TWO FINE PAPERS AT LITERARY CLUB

Clarkston Organization Votes to Join County Federation

The Clarkston Literary Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. J. Miller with twenty-two members and one guest present.

Miss Selina Woodward, accompanied by Mrs. R. H. Prouse, gave a vocal number.

Mrs. Josephine Smith read a very interesting biography of John Burroughs, telling of his childhood days in a farm home near the Catskills, his early interest in bird life, his struggles to gain an education, his attempts and failures in business, his later success as a writer and naturalist, and the farm home, Riverdy, and the lodges, Slat-sides and Woodchuck Lodge, where he returned that he might have quiet for his writing.

Another paper of great interest, by Mrs. Hazel Souby, told of the work of Jack Miner and his bird sanctuary, of his early days on the farm, his hobby of early making friends with birds, of banding them, and also of stamping the bands with Bible quotations, and the return of many of these birds.

Mrs. Ione Roehm, who recently joined the club, gave a violin selection. Mrs. Roehm was accompanied by Miss Virginia Clark.

The club voted to join the County Federation of Women's Clubs and to attend the meeting to be held in Milford May 19.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of a former member, Mrs. Joseph Chapman, at her home in Oxford, May 12.

The programs for the coming year, in covers of blue and gold, have been printed by the Clarkston News and were received Tuesday for distribution.

Among those who expect to go north trout fishing we find the following listed: George D. King, W. J. Harcourt, Gene Larson, James Beclair, C. G. Huntly and Frank Leonard, who will go Sunday up near Lewiston.

D. P. MAN FLIES TO LOS ANGELES, CAL.

C. M. Van Auken, Designer and Inventor, Speeds to Coast

A few years ago before closed cars came much into use, C. M. Van Auken, of Pontiac, made winter tops for open cars that were widely sold. Mr. Van Auken and family for the past two years have been living in Drayton Plains, and since the business of making winter tops has gone out of style, he has been devoting his time to experimental work in the automobile and airplane fields. He has invented and designed several improvements in both lines and is still working in his shop in Drayton Plains to perfect other ideas he has in mind.

At present he is in Los Angeles, Cal., as a guest of P. R. Beasley, president of the Detroit Aircraft corporation. He made the trip to the coast in a Lockheed plane and has wired back that he averaged slightly better than 180 miles an hour, reaching as high as 220 several times with open throttle. "No trouble clearing highest mountain ranges," he declared, "even though plane carried 600 pounds overload."

Mr. Van Auken has designed a new type low wing plane, plans for which have already been approved by the department of commerce and for this plane he has invented a new type of landing wheel which contains the shock absorber within itself.

Saturday evening was spent roller skating and the return trip was made Sunday.

Reports of the trip were given at a special assembly Thursday.

HERB. BAYNES SEES FOUR BROTHERS MADE MASONS

A number of members of Cedar Lodge, No. 60, F. & A. ## LAKE FIELD FARMS ARE TO BE VISITED

Sheep Growers Will Find Place One of Finest in the State

Announcement has been made to the county sheep-growers of a demonstration of parasite control at the Lake Field Farms at 1:30, Friday, May 1.

But this is not the only thing that will attract them, for this farm deservedly boasts of one of the finest flocks in the county, over 300 head of pure bred Shropshires and Oxford's. Here and there throughout the country are vast private estates owned by leaders in the business world and too much praise and credit can not be given to these men for their contribution to the live stock world. Every present advancement in breeding and dairying establishments is due to their efforts, never from the stand point of mere gain nor from the pride of the show ring, but invariably the dream of an ideal outstanding type.

Lake Field Farm is of this type, a farm of 1100 acres and devoted to pure bred stock. Besides the sheep mentioned they raise Duroc hogs and have a herd of about 110 head of Holsteins, including Daisy Aggie Ormsby 3rd, the American champion butter cow with a record of 1607 lbs. per year. Her sons are the head of the present herd. The milk is trucked in to Detroit every morning to supply Harper Hospital.

Owned by Detroit parties, O. F. Foster is the resident manager and showed us about the farm and barns with a pride in every detail that explains its success.

Mrs. Elizabeth Maybee and Mrs. Russell Maybee and daughter, Charlotte, Ann, called on Mrs. Carrie N. Voorhees and Mrs. Will Starring Tuesday afternoon.

OAKLAND DAIRY PLAYS AT DRA. PLAINS SUNDAY

The Oakland Dairy team of Pontiac will play Drayton Plains on the latter's grounds, Sunday, May 3, at 3 o'clock. The Pontiac aggregation is touted as a strong aggregation, while Drayton Plains has a much better team than last year and plenty of good reserve material to draw from.

Drayton Plains has several open dates and would like to fill them. Managers of teams wishing to meet them are requested to call Pontiac, 9242.

WATERFORD P. T. A. HEARS MISS WELD

Mrs. Arthur Walter, who was the leader, deserves a great deal of credit and praise for the splendid work of the girls. "If one girl had finished her work the club would have been in the 100 percent class. The girls had their work on exhibition at the school. They had several dresses and hand embroidered towels which were fine specimens of handiwork."

Mrs. N. Smith's room gave a group of four songs, "In the Land of the Fairies", "The Lullaby", "Lady Bug" and "The Little Raindrop Soldiers".

Lewis Washburn sang two solos with Mrs. R. C. Langer accompanying on the piano, "Just a Wearyin' for You" and "When Your Hair Has Turned to Silver I Will Love You as Today".

Four girls presented a Style Show.

The president was given authority to select a group of ladies to have charge of the Girl Scout movement here and select a leader. Plans for a motion picture machine for the school were discussed. The officers of the organization are to look up the prices of the machines and report at the May meeting.

WATERFORD SCHOOL NOTES

The May Day assembly at 9 o'clock Friday morning will include songs, recitations and dialogues from the different rooms, and the public is invited. As this program is in keeping with Child Health Day, one of the speakers will be Dr. J. F. Spring of the Oakland County Department of Health, who will also hold a clinic following the assembly, examining the teeth of children of pre-school age, the kindergarten and first grades, and give advice on this subject. Parents are invited to attend.

The ball team will play Auburn Heights today at 3:30.

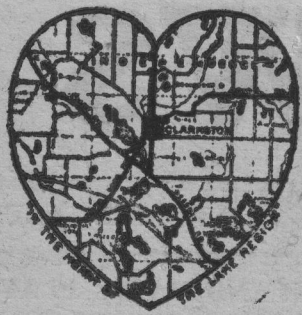

Work is being done to beautify the grounds by cleaning up and filling in. Friends of the school gave some spirea and the arranging and planting is being done by Mr. Hall, the school board assisting by supplying the necessary labor.

The traffic is fairly steady, the ten hour count averaging 250 cars during the week, with a considerable increase over the week end, 60 per cent of them from Pontiac and Detroit spending summer at some of the lake resorts. There are not many tourist cars as yet, nor any not likely to be, as this is not a throe line to any northern points.

The Survey wishes to thank the local traffic for their courtesy and cooperation in stopping and giving the required information. The News voices the sentiment of the people in thanking the State Department for keeping such courteous, pleasant fellows on the job.

In the afternoon the women went to the beautiful home, Meadow Brook Hall, of Mrs. Alfred G. Willson, which is three miles from Rochester on the Dodge road. Mrs. Willson showed the group around the farm buildings and then back to the home where the women viewed the many beautiful things which comprise the furnishings of this palatial mansion. Tea was served to everyone in the ball room.

SCHOOLS TRAIN FUTURE FARMERS

Smith-Hughes Students Will Attend Junior Farmers Week at Michigan State College

East Lansing, Apr. 29.—Although the last census reports that the number of farms in Michigan has declined in recent years, there appears to be no decrease in the number of Smith-Hughes high school students who are studying agriculture and who join the organization known as the Future Farmers of America, according to a statement made by the department of education at Michigan State College.

This department reports that 206 Michigan high schools now are accredited under the Smith-Hughes Act and that 1,500 of the boys from these schools will attend the twelfth annual Junior Farmers Week at Michigan State College, April 30 and May 1.

The boys are given an opportunity to enter contests in judging all kinds of livestock, dairy products, potatoes and wool, and also to show their ability to determine the lime requirement of soils by using the Soiltest test. A public speaking contest is on the program, and, during the business sessions, two delegates to the national meeting at Kansas City will be chosen.

The future farmers will see the college cadet corps in a military review, a practice football game that will be staged for them, and the college band will furnish music for the Thursday afternoon program.

REDUCE RUST LOSS ON MICH. GRAINS

Destruction of Common Barberry Bushes Has Helped Control This Disease

East Lansing, Apr. 29.—The losses from the attacks of rusts on Michigan grains have been reduced by the campaign of elimination of the common barberry bush during the past few years but it is impossible to eliminate all the losses caused by rust until every bush has been destroyed, according to information given by the leader of the barberry eradication campaign in Michigan.

The director points out the extreme difficulty of finding and killing every barberry bush in Michigan. Birds may carry the seeds to an area from which the bushes have been removed, and tourists from the southern part of Michigan and from other States have been detected carrying barberry bushes from infested areas back to the sections where all the barberry has been destroyed.

All of the lower peninsula has now been surveyed by the crews who are destroying barberry. The number of bushes has been reduced until it is now usually possible to trace each outbreak of rust to isolated bushes which have become established since the survey was made in that section.

The work of the barberry crews would be greatly aided if farmers would inform Francis B. Powers, East Lansing, Michigan, of the finding of any common barberry bushes in their neighborhood. Any farmer who suspects that such bushes are growing in his locality will be sent descriptive material which will enable him to definitely identify barberry.

Every one of Michigan's 82 counties had at least one student representative in the University of Michigan in 1929-1930, according to the President's report. They ranged from 1, from Baraga County in the Upper Peninsula, to 3,811 from Wayne.

WHY GIVE AWAY FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS?

High pressure salesmen and outright swindlers are reaping a rich harvest in Michigan today, trading investors out of mortgage bonds.

Often they are supplying dubious securities in exchange; in some instances they are giving nothing. Legitimate investment houses and banks are cooperating in carrying this warning to the public.

Don't be stampeded. Check the status of your bonds before giving them up. Check the value of what is offered you. Check the reputation of the firm, the salesman, or the protective committee, as the case may be.

There is more danger in acting without investigating than there is in a short delay, to get the facts.

Consult your banker, your broker, or the Bureau.

NEW BOARD MAKES ITS FIRST REPORT

Trustees of TB Sanatorium Are Effecting Needed Changes

The board of trustees of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, of which Dr. C. J. Sutherland, of Clarkston, is chairman, has been working hard for several months to bring order out of chaos in the management of the institution, which apparently had been run heretofore without proper system. That they are succeeding is evidenced in their first quarterly report submitted to the Board of Supervisors last Thursday. Gross operating expenses for the first quarter this year were $53,193.73, as compared with $68,501.46 in the corresponding period in 1930, and there have been more patients and they have all been as well cared for. At present the Sanatorium is filled to capacity with 176 patients.

An effort is being made to correct what has evidently been an abuse in the past. Nearly all patients at the institution have been committed as indigent persons. The board of trustees believes that the county could be saved considerable expense in the matter and Dr. Sutherland has suggested a means of inves-

The 62 who won district championships, 49 girls and 13 boys, will be awarded bronze medals when they line up for the finals at the Fairgrounds. The winner of this contest will receive, in addition to the Washington trip, a gold medal; the runner-up will receive a silver medal.

FOREST FIRE SITUATION IN MICHIGAN IS SERIOUS

Lansing, April 29.—About four times as many forest fires have raged over northern Michigan so far this year, than had been reported up to May 1, 1930, and more than that proportion of acres has been burned over.

The Forest Fire Division of the Department of Conservation, issuing comparative figures to show the seriousness of the present forest fire situation in the state, said that approximately 400 fires have been reported so far this season in the upper and lower peninsulas of Michigan. It was estimated that more than 10,000 acres have been burned over.

May 1, 1930, the Division had reported 117 fires for the season with 2,839 acres burned over.

The heaviest loss has occurred in Dickinson, Iron and Menominee Counties. One fire in this section of the state burned over more than 2,000 acres before it could be placed under control.

With no prospects of any radical changes in fire hazard conditions, the continued increase in fire losses is all that may be expected according to the Forest Fire Division.

STATE PARKS WILL OPEN EARLIER THIS SEASON

Lansing, Apr. 29.—Michigan's state parks will open officially May 15, two weeks earlier than in former years, it was announced today by the Parks Division of the Conservation Department.

Decision to open the parks earlier this season came as a result of the advanced spring and a large number of people who have already visited the parks.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

An upstairs telephone saves running down to answer calls

Often, when you are upstairs, the telephone rings. Perhaps it is the grocer, or your husband, or Aunt Sue.

Each time, you must hurry down the steps to answer, and then plod back up again to finish your work.

An extension telephone installed upstairs would save that wasted energy. And at night, it would be a safeguard in emergencies, such as sickness or fire.

Such telephone convenience and safety costs surprisingly little . . . less than 3 cents a day.

To place an order, just call the Telephone Business Office.

FARM AGENT SENDS OUT ADVICE TO SHEEP MEN

K. D. Bailey, County Agricultural Agent, sends the following advice to county sheep raisers:

Plan to drench your sheep at least three times this season. It will pay good dividends not only in direct results but also as a preventive measure. Good flocks of sheep should be kept healthy. Don't wait until they become infested. Stomach worms alone cause over 50 per cent of the deaths of sheep in this country and it is not uncommon to hear of cases where entire flocks are wiped out.

Follow the program of improvement of native lambs. Cleaner flocks mean greater returns. 1. Dock and Castrate. 2. Use Purebred Rams. 3. Systematic Drenching.

Demonstrations on parasite control will be given at the following places on Friday, May 1: 9:30 A. M., Earl Barrett, 2 miles west of Clyde.

1:30 P. M., Lake Field Farms, near intersection of Baldwin and Clarkston-Orion Roads.

DETROIT AUTO CLUB HAS CHANGED NAME

Will Hereafter Be Known as the Automobile Club of Michigan

Following the final approval of the Secretary of State, the official name of the Detroit Automobile Club has been changed to the Automobile Club of Michigan. The new name was decided upon by the members of the club as fitting to the policy of expansion which has extended the Automobile Club through 45 counties of Michigan.

According to William G. Bryant, president of the club, the new name more truly represents the territory covered by the club and offers further growth in its territory.

The name of the Detroit Automobile Club was officially retained for the use of the Detroit division of the organization. The same policy applies to the other 23 division offices of the Club. The Kalamazoo Division will be known as the Kalamazoo Division of the Automobile Club of Michigan the Lansing offices as the Lansing Division, etc.

"When this club was founded 15 years ago, its founders little realized that more than 75,000 persons would soon be attracted to the organization", Mr. Bryant said. "The A. A. A. services which made this organization one of the outstanding in the world, soon extended to many of the leading cities of the state. Within recent months, 20 new counties were added to the club's territory which today embraces the entire southern and eastern portions of the Lower Peninsula, excepting three counties under the Flint Automobile Club."

"Without loss of its metropolitan distinction as a nationally famous club, the Detroit Automobile Club, as a whole, is no longer confined to a local policy. Therefore, in logical sequence to the expansion, the name was changed to the Automobile Club of Michigan, without any other changes in the present organization."

The purposes of the organization, its constitution and by-laws, its activities and benefits remain the same as they were under the name Detroit Automobile Club, which name will be retained by the organization only in its Detroit activities. Each city in which there is now a division of the organization, or in which a branch shall be hereafter located, will have the advantage of using the name of the city in which it is located in addition to the name of the Automobile Club of Michigan.
