

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Died, Monday, at her home near Detroit, Mrs. Baumgartner, mother of Father Baumgartner, of this city, aged 74 years. Funeral from the house today at ten o'clock. APR 4 1883

The little daughter of O. H. Pike died Saturday evening after several days of suffering. Funeral Monday at 10 o'clock A. M. APR 25 1883

Wm. Tackerline died at Jas. Dyes' Sunday, April 8. He had been falling for some time, and quietly passed away at the age of 78. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Tuesday. APR 11 1883

Horace Richmond, of Auburn, died Sunday night of rheumatism of the heart, aged 45 years and 8 months, and yesterday, after funeral services, the remains were taken to Dexter for burial. April 25 1883

Mrs. A. H. Heath, of Pontiac, died at Detroit last Saturday, aged 53 years and funeral services were held at the M. E. church, this city, Monday afternoon, largely attended and conducted by Rev. C. T. Allen. For four years past Mrs. H. had suffered from the effects of a tumor, and as a last chance submitted to an operation for its removal, but couldn't survive the operation. She was a daughter of Mr. Jay Durkee, and sister of Mrs. W. L. Coonley, had lived in Oakland county and Michigan over half a century, and will be missed by a large circle of relatives and friends. APR 25 1883

APR 30 1883
Mrs. Alexander Solts, of Royal Oak, died very suddenly of heart disease last Friday night, aged 55 years. Funeral Sunday, and very largely attended. APR 25 1883

Wesley Caster, of Rose township, was riding with his family Thursday when he saw a partridge near the road side, and having his gun along determined to capture the bird. Stopping his team he got out and the gun was given him muzzle first. The hammer must have caught something for the gun was discharged, the load passing through Mr. Caster's heart killing him instantly. He was a well-to-do farmer, highly respected, and his untimely death is mourned by many relatives and friends. APR 25 1883

Frank, son of Hiram Pike, of Franklin, died Sunday night, of consumption, aged 18 years. Funeral today. APR 25 1883, APR 25

While Pontiac is driving away