

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

DRAYTON PLAINS.

Correspondence of the Bill Poster.

Mrs. Sarah VanCampen, wife of Jno. VanCampen of Clintonville, died at her home last Wednesday, after fourteen years of mental suffering. Mrs. VanCampen was born in Sussex Co., N. J., 66 years ago. She was the sister of Hon. J. TenEyck, of Pontiac, and mother of Mrs. J. W. Birge, of this place. The funeral was largely attended at the Clintonville chapel, on Friday afternoon, and the beautiful floral offerings told of the position she once held in society and the respect every acquaintance bore her. The husband and wish the many friends, who lent their kind services, to accept their heart felt thanks. Aug 28 1889.

✱ A two year old son of E. P. Roe, died at C. P. VanZandt's, Waterford, last Thursday, of brain fever. Funeral Saturday, from the house, and the remains interred at the Waterford Center Cemetery. Aug 28 1889
