VOLUME II. NO. 10.

CLARKSTON, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1930

WHOLE NUMBER, 62

MRS. C. G. MILLER TAKEN SUDDENLY

Stricken Wednesday and Dies In Less Than an Hour

Mrs. Charles G. Miller, 64 years of age, a former well-known Clarkston girl, Nora Taylor, died very suddenly at Pontiac, which city was her home, about noon on Thursday. Mrs. Miller was stricken while down town in Pontiac and lived less than an hour. She was preparing to go to a social function at Henry Ford's in Dearborn in connection with some club work in which she was engaged.

Mrs. Miller was very well known in Clarkston and news of her death was a distinct shock to the community. In Pontiac she was prominent socially.

She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Edward Tibbals, of Pontiac, and one grandchild. She also leaves two sisters who live in the west.

The funeral will be held from the home on Ottawa Drive, Monday afternoon, Nov. 10, at 2:00 o'clock. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery.

PERCH FINGERLING ARE PLANTED IN CLARKSTON

Thirty cans of Lake Superior perch fingerlings were planted in Park Lake and the mill pond in Clarkston the past week by a conservation officer. They were procured from the Drayton Plains fish hatchery. President D. McClelland assisted in the work, and while we do not know how many fish there were in the lot it is safe to say that if one-fourth of them grow to dimensions fit for the table, there will be some mighty good fishing right in the village in due time. At any rate, it was a good job and the News would like to chronicle other similar ones.

DRAYTON PLAINS SCHOOL NOTES

Keego Harbor boys will meet our boys here this (Friday) afternoon, and as there is great rivalry between these teams, we look for a good game. Keego Harbor, from the standpoint of previous games, is favored to win but we know our boys are going on the field keyed up in spirit to meet the most formidable opponent.

The Dramatics club has started work on three short 1-act plays which they will present at some later date when opportunity arises, perhaps at P. T. A. meetings or special assemblies.

The magazine sale put on last week was very successful from a financial standpoint and netted a good bit for the athletic fund. The black pirates were the winners and the reds are planning on giving them a party in the near future.

Don't miss the Colonial Art exhibit on Wednesday evening, Nov. 12, at the school. The proceeds will go for new pictures for some of the rooms.

The Commercial Law class, which is studying court procedure, visited Judge Gillespie's court Thursday morning and saw court in session and obtained first hand knowledge of how decisions are made and justice meted out. They were accompanied by their teacher, Miss Mildred King.

On Wednesday evening the Oxford Hi-Y boys came to Drayton Plains school and installed the officers of the Hi-Y club recently organized here.

The officers of the Clarkston Hi-Y club, also recently organized, were installed by the Oxford boys later in the evening. A number of business men and leaders in the work from both Oxford and Clarkston accompanied the boys.

LUNCHEON AND SHOWER FOR GUEST FROM PONTIAC

Mrs. E. D. Spooner and Mrs. John W. Watchpocket entertained a party of friends for luncheon and a shower Saturday afternoon, at the home of the former, in honor of Mrs. Harold W. Wormley, of Pontiac. Centering the table where a delightful luncheon was served was a beautiful arrangement of chrysanthemums.

The guests included Mrs. Wormley and her mother, Mrs. William R. King, Mrs. Henry H. Mehlberg, Mrs. Herbert Van Welt, Mrs. Fred Muller, Mrs. Robert Beattie, Miss Marian Stevens and Miss Mildred King.

ELECTION

Democrats Gain in Both Senate and House

BRUCKER A WINNER

All Republicans in County Win Election Except Spencer for Drain Commissioner

NATION.—Almost a Democratic landslide. Control of Senate and House still in doubt. Latest press reports Thursday evening give the Democrats 46 Senators; Republicans 47; Farmer-Laborites 1, with two still doubtful. To the House Democrats have elected 213, Republicans 217, Farmer-Laborites 1, with four in the doubtful column. Necessary for a majority, 218.

STATE.—Entire Republican ticket elected. Brucker's majority will be about 100,000, considerably less than remainder of ticket.

CONGRESSIONAL.—Seymour H. Person, Republican, won by a large majority.

LEGISLATIVE.—No opposition to Republican candidates.

COUNTY.—A full resume of the results in Oakland County will be found in our County News Letter.

PROHIBITION.—Where this question was involved to any extent, either by referendum or as an issue between candidates, the wets generally were victorious, although the dries scored a few triumphs. The next Congress will be dry in both branches by reduced majorities.

AMENDMENTS.—All were beaten by good majorities. The reapportionment proposition lost by about 50,000 according to latest figures. The cigarette tax was decisively defeated.

TOWNSHIPS.—Independence gave every Democratic candidate a majority except for U. S. Senator. Both local candidates, Frank C. Dunston for sheriff and Washington E. MARL BED IS DISCOVERED ON FARM OF WILL SUTTON

A marl bed that promises to be valuable was discovered on the farm of Will Sutton near Ortonville this week. Mr. Sutton, a well-known resident of this community, recently bought the farm and moved upon it.

The discovery was made by Harold M. Vaughn, of Clarkston, county agricultural agent, who has been looking for marl deposits in this vicinity. He visited the Sutton farm in company with the owner and was attracted by castings thrown up by earth worms. A little investigation led to the discovery of the marl bed, which is said to give promise of excellent quality and quantity.

"Lest We Forget"

ALTHOUGH a thousand weary miles of ocean lie between us and the graves of those who gave their lives in 1917 and 1918 . . . and although the years be long since their sacrifice was new . . . we have not forgotten. Nor have we forgotten the sacrifice made by those who were spared us and who live today. Armistice Day is their day . . . and we join the world in paying homage to our heroes.

CLARKSTON IS NOW ALL OUT OF DEBT

Last Obligation for Improvements Paid on Wednesday

In these days when not only a great many individuals find themselves hampered by obligations, but nearly all municipalities in particular are bonded almost to the limit, Clarkston occupies a unique position in that it is wholly free from debt.

This would not be so noteworthy or creditable if the position had been attained through a lack of progressiveness and by a parsimony that precluded the obtaining of advantages that the people deserved, but such is not the case. For instance, among the numerous improvements that have been made within recent times are the cement pavement, the new bridge on the street leading to the new school house, the fire hall, the public rest room, new fire engine, new street signs, traffic lights, etc. These all involved the expenditure of money, but every cent of the debts incurred has been paid. The last payment was made at the Clarkston State Bank on Wednesday, and now the village has no obligations to meet except current expenses. What other town in Michigan can boast of this achievement?

LADIES' AUXILIARY WILL SPONSOR PLAY, NOV. 14

The Waterford Ladies' Auxiliary is sponsoring a play to be given at the High School Auditorium on Nov. 14, at 8:00 o'clock, by the Keego Harbor Trinity Church Ladies' Aid. The title is "Clubbing a Husband", a comedy in three acts. Keep this date open so the community may enjoy the play, which was given in Keego Harbor a short time ago and pronounced a huge success. Further notice of the play will be given next week. Tickets will be on sale with Mrs. H. H. Pratt and Mrs. Harry Harrup in charge. They will also be sold at the school house that night.

Mrs. John Walter has been spending the week with her daughters, Mrs. Lee McIntyre and Mrs. Forrest Jones.

Miss Nell Barry entertained her contract club at luncheon on Wednesday at her home at Caribou Inn. Cards were played in the afternoon.

NEW OIL STATION OPENS SATURDAY

Will Be Ready for Business In Less Than Specified Time

When the plans of the new service and oil station at North Main street and Orion road were made public, it was stated that it would be finished in two months, which at that time seemed an impossibility.

A definite plan was followed, the best in labor- and time-saving devices were called into use and the work progressed like magic until now, with still a little time to spare, we are announcing the opening date as Saturday, Nov. 8, with everything in readiness, tanks filled with gas and oils, pumps working and light ready for a press of the button.

John Visgatis, well known and very popular young man of the village, has charge, and as he is experienced along that line, it is a foregone fact that everything will be kept in perfect order and spotless.

Interviewed this week, Mr. and Mrs. Visgatis told of their plans for arranging for a continuous series of blooms from the first tulips in spring on through the season and other features of which we will tell you later. One more very necessary thing to be settled is a name and plans will be announced later for a contest in order to find the most suitable one.

Mr. Visgatis has an official announcement elsewhere in this issue.

CLARKSTON SCHOOL NOTES

The pool in the miniature garden presented to the kindergarten room by Mr. Wompole as stated in last week's issue, is now stocked with gold fish and a constant center of attraction.

A Hi-Y club has been recently organized with the following officers: Marvin Porritt, president. Jerry Cell, vice-president. Edward Larion, secretary. Bob Jones, treasurer.

The club was invited to Drayton Plains Wednesday evening to witness the initiation and installing of the officers there by the Oxford boys and later in the evening they went thru the ceremony with the Oxford boys in charge, as otherwise the initiation would have to have been delayed for some time as dates were previously taken.

Students of the commercial department are putting the finishing touches on a piece of work that is a credit to the class, teacher and school. All of the songs sung in and by the school on various occasions have been compiled, arranged and indexed in neat, durable books with strong manila covers. Fifty copies have been compiled and will be greatly appreciated by the school. Miss Hyde is procuring the music for all of the songs.

The staff of the Clarkstonian is busy at the school paper and expects to have it ready by the middle of the month.

The members of the Junior class have their class rings and pins.

CHRISTMAS SEALS NUMBER 81,000,000

That Is the 1930 Allotment for Sale in Michigan This Year

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 3.—The close approach of the 1930 sale of Christmas seals was signaled this week by the arrival at the offices of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association of 81,000,000 seals, Michigan's allotment for the coming sale. Funds secured in the sale finance the organized campaign against tuberculosis.

Although the Christmas seal sale does not begin until Thanksgiving Day, word has come to the Michigan Tuberculosis Association of attempts in different parts of the state to sell seals represented as tuberculosis Christmas seals. These seals, according to the Association, are not authorized tuberculosis Christmas seals although they imitate them closely in form and design.

"Seals of this type are purely commercial and are sold for private gain", stated T. J. Werle, executive secretary of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, in warning against unknowing purchase of them. "While there is no reason for not buying commercial seals when they are sold for what they are, we desire to warn people against purchasing them under the impression that they are buying the Christmas seals that finance anti-tuberculosis work."

The tuberculosis seals may be identified by the red double-barred cross, the emblem of the anti-tuberculosis campaign, which is displayed prominently upon them.

SOILS SHOULD HAVE GOOD HUMUS SUPPLY

Decaying Organic Matter Aids In Conserving Water Supply During Dry Seasons

East Lansing, Nov. 5.—A committee of Michigan farmers and county agricultural agents in a meeting at Michigan State College to consider ways of hastening the improvement of Michigan soils recommended that more emphasis be placed on the need for increasing the organic matter contained in soils.

Reports made at the meeting showed that soils which do not have an adequate supply of organic matter suffer more severely from adverse conditions, such as drought, than soils which contain a liberal supply of humus. The decaying organic matter in the soil apparently acts as an absorbent and aids the soil in retaining moisture.

It has also been found that the activities of bacteria are greatest in soils with a high organic matter content, and experiments have shown that better results are obtained from the use of fertilizer and lime when the soil humus content is high.

The members of the committee, Eli Lindzey, Doster; James Redpath, Kal-amazoo; R. V. Tanner, Jackson; Fred W. Johnston, Paw Paw; A. B. Love, Saginaw, and H. L. Barnum, Lake City, also recommended that Michigan State College continue the local leader method of soils extension work. Members of the college soils department state that 1,500 Michigan farmers received training in soil improvement through this means of instruction last year.

The use of sweet clover as a green manure crop is recommended for increasing the amount of organic matter in the soil. A catch crop of sweet clover plowed down in the spring once during each crop rotation will maintain the soil's humus content.

"Perpetual Motion"

Soon after the Civil war there was great public interest in perpetual motion, that is, a machine which would keep perpetually in motion without outside energy. Scientific bodies took up the question and pointed out for the benefit of investors and others that such motion was an impossibility. It was likened to a man lifting himself by his own bootstraps. Judging the interest of the people by the number of patent applications on such machines, the conclusion that none of them will work, or can work, seems not to be generally accepted.

Irony Proved Boomerang

Lord Bowen, in his early days at the bar, prosecuted a prisoner who had been caught in a house at midnight crawling downstairs with his boots off, laden with plunder, relates a columnist in the Manchester (England) Guardian. The evidence was so overwhelming that Bowen indulged in a little irony, remarking on the thoughtfulness of the prisoner in removing his boots, so as not to disturb the slumbers of the family. The jury was so impressed with this extenuating circumstance that they returned a verdict of not guilty.

COUNTY NEWS-LETTER

By F. M. BLUNK, Special Correspondent

In the face of one of the stiffest Democratic oppositions in years the Republican party of Michigan rode to a brilliant victory at the polls Tuesday. Wilber M. Brucker was elected over William A. Comstock, his Democratic opponent for Governor, by a margin of approximately 100,000 votes. This was the hardest fought battle of the elections in the State, the Republican Senatorial and Congressional candidates, with James A. Couzens leading, rolling up huge majorities.

Seymour H. Person, the wet Republican candidate for Congressman from this district, ran far ahead of the Democratic aspirant, Patrick H. O'Brien. Oakland County, which gave former Governor Groesbeck such excellent support in the primary election, squeezed out a margin of over 2,000 votes for Mr. Brucker. Some of the rural sections of the county, as well as Royal Oak and Ferndale, gave Mr. Comstock a margin, but this was wiped out in the voting at Pontiac.

While the Democratic candidates for county offices waged a more organized campaign than expected, and had a full ticket in the field, they failed to get anywhere, excepting in the fight for the drain commissioner's office, which, on the fact of unofficial returns, has been won by the Democratic candidate, the young civil engineer, M. D. Van Wagoner. And Mr. Van Wagoner's victory was in a measure due to the support of an influential group of Republicans who were opposed to Arthur W. Spencer, the incumbent.

The complete unofficial tabulation of the vote gave Van Wagoner 14,691 and Spencer 14,628, or a margin of 63 votes for the Democrat. Mr. Spencer, when made aware of this tabulation, stated that he had not given any thought to asking for a recount, at least until after he had been apprised of the official count.

Frank C. Dunston, Democratic candidate for Sheriff, ran well against Sheriff Frank Schram, with William A. Wheeler, defeated in the primary by Schram and running in the election on "stickers," showing a poor third.

The real surprise of the election, next to the victory of Mr. Van Wagoner, was the announcement by Norman C. Orr, county prosecutor, claiming election as "second probate judge for Oakland County," under a public act authorizing a second probate judge for counties of population greater than 180,000. Mr. Orr, without the knowledge of some of the Republican leaders of the county, quietly arranged with some of his friends to place stickers on the ballots with his name and the office. These stickers, to the number of several hundred, were placed on ballots in Troy and Royal Oak townships.

It had been the general understanding that Mr. George Dondro was slated to get this $7,000 a year job by appointment after the elections, but Mr. Orr, by stealing a march on the leaders of his party, has laid a claim that, it is admitted by some of the leading legal lights of the county, will be difficult to lay aside, if at all.

The vote in Oakland County, complete with the exception of one small precinct in Southfield Township, follows:

Governor—Brucker, R, 17,599; Comstock, D, 15,429.
Lieutenant Governor—Dickinson, R, 17,374; Sawyer, D, 15,562.
Secretary of State—Fitzgerald, R, 17,665; Abbott, D, 10,823.
Attorney General—Voorhies, R, 18,157; Kirkby, D, 10,445.

Auditor General—Fuller, R, 17,512; Stack, D, 10,645.

Justice Supreme Court—Butzel, R, 17,446; Henry, D, 10,388.
U. S. Senator—Couzens, R, 23,680; Weadock, D, 6,246.

Congressman—Person, R, 18,727; O'Brien, D, 9,588.

Legislature (first district)—Lee, R, 9,878; Bilkovsky, D, 4,395.
Legislature (second district)—Miller, R, 8,215.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO SHARE LIMELIGHT

Given Important Part in International Show Program

Boys and girls of rural America will next month share the limelight of the agricultural world that will be directed upon Chicago on the occasion of the nation's premier livestock show, the International Live Stock Exposition, which will be held at the Chicago Stock Yards, November 29 to December 6.

According to Secretary B. H. Heide of the exposition, the number of young people taking part in this national gathering will be increased this year from 1000 to 1400. They will come from 43 states as well as the province of Ontario, to participate in the contests, demonstrations, meetings and banquets that are a part of the National 4-H Club Congress held within the gates of the International.

Most of the boys and girls will receive free trips to this event as rewards for outstanding accomplishments in 4-H Club work in their home states and counties. These trips are given by organizations and individuals who are interested in the worthy accomplishments of these farm youths and girls, who are not only educating themselves to better methods of farming and housekeeping, but whose work reacts to the benefit of the communities from which they come.

The International Live Stock Exposition, with its Junior Live Stock Feeding Contests, its Junior Live Stock Judging Contests, its Junior Corn Show, and the 4-H Club Congress within its gates, has of recent years, become the nation's leading conclave of youthful activity, as well as the country's foremost livestock show.

Although many of the young people who will visit the International will have earned free trips, the railroads have made it easier for everyone to visit the exposition by granting reduced round trip fares to Chicago at this time, the management announces.

PLAN GREATER RADIO PROGRAM AT COLLEGE

Station WKAR Will Have Early Morning and Afternoon Features For Farm and Home

East Lansing, Nov. 5.—A home-makers program from 3:00 to 3:40 p. m. Eastern Standard time, daily except Sunday, and a program from 7:30 to 8:00 a. m., daily except Saturday and Sunday, of special interest to owners of livestock are announced as an extension of the home and farm news broadcast from station WKAR, Michigan State College. The afternoon program will be given from Nov. 17 to Dec. 19, and the livestock program for Nov. 17 to Dec. 12.

The two special programs will be added to the regular noon broadcast which features short talks on topics of interest to farm men and women. The market and weather reports will still be given at noon.

The home-makers program will include material prepared by "Aunt Sammy" of the bureau of home economics, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, given during the first ten minutes of the period; a daily radio music class conducted by Josephine Kackley, M. S. C. music department; and a series of 10 minute lectures on household problems given by members of the home economics department of the college.

Other material included in this program will be talks on the care of flowers and house plants given by the department of floriculture on Tuesdays; instructions on the care of floors, floor finishes, and coverings; a reading by a member of the public speaking department each week; five talks given by members of the State Department of Public Instruction; and a weekly lecture on the activities of the federal government in enforcing the national food and drug laws.

Problems of livestock feeding which have been complicated this year by the drought conditions of the past summer will receive a great deal of attention in the program for livestock owners. Both the dairy husbandry and the animal husbandry departments of the College will contribute speakers to this program. Consideration will be given to the feeding of dairy and beef cattle, swine, horses and sheep.

Station WKAR operates on a frequency of 1040 kilocycles and a wave length of 288.3 meters. Listeners are invited to write to any of the speakers for additional information upon any subject discussed or for information on any farm or home topic.

PINES NOW ATTACKED BY NEW INSECT PEST

Nursery Stock, Ornamental Plantings Suffer Greatest Amount of Damage

East Lansing, Nov. 5.—A new insect which has an appetite only for pine trees made its appearance in Michigan for the first time this year, according to the department of entomology, Michigan State College.

The European pine shoot moth was found on Long Island in 1914 and was found near Ann Arbor and Detroit this year. It confines its attacks to pine trees but seems to work on any member of the pine family. Most of the damage is done to young trees being grown in nurseries or to individual trees in ornamental plantings.

The larvae of the moth tunnel their way into the young shoots of the pine and these small branches are sometimes killed. The mutilation of the shoots causes them to become deformed in cases where the shoots survive the attacks of the larvae.

The most effective control measure now known is to trim off and burn the infested shoots late in the fall or before May in the spring. A thorough spraying with arsenate of lead applied as soon as the moth appears and kept on the tree until the latter part of May also assists in controlling the insect.
