

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Dec 1 1886
Benjamin Reed, one of old Oakland's pioneers and a resident of Oakwood, died last Thursday aged 79 years.

Dec 1 1886
Mrs. Wealthy Fox, mother of neighbor T. B. Fox, of the Rochester Era died recently at Holly aged 85 years.

Mrs. Adeline K. Frank, wife of Col. John Frank, died at her home in Avon, in the 89th year of her age, on Sunday, Nov. 21. Funeral services were held at the house on Tuesday, and the remains interred in the Rochester cemetery. Mrs. Frank was an old resident having resided on the home farm in Avon for the past forty years. Dec 1 1886

Saturday night Mr. C. V. Taylor, of this city, received a telegram from H. J. Axford, at Pasadena, California, announcing the death of Miss Jessie Sykes, of consumption, the same day, aged about eighteen years. On the arrival of the remains at Pontiac funeral services will be held at the residence of Mr. Axford, corner of Parke and Judson streets, and the body interred at East Saginaw. Miss S. was well and favorably known in Pontiac and Oakland county, and her early death is regretted by a large circle of relatives and friends. Dec 1 1886
