

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

A son of Mrs. Beckley, of Waterford, died Monday night of pneumonia, aged 18 years. Funeral to-day from the Waterford Centre school house. MAY 2 1888

A child of Ella Montross, of this city, died last Friday morning from measles and croup, aged 16 months. Funeral from the house Monday morning. MAY 2 1888

Capt. Cook, of this city, died last Thursday morning, aged about 70 years, and funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon. The old gentleman broke his leg some time since upon Meloy's folly and never fully recovered from the effects of his injuries. MAY 2 1888

The mother of Patrick Rundell, of West Bloomfield, died yesterday, but we were unable to learn particulars. MAY 2 1888

Rochester Eras. Sylvanus Taft died at the residence of Wm. C. Adams, one mile west of the village, Wednesday the 25th inst., of pneumonia, aged 86 years. Mr. Taft was an old settler of Avon, and leaves many friends here to mourn his loss. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Sunday. MAY 2 1888

Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, mother of Mrs. Fred Pound, died at her home in the First ward last Thursday, aged 77 years and 11 months, and funeral services were held from the house Sunday. MAY 2 1888

Mrs. Betsey Jones, of this city, died at the residence of Mrs. Brown on Railroad street Saturday evening at eight o'clock, of consumption, aged 51 years. Funeral services were held Monday morning at St. Vincent's church and the remains were interred at Mt. Hope cemetery. MAY 2 1888

Our citizens were pained and surprised Thursday morning to hear that Alanson Watson had died quite suddenly of heart disease the night before at the age of 68 years. The deceased had been complaining but up to a few hours before his death was around as usual. Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon. He leaves a widow, Mrs. E. O. Watson, and one son to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. By his pleasant ways, Mr. W., since his residence in Pontiac, had endeared himself to a large circle of friends. MAY 2 1888

Mrs. Emeline Farnham, mother of Mrs. Mark Walter, died last Thursday morning at ten o'clock at the residence of her daughter, aged 77 years, 11 months and 2 days. The deceased was born at Homer, N. Y., May 24, 1810, and removed to Michigan forty years ago. She had resided in this city since 1852, and will long be remembered for her many deeds of kindness. Mrs. F. was a sister-in-law of Col. Ebenezer Sprague, of Ann Arbor, who used to be a leading hotel keeper in the University city. MAY 2 1888
