

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

James Hopkins suicided yesterday (13th) at 1 o'clock, by taking Paris green in cider. He lived 1-1/2 miles west of Clarkston, where he has lived for 28 years, a farmer. He has been rather off in his mind at times for some years. He attempted suicide some years ago. Nov 19, 1884

Mrs. Benjamin Covert, of Ypsilanti, recently released from the asylum in this city, and thought to be permanently cured, committed suicide Saturday by taking "Rough on Rats." She was an estimable lady. Nov 27, 1884

Nov 19 1884
Died, in Springwells, Detroit, Oct. 28th, 1884, Wesley B. Ellithorp, of typhoid fever, aged 24 years. Buried at Reese, Mich. He was a former resident of Independence, this county, and was well and favorably known.

Milton Sargeant, of Dayisburg, died Nov. 3, aged 86 years. Deceased was the first settler in the township of Springfield. Dec 3 1884

Nov 19 1884
Mayor Colvin received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of Alvin C. High, of Denver. For a year or so past Mr. H. had been troubled with heart disease. Up to four years ago he was a resident of Pontiac for about thirty years, and well known by all our citizens. Deceased was 65 years old and leaves a wife and son to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father.

Dec 3 1884
Charles H. Frost, of this city, died at his home, on Orchard Lake Avenue, last Thursday night of heart disease, aged 65 years, 8 months and 6 days. Funeral from the house Monday afternoon; sermon by Rev. J. M. Geiston. Mr. Frost was born in Marcellus, Onondago county, New York, March 21, 1820, and came to Pontiac with his mother and other relatives in the fall of 1835. Deceased had been a patient and uncomplaining invalid for some time, and his death is sincerely mourned by his family, relatives and friends.

Milford Times: "Robert Crawford, one of the pioneers of Oakland and Shiawassee counties, died at Byron, Shiawassee county, on Saturday last. He was a soldier of the war of 1812, and settled in the town of Troy, this county, in 1825. He was well known and respected throughout this and Shiawassee county." Nov 27 1884

Wm. H. Jennings died at Detroit last Friday, and Monday the remains were brought to Pontiac, his former home, for burial. Dec 3 1884

Died, Nov. 13, in this city Leon Alfred, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker, aged eighteen months. The bereaved parents desire to heartily thank kind friends and neighbors for services rendered. Nov 27, 1884

The remains of Mrs. Polly Spragus will be removed from the Wilson vault, Oakhill cemetery, to the cemetery at Troy, on Thursday, Dec. 11, at 1 o'clock p. m., at which hour friends of the deceased are requested to be present at the vault. Dec 3 1884