

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

B'ham Eccentric: "We notice with regret the death of Mrs. Mary C. Hunter, widow of the late James G. Hunter of Bloomfield Center, which took place on Sunday evening last after a brief but severe illness. The funeral took place on Tuesday last and the remains were interred in Oak Hill cemetery at Pontiac." JAN 25 1888

George R. Bostwick, of this city, died last Wednesday at the home of his parents on Judson street, of consumption, aged 22 years. Funeral from the house Friday afternoon, sermon by Rev. J. M. Gelston. Mr. B. was a young man of ability, and a graduate of the Pontiac High School and Detroit Commercial College. By his many excellent qualities of mind and heart he endeared himself to a large circle of friends who deeply sympathize with the family in their loss. JAN 25 1888

John Walter died last Thursday, Jan. 19th, of paralysis. Funeral from the M. E. church Saturday and the remains buried in Clarkston cemetery. Mr. Walter was a good faithful christian and leaves a wife, three sons and three daughters, and many friends to mourn his loss. JAN 25 1888

JAN 25 1888
Thomas White, a former resident of this place, late of Bay City, died at his home and the remains were brought to Watertford and interred in the Sashabaw cemetery. Mr. White had been sick but a short time with the measles.