

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

MAR 7 1888

Mrs. Richard Skarritt, of White Lake, who died recently, was a sister-in-law of H. M. Jackson of this city.

Mrs. George Brooks, nee Lucy Cornelius, of this city, died yesterday of consumption, aged about twenty-two years. MAR 7 1888

MAR 7 1888

Mr. Frederick Willcox, of this city, died Monday night at twelve o'clock, of pleurisy at his home on Orchard Lake Avenue, aged 74 years. Funeral from the house to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, to attend which friends of the family are invited. Suitable obituary notice next week.

MAR 7 1888

Mrs. O. H. Smith, of Commerce, died Feb. 26, aged 66 years, 5 months and 26 days and funeral services were held at the house last week Tuesday. Mrs. Smith was born in Warsaw, Wyoming county, N. Y., Aug. 31st, 1821. Afterwards moved to Orangeville, in the same county, where she was, on May 17th, 1848, married to O. H. Smith, and where they lived until March, 1855, when they removed to their present home in Commerce, where they have ever since resided. Deceased was the mother of Geo. W. Smith, of this city, and Mrs. H. D. Armstrong, of Jackson. MAR 7 1888

MAR 7 1888
The infant son of Geo. Doolittle died last Friday of membranous croup.