DIES VERY SUDDENLY

James Joseph Reed, a prominent Rose farmer, died very suddenly of heart trouble at his home just west of tion. Davisburg, Wednesday noon. Mrs. Reed was getting dinner and he was lying on a couch in the dining room. She heard a groan and looking in from the kitchen saw her husband roll from the couch to the floor.

Mr. Reed was born March 2, 1872, on the farm where he died and where he always lived.

Funeral services will be held from the home on Saturday at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Anderson, of St. Louis, Mich., will officiate and burial will be at Highland.

ORTONVILLE

With the reopening of school, Scout meetings will now be held every Wednesday evening. Dr. C. E. Marsh, Scout leader, will begin a series of illustrated talks to the boys on first aid and will first take up wounds and applying of tourniquets. Dr. Marsh feels that with the number of metor accidents increasing and the victims so often being cut with flying glass, this will be of great importance in the boys' training. Ortonville is very fortunate to have an experienced leader who is so willing to give of both time and talent to the Scout work.

Mrs. Arthur Robinson, who was so seriously injured some time ago with broken glass, has quite completely recovered and is able to be about again.

Ortonville now boasts of a fine sixpiece orchestra known as Clarence Borst and his Syncopators, playing both modern and old time music. The boys have been practicing for some time and recently made their first public appearance with credit.

Old English Castle Lumley castle, near Chester-le-

Street, England, it is thought, can establish its claim to be the oldest inhabited castle in the two counties of Northumberland and Durham. It was originally built as a manor house about 933, and continued as such for about four centuries. In the Fourteenth century Sir Ralph Lumley had the castle remodeled by building the four corner towers or keeps and connecting the building on all sides but the west. The castle has been in continuous occupation of the Lumley family ever since its original erection in the days of the Saxon kings.

Presidential Office Vacant

Inasmuch as the term of the actual President expires at midnight March 3, and it is the curtom for the incoming Chief Executive to take the oath of office at midnight on March 4, there is, strictly speaking, a 12-hour period when the country is without a President. The law is silent as regards the hour when the President shall take the oath of office, and it has been a matter of personal convenience. In the event of a pressing emergency there is nothing to prevent the incoming official being sworn in during the first hour of the 4th of March, although this has never been done.

Senator Seymour This same man, Grant Hudson, tells you that it is in your minds. If so, it is

H. Person To Replace Grant Hudson

Congressman from the

for

Sixth District

Primary Election September 9th

WHY is this so? Here is a true story of a farmer in Michigan. You probably know it yourself.

"I own an 80-acre farm just out of Lansing. I rent it for $5 an acre. That is $400 a year. That is all the man can afford to pay. It is as good a farm as there is. The man pays the December

"Last February he laid the tax receipt on my table and some money. He counted the money and it was a few cents over $198. The tax receipt was for a few cents under $202.

"Now I ask anyone—farmer, banker, business man, workingman-didn't I pay a 50 per cent income tax? I paid over half my income in taxes. Is there any other business on earth that can stand a 50 per cent income tax?"

Yet the farmers of the Sixth District for years have had a man in Congress who has ignored this situation, who has never done one single act for the good of the farmers.

This same man, Grant Hudson, tells time you got it out of your minds by getting Grant Hudson out of Congress.

You have the opportunity September 9th to send in place of Grant Hudson a man who was born and raised on a farm but a few miles north of Howell. This man has served you long and well in the Michigan State Legislature and Senate. His name is Seymour H. Person. He is the man you should send to Congress to serve you again, this time in a larger and more effective Vote for Senator Person in place of Grant Hudson as your next representative in Congress. Assert yourselves in your own behalf. Other interests do, and you will never get a fair deal until you do, too.

Prosecuting Attorney

I believe that you should be concerned with the age, legal experience and reputation of the entire Prosecutor's staff.

You should be satisfied that the Prosecutor's office is on friendly and workable terms with all other law enforcement agencies.

Your money can be wasted by the issuance of unwarranted and uninvestigated complaints. Partiality or bias in administration, each leads to disrespect for law enforcement. Common courtesy is required in private business and should be demanded from public servants.
