

Pensyl, James L.

The Orion Review
August 12, 1987

James L. Pensyl of Shelby Township died Aug. 8 in Lexington, Mich. He was 43.

Mr. Pensyl is survived by his wife, Melynda; a son, Eric, and a daughter, Kristen, all of Shelby Township. He is also survived by his mother, Emma Pensyl of Mesa, Ariz; a brother, E. Paul Pensyl of Boston, Mass. and a sister, Barbara Ann Taylor of Mesa, Ariz.

OVER

Mr. Pensyl was co-owner of A.E.O.M. Corporation. He was a member of the American Electroplating Society and Metal Finishers Society of America.

Religious services were conducted Aug. 11 at Diener Funeral Home, Utica, with Rev. Nancy J. Gorsuch officiating. Interment will be in Prestonville Cemetery, Shelby Township.

The family suggests memorials be made to St. Thomas Presbyterian Church.