

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Bowman Beekman, the only child of Martin and Helen Beekman, died last Monday night at half past nine o'clock after a week's illness of congestion of the bowels. He was born in Pontiac May 3, 1878. Little Bowman was a very promising boy, a great favorite among his playmates, and noted for his unselfishness. The funeral services will take place this (Thursday) afternoon at the house at four o'clock. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends. July 25, 1888

A Mr. Chamberlain, of White Lake, died Monday night, but we were unable to learn his full name or other particulars. July 25, 1888

Rev. F. Rae, a former pastor of the Baptist church in this city, recently died at Lincoln, Illinois, of apoplexy. Mr. Rae was an eloquent preacher, a whole-souled gentleman and an untiring worker in the Lord's vineyard. The deceased will always be kindly remembered by many friends in Pontiac, Oakwood, and Northville where he preached several years, and all sympathize with Mrs. Rae in her sad affliction. July 25, 1888

Yesterday H. M. Linabury received a telegram from Mrs. J. J. Strong, at St. Paul, announcing the death of her daughter, aged about one year. The remains will be brought to Pontiac today for burial. Aug 1, 1888

Ralph Williams, of Alpena, a brother-in-law of C. B. Turner, died at Ann Arbor last Wednesday, and the remains were accompanied to Alpena by Mr. and Mrs. Turner. Aug 1, 1888
