Grace Valle

Grace G. Valle of Las Vegas died on Aug. 20, 2005. She was 71.

She was born Grace Stonier to Charles and Jeanne Stonier in Detroit in May 1934. A graduate of Eastern High School, she married and moved with her family to Lake Orion in 1965 and lived there until her retirement in 2003. Mrs. Valle then moved west to Las Vegas to be closer to her sister Betty and her family.

She is survived by her son Michael (Cindy) of Dayton, Ohio; her grandchildren, Lauren and Brandon; her brother, Charles (Mary) Stonier of Fairview; her sister Betty (Jack) Stolle of Las Vegas; her brother Robert (Mary) of Romulus; as well as her niece and many nephews.

Mrs. Valle had many close friends at McDonalds of Lake Orion where she worked for many years as well as at Collier Lanes where she was an avid bowler for almost 36 years. Kathy Compton of Lake Orion was almost like a daughter.

Mrs. Valle was laid to rest in Las Vegas, in view of the mountains she loved so much. Donations in her name can be made to Hospice of Michigan.
