Wineo Observer: "Dr. John Galbraith, of Amadore, Sanilac Co., died Jan. 13th, at the advanced age of 85 years. He was one of the earliest settlers in that portion of the State, and was a perfect type of the pioneer. He raised a large family, among the sons, being Dr. F. B. Galbraith, of Pontiac, who was the first white child born in Sanilac Co., and Capt. Galbraith, of the 22d Infantry, who was well known to those of our citizens who were members of that regiment, as a kind hearted and efficient officer." JAN 24 1883

JAN 31 Obituary. 1883

Died, at her home in Farmington, Jan. 11th. Sister Jane Grace, a loved member of Farmington Grange No. 267.

Those who knew sister Grace best can but realize the loss we sustain by her death. When we recall our meetings with our sister in the grange, in the church or home circle, and remember the hearty welcome given all whom she met, the untiring efforts to render our visits pleasant, when we recall all these, they indelibly impress upon our minds that a good sister has gone.

WHEREAS, Our heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, has taken from our grange to the great grange above, our beloved sister, Jane Grace,

Resolved, That we, the members of Farmington Grange, No. 267, bow in humble submission to the divine will, and would express our appreciation of her devotion to her family who bear with Christian resignation the loss by death of a tender and beloved wife and mother who ever held dearest the interests of her home circle and the church of which she was an earnest member and to the afflicted family we tender our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That we, as patrons, imitate her example that it may be said of us as of her, "she did what she could."

Resolved, That these resolutions be sent to the Pontiac Gazette, Bill Poster and Grange Visitor for publication, and a copy to the afflicted family; and that our hall be draped in mourning for thirty days.

MRS. C. A. GREEN,
MRS. NELLIE MURRAY,
MRS. MARY B. CROSBY,
