

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Eva R. Buzzell, of Romeo, twin sister of the late Mrs. M. K. Kittleman, died at Detroit very suddenly July 29, of heart disease, in the 29th year of her age. Pontiac friends of the deceased were surprised to hear of Eva's death and join others at Romeo and Detroit in regretting her early departure. AUG 7 1889

Miss Effie, second daughter of Dr. J. A. Harris, died last Friday evening at the home of her parents on Pike street west, of heart disease and consumption, in the 27th year of her age. Impressive funeral services, conducted by Revs. C. T. Allen and D. C. Jacokes, were held at the house Monday afternoon and a host of friends followed the remains to the Bascom vault at Oak Hill cemetery. The deceased was so well and favorably known that nothing we might say could more closely endear her to the many friends who mourn her early departure. For the past four years the deceased had been a patient, uncomplaining sufferer, and everything that love could suggest or money procure had been forthcoming, but all to no purpose further than to perhaps prolong her life. The grief stricken family have the sympathy of the entire community. AUG 14 1889
