

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Gazette: "Mrs. John Culy, died at the residence of Capt. Cook, on Andrews street Wednesday morning, of consumption, aged 27 years. For months she realized her critical condition, anticipating her dissolution with a calmness seldom equalled. She directed and arranged in detail her burial vestment with all the exactness of a person preparing for the bridal day. It is unnecessary to remark that she was a christian and looked upon death as only a transition to a better clime. The remains were taken to St. Paul, Ontario, for burial." JAN 27 1886
