

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Gazette: "Louis T. Son of Thomas S. Christian of Pontiac, died at Aberdeen, Dakota, March 27, of strangulated hernia, aged 37 years. The deceased had lived in Dakota for five years, where he won an enviable reputation by his faithfulness and devotion to duty, and exemplary character. The remains reached Pontiac last Friday night, and the funeral was held from the Zion Episcopal church last Saturday afternoon, rector L. S. Stevens officiating, and all that was mortal of a true friend and devoted son, was buried on the family lot in Oak Hill Cemetery." APR 11 1888
