Martha Waltman

Martha Waltman of Naples, Florida, formerly of Lake Orion, died on Sept. 29, 1999. She was 79.

She was preceded in death by her husband Harold.

She is survived by her children, Carl (Peggy) of Lake Orion and Joanna (Bill) Stachu of Rochester; her grandchildren, Jeff, Jim, Joe, George, Krista and Lorina; her great grandchildren, Kaitlin and Kirsten.

Mrs. Waltman and her husband owned and operated Waltman's bakery/restaurant at 28 South Broadway in Lake Orion for many years. Their specialty was health breads made from whole wheat.

In those days a Waltman customer could buy three loaves of white bread for 49 cents.

After selling the bakery, but getting the building back after the new owners failed, the Waltman's opened the Polish Princess/Downtown Lounge in 1984. The couple moved to Naples in 1990.

Mrs. Waltman also retired as a cake decorator from Farmer Jack's after working there for 12 years.

Private funeral services took place in Naples.
