

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

X Mrs. O. Niles, of Troy, died Monday, aged 64 years. Funeral services this (Wednesday) afternoon, at two o'clock, from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Claude Harris, and the remains will be interred at the Union Corners cemetery. NOV 16, 1887

M. S. Hadley died Monday morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. A. H. Comstock, in East Saginaw, aged 69 years, Marsh Hadley, as he was generally called, was well and favorably known throughout Oakland and Macomb counties. Deceased was Manager of the Michigan Air Line Railroad for several years, and a genial, whole-souled gentleman. -Next week we hope to be able to publish a more suitable notice. Funeral services will be held to-morrow (Thursday) morning, at half past ten o'clock from the Cong'l church Rochester. NOV 16 1887

■ Wm. Thompson died Saturday at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Wilbur Dewey, of consumption, aged 26 years. Funeral services yesterday afternoon from the house. Up to a few months since, although blind, Mr. Thompson supported himself by his individual efforts and by deserving them won a host of friends who will always hold him in kindest remembrance. NOV 16 1887