

Miller, Josephine Y.

The Lake Orion Review

March 14, 2001

Wednesday Page: 13

Josephine Miller

Josephine Y. Miller of Attica, formerly of Lake Orion, died on March 9, 2001. She was 61.

She is survived by her husband Paul.

She is also survived by her daughter Cassie (Dale) Lane of Lapeer; her grandchildren, Niki and Shelby Lane; her sisters, Sarah Combs, Glenna Sisk, Norma Hill of Princeton, West Virginia and Alma McMillian of Berwyn, Illinois. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her son Paul, her sister Judy; and her brothers, Bernard and Henry.

Mrs. Miller touched the lives of many children through her work as a teacher's aide at Webber School in Lake Orion, through her own home daycare for 17 years, and most recently as "Miss Jo" at the Countryside Learning Center in Lapeer.

Her favorite pastime was bowling. She was extremely talented and traveled to many tournaments around the state and country. She had many close friends through her bowling who brought her a lot of joy.

Miller, Josephine Y.

227 The Lake Orion Review
March 14, 2001
Wednesday Page: 13

Mrs. Miller was also a very gifted seamstress, making beautiful clothing and quilts. Most important in her life was her family. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother, who did many things to make her family's life special and fun.

Graveside services took place March 12 at East Lawn Cemetery in Lake Orion with Rev. Alan Casillas of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Imlay City officiating.

Memorials may be made to the family to be given to an undetermined charity.

Arrangements were conducted by Lake Orion Chapel, Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home.