Schools project $670,000 surplus

Budget for coming year $57.7M

BY JEFF PATRUS
Clarkston News
Staff Writer

What a difference a few months make.

At the beginning of this year Clarkston schools slashed costs by $1.5 million and pink-slipped teachers and programs.

But at Monday's school board meeting it was clear things had changed.

The school board passed the 2001-02 budget with an estimated general fund revenue of $57.7 million for the next fiscal year. This is an increase of $3 million, or 5.6 percent, from the 2000-01 fiscal year.

The funding is due to an increase in enrollment and state aid.

The majority of the $57.7 million total will come from the state of Michigan, which will provide $46.8 million (81.1%) of the district's general fund revenue for 2001-02. The local government will account for $7.1 million, the federal government for $1.1 million, and other sources for $2.6 million. The district will work with a projected surplus of $673,537 next year -- the general fund expenditures for 2001-02 are estimated at $57.1 million, which is an estimated increase of $2 million from 2000-01.

Of that total, $35.1 million (63 percent) is earmarked for instruction, and $20.6 million (37 percent) for support services.

The ending fund balance for the 2001-02 school year is projected to be $4.6 million, an increase of approximately $700,000 from the 2000-01 ending fund balance of approximately $3.9 million.

The 2001-02 budget is an increase of $3.9 million from the 2000-01 budget of $53.8 million, which See Schools on page 18A

Main Street work to stop July 3, resume July 5 Construction takes holiday break

BY ED DAVIS
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Area residents will have one less thing to worry about over the July 4 holiday.

Jack Shubitowski, administrator of the downtown partnership committee said Monday construction on Main Street will come to a temporary stop July 3 at 3 p.m. There will be no construction work done July 4. Construction will resume July 5. Shubitowski also said there will be no work done on Main Street July 8.

He said the Main Street project is coming along well to this point.

"So far they've made it under both creeks on the ends of town and they should be tying into both ends of the water main by the middle of this week," he said.

Construction began in April on the west side of Main Street to install the water main, which will be used to hook up Clarkston residents and businesses to the water supply of Independence Township. Water hookup is not mandatory, but encouraged my members of the Clarkston city council.

Shubitowski said soon pressure testing will be done on the water main as will the installation of the electrical, about three feet above the sewer line. He said he hopes water main installation on the west side of the street will be done by the middle of July. Once the water main work is complete, work will begin on a portion of the streetscape plan which includes new sidewalks and curbs in the downtown area.

Shubitowski said the entire project should end sometime in October and that projection still looks promising he said.

"The east side of the road should move more quickly than the west side did," he said. "We're hoping to begin work on the east side by the end of July at the latest."

That's because workers only have to install the water main on the west side, and only tie into the buildings which will be hooking up to the main on the east side.

The News in Brief

Use shuttle busses to July 4 Festival at Clintonwood Park

Parking will be limited at Clintonwood Park on Clarkston Road for the July 4 Festival of Fun, and people are urged to use the shuttle busses from Clarkston High School.

Independence Township Parks and Recreation Director Mike Turk said there will only be parking available for about 1,000 vehicles, and the department will try to accommodate cars with handicap stickers.

Additionally, no parking will be allowed on Clarkston Road. Two Oakland County Sheriff's Deputies will patrol the area and ticket cars parked on Clarkston Road.

Turk recommends visitors to the Festival use the shuttle busses from Clarkston High School on Flemings Lake Road, just east of Clarkston Road. Busses will run from 11 a.m. to midnight.

The fireworks will begin around 10 p.m. and can be seen from anywhere in the park and also from Clarkston High School, said Turk.

Do ATMs violate city character?

City and CSB may put ATMs outside city hall

BY ED DAVIS
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Area residents may have another location to make deposits, withdrawals and check their account balances. But it may upset many residents who feel the change goes against the village's character.

Ed Adler, Clarkston State Bank board member, was on hand at the city council's June 25 meeting to discuss the possibility of placing two CSB drive up automatic teller machines on the edge of the parking lot just off Depot Street by city hall. Council members said the proposal did not eliminate any parking spaces.

CSB president Dave Harrison proposed the same idea to the council in the past. Members of the council said they remembered Harrison offering around $75,000 to the city if he was allowed to install to drive-up ATM machines. Harrison's request fell on deaf ears however according to councilman Dave Savage.

"I think we told Dave to see the planning commission on the matter and he never pursued it any further," Savage said. "I think we really need to get the ball rolling on this as a possibility. We need to show him we're enthusiastic about this."

Harrison was on vacation and not present at the meeting. He could not be reached by press time.

However, adding two ATMs brought up several concerns from council members.

Councilman Walt Gamble wondered if adding two ATM's to the parking lot really serviced Clarkston residents.

"Is it really helpful to the community to have this service?" Gamble said.

Councilman Dan Colombo was more in favor of the issue. He said with ongoing construction downtown, now is a good time to encourage people to visit the area. By adding two ATM machines visitors would be more encouraged to shop and visit local merchants, he said.

"I don't know what happened to this issue before," Colombo said. "It's definitely worth looking into."

Mayor Sharon Catallo raised another concern—one of safety. "Do we really want more cars driving around here when parents are taking their kids to the park?" Catallo said.

But councilwoman Anne Clifton cautioned CSB may not be as interested as it once was in the idea. "Now that they (CSB) have drive-up ATM service north of town they may not want to do this as much," Clifton said.

In addition, City Attorney Tom Ryan warned the council of its space limitations. "We don't have that much public property to give away or lease," he said.

Several council people expressed their concern with letting businesses throw their name around the historic area.

"What would be next? The DTE gazebo in Depot Park," Gamble said.

City Manager Art Pappas said Adler will meet with other members of the CSB board to further discuss the matter.

Pave city alley from Depot to Washington, businessman asks

BY ED DAVIS
Clarkston News Staff Writer

The longer construction grows, the larger the project may become.

Repaving and resurfacing on Depot Street, beginning at city hall is scheduled to begin June 27. However, after the city council's June 25 meeting there may be some additional work to coincide with that part of the project.

Preliminary work to repave and resurface the alley which begins at Washington Street and ends at Depot Street may begin then also.

However, currently the entire alley is not slated to be resurfaced. Instead, spray painted markings in the alley indicated the word "pulverize" in back of Edward Jones Investments with an arrow pointing downward toward Depot. Pulverizing the alley is the first step towards breaking up the road material, city engineer Gary Tressel said.

Dennis Kacy, who owns 21 South Main Street, expressed his displeasure with the council that the entire alley would not be repaved. Instead, an estimate of about 200 feet from behind Edward Jones Investments all the way to Washington Street would be left untouched.

"All you have to do is look at all the twisted ankles that come in and see that the work has to be done,"

Kacy said.

City engineer Gary Tressel said a rough estimate of repaving and resurfacing the remainder of the alley would cost $5,000. City Manager Art Pappas said the city did not have money budgeted for work to be done.

However, City attorney Tom Ryan said city funds could not be used to improve private properties.

But Kacy expressed interest to the council in getting the rest of the alley paved while construction workers are still on site. He plans to get together with neighboring business owners and work with Tressel to see how much repaving the rest of the alley would cost.

Portions of the alley are owned by business owners while the remainder of it is in easements, owned by the city. Tressel then is supposed to come up with a plan which breaks down which portions of the alley are privately owned and which are owned by the city.

City councilman Scott Meyland and other members of the council were receptive to Kacy's proposal, but were also worried that the project may be getting too big.

"It's worth looking into, but it seems we just keep adding on portions to the project," Meyland said.

The council's next meeting is July 9 at 375 Depot Street at 7 p.m.

Independence officials agree on hiring policy

BY JENNIFER NEMER
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Officials came to an agreement June 19—adopting a new policy for the way Independence Township department heads are hired.

Basically, it was a firming up of the existing policy for any errors or violations of the Open Meetings Act, said Supervisor Dale Stuart.

Changes adopted included a blend of the existing policy, a proposal from Stuart, and recommendations presented by Trustees Dave Wagner and Larry Rosso at the June 5 meeting.

Though the two trustees wanted a three-person committee consisting of the supervisor, clerk and one trustee to narrow down applicants to the top three candidates for the job, the supervisor will remain the person to do so.

Treasurer Jim Wenger said there would be scheduling conflicts with forming a three person board every time it is needed. Others disagreed.

But, the personnel manual, which the hiring policy derives from, empowers the township supervisor to interview candidates and narrow the field.

"This procedure is efficient and does not need to be changed," Stuart said, backing up his proposal. "Department directors report to the township supervisor; they do not report to the clerk or treasurer. It is important that the township supervisor have a key role in the selection of any new department director."

Independence Township Trustees Larry Rosso, left, and Dave Wagner asked the board to consider a new hiring policy for department heads.

When a need arises to fill a director position, the supervisor will prepare a job posting and recommend an advertising schedule to be approved by the board.

The position will be advertised in newspapers and professional journals for two consecutive weeks and all applicants will be mailed to the supervisor's office, as opposed to Wagner and Rosso's suggestion of mailing them to the clerk's office.

Before the new policy was adopted, board members complained of the length of time it took to fill the positions. Wagner said, for example, it took nine months before the Parks and Rec position was officially filled by Mike Turk, and even longer for the still open director seat at the DPW. Board members requested a timeline be set with the new policy.

An applicant cutoff date will be 30 days after the first publication in the newspaper or journal. The supervisor will then have 30 days to review the applicants and submit all applications plus a referral of the top three candidates for interviewing to the full Town-McCrary.)

Lastly, the final three or more candidates will be interviewed by all Township Board members during a special meeting.

Stuart said in a memo to board members, "I do not agree that the current procedure violates the Open Meetings Act. However, I believe strongly in the public's right to know, and will post any interviews conducted to satisfy that act." This comes as a recommendation from Township Attorney Steve Joppich who admitted at the meeting he could not come up with a firm conclusion whether the existing procedure violates or not.

Wagner explained to fellow members this had been a difficult process for him, but was happy with the supervisor's recommendations and could vote in approval of it. Rosso said he too could vote in approval since he and Wagner's significant suggestions were included.

The vote for the revised policy passed unanimously.

Boardwalk realtor goes to trial on embezzlement charges

Larry Sefa, former owner of the Clarkston Cinema and Boardwalk Real Estate, Inc., is scheduled to go to trial Mon., August 13 at 8:30 a.m., before Judge Wendy Potts of the Oakland County Circuit Court.

Trial was to begin Tues., June 19, but Defense Attorney Carlo Ginotti said Sefa asked for an adjournment due to a witness in his case. Sefa said the witness is a minister who has influenced the party involved. Ginotti added the witness was recently tried in Oakland County and is believed to be a fugitive of the State.

Sefa is charged with embezzling $2,800 from a couple who placed the money as a down payment on a new home.

Other similar complaints have been filed against the realtor through the Oakland County Sheriff's Department and Michigan Consumer of Industry Services as well as the U.S. Department of Labor Wage and Hour Division, for failing to pay his cinema employees.

Help from community appreciated during difficult time

My mother, Lina (89 years old) passed away on June 12 after an eight-year struggle with Alzheimers disease.

A sincere thank you to all of my neighbors on West
Washington and on Holcomb for their thoughts and acts of kindness during this difficult time.

Also, thanks to the caring people of the police and fire departments for providing assistance on several occasions.

Finally, a thank you to Morgan's Service, Inc. for providing the pick-up and drop-off of my vehicles when repairs were necessary.

I appreciate (your assistance), and God bless all of you for your efforts.

Regards,
Lou Nanni, Clarkston

Reappointing Figa and Moss would be tribute to Oppman

Soon Rich Oppman will resign from the Independence Township Planning Commission to retire and move to Colorado. During his two different stints on the Planning Commission (part of the time as chairman), Rich Oppman has taken community service very seriously.

Time and again he has demonstrated the energy, vision and insightfulness that has made him a very important part of what is right with our development into a quality residential community. He will be missed.

Interestingly, his most recent appointment to the Planning Commission came at a time when another Planning Commission member unexpectedly resigned and the supervisor, who appoints the commissioners, felt we needed someone with Rich's experience in a hurry.

Just a couple of months ago, another Planning Commission member (Theresa Gillis) resigned, and she still has not been replaced. With Rich's departure this will take the Planning Commission down to just five members. This will make it difficult for them to get the necessary quorum to actually hold meetings and deal with the seemingly ever-present pressure that results from numerous development proposals made to the Township.

There is a sensible solution readily available. I believe that there are many folks in our community who are qualified for the Planning Commission because of their intelligence and genuine concern for how our community develops. However, if experience is still the important component it was when Rich Oppman was reappointed just a few years ago, then former Planning Commission members Todd Moss and Joe Figa should be recruited immediately.

Both of these men bring unparalleled knowledge and understanding of the development and review process in our township. The appointment is up to the Supervisor, with the approval of the Township Board.

Frankly, I think the appointment of these two folks would be a great way to say thanks to Rich Oppman for the truly fine service he has provided to us on the Planning Commission.

Sincerely,
Neil E. Wallace

School tours of Clarkston rewarding for students

The second grade teachers at Andersonville Elementary School would like to thank the local businesses from the City of the Village of Clarkston.

We want to extend our appreciation for the time you took to educate our children. The history you shared about their hometown made our tour a great success.
Your kindness and generosity was an excellent model for our young Clarkston citizens.

We would like to extend a personal thank you to Art

Pappas, Dale Stuart, Ginny Schultz, Dave Harrison, Roberta Trzos and Charles and Kay Robertson for helping us to arrange such a fabulous field trip!

Experience shows assumptions could cause tragedy

My teenage son was involved recently in an incident with a Clarkston homeowner and an Oakland County Sheriff's officer that should teach us all a lesson about assumptions, generalizations and acting on emotion.

While searching vainly for the address of a home that my son was to visit for the first time, he noticed a friend's vehicle approaching from a different direction, en route to the same destination. The two vehicles stopped in the middle of the road, my son received proper directions from the other driver, and proceeded to turn his vehicle around. In the process, the wheels of his vehicle rolled over a homeowner's easement between the road and some woods, bending blades of grass that could have been returned to their natural state with a comb, let alone a rake.

Just as my son was about to proceed, the homeowner came charging out of nowhere, lunged into the vehicle and assaulted my son, choking his neck and pinning him against the driver's seat. In the process he tore my son's shirt and pulled the keys out of the ignition ... all the while spewing profanities. He then proceeded to pull out a knife and used it to remove the license plate from the vehicle my son was driving and began walking back to his house with the keys and plate in hand.

Meanwhile, my son's friend, witnessing all this in the other vehicle, called the police on his cell phone.
As it turned out, the homeowner's lawn had been "turfed" twice by vandals in the past and he assumed that my son was the original perpetrator, about to vandalize the property again.

The Oakland County sheriff failed to give my son full opportunity to tell his side of the story. He assumed my son's guilt, threatening him with "reckless driving and malicious destruction" of private property. He told my son he was "going down."

My son, for his part, now assumes that all cops are on power trips, won't listen to kids and require human relations training.

In the end, the cooler head of the homeowner's wife prevailed. She remained calm, listened to my son, became convinced he was a good kid, settled down her husband and called off the sheriff. My son was released to his mother without charges. That, of course, was proper.

But I wonder what if that homeowner had experienced a robbery at his home instead of a lawn job in the past. And what if it had been a kid searching for an errant fly ball near the door of the homeowner's property rather than a teenage driver turning his wheels onto the grass. Might the homeowner have gone into a rage and used his knife as weapon?
And how would the sheriff have handled the situation then?

No serious harm was done that night. But it's easy to see how under a different set of circumstances the same assumptions and emotions could have led to a very tragic mistake.

Sincerely,
Len Bokuniewicz

They're welcome to my nuts

Imagine my astonishment.

There I was pulling into the parking lot at work when I spotted him (her -- they all look the same to me). Blacker than the Ace of Spades, struttin' across the short driveway from Oakdell Road to where we park our vehicles. You would have thought he (she?) owned the joint, the way he (she?) slowly walked in front of my vehicle, right here in northern Oakland County.

Oh, I've seen them south of Eight Mile Road, bunches of them -- they're everywhere you look -- but in the 16-plus years I have worked in our office and all the way back to 1971 when the Rush Clan moved from Wayne County to Oakland, I have never seen a black one, not here.

I've never seen a gray one, but I have seen red ones and Whitey, our pressman, said he saw an albino once, north of town. When I was in southern California, I didn't see any -- which kind of surprised and saddened me. I like 'em.

Of course, you know, I am talking about squirrels. What did you think I was talking about? In Northeast Oakland County, with an estimated population of 123,723 people, just about 1,100 people are of African American descent -- a little more than .0088 percent of the total population, according to Census info. Seeing other than Caucasians isn't uncommon, seeing a black squirrel, to me, that is news.

When my sister lived in the St. Clair area I saw black squirrels everywhere, which I thought was pretty neat, having only seen those red ones in these parts all my life. Now that there is at least one black squirrel in Oxford, does that mean there are more? And, why weren't there black squirrels here to begin with -- the Detroit area is only about 45 miles away?

Will these minority squirrels be picked on and ostracized by their red brethren? Will these minority squirrels find equal housing or have equal opportunities to life, liberty and the pursuit of nuts? I can only hope they will be treated kindly.

rush
don't rush
me

There is plenty of room for diversity, up here in "God's Country."

Diversity . . . squirrels are squirrels, aren't they? I mean aren't they are all the same on the inside? If you run over a red one, he (she?) splatters the same as if you hit a black one. Their squirrel souls will then ascend to the same squirrel heaven or descend to the same squirrel hell. What are the differences, really, besides pigmentation?

What is the big deal? Why the prejudice? I guess each of us has to look inside ourself for the answer. I will say this, though, if black squirrels move into my neighborhood, they are welcome to share the nuts in our yard.

Clarkston's Barb Larsen sent me this note: "Hi, I'm sending my favorite grilling sauce -- it was my mom's recipe so it's got to be good!"

Barb's Mom's Grilling Sauce

- 1/4 cup soy sauce
- 1/4 cup honey
- 1 teaspoon garlic, powder or fresh mashed
- 1 tablespoon oil
- 2-3 green onions, sliced
- 1 tablespoon (open) sesame seeds
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1 tablespoon season salt
- 2-3 tablespoons brandy (now yer talkin'!)

Combine ingredients. Pierce meat (beef, pork, chicken -- great for all meat) and pour marinade over. Let stand for a few hours or overnight. Grill and baste with remaining sauce.

Thanks, Barb (or should I say thanks, Barb's Mom?). Thanks somebody . . . if anybody else has a BBQ or grilling sauce recipe, I would like to infringe on your copyright or corrupt your patent. Send them to BBQ Recipes, PO Box 108, Oxford, MI 48371 or e-mail them to the address below.

PS: I don't barbecue squirrels. My Grandma Nanny McDonald, from Kan'tuck, used to catch 'em and eat 'em (and yes, she said they tasted like chicken), but she was also married when she was 14.

Comments, questions, recipes, slanders, libels, etc. can be e-mailed to: dontrushmedon@aol.com

the People Poll

By Jennifer Nemer
The Clarkston News asks:
What is your favorite part of American history?

"World War II is big for me right now. I've seen a lot of specials on it recently. The Veterans are starting to pass on and it's important to hear their stories."

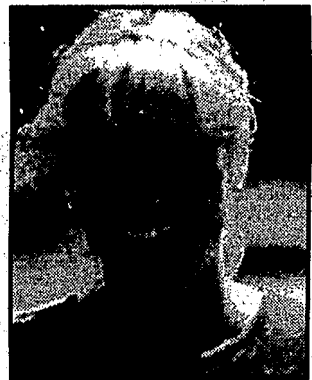

—David Conklin

"The Civil Rights Movement, -- the first step in undoing the wrong. It makes me sick to think it was only in the 60s.

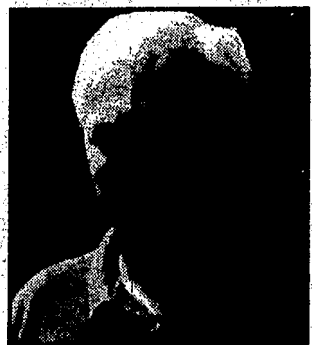

And the Declaration of Independence for what the country was founded on -- all the principles we no longer live by."

— Kristy Ottman

"Christopher Columbus discovering America and the days of the tall ships."

— Gary Warner

"I've always found the presidential inaugurations very interesting. Probably Kennedy's stands out the most. I think that was the first time I voted, so I was taken by the whole process."

— Sandra Meyer

"When Lewis and Clark first came to explore and the Indians helped them. They relied on the Indians to explore, and then, ironically, eradicated them."

— Anne Mancour

Let's review the words of our anthem

Before another week passes it'll be the Fourth of July . . . Declaration of Independence Day. Maybe you can find time before the Fourth to re-read the words of our National Anthem Francis Scott Key, 1779-1834, was an attorney who wrote verse for a hobby. He, as you know, wrote The Star Spangled Banner.

You've probably got the first verse down pat, so after re-reading that one, rethink the rest.

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming--

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming!

And the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air,

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.

O! say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave,

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On that shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep

Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,

What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,

As it fitfully blows, now conceals, now discloses?

Jim's Jottings

Jim Sherman

Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first stream;

'Tis the star-spangled banner; O long may it wave

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore

That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion

A home and a country should leave us no more?

Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution

No refuge could save the hireling and slave From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave;

And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

O! thus be it ever, when free men shall stand Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;

Blest with victory and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land

Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation.

Then conquer we must when our cause it is just,

And this be our motto, -- 'In God is our trust;'

And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

There's a new face at The Clarkston News.

Sherry Ettinger, who worked as an advertising consultant for the Clarkston News's sister paper, the Oxford Leader for 16 years is the new advertising manager of The Clarkston News.

"I think I bring enthusiasm, determination and personality to the team here at The News," Ettinger said. "One of the

Independence Township summer tax and payment schedule

The Independence Township Treasurer's Office is in the process of preparing the year 2001 summer tax bills. Bills should arrive by the first week of July.

We will be sending a laser printed bill with a perforated portion for the receipt. If you pay in person bring both parts of the bill so we can stamp each portion and give one to you as your receipt. Otherwise, your canceled check will become your receipt. You will also be receiving a return envelope if you wish to pay by mail.

You should receive a copy of your bill even if you have an escrow account that pays the bill. Currently, there are about 4,500 of the 13,000 parcels of land that have mortgage companies pay the taxes.

The summer tax bill contains all education related tax levies. Included will be your local school operating if nonhomesteaded (18 mills) and debt millage (7 mills). Homesteaded properties pay only the debt millage to the local school district. In Independence Township the primary school district is the Clarkston Community Schools, but there are some residents who have Waterford or Lake Orion Schools. In addition there will be Oakland Intermediate Schools, Oakland Community Schools, and State Education tax.

The summer taxes are due from July 1, 2001 to Sept. 14, 2001 without penalty. The taxes cover from July 1st to next June 30, which represents the school's fiscal year. Any unpaid summer taxes after the end of February are turned over to the county as delinquent.

There are several options in how you can pay your summer taxes. You can bring in your bill and payment to the Treasurer's Office any business day Monday thru Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Please use the provided envelope if mailing in your tax payment. Local branches of Clarkston State Bank, Old Kent (to become Fifth Third Bank in August), and Oxford Bank have agreements to accept Independence Township tax payments.

By local the branches would be Clarkston State Bank branch, the Dixie Highway Old Kent branch, or the M-15 Oxford Bank branch. Other banks in the area do not offer the service.

There is also a drop box located at the front door for after hour convenience. You also have the option of using Master Card or Visa to pay your bill by phone. There will be a service charge by Official Payments Corp. for using the credit card. The direct phone number is 1-800-429-7444. Partial payments will not be accepted using the credit card option nor will payments be accepted after Sept. 14 (summer taxes and Feb. 14 winter taxes). Information and instructions are available through the Treasurer's Office.

Please be aware that your tax payment will be posted the day it is received.

Please contact the Treasurer's office at 625-5111 ext. 211, 212, or 248 if you don't receive your bill or if you have any questions.

Rescue goal from a burning car: out in 15 minutes

BY JEFF PATRUS
Clarkston News Staff Writer

While area residents were sitting down to dinner June 13, Chris Norberg was teaching firefighters how to rescue someone from a burning car.

Chris Norberg updates firemen on rescue techniques.

Norberg, a paramedic with the Independence Township Fire Department, held a rescue extrication class at Independence Township Fire Station #2, on the corner of Sashabaw and Clarkston Roads.

The session updated firemen on the tools used in the process plus information on the use of airbags in today's vehicles. The group also participated in a drill on a pair of damaged vehicles.

Norberg explained that a patient's needs must be attended to while the extrication process is taking place. "Once we get on the scene, we will make patient contact and assess for medical plans," he said. "As manpower becomes available, we will stay inside with the patient, and a second group will do the actual extrication, the tearing apart of the car."

The process should take approximately 15 minutes, including removal of the car's roof and the doors. It may take longer depending on the severity of the accident, especially if a car is wrapped around a tree, Norberg said.

The process can be less complicated when dealing with a larger car. "Sometimes, it's easier with the bigger, stronger car," he said. "A lot of the time, they're easier to work with, because the metal doesn't rip (as it does with smaller cars)," Norberg said.

A team of Independence Township firefighters take apart a vehicle in a rescue extrication drill June 13 at the township's Fire Station #2.

Norberg estimates he's had to use the equipment on the job at least 20 to 30 times during his 13 years with the department. "When I first started using the Jaws of Life they were made of tungsten and steel and weighed 70 pounds. Now they're made of aluminum. They're stronger at half the weight," he said.

Tool capabilities have improved too, allowing firefighters to cut hinges and door latches, and to cut car metals with more finesse, rather than to rip and tear as in the past, said Norberg.

Car design and air bags have also changed how victims are rescued. While victims' upper bodies are often protected with airbags, firefighters often need to disentangle victims' feet and legs from the "crumple zone" of cars, Norberg said.

Norberg estimated the department will perform the rescue extrication process in serious car crashes about two or three times per year, and firefighters need to be regularly updated on the process and tools. Fourteen firefighters attended this particular session.

"It's for the whole department," Norberg said. "Everyone holds some level of medical training. This is required for all those levels. We go through this at least once a year, often twice," he said. "We require this training to maintain our (paramedic) license. It gives us a chance to use any new equipment and hone our skills."

Blues kicks off concert season at Depot Park; country is next

An annual Clarkston summer tradition kicked off its 2001 installment at Depot Park June 22.

The 22nd annual Concerts in the Park series, sponsored by the Clarkston Area Chamber of Commerce, kicked off the season with a performance by the vintage blues band The Gray Hounds.

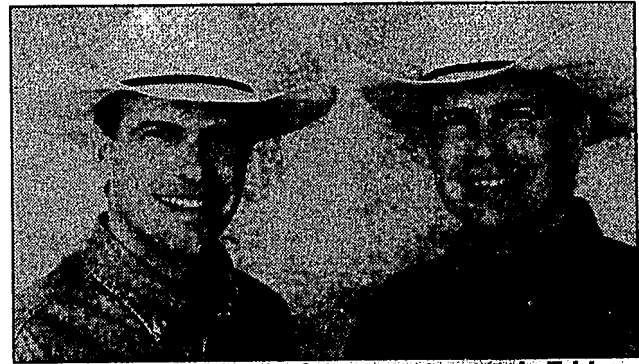

Approximately 250 people attended the concert, which featured such numbers as "Blues in Trouble," "Get Well Soon," and "Mean Old Frisco." The atmosphere was lively and spirited, in spite of the overcast skies.

Some of the younger folks in attendance took their turns on the park's playground while the adults enjoyed the concert.

The concert series will continue for the next five Fridays at Depot Park, with each concert lasting from 7-9 p.m., rain or shine. The following bands are scheduled to perform:

- June 29: Taylor Brothers (Country)
- July 6: Bobby Lewis and the Crackerjacks (60's and 70's)
- July 13, The Red Garter Band (Dixieland)
- July 20, Brazilian Love Affair (Jazz)
- July 27, Thique (Motown)

The Taylor Brothers perform country music Friday.

A Look Back

15 YEARS AGO (1986)

Appropriate growth of Independence Township is the goal of a new committee made up of five members of the township planning commission and Economic Development Corp. (EDC). The committee plans to designate appropriate growth areas on the township master plan, to solicit desirable businesses for the community and to look at the infrastructure, including the sewers and roads.

Mill Pond dam owner Ed Adler has two weeks to respond to a letter from the Clarkston Village Council before the council takes legal action to have the dam repaired. After some discussion at the June 23 meeting, the council asked its attorney to send a letter asking for repairs on the dam or a reason why the repairs haven't been made.

Every teacher who received a layoff notice in April has been recalled by the Clarkston Board of Education. The notices to previously pink-slipped teachers that they will be employed for the 1986-87 school year were approved unanimously. On June 9, recalls were approved for John Getzan, Michael Kaul, Janice Kirschgessner and Patricia McMillen. On June 16, they were approved for Doris Bonnel and Kari Cook.

25 YEARS AGO (1976)

Springfield Township population increase very nearly kept up with Independence Township in the five years following the 1970 United States census. That's the finding of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments, which has charted the Springfield hike at 1,462 new people as compared to the Independence increase of 1,773 new residents.

There will probably be suds in the Clarkston Mill Pond until sewers are extended to service the homes around its upper division. That's the word from Dorothy Aszurek, sanitarian with the Oakland County Health Department, who says two years of inspections have failed to eliminate the problem. As a result of township patrols along the pond, several homes which were able to dump laundry water into the Mill Pond have had to change their plumbing systems.

Builder Leon Blachura has been issued a citation for violation of the sign ordinance by Independence Township. Blachura failed to comply with a township Zoning Board of Appeals order to remove six signs advertising homes for sale on Reese Road. Blachura had until the end of April to take down the signs, which are considered illegal.

50 YEARS AGO (1951)

The Bloomfield Hills Farm and Garden Club is sponsoring Mrs. Joseph Hubbard of Clarkston at the Homemakers Conference at Michigan State College, July 10 through the 13th. This is in recognition of Mrs. Hubbard's many years of Home Extension work. She organized the Home Extension work in Oakland County 31 years ago. She was the first county chairman and has been district chairman.

The Clarkston Board of Education has gone on record as favoring annexation of several adjoining school districts, Springfield, Andersonville, Sashabaw, Bailey Lake, and Fair, all of which except one have held their elections and voted in favor of annexation to this district. The Clarkston school district will vote July 9 on the question of annexing these districts. The Citizens Committee favors annexation of these outlying districts.

At the annual meeting of the Clarkston Schools on July 9, two school board members will be elected to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of Paul Henry and Ronald Weber. There are three candidates for the school board: Ronald Weber, R.E. Spohn, and Michael J. Hart.

The United States flag symbolizes the beauty of our country

On June 14, 1777, the Stars and Stripes was officially adopted as the flag of the nation. The Flag Act stated the Flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternating red and white, that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation.

With the exception of the addition of stars for each new state and a brief change to 15 stars and stripes, the flag has remained unchanged. The 13 stripes on the flag represent the original colonies, From the Capitol and each of the 50 stars by State Rep. Ruth Johnson stands for one state. Each color also has meaning. The red stands for the blood shed creating a new nation. The blue stands for the ocean that had to be crossed to reach this great land. And white stands for the purity of our government.

The flag, in its own elegant way, symbolizes the beauty of America. It represents the hard work, courage, faith, hopes and dreams of our great nation, all bound together by an enduring patriotism.

The Star-Spangled Banner, the most famous of all U.S. flag designs, was made under government contract in 1813 by Baltimore flagmaker Mary Pickersgill.

Measuring 30 x 42 feet, there are 15 stars and stripes, each star being about two feet across. The flag was so large it had to be laid out on the floor of a local brewery for assembly. The government paid $405.90 for the flag, which was to fly over Fort McHenry in the Baltimore harbor.

Little more than a year later, in September 1814, the British laid siege to Fort McHenry in the Battle of Baltimore. The British first attacked by land, then by sea. The Americans stood their ground for 25 hours. Maj. George Armistead, the fort's commander, refused to lower the American flag and surrender. Baltimore was spared and the Americans were victorious in an against-the-odds win.

Millions of men and women have fought in the flag's shadow, promoting freedom and democracy at home and abroad. The blood of many a patriot has been spilt defending what it stands for. Because of this, the flag deserves our respect.

Throughout the summer, the flag is proudly displayed by many Americans. It hangs from the homes of the nation's citizens and waves proudly in parades. Yet, not many know the appropriate manner for showing respect to the flag.

According to the United States Code, the flag is to be displayed only from sunrise to sunset on buildings and on stationary flagstaffs in the open. However, it may be displayed 24 hours a day if properly illuminated at night. The flag always should be briskly hoisted and ceremoniously lowered, and should not be displayed during inclement weather. When other flags are flown on the same halyard, the U.S. flag should always be at the peak. During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the flag, or when the flag is passing in a parade or in review, all citizens should face the flag and stand at attention with their right hand over the heart.

This Independence Day, take some time to reflect on our past and look forward to our future. When you see the flag waving proudly this summer, remember those who fought and died for the values it represents.

We cannot take our democracy or our freedom for granted and still honor the memories of those who paid in blood for that which we cling to so dearly. The flag embodies the values of our country. Entombed in its threads is the history of a nation and the stories of our people. When you see the flag, remember the freedoms you enjoy and give thanks for the vision and sacrifices of those who came before us.

The mail box was invented in 1810 by Thomas Brown. He later became Governor of Florida in 1849.

THE LAW & YOU

by Robert Kostin
Attorney at Law

IT ALL DEPENDS

The contingent fee arrangement promotes equal access to justice when pursuing personal injury litigation. The fee paid by the client will ordinarily be a percentage of the total amount of any recovery. The "contingent" aspect of the fee means that if there is no recovery, there is no attorney fee owed. The most obvious advantage to this type of arrangement is the absence of risk of owing an attorney a fee when there has been no recovery. Moreover, the client can feel secure knowing that his or her attorney has cast his or her fate along with the client. This is a reflection to the degree of confidence that the attorney has to obtain a recovery in the case.

Hiring the right attorney for a particular case can really make a difference. We are confident in our abilities and we will do our best to get you what you deserve. Located at 11 North Main Street we handle a variety of legal matters involving personal injury, auto accidents, slip & fall injuries, criminal defense, business law, real estate, family law, and civil litigation in both State and Federal courts. Please don't hesitate to call us with questions at 620-1030.

Note: The contingent fee arrangement also provides the attorney with motivation to maximize the client's recovery.

Schools project surplus; budget

was passed in June 2000.

According to Bruce Beamer, the schools' director of business services, the increase in the general fund is due largely to an increase in State of Michigan aid. The state's per-pupil allocation will increase approximately $300 from $6,442 in 2000-01 to $6,747 for the 2001-02 year.

In addition, the projected enrollment in Clarkston for the 2001-02 year will increase by 161 students to 7,404, which is another factor behind the increase in general fund revenue. According to Beamer, the schools receive 11 payments from the state from October through August.

Dr. Al Roberts, superintendent of Clarkston Community Schools, said the expected increase in student population could lead to a need for more personnel within the schools.

"If we get the 161 students that we anticipate, they'll bump up class sizes, and there will be a need for more support staff (i.e. media specialists, physical education teachers, etc.)," he said.

Beamer also said another factor behind the general fund increase is the passage of 1.5 mill non-homestead millage during the June school election. This allows the district to collect the legal limit of 18 mills on non-homestead property. He said the 18 mills is deducted from the schools' state aid calculation.

Roberts said the state of Michigan assumes the district is already collecting the 18 mills on non-homestead property, and if the district is not actually doing so, that could affect services offered by the district.

"The state assumes we're levying the 18 mills," he said. "Clearly, we need to levy that."

According to Beamer, the district's general fund will provide support for the food service, athletic, and community education budgets, with the food service department facing a slight deficit for the next fiscal year.

He also said the district's capital projects will be completed by the end of the 2001-02 fiscal year.

He said the district's debt retirement fund revenues will allow the district to continue the seven mill levy through at least the 2003-04 fiscal year.

According to Beamer, the vast majority of the district's financial value comes from the residential property in the area. "Eighty-five percent of our value is residential," he said.

The taxable value for residential properties in the Clarkston school district for the 2001-02 school year is approximately $1.46 billion, an increase of about $12 million from the 2000-01 taxable value of approximately $1.34 billion.

The vast majority of the taxable value in the district comes from Independence Township, which accounts for $1.073 billion (73.7 percent) of the total.

The remainder of the taxable value is divided up as follows: Springfield Township, $301 million (20.7 percent); City of the Village of Clarkston, $36.8 million (2.5 percent); Waterford Township, $35.2 million (2.4 percent); White Lake Township, $10.5 million (0.7 percent); and Orion Township, $9,550.

Hool new Parks and Rec laborer

Independence Township Parks and Recreation's staff is one man stronger.

Director Mike Turk received approval, at the June 19 Township Board meeting, to hire a new park laborer. "My intention is to hire a park laborer with a multitude of talents related to our field," he said. "After reviewing his application and getting a chance to meet him, I feel Tony Hool would make a tremendous contribution to our department and to the township."

Hool is skilled as a carpenter, has much experience in baseball field maintenance, and has served as an umpire-in-chief for Tags Sports Complex for seven years.

"With his knowledge of carpentry, we can utilize him in a variety of ways," Turk said. "When we have construction projects, we can use his talents to build or to manage the project." He can also assist facilities maintenance manager David Belcher when opportunity arises, he said.

Since Park Laborer Brian Benway transferred to the DPW in late April, Turk had been seeking an individual to fill the position. Turk said he received 31 applicants with diverse qualities, narrowed the field to ten, and interviewed candidates the first week of June.

Hool will earn $13.34 an hour for the position and will work the 2-11 p.m. shift, starting June 25.

Fathers honored at Hart Community Center luncheon

BY JEFF PATRUS

Clarkston News Staff Writer

Springfield Township residents took time out of their lunch schedule June 14 to pay tribute to their fathers.

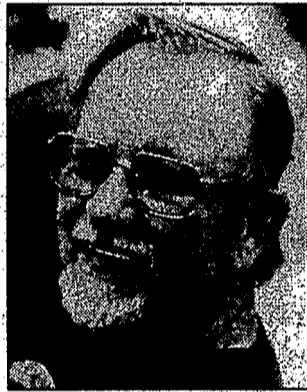

A luncheon, held at the township's Hart Community Center, recognized the area's dads just in time for Father's Day on June 17. Songs were sung during the lunch that struck a chord with the fathers and their relatives, including "Take Me Out To The Ballgame" and others.

Afterward, the fathers were presented gift baskets by Springfield Township's Parks and Recreation Department, which hosted the luncheon.

Whether it be a trip to a ballgame, or a trip taken with their family, several of the fathers in attendance took time to share their favorite Father's Day memories.

Kenneth McCrum, a Clarkston resident, has been living in the area ever since the Depression, and has been married 60 years. "I've seen a lot of changes around here," he said.

He and his wife had two children: Kenneth Lee McCrum, who is currently retired and lives in Alpena, and Rial Ray McCrum, who lives in Texas. He said he and his sons did several things when they were growing up.

"I took part in Cub Scouts with them, and also managed a Little League ballgame with them," he said.

McCrum said his two sons made several different things in school for him, including an ashtray, even though McCrum doesn't smoke. In addition, he said son Rial gave him a screwdriver set 40 years ago, which he still has today.

William Schaefer of Davisburg said he recently enjoyed a visit from son Scott and grandson Willie. "My son and grandson came from Oklahoma, and we went fishing," he said.

In addition to his son, Schaefer has two daughters: Cheryl, who lives in Brighton, and Kimberly, who lives in Fairfield, Ohio. In his spare time, he said he enjoys fishing, golfing, and hunting, and works part time at the Davisburg Candle Shop in downtown Davisburg.

Like Schaefer, Harold Eagle of Waterford enjoyed the company of family during the holiday, as he visited with son Steve and daughter-in-law Brenda, as well as grandchildren Joshua and Kayla.

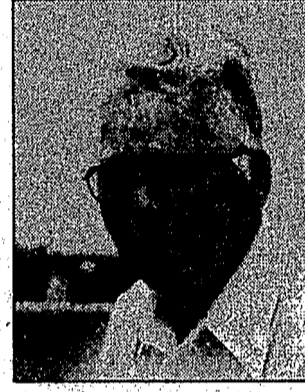

"I've got kids coming in from San Francisco, and I'm picking them up from Metro Airport," he said. "We're going to visit Sault St. Marie for a few days."

Unlike Eagle and Schaefer, Larry Nichols of Davisburg did not get together with his children during Father's Day.

That is because his only son died of cancer 15 years ago at the age of 18.

Nonetheless, he said he has plenty of relatives and friends that treat him just like a father, and refer to him and his wife, Joanie, as grandparents.

"I'm a happy man," Nichols said. "I have a lot of kids calling me grandpa. This is the weekend of our wedding anniversary, so we'll be going out to dinner. We have a lot of kids calling us grandpa and grandma, and many friends at church. We have much to be thankful for."

Grass is greener on their side of the fence

Quiet par three golf course in Davisburg uses seaweed to keep course looking sharp

BY ED DAVIS

Clarkston News Staff Writer

You won't hear the words "Can I play through?" too often at Windmill Lakes Golf Club. In fact, you might just have the course all to yourself.

Windmill Lakes Golf Club, located at 12791 Big Lake Road in Davisburg, is an excellent executive course for beginning golfers or for seniors who simply want to enjoy a beautiful summer day.

The par three course has been open for seven years, but is undergoing several changes according to manager Jerry Cook.

Cook said he plans on making the course more of a center for seniors and beginning players. In addition to nine holes, Windmill Lakes is in the midst of upgrading their outdoor patio which will be able to accommodate parties of well over 100 people. The club will also be offering an area available for pig roasts and also plans on building gazebos so golfers can kick back and relax after their round of golf. Cook said he hopes to have all that construction done by Mid July.

However, Cook's real pride in his course lies in the way he has built and maintained it — oddly enough that's where seaweed comes in.

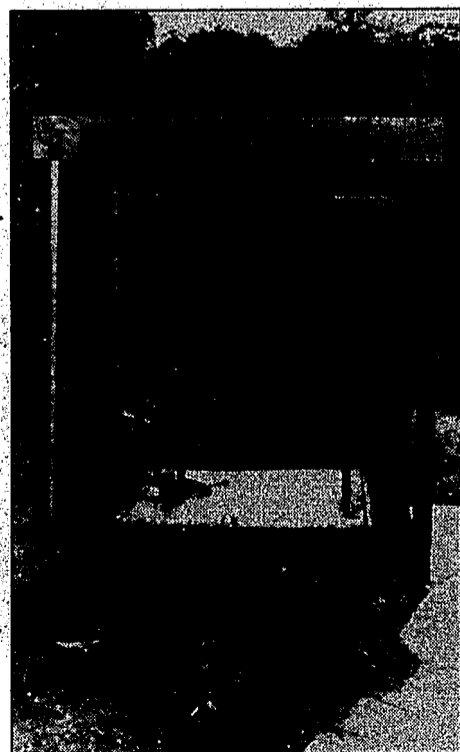

Cook uses seaweed, which he harvests out of Big Lake every year to help fertilize his course. "We can pretty much make grass grow anywhere with this method," he said. "It's all natural and I think that it's important to be safe for the environment. Some of these newer courses near condos use all these chemicals. Well, the people who live in those condos open their windows at night and all that stuff can get in."

Cook transports the seaweed from Big Lake to the course and lets mother nature take the next step. Over the winter the seaweed decomposes and every spring Cook puts it through a manure spreader to make it more fine. Then uses a trailer to spread the seaweed over the course.

Machine Engineering learns mental aspect of baseball

Former Wolf coaches Parks and Rec team

BY ED DAVIS

Clarkston News Staff Writer

Jeff Harvey is doing his best to save baseball.

"It's dying," he said. "The problem today is that kids don't learn the mental aspect of the game."

That's what he's trying to stress to the 11 and 12 year olds which make up his Independence Township Parks and Recreation youth softball team, Machine Engineering.

His club has gotten off to a little bit of a rocky start, with a 1-3 record (at press time), but it has suffered two of its losses in extra innings.

Harvey said some of his best players include Ryan Kieras, who is the team's leadoff hitter and Jeremy Walker, who he says is one of the best power hitters on the club.

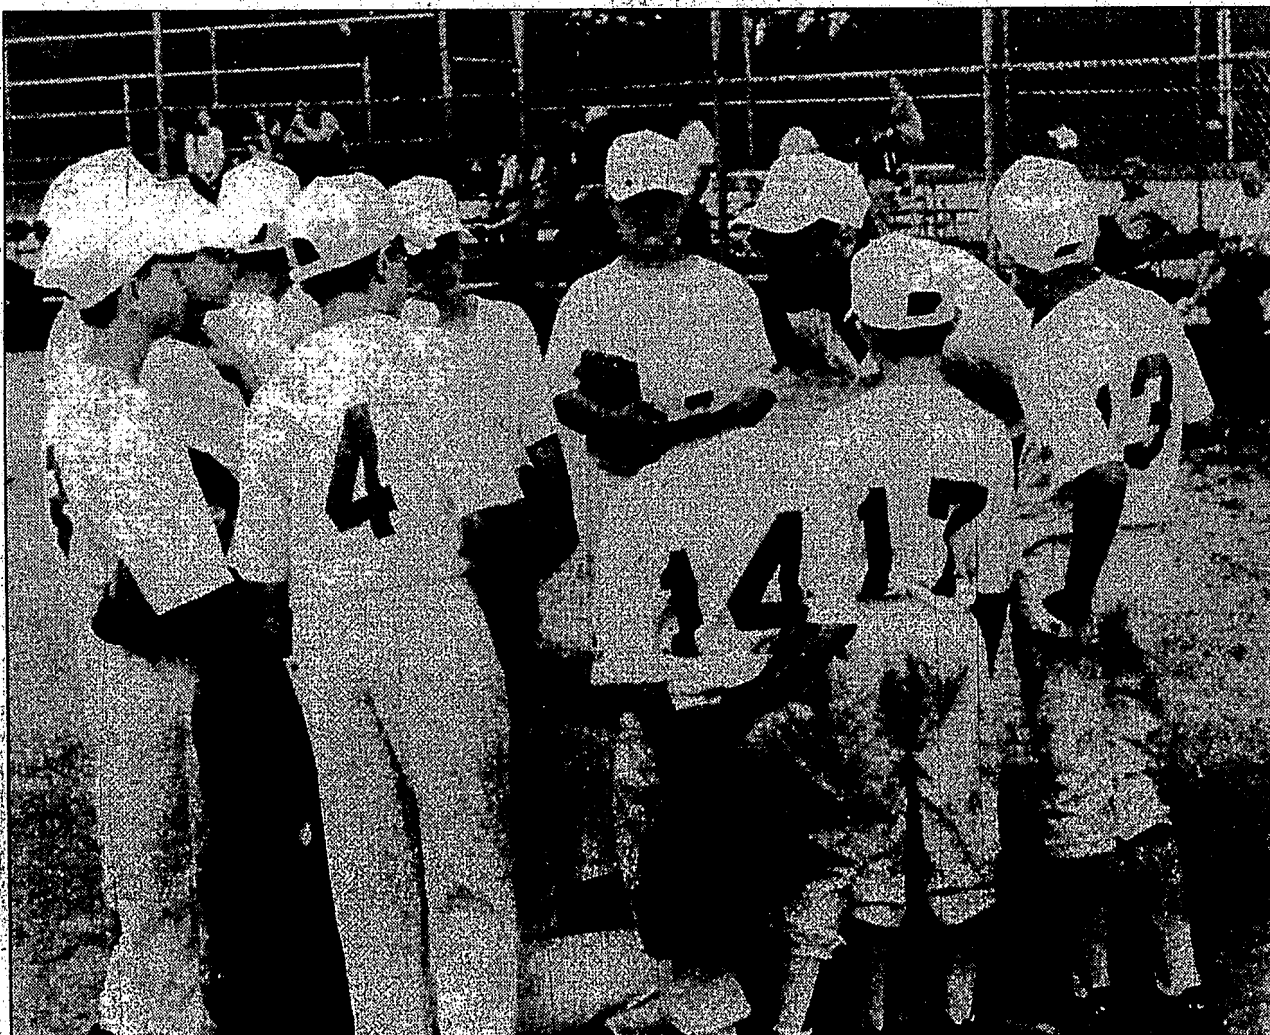

"Ryan gets a lot of singles for us and Jeremy can really hit the ball hard. He bats in our number two cleanup spot," Harvey said.

Harvey said another member of his team, Steve Harvey is the club's best utility player.

"He can pretty much play all the positions," he said.

Harvey has been a coach for Independence parks and rec youth baseball for four years and served as a coach in Davisburg several years before that.

"Our focus is not so much on the skills of the game, but on the mental aspect of baseball," Harvey said. "Anybody can learn to hit and throw, but we try to stress the mental aspect of the game. Baseball is one or two hours of thinking and just a few seconds of reacting." Harvey played baseball for Clarkston High School and graduated in 1975. He played center field for the Wolves and spoke highly of one of his baseball mentors, Paul Tungate.

"He was the best baseball coach I've ever been associated with," he said. "I try to teach my kids the same stuff he taught us."

"It doesn't really change the play of the course at all. I don't put in on the greens because I haven't figured out how to dry the seaweed that much," he said. "It's just better for the environment that's all. That way we're making everybody happy. It's all natural fertilizer. It's magic dirt."

The nine hole course has seven par threes and two par fours. The longest hole on the course is 250 yards.

Windmill Lakes is trying to cater to seniors and youth and offers an attractive special for those two groups of people.

Every Monday night, beginning at 6 p.m., the course offers a kids and senior night. Prizes are awarded for the best child's score.

"That night is a lot of fun for the kids. I think they have a good time with it," Cook said.

Cook said he is also hoping to expand his Thursday night program, which is ladies beginner night. That program also begins at 6 p.m.

Adults golf for $9 while seniors and children 12 and under always get in for just $7. The course is open from 8 a.m. until dark seven days a week.

"Anybody is welcome any time. It's a nice, tranquil course. A lot of the time people will come out here and have the course all to themselves," he said.

Wolves, Dragons unite on volleyball court

Rival schools work together to improve skills

BY ED DAVIS

Clarkston News Sports Editor

Clarkston and Lake Orion are known to be long time rivals. But the Wolves and Dragons came together last week to hone their volleyball skills.

Clarkston varsity volleyball coach Gordie Richardson helped put together the 18th annual Clarkston volleyball clinic. The camp ran at Clarkston High School from June 18-22 and was for students from 5th to 12 grade.

Members of the freshman, junior varsity and varsity teams were present at the camp. As were other Clarkston volleyball coaches in addition to Richardson.

Tricia Brewer, a 2001 CHS graduate and former volleyball player, who played under Richardson helped at the camp as well.

"It's weird to be here as a coach and not out there doing all the drills. But this is a good experience for the girls to get better," Brewer said.

Richardson said the camp was a good way for Wolves and Dragons alike to improve their volleyball skills.

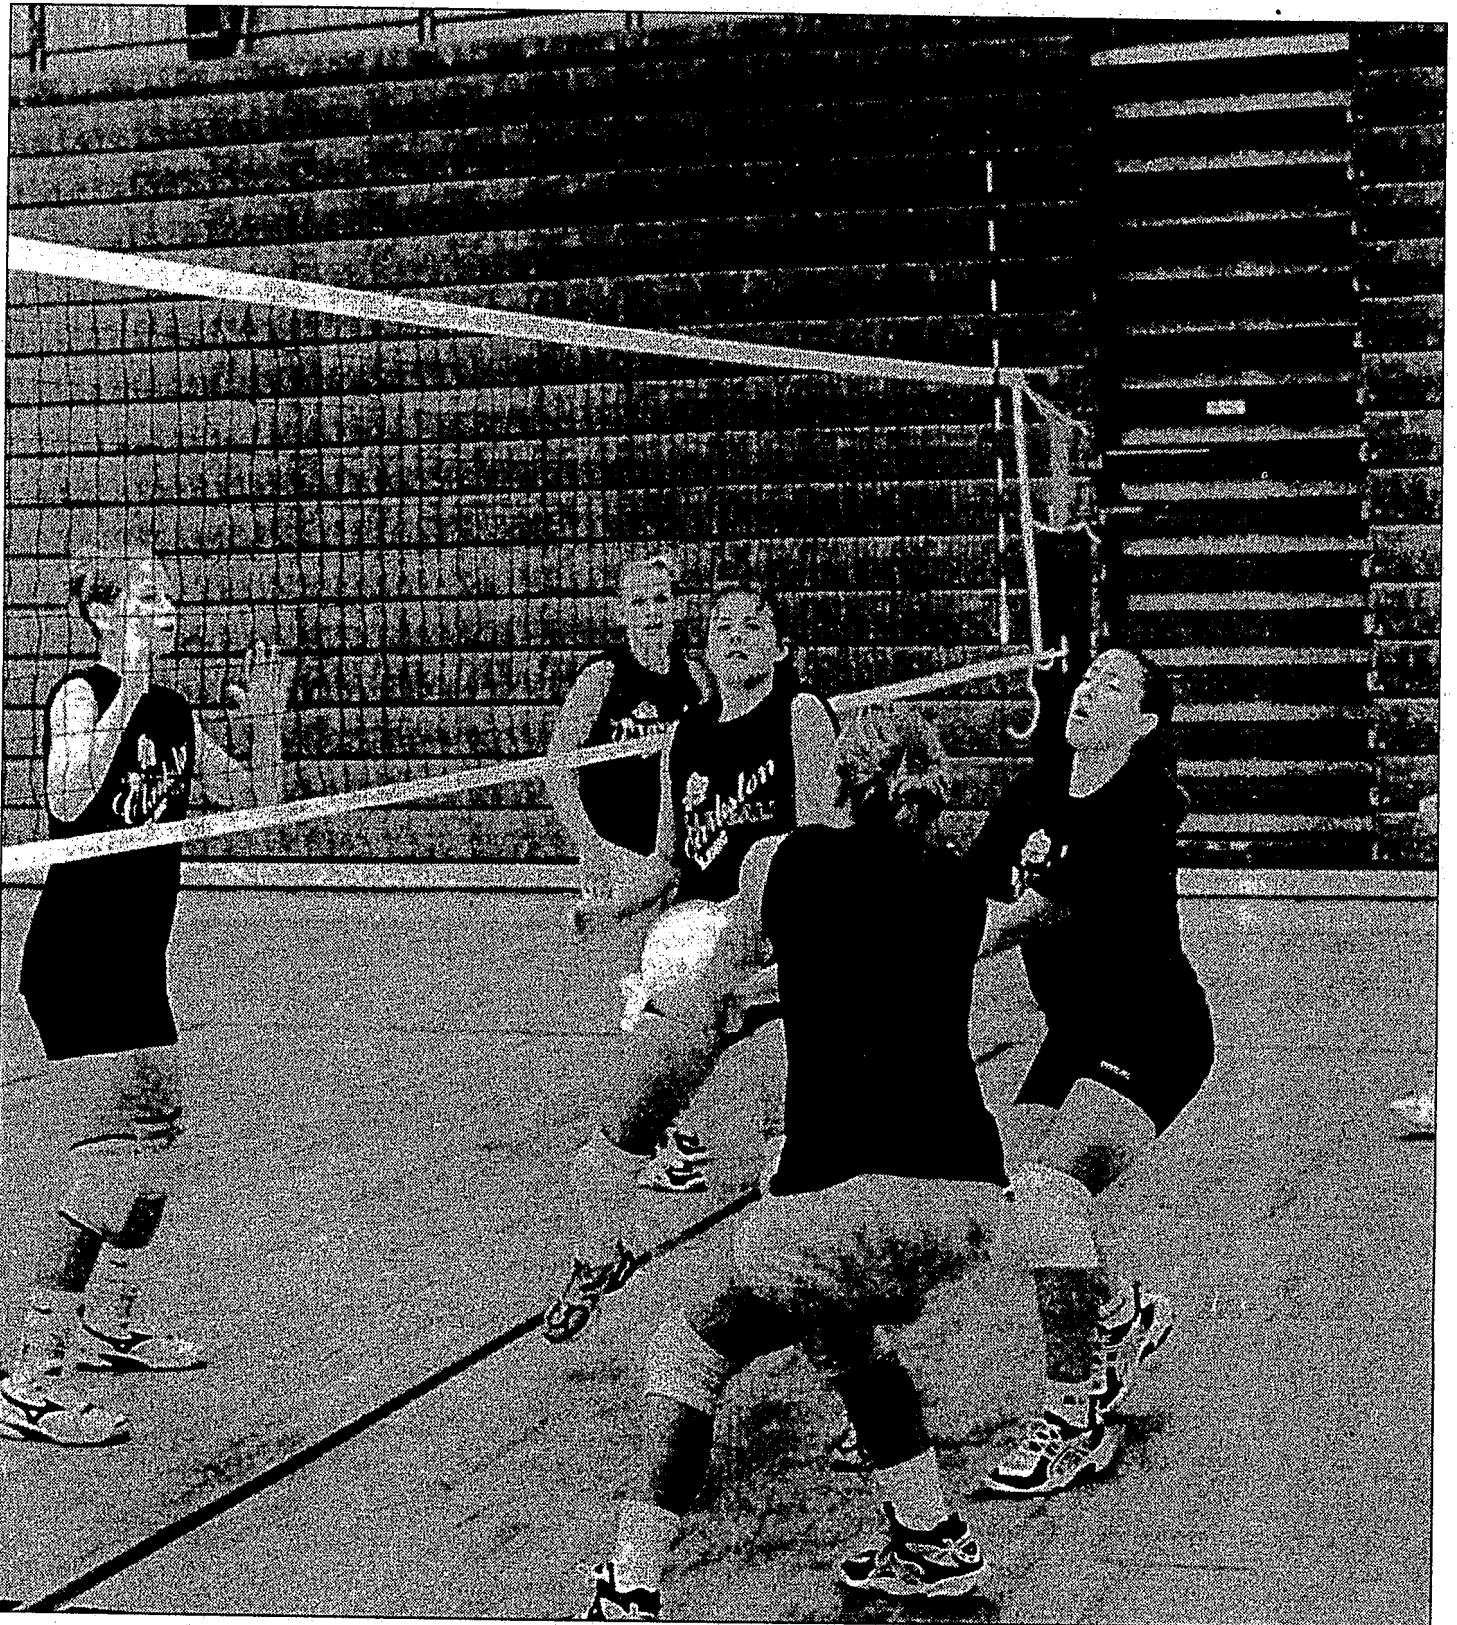

"We've got a wide variety of skill levels and abilities in here," he said. "The camp gives the girls a chance to see what's expected of them once they get here."

Last year Richardson's varsity team had a strong season winning 33 games and a district title. Richardson is hoping the camp and a strong class coming up will help improve upon last year's success.

"The sophomores have only lost six matches in two years," Richardson said. "They had 30 wins as freshmen."

One of the younger athletes who participated in the camp was Stephanie Parkin, who is an incoming freshman.

"She's got a lot of ability. There's a chance she'll play varsity her freshman year," Richardson said.

The 2001 Clarkston High School volleyball camp allowed athletes in grades five through 12 improve their skills. It was the 18th year CHS has hosted the camp which included students from both Clarkston and Lake Orion. Photo by Ed Davis.

We are not a Jack-of-all-trades. We can not guarantee you the absolute lowest price, as we will not sacrifice the quality products or workmanship that you deserve. What we will guarantee is an honest and fair price with products and workmanship of the highest quality. We also do our own work. We do not sub-contract it out, or sell it. So if you are only looking for the cheapest way out, call someone else who claims they can beat any price. If you are looking for an honest and fair price, quality products and workmanship, dependability, and someone that will still be here after your job is completed, give us a call. Total customer satisfaction is our only acceptable standard. Helping you make your home the one you've always dreamed of is what we do.

Beach time

Colorful bathing suits, beach blankets, towels and umbrellas brighten the beach and swim area at Deer Lake Beach on White Lake Road and that means summer's here. Area residents have been enjoying the warm, sunny weather by spending the day at the beach.

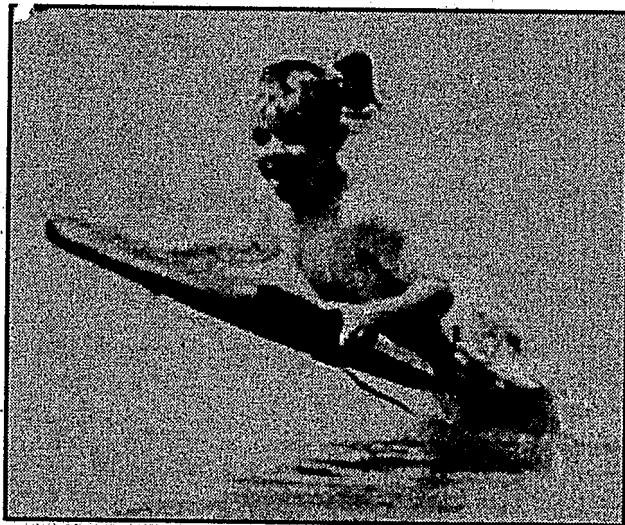

Megan Peterson, 9, foreground, and her sister Stephanie, 7, build castles in the sand. Photos by Jennifer Nemer.

Hanging out on a fishy character at Deer Lake Beach are, clockwise from the back, Larry Cassar, Amanda Betts, and Kelsey Miller.

Erin Lazoan, 4, relaxes under an umbrella and chows on a yummy snack.

Above left, Mitchell Nixon has fun with a raft in Deer Lake. Left, with her trusty innertube, 16-month-old Claire Cassar heads to the water. Above, Isaac Young, 6, launches a toy boat in an Isaac-built lake. ## Floats, families, tons of fun

BY JENNIFER NEMER
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Downtown Clarkston construction isn't stopping this community's 60-year-old tradition. There'll be plenty of floats, families, and tons of fun at this year's July 4 "alternative" parade.

Organized by longtime Clarkston resident and business owner Gini Schultz, festivities are set to begin at 10 a.m. at Bluegrass and Holcomb, and continue down Holcomb to Deer Lake Road.

From floats to marches, over 50 civic groups, churches, individuals, and neighborhoods will be represented.

There'll be bicyclists, four-generation families, K-9 rescue, SCAMP, Youth Assistance, Garden Club members with bubble lawn mowers, the Clarkston High School Marching Band, a neighborhood float of bathing beauties, and much more.

Aside from the parade itself, Gini said there will be a garden walk on S. Holcomb, free lemonade and Koolaid along the street, and music groups performing in the front yards of Holcomb residents. Featured will be a dulcimer group, the "country" sounds of Modesty Forbids, and flutists and violinists from the Clarkston Conservatory.

Barb Thomson and Dr. Rockwood Bullard will serve as the parade's grand marshals. Gini said she chose the two because, "both are grass roots people. They've been so kind to so many people through the community for so many years."

For those who don't know the two Clarkston residents, let's meet them.

Ms. Barb Thomson

"I think they ran out of people," Barb Thomson, 82, said about being approached to appear as a grand marshal for the upcoming parade.

"I've known Gini (Schultz) for some time," she said. "I've been here long enough, I guess it was my time to get involved."

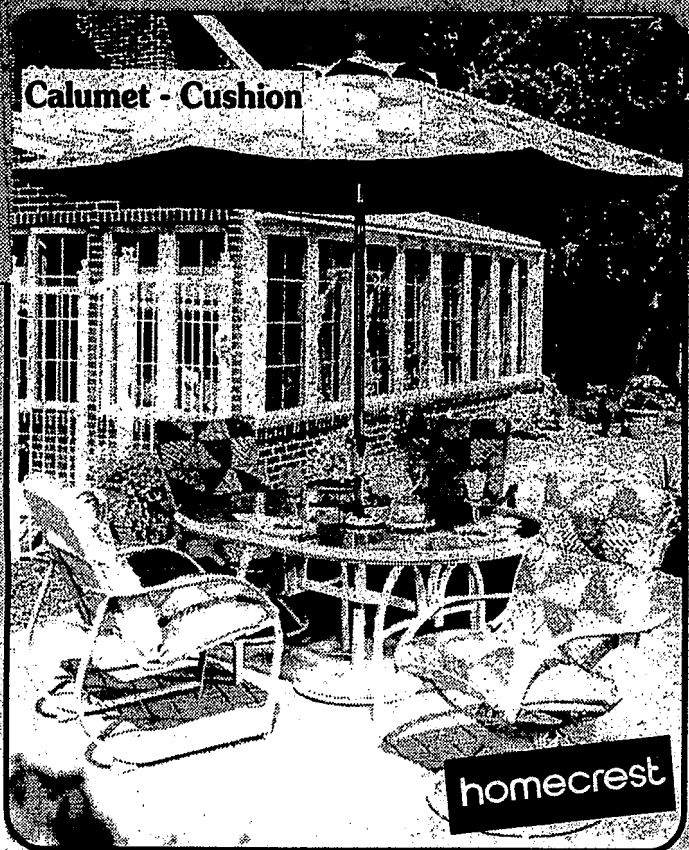

In fact, it's been fifty years of Clarkston living for Barb, since she and her late husband Edward (or Ted as he was known by family and friends) moved into their N. Main Street home.

It was shortly after the close of World War II when the Thomsons moved to Michigan. At that time Edward—who once was Clarkston village president—was in the Air Force. They

4th of July celebrations in years past

Celebrating the 4th of July in Clarkston has always been important. Here is a sampling of activities over the last several decades as recorded in The Clarkston News.

10 YEARS AGO (1991)

Patriotic spirit won awards at the July 4 parade in downtown Clarkston. According to Capt. Steve Ronk of the Independence Township Fire Department, which organized the parade activities, more than 100 entered the parade and decorating contests.

Three floats were cited for patriotic spirit. Taking first-place honors was the "Clarkston Critters" float, created entirely by several Clarkston-area youngsters in 4-H.

First-place float makers included Clarkston Critter members: Amy Boose, Nick Boose, Emily Boose, Kelley Doyle, Jessica Doyle, Ashley Doyle, Ember Gilbert, Katie Colosimo, Robin Curry, Lorne Deacon, Jennifer Fogleman, Joshua Barney, Kim Deacon, and Nicole Colosimo.

20 YEARS AGO (1981)

Local patriots can gather July 4 for the annual parade, sponsored by the Independence Township Fire Department and Firefighters Association. The event's slated to begin at 10 a.m. with marchers traveling down Church Street to Main Street, north on Main to Miller Road.

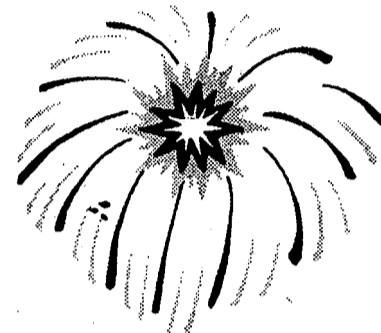

At 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, July 4, marchers and musicians are expected to

What is your favorite period in American History?

We Americans have a dramatic past. We are all descended from people who wanted freedom in many ways. And we still guard our individualism and rights to think, speak, worship and write what we want. So, what's your favorite part of America's history? We asked some area people about theirs. Their answers are in this section.

My favorite part of American history is:

"The bygone days of the tall ships sailing the Great Lakes."

found they liked the state and didn't want to leave.

"Years ago, I think we were still living in Birmingham at that time," Barb said, "we had friends who lived in Clarkston. Ted and I often went up north for hunting and fishing along the Au Sable River." Their many travels to and fro prompted one of their Clarkston friends, during a visit, to say to them, "you know if you lived in Clarkston you'd be home now."

Barb admitted, "Birmingham was getting a little crowded and Clarkston looked like a good, quiet place to live."

It turned out to be the right move. "I love the people. It's been a safe and wonderful place to live."

Over the years, the community-minded and generous woman has given back to Clarkston on many levels.

She's been a member of the Garden Club for years, donated the Depot Park gazebo in her husband's memory, was on the village council for a time, and helped establish the township's library when it first found a home at 90 N. Main St. nearly 40 years ago. Recently, Barb donated over 100 hats to Clarkston High School and was featured on The Today Show for her contribution.

Dr. Rockwood Bullard

Dr. Rockwood Bullard has lived in various parts of the country, but none like Clarkston.

Ironically, Rockwood, 83, credits the Fourth of July parade for bringing him to the town.

After finishing his residency at Presbyterian St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago, the medical doctor came to Michigan to stay with his brother, who lived off of Foster Road, for a time. After the brothers attended the parade, Rockwood said, "this has got to be the greatest!"

He was hooked on Clarkston. "At that time, everybody you knew seemed to be in the parade," he said. "Then later on, we got into it ourselves."

In fact, this will be the second time Rockwood will have acted as grand marshal. The last time was in the 80s. He also has participated in the parade three other times.

Rockwood remembers one year he drove a tractor in the parade, wearing a lion suit and top hat, and pulled a circus wagon behind him.

When not pulling circus wagons, Rockwood, a Harvard Medical School graduate, was hard at work "taking care of people" with his Clarkston practice he began in 1949.

"This town has been very good to me," said Rockwood, of the 53 years he's spent here with late wife Maryetta and their three children Thomas, a professor of geology at the University of Nevada; Rockwood, a Clarkston lawyer; and Blair, who works with various medical groups.

"This has been a very very friendly community," he said. "At the time I started my practice, I knew everyone in town. The township was about 2,000 then. Now it's slightly enlarged with 32,000. You can't know everyone now."

But Rockwood said, "I hope what I've done has helped other people throughout the township."

Gini Schultz, organizer of this year's Fourth of July Parade, said she has had a lot of fun putting together the event and noted the great cooperation those in the community have given her. "Everyone has been wonderful."

Gini said she has had great cooperation with everybody in the community in organizing this event. If you would like to help with the parade in any facet, there's still time left.

Gini is looking for boys and girls, and moms and dads who would like to ride their bikes in the parade as well as families with four-generations.

Call Gini at 625-3122 if you can be of assistance.

Dr. Rockwood Bullard, who served Clarkston for many years in his medical practice, and was chief surgeon at three hospitals in his career, will serve as Grand Marshal with Barb Thomson in the July 4 Parade. He'll be decked out in his scrubs, as pictured here, for the event.

Attention Auto Accident Victims

If you have been involved in an auto accident then this is information you need to know!

Here are the facts:

- Recent studies have shown that a rear-end collision as low as 3 mph will cause damage to the neck.
- Serious injuries can occur at impacts below 25 mph with only moderate amounts of damage to the vehicle. This happens because most of the vehicle's crumple zones are not activated at lower speeds and the occupants absorb more force.
- Trucks and SUVs (which are considered by most people to be safer than cars) when involved in lower speed impacts can cause more injury to the occupants than the same impact in a car.
- Most people who "walk away" from an accident usually have pain and stiffness within 72 hours after the accident.
- Scar tissue will start forming about 72 hours after an injury. This scar tissue is the cause of a lot of chronic pain and degenerative joint problems (arthritis).
- Under Michigan No-Fault Law, an injury has to be documented within one year after the accident for the auto insurance to pay for it. After that year is up, the victims will pay for treatment on their own.
- Chiropractic has been shown to be very effective for treating whiplash and auto related injuries.
- Chiropractic care will be covered even if your primary health insurance does not pay for chiropractic.

The Golden Rule of Smart Tanning:
Don't EVER sunburn.

The ability to tan while minimizing the risk of sunburn is one of the main reasons people come to indoor tanning facilities. Although many people know that too much ultraviolet light exposure results in sunburn, most don't really understand what it is. So what exactly is a sunburn?

Sunburn - medically referred to as erythema occurs when too much energy is absorbed by the skin. That bombardment of light causes tiny blood vessels in your skin to swell or even burst. That's why a burn appears red on the surface of your skin.

Today, we know that sunburn is an unnecessary injury on top of a tan. Unfortunately, previous generations of sunlovers thought that sunburn was simply an inconvenient precursor to developing a tan. They thought their burns were necessary "jump starts" to their tan, and that sunburn would eventually fade into a tan.

Today, we know better.

Metropolitan Tan Tanning Salons are dedicated to helping you achieve the best tan possible while teaching you how to avoid sunburn and overexposure, both outdoors in the sunshine and indoors in our facilities. Call us today to schedule an appointment with one of our certified tanning specialists. Mention this Smart Tanning information and your tan is free!

gather at Clarkston Junior High School, 6300 Church, to line up for the parade.

Parade watchers can expect to see the Oakland County Sheriff's Department Mounted Division, Clarkston's Junior Miss, local politicians, Avon and Pontiac Township's Fire Departments and their antique trucks, the Clarkston High School Marching Band, classic cars, the VFW's marching officers, floats, a cement mixer and Independence's own fire department and trucks.

Pine Knob Music Theatre's annual fireworks display is set to fill the sky of Independence Township with bursts of yellows, golds, and reds this July. According to George White, community relations director for the theatre, the celestial sphere should ignite in a blaze of glory at approximately 10:45 p.m., at the close of the Doobie Brothers' concert.

30 YEARS AGO (1971)

The Independence Township Fire Department will be in charge of the Independence Day Parade which will be held Monday, July 5. All floats, marching groups or individuals must be at the Miller Road starting point by 9:30 a.m. The parade will begin promptly at 10 a.m., according to a spokesman for the firemen.

"A popular feature of this year's parade will be local Jaycees dressed in clown costumes," reports Bill Halsey, External Vice President. "In addition to the Jaycee float, Clarkston's Junior Miss, Debbie Hoopengartner will ride in the parade.

"Two of our pretty wives will be in full clown attire, selling helium filled balloons. We think it's going to be a great fun day and hope everybody comes downtown to enjoy it," he concluded.

40 YEARS AGO (1961)

The annual July Fourth celebration in Clarkston was bigger than ever this year. There was something going on every minute from dawn to dark. The day began with the setting up of the Cole Wild Animal Circus at the North Pointe Plaza parking lot. Nearly 500 people turned out to watch this fascinating operation.

At ten o'clock one of the largest crowds ever to turn out for a parade in Clarkston lined the streets of the village to watch a very good parade. Led by a color-guard consisting of Floyd Tower, Bart Mann, Clifford Waterbury, Bill Cobb, and Olin Betzer, and by the Clarkston High School Band under the direction of Mr. Bart Connors, the parade had many interesting entities.

A posse composed of ten members of the Oakland County Sheriff's Department made an imposing sight on their fine horses. Sheriff Irons and his wife were seen in the audience, but he was not in the parade.

50 YEARS AGO (1951)

A large crowd gathered in Clarkston on July 4 to enjoy the day's program, sponsored by the Fire Fighters Association. As usual, the parade was one of the big features. Headed by the Drum and Bugle Corps, the children in costumes, some with their pets, along with the decorated cars, the horses, and the Dearborn Motors machinery, the colorful lineup marched from Miller Road down Main Street, to W. Washington, where the prizes were awarded.

A large crowd assembled on the grounds of the Community Center for the dedication of the Veterans Memorial. The program opened with the invocation by the Reverend George Halk and a few words by the president of the village, Robert Waters. Dan Addis led the group in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

60 YEARS AGO (1941)

The following poem, "Independence For All," by Robert C. Beattie, was published in the July 4, 1941 edition of The Clarkston News:

Let not dictators be misled
Our peoples' spirits are not dead,
We still remember Washington
How he, our Independence won,
And we today fear not to fight
For principles that they think right.

Although for peace we always crave

Our people always have been brave,

And we will not stand idly by
And see some smaller nation die,
Because they are too weak to fight
For principles that they think right.

We'd like to settle all disputes
With peaceful strains of harps and flutes.

We wish this world, that we might make

To be a place of give and take,
And no one ever more need fight
For principles that he thinks right.

No matter how great troubles are
That men may meet before the bar,
And settle there as humans should Conflicts for the peoples' good

On July 4, 1981, the driver and passenger in the parade scan the street-scape on the opposite side, while the gray-mustacloed joy rider takes in the sights.

And our Great Judge would say what's right

Abolishing all cause to fight.

67 YEARS AGO (1934)

The following was written in the "Comment and Criticism" section of the July 6, 1934 edition of The Clarkston News:

And now...we waited till after the 4th to write this...the birthday of this great republic has been celebrated...and was it safe...and was it sane...about the only difference we noted was that Clarkston streets looked like a busy Saturday night...streets lined with cars of holiday shoppers...in the early morning...then everyone went to sleep...as nearly as we can find out...heard one firecracker...probably about the smallest one we ever fired...but by this time had forgotten it was the Fourth and blamed near jumped out of the car...now if we can live thru the next two months and come out of the political campaign, safely, we should be safe till the next 4th.

My favorite part of American history is:

"I remember reading in a Michigan history book about how all the roads in Detroit were made out of logs and planks years back. I thought that was interesting."

We owe our independence to our forefathers' faithfulness

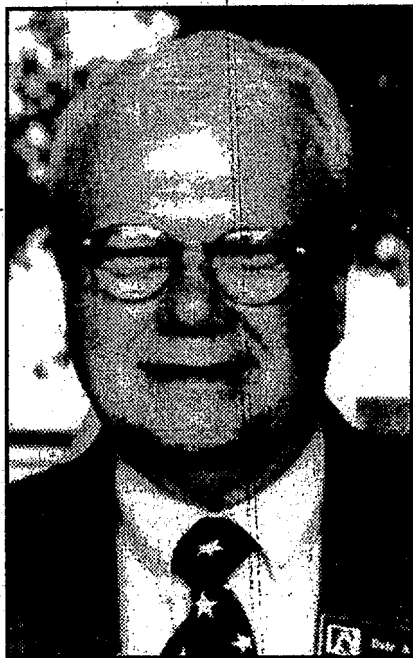

The celebration of Independence Day, July 4th, has special meaning to me, individually, and Independence Township as an institution.

Independence Day is like a national recognition of Independence Township. This community was established by pioneers who came to this beautiful area seeking a new life in the frontier of the State of Michigan. Already being free, the pioneers sought new opportunities in this crossroads of the State.

Celebration of this day brings to memory all of the reasons we are so privileged to live in this community, this County and this State.

The parades, the fireworks and the picnics all demonstrate that we are a free people living in a free country.

It also reminds us of the debt we owe to our forefathers. Anything we enjoy today is ours because of the faithfulness of those who came before us.

My favorite part of American history is:

"The signing of the Declaration of Independence -- life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

My favorite part of American history is:

"The pilgrims that made the journey so we could have freedom."
