

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Dec 27 Obituary. 1882

Died, December 9, 1882, at his residence, in the township of Pontiac, Mr. J. S. Newman.

Mr. Newman was one of our old pioneers, who lived to be honored by all who knew him. In early life he gave himself to the Saviour, and when dying, added his testimony to the affection and faithfulness of that Divine Master, whom so long he had rejoiced to serve. His farewell counsel to his large and attached family will never be forgotten.

- In his removal his widowed wife has lost a dear and affectionate husband, his children a kind and indulgent father and the church an earnest and devoted Christian.

The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. F. Rae, pastor of the Baptist church, after which the remains were conveyed to the burial vault in this city. Thus has passed away another of those venerable men whose memory will long be cherished by all those who once shared his friendship and esteem.

The bereaved wife and family desire to return their sincere gratitude to the many friends who tendered them their sympathy in the hour of their deep sorrow, as this is the first time that death has crossed the threshold of their happy home.

Dec 27 1882
Geo. S. Jones, son of Mrs. Pomeroy Stiles, deceased, of Pontiac, was recently killed by the cars in California. He was walking on the track and being somewhat hard of hearing, was struck by an engine, and his neck was broken, etc.