

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Nov 6 1882
WATERFORD.
 Correspondence of the Bill Poster.
 Miss Martha Hunt died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. W. Bunt, in White Lake on Sunday last, of consumption.
 Mrs. Edward Richmond, of Chesaning, is visiting friends here.
 The regular hunting party started for the north woods Tuesday, and no doubt before long Waterford will be flooded with bear, deer and the like.
 Mrs. L. L. Richmond started for Midland, Monday, to visit her sister, Mrs. Richards.
 Tall's work is progressing slowly.
 Miss Helen Bacon is home from Ypsilanti.

CASPER.

Nov 15 1882
 Mary L., wife of George E. Frost, of Cheboygan, died in Pontiac at the home of A. P. Frost, on Perry street, yesterday morning, of consumption, aged 22 years. Funeral services will be held at the house this (Wednesday) afternoon at two o'clock and the remains will be taken to Mackinaw for burial. In this affliction the husband and friends of the deceased have the sympathy of all.

Last Thursday Drs. Morley, Elliott, and McLachlan, performed a surgical operation for the removal of a tumor from the person of Mrs. Albert Stowell, at the home of her father, Mr. William Chamberlin, Orion. The operation developed a condition of facts necessarily fatal, and twenty-four hours after the patient died. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, and the remains placed in the Petrie vault, Pontiac. Nov 15 1882

Mrs. Cole died of consumption last Saturday morning. She was buried at Oxford, Sunday, from the M. E. church. Nov 15 1882

Nov 15 1882
 Mrs. A. L. Millard died at her home in this village on Wednesday morning last. Funeral at the Congregational church last Friday morning.