

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Wm. Leverton, ^{Aug 31 1887} of this city, died Sunday morning at his home in the 4th ward, of consumption aged about fifty years. Funeral Monday and the remains interred at Oak Hill cemetery.

^{Sept 7 1887} The infant son of S. E. Beach, Jr. died Monday noon of indigestion and funeral services were held yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. B. have the sympathy of all in their affliction.

Mrs. Geo. Lovewell, of Amy, died Sunday of consumption, aged 25 years and after funeral services yesterday the remains were interred at Union Corners. ^{Sept 7 1887}

A daughter of Grant Cole, of Waterford, died Monday night of typhoid fever, aged 32 years. Funeral from the house this forenoon and the remains will be taken to Four Towns for burial. ^{Sept 7 1887}