F. C. DUNSTON HAS SOLD HIS BUSINESS

Clifford Waterbury, Proprietor of Canteen, Is Purchaser

An important business change was effected in Clarkston Thursday afternoon when Clifford G. Waterbury purchased the Frank C. Dunston meat market and grocery. Possession will be given September 1.

Mr. Waterbury is a successful business man, proprietor of the Canteen at the corner of U. S.-10 and M-87, which he started several years ago and has built up until it is recognized as one of the leading places of the kind on the Dixie. He will give whatever personal attention is necessary to his new acquisition and will maintain the high standard the store has achieved under Mr. Dunston's management. Mr. Waterbury has a wide acquaintance here, having always lived in the community. He will be welcomed in the business circles of the village.

Mr. Dunston has been in business here for 15 years, and retires mainly because of the condition of his health. He has been in the same location all this time, and for many years previous, probably as long as Clarkston has been in existence, a market has been located at the same spot.

CLARKSTON LOST GAME BUT IT WAS A CONTEST

For five innings the ball game between Darling's Clowns of Detroit and Clarkston, played at Athletic Field last Sunday, was a thriller, with neither team scoring, and it was a good game all through even if the visitors did go ahead in the late innings to win, 6 to 0. Matthews and Miller were the local battery, and Darling and Jones worked for the visitors. Drayton Plains will play here next Sunday.

FREEMAN FAMILY MEETS IN ITS ANNUAL REUNION

Sixty-five members of the Freeman family met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Nelsey, Clarkston, on Saturday, August 9, in their seventh annual reunion. Guests were present from Mt. Pleasant, Detroit, Flint, Pontiac, Fenton, Oxford, Goodrich, White Lake, Clarkston and Chesterfield, Ill.

The oldest member of the family in attendance was Mrs. Alice Perry, 86, of Flint, and the youngest the 3-months-old son of Blake Marvin, of Detroit.

A delightful luncheon was served, after which games were enjoyed by the younger folks while their elders renewed old times.

The 1931 reunion will be held at the same place on the second Saturday in August.

MANY ARE HURT IN MOTOR ACCIDENTS

Waterford, Ortonville and Flint People Among the Victims

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Saylor, of Dixie Road, Waterford, left the last of the week with their son, Jack, to spend their vacation at Cadillac and in the north. As they were near Vassar, at Reme, where two trunk lines cross each other, their car was hit by a car coming from the other road, neither driver seeing the other until the accident was unavoidable. Their car was a complete wreck. When it finally stopped it had gone over in a ditch near a culvert in the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Saylor were not hurt seriously, just sustaining bruises and deep cuts. Mr. Saylor has been forced to walk with a crutch as one of his legs was badly cut. Jack was picked up on the running board of the car without any injuries.

They were brought back to their home by friends from Waterford who went after them and are now recovering from their injuries. It was a miracle that they weren't more seriously hurt.

Two women from Flint, whose names were not learned, were injured Tuesday on the Dixie near Drayton Plains when the Ford car in which they were riding was crashed into by a Buick coming out of a side street. They were given first aid at the Dixie Square Deal garage and later were able to continue their trip.

Shortly after three more were injured in a collision at Walton Boulevard and Dixie Highway. Mrs. Carrie Koester and son, George, of Ortonville, who were in one of the cars, were taken to the Pontiac City Hospital and treated for cuts and bruises. The Koester machine was traveling north and was crashed into by a car driving east on the boulevard, the driver of which, we were informed, left without giving any information, altho ordered to wait for an officer.

YOUNG MARRIED COUPLE HONORED BY RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Spooner, Mr. and Mrs. Percy King, Mr. and Mrs. Irving King and Mr. and Mrs. George King, of Waterford, attended the reception given on Friday evening, August 8, by Mr. and Mrs. William King, of Springfield, for their daughter, whose marriage to Harold W. Wormley was an event of July 22. Standing before a background of gladioli in the shades of orange interspersed with ferns, the receiving line consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Wormley, Mr. and Mrs. King and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wormley, of Hudson, Mich. Later in the evening supper was served on the lawn to approximately 200 guests from tables beautifully adorned with attractive arrangements of gladioli and plox. Mr. and Mrs. Wormley returned Monday from two weeks spent at Elk Lake Inn on Elk Lake and are making their home at 131 Thorpe street, Pontiac.

SECOND MATCH IS WON BY CLARKS'N

Cedar Lodge Masons Defeated Commerce Lodge Tuesday

Cedar Lodge, F. & A. M., of Clarkston and Commerce Lodge are now even in their golf contests, each having won one match. The first match was played at Commerce on June 25, and the home team, consisting of 12 players, won on points 12 to 6, and on strokes by 70. A return match was inevitable and after one or two postponements it was finally pulled off on the Davisburg County Park course on Wednesday of this week.

This time there were 18 players entered from each lodge, making up nine foursomes. Notwithstanding the Clarkston contingent was handicapped by having to play against Willie Robertson, a member of Commerce lodge and a golf expert, who shot each nine in 40, Cedar Lodge came out victorious, 16 to 11 on points and 68 by strokes.

Robertson is not only a crack player, but knows about everything there is to learn about golf. He is the fellow who laid out the Davisburg course and also the Holly Valley course. Playing with him, for Commerce, was Mr. Field, and the Clarkston members of the foursome were George D. King and Charles Miller. George and Charlie say he made them look like dubs when every time he reached the green from the tee in two, and two putts was all he needed to sink his ball.

After the game the players all drove to the Canteen, where Mr. Waterbury, the proprietor, served one of his famous dinners.

The golf matches have served to create a friendly rivalry between the two lodges, and now a baseball game has been arranged for August 24. All players must be members of the respective lodges.

LADIES' AUXILIARY WILL HOLD TWO BAKE SALES

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Waterford Baptist Church met at the Percy King Park on Wednesday for potluck dinner. A very small attendance was there. However a fine time was reported. A short business meeting was held after the luncheon, at which plans for two bake sales for August were made. The first is August 16, this Saturday, at the August Jacober store, starting at 2 o'clock. The following committee was named: Mrs. Cleve Chamberlain, Mrs. Angus McCaffery, Mrs. Harry Harrup and Mrs. Jacober.

The second bake sale will be held on August 30 at the I. G. A. Store and the following committee was named for that: Mrs. H. A. Huey, Mrs. Arthur Walter, Mrs. Lem Van Syckle, Mrs. A. J. Perry.

MAIL BOXES ALONE MUST BE ON POST

Nothing Else Allowed by Order of the P. O. Department

Postoffice patrons who live outside the village and receive their mail by rural carrier have been notified by postal authorities that no receptacles of any kind are permitted on the same post or support which carries the mail box. The regulation is in effect because other boxes frequently interfere with the prompt and efficient delivery of the mail.

Tubes for the private delivery of newspapers are the most common violators. Upon special instructions from the Postoffice Department at Washington, the Clarkston Postoffice has notified all violators of this regulation that such boxes and tubes must be removed from the mail box poles within 10 days.

Failure to remove them will result in the suspension of delivery and the offenders will be obliged to call at the Postoffice for their mail.

The regulation as found in the Postal Laws reads:

"No receptacle of any kind, or for any purpose, shall be attached to the posts, strands or other supports upon which rural mail boxes are erected, placed or maintained."

Rural carriers have complained that in some cases newspaper tubes and other miscellaneous boxes prevent them from driving close enough to the mail boxes without marring their machines. Regulations state that boxes must be placed to enable the carrier to pick-up and deliver mail without getting out of his machine.

Clark, of Canton, China, who has been spending the summer here and has as her house guests her mother, Mrs. Manley Bowers, of New York City, and sister, Mrs. Norman Shidder, of Philadelphia, entertained in their honor at a bridge luncheon at Devon Gables, Devonshire Downs, Tuesday. GOLDEN WEDDING AT ANDERSONVILLE

Friends Remember Mr. and Mrs. George Harpley August 10

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harpley, of Andersonville, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday, August 10, with open house to their friends. On account of the ill health of Mr. Harpley, no special plans could be made, but Mr. and Mrs. Harpley have lived their entire lives in the community and their friends and relatives could not let such an important event pass by unnoticed. The house was beautifully decorated in yellow flowers and a huge wedding cake, three stories high and decorated in true wedding cake style with spun sugar and topped with a miniature rose arbor was one of the important features. Each guest was served with a slice. This was also the twentieth wedding anniversary of their only daughter, Mrs. George Sommers, who, with Mr. Sommers and their four daughters, Clara, Eleanor, Frances and Mary Lou, were with them. Gifts included a radio from Mr. Grinnell, a neighbor, and gold pieces and greetings from far away friends.

C. Bird chapter, No. 294, O. E. S., entertained the officers of the chapter at her home, Miss Andrews being one of the points of the star. A mock wedding was one of the features of the evening, after which Mrs. McFarland's two small daughters, dressed in correct bride and groom attire, made their appearance and also disappearance. A year later they returned pushing a small cab containing gifts for the bride. Contests were a part of the program, the prizes being presented to the bride. Light refreshments were served.

Wednesday evening the girl associates of Miss Andrews at the Pontiac Postoffice gave a green kitchen shower for her at the Cass Lake Country Club, which was beautifully decorated in pink and white for the occasion. Refreshments were served to 25 guests.

DAVISBURG WOMAN DIES IN FISH POND

Mrs. Arthur Davis Falls Into Tank In Her Own Yard

Mrs. Arthur Davis, a well known resident of Davisburg, was found lying dead in a small fish pond in the yard of her home, Thursday afternoon, her head under the water which was about two feet deep. A flower pot in the center of the pond was undisturbed.

Mrs. Davis left the house shortly after dinner to go out in the yard while her husband laid down on the couch to take a nap. Some time later two men called to see him on business and on leaving saw Mrs. Davis' body on the ground at the side of the pond. She had been in poor health for some time and complained of sleeping very poorly Wednesday night. It is thought that she must have suffered an attack of some nature and that she fell into the water in consequence.

Mrs. Davis leaves no family except her husband, but has a mother and sister in Detroit. She was 45 years of age.

The funeral arrangements are not yet announced.

CHURCH HOMECOMING IS SEYMOUR LAKE EVENT

STRANGER KILLED AT DRAY. PLAINS

Struck by Car on the Dixie and Neck Broken; Unidentified

An unknown man, about 50 years of age, five feet six inches tall, of slight build and dressed in dark clothes, shabby but clean, was struck by an automobile on the Dixie Highway at Drayton Plains Wednesday night, and instantly killed, his neck being broken. He was walking on the right side of the road and was struck by a car going north and driven, according to Deputy Waldron Keasey's report to Coroner J. Lee Voorhees, by Lloyd Cloutier, Orchard Bluff, Scott Lake. Cloutier told officers that he was driving slowly and did not see the man until after the accident.

Two addresses in a pocket of the dead man's coat are being investigated in hopes of establishing the victim's identity.

DO YOUR BIT BY BUYING BUS TICKETS OF AGENTS

In conversation with A. D. B. Van Zandt, advertising manager for the Eastern Michigan Motorbuses, he told a News representative that the new service through Clarkston was proving very popular with their patrons. He suggested, as an improvement that patrons might contribute, that they purchase their tickets before entering the buses, as this relieves the driver from the necessity of making change and speeds up the schedule. Full information as to price of tickets, time tables, etc., will be gladly given by the agents at the regular stops.

CLARKSTON M. E. CHURCH

Joseph Chapman, Minister

The services for Sunday, August 17, will be in the church for morning worship at the hour of 10:45 a. m., and there will be special singing by the choir. The subject of the sermon will be "God Is Love". This makes a very fitting and beautiful subject for this season of the year when the various crops are being gathered and placed in the barns and granaries for future use.

The Sunday School in connection with our church convenes immediately at the close of the morning service under the leadership of the superintendent, Earl Walter. We aim to have a class for everyone that comes and a teacher for each class.

We are not having any evening service, because during the warm weather the attendance was so small and some others thought that it would be just as well not to have any. We acquiesced to the wishes expressed by a number of the people. It is possible that after a little we will open up again for an evening service.

Our Choir rehearsal will come on Friday evening of next week, Aug. 22. Our Annual Conference convenes in Court Street Church, Flint, on September 17. So you see we are getting quite close to the end of the year, and it is necessary that all bills shall be paid before that date. I am sure that the treasurer will be delighted to talk over the finance question with you. If you have met all local responsibility and you still have a little left in the Lord's Tithe box the church can still take care of it for you for we have a most wonderful missionary program which at the present time can take care of all that you can give.

The Seymour Lake Church has its morning worship at 9:00 o'clock and the Sunday School convenes at about 10:15 a. m.

The pastor was able to get to the Simpson Park Camp Ground near Romeo two or three days of last week and also last Sunday afternoon and evening. It was a great camp, much good was done and many people responded to the invitation given to know God in His pardoning grace and sanctifying power. The message on Sunday evening by Rev. Paul Rees was exceptionally good and was given in a very forceful manner. At the close some thirty or more people declared themselves as being desirous of living the Christian life and serving God in a wholehearted way.

On Wednesday, August 20, the choir will meet to complete their organization for the best choir in the community. We want you to watch and see them develop and grow. If you can please help them by your interest and presence.

TREES ARE INJURED IF BARK IS RINGED

Scoring to Hasten Fruiting May Cause Disease, Says Expert

East Lansing, August 13.—The practice used by some Michigan orchard owners of ringing or girdling the branches of apple trees to hasten the time when the trees will bear fruit may be the means of seriously injuring the trees by the introduction of disease organisms into the wounds made by the cutting tools.

In one commercial orchard in the state where the practice of ringing has been used, 146 out of 437 Baldwin trees which had been ringed were badly infected with blight which had gained entrance thru the cuts in the bark.

None of the varieties of apples are immune to fire blight, and if any blight is present in the top of a tree, the scoring of the bark on the branches provides an entrance place for the disease to a part of the tree where costly damage will result.

The horticultural department recommends that, if ringing is to be practiced, the knives used should be disinfected before each cut is made.

The formula for a disinfecting solution for use on the knives will be given to anyone who requests it from the State College department.

COSTS FARMERS LESS TO SELL BY TELEPHONE

Iowa Association Gets Better Prices for Stock and Farm Produce

As a result of a telephone marketing plan recently put into effect in the State of Iowa, farmers and stock raisers are getting better prices for their hogs, and sales costs have proven extremely low, in spite of a somewhat dull and sluggish market.

The new plan was launched by the Iowa Cooperative Livestock Shippers' Association early in March. The Association has contacts with various local shipping associations. The central agency is located in the City of Des Moines, and it is this agency which handles all the market responsibilities for the farmer.

Every detail of each transaction is arranged by Long Distance telephone. The best prices for the day are obtained by the headquarters office from scattered markets. Then the prices are telephoned to local shipping associations, the details are consummated, and the stock is finally shipped from the original loading station to the market which offers the best price.

In the few months in which this new telephone marketing scheme has been in effect, the results have proven exceptionally encouraging. During the first month, approximately 100 carloads of livestock were sold through the Association at what has been termed exceptional prices, through selecting markets best suited to the individual association. The central agency headquarters in Des Moines employs sequence calling lists, Long Distance directories, and similar aids. Every morning the various markets and buyers who are in a position to serve the Iowa stock raisers are called, and in this manner the condition of the markets, the day's prices for stock of various classes and weights, and other information is obtained and offered to the various local associations and when these associations acquire a truck or carload of stock they at once get in touch by telephone with the central agency.

When prices are unusually attractive, the members of the local associations that are members of the organization are notified at once and advised to sell any stock they may have on hand, but on days when prices are unusually low the associations are advised to hold their stock for awhile.

COUNTY DEPUTIES TRAPPED BY THUGS

Officers Hubbell and Philpott Waylaid and Held Up

Topping a rise in the ground in a field near Scott Lake, Friday afternoon, in pursuit of three men whom they suspected of stealing an outboard motor, Deputy Sheriffs Clare Hubbell (not Deputy Clare Hubbell of Holly) and R. L. Philpott, both plain clothes men and rated as crack officers of the sheriff's force, found themselves facing three guns cocked and held in the hands of the fellows they were after, who demanded that the officers "stick 'em up".

ceeded to relieve them of their weapons and make their get-away. They paused on reaching the road long enough to tear loose the ignition of the officers' car and throw the guns they had taken from the deputies into the car.

The thugs' car bore an Ohio license plate, No. 382-692, and the deputies are certain they recognized the driver. Vigorous search has been made and is still being made for the trio.

Sheriff Frank Schram commended his deputies for not attempting to "shoot it out when they found themselves confronted with the bandit guns.

"I have issued a general order to all officers today to carry riot guns when patrolling the county", Schram stated. "These men are not amateurs but hardened criminals and I want every officer prepared to meet them."

HONEY MADE 58 YEARS AGO STILL PALATABLE

Fifty-eight years ago a hive of honey bees made some white clover honey that has been kept by the United States Department of Agriculture and tested at intervals thruout a half century or more. Once almost colorless, this honey now resembles blackstrap molasses. Its original flavor has changed until it now tastes considerably like buckwheat honey. However, this honey would not be out of place on steaming hot cakes or waffles at this time but for the fact that the department plans to age it indefinitely or until it is no longer fit for consumption, testing it from time to time to note chemical changes. All kinds of honey darken after the first few years and the flavor also changes.

For Congress

(Political Announcement)

This Congressional District has reason to be gratified over the work of its Congressman, Hon. Grant M. Hudson, during the past eight years.

His active and aggressive interest in the various phases of legislation that has affected the diversified needs of the district has been most commendable. Especially has this been true in the past term, when as a member of the great Rivers and Harbors committee he not only secured the authorization for the further development of Michigan's harbors, totalling more than three million dollars, but also secured the authorization of the first unit of construction in the St. Lawrence-Deep Sea Waterway.

HON. GRANT M. HUDSON

The Sixth District cannot afford to lose the services of Congressman Hudson, which have become more valuable as his term of service lengthens and the voters of the district should return him by an overwhelming vote in the Republican primaries of September 9th. A square-shooting dry, but a fighter for every interest of his district.

CARE IS REQUIRED TO PRESERVE FOOD

Enzymes Must Be Rendered Inactive and Bacteria Killed

East Lansing, Aug. 13.—To properly preserve foods in cans, the canning process must render the enzymes present in the foods inactive and must make conditions within the can or container unfavorable for the growth of bacteria, according to members of the bacteriology department at Michigan State College.

Canning temperatures inactivate the enzymes so no other precautions are needed to destroy these factors which are responsible for the spoilage of such food products as meats. Meat can be preserved by drying because the moisture which must be present for them to work is removed in the drying process.

Bacteria are responsible for most of the deterioration in food products. Sterilization of the food is necessary to prevent them from destroying it. The bacteria present in the food must be killed and the food then must be placed in an air tight container to prevent the entrance of bacteria after the food has been processed.

If the cans are not sealed tightly air will be drawn thru any minute openings as the material in the can becomes cool. The air which enters carries with it bacteria which will perhaps spoil the canned product.

The Bank Puts Money to Work

The average citizen is proud of the development of his community—both from the standpoint of the agriculture in the country and business in the town. Improved farms and good stores are frequently taken as a matter of course without any thought of how they came to be.

Were it not for the banks, very little of the development as we now see it could have been possible.

The bank receives the surplus money of the members of the community and makes it available at reasonable cost, upon good security, to others who need funds for development purposes.

The fact that the bank can perform the service it does at such reasonable cost is one of the present day miracles of business. This miracle is made possible by the general community support of and use of banking facilities.
