

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

July 24 1889
Mrs. Chester J. Webster, of Pontiac township died last week, Wednesday, of consumption, aged 39 years. Funeral services were held from the house Friday afternoon, sermon by Rev. W. R. Seaver, and the remains were followed to Oak Hill by a large number of relatives, neighbors and friends. The deceased was a noble, true wife and mother and patiently endured considerable more than the average mortal is called upon to bear. She leaves a husband, two sons and a daughter.

Mr. Hickey died Sunday at his home on Oakland avenue, and his remains will be taken to Oxford to-day for burial. July 24 1889

July 24 1889
Mary Ellen, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Seaman, died Saturday at Toledo, Ohio, of consumption, aged eight months, and Monday the remains were brought to Pontiac for bur-

Jack Pierce lost his nine months old girl baby Saturday, through cholera infantum. July 31 1889