

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

JAN 14 1887

Mr. Miller died at the county house Saturday, having been a county charge for the past 35 years. Deceased was formerly a tailor in the employ of Charles Pittman, a Pontiac clothier.

Frankie, two year old son of Wm. Seaman, of this city, died last Thursday morning of typhoid fever, and funeral services were held from the house on Lawrence street west Sunday afternoon. JAN 26 1887

JAN 26 1887

Morris Brown, for several years in the employ of John Pound, of this city, and more recently of the firm of Brown & Mahoney, of Owosso, died on Saturday last, of inflammation of the bowels. He leaves a wife and children. Mr. Brown was one of the most upright and honorable of men, and his death will be a loss to the city where he had located and builded up a good business, by his enterprise and energy.

B'ham Eccentric: "The sad news of the death of John Perkins by drowning in Florida, reached his friends last Tuesday, but without the particulars of the sad event. Johnnie, as he was familiarly known, was a prime favorite among his acquaintances and went south this winter for his health. He had secured a lucrative position and reports of his progress were very promising. His relatives have the deepest sympathy of all who knew him." JAN 26 1887

Mrs. Matilda Seeley, mother of Mrs. H. F. Messenger, died very suddenly last Wednesday at the home of her daughter on Lawrence street west. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon. Deceased had been complaining several weeks and death was caused by blood clot. Mrs. S. was in her 71st year, and the wife of the late Ira C. Seeley. She was also the mother of George H. and Charles L. Seeley and Mrs. Isaac C. Mathews, of Houghton, Dakota. JAN 26 1887

Gazette: "We regret to learn that Mrs. Ada Cross Swartz, youngest daughter of Mrs. Moses Cross of this city, and sister of Henry Cross and Mrs. Galligan of Independence, died at Oregon, Illinois, on Monday, Jan. 17, of pulmonary disease. Mrs. Swartz was about 32 years of age, was married to Benj. Swartz in 1878, and leaves beside her husband a little daughter five years of age. The afflicted mother, Mrs. Cross of this city, and Henry Cross left to attend the funeral at Oregon, on Tuesday evening." JAN 26 1887

Mrs. Marr, of Auburn died last Wednesday, aged about 70 years and the remains were taken to Detroit for interment. JAN 26 1887