

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

*Mrs. Anna Rhinehart, of this city, died last Saturday morning at her home in the second ward, in the 91st year of her age and funeral services were held from the house Monday afternoon. The deceased was an old pioneer and had resided in Pontiac for the past fifty-seven years. Aug 21 1889

*Mrs. Thomas Arnold, of Bald Mountain, died Monday, aged about eighty years, and funeral services will be held from the house this afternoon at three o'clock. Aug 21 1889

*James M. Seaman, a former well known resident of Pontiac, died at Toledo Monday and the remains will be brought here to-day on the noon train. Aug 21 1889

Aug 28 1889
*About two weeks ago George Leslie, of Bloomsfield, hurt his heel. The wound was not serious, but blood poisoning followed and he died Saturday morning. Funeral services Monday afternoon from the M. E. church, Pontiac, were conducted by the pastor. The deceased was about 60 years old.