

PONTIAC BILL POSTED

Mrs. E. C. Goodrich, a well known and highly respected resident of Pontiac, died, while visiting friends at Roscommon, Mich., on Wednesday night, of last week, of ossification of the liver. The deceased was aged about forty-seven years, and leaves a husband and two daughters to mourn the loss of wife and mother. The remains were brought to Pontiac, and on Sunday, after funeral services at the congregational church, were interred in Oak Hill cemetery. JAN 10, 1883

JAN 10, 1883
Mrs. Phebe Southard, widow of Moses Southard, and one of the early settlers of Waterford township, Oakland county, died on the 5th inst., at the home of her daughter in Flint.

Mary Yancey, colored, died at her home in Pontiac last week Tuesday, of consumption, aged 20 years. Funeral Thursday from the Auburn Ave. church. JAN 10 1883

JAN - 10 1883
Mrs. Cornelius Jenks died at her residence on Mill street on Thursday last and her remains were interred in the Gilbert Lake cemetery. She leaves an aged husband and five children, who have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community to comfort them in their bereavement. IVY.

JAN 17 1883
Frank Pixley, of Rochester, this county, died last Wednesday, and funeral services were held Friday.

JAN 17 1883
PONTIAC, January 10th, 1883.
Resolutions of condolence of Oakland County Lodge, 183 I. O. O. F., upon the death of brother Newton J. Brigham, who departed this life at the city of Boston, on Monday, January 1st, A. D. 1883.

WHEREAS, It has pleased almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst to the mysterious realms beyond our worthy brother, Newton J. Brigham, who was a true and faithful brother.

WHEREAS, We humbly bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well, yet we deem it appropriate to give public expression in the following resolutions. Therefore be it

Resolved, That his brothers and associates, actuated by a sense of gratitude to the departed in view of his love for the order, do testify to the same by this token of respect to his memory.

Resolved, That in the hour of sorrow we tender the friends of the deceased our sincere condolence in the loss of a kind and affectionate brother.

Resolved, That as a mark of respect to the departed, we drape our lodge room in mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes of our lodge and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased; also to Boston Lodge No. 25 I. O. O. F., who cared for our brother during his long illness, and that they be published in our city papers.

A. P. HUNGERFORD,
O. M. BESSEY,
A. MACLAURIN,
Committee.

Death has again taken the wife and mother, and another home is made desolate. Mrs. B. F. Grace died Jan. 10, aged 47 years. A husband and four children are left to mourn for the loved one. JAN 17 1883

Detective D. K. Sullivan, of Detroit, and a frequent visitor in Pontiac, died Sunday evening of rheumatism of the heart. He was a good man and faithful officer. JAN 17 1883