

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

A. E. Macomber, of Holly, recently died at the asylum aged 58 years. Funeral services were held at Pontiac last Wednesday and the remains interred at Oak Hill cemetery. Deceased leaves a wife and three children. Oct 5 1887

Mrs. Ellen Fogerty of School St., died Saturday last, aged 75 years. Funeral was held Monday morning at the new Catholic church and the remains interred at Mt. Hope cemetery. Oct 5 1887

Wm. J. Phillips, of Flint, came down to Pontiac on the 9:15 train last Thursday evening to join his wife who was visiting Goodman Jacobs. Mr. P. had only stepped inside the door at the Jacobs residence when he was stricken down with apoplexy and only lived a short time. Deceased was about seventy years old and the feelings of his family and friends can better be imagined than described. The remains were taken to Flint Friday and funeral services held at the late home of the deceased Sunday. "Mr. Phillips says the Flint Citizen, "was one of the very early settlers of Genesee County. He was a man of business ability and sterling worth, and the news of his sudden death causes wide spread sorrow in this vicinity." Oct 5 1887

Mrs. A. E. Brooks, wife of the late rector of Zion church, died at Lyons, Iowa, on Tuesday, Sept. 27th., of quinsy and nasal diphtheria, after an illness of six days. Oct 5 1887

The many Pontiac friends of Miss Hattie Fuller, deceased, of Attlea recently contributed beautiful floral offerings consisting of a pillow and bouquets. Miss Fuller was a former resident of this city and during her stay in Pontiac made hosts of warm friends who sincerely mourn her early departure to the other shore. Oct 5, 1887

Guy Barger, of Rochester, died last Sunday, of congestion of the lungs.

Peter Foley, of Waterford, died last Friday aged 67 years. Funeral services were held at the Catholic church, Pontiac, Monday, sermon by Father Kilroy of Fenton, and the remains interred at Mt. Hope cemetery. Oct 12 1887

Oct 12 1887
Uncle Samuel Howlett, of Waterford, died at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, from the effects of a congestive chill, after an illness of four days, in the 80th year of his age. Deceased came to this State in 1832, and a more jovial, big hearted man never lived in old Oakland. The time for the funeral has not been fixed as we go to press but it will probably be held Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Howlett, who has been sick for some time, is very low and cannot long survive her husband.
