

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

MAY 16 1888
Oxford Globe: "The funeral of Wm. Thornton, who was killed last Saturday night by the train breaking through a bridge over the Michigamme river on the Milwaukee & Northern R'y, was held at the Baptist church in this village on Tuesday, May 8, Rev. C. T. Allen, of Pontiac, officiating. The deceased leaves a wife and two small children in somewhat destitute circumstances."

Wm. Schultz, forman, of the hand car crew of section No. 38, who was recently injured near Davisburg, died a few hours later. A special from Davisburg under date of May 15 gives the following particulars: "About 9 o'clock last night as the men on section No. 38, on the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee railroad, were coming in with their hand car they were surprised by a wild engine going west and running backwards. The men got the car nearly off the track when the engine struck it and threw it into the ditch. The foreman, Wm. Schultz, was badly injured about the back, the lower ribs on his right side were broken and it is feared he is injured internally. The other men escaped without injury." MAY 23 1888

Mrs. T. N. Nott, of this city, died suddenly last Wednesday noon, of heart disease, aged about forty years. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. C. T. Allen, were held at the house Saturday and the remains placed in Oak Hill cemetery. MAY 16 1888

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Buckley died on Friday morning last, of inflammation of the bowels. Funeral services, which were very largely attended, were held Saturday, at the Catholic church, and the remains interred in Mt. Hope cemetery. The young parents have our sincerest sympathy in the loss of their first-born. MAY 23 1888

Mrs. Captain Cook, died Sunday at her residence on Andrews street, after a long illness, aged about 65 years and funeral services were held at the house yesterday afternoon. MAY 23 1888

Dans Reynolds died at Topeka, Kansas, last Friday, of typhoid fever, aged 33 years, and Monday the remains were brought to Oxbow, this county, for interment. MAY 23 1888

Amanda Dernberger, of Orion, died Sunday morning and funeral services were held at Seymour Lake yesterday. No further particulars could be obtained. MAY 23 1888