

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

Free Press: "Welcome Campbell died at his home in Royal Oak Sunday. Mr. Campbell was born in Canandaigua, N. Y., seventy-eight years ago. He came to Michigan in 1819, founded the village of Oakwood, Oakland Co., and twenty-five years ago removed to Royal Oak, where he bought 1,800 acres of land, now six miles from Detroit. He was well known in Michigan, having at different times been connected with Detroit business houses and also with extensive lumber operations. He leaves a large first-class farm to each of his five sons and two daughters. His sons will be his pall bearers at his funeral today." NOV 14 1880

A three-year-old child of John Breyer, of this city, died last Thursday of malarial fever. NOV 14 1880

Mrs. Harriet Wesson, a well known resident of this city, died Saturday night at her home in the second ward, of paralysis of the brain, aged about 68 years, and funeral services were held yesterday afternoon. NOV 21 1880

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Baker, of the E. M. A. died Nov. 8th. aged six weeks. The remains were taken to Van Buren county for burial. NOV 21 1880

NOV 14 1880
Gazette: "Geo. B. the son of A. B. Mathews, died in this city, Oct. 31, aged 46 years, the 28 of last May. The deceased was born in this city, May 28, 1842. He leaves a son and daughter, aged 17 and 12 years, who live at Hilledale. The funeral was held from the Zion Episcopal church last Friday, under the auspices of Pontiac Lodge, F. & A. M., of which he was a member, a preliminary church service being held by the rector, L. S. Stevens. The remains were buried on the family lot in Oak Hill cemetery by the side of his father, mother and one child."

John Stewart, of Sashabaw Plains, died last Wednesday after a long illness with long trouble, aged 51 years. Funeral services were held Friday and the remains were placed in the Petrie vault, this city. NOV 21 1880

James D. Bateman of the law firm of Robbins & Bateman, died at his Walled Lake home last Wednesday evening, of consumption, aged 54 years, and funeral services were held from his late residence Saturday afternoon. A suitable biographical sketch and the resolutions of the Oakland County Bar, will appear next week. NOV 21 1880

FOUND DEAD.

Last evening a person giving the name of G. R. Thompson registered at Hunt's Hotel, and desired to be called in season to take the 12 p. m. train for Chicago. Being unable to awaken him, the room was entered by means of the ventilator over the door, when the gentleman was found to be dead. He was advertising agent for Sulphur Bitters, which has an extensive sale. The coroner returned a verdict of death from heart disease. His body was sent east immediately. — [City Commercial. NOV 14 1880]