GOLDEN WEDDING WAS CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. L. De Lisle Married 50 Years March 14

Celebrating their golden wedding anniversary Saturday, March 14, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. De Lisle were hosts at practically an all day celebration.

Honored residents of this village for more than 40 years, their only regret was that their home was not large enough to entertain more of their friends. As it was, relatives and very old and close friends who had journeyed many miles of life's highway with them began to gather at an early hour, and by 1:00 o'clock 51 were seated at a dinner that did justice to the occasion. The tables were beautifully decorated with yellow tapers and yellow roses and snapdragons, while yellow candelabras and tulips were arranged about the rooms.

With no set program, the day was one of congratulations, good wishes, calls from friends and bits of olden days recalled.

The evening was given over to the younger relatives, when 75 guests were entertained at a buffet supper. Mr. De Lisle, always the center of a lively crowd, was presented with a golden paper crown, truly a work of art, and plainly lettered "King Ben".

Ella Easton and Benjamin De Lisle, children of neighboring families in Metamora, journeyed to Detroit, Monday, Mar. 14, 1881, where they were married at the home of the Rev. Zachary Eddy, a Presbyterian minister. They returned to Metamora, where Mr. De Lisle was employed as a druggist, and lived there until 1887, when they came to Clarkston and Mr. De Lisle took a position in the drug store of Charles Smith.

Although Mr. De Lisle was later employed for a few years at Davisburg, they always maintained their home here and have taken a very active part in the affairs of the village.

President of the village for three years, and at various times filling other offices, he has been for the past few years and is now health officer for the village and township.

During all these years, while Benjamin De Lisle has been of service to the public, Ella Easton De Lisle did not fail in her part of mother and home maker and time has rested lightly on this very worthy couple.

Their two daughters, Mrs. Edward P. Sugar, of Pontiac, and Mrs. Homer Lowrie, of Clarkston, together with their seven grandchildren, were with them on this very important occasion, and guests were present from Lapeer, Flint, Orion, Pontiac and Detroit.

The boys will appreciate your support.

SHOW BIG EXHIBIT COMMERCIAL CARS

Caravan to Visit Clarkston on Wednesday of Next Week

During the early part of next week a Commercial Caravan will leave the Highland Park Ford plant, where it has been for some time, and take to the open road.

Almost every salesroom carries models of pleasure cars, but few people are aware of the great progress that has been made in the commercial car line and it is for this reason that the fleet will make a trip thru central and southern Michigan that will occupy over five weeks. Ordinarily a village the size of Clarkston would not be considered, but situated as it is at the junction of M-15 and U. S. 10, it is now looked upon as a "key" city, and it will be one of the first stops.

On the fourth page of this issue Beattie Bros. have a list of some of the commercial cars that will be in the caravan, and we are also informed that there probably will be some models of older forms of transportation, such as ox carts, just by way of contrast.

The caravan will arrive here next Wednesday morning, about 11:30 o'clock, and will make a stop of an hour or so, and everybody is cordially invited by the local Ford service to be at or near their place and get a firsthand idea of the progress that the motor industry is making in commercial cars.

The next stop will be at Ortonville for one hour, then the caravan will continue on north, swinging later to the west and then south, making a circuit of this part of the state.

DULL TIMES ARE SENDING FOLKS BACK TO THE FARM

A Clarkston citizen whose reputation for veracity is unquestioned became curious recently as to why so many cars were going thru town north-bound, loaded with household goods packed and piled wherever there was place and room, and carrying also whole families, or at least enough persons to make a good sized family. His curiosity became so keen that he decided to inquire into the matter and so interviewed several of the drivers of the cars. In every instance he was told that they were going back to the farm, some on land they had homesteaded. This information is in keeping with reports that the rural population of the state is increasing as workers out of jobs in cities are going back to the country.

A FISH STORY WITH PICTURE TO PROVE

None Will Be More Surprised to See This Than Hero Himself

A few weeks ago Roy Spencer, sitting in his fish house on Green's Lake, saw a fish swim slowly into sight that was so big that he had a touch of stage fright and struck at it so hurriedly that the spear glanced off and the fish went on its way with a heavy gash on its right side. Last week Mr. Spencer was again sitting in his fish house when the monster pictured above swam into sight, and this time Roy, subduing his agitation, drove his spear with perfect aim and the fish was landed. Strange as it may seem, it had a deep scar on its right side. It weighed 14 pounds, four ounces, and tasted great, a fact that Roy's neighbors, as well as himself, will all attest.

The Hero and the Fish

DECORATIONS HONORED IRELAND'S PATRON SAINT

Miss Anita Harris was hostess at a party on Friday night at her home in Waterford. Two tables of cards were enjoyed. St. Patrick's decorations were used, the attractive "hats" playing a part in the decorations and favors, and dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening. TWO BRIDGE CLUBS ENJOY MEETINGS

One at Home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Miller, the Other in Holly

The Thursday Bridge Club enjoyed a guest evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller last Monday, with the husbands as guests. Fred Stewart, Roy Addis and Joseph Seeterlin won the men's prizes and Mrs. Van Avery, Mrs. Ed Seeterlin and Mrs. George D. King were the lady winners.

Mrs. C. W. Russell was hostess to her bridge club last Tuesday at the Norton Hotel in Holly. The spirit of the day was carried out in a very attractive manner. A 1:00 o'clock luncheon was served from tables covered with filmy green covers and decorated with gold tapers and roses with fern. Green and gold service was used thruout. Bridge followed the luncheon with Mrs. James Van Avery as prize winner.

Iowa Brothers Set New World's Record in Ford

IOWA state officials and civic leaders witnessed the establishment of a new world's non-motor, non-wheel stop automobile endurance record recently, when Ralph and Rolland Davis, brothers, brought their Model A Ford to a halt at the east entrance of the state capitol in Des Moines after 2,775 hours and 46 minutes of continuous driving.

When Governor Hammill, standing with Walter Ferrell, executive secretary of the Iowa Chapter of the American Automobile Association, gave the signal to stop, the Ford had traveled a total of 47,138.3 miles over all sorts of roads in all sorts of weather and had exceeded by 33,680 miles and more than 2,335 hours the American non-stop endurance record which, theretofore officially recognized, was made by a much heavier car under almost ideal conditions on the Indianapolis speedway last year. In the course of the endurance run, the car, known as "The City of Des Moines," covered practically the entire state of Iowa.

Engineers who examined the Ford at the conclusion of the run asserted that neither engine nor chassis showed evidence of the grueling strains to which they were subjected during the 116 days of continuous driving. Both apparently, according to the engineers, would have been good for another 50,000 miles or more.

U. OF M. HAS MOST LIVING GRADUATES

Alumni Body of University Is Largest in United States

Ann Arbor, March 18.—Approximately half of the University of Michigan's 70,271 living graduates live within the borders of the State, many who came from outside Michigan to attend the University remaining to become desirable citizens of the State, study of the alumni records reveals.

The 70,000 living alumni of Michigan comprise the largest body of graduates of any college or university in the United States, comparison shows, and of this number, 30,651, made up of 22,148 men and 8,413 women, reside in the State. The cities with largest representation are Detroit, with 7,950; Ann Arbor, with 1,978; and Grand Rapids, with 1,225. Lansing and East Lansing have 575; Flint, 538; Saginaw, 481; Jackson, 463; Kalamazoo, 394; Pontiac, 325; Battle Creek, 319, and Ypsilanti, 238, while almost every smaller community numbers several graduates.

Of the professional men who serve the people of the State a high percentage of the total received their training at the University. Doctors in Michigan number 5,319, and of these 28.8% are Michigan graduates, while of the 2,799 dentists, 56.5%, and of the 7,963 lawyers, 25.4% are graduates. Besides the professions, University graduates tend to become responsible citizens in business and official activities, the survey shows.

ORTONVILLE

Brandon Grange will have a new and more commodious home, having recently leased the second story of the Grondin accommodate both the senior and junior organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker entertained the Anti-Can't class of the M. E. Sunday school at their home last Thursday evening. The members and guests, numbering about 45, played games and held contests, and refreshments were served.

A stunt social and carnival under the auspices of the Senior and Junior classes of the Ortonville High School will be held at the school house this, Friday, evening. Great preparations for the event have been made.

COUNTY FARMERS MAY OBTAIN LOANS

Meeting of Those Interested to Be Held in Pontiac March 24

Federal farm loans for the purchasing of seed for spring planting, fertilizers, feed for work stock and fuel and oil for tractors may be made to farmers in Oakland County who, due to crop failure or loss because of drought, do not have money or credit to purchase the above named commodities.

A meeting of interested farmers is being called for 2:00 P.
M., March 24, at the Extension Office in the Federal Building at Pontiac. At this meeting the requirements of the law will be explained and assistance given in filling out the blanks provided for them.

It is pointed out that no loan to any individual may be made for more than $600.00. In order to secure the loan, application must be made prior to April 30; the farmer must have been farming in 1929 and 1930; and must have been a sufferer of drought.

The government demands that the person give a promissory note on the amount loaned and a mortgage on all crops to be grown on the farm this year.

Application blanks are available at all county banks and from the County Agricultural Agent, K. D. Bailey, Box 173, Pontiac, Michigan.

A County Committee consisting of George D. King, Clarkston, J. S. Mitchell, Holly, J. P.
Hubbard, Clarkston, and G. F.
Paris, Milford, and the County Agricultural Agent act in an advisory capacity in explaining to farmers the requirements of the law and in showing them how to fill out the blanks provided for them. Neither the Committee nor the County Agent assumes any responsibility in the final decision. That responsibility rests with the Department of Agriculture at Washington.

NEW HEATING SUB- STANCE IS STUDIED

Industrial Uses Many for Chemical Investigated at U. of M.

Ann Arbor, March 18.—Diphenyl, a chemical which looks much like large camphor crystals, smells like geraniums, is a close relative to benzene, and has the useful ability of becoming a very hot vapor at low pressures, bids fair to displace direct heating in many industrial processes where high temperatures are required, investigations carried out by the University of Michigan Department of Engineering Research indicate.

Many industries of the present day involve processes wherein the heating, melting or drying of substances at high temperatures are essential. Direct heating by flame and hot gases must be ordinarily used, since steam at high temperatures is also at very high pressures, and becomes impractical below limits needed for many processes.
Direct application of flame or its hot gases then becomes necessary, but is often attended by variations in temperature, a tendency to bake or char portions of the substance being heated, slowness and waste of heat.

Diphenyl overcomes most of these faults and is ideal for much high temperature heating and melting. Solid at ordinary temperatures, it melts at 160 degrees and boils at 492 degrees, or more than twice the boiling point of water. Furthermore, while steam at 600 degrees would necessitate a pressure of 1454 pounds per square inch in a boiler, diphenyl at like heat would be at a pressure of only 200 pounds or less. Even more important to an engineer, di-phenyl circulating thru heating soils maintains an even temperature all over the apparatus, and transfers its heat to the desired substance more efficiently than either steam or direct flame.

A very promising practical application of diphenyl is in the making of the much used caustic soda. Whereas the present process of evaporating concentrated solutions of caustic soda to a solid is done partly by steam and partly in direct fired, expensive and clumsy cast iron pots, an experimental diphenyl-heated evaporator has evaporated caustic soda to 98 per cent solids with a saving of time and fuel. Asphalt heated to a high temperature is widely used in many industries to impregnate roofing, insulation and other products. Here the direct heating used at present is likely to char or "coke" the asphalt, fouling the apparatus and affecting the quality of the product. Experiments in this field have shown that diphenyl, with its even, controlled heat, eliminates this danger.

UNIVERSITY REGENTS ACCEPT $51,000 IN GIFTS

Ann Arbor, March 18.—Gifts and trust funds totalling $51,- 000, the greater portion to be used for sociological research, were accepted by the Regents of the University of Michigan at their February meeting.

The Earhart Foundation, established by H. B. Earhart, of Ann Arbor, offered the sum of $10,000 a year for four years, to be used in research on various problems in sociology. The funds will provide scholarships for seniors, fellowships for graduates and salaries for faculty members who may engage in the research.

According to the will of Jane E. Armstrong, of Ann Arbor, a $10,000 trust fund was established for medical students, and the income will be known as The Misses Armstrong Scholarship for Medical Students, according to action of Regents. The Middle English Dictionary, the preparation of which is going on at Michigan under the editorship of Professor C. C. Fries, will be assisted toward completion by a grant of $11,000 from the American Council of Learned Societies.

Modern equipment helps to lower potato production costs. The old-time method of plowing the land with a pair of horses and a man-held 1-furrow walking plow is rapidly being supplanted by a tractor-drawn plow that turns 2, 3 or more 12, 14 or 16 inch furrows and that is provided with sufficient tractive power to plow to a depth of 12 inches or more if desired. The same power can be supplied to a cutaway disk and harrow two or three times the width of the ordinary 2-horse implements. The use of 2, 3 and 4 row tractor-drawn planters, cultivators and sprayers saves labor and lowers costs. The tractor is also gradually replacing the horse in hauling the elevator digger, as shown by the use of 2 and 3 row diggers.

CLARKSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoyt are spending a few days in Howell with Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Terry.

Mrs. C. G. Fiske attended the W. F. M. S. banquet at Bethlehem church, Detroit, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. F. C. Dunston and Mrs. Doris Hursfall and son, Duane, were Lansing visitors on Wednesday.

On Wednesday afternoon, Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Prouse and daughters visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Collycott, of Rochester, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones and Mrs. George Kerr and daughter, Vera, of Lapeer, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Jones.

The card party under the auspices of Masons and Stars that was scheduled for Friday evening has been indefinitely postponed until further notice.

Friends of Mrs. Emma Hoyt are making an active campaign in her behalf, feeling that she is not only deserving but capable of doing the work.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Francis, of St. Paul's M. E. Church, Detroit, were visitors at the M. E. parsonage, Monday afternoon, March 16.

Clare Edwards, who is a student in the Wilbur Wright school, the mechanical branch of Cass Tech of Detroit, is in Indianapolis for three weeks with two instructors and thirty fellow students. Each student will have charge of the driving and checking of a car making a 6000 mile test on the Indianapolis race track.

Friends of Charles G. Miller will be greatly shocked to hear of his very serious illness. Mrs. Miller passed away suddenly last November and since that time Mr. Miller has not seemed to take much interest in daily affairs and lately has been in failing health. Quite recently he and his daughter, with whom he lives in Pontiac, called on relatives and friends here and Mr. Miller was stricken on the return trip home. His condition is considered very serious.

MICHIGAN FARMERS
HOLD MORE GRAIN

Stocks Estimated at 38 Per Cent Greater Than Last Year

Lansing, Michigan, March 18, 1931.—Total farm stocks of corn, wheat, oats, barley and rye in Michigan on the first of March were 38 per cent greater than the light holdings of a year ago, but 20 per cent less than the average for the previous five years. These estimates include amounts held for seed, feed and other farm uses, as well as that available for sale, according to the report issued by Herbert E. Powell, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Irvin Holmes, Assistant Agricultural Statistician for Michigan. Total holdings have been estimated at 33,152,000 bushels distributed as follows: corn, 5,674,000 bushels; wheat, 5,004,000 bushels; oats, 20,274,000 bushels; barley, 1,764,000 bushels; and rye, 436,000 bushels. The estimated corn stocks are based upon the total crop production, which includes corn used for ensilage and forage. Not only do the present farm stocks of all of the above grains exceed those of last year in actual amount, but they are also larger as a per cent of the total crop.

be below average according to the March 1 report of the Department of Agriculture. The percentage of each crop that has been or will be shipped out of the county where grown is given as: corn, 2 per cent; wheat, 35 per cent; oats and barley, each 7 per cent, and rye, 28 per cent. The percentage of last year's corn crop reported to be of merchantable quality is 63. Last year at this date the figure was 52 per cent, while the ten year average is 67.8.

Stocks of the above five grains on all farms in the United States are estimated at 1,428,757,000 bushels as against 1,590,287,000 last year and 1,721,681,000, the five-year average. Decreased stocks of corn more than offset the increased holdings of the other grains for the country as a whole.

TESTING OF HERDS
ALWAYS BENEFITS

Lack of Production Records May Result in Serious Losses

East Lansing, Mar. 11.—The dairyman who permits his membership in the herd improvement association to lapse in the belief that his pocketbook will be benefitted by the elimination of this expense is apt to forget that the feed eaten by one poor cow or the sale of a good cow whose worth is not known from testing records will cost the owner much more than the expense for testing, according to members of the dairy department at Michigan State College.

This tendency to false economy is shown by the decrease in the number of herd associations in Michigan which dropped from 90 one year ago to 83 at the present time. Dairy husbandry men point out that test records are more important in times of small profit than when there is a wider margin between feed costs and production receipts.

Production records furnish the least expensive exact means of determining the amount of milk or butterfat produced by a cow, and a record of the amount of feed eaten by the cow furnishes the rest of the data needed to show how much profit the cow makes for her owner or the amount of money lost.

The herd improvement associations are cooperative organizations in which each member pays an amount proportionate to the number of cows in his herd. The tester's wages are practically the only expense and these are divided among the twenty-five members of the association.

INDIANAPOLIS TRACK
SCENE OF NEW TEST

A.A.A. Officials Gather Data by Observing 13 Cars in 30-Day Grind

INDIANAPOLIS, March 18.—On the speedway here thirteen cars are running night and day in a mammoth test under control of American Automobile Association officials to settle disputed points regarding fuels and lubrication in motor car operation. The test started on March 16, with fifty drivers and mechanics operating the cars under the supervision of

T. E. ALLEN.

T. E. Allen, Washington, D. C., secretary of the contest board and other A. A. A. officials. It will take thirty days to finish it.

Experts Seek Facts. Hitherto unknown facts as to gasoline and oil consumption at various speeds, relative merits of different grades of oil, wear on cylinders, bearings, and other parts, accumulation of carbon, and other phases of motor car operation are being sought in the test. All data are to be carefully gathered and studied by qualified experts, who will later announce their findings.

The cars participating include a Ford Model A, Chevrolet six, Pontiac new series big six, Buick 8-50, Oldsmobile 8, new model Chrysler, Studebaker President 8, Hudson Great 8, Cadillac V-8, Willys Knight 6-6, Nash Eight-80, Cord, and Reo 30.

All are sedans. Each car has been purchased out of stock and sealed under supervision of the A. A. A. officials to prevent any substitution. Each has been painted white to increase the factor of safety in night running.

Part of Research Effort. Variety in cars chosen introduces into the test practically all construction features which can cause variation in fuel and oil consumption.

The running of the test is financed by the Standard Oil Company of Indiana as part of its program of research to improve motor fuels and lubricants. It supplements laboratory tests which have been carried on by the company for several years with important results which were announced last year. Laboratory findings are now to be checked by the grueling grind to which the cars will be subjected on the speedway.
