

PONTIAC BILL POST

not. SEPT 16 1885
Harry, nine year old son of Mrs. Robert Kimmins, of this city died quite suddenly last Friday of a congestive chill. He had been complaining of a cold for a few days but was around as usual till Friday morning when he suddenly grew worse and was soon beyond medical assistance. About six months ago Mr. K. died, and in her double affliction the wife and mother has the hearty sympathy of the entire community. Funeral services Sunday from Zion church. Mrs. Kimmins wishes to return her heartfelt thanks to the citizens who so kindly and generously furnished carriages, to the members of the Band of Hope for flowers, and to relatives and friends generally for services rendered.

SEPT 23 1885
Mrs. Ed. Brown, colored, died at her home in Pontiac, Monday, of cancer of the stomach. Funeral this afternoon at the A. M. E. church, at 2 o'clock.

James G. Hunter, of Bloomfield, died last Friday of consumption, aged 75 years, and funeral services were held from the house Saturday afternoon. The remains were brought to Pontiac for interment. Mr. H. was born in Orange county, N. Y., and was one of Oakland's oldest pioneers. He was a life-long Presbyterian and democrat, and held various township offices of trust and responsibility. He leaves a wife, three children, and a host of friends to mourn his departure. SEPT 23 1885

FOUR TOWNS.

Correspondence of The Bill Poster.

Mrs. Ida Flynn nee Greer, died at her home in Tuscola county on Tuesday, Sept. 8, and was brought home and buried on Thursday the 10th. Many sorrowing friends following her to her grave. SEPT 16 1885

Last week the remains of Frank P. Mather arrived at Pontiac from Dakota, and were interred by Pontiac Commandry of Knights Templar, of which body deceased was a member. 1885

Whitman Ripley, of Holly, died Sunday night, aged 83 years, and the remains were taken to Adrian for interment. Deceased came to Michigan in 1836. SEPT 23 1885

Philander Mead, of Hillsdale, and a former resident of this city, died last Wednesday, aged 70 years. 30 Sept 1885

FOUR TOWNS

Correspondence of The Bill Poster.

Harley Olmsted, died at his home in White Lake township, Friday morning Oct. 3, aged 82 yrs. and 8 months. Funeral at the house on Sunday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. W. R. Seaver, of Pontiac, and the remains buried in Four Towns cemetery. Deceased came to Michigan and located in White Lake, in 1832 when he assisted his father and brother in building the first house in that township. He was twice married and was the father of fifteen children ten of whom with his second wife survive him. He was a quite, peaceable citizen and friendly to all. Oct 7 1885

Mrs. Charles Wilds died Sunday, Oct. 4, at 3 o'clock a. m. at her home. Funeral services was held at Baptist church yesterday at 1 p. m. Many friends will mourn her loss. Oct 7 1885