

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Sarah A. M. wife of F. M. Johnston, of the New York store, this city, died Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, of pleurisy, aged 54 years. Monday the remains were taken to Brooklyn, New York, and after funeral services will be interred at Greenwood Cemetery. During her six years' residence in Pontiac Mrs. Johnston, by her many excellent qualities, won a host of friends. During her last illness, of several months duration, the deceased had the best of care and attention, but all to no purpose. The grief-stricken husband, sister and friends of the deceased, have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. Oct 24 1887

Mr. L. M. Ticknor, of White Lake, died at the asylum in this city yesterday morning, aged 55 years. Deceased was a brother of Mrs. Levi F. Crittenden, and funeral services will be held at the residence of Mr. Crittenden, Friday afternoon, at half past one o'clock. Deceased was well known in western Oakland, and it is but a short time since that he was injured by an accident and his mind became impaired. Oct 26 1887
