

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Uncle Ira Goodrich died at Lansing Sunday, aged about eighty years, and the remains will be brought to Pontiac to-day for interment. Mr. Goodrich was one of Oakland's best pioneers and he will be long remembered as an out spoken, big hearted man, who had hundreds of warm friends in spite of his peculiar ways. Next week we hope to be able to publish a suitable obituary notice. Feb 8 1888

Died, Sunday morning, at the residence of his parents in Detroit, Clarence Ray, only son of W. H. and Emma Sherman, aged 4 years, 7 months and 13 days. Funeral services were held at the house yesterday afternoon and to-day the remains will be brought to Pontiac for interment. The deceased was a remarkably bright child for his years and a grandson of the late Samuel Howlett, of Waterford.

Mrs. Jennie B. wife of Frank M. Wheeler, of Alpena, and a former resident of this city, died at Detroit Sunday after a long illness, aged 44 years. Funeral services this (Wednesday) afternoon at two o'clock from the residence of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Deggison, of Troy. Feb 8, 1888

WALLED LAKE.

Correspondence of the Bill Poster.

The Scarlet fever scourge is unabated, fresh graves look sad. Added for the last week to the death numbers are Leafie Woodworth, and two children of Mr. Sugden's, of Farmington. Speaking of Miss Woodworth she was a noble young lady, beloved by all who knew her. Her remains were interred in the Walled Lake cemetery last Thursday. Some one tried to rob the grave of its victim the same night, but old Shep, J. D. Bateman's dog, drove them off, and watched the grave from eleven o'clock until five in the morning. Can't rob a grave in that cemetery while old Shep is alive. Feb 8, 1888

Mrs. Moses Case, of Greenville, died Feb. 1st, at her home, of lung troubles. Funeral from the M. E. church last Saturday and the remains buried in Clarkston cemetery. Mrs. Case was 64 of age, a faithful member of the M. E. church and leaves four sons and three daughters, two sisters, two brothers and many friends to
