Quiet tear

Commencement exercises prompt many emotions. Pride on the part of parents, satisfaction on the part of administrators, and merriment on the part of students. But there's also a feeling of sorrow as the students look back on their formative days and recall teachers and friends they will be leaving behind. This young lady apparently was considering those days as she shed a quiet tear during commencement exercises at Novi High School last Tuesday. The commencement speaker was Dr. Helen Ditzhazy who also is leaving her position as principal of Novi High School to move on to an administrative post in the district.

THE NOVI WALLED LAKE NEWS

Wixom circus clowns

There were lions, bears, tigers, strong men, tight rope walkers, jugglers and sword swallowers at Wixom Elementary School Monday afternoon. They weren't really real, of course, but were instead members of the first grade classes who put on a special circus for the benefit of classmates, teachers and parents. It didn't really require a great deal of imagination when the ringmaster announced that the tight rope artists would perform their acrobatics on a wire 1,000 feet in the air And the way the show was received by the parents, you could almost believe that the wire stretched across the stage floor was 2,000 feet in the air. Among the clowns who performed in the Wixom circus were (above) Buffy Grover and Michael

The Lakes Agency request for funds has been a topic of debate among council members for several years, and last Wednesday's meeting was no exception. The council agreed unanimously to fund three separate agency programs costing a total of $645, but could not reach immediate agreement on how much to grant for the agency's Community Employment Service Area. The Lakes Agency, a cooperative organization made up of concerned area individuals, requested $3.000 for the employment area. Several council members were reluctant to grant that much, however, due to the fact that, according to various people on the council, the agency has no records to account for how its money is used.

12-A-WALLED LAKE-NOVI NEWS-Wednexday, June 13, 1979

Raises for fire fighters and officers in the Novi volunteer fire department have been approved by Fire fighters, who are paid hourly depending upon the number oand length of fire calls to which they respond, will receive $7 per hour now. That is up $1 from a year ago. They also will get $5 per hour for standby pay which involves work at the fire station such as equipment maintenance and station clean-up. Formerly firefighters received $3.50 per hour for that work. Attendance at training sessions pays $10 per

Additionally, the council approved a $1,200 yearly salary for the assistant fire chief, $900 for captains and $600 for lieutenants.

Fire Chief Arthur Lenaghan told the council the raises were proposed to reflect the increased number of fires in the city and the added responsibilities that department personnel are assuming. He explained the department currently is running 56 runs ahead of last year at this time.

Additionally, he said the fire department now must budget for the operation of three stations rather than the two stations included in last year's Lenaghan said the raises also may serve as a recruiting incentive. Council members questioned whether the fire chief had considered the possibility of a proba-tionary pay period or a bonus for attending a specified number of fire runs. Council Member Patricia Karevich suggested the probationary period because of the cost of preparing a firefighter for action. "We spend upwards of $1,200 per firefighter in the first year. Maybe we should have a salary increase that will take effect after the first year rather than having all of them receive the same pay," she said. She cited the case of a firefighter who recently quit the department after working for a year. Council Member Martha Hoyer said she disagreed since the firefighter in his or her first year faces the same risk as one who has been on the department for 15 years. Council Member James Shaw raised the possibility of offering bonuses at the end of the first year based on the number of responses a firefighter has made.

But Council Member Robert Schmid disagreed with both suggestions. "This conversation disturbs me," Schmid said. "We have a volunteer fire department, and it has been the position of this council to stay away from a paid department as long as possible. Pay should compensate the volunteers sufficiently to cover expenses, but I'd hate to see this become a part-time Schmid also questioned the "drastic increases"

The salary for the assistant chief jumped $675, captains' pay increased $575 and the lieutenants salary rose $300.

Lenaghan explained that the recent restructur-ing of the fire department has given those individuals increased responsibilities — meriting the raises he proposed.

Mrs. Hoyer and Mrs. Karevich also argued that he city has a paid volunteer fire department — not strictly volunteer as Schmid seemed to imply. "We lost a volunteer fire department a few years ago and are now operating a part-paid department," Mrs. Hoyer said. "Luckily we are not payng them to sit in a station waiting for runs." Mrs. Karevich suggested the volunteers really do not break even with the compensatory salary they are paid. She said the salary may pay for the "gas bills and ruined suits," but would not compare with the amount they could make at a part-time job. Lenaghan told the council he had considered both the possibilities of bonuses and a probationary period and it was decided the raises would best serve the needs of the department.

He said he currently wants to keep the salary as a rate of pay without differences between the firefighters except the officers.

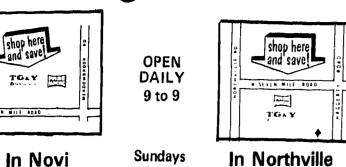

The council approved the raises with a 5-0 vote. Mrs. Karevich abstained and Mayor Romaine Roethel was absent. Mrs. Karevich said she would not vote on the matter since her husband was an officer in the fire

Mrs. Hoyer, who also has a husband on the force, said she would not abstain because he is a volunteer and the job is not his livelihood. She said she believed the decision on the raises was part of her responsibility as an elected official.

Board must abide by voters' decision

A four mill-one year request again has been rejected by the voters in the Walled Lake School

The request was identical to the millage proposal that was defeated by the voters in a special election April 30. The margin of defeat was much smaller in Monday's balloting, but the results were the same — the millage request has been defeated.

The millage request was defeated by a 68-32 margin in the April 30 elction and a 58-42 margin on Monday. But no matter how you look at it, a 58-42 defeat is a substantial margin.

The question which now looms for school officials and board members is whether or not to return to the voters with yet another millage proposal.

Superintendent Don Sheldon stated Monday that he has not yet formulated a recommendation as to what direction the board should take. He said the subject would be explored at a special study session which has not yet been scheduled.

It would appear at this point that the district has two alternatives: (1) return to the voters with a revised millage request or (2) abandon efforts to obtain additional millage and implement the program which will trim $1.7 million from the 1979-80 budget.

Responsible stand

It does not appear that the district can come back a third time with the same four mill proposal.

We had no objections to the decision to place the four mill proposal on the ballot a second time. Although the proposal was identical to the initial proposal, we believe school officials had a responsibility to request the amount of millage it feels is necessary to maintain programs and staffing at current levels.

School district residents should have had the opportunity to vote again on the four mill proposal after learning the ramifications of

Now, however, voters have rejected the millage request with the full knowledge of how many teachers will be cut and how programs will be affected.

We are convinced that the four mill request is needed. We are particularly concerned about the cutbacks in building maintenance and capital outlay. These are areas which can only be delayed: they connot be eliminated indefinitely. The day will come when the leaking roofs have to be repaired.

Health care for U.S. needed?

Meeting the ever increasing costs for health insurance as a result of the spiraling costs for medical and hospital care presents the greatest challenge to employers today. Being able to provide adequate coverage for employees at reasonable cost becomes more difficult each year. If those costs continue to rise at their present rate the cost for coverage will soon approach the actual wages many

The problem is even greater for the elderly and for the self-employed who are not eligible for participation in a

The government's track record for administering such programs is certainly not good and it is possible the proposals for National Health Insurance that are being made are politically expedient but the fact remains that some type of coverage that will be uniform and attainable regardless of individual circumstances is absolutely

John Steimel

I am opposed to a National Health Service, particularly as proposed by Senator Edward Kennedy for the following reasons: 1) It's unnecessary. Under our present system of private insurance, Blue-Cross-Blue Shield, Medicaid-Medicare, etc., persons can receive all necessary hospital medical care even though they may own a home without regard to the value of same. If a person has substantial personal property — cash, stocks, etc. there is available catastrophic medical insurance at reasonable rates that give virtually unlimited coverage.

2) It would cost more. Unfortunately, experience shows that governmental operation of any project costs more than if it is operated privately. No matter what mistakes are made in governmental operations there appears to be no accountability and no one is ever fired for making mistakes or acting illegally. In private industry, competition is an adequate safeguard (because of complaints about Blue Cross-Blue Shield, competing plans are

3) The quality of medical care would decrease. Presently we pick our own doctors and hospitals and where not covered by insurance, pay for routine medical and hospital care. I believe this makes for a better doctorpatient relationship than if the government paid for

Not so this writer. I happen to think that State Representative Casmer P. Ogonoski (D-Detroit) is championing a sensible measure that, unlike much of what comes out of Lansing, won't cost me an arm and a leg. He's not a crackpot, he's a nutcracker.

Ogonowski is the guy who is sponsoring a resolution suggesting that "Michiganian" be used as the term of reference for people living in Michigan.

The measure has passed the house and is . now holed up in the senate.

But back to Ogonowski.

"This is deadly serious business," explained the lawmaker, who may or may not have been biting his lip when he discussed his resolution by telephone. Walled Lake Central all-around athlete PATTI LIMB has added another accolade to her already full list of accomplishments, as the Viking softball sensation was named to the Sliger Home Newspapers All-Area first team last week. Limb, who was chosen for the Sliger All-Area first team in basketball this past winter, was a major factor in a seven-game winning streak that coach Nancy Smith's club reeled off near the end of the season. Limb was also chosen for the Inter-Lakes Conference's first team recently.

The Central senior starred both offensively and defensively this spring, as her .419 average and two-error season would indicate. In addition, she stole 18 bases in 19 attempts and drove home 15

Limb was one of 10 first team picks in the balloting, which was done by the sports editors of the Novi-Walled Lake News, Northville Record, South Lyon Herald and Brighton Argus. Two pitchers were named to both the first and second teams. An honorable mention squad was also Among area pitchers this season, Howell's DELORES THOMAS, a senior, was easily the most dominant. Thomas had a big advantage over enemy hitters in '79 - she could see the ball and they couldn't.

Some of this year's feats for Thomas include five no-hitters, five one-hitters, four two-hitters and seven shutouts on her way to a 17-3 record. A unanimous All-Capital Circuit selection, Thomas at last count had given up only 36 hits in 134 innings.

The other first team pitching choice was KEL-LY HUNTER of Hartland. It's unusual for a freshman to receive first team honors, but Hunter is an unusually gifted pitcher. Just ask opposing

At the time the team was chosen, Hartland was still alive in the regional playoffs. So was Hunter, who at that point was 18-1 and still counting. Among Hunter's pitching feats this season has been a no-hitter, four one-hitters and nine shutouts.

She's averaged six strikeouts, three walks and around four hits yielded per game. Behind the plate, senior KATHY TAYLOR of Pinckney was a natural choice. Her experience extends beyond the realm of the Pirate softball team, as she has played on a national team. And understandably so. The Pirate standout boasted a .461 batting average, was second on the team in stolen bases and was a first team Ingham County League all-

First baseman CINDY DREFFS, although only a junior, turned into one of the top hitters in her circuit, the Tri-County Conference. The Whitmore Lake standout batted a .436 on the season with a team-high 10 doubles and 26 runs batted in.

SHIRLEY DINSER copped second base honors in her fourth year as a starter for Howell. At second base, she committed only four errors this season. At the plate, she is phenomenal. Owning an impressive .500 batting average, Dinser belted three doubles and a like number of triples to go with 12

One of the conference's top hitters, Obrenovich's .447 average included three triples and a pair of home runs. She was also one of the conference's premier pitchers with a 6-2 record. everything hit near her. Power is the name of Huff's game on offense, as she rapped three home runs, four doubles, four triples and 16 RBIs on her way to a .495 average.

Along with Limb in the outfield, South Lyon senior NANNETTE NELSON was honored. She duplicated the feat of teammate Nada Obrenovich by being named to the SEC all-league squad for the third successive year. Nelson was a unanimous choice, however, which qualifies her for possible all-state recognition.

The first team outfield is rounded out by Northville's JUDY ORR, a sophomore who hit .370 for the Mustangs this season. Orr started slowly, but picked up the pace when Northville needed it the most — down the stretch.

A second team All-League pick this year, Orr hit a smoking .444 in conference play and added good defense. She also contributed mightily to the Mustang run-scoring efforts, driving home an even dozen teammates and scoring 12 times herself.

The second team, happily, consisted of two players apiece from Walled Lake Central and Novi. A pair of local junior pitchers headed the second team list, as Wildcat TRACY SOBKOW and Viking JOHNNA DROST were chosen. The other Novi pick was senior outfielder NANCY PORTER, and Central's other selection was slugging first baseman

Also on the second team, a pair of seniors joined Novi's Porter in taking outfield honors. Northville's SUE KINNAIRD was chosen, along with LAURIE LARSON of Hartland, another senior.

Another high school spring season has come and gone This year's spring teams in Novi and Walled Lake, for the most part, didn't exactly enjoy great seasons. But the area did produce one league champion, and a few other teams also had winning years.

At the top of the 1979 spring list is the Walled Lake Western girls' track team coached by Sharon Young. The Warriors were somewhat of a Cinderella story this time around, bouncing back from a so-so 5-5 season last year and a slow start this spring to win the Western Six ti-

That slow start included a 94-29 embarrassment at the hands of Milford — not exactly the kind of performance typical of conference champions. But the Warriors, despite two losses in their first three dual meets, kept improving steadily until they peaked at just the right time. Western finished the season with six straight wins for a final record of 7-2, and then swept to a 32-point margin in the league meet.

Yet that team effort wasn't the only impressive Western showing during the 1979 vernal equinox. John Fundukian's gang was second in the Western Six, as the Warrior boys' track team just missed duplicating the finish of its female counterparts. Western was just nine points short of winner Livonia Churchill in its league meet, and lost only one dual all spring.

The local tennis teams also had a good time of it during this soggy spring. Noah Gregory's Western tennis team steamed to a 10-5 overall record in dual matches, including two 4-3 squeakers over cross-town rival Walled Lake Central. Those wins over the Vikings were no minor accomplishment, especially considering the fact that Central was also

Nancy Smith's Viking softball team was no slouch this season either, putting together seven straight wins late in the season on its way to an 11-6 mark. And another softball group — this one being Jim Tinsley's Novi Ladycats — came out of the season winners, too. The girls finished strong to end the season at 10-9

For those local teams that had problems this season — and there were plenty of them — the familiar cry of "Wait until next year!" is all that can be offered right now. But before dismissing any one team's claim for excellence in 1980, remember that a lot of strange things can happen, given the right amount of perserverance and luck. Just ask Sharon Young.

Hands Across the Border

There are hands across the border There are hands across the sea, But the hands I long most to touch Are beloved hands to me.

They are hands of soil and hardship They are hands of toil and care, But when I need to touch them They are always, always there.

And the older those dear hands may grow, The older they may seem,
Though they may lose life's great battle
And fashion naught but dreams—

They cling unto my heart-strings And brighten sky and sea, And for ever and for ever Are beloved hands to me.

On the Brink

You've been through the backwoods of time and life .. knowing love ... loving. The feeling and reality. Now it seems that you stand on the brink of knowing ... not knowing where to go. Or if there really exists this shelter of meaning ... or a heart one can climb into Your mind and soul will toss about continually with the waves of perplexity until the right hideaway is found to hold the secret to your life ...

that you may know

your destiny upon the earth. Pat Kotlarczyk

Time

Time passes through our lives and clocks pass time through the seasons . silent testimony to where our lives have gone. Do we speak, then to the face of the clock ... and go on or shy away ... forgetting a thought or a glance ... riding away. No matter that time will keep on turning ... pleasures, pain, solitude or chaos will keep everyone living ... and we'll come face to face with the mechanism within all of us telling us we'll keep on.
