

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Mr. B. O. Williams, of Owosso, a brother of Mrs. M. A. Hodges, of this city, died March 23, aged 77 years. Deceased and his brother, the late A. T. Williams, were the founders of Owosso. MAR 30, 1887

Mrs. J. B. Sharp, of Clarkston, died Saturday morning of apoplexy, aged about 65 years. Funeral yesterday. Mrs. S. was formerly a resident of Pontiac, and leaves a husband, two sons and one daughter, (Mrs. G. H. Turk,) to mourn the loss of a kind wife and mother. APR 6, 1887

Review: "Daniel McVean, an old and much respected pioneer of Orion township, died last Monday, aged 83 years. Deceased was born in the town of Caledonia, Livingston county, N. Y. and settled in this township in 1832. The funeral occurred at his late residence on Thursday last, Rev. L. N. Moon officiating." APR 13, 1887

Mr. Daniel Mevean, an old resident, died at his home in Orion township Tuesday, April 5th. He has lived in Orion about 40 years, and was an old and respected citizen. APR 13, 1887

Died, at Royal Oak, April 11, of jaundice, Mrs. John Hersback. The funeral was held from the German Lutheran church last Sunday and was largely attended. APR 15, 1887