ndependence to host federal task force

BY TREVOR KEISER

Michigan is getting its own federal Urban Search and Rescue Task Force, and it's going to be based in Independence Township.

"There are 28 Federal Emergency Management Agency teams across the nation," said Chief Steve Ronk, Independence Township Fire Department, to the township board. "The closest ones to Michigan are in Indianapolis or Miami Valley, Ohio."

The task force will include 108 experts in search, medical, logistics, communications, structural, riggers, and other specialties.

"There are a lot of different disciplines that make up a task force," said Ronk, one of three task force leaders. "It's a mixture."

FEMA teams are activiated on order of the president of the United States, in federal emergencies, he said.

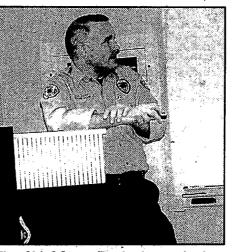

Their equipment will be stored in a 100by-200-square-foot Cover All tension-membrane, fabric structure, on the west side of the Department of Public Works across from Clarkston High School.

"It is a very inexpensive building compared to a full steel building or block building," said Ronk. "This is drastically less expensive than those."

Independence Township would build and own the structure, and then the task force would lease it for $140,000 a year, paying its cost in about five years.

Oakland County will cover insurance and licensing of equipment and vehicles. The building could be built by winter, he said.

"This is one of the greatest things that Fire Chief Steve Ronk shares the laycould have happened – it will be our asset and will virtually cost us not a penny," said Dave Wagner, Independence Township supervisor.

"These are one of the unique things we've been looking to do, a little bit cutting edge."

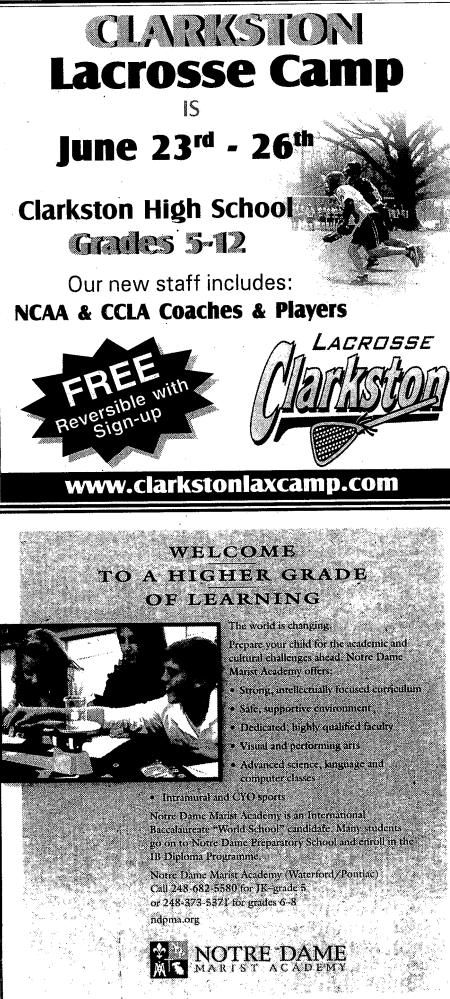

The local Urban Area Securities Initiative Region includes Oakland, Macomb, Wayne, St. Claire, Washtenaw, and Monroe counties and the City of Detroit.

"Federal moneys come into the UASI region and you are to do regional projects or things that will benefit the region out of that," Ronk said.

The region has a $2.4 million budget from 2006 federal grants. However, the building cannot be funded by the grants, he said.

"You can lease space, but you just can't build a building with federal money, which I Please see Task Force on page 18A

Briefly Polish it later

A conscientious salesman found himself at the wrong end of deputies' service pistols in an Independence Township neighborhood, May 22.

A resident called deputies to report a suspicious person sitting in a Ford Ex-plorer at the end of a residential driveway polishing a large knife in plain view.

Police arrived, drew their weapons, and ordered the man to the ground, where he was handcuffed and placed in the police car for questioning. The 21-year-old Troy man turned out to be a Chicago Cutlery representative who was waiting to give a demonstration.

Police apologized to the man, who acknowledged polishing knives in plain view in a residential neighborhood was not the smartest thing he ever did.

Danger on the road

A 75-year-old Independence Township woman told police she heard a "gunshot" as she was exiting I-75 at Sashabaw Road, May 26, and found her windshield broken.

Police discovered a star-shaped crack in the glass. They checked nearby wooded areas but were unable to locate any suspects.

The American Red Cross is hosting its first Clarkston Community Blood Drive, Thursday June 19, Friday, June 20, and Sunday, June 22.

"The community has lots of smaller blood drives, through businesses and churches," said organizer Christie Kojima. "We want to pull everyone together into one big blood drive - it's a way to build community spirit while saving lives."

Schedule includes:

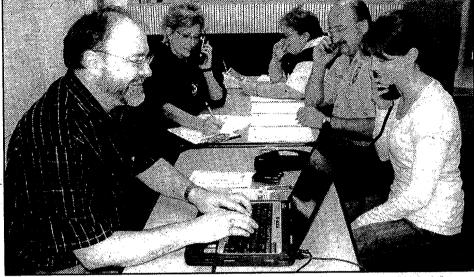

Thursday, June 19, Clarkston Brandon Community Credit Union, 8055 Ortonville Road, 8 a.m.-2 p.m.; Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Waterford Road, 2-8 p.m.; Independence Township Senior Center Carriage House, Clintonwood Park, 2-8 p.m.;

Friday, June 20, Independence Township Fire Department, Citation Drive, 8 a.m.-8 p.m.; Chase Plastics, Waldon Center Drive, 8 a.m.-2 p.m.; and Sunday, June 22, Clarkston United Methodist Church, Waldon Road, 8 a.m.-2 p.m.

"This is where businesses, churches, civic and community groups are coming together to join forces to make the greatest impact on building the area's blood supply," said Doreen Beason, senior representative for donor recruitment, American Red Cross.

Local law enforcement, EMS, and firefighters will also compete in the Battle of the Badges, a friendly competition to see who of M-15, and called the city's Department of Public Works.

DPW Director Bob Pursley arrived quickly, checked out the scene, backtracked until he was able to locate the source, and identified the chemical as Glycol-commonly known as antifreeze.

"I could see little pockets of green in the river," he said, noting the substance was visible in the water as far as the bridge near Depot Park on M-15. "In the discharge where the water was flowing out, it was super green."

Pursley said he grabbed a shovel to immediately begin "diking up" the flow, and alerted the Independence Township Fire Department, the Oakland County Drain Commission and the North Oakland Hazmat Team.

Pursley also flagged down a school maintained person who was passing in a truck.

"He said he wasn't aware of anything." Pursley said. "But he went back and checked and let (the school) know what was going on."

Preliminary reports suggest the tank in the school's cooling system holds about 1,000 gallons of antifreeze, but it was unclear how much of the liquid was released, or how. A release from the county estimated the spill at 'several hundred gallons."

Linda Jabaro, Clarkston Community

School's communications coordinator, said she "didn't know anything about" the situation, and couldn't put The Clarkston News in touch with anyone who did.

She did, however, transfer a call to CJHS Principal Shawn Ryan's voice mail, noting Ryan would be in an administrative retreat for the day, and Anita Banach, communications director, was "going into a meeting."

No one answered a direct call to the junior high, which was closed Monday, as well as Tuesday because of a power outage.

"The schools, from what they are telling us, said they had 1,000 gallons in the system," said Independence Township Fire Chief Steve Ronk. "How much of that was released? Ouite a bit of it to get down to that river."

Ronk acknowledged the situation definitely posed a threat.

"Oh yeah, that's not something that should be free in the environment," he said. "It got into the underground storm system, which takes rain runoff, made its way from the junior high school to the crick that runs under Waldon road by the church."

It was at that point, he noted, the concerned resident noticed the green color in the river.

A member of the North Oakland Technical Rescue team entered the drainage area off Waldon Road and used airbags to block the flow. Workers were on the scene most of MonTree takes out power lines

Pineda faces long prison sentence

BYLAURACOLVIN

Clarkston News Staff Writer

Vincent D'Anna's mother walked to the courtroom podium and leveled her gaze at the shackled man standing across the room in orange clothing stamped "prisoner."

More than nine months after Vincent died, Eileen D'Anna-Mallett had an opportunity to publicly address the man convicted of killing her son.

Ramon Felix Pineda, 26, an illegal Mexican immigrant, was sentenced last week to 28-70 years in prison after he was convicted of second-degree murder May 9.

According to testimony given during the weeklong trial, Pineda had a blood alcohol level twice the legal limit Aug. 26 when he ran his 1992 Camaro into the motorcycle D'Anna was riding on Sashabaw Road in Independence Township.

D'Anna, 26, was knocked from his bike, trapped under the car and dragged 180 feet along the pavement.

"I'm angry," said D'Anna-Mallett as she addressed Pineda during a victim impact statement June 4 in Oakland County Circuit Court. "And I bet you just can't guess how angry I am."

D'Anna's mother told Pineda she was on her way home when the accident occurred near DTE Energy Music Theatre.

"I had to stop to let the ambulance out of the firehouse-me-not knowing it was my son," she said. "If I had known, I'd be sitting where you are right now."

D'Anna-Mallett spoke in a low, steady voice for several minutes.

"You slaughtered my son," she said. "You took everything from my son. He'll never have a home and a wife and a baby, like you had."

Pineda and his wife Dawn Pineda have a toddler-aged son.

Pineda was also sentenced to 10-15 years for driving under the influence of alcohol causing death, 40-60 months for failing to stop at the scene of an accident, 40-60 months for false application of title, and 93 days for driving while license suspended. The sentences will run concurrently, with credit for 283 days served.

Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor Robert Novy said he was satisfied with the sentence.

"It's a good sentence," Novy said, noting Pineda would be sent to the Michigan Department of Corrections, where he would be screened and quarantined before he was assigned to a state prison facility determined by the MDOC.

Before sentencing, Camille D'Anna-Leinbach also spoke, telling how she watched one brother "die bruised and convulsing," as the other "cried over the body of his lifelong friend."

"It's impossible to capture the magnitude of our loss with words," she said. "My brother was a ray of light. He loved his family and adored his friends."

D'Anna-Leinbach said she hoped Pineda s would spend a very long time in prison.

"He is a disgrace to my county," she said.

"He is a disgrace to his own country...and a disgrace to all humankind."

Chief Judge Wendy Potts, who presided over the trial and handed down the sentence last week, told the family their comments were "moving and very well expressed."

Potts said she gave the sentence a great deal of thought.

"You never had a real license in your name, so you were never eligible to drive," she told Pineda. "In addition, without a license, you were drinking. The actions testified to...show total disregard for the law and others on the road. You were a tremendous threat to every driver around you."

Pineda, who showed little or no emotion during his appearance Wednesday, also had the opportunity to address the court before sentencing.

"I want to apologize to his family for what happened," he said, speaking through interpreter Maria Gialdi. "I'm not the kind of person they believe I am. I came here wanting to help my family and to work."

Pineda entered the U.S. illegally in 1998.

Elias Escobedo, Pineda's attorney, compared the case to that of Daniel Chase, an 18-year-old Lake Orion man recently sentenced to 8-15 years by Circuit Court Judge Rudy Nichols.

Chase, who was allegedly driving the wrong way on Lapeer Road with a blood alcohol level of .20, collided with a car driven by Sherry Burke in December 2006.

The 24-year-old Oxford resident died as a result of the accident, which occurred about 500 yards from where Chase was arrested—and placed on probation—for driving under the in-fluence just two weeks prior.

"My client's actions are not in any way, shape, or form the type of conduct that warrants 450 months in state prison," Escobedo said before the sentence was handed down.

He asked for a sentence no greater than 15 years.

"It is in no way going to compensate the D'Anna family," he continued, noting Pineda would at some point be returned to Mexico and wasn't likely to see his young son again.

"Only time will heal the vengeance, anger and resentment they feel toward this man; this man will lose everything he has, and maybe he should, I don't know. Maybe he should."

But D'Anna's mother indicated the passage of time has only made her son's absence more difficult.

"The more time that goes by, the more I miss my son," she said. "I want to see Vincent. I want to give him a hug and a kiss and watch him play with the dog, watch him grab a tall glass of milk to dunk his Nilla Wafers in—that's what he liked to do."

In addition to prison time, Pineda was ordered to pay restitution of more than $127,000 for funeral costs and insurance claims. The issue could be revisited at a later hearing.

As with any conviction, Pineda has automatic right to appeal.

Wed., June 11, 2008 The Clarkston (MI) News 5 A Family businessmen team up for Fountains go

BY PHIL CUSTODIO Clarkston News Editor

When a group of local businessmen heard one of the community's longest-run golf courses might be closed and turned into a subdivision, they took action: they bought Keith Patten, Chris Loridas, Bill Wint, Jim Schmidt, Tom Brown, and Rick Brown are now the proud owners of the old Liberty Golf and Banquet Club on Maybee Road.

"We all play here," Patten said. "We put together a plan to bring together local business people, friends, to buy it and make it successful."

They talked about taking it over for six months before making a final decision, he said.

"It wasn't just a quick purchase," he said. "We had several meetings until the wee hours of the morning, coming up with a business plan."

They formed Tee Time Investments LLC of Clarkston, and made the final purchase in May. Now they're getting ready for the grand opening of Fountains Golf and Banquet.

"There's a lot of water out here - the name fits," Wint said. "We made it our trademark."

They installed a new, 75-foot, state-of-theart fountain in Spring Lake on the grounds, with computer-controlled lights to change its color on command.

"When it's lit up at night, it's absolutely spectacular," Wint said.

"For weddings, we can change the color of the fountain to match the bridal party," Rick said.

They also renovated and improved banquet, golf, and restaurant areas inside, adding six flat-screen televisions, as well as landscaping, and a new covered balcony.

Hutchison Electric wired the fountain and upgraded Fountains' wiring, and Tanner Builders constructed new tables for lounge and restaurant.

'The only way to make this business successful is if you have local, successful business people who understand how to make a business work," said Tom Brown, who owns the family business Waterfall Jewelers

Patten owns 24/7 Limousine; Loridas, Clarkston Roofing; and Wint, Lewis E. Wint and Son Funeral Home. Schmidt is a manufacturer sales representative and Rick Brown is in Business Development with Health Providers Choice.

"We hired a great staff we feel will take us to the next level," Patten said. "We feel our general manager is the best in the business."

Paul Kastran, formerly of Hamlin Pub in Independence Township and Moose Preserve Bar and Grill in Bloomfield Township, will run day-to-day operations in the bar and restaurant, Shotmakers Lounge.

Mark Galbraith, grounds superintendent, returns to the Maybee Road golf course after a five-year absence.

Their plan is to make Fountains the best place for golf, food, entertainment, and banquets in the Clarkston area, Patten said.

"We'll be grilling hamburgers, hot dogs, chicken on our grill every day, whether you are a golfer or not," he said. "Having lunch while overlooking our course and fountain in Spring Lake is an experience that other venues in our area can't offer."

Menu items, greens fees, and banquet hall prices have all been reduced, he said.

"The first thing we did was lower the rates." Loridas said.

"We want to give the community something it deserves - a private country-club setting at public prices," Wint said.

"We want to make this the place to go in Clarkston. That's what we're going to do."

Eighteen holes during the week are $24, on weekends, $25, with an extra $14 if you want a cart. They will offer specials for early bird golfers, as well as seniors and juniors. During music season, they'll have pre- and post-DTE concert specials, 10 percent off food and drink.

Bring in your ticket stubs," Brown said. To run the restaurant, they are bringing in owners and staff of Nina's Comfort Food Cafe, moving from their Sashabaw Road location.

"This is an awesome idea," said Wendy Upcott, who owns and operates the restaurant, which is also family owned. "It's going to be great."

They will continue to offer home-cooked meals from scratch, vegetarian dishes and soups, fresh fruit and vegetable, and the rest of their entree and dessert menu.

"We'll have the same food, and same crew," Upcott said.

The restaurant will feature the Shotmaker's Wall of Fame, featuring golfers in the Shotmakers of the Year Tournament.

Players can compete in four flights: Men; Women: Seniors, 55 and older; and Juniors, 16 and younger.

Player making an exceptional shot during play at Fountains can submit a description of the shot to the pro shop. At the end of each week, the Shot Maker of the Week will be chosen from all the daily entries.

The player's picture and description of the shot will be posted on the Wall of Fame. At the end of each month, a Shot Maker of the Month will be selected from the weekly winners. They will automatically qualify to compete in the Shot Maker of the Year Shoot Out at the end of the season

Weekly and monthly prizes will be awarded and Shot Maker of the Year will win the grand prize and have his or her name and shot added to the Shot Maker of the Year Trophy.

Grand opening will be at the end of June or beginning of July.

"It's going to be a big one," Patten said. "We expect 300-400 people. We'll have grilled hot dogs, hamburgers, brats - it will be a major bash."

For banquet, bar, restaurant, and golf course information, call Fountains Golf and Banquet Center, 6060 Maybee Road, at 248-625-3731 or check their website at www.golfthefountains.com.

Ingrid's outlook A column by Ingrid Sjostrand

Changes keep on coming

With graduation upon us, I am reminded of the miserable 95-degree weather during my Clarkston High School graduation in 2006.

In 2006, the graduating class was around 580 students, which was the largest class to graduate from Clarkston at the time.

The crowd didn't add any comfort to the extreme heat during the ceremony.

This year, the graduating class of 2008 has more than 600 students. I can't imagine how they felt sitting through this year's horrible humidity.

Due to the huge population growth of students, our district has had some trouble finding room for all of them.

In 1999, a new high school was built to accommodate students, the fifth high school Clarkston has had. By the next year, the new school had already reached capacity.

In 2005, freshman and eighth graders moved to a junior high building. This separation was supposed to make the high school less crowded.

But the only difference I noticed was the traditional chant of "go home freshman" was changed to "go home sophomores."

It seems Clarkston schools isn't the only thing changing, though. Our city itself has also expanded. Every time I return home from college, there is a new business opening or new roadwork being done.

The amount of banks and drugstores being added in Clarkston is incredible.

It seems as if every corner has a drugstore or gas station on it and new homes and apartments are rising as well.

A few years ago, Sashabaw Road was expanded to four lanes to control increased traffic flow. This year, the removal of the hill on Sashabaw is hoping to decrease accidents.

Our city is surely growing quickly but will we have the space to accommodate these changes?

Summer intern Ingrid Sjostrand is a junior studying journalism at Grand Valley State University. She is a Clarkston High School graduate.

Dear Editor.

I am proud to be a member of COG, Citizens for Orderly Growth.

From this organization I learned about our local government, particularly the development review process and how I could participate effectively to have a say in how my community develops.

I learned that as a community we could not and should not try to stop development.

I have learned that development, done with a good, consistent plan can create a dynamic community that is at the same time grounded in the community's traditions. I came to understand that the plan, our Master Plan, matters.

I learned this from Neil Wallace as he explained the development review process

Thanks for printing our Dolphin Splash

Dear Editor,

On behalf of the Journalism Club at Springfield Plains Elementary, thank you for publishing our school newspaper, the Dolphin Splash.

The first year we began this club, Don Rush emailed me and asked what The Clarkston News could do to help our club print the Dolphin Splash.

Not only did you help print our school newspaper, but you published it as part of The Clarkston News for the community to enjoy. What a wonderful surprise!

We appreciate the time that Don Rush and others on your staff put into making this happen, as well as the donation of papers to every child in the school. This and the second

means so much to the children and their narents.

On the first day of our club, I explain to the children the process and tell them that it may be in The Clarkston News and the children yell with excitement. Parents and educators appreciate The Clarkston News again providing this opportunity for our students.

This is just one example of your unwavering commitment to our community. Thank you to the publishers of The Clarkston News and its people.

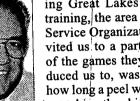

The Clarkston area is truly blessed! Sincerely,

Independence Twp.

Sun., May 18 A 33-year-old Independence Township man called police after discovering someone stole a number of items, including golf disks, sunglasses, cologne and loose change from his unlocked vehicle overnight.

Tues., May 20 A man living in the 2500 block of Mann Road called police after discovering someone threw flour on both his family's vehicles overnight, and also squirted Catalina salad dressing on the front door of his home.

Thurs., May 22 A 51-year-old Holly man filed a police report after discovering someone sawed the catalytic converter off his vehicle while it was parked at the Park and Ride near I-75 and Sashabaw Road.

Police arrested a man in the 5700 block of Berwick Court in connection with a fraud complaint. The man allegedly used bank cards stolen from an Independence Township couple^{*} to purchase several hundred dollars in cigarettes, which he planned to sell so he could buy heroin. The man, who had track marks on both arms and a hypodermic needle in his pocket, told police he's been using the drug for about two years.

Sat., May 24 Police were requesting warrants for possession/use of marijuana, as well as possession of a firearm while under the influence of drugs, after a motorist flagged down a patrol car and told deputies he'd been cut off in traffic by two men smoking marijuana in a van. Deputies located the suspects, who admitted to smoking marijuana in the vehicle—one of the men also told police he had a permit to carry a concealed weapon, and said his gun was under the seat. The firearm was confiscated, and police forwarded a copy of the report to the CCW gun board.

Reports from Clarkston Police, Oakland County Sheriff Deputies and Independence Township Fire Department

Mon., May 26 A 31-year-old woman living in the 5500 block of Parview called police after discovering someone broke the handle on her car door overnight and rummaged through the vehicle. Nothing appeared to be missing from inside.

Thurs., May 29 A 40-year-old woman living in the 4900 block of Oak Park Drive called police to her home after her husband yelled at her for overdrawing the couple's bank account by $700. The woman told deputies she wanted the incident documented.

Fri., May 30 Deputies were dispatched to assist the Independence Township Fire department after an employee at a lawn care service in the 6500 block of Dixie Highway was hurt unloading a new tractor. The employee, a 59-year-old Auburn Hills man, was placed on a back board and transported to the hospital. Police were investigating a home invasion after a 44-year-old man living in the 4600 block of Pinedale Road called to report someone entered his garage—which he'd left open overnight—and stole a loaded handgun from inside his unlocked vehicle. About $126 was also missing from the car.

Sat., May 31 A manager from a fast food restaurant in the 6500 block of Dixie Highway called police after receiving a counterfeit $20 at the drive through window. The window employee told police she asked the man to come in, but said he drove off without his burritos instead.

A 22-year-old Ortonville man was arrested and jailed on drunk driving charges after he was pulled over near Dixie Highway and Maybee Road about 2:50 a.m.

Deputies were dispatched to the 8900 block of Vinewood Avenue after a woman called to report her van had rolled out of the driveway and collided with the neighbors porch while her 4-year-old son was inside. The woman told police she and her husband were cleaning the vehicle, and hadn't noticed the boy climb inside. The child was uninjured, but the woman's husband said he hurt his arm trying to stop the van.

A 70-year-old Independence Township woman living in the 4800 block of Pelton called police after discovering someone stole several items of furniture from a trailer parked outside her home. The woman told police she'd recently purchase the furniture from a discount store.

Sun., June 1 Police were investigating a burglary at a car wash in the 4700 block of Sashabaw Road after an alarm was triggered around 5 a.m. Pry marks were discovered on the door, but the business owner said nothing appeared to be missing.

A man living in the 5800 block of Marshbank called police after returning home to discover someone stole a computer system from his apartment while he was at work. Police noted no forced entry into the unit.

Mon., June 2 A woman called police after she struck a deer while taking a new Jeep for a test drive on Dixie Highway. Deputies put the deer down and gave the woman a complaint number for the dealership.

A 39-year-old man living in the 5500 block of Hummingbird called police after discovering his 2004 Chevy Venture was stolen from the driveway overnight. The man told deputies the keys were accidentally left in the ignition.

A 27-year-old Independence Township. man was arrested and jailed on drunk driving charges after he was pulled over near Maybee Road and Heath Avenue around 1:45 a.m.

Runners find success at county meet

BY WENDI REARDON

Clarkston News Sports Writer Five members of the boys track team became champions in the biggest county meet in the state. The boys from Clarkston Junior High School worked together to beat Avondale Middle by one point to take first-place honors. They earned 62 points in the Oakland County seventh and eighth grade meet, May 29.

The champions were Matt Wright, Adam Bruderick, John Redman, Grant Huber, and Spenser Pawlik.

"They really came together as a team," said boys coach Mike Greve. "Their times were unbelievable and were better than all year."

Not all the boys were able to perform in their regular events, but they understood what to do to help the team, said Greve.

Wright threw 41-feet, 6-inches in his shot put event, beating Oxford Middle School by less than a foot. Bruderick ran 2:06.66 in the 800 meter run.

Redman, Huber, Pawlik, and Bruderick took first place in the 3,200meter relay.

The girls' teams from Clarkston Junior High and Sashabaw Middle School also placed during the day.

Clarkston Junior High took 13th place with 20 points and Sashabaw Middle School took 31st place with two points.

"They had a lot of good distance events that will help cross country next year," said girls track Coach Jamie Ryske.

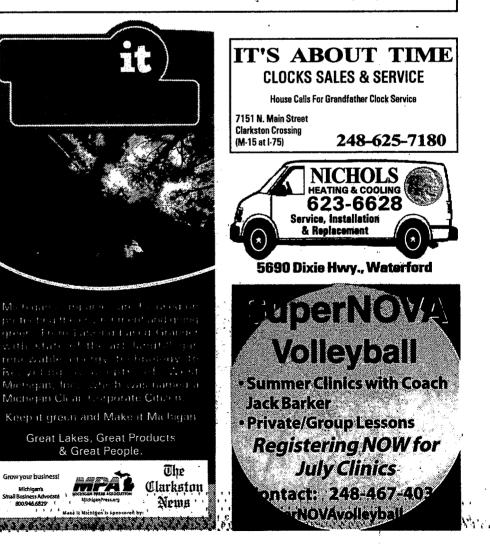

He noted the girls team works hard every year, and this year he saw more of the same.

"They worked hard and competed all season long," said Ryske.

Both teams ended their regular season with an undefeated record of 8-0.

More than 40 schools competed in the 23rd Oakland County meet at Clarkston High School, with more then 1,000 athletes competing.

Commencement speeches were presented by Superintendent Dr. Albert Brooks and President of Clarkston Board of Education Stephen Hyer.

Six seniors received scholarships:

Baker College Scholarships were awarded to Kelli Monroe, Merrissa Hoffman, and Stevie Morgan;

Gayle Whitener and Morgan received scholarships from Clarkston Coalition for Youth:

Optimist Scholarships were given to Hoffman and Whitener; and

Hoffman, Whitener, Danielle Schomer and Kevin Oakley earned Challenge Scholarships from Clarkston Rotary Club. Schomer and Oakley will use the money to attend Oakland Community College. Whitener said she plans to go to University of Michigan-Flint and become the first in her family to attend college. Hoffman will put the scholarship funds towards Baker College.

A few seniors spoke about their experiences at Renaissance before everyone accepted their diplomas.

"Renaissance was the best thing to happen to me," said Hoffman. "Everyone I met changed my life in a positive way."

Schomer added congratulations to her classmates.

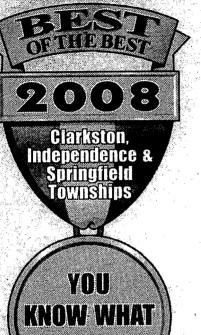

"We know we can do anything. Congrats! We finally made it!"

Take us out to the ball park

BY WENDI REARDON

Clarkston News Sports Writer The summer kicked off with Independence Township Parks and Recreation Opening Day of Youth

Baseball and Softball. It was a big ceremony as 83 teams walked in a parade from the soccer fields to the ballpark. James Seaton, a student at Clarkston Junior High School, played "The Star Spangled Banner" on his electric guitar after all of the teams gathered on the field.

Dr. James O'Neill stood on the pitcher's mound and threw out the first ball of the season to his son, Dr. Tim O'Neill, on the home plate.

Many of the teams played their first games after the ceremony. "Our team did an excellent job," said Coach Greg Nygaard about his T-Ball team's first day.

"Every kid on our team hit the ball very well."

Local businesses sponsor each team playing.

The teams play every weekday evening except Fridays.

Games will be played all over the Clarkston area at different sites. Clintonwood Park, Sashabaw Plains Park, Sashabaw Middle School, Pine Knob Elementary, and Clarkston High School through the end of July.

Athlete of the Week Johns takes home All-State honors

BY WENDI REARDON

Clarkston News Sports Writer Junior Dana Johns became a pole-vaulter for the girls varsity track team by a twist of fate.

Her best friend was going to do it freshman year, but choose not to. Johns, who was taught by her how to pole vault, stepped up and said she would do it.

"I went for support and ended up doing it," said Johns.

That led her to placing eighth place in her event with 10-feet and 6-inches in the state meet, May 31, She came home as the first All-State pole-vaulter for Clarkston. "It's been very exciting," said Johns. "I'm very happy." "She really did some impressive things in pole vaulting towards the end of the year," said Clarkston girls varsity track coach John Yorke. "She worked really hard for three years." She was the regional champion last year. She took first place with nine feet – four inches lower than her competition from Holly. Prior to being a pole vaulter. she ran track.

She began running in seventh grade and got in-

- volved in track in middle school. "I like to run really fast. It's fun," said John. "Pole
- vault is more fun." Her training includes drills, weight-lifting, and
- sprint workouts. Johns does not see a lot of competition in her event at Oakland Athletic Association league meets, because the OAA doesn't include the event.

She saw competitors in Oakland County and state meets. It gave her a chance to see what other pole vaulters are doing.

Johns advises aspiring athletes to never give up. Her original pole vault coach moved and Johns wanted to give up because of it. "But I didn't," she said.

Her goal is to continue to pole vault in college as she studies to be an elementary teacher.

Blue team kick their way to first place at Westlake Invitational

BY WENDI REARDON

Clarkston News Sports Writer

Clarkston Select Soccer Club's Impact 97 Blue team took home the 11U championship from the Westlake Invitational.

"I thought they played pretty well," said Coach Rean Turner about the team's performance during the Memoriai Day weekend tournament.

The boys shut out Hudson United in their first game of the tournament, 6-0.

The next two games ended in a tie for the boys. Against the Avon Eagles no team was able to score a goal.

Their next game against Avon Lake would determine if the boys would go on to the championship round or end the tournament.

They were tied 2-2 at the end of the game. The boys kicked in a shootout to determine the winner.

Spencer Wineman scored the winning goal to take the team to the finals.

The boys finished the championship game with Sylvania United with a one point lead to take first place in the White Division.

Wineman scored the winning goal in next division level.

He received the honor of Most Valuable Player for the tournament. Goalies Andrew Reid and Cary Wilson only allowed one goal into the net before their game against Avon Lake. It was the second tournament the team has won. They won the Gaylord Alpine Soccer Stampede last fall. The boys took first place in the Michigan Youth Soccer League white division in the fall season. The placement landed them in the red division for their spring play. They ended the season the last weekend of May with two wins over teams from Fraser.

They proved they could handle a higher division by taking second place and ending their season with a division record, 7-2-1.

They lost two games to the first place team.

The team's two losses were from when they played the first place team. "They are coming along and playing well," said Turner. Next season the team will play at the next division level.

The township board voted unanimously to approve up to $750,000 for the project.

"Chief Ronk has shown extraordinary leadership and vision in making this a reality for the citizens of Oakland County," said Julie Secontine, Oakland County risk manager. "The Independence Township Board has now demonstrated or mirrored that same extraordinary leadership and vision."

Ronk hopes to add two more buildings to the property: a training center and a classroom for high school students exploring fire or EMS services for a career.

"We're not done with it," he said. "We'll leave the space available.

TWO-STORY ROOMS AND WINDOWS - A DESIGN CHALLENGE

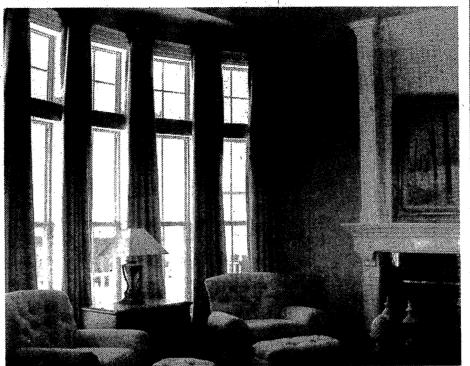

While the architecture of the newer homes in our area is beautiful and gracious. the two-story great rooms and soaring windows present some unique decorating challenges. Those large open rooms often appear cold and empty. Sounds often echo through the house. How can we soften the noise factor? How will we arrange furniture in an attractive and functional way? How large should the furniture be? How many pieces? What colors, fabrics and textures will most suit our lifestyle and enhance the architectural details?

The creation of a warm and inviting atmosphere in these spacious homes is difficult. Many of us are so intimidated by the decorating decisions that need to be made, we simply avoid making any decisions at all. Our houses are left unfinished and often completely lack the ambiance that had been envisioned when the house was bought.

Drapery, wallpaper and well chosen furnishings add to the charm and value of a home. Home "Staging" for sale is becoming a big business in this buyer's market. It is rather surprising that people will wait until their house is for sale before it is given decorating attention. Wouldn't it make more sense to decorate as soon as possible and enjoy living in a beautiful, practical home?

An experienced Interior designer will not only design the proper floor plan and window treatments, but will also help to establish a budget. A professional designer will help to choose furnishings that are the price and the quality you want to live with. Mary Lujan, head designer at HEP-PLEWHITE'S interiors on Main Street in downtown Rochester always suggests a budget for a decorating project. "I feel that beginning a decorating job without detailed drawings and an estimate for the cost is like starting to build a house without a blueprint or a price." Her partner, daughter Rebecca Stoitsiadis agrees, She adds, "We request a budget from our clients - not to spend every penny available - but to help establish guidelines for the project. We sincerely believe we provide the most comprehensive design available and we are experienced in setting and keeping budgets." Mary and Rebecca are personally involved in every project, no matter how large or small. They accompany each design consultant on home visits and are responsible for all drawings and presentations.

Furniture selection is only one step of many in creating your beautiful home. It takes a comprehensive interior design plan, including accurate measurements and precision drawings.

Paint, wallpaper, window treatments, rugs and accessories are also necessary components of a finished room. Our skilled design team will help you pull together an elegant design that suits your needs and lifestyle, as well as the architecture of the home. We blend together all of these elements and products to create the environment that was envisioned when the dream house was purchased.

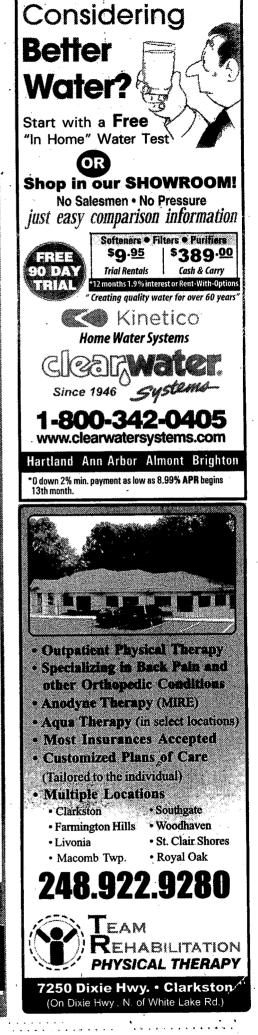

Our initial in-home design consultation starts at a mere $200.00 and includes:

Teacher does more than teach art

BY LAURA COLVIN

Clarkston News Staff Writer Totally overwhelmed and flabbergasted.

Those were the words Clarkston Junior High School art teacher Claudia Keglovitz used to describe her reaction to learning she'd been selected 2008 Teacher of the Year.

The honor—bestowed annually since 1993 by the Clarkston Foundation for Public Education—was set up to recognize outstanding teachers within the Clarkston Community School District.

The organization, which until recently was known as the Clarkston Foundation, accepts nominations each year for teachers in predetermined, rotating categories.

This year, five finalists were selected from a pool of about 15 nominees in "specialty areas" such as music, physical education, art and special education.

All nominees received classroom grants from the foundation, as well as gift certificates from local businesses.

The winner, in addition, had the opportunity to drive off the lot at Suburban Ford of Waterford with a new car—free for one year.

Keglovitz said she never expected to win.

"All the teachers who were up there with me are so deserving," she said. "I felt honored just to come to the breakfast and be a part of a group like that."

But with 20 years teaching experience behind her—14 in Clarkston's middle and junior high schools—those who nominated Keglovitz were more than happy to paint a picture of her dedication and deservedness.

"She's an incredible art teacher," said CJHS Principal Shawn Ryan. "But she doesn't just teach her subject matter—she really has a passion for working with kids, and a passion for education as a whole."

Ryan said Keglovitz makes a practice of working with teachers across the curriculum as she looks for ways to incorporate other subjects—science, history and math, for example—into unique projects to challenge her students.

"She really has insight into the big picture of education," he said. "Kids in her classes are positive and proud of what they do, and very supportive of one another. You don't go into her classroom and get the feeling there's any one best artist."

Instead, he explained, students are encouraged to create works that express personality and personal creativity.

Ryan also said Keglovitz is seen as a "cheerleader" for the adults around the school, and whether a staff member is experiencing a difficult time, or celebrating happy news, she has the "uncanny ability" to make sure everyone feels supported.

"She's a tremendous asset to our school, and to the whole district," Ryan said.

And the kids like her, too.

"She's really laid back," said ninth-grader Emalee Harding. "She doesn't stress you out and she's really easy to talk to. She makes you want to be in her class."

Across the table, working on a final art project, fellow ninth-grader Alex Byrd agreed.

"She's someone you can go to," Byrd said. "She's a nice person. She's always bubbly and happy."

Keglovitz founded the school Art Club, which is now in its fifth year and run with student direction. This year, projects involving clay, Indian ink, and calligraphy were popular with the 35-member club.

In May, a grant from the school PTA allowed her to take the club, along with her advanced art class, on a field trip to the Detroit Institute of Arts in downtown Detroit.

Keglovitz also runs the district's summer Art Camp, and volunteers for community youth in several capacities.

The kids of the community are important—they're the reason she does what she does.

"I feel as if I have a huge responsibility to be a role model, a good citizen and someone who cares," she said. "And I do—I care deeply about each of my kids and their success."

In her classroom, Keglovitz wants her students, each and ev-Please see Award on page 7B

Mason Jennings joins Jack Johnson and Money Mark in concert June 18 at DTE Energy Music Theater, 7774 Sashabaw Road.

Jennings writes and performs music from the heart, stripped down and timeless, he said.

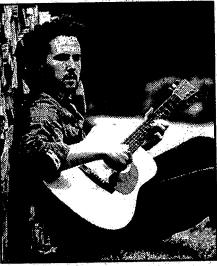

His new album, "In the Ever," was inspired by the music of Leadbelly, Mississippi John Hurt, Hank Williams, Johnny Cash, and Led Zeppelin, as well as his spiritual beliefs. Its title comes from his son, who talked about where he was before he was born, when he was "in the ever."

"The fun thing is to spin situations, create all kinds of visuals," he said. "Like in the song 'Your New Man,' the idea came from a break up with a girlfriend, who then goes out with someone else. It took an hour to put down the words, but my whole life

Wed., June 11, 2008 The Clarkston (MI) News 3 B New York singer coming home for one show

BYPHILCUSTODIO

Clarkston News Editor Growing up, Todd Alsup's parents paid for music lessons of all sorts, piano, singing.

He's putting them to use, as a New York based recording artist.

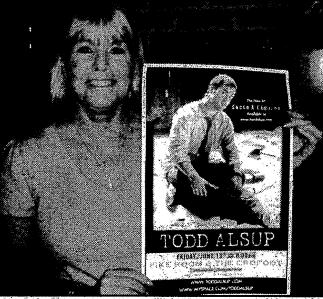

"He started being musically inclined when he was about 5- all his school teachers said he was musically talented," said his mother, Linda Mosier, of Independence Township.

"He started writing his own songs when he was about 6 or 7, deep songs. Love songs. Very emotional songs."

"I was born with a deep passion for music - I felt the need to make music from as young as I can remember," Alsup said.

He received a recognition letter from Gov. James Blanchard for a song about Michigan he wrote commemorating the nation's bicentennial.

As a student in Waterford, he performed in talent shows, stage musi- New York City when he was about cals, drama, jazz band, choir, madri- 10," Mosier said. "We went to three gals. At Oakland University, he performed with Interlakes Conservatory Academy Singers.

But his dream was to perform in New York City, she said.

"I took him on a whirlwind tour of plays, toured the city, lunch at the World Trade Center - it inspired him."

"I always knew New York was the place for me," Alsup said. "I like the vibe. New York was the right fit for me - big, loud, and shiny." That's how he creates music, he said. "A lot of artists need a quiet space

Todd Alsup, who grew up in Waterford, makes music in New York.

to work." he said. "For me. I'm the opposite. I need mayhem. I walk on a busy street, the sound makes a big whirlwind in my head - that's how I create songs."

He earned a scholarship to New York University, and has traveled around the world with his music.

"He worked hard, took 3-4 jobs to pay for school - it's so expensive there," she said.

"I've always been very proud of him. He sets goals and works hard to attain them. He knows what he wants and goes after it."

He is coming home this Friday, June 13, to perform at the Pike Room in the Crofoot, Pontiac, with singer Beth Stalker, also a native of the Clarkston area, a trip he's looking forward to

"It's really amazing - there's a huge group of supporters there. My family is there," he said. "They spread the word. They're my best publicity team."

His parents, teachers, family, and friends have always be supportive, he said.

"The biggest thing he'd like to say to them is thank you," he said. "They made me who I am. They nurtured my music, pushed me to go after what I wanted. Many people who are interested in the arts are discouraged - that was never the case for me."

The Crofoot concert, 1 South Saginaw, is set for 8 p.m., June 13. For more information, check www.toddalsup.com.

Milestones

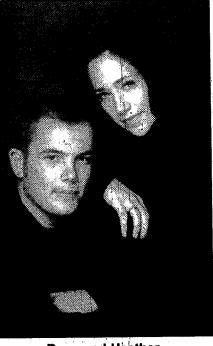

Chojnowski - Rose

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Chojnowski of Clarkston, and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Rose, also of Clarkston, are pleased to announce the engagement of their children, Heather Nicole Chojnowski and Beau Robert Rose.

An August wedding is planned. Heather is a 2003 graduate of Clarkston High School and a 2007 graduate of Oakland University. She has recently signed a contract to dance with Modern American Dance Company in St. Louis, Missouri.

Beau is a 2003 graduate of Clarkston High School and is currently employed at Saturn of Clarkston. He will begin his Navy career in September.

Local grandparents are Billy and Gloria Rose of Clarkston and Judy and the late Robert Taylor of Clarkston.

Religion God gives example for grads

For graduates everywhere, this is an exciting season of always be there for me.

celebration and many transitions. It is a time to anticipate the future as well as reflect on the past. It is a time to experience the satisfaction of accomplishment and yet it is also an occasion of loss of the familiar. Above all, things change upon graduation and there is an abundance of advice from many sources about life and how to live it.

Of all the wise and helpful words that can be shared at graduation time, I believe there is none more basic and none more easily forgotten in the busyness of life, than something I learned even before I completed kindergarten.

You probably even know the song. It goes like this, "Jesus loves me this I know ... " I am loved and accepted by God no matter what career path I take; no matter how much I achieve or how much money I make; no matter if I go to college or go to work; no matter who I marry or if I marry.

These simple words, "Jesus loves me this I know ... assure me that God will love and forgive me no matter what mistakes I make along the journey of life.

And above all, they let me know that God desires to have a loving relationship with me. God is faithful and will

When I base my life on this fundamental trust in God's goodness and grace I am free from having to always prove my basic worth and value as a person. I am free to mold my life around God's will and purpose, and to follow Jesus' example.

I am free to do everything I can to grow in love towards God and others (see the Great Commandment in Mark 12:28-31). I am free to try new things and to fail and learn and be all that I can be.

And the best news of all is that I am free to do this not so God will love and accept me, but because of it.

God never promises we will have an easy life if we stay close to him and follow his way, but he does promise that our life will have purpose and depth, and that we will not be alone. That is enough for me.

Recently I shared with the graduates at Calvary Lutheran a word of blessing and challenge. I have adapted it from something I found called simply "A Franciscan Blessing."

For me it captures what is different about a life lived with and for Jesus. It is about so much more than just being religious.

It is a different way of going about life that goes deeper. It is not the easy way, but I believe it is God's way and I

B 6 Wed., June 11, 2008 The Clarkston (MI) News Picture perfect: It's your time at Ron Smith Photography sual, fun atmosphere-

Ron Smith's passion for photography shows from every wall in his studio.

Out front, senior portraits push beyond the standard, stiff grins and reveal a student's true personality; a display of traditional and candid wedding shots capture the flood of emotion before, during and after the ceremony.

For Smith, in his fifth year in the studio's current location, a successful career as a professional photographer is nothing short of a dream come true.

"I couldn't have done it without the support I've received from the people of Clarkston," he said.

"Word of mouth is absolutely the best advertising, and I'm extremely grateful for it."

Smith's success comes first, of course, from his talent and skill as a photographer.

But, he said, high-quality customer service comes standard, too.

Smith knows today's customers are sophisticated shoppers who research and make comparisons, and he's worked hard to earn loyalty and trust in the community.

For example, Smith is committed to providing every single client with quality pictures at a fair price-period.

"I don't play games with people," he said. "They have a right to know, up front, what the costs are."

It's for that reason, he said, a published copy of his price list available both instudio and on his website

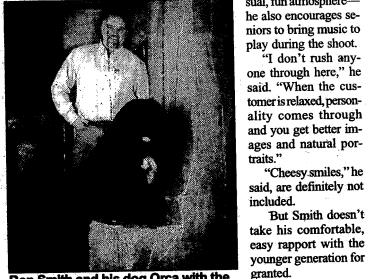

And, a recent website update allows busy customers to view his calendar, set an appointment and receive immediate online confirmation. The website also features a number of galleries showcasing Smith's wedding and senior photography. For seniors, Smith spares no expense equipping his studio with cool backdrops, unique props, photo-enhancing software and state-of-the-art equipment.

But he encourages students to bring personal items as well-athletic equipment, musical instruments, anything that says 'this is who I am.'

Smith also provides all-inclusive prices, parent albums and proofs with his wedding packages, and encourages couples to schedule a consultation.

"I'll do the traditional shots like the cake cutting and the first dance, of course," he said.

"But there's also the creative aspect and the romantic poses to think about. I don't ever use a predetermined form-I want to find out what your desires are."

But while professional photography is Smith's passion, it's also his career.

"I don't do this part-time from home with a bunch of other projects going," he said. "This is my fulltime profession."

Smith also attends at least one conference every year and makes a point of networking with other photographers, keeping up with the industry and staying on top of trends.

It's a long, long way from his days as a corporate-America project manager.

"Today, I can work a 15 hour day and the time just flies," he said. "I'm not stressed, there's no grind. It never feels like work-it's always fim.'

Curious? Smith is planning a spring open house, where he'll offer specials for early booking. Want some free Tiger tickets? He'll have those too.

Ron Smith Photography is located at 7044 Gateway Park Dr. on the corner of Andersonville and White Lake Road. Hours vary, but Smith is always available by appointment.

ery one, to feel relaxed and safe from the sometimes difficult adolescent experience, and she works to create a positive, productive environment.

And her approach seems successful—as she helps one student with a project, Keglovitz chats with another about a dance class. One after one, the kids approach with a barrage of questions about the upcoming final, about their projects, about whether or not they're allowed in the school courtyard to work on "direct observation" drawing.

As lunchtime approaches, one young man wonders if she has change for a five.

She thinks she does.

The kids are obviously comfortable with her, and they are obviously her priority.

"Most days they're mature, caring and fun," she said. "Their sense of humor is endless—there's never a dull moment working with teenagers."

And while she enjoys working with junior high-age kids, she also enjoys working at Clarkston Junior High School, where, she said, teachers, administrators and staff treat one another with respect and are often looking for ways to help one another and work together on problems or projects.

In fact, she said, her Teacher of the Year award is a reflection on the "positive environment" at CJHS.

"(Principal) Shawn Ryan is so incredibly supportive of the art program," she said. "He's an excellent leader for our school."

Support from administration, she said, makes a big difference to the projects and programs she's able to offer students.

And to her, those programs and project are important for the kids.

"It's absolutely critical for kids to have an art experience, whether it's visual art, music, drama or some other form," she said. "The whole idea is to produce a well-rounded individual with heart, character and the sense of joy and creativity."

According to Sherrie VanderVeen, past president and this year's Teacher of the Year Chairperson for the Clarkston Foundation for Public Education, Keglovitz was just the kind of theacher the group was looking for.

"Ultimately, we have to choose that one teacher that best exemplifies what's great about teaching," VanderVeen said. "We look for those who are just so passionate about what they do that they help students develop a love of learning."

This year, she said, choosing a winner from five finalists was anything but easy.

"It was difficult choice," she explained. "Any one of them could have been Teacher of the Year. They were all exceptional."

Claudia Keglovitz helps a student.

Previously, the foundation notified recipients before the award reception.

This year, however, winners and well-wishers alike were held in suspense until the June 3 breakfast at the Fountains Golf and Banquet Center.

For Keglovitz, the attention was a bit overwhelming.

"I don't mind being a star in my own classroom and making a fool out of myself in front of the kids," she said. "But out in the community, that's different. I work with so many great people who deserve this. I'm very honored."

Keglovitz also wanted to express gratitude for support from the Clarkston Foundation for Public Education.

In a grant unrelated to her June 3 award, Keglovitz and fellow art teacher Dawn Gimbutis recently received an $800 grant for clay, glaze and other supplies, which was used for pottery making as students studied Mayan culture in a cross-curriculum project.

Although Keglovitz has what she calls a "dinky" studio in her Springfield Township home, where she enjoys creating her own art working in mixed media, a fulltime career, family and a number of other community activities don't allow much extra time.

She and her husband, Jim, an Oakland County planner, have been married for 21 years. Their son, Clay, is a sophomore at Clarkston High School.

Peruvian artist comes to Clarkston, answers questions

By Noah Peterson, 5th grade and Joshua Peterson, 3rd grade

Our Grandpa works at Columbiere Center where he isfriends with Father Ben Morin. Father Ben's godson is aman named Juan Carlos Zeballos and he is an artist from Peru, where Father Ben lived for many years. Juan Carlos wanted to visit Father Ben because he has not seen him in a longtime.

With our Grandpa's help, Juan Carlos was invited to the United States for a gallery showing of his paintings. His art work is on display at the Ariana Gallery in Royal Oak. He is also visiting other galleries in the U.S. while he is here. Juan Carlos had dinner with us at our Grandparents house where we interviewed him. His first language is Spanish but he is learning a lot of English while he is visiting the United States. We feel privileged to have him as our new friend.

Q: Is the Spanish in Mexico different than your Peruvian Spanish?

A: The Spanish in Peru is more like the Spanish that is spoken in Spain. In Mexico they have many different words.

Q: At what age do you attend school in Peru?

Mrs. Mendieta spent her summer in Mexico

By Samantha Bitzer and Hanna Bullard, 5th grade

Our teacher is Mrs. Mendieta. She spent last summer in Mexico and speaks fluent Spanish. Yet we had a lot to learn about our teacher. So we asked her some questions.

First we asked her, "What made you want to start teaching?" She answered, "I've always loved school and had many great teachers that I wanted to be just like them when I grew up. My 2nd grade teacher, Mrs. Ash, was my favorite."

Next, we asked her what other jobs she considered being? She answered: "I love learning about other cultures, so I often thought about being a flight attendant.

Then we asked her what her favorite summer vacation was. She answered, "Last summer, my family went to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico for 5 weeks. I went to the University of Guadalajara to learn Spanish, and became somewhat fluent!

I enjoyed spending all that time with my family, and decided to go to a new destination every year for five weeks."

We asked, "Did you play any sports in college or high school and what?" She replied, "I played basketball, tennis, and ran track in high school. In college, I ran track and went to the recreation center for all kinds of sports."

Next, we asked her, "Was your first job as a teacher? Ifyes, where was it?" She answered, "Yes, I taught at a private school in Southfield. It was 1st, 2nd, and 3rd all in one class. I also was in charge of the before and after school day care programs and lunch with the kids too!"

Next we asked her, "What was your favorite roller coaster ride you ever went on." She answered, "My favorite ride is the Millennium Force at Cedar Point. I rode on it with my dad and I have a great picture to prove it!"

"Man, I'd love to see that picture," we said. Then, we asked her, "What is your favorite kind of cake, and why?" She answered, "My favorite kind of cake is anything from Sam's Club, because it has a mousse filling in the center."

"Mmm... sounds good!" Next, we asked her, "Do you like American or Mexican food better?" She answered, "I like both. My favorite Mexican foods opesopes, which are like little pizzas withbeans, chicken and salsa on top. My favorite Americanfood is ham."

For our last question we asked her, "What was one of the funniest days of your life?" She answered, "When Iwas in fourth grade my friend said something funny atlunch. I laughed so hard milk came out my nose."

Well, that concludes our interview. We learned a lotabout our teacher, from her favorite cake to her favoriteroller coaster. Thanks, Mrs. Mendieta. We think you'rereally great!

A Good Memory of Tiger History

By Josh Peterson, 3rd grade and Jordan Oliverio, 5th grade Hello Detroit Fansl

This season has not been a good start for the Detroit Tigers. But, let's go back to some good memories from the Detroit Tigers memorable day of June 12, 2007. Justin Verlander is on the mound starting a normal game. As the game went on, it was nota normal game at all. Verlander struck out 12 batters against the Milwaukee Brewers and four batters in the fifth inning. Verlander was the first Tiger to pitch a no hitter at Comerica Park. Jack Morris was the last Tiger to get a no hitter at Tiger Stadium against the White Sox. We are looking forward to a good season.

You, your world and the future

By Taylor J. McCallum, 4th grade Hi, I'm Taylor J. McCallum of Springfield Plains Elementary. My friends and I are in a GWC club. GWC is short for Global Warming Club. It's about trying to find ways to prevent Global Warming. Anyone can join this club. People of any age can be in the Global Warming Club. It is very important for kids to know !! It is important for children to know so they can help make global warming one of the things that will NEVER happen! All kids can help. You can help by ... picking up trash, recycling, and reusing old papers your about to throw away, save water and much, much, more!! Also, not just kids, anyone at any age!! Most people say global warming doesn't exist. I'd like to say something to the people that don't believe it. You don't have to help our earth, but everyone else really needs you. We all need YOUR help!" As soon as you read this, you can go out and start right at this moment! Hurry! Time is ticking away! You can start out small and pick up trash. Then, you can get bigger, and tell lots of people about it. You can get even bigger by looking it up and learning more info about it, and the causes. So, you can spend your weekend watching Spongebob Squarepants, or you can go out to find even MORE information on global warming. Once you think you have all the info you need, go out and work on actually doing it! Every person counts! We need your help and support to SAVE LIVES!!!! If you have a bit of trouble finding the right info you need, you can Google global Warming on-line. You can also check a library/media center at your school, or a local library for a book about it. There are SO many ways to help. You aren't helping me, or my friends, or your community. You are helping the WORLD, AND YOUR FU-TURE IN IT!

Sixteen simple ways to help save Earth

By Julia Michaels Stebbins, 4th grade

Hi, my name is Julia Michaels Stebbins and I am goingto tell you some simple ways you can help save theearth: 1. Bring a bag for trash when you go on walks, don'tlitter. 2. Turn out lights when nobody is in the room. 3. Don't throw clothes in the washer that are clean. 4. I know this may sound a little awkward but, eat the food your mom makes because the food your mom warms up is made in a factory which produces a lot of gas that is bad for the earth. 5. Recycle every bit of paper that you can.

6. Recycle every bit of glass, soda cans, and plasticbottles that you can.

7. Don't watch a lot of T.V.! 8. Recycle any thing that has a 1 or 2 inside a recycle sign.

9. Use backs of paper when you make a mistake or erase.

- 14. Plant trees to help keep the air clean.

15. Use solar energy to heat and light your house.

16. Your next car purchase can be a special car that usesless gas

White water rafting on the Pigeon River

By Jordan Oliverio, 5th grade and Kelsey Oliverio, 4th grade

Our family went white water rafting on the Pigeon River in Tennessee. It was a warm spring day. The air was cool, but the water was freezing.

Before we got in the boat we put on wet suits, helmet, life jacket, and brought a paddle.

We sat in the rubber raft. There were seven passengers and the guide in the raft. Two people sat in each row. We had to paddle a little to get going. Soon we came to a rapid. We tucked our feet under the seats in front of us. We twisted and turned.

We went over rocks. The water was splashing all over us. We got soaked. We were wet and cold. When we went down everyone was screaming.

After we went over a rapid we floated down and continued along the river. Throughout the five miles

Be good to your hamster, they will be good to you

By Emilie O'Neill, 3rd grade

Do you like hamsters?

I mean, hamsters are so cool! If you think that taking care of hamsters is easy, like most people do, let me tell you something, it's not all that easy. Well, to tell you the truth, it's a lot of hard work. And guess why? Because, if you want your hamster to stop biting people like crazy, you will have to teach it which takes a lot of hard work and a very long time.

Here are a few facts about hamsters. Hamsters have special diets. Their diets include corn, seeds, fruit, and so much more. If a hamster were in its original habitat that it there were seven rapids.

It was really fun. We recommend doing this on a warmer summer day though.

would be in a desert? Hamster's actions depend on what type of hamster it is, and what has happened to that hamster in the past.

It is very important that you keep your hamster safe, healthy, and sound because hamsters can be dropped or get hurt very badly. If your hamster is hurt, it is super important that you get either him or her to a veterinarian.

Also, do not put a hamster's cage near any sort of heat for too long! It's just that hamsters don't like heat, or badthings can come upon your hamster. Be good to your hamster and they will be good to you.

Chess tactics -- control the center By brian Gil -4th grad.

When payme chess, you need to develop an attack, It's a more strategic principle to control the center of the board. This was general the game. The most car, more more the sectors they, control more space and the collar interact they. For example, one have controls 2 squares? Two haveas control 4 squares.

The pieces control name squares because the more squares is controls, the more powerful the piece is. For example, the knight controls 8 squares when it scentralized thakinght's in the center, it can go everywhere. Your opponent won't be able to develop an attack. He may delay castling or develop the pieces on the edge of the board. He might move the same pieces twice, which may be an error. I hope you now realize the importance of controlling the center. The pieces are mobile, they control more squares, and your opponent won't develop his/her attack. If you control the center, you will win the game!

Healthy foods for gymnasts

By Harley Barnowski, 3rd grade

Eating and drinking the right things while you're i ngymnastics or any sport is important. I am in gymnastics and I wondered what are the right things for me to eat and drink to help me be a better gymnast

Here are some things that I learned.

Why is water the most important factor in sports nutrition? Because water makes up approximately 60% of body weight and is involved in almost every body process. Your body cannot make water, so you must drink it. Everyone should drink at least 2 quarts of water each day. Drink plenty of water before, during, and aftersports events to stay healthy.

Some other healthy drinks are 100% juice drinks and milk, for strong bones. Here are some healthy foods that are high in carbohydrates that you should eat to stay healthy: fruits, such as apples, bananas, pears, grapes, watermelon, strawberry, oranges, and any kinds of berries!

Maybe you could try some vegetables, such as: lettuce, carrots, tomatoes, and corn. Here are some healthy foods that are high in protein: Poultry, eggs, nuts, dairy products, meat, beans, nuts, and other foods.

Keeping your body healthy will help to have the energy needed to be in gymnastics or any sport. I hope this article helps you

What I like about school

By Ethen McMichael, 3rd grade

One thing I like about school is all of the friends at Springfield Plains Elementary (S.P.E.). It wouldn't be turi if there were no friends. Friends are the most important thing in the world \neg friend should always care for you. They should not hurt your feelings.

Teachers are also important. I magine all of the teachers being mean too you. Wonidn't that be sad? I think as ould be weird. No one wolf by wain to go to school. However, I think our teachers a S.P.F. are very nice.

The third one is lunch. Lunch is a healthy snack at noon. Lunch is when you get to chit-chat with your friet ds. Lunch can be good or bad. I really hate ravioli. Otherwise. LUNCH IS AWESOME!

BOOK ORDERS! BOOK ORDERS! I love the bookorders. I just got Book of World Records Ultimate Quiz Challenge. I found out that 85% of the brain is water. YEA! Kids are fun and, well, not to be mean, but some kids are mean. Some kids just get annoying. But, mostly, kids at S.P.E. are nice. Kids rule!

By Delana Palmer, 3rd grade Do you know enough to be a horse know-it-all?

I have read books and read about them on the computer. Did you know that horses run 40 miles per hour? Also, strong winds mess with horses smell.

Horses have special touches. How might, you ask? Well, because of their mood. Horses' moods depend on what they feel like. You can touch their body and lookat their face. This will help you see what their mood is like.

For example, horses will let you ride them only if they want to. That's all for now, thanks for reading.

5. Cats like to climb on the refrigerator because they think they are watching over their "kingdom."

I have four cats of my own. Two of them are gray. They are twins named Foggy and Mister. We also have two cats named Sasha and Emily. Here are some stories about my cats.

Sasha and Emily hate it when we go for vacation. That explains that cats love their owners and they are loyal animals.

The next story is that Foggy had dipped his tail in water because he was so distracted at looking out the window! He loves looking outside. He can't wait until he can go on a leash.

Another funny story is when we used to think Mister was a girl so his name use to be Misty but then we found out he was a boy and changed his name to Mister.

Foggy and Mister were strays and we took care of the litter. All my cats were strays. You can get cats at your local animal shelter. And remember ... cats rule!

By Kelsey Oliverio, 4th grade Lots of kids and adults are asking, what is a Webkinz? A Webkinz is a stuffed animal that comes with a secret code. You enter the code into the computer. You log it in at the adoption center. You pick a name, and then you log in the code.

After, you can go to your pet's room and start the decorating! There are more than 70 different kinds of Webkinz!

You know it's a Webkinz if they have a "W" on the bottom of their foot. I can't believe how popular they are because they don't even advertise. I guess people just keep telling each other and it keeps on spreading.

There are tons of things to do on Webkinz. For example, you can go to the "W" shop to buy clothes, food, toys, and more. You can go to the arcade and play games to earn money.

You can also go to the tournament ful world of Webkinz.

Sea turtles are in trouble from pollution

By Hanna Bullard, 5th grade

I am very concerned about our sea turtles.

They are endangered because humans are being careless. A lot of associations are trying to save them. Recently, I was watching a show on sea turtles and I heard that people in some countries are still hunting sea turtles for their flesh and eggs.

Isn't that horrible?

Many turtles die today from getting caught in the fishermen's net and drowning. Also, when they store their eggs on beaches humans unknowingly destroy their eggs. Sea turtles usually lay their eggs in the summer, mostly on the Florida beaches.

They are also dieing because people are polluting the water because humans are throwing trash in the water. Turtles will think they are jellyfish, eat them and washup on shore and die because they have to go in the water.

Animals are Heroes

Most people don't realize that a lot of animals are heroes. I did some research and I found some stories about animals saving peoples' lives. Here is a great story about a group of homeless dogs saving a baby. One cold spring evening a group of hungry dogs were looking for some food. They came across an alley and found a baby on top of rubbish. They had never seen a human baby before.

The search for food stopped that very moment. There were many dangers in the dump and not a safe place for a baby to be. The dogs kept the baby warm all night. Then, in the morning, a lady came and the dogs let the women take her to a safe place.

Now there is a wonderful reason why animals are heroes. I'm sure you could find more stories about why animals are heroes.

They can't swim because it sends a shock to their legs. So please help these animals by not doing the things I said in my informational text.

You can make a difference. You can help by cleaning up the beaches. If you see trash, pick it up. Do not dump any pop or other liquids in the water. Those are some ways that you can help, so please help me save them.

Havenese puppies

By Samantha Bitzer, 5th grade

Hello! My name is Samantha Bitzer. Almost a year ago my family adopted a Havenese puppy. We named him Jack. If you don't know about that breed I'm here to tell you.

Havenese puppies are very cute, playful, and loving. They are a perfect companion. They could also be the champion in the Show. The Havenese is sure to steal anyone's heart that they meet.

They could either be white, black, toffee, brown, and maybe mixed. Also, no more wiping fur off the couch! Havenese have hair instead of fur and they don't shed.

A little history of the Havenese is they are originally from Cuba. They are a mix of a bichon fries/poodle. Havenese dogs can weigh from 8-16 pounds. They eat in the morning and at night. Each time they eat they should get two scoops. Two big scoops or use a measuring cup to give

Bigfoot to Mothman

By Olivia Groff, 3rd grade

Hi, my name is Olivia Groff and I decided to write about Bigfoot because I am into things that most people don't believe in like dragons and things of that type.

I am writing this to my best friend named Daphne Block who got me into these kinds of things. Now, sit backand relax and enjoy reading it.

Bigfoot is a large hairy bipedal hominoid, he or she has been seen many times but scientists are not sure if it is the real one or not

Here are some different Bigfoot names

North America: Bigfoot, sasquatch Europe: Kapter, Biabin-gula, Grendel, Ferla Mohir, Brenin llwyd Africa: Ngoloko, Kikomba

Asia: Gin-sung, Yeti, Mirygdy, Mecheny, Chinese Wildman, Nguoi Rung

Here are some bigfoot stories: On July 11, 1995 an off-duty forest patrol officer was by the Wild Creek area near Mt. Rainier. He heard splashing behind him. Camera in hands, he peeked over and saw what looked like Bigfoot.

It had brown hairand its head was in the middle of its body. Alan Berry was in Sacramento, CA, and he recorded what sounded like human whistles in the High Seirra Mountains. Whatever it was it had a larger vocal tract than a human. When scientists compared a man's voice to the one on the tape they estimated that the creature was about 7'4 to 8'2 feet tall.

Other Things Similar To Bigfoot: Abominable Snowman.

Black dog: Mysterious dogs that are common in the UK that appear and disappear, literally out of thin air. The Hound of the Baskervilles was based on this, as well as apopular Led Zeppelin song. They have occasionally been known to speak.

Chupacabra: Literally means a goat sucker. It is knownto kill animals in Puerto Rico

Krakan: A name for a giant sea monster

Mothman: A weird, winged humanoid figure thatappeared frequently in West Virginia

Craft Corner

By: Megan Forshey and Emily Moore, 3rd grade

Guitar: Things you need: box, wire, markers, guitar pick, platform, long thin box. Cut a hole in the box and attach the wires across the hole. Then decorate it and add the long skinny box to the end. Then bring your guitar to life by playing your very own song.

Paper Clip Bracelet: Things you need: a paper clip and good working fingers. First you unravel a paper clip. Then you decorate your bracelet with thing like beads and stickers. Finally you put it on your wrist.

Pipe Cleaner People: Things you need: pipe cleaners Form a person out of pipe cleaners and wrap other pipe cleaners around its body. Then you bring it to life by giving it a name and maybe even give it some friends. Box creature: Take a small box and cover it in colored paper put googly eyes on it, and put paper springs for the legs and you have you have a creature.

Paper clip bracelet: Take 5 paper clips (or less) hook them together so it's like a chain. Rap it around your wrist and hook the ends together.

Pom pom friend: What you need; foam hearts googly eyes pom poms and glue. First glue a pom pom to A foam heart. Then glue googly eyes to the pom pom.

Paper springs: What you need: construction paper, tape and markers. Take two different colored pieces of paper and cross the end then fold back and forth so it looks like a spring. Then tape both ends so it won't fall apart. If you want, draw eyes and a mouth for a caterpillar.

Snowflake: What you need: a piece of paper and scissors. You fold the piece of paper two times then cut the paper diagonally. You cut your paper not all the way but a little Cut it 5 times on each side. Next, unfold your piece of paper and there is your design you made. If you do it right it will be a rectangle with a lot of lines on it!

Word search: If you what to make a cool word search then go to www.edhelper.com. It is a great word search website. I have made a lot of word searches for my class (Mrs. Whaley). Sometimes they are really hard but sometimes they are easy or they can even be medium. The most words you can have are 50 words in your word search.

Friendship bracelet: What you need: a cardboard tube, scissors, thin yarn In 3 or 4 different colors, tape, and a pencil.

1. Take the cardboard tube and carefully cut it open lengthwise.

2. Place the tube on your wrist and mark off how wide you want your bracelet to be.

3. Remove the tube from your arm and cut the tube to that width. 4. Cover the inside of the tube with tape. This will help keep the bracelet's shape. 5. Tape a piece of yarn to the back of the cardboard. Wind one color of yarn over and over the cardboard. Be sure that you cover the tape on the bake of the tube.

6. Use as much of the one color as you want, then cut the yarn, making sure to leave a "tail".

7. Start your next color. It should overlap a bit with your first color.

8. Continue the other colored yarns until the bracelet is completely novered. Weave the end though the yarns on the back of the bracelet . secure it.

9. Cut all remaining yarn "tails"

You can use this same technique on headbands and picture frames, too! Or you can create special pencils for you and your friends to write to each other. You can make up your own.

Ask the U.D.A.

Understanding Dolphin Advisor

Wow! We received so many questions this time. Many of the questions were about problems you are having with other children teasing, hurting your feelings, or actually bullying you. Because we know this is very serious, we decided it would be a good idea to get Mrs. Leh's advice, too. She was very happy to help and met with us to come up with five things everyone needs to do right away if they feel like

If you are being bullied or teased:

1. Tell the person to STOP! Be very specific. "Stop calling me names!" 2. Walk away or remove yourself from the situation.

3. Go tell an adult. (Teacher, recess aide, bus driver, coach, parent, etc.)

4. If the bullying problem continues, tell ANOTHER adult. Explain who you already talked to and what happened.

5.Make sure your teacher and Mrs. Leh know about the situation

My parents are getting a divorce.

This can be a hard time for your family, but remember no one is divorcing YOU! It is not your fault and they both love you very much. Maybe you could get your parent's phone numbers so you can call whenever you are feeling sad. Also, Springfield Plains has a great group where children whose parents are divorced meet together once in awhile. You can have your Mom and Dad ask in the office (248-623-3800) for the information. Mrs. Kanigowski is the teacher that handles the group. Good luck!

I will be an only child soon.

This could be because of many reasons (older sibling going to college, a divorce). You must be sad about this, but maybe you can still find a way to see your brother or sister. Talk to your parents about this so that they can help you. Your friends can also keep you company and remember that there are lots of children who are the only child.

Why can't we sit wherever we want to? If you are talking about lunchtime, sometimes we do get to sit together and sometimes we lose that right. If the behavior in the lunchroom is bad and we forget our lunch manners, we can't sit together the next day and sometimes for the whole next week. Try to get your friends to do their part to make the lunch room a quieter and well behaved place and maybe you will get to sit wherever you want more often!

Someone is being annoying!

I know how this can be...I have experienced it myself! Let this person know their behavior is driving you crazy and you are going to have to let the teacher know if it doesn't stop. This will give them a chance to change first. If it continues, talk to your they are being bullied.

Look below and you will see Mrs. Leh's Steps to Follow. Space constrants will not allow us to answere each and every question you sent in. Thanks for ALL of the GREAT questions! We hope the suggestions help you, but you know you can always talk to your teachers and parents when you have problems, too!

UDA – Angela Sedano

teacher because it's going to affect your thinking and lower your grades.

A mean girl has been bullying me for years now and she won't stop. She said I sounded like an idiot at the Talent Show rehearsal.

Those are very mean words and words are a hurtful way to bully someone. If this has been going for as many years as you say, you really need to tell you parents and teacher. Have you already tried telling her to stop? You should stick up for yourself right away when it happens. You are safe at school and can tell someone to stop and you don't like it! By the way, I am sure you were GREAT at the talent show rehearsal and usually when people say things like this, it can mean they are jealous of you. Check out the box up top to see Mrs. Leh's Tips about hurtful things.

Some people are mean to me on the bus. What can I do?

This can be hurtful. Try once to talk to these people and if they continue to do mean things on the bus ride, tell your bus driver! You could also talk to your teacher or Mrs. Leh and try to fix the problem that way. Bus time is still school time. I'm sure the driver will be able to help by maybe giving you the choice to have a new seat.

My friend is hurt really bad[ly] and I don't know what to do. Please Help! Love, Scared for a Friend

Your friend is so lucky to have such a nice person looking out for them. I'm not sure what you mean by "hurt." Is it hurt feelings or hurt on their body (like an accident or something)?

If you mean hurt feelings, talk to the other person and ask them to stop. Explain that it's really bothering your friend! If it is so bad though, you can help your friend by getting adult help the next time it happens.

It's NOT tattling when someone is getting hurt! If you mean they have an injury and are hurt like that, maybe you could go visit them in the hospital. Bring some flowers or even homework so they still feel part of school.

Don't worry if they are in the hospital doctors are great and can be a big help!

[We Salute You.]

Every year our organizations unite to recognize students who have shown an interest in health care.

This year we are pleased to honor four area high school seniors with education scholarships to help them further their studies in the health care field.

Congratulations!
