

van de Leuv, Johanna

The Orion Review
January 1980

Johanna N. (Joke) van de Leuv, formerly of Lake Orion, died this week in Centerville, Ohio.

Mrs. van de Leuv, her husband, Dr. John van de Leuv, and four children moved to Ohio in February, 1979.

They had lived in Lake Orion for 18 years, coming to Michigan from British Columbia. She was a native of Holland, and spent some early years of her life in Indo China during the Japanese occupation.

Surviving besides her husband are four children, Jacqueline, Mark, Monique and Eric.