned runs, but that was enough to for the varsity boys baseball team to claim a victory over Lake Orion May 16.

"We hit the ball and we came out of our little batting slump," he said.

Part of their sucess may be attributable to an intensive batting practice Land held the day before the Kettering game.

"We called the girls in groups of five," he said. "We hit off tees, off the machines and we did the soft toss. It seemed to pay off."

One batter who seemed to respond was Shawna Greene. She hit a home run and had three hits against Kettering.

"We worked on changing her batting style and she responded," Land said.

In the opener, the Wolves walked away with a big 9-1 victory. Amanda Jenkins, Laura Seitz, Stephanie Giroux and Amanda VanKlaveren each had two hits. Jenkins smacked one over the left fielder's head for a homer.

eted all but one of Brandon's players on May 16.

Mike Aulgur, the tennis team's number one singles player, lost to Todd Tryska 6-4, 7-6.

"He needs to focus on those one or two points in order to win," said Coach Dick Swartout.

Pat Wall hung on to beat Matt Avery 7-6, (7-2), 6-1. Mike Kopec staged a comeback and won 3-6, 6-3, 6-0. Paul Wolven played Mike Schmaltz and won 6-4, 6-3.

Doubles partners continue to work well together and win. Kevin Kopec and Kyle Stout racked up another win and beat Ryan McDowell and Matt Catinella 7-5, 6-1. Zac Sanger and Rob Goeckkel played tough and came back after losing the first set 4-6. The won the next two 6-4, 6-4. Dan Brazier and Chris Fizyta defeated Steve Schmaltz and John Wilk 6-1, 6-4.

The Wolves' record now stands at 7-3, and 3-2 in GOAL.

CHS junior grappler goes world

BY DEBORAH DZIEWIT Clarkston News Staff Writer

How many times do we hear, "That boy is a chip off the old block." If that is true, then it should be no surprise that Joe DeGain wrestles.

After all, his father Mike DeGain wrestled in high school and college. He now coaches Clarkston's high-school wrestlers.

Joe began his wrestling career long before he started kindergarten and he has not stopped. Even with the wrestling season done for the year, the 182pound sophomore continues to compete and win.

He attended the Cadet World Team Trials in Ohio tlast month and made the USA Cadet Wrestling Team by winning all four matches in his weight division.

It took him a mere 45 seconds to put down his first opponent, taking the match 12-2. In his second opponent, Joe met a wrestler from Ohio on the mat and beat him 11-4.

In the semifinal matchup, he met tough competition. Down by two points with 45 seconds left on the clock, he came back and scored 13 points to win the match.

In the final draw, Joe again had to hang tough. The match went into overtime before he defeated his opponent from Ohio, 14-11.

The 15-year-old will spend a week, beginning June 20, at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs.

But Joe is not new to the training or the world-class competition. Last year he also made the USA team and went to Germany for the world championships.

However, two days into the practice, he ripped muscles in his shoulder. But the injury did not keep him from competing.

"That didn't stop Joe from trying to wrestle," Donna DeGain said of her son's desire to wrestle, no matter what. "He was all bandaged up, but his shoulder kept popping out. He'd wrestle, it would pop out. He would pop it back in and wrestle."

Before he takes off for practice in Colorado Springs, Joe works out at a local gym and continues to practice here at home.

"I work out at Power House every morning before school. I do the Stairmaster for 25 minutes and 100 sit-ups. After school I lift weights or run," he said.

But that's not all Joe does to keep in shape. On Tuesdays and Thursdays he travels to Goodrich for wrestling practices.

"It's for those who want to still wrestle after the season ends," Joe said. "Kids from the area can go there and practice."

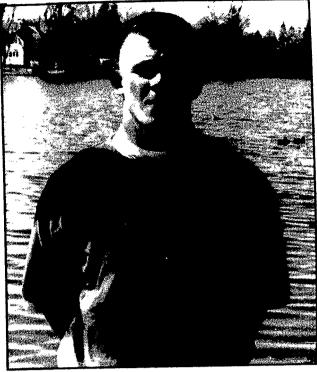

But practice is nothing new to Joe. He started wrestling when he was three.

"I'd go with my dad to his wrestling practices when he coached at R^{-1} Oak Dondero," he said.

By the time . ~ was eight, he joined a wrestling club in Utica. His younger brothers Pat and Clint have also followed in their brother's steps. Each has competed and placed in state tournaments.

Joe's record for Clarkston stands at 41 victories and 8 losses. He is fourth in the state in Class A. This year — he has high hopes that he could be world champion.

"I feel good. I've had a full year and I'm a lot better (physically) than I was last year," he said.

Joe DeGain

"We played real well. We shut them down," Land said.

He's pleased with his girls' performances to date. The team now holds 16-6, 6-4 GOAL records.

"I'm very excited about the bats coming back. Our defense is strong and I knew we had the talent in hitting -- it's coming back," he said.

And the bats and the defense have to be ready for the upcoming games against Mott on Thursday and Brandon next Monday -- the number one team in Class B and a team the Wolves have yet to beat -before the districts.

The Wolves drew Kettering in the first round of district play May 31 at home.

Wolves devoured by rival Kettering

BY LEE DRYDEN Special to the Clarkston News

When the Clarkston varsity baseball team visited GOAL rival Waterford Kettering for an important doubleheader, they ran into a combination of strong pitching and hitting.

On May 12, the Wolves dropped both games to Kettering by the scores of 7-2 and 8-6. With the losses, they fell to 11-10 for the season.

In the first game, the Wolves fell behind early with Kettering scoring two runs in the second inning and two more in the fourth.

Clarkston's only scoring came on Jeff Golec's two-run single in the fourth inning. Kettering completed the scoring with three runs in the sixth inning. In the second game, Clarkston countered two first-inning Kettering runs with a run of their own on an RBI single by Jeff Mull.

Kettering then broke the game wide open in the third inning, scoring five runs and taking a 7-1 lead.

Yet the Wolves still had life. Golic added a solo home run in the fourth. After Kettering scored their final run in the fifth, the Wolves staged their largest rally with a four-run sixth.

Brent Bundridge led off the inning with a single and stole second. After a walk to Scott Sanford, Chris Barnett and Joel Sanford had back-to-back RBI singles. Then, three consecutive walks by Kettering pitchers led to two more Clarkston runs.

But the rally wasn't enough as Kettering got out of the inning with no further damage and retired the Wolves in order in the seventh to complete the doubleheader sweep.

• In an earlier game on May 10, the Wolves chalked up an impressive home victory over Oxford by a 12-2 score.

The Wolves received a strong pitching performance from senior Kevin Covert who went five and one-third innings to receive the win with eight strikeouts. Mike Turk went the final one and two-thirds for the save.

Brent Bundridge went two for three with four RBIs and Matt Martin went one for two with three RBIs. Chris Carpenter was two for two and Jamie Churchill was two for four.

Class of 2007 gets their start

Hundreds of children and their parents participated in kindergarten orientation for Clarkston Schools during April and the beginning of May. The children who will be the first kindergarten class at Springfield Plains Elementary School got together May 4 at the Oakland Technical Center -- Northwest.

The two-hour program was conducted in two parts. The parents met with teachers and were shown available programs while the children met with teachers and attended scheduled activities.

In the children's room there were giggles and questions mingled with the occasional "Where's my mom?" They played with Play Dough, drew a picture of themselves at their school, played games and listened to stories.

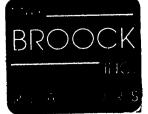

KYLA BERDEN gets some early practice at erasing a chalk board at kindergarten orientation.

The father of three who has lived in Oakland Township since 1985 says he decided to run for the commission seat only about a month ago and doesn't deny he has higher political aspirations.

"When I was still with the sheriff it was suggested I run for sheriff in the 1996 election and, honestly, I haven't ruled that out. Running for the commission seat is not something I've always dreamed about doing, but beginning at birth, became available in 1992 and is it is the right thing to do."

Carlin said his record and experience qualify him for the commissioner's seat. Besides working for the sheriff since 1977, he said he's served on Oakland Township's Planning Commission, Zoning Board of Appeals and Historical Society.

Obrecht said the problem with Carlin is that he has higher aspirations than county commissioner. "I have no hospitalized and 250 die --- usually from liver failure. aspirations for higher office because I think it is a very important job representing my district. He's already said this is only a stepping stone. I think people in this district deserve a fair shake."

As couples waited their turn to pose on the park's gazebo, everyone checked out the fashions. Dresses were either very short or very long. Colors were bright-black, red, purple. And even some guys stretched the limits imposed by tuxedos by going for a purple jacket, white lapels or a polka-dot bowtie.

SMS composer wins state PTA competition

BY CATHERINE PASSMORE Clarkston News Staff Writer

Jonathan Moniaci, 13, has been composing music since he was in fourth grade.

"I play around at the piano, maybe doing my scales and if something sounds neat I see what I can do with it," the Sashabaw Middle School seventhgrader said modestly. "If you have a song in your head, it's tough to find the notes — at least it is for me."

Moniaci recently placed third in the Michigan PTA Reflections Contest. He wrote music for two pianos and recorded it for the competition with his music teacher.

He isn't new to competing in the Reflections contest. He has submitted an original piece of work each year since fourth grade. The first year he entered he also placed third in the state competition.

"I found out about the program (in fourth grade) and I thought it would be neat to write a song," he said with a smile.

"The one I wrote this time was just a bunch of ideas I had. Some ideas I had left over from other years, and I just put them together," he said.

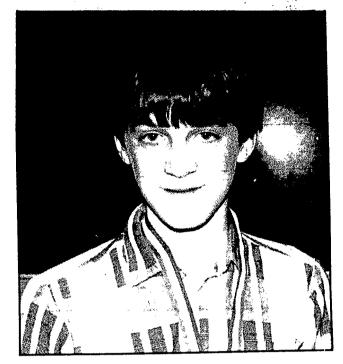

Moniaci worked on the composition entitled "The Gift of Music" a little each week beginning in June 1993.

Moniaci takes the news of his award in stride. "I was happy. I'd done it before, so it wasn't as major as the first time, but I was excited," he said.

He has noticed a change in his music writing as he fine-tunes his talent. "I think I've gotten better," he said. "I see the piece I thought was good in fifth grade and think 'How could I ever think that was good?""

The son of Doug and Lavonne Moniaci of Independence Township, Jonathan has studied piano for five years and the trombone for two years. He doesn't know what kind of career he'd like to pursue, but expects composing and performing to remain a hobby.

He doesn't have a favorite composer or style of music, although he enjoys classical music and the Beatles. The past two years he has entered poems in the Reflections contest and placed third in the school this year.

Teen has the 'right stuff' for space A 24 Wed., May 18, 1994 The Clarkston (MI) News Learning is something Josh obviously relishes.

BY ANNETTE KINGSBURY Clarkston News Editor

Though only a sophomore at Clarkston High School, Josh Holst knows he's already too tall to be an astronaut-cramped quarters, you see.

But Josh has faith that technology will have removed that barrier by the time he's old enough to fulfill his dream. Meanwhile, he's not to tall to be a fighter pilot.

Perhaps it's that optimism, that enthusiasm for flying that won Josh the Right Stuff Award at Space Camp in Alabama last month. It was his second trip to the camp for students serious about studying flight.

Students spent a week at NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center going through ground school and simulated missions and actually flying planes.

"It was unbelievable the first time I went up," Josh said. "I'll never forget that."

Josh would like to attend the Navy or Air Force academy after high school and has known since sixthgrade he wanted to fly. He met astronaut Jim Irwin in seventh grade, one of only a handful of men to walk on the moon.

JOSH HOLST in the cockpit of a mock space shuttle.

"I've probably read about every book in thelibrary" on flight, he said. "I used to get up at 3 a.m. to look at the stars ... The thing is I learned all about it and then I learned about Space Camp, so I could apply what I learned."

The award Josh received is given by the counselors to one camper per session and is based on enthusiasm and accomplishment at camp.

"My hobby is to learn," he said, and his wide eyes show he means it.

When asked what he likes best about space as a career, he said, "The technology really amazes me. What interests me is looking at it and seeing how it works and how we can make it better."

Josh raised the money to attend Space Camp ($1,300) himself. And he's looking forward to summer and a scholarship he received to attend Michigan Technological University to study physics.

"It's not that often that you get to go to college while you're attending high school," he said.

Josh is the son of Phil and Carlene Holst, who moved to Clarkston last year. Josh is involved in the CHS science club, track and cross-country teams and after-school Bible study. He also works at Gregg's Gourmet Cafe.

He said his parents are supportive of his enthusiasm for a potentially dangerous career.

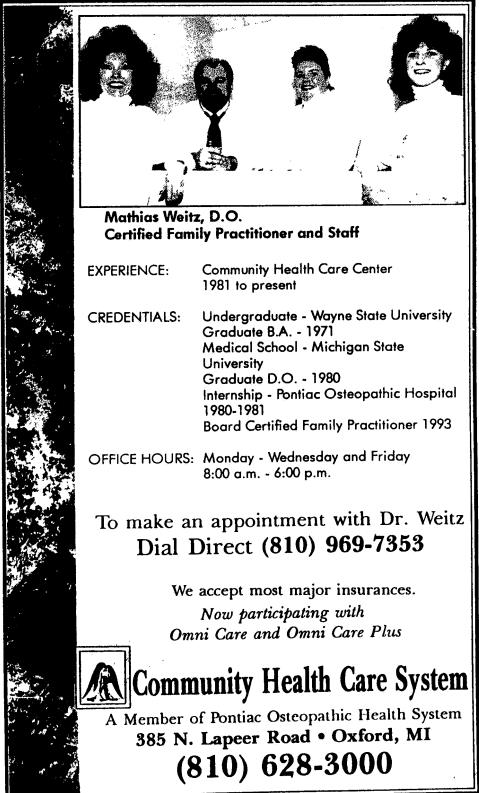

"I know my dad is really proud that I'm real focused, that I know where I want to go. They see things in my future."

Hats off!

Timeless brides

TO DE L'ARTE LE LE ANTINE STREET AND ALLE ALLE

Over 30 girls and women from Calvary Lutheran Church participated in "The Honour of Your Presence," a bridal fashion show, on May 17.

Gowns from each decade of the century were modeled during the church's mother and daughter banquet. The oldest gown was worn at the 1908 wedding of Amanda Beach Best, a teacher who is said to have ruled her class with a buggy whip. Her great niece, Marie Darrow, modeled the dress.

Music true to the period of the dresses, including "I Love You Truly" and "Longer Than," was played while the "brides" walked down the church aisle.

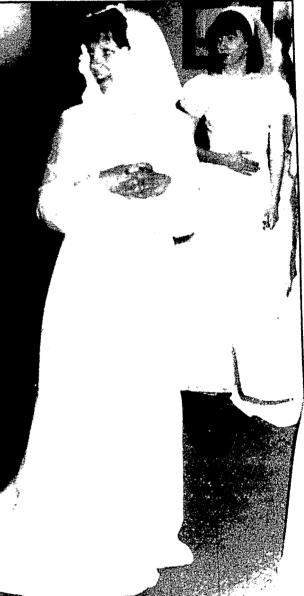

Beverly Walters, who wore her mother's 1937 wedding gown which cost $25 at the time, introduced and described each of the dresses.

Priest marks 40 years of service

Father Francis A. Weingartz, the first pastor of St. Daniel Catholic Church, will celebrate 40 years in the ministry this summer.

Weingartz was ordained June 5, 1954 by Cardinal Mooney, who was the head of the Archdiocese of Detroit. He served in parishes in Redford and Detroit before become the minister at St. Daniel's on June 25, 1969.

Prior to his coming, St. Daniel's was a mission church of Our Lady of the Lakes in Waterford. Weingartz was the pastor in Clarkston until 1977 when he was transferred back to Detroit.

Weingartz was born in 1928 and attended Catholic grade and high schools. He graduated from Sacred Heart and St. John's seminaries in Detroit. He first preached at St. Mary Catholic Church in Redford. He was chosen by the Archdiocese to study in Rome in 1981.

While here, Weingartz was active in the Clarkston Ministers' Association. He started the first outdoor masses on Saturday evenings and liked to be know as the "Singing Priest." He told people singing helped him remember names.

To celebrate Weingartz's 40 years as a priest, an Anniversary Mass Celebration will be held Sunday, June 5 at 11 a.m. at the St. Dorothy Parish in Warren.

Priest marks 40 years of service

Father Francis A. Weingartz, the first pastor of St. Daniel Catholic Church, will celebrate 40 years in the ministry this summer.

Weingartz was ordained June 5, 1954 by Cardinal Mooney, who was the head of the Archdiocese of Detroit. He served in parishes in Redford and Detroit before become the minister at St. Daniel's on June 25, 1969.

Prior to his coming, St. Daniel's was a mission church of Our Lady of the Lakes in Waterford. Weingartz was the pastor in Clarkston until 1977 when he was transferred back to Detroit.

Weingartz was born in 1928 and attended Catholic grade and high schools. He graduated from Sacred Heart and St. John's seminaries in Detroit. He first preached at St. Mary Catholic Church in Redford. He was chosen by the Archdiocese to study in Rome in 1981.

While here, Weingartz was active in the Clarkston Ministers' Association. He started the first outdoor masses on Saturday evenings and liked to be know as the "Singing Priest." He told people singing helped him remember names.

To celebrate Weingartz's 40 years as a priest, an Anniversary Mass Celebration will be held Sunday, June 5 at 11 a.m. at the St. Dorothy Parish in Warren.

Hunter education for kids

The third annual Michigan Youth Hunter Educational Challenge (MYHEC) will be held July 30-31 at the Saginaw Field and Stream Club.

"We are looking foward to a very successful 1994 event and are looking for teams from all across Michigan," said Mark Stephens, MYHEC coordinator who is a member of the Michigan United Conservation Club educational staff.

Sixty-seven youth from across the state participated in last year's event, which was sponsored by the National Rifle Association.

"For many years there has been a void between the basic hunter education course and the need to further develop the skills and knowledge of young hunters," said Stephens.

"The MYHEC is designed to bridge this gap. The activities that have been selected are aimed at simulating hunting situations and testing hunting hunting knowledge and skills of youngsters," he said.

For application forms, rules, and further information, contact Stephens at MUCC, Box 30235, Lansing, MI 48909, or call at (517) 371-1041.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Because the People Want to Know

CLARKSTON CITY OF THE VILLAGE OF CLARKSTON

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE

SPECIAL JOINT MEETING MAY 10, 1994

The meeting was called to order by Mayor Catallo at 5:55 p.m. followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. City-Roll: Present: Basinger, Catallo, Roeser, Sanderson,

Schultz Abaanti Adauriaht Soontah

Absent: Arkwright, Secatch

Township-Roll: Present: Lutz, McCrary, Stuart, Travis, Vaara, Mercado, McGee

There was a discussion between the City Council members and the Township Board about what had been previously agreed to regarding what the City would pay the Township for the provision of fire services.

The City's position was that the fee for fire services was to be calculated based on the millage levied by the Township for fire services for their residents plus a 10 percent administrative fee without any adjustment for the Headlee rollback. This amount was 2.8 mills during 1993.

The Township's recollection of the agreement was that the City's payment for fire services would be based on the voted millage, not the levied millage, plus a 10 percent administrative fee without any adjustment for the Headlee rollback.

The minutes taken by the Township from the joint meeting held on June 15, 1992, when these issues were negotiated, provided support for both interpretations.

There was general consensus that the Township would be levying the voted millage for fire services in the foreseeable tuture as they did in 1994. The only year the question of voted millage Vs levied millage would be an issue would be for 1993. This is a difference of $6,163.

The fire contract is a four year contract.

Resolved by Basinger, supported by Roeser, "That the City of the Village of Clarkston and the Charter Township of Independence split the difference between the voted millage for fire services and the levied millage for fire services during 1993. This difference is $6,163. The Village would pay an additional $3,081 over the levied millage for fire services plus a 10 percent administrative fee for 1993. The City would pay the Township 3 mills plus a 10 percent administrative fee for fire services beginning in 1994 and throughout the term of the contract." Roll: Yeas-5, Nays-0. Resolution passed.

The contract for library services was discussed by the City Council and the Township Board.

Trustee Mercado proposed that the City pay the voted millage (.7199 mills) plus a 10 percent administrative fee for library services.

Basinger indicated that theoretically all residents in the State of Michigan can check out books in any public library. He feels based on this that the City should pay the levied amount not the voted amount. He stated that fire services are a public safety issue and that the library does not fall into the same category. What's happening in your neighborhood? Let us know at The Clarkston News, 5 S. Main St., Clarkston, MI 48346. 625-3370

INDEPENDENCE TWP. CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE

PUBLIC NOTICE Registered voters may vote absentee ballot in the June 13,

1994 Clarkston Community School District General Election if they qualify in one of the following categories:

I expect to be absent from the community in which I am registered for the entire time the polls are open on election day. I am physically unable to attend the polls without the assistance of another. I cannot attend the polls because of the tenets of my religion. I have been appointed an election precinct inspector in a precinct other than the precinct where I reside.

I am 60 years of age or older.

I cannot attend the polls because I am confined to jail awaiting arraignment or trial.

Independence Township residents who qualify and wish to vote absentee ballot should call the Clerk's Office at 625-5111 or write the Clerk at 90 North Main St., P.O. Box 69, Clarkston 48347 for an application which must be signed and returned before a ballot can be issued.

The deadline for ballots to be mailed is Saturday, June 11, 1994 at 2 p.m. However, those qualified to vote absentee may vote in the Clerk's office until 2 p.m. on Saturday, June 11, 1994. Joan E. McCrary Township Clerk Moved by Travis, supported by Mercado, "That the Township accept the proposals offered by the City." Motion carried.

Supervisor Stuart indicated that the Township would like to continue to operate Deer Lake Beach but wanted to stress that this was being operated at a loss of $24,000 a year. The Township leases the beach for one dollar a year from the city and charges City residents the same price for a beach pass as it charges Township residents. Stuart believes that the City should share in the operating costs of the beach.

Basinger questioned why the issue of the beach was not raised prior to this time as the beach is scheduled to open in 3 weeks. He indicated that this is a very valuable asset the township is allowed to use. If the Township is not interested in operating the beach under the current arrangement perhaps the city should investigate having the DNR or Oakland County Parks operate the beach.

Moved by Travis, supported by Lutz, "That the Charter Township of Independence will enter into an agreement with the City of Clarkston to lease the Deer Lake Beach for one dollar from May 31, 1994 to April 30, 1995 and will offer residents of the City beach passes and related services for the same fees they are offered to Township residents." Yeas-7, Nays-0. Motion carried.

The Township indicated that 45 percent of their current general fund is budgeted for parks and recreation and senior programs, or 3.6 million dollars. Currently non-residents of the Township pay approximately 1/3 more than Township residents to participate in any Parks and Recreation programming. Residents of the City currently pay the same rates as a Township resident to participate in these programs. In the past this concession has been offered in exchange for the one dollar lease on the Deer Lake Beach.

Moved by Travis, supported by Mercado, "That residential status be offered to the City residents who wish to participate in any senior program or programs offered through the Parks and Recreation department through April 30, 1995." Roll: Yeas-Lutz, Stuart, Travis, Vaara, Mercado. Nays-McCrary, McGee. Motion carried.

Resolved by Basinger, supported by Roeser, "That the beach contract be extended to the Township for the period of May 31, 1994 to April 30, 1995 to run concurrently with the agreement to offer residential fees to City residents for the Township's Parks and Recreation programs and the senior citizen programming." Roll: Yeas-5, Nays-0. Resolution passed.

The spring clean-up program was discussed. Basinger indicated that the City had been offered participation for a fee of $1,000. He indicated that this was excessive. Records indicate that a maximum of 35 City residents participated in the program last year. He indicated that it was felt some services should be extended to each other because we are neighbors. The fact that the City provided 12 to 15 hours of DPW workers time and our equipment to assist in the grading of Clintonwood Park, because the Township does not own the equipment needed to complete this job, was cited as an example of this type of neighborty relationship. It was proposed that a fee of $250 would be more reasonable for participation in the clean-up days, for 1993 and 1994. Moved by Travis, supported by McCrary, "That the city be offered the opportunity to participate in the clean up program for a $250 fee for 1994 and an additional $250 for participating last year, 1993." Yeas-7, Nays-0. Motion passed. The Clarkston (MI) News Wed., May 18, 1994 19 B

CITY OF THE VILLAGE OF CLARKSTON CITY COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES MAY 9, 1994

The meeting was called to order at 7:35 p.m. by Mayor Catallo, followed by the Piedge of Allegiance.

Roll: Present: Arkwright, Basinger, Catallo, Roeser, Sanderson, Schultz, Secatch.

Moved by Sanderson, supported by Secatch, "That the minutes of the meeting on April 25, 1994 be approved as submitted." Motion carried.

Moved by Schultz, supported by Sanderson, "That the agenda be approved as presented with the addition of the Public Hearing for the 1994-95 budget and deleting the Manager's Concerns until another meeting." Motion carried.

until another meeting." Motion carried. Moved by Secatch, supported by Basinger, "That the bills presented for payment be approved, with the exception of the second half of the premium due the Michigan Municipal League Liability and Property Pool. The total approved is $18,534.71." Roll: Yeas-7, Nays-0. Resolution passed.

Roeser indicated that the Wet Lands Review Board will meet on May 17, 1994.

Selander Miller $g_2 \rightarrow an$ update on the Depot Park Playground project. The new play structure has been shipped, the surface is being excavated by DPW and some of the free standing equipment has been ordered. The project is ahead of schedule at this time.

A new DPW pay scale was discussed. Secatch indicated that the DPW workers have not had a pay raise in four years. The proposed payroll guidelines would set wages for present and future employees. Pappas indicated that based on the number of hours worked by DPW workers last year the new pay raises would create an overall increase of $500-$600 annually. Arkwright expressed concern that the proposed pay scale for DPW workers was higher in the third, fourth and fifth years of service than the pay for the parttime police officers with the same length of employment with the city.

Resolved by Secatch, supported by Schultz, "That the proposed pay scale for the DPW workers be accepted and placed into effect July 1, 1994."

Moved by Roeser, supported by Basinger, "That the resolution be tabled until after the budget discussion which is scheduled for the next meeting." Roll: Yeas-Arkwright, Basinger, Roeser. Sanderson, Schultz. Nays-Catallo, Secatch. Resolution tat

Resolved by Roeser, supported by Schultz, "That the cuy engineer will inspect the water drainage problem at West Washington and Holcomb and advise us how the problem should be corrected, prior to our paying the Tri-Party bill." Roll: Yeas-Roeser, Sanderson, Schultz, Basinger, Arkwright. Nays-Catallo, Secatch. Resolution passed.

Pappas indicated that the fire marshal had inspected the Clarkston Cafe for the Liquor License transfer. He indicated that he had a few minor concerns that the occupants agreed to correct immediately. He felt there was no reason to delay the transfer of the license.

Resolved by Schultz, supported by Basinger, "That the request from the Sign of the Beef Carver, Inc., to transfer ownership of the 1993 Class C licensed business, located at 14-16-18 S. Main, Clarkston, MI 48346, Oakland County, from the Clarkston Cafe, Inc., be approved." Roll: Yeas-7, Nays-0. Resolution passed.

There was discussion of developing a new wet lands ordinance. This may require a new wet lands map. The Council agreed that this should be pursued since so much of the community is surrounded by water. Roeser will look into what needs to be done. The Counci will rediscuss the City's participation in the Township's Clean-up days at a joint meeting to be held on May 10, 1994. People needing more information should contact the Township after the 10th. Pappas looked into the cost of getting curb cuts at the corner of West Washington and Holcomb. Hubbell, Roth and Clark estimated $700 for each corner. Pappas will check with Oakland County to see if they are willing to do this since Holcomb is a county road. Resolved by Basinger, supported by Roeser, "That a Public Hearing will be held on June 13, 1994 to discuss the 1994-95 budget as required by our Charter." Roll: Yeas-7, Nays-0. Resolution passed.

Charter Township of In

The Township indicated that the library millage is up for renewal in August and that they were requesting .75 mills for library services on the ballot.

Basinger indicated that difference between the voted millage and the levied millage would be an additional $800 per year for the City. He indicated that the term of the library contract should correspond to the millage and should include a 90 day cancellation clause which could be enacted prior to the end of the Township's fiscal year.

Resolved by Basinger, supported by Schultz, "That the City Council enter into a four year contract with the Charter Township of Independence for Library services. The City agrees to pay the operating millage plus a 10 percent administrative fee during the term of the contract. The contract will include a 90 day cancellation clause and the contract will be effective January 1, 1995." Roll: Yeas-5, Nays-0. Resolution passed.

Resolved by Basinger, supported by Roeser, "That the City agrees to pay the Charter Township of Independence .75 mills plus a 10 percent administrative fee for library services during the period of January 1, 1993 to December 31, 1994." Roll: Yeas:5, Nays-0. Resolution passed. Resolved by Basinger, supported by Roeser, "That the City Council agree, in lieu of receipt of the $270,000 in assets settlement from the Township to credit payments owed by the City to the Township for the fire and library contracts approved at this meeting, as well as owing the Township for the Waldon and Holcomb safety paths and the payment of $5,000 for the Township for fiscal years 1993 and 1994 on the $55,000 owed for the White Lake Safety path toward the $270,000 owed, so that when the Township debt and the City's credit payments due become equal then the Township asset debt would be satisfied and the equivalent amount of City's contract payments would be considered paid." Roll: Yeas-5, Nays-0. Resolution passed.

Moved by Travis, supported by McGee, "That if an agreement is reached by Stuart, Lutz and McCrary then the agreement proposed by the City of the Village of Clarkston would be accepted as remuneration in full." Motion carried.

Moved by Roeser, supported by Basinger, "That the meeting be adjourned."

The meeting was adjourned at 7:05 p.m.

Mr. McCarty indicated there is an erosion problem behind the City Hall. DPW will look into this.

Mr. Hudson of 62 Middle Lake Road indicated that Middle Lake Road is in bad shape and would like the Council to consider resurfacing it. Secatch indicated that the street budget had recently been reviewed and priorities were going to be set for repair soon.

Moved by Roeser, supported by Basinger, "That the meeting be adjourned." Motion carried.

Rain dulls Derby, but party's bright

'My mascara's running!' 'In what race?'

By James A. Sherman

Never have I seen so many people so anxious to throw away their money than at the Kentucky Derby.

Yes, I was one of them.

Several who weren't lined up at the betting windows were lined up at automatic banking machines.

The only thing that flows more than money at Churchill Downs is beer. I didn't count 'em but I believe the portable toilets outnumbered the betting windows.

All I know about horse racing is what I learn once a year listening to J. P. McCarthy on WJR the Friday before the first Saturday in May, then watching the race on the tube.

And it's exciting. That's one of the reasons we quickly agreed to go on the Oxford Township Parks and Recreation sponsored tour. The other reason is because it was another party time.

Thirty nine of us left about 7 a.m. Friday, May 6

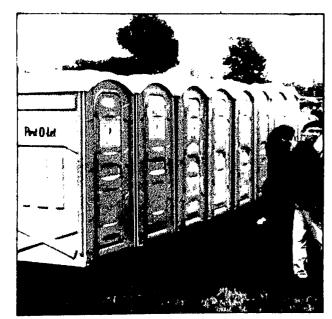

Most racing form peddlers wore jeans and t-shirts, but this guy got the most attention.

No doubt she bet on Tabasco Cat.

aboard a Shortway bus with Mary Jean Hanson, tour coordinator. A couple hours after a breakfast stop in Ohio we got rooms at the Quality Inn in Covington, KY. We stayed here two nights.

Wake up call for 'race day' in Louisville was 5:15. It was drizzling rain then, and it was still drizzling when we left at 7:15.

There's always a lot of laughter on these trips. Good-natured insults fly, jokes are told, etc. During one long seizure of laughter Chic Drumheller said, "My mascara is running." John Patrell held up a paper and asked, "In what race?" People were ready to bet on anything.

It took two hours to get to Churchill Downs. It had stopped drizzling.

We credit lack of experience for what happened next. 'Infield' tickets had been purchased at $20. If we wanted to set down, we had to bring our own chairs. Most of us did. There is only one tunnel at Churchill Downs where chairs are allowed entry.

Yes, it was at the opposite corner of this huge complex.

Portable toilets, t-shirt, hot dog, barbecued pork and souvenir stands line the route. Racing form hawkers fill other spaces.

heavy grass and 30 percent brick. The brick is in the middle. At an hour and a half before the first race (7.5 hours before the Derby) all but six feet of the screened infield closest the track was taken.

Tarps of canvas and plastic was attached to and flopped from the fence. Plastic sheets, chairs, wagons, shopping carts and people filled more of the

Lots of people dress really fine for the Derby, but you won't see them in the infield.

Hazel and I were headed for the area under the grandstands when the first heavy rains came after the 4th race. It was sardine-like. You moved only when someone ahead of you moved.

There are only two places under the stands where there are seats: the Churchill Deli and Churchill Cafe.

All seats are always taken. You get the idea people came in Easter Sunday and spread their blankets, newspapers and baskets on the seats, leaving one person to snarl, "THOSE SEATS ARE TAKEN."

There are lots of tv screens and a race every 45 minutes to fill your time. But mostly there are people to watch.

The Derby is 'hat competition' day. I still don't know why one lady had a hat with a fish on it and another a duck, though both fitted the weather.

Rose trimming was most popular for this 'Run for the Roses,' but derbies were popular, too.

The drink of the Derby is the mint julip. They are peddled like hot dogs at the ball game, $5.25 and keep the glass.

Beer is $3.75 and soft ice cream cone $1.50. There were 130,594 people at the Derby. $15.9 million was bet at Churchill Downs on the 10 races, $35 million including off-track betting.

Many of us who asked directions were flabberasted at the lack of local knowledge, especially space. We took up the last six feet.

It drizzled off and on through the first race. Just before the second race, the sun came out and the people cheered. Rain gear came off and the machomen stripped to the waist. The euphoria was short lived.

By the way, there are no seats in the $30 section either and chairs aren't allowed. Two couples bought scalpers tickets on the way in and sat in the grandstand . . . the part without cover.

My guess of the median age of people in the infield is 22. Like at all major events, they come to party. However, we saw only a few who overpartied. I call wallowing in the mud over-partying.

The infield is 'comfortable' safety-wise among the masses. But the only way to actually see the horses run is on the giant tv screens. among the police.

Since it was a rainy, often miserable weather day, we can paint about any image for you. The conditions tend to make my outlook dank. However, we're glad we went.

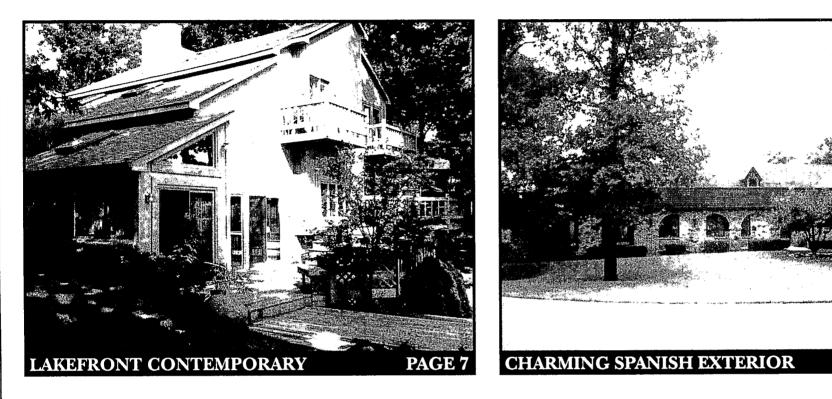

We had a whole lot of laughs away from the raindrops, and even enjoyed ourselves wandering around the infield full of young folks in the drizzle.

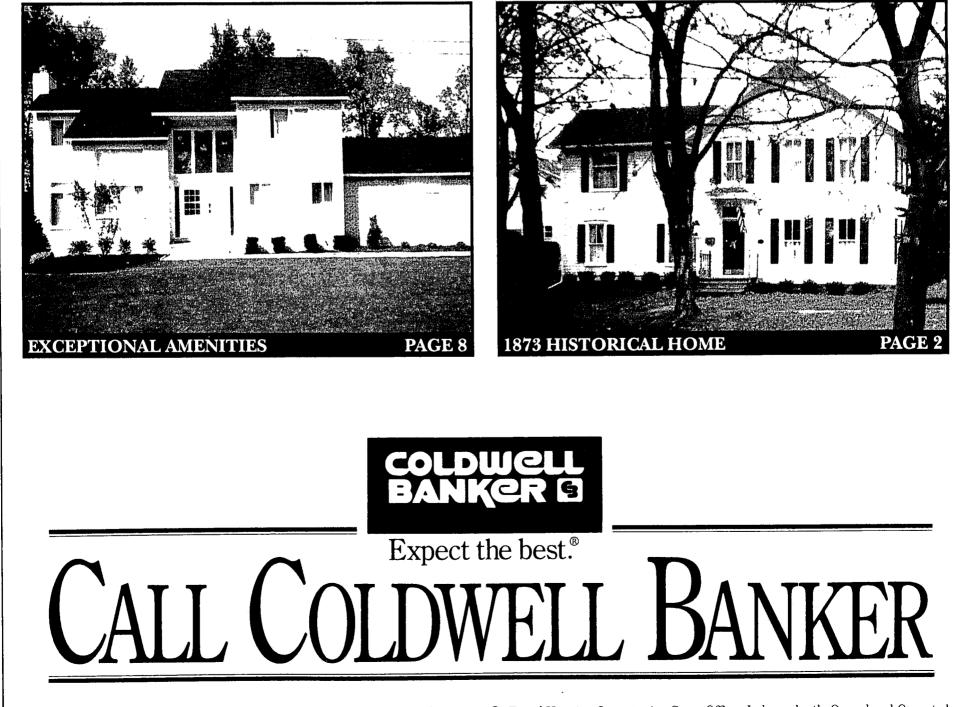

It was another memorable experience, one we probably should have had when we were much younger, or on a sunny day. APRICE PRODUCED CONTRACTOR

DON'T MAKE THE SAME MISTAKE!

Betty and Jerry bought a home for $95,000, making a $20,000 down payment. Their lender held a $75,000 mortgage lien, and required them to furnish title insurance to protect this interest. The couple's own $20,000 investment was not covered.

A month later, a relative of a previous owner made a claim to the home... and the claim proved valid. The title insurer reimbursed the lender for its loss, and the mortgage note was then turned over to the title company. Jerry and Betty are out their $20,000 down payment, their equity in the property, their home - and they still owe the
