

PONTIAC BILL POSTER

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Oakland ss.—At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Oakland, holden at the Probate Office, in the city of Pontiac on the 6th day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven Present, Thomas L. Patterson, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of William G. Taylor, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Harvey J. Taylor, praying among other things for the probate of an instrument in writing heretofore filed in this court, purporting to be the last will and testament of said William G. Taylor deceased, and that execution thereof may be granted to said Harvey J. Taylor or to some other suitable person.

Thereupon it is ordered that the 1st day of September, 1887, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the city of Pontiac, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted; and it is further ordered, that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Pontiac Bill Poster, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Oakland three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

Aug 17 1887 THOMAS L. PATTERSON,

[A true copy.] 45w4

Judge of Probate.
