

Spezia, Felice
(Phil)

The Lake Orion Review
August 8, 2001
Wednesday Page: 10

Felice Spezia

Felice (Phil) Spezia, 84, of Brown City died on Aug. 1, 2001.

He is survived by his wife Clementine.

He is also survived by his sons, Richard (Rusty) of Brown City, Gerald (Linda) of Farmington Hills and Donald (Janice) of Corunna; his daughters, Marianne (Ward) Smith of North Branch, Debra (Paul) Valko of Oakland and Barbara (Michael) Michon of Rochester Hills; his 14 grandchildren; his four great-grandsons; his brothers, John (Marie) of Leonard, Lyle of Lake Orion and Louis (Thornita) of Lake Orion; and his many nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents; Louis and Angelina; his brothers, Joseph and Robert; and his sisters, Theresa, Ann and Mary.

Mr. Spezia served his country in the US Army during World War II. He was a lifetime livestock farmer a member of the Farm Bureau and SS. Peter and Paul Catholic Church. He was interested in antique tractors and enjoyed spending his time with his family, on the farm and gardening.

The funeral mass took place Aug. 4 at SS. Peter and Paul Church with Fr. Richard Schmidberger officiating. Burial was in Westlawn Cemetery, North Branch.