Township considers road millage

BY ANDREAM BEAUDOIN
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Independence Township wants to know if residents are willing to pay for local roads after the Proposal 1 sales tax increase failed in May.

At a July 21 meeting, the Board of Trustees approved a request by Supervisor Pat Kittle to look into alternative options to pay for road repair.

"The condition of the township roadway infrastructure is continuing to deteriorate," said Kittle.

"Virtually all of the five primary township roadways identified by the Road Commission for Oakland County have gone downhill quickly over the past few years."

The roads, Maybee, Clarkston, Clintonville, Sashabaw, and Waldon, have gone from "green" and "yellow," meaning "good" and "fair," to "red," meaning "poor," in the county report.

After Proposal 1 failed, the supervisor received numerous calls asking what the township was going to do with local roads.

In recent Independence Township Times sections of The Clarkston News, Kittle asked readers if they would support a two mil special road millage only to be used to mill and repave 25 miles of primary roads in the township. Kittle received 23 replies – 16 were in favor.

Family most important for vet

BY PHIL CUSTODIO
Clarkston News Editor

Charles Louis James of Independence Township turned 92 this month, so his neighbors threw him a birthday party.

"He is such a personable guy to everybody," said neighbor Sheilah Denne. "He has been walking all over the neighborhood for years. Everyone knows him, so we decided to have a block party."

The local Kroger's store on Sashabaw donated flowers, and about 35 people attended the World War II veteran's party, July 12, including 5-6 fellow vets.

"We had a nice party, a really nice thing," James said. "They're very good friends – there were so many friends there I forgot I had."

"It turned out really good," Denne said.

James has lived in Independence Township for more than 60 years, raising his family on Oak Park Drive off Maybee Road.

Born in Lawrenceville, Illinois, he was too young to be drafted when the United States entered World War II in 1941, so he joined the Civilian Conservation Corps and worked at camps around Lake Superior.

A couple years later at the age of 19, he was drafted into the U.S. Army and sent for training at Army Air Corps bases in Mississippi, North Carolina, and Colorado.

He was a left gunner on a B-29 Superfortress bomber, called "City of Omaha."

"The B-29 was the largest bomber in the world at the time," he said.

Mizlow memorial fund awards $10,000

BY ANDREAM.BEAUDOIN

Clarkston News Staff Writer

Thanks to a game of golf and dinner, the Jacqui Mizlow Memorial Scholarship Foundation gave away $10,000 this year to help two organizations.

Checks to SCAMP and The Links were presented by Forrest Mizlow after a day of golfing at Pine Knob Golf Course on Monday, July 20.

During a dinner ceremony that evening at Deer Lake Athletic Club, present owner and Jacqui Mizlow's son, Forrest Mizlow presented two checks for $5,000 each to Clarkston SCAMP and Oakland County Chapter of The Links, Incorporated.

SCAMP is a five-week long special camp for kids and adults with developmental disabilities held each summer.

Wendi Clufetos, attended dinner to accept the check on behalf of SCAMP, said Mizlow is extremely supportive of SCAMP.

"He buys them lunch and opens up Deer Lake Athletic Club to let the kids come in and swim at no charge," she said. "There is so much Forrest has done. He donates memberships, he also started our Jingle Mingle annual fundraising event and opened up his own home for it."

Clufetos added it keeps a lot to fund SCAMP, $450,000 each year. Another check was also presented to The Links representative Laurestine Hatchett.

The Links, first founded in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1946 is a volunteer service organization of nearly 14,000 professional women of color. The organization is committed to enriching, sustaining and ensuring the cultural and economic survival of African Americans and other persons of African ancestry.

Jacqui Mizlow, a doctor, owned and operated Deer Lake Athletic Club in Clarkston from 1973 until her passing in 2004. She taught for 29 years in the Pontiac school district, teaching special education and developing curriculum. The scholarship fund was created in her memory in 2004.

Smiles for O.A.T.S.

It was all smiles for a group gathered during the 18th Annual Denim & Diamonds Dinner Dance for O.A.T.S., Offering Alternative Therapy with Smiles, on July 26.

The equine assisted therapy program held the extravaganza at The Birdfeeder, Bonnie & Clyde Boutique and Clarkston Flower Shop. O.A.T.S. offers horseback and related activities to help those with physical and mental handicaps.

O.A.T.S. Executive Director Barb Pellerito said fundraisers like Diamonds and Denim are important to the program.

"It helps us keep our program running and keeps costs down," Pellerito said.

O.A.T.S. was founded in 1997, and offers year-round sessions at its Clarkston location. Riders are encouraged to develop friendships with horses and others campers, while they work towards one day riding independently without side-walker and leader assistance. In addition, the program offers services to wounded veterans, school and other groups. For more information about O.A.T.S. visit www.oatshr.org.

Briefly

6 candidates for city council

Candidates for Clarkston City Council include incumbents Eric Haven and David Marsh, both running for two-year terms. Challengers Michael Cascone and Jason Kneisc also submitted petitions for two-year terms.

Alfred Avery, who was appointed to council after the resignation of Richard Bisio, will run against former councilwoman Peggy Roth for a one-year term on the council.

Current councilman Eric Hunter said he will not run for reelection.

The election will be on Nov. 3.

City to review downtown parking

Responding to residents' complaints about how development proposals would affect parking, Clarkston City Council approved the request by City Manager Carol Eberhardt to study the issue.

Clarkston Zoning Ordinance Section 20-8 require businesses to provide parking spaces based on square footage, including: sit-down restaurants with liquor license, 20 spaces per 1,000 square feet or 0.6 per seat, whichever is greater; medical/dental office/clinic, seven spaces per 1,000-square-foot gross floor area, plus one for each examining room, dental chair, or similar use area; and general retail business under 10,000 square feet, three spaces per 1,000 square feet.

Sewer rates going up

Sewer rates in Independence Township are set to increase 9.7 percent.

The increase will offset a monthly increase of more than $230,000 to the township for sewer services through the Clinton-Oakland Sewage Disposal System. The 9.7 percent rate increase is effective through June 2016, said new DPW Director David McKee.

New sewage disposal rates on the average residential sewer bill will increase $6.21, from $69.37 to $75.58. The maintenance charge of $28 included on each bill will remain the same.

Correction

The story, "Pain lingers for victims after Fata sentencing," July 15 edition, should have identified Patty Hester as an emergency room technician, not a nurse.

Road millage

"This special road millage would sun-down after four years. The cost per mile to mill and repave, which was done on M-15, was estimated at $500,000 per mile," Kittle said. "To do the same type of work on about 25 miles of primary roadway in the township would cost around $12.5 million."

A two mill special road tax would collect $3.1 million annually, or an estimated $12.5 million for the repairs.

To move forward with the concept and ask voters to approve a local road millage, Kittle will explore various RCOC services, including road rehabilitation projects, meet county representatives to discuss local road millages, grants, and cost sharing opportunities, and other types of partnerships between the county and township.

Kittle will also invite the road commission director to address the board regarding the condition of township roads in the future.

A survey to solicit additional input from citizens regarding the concept as well as a citizens advisory committee and appointees will be discussed at a future meeting. Preliminary work also includes costs and ballot language. The supervisor hopes to have a ballot proposal ready for the November 2016 election.

Birthday with family, friends

"Its original name was 'Yankee Doll'ah'—they changed all the names to towns."

He was based in Guam, and flew in about 20 bombing missions over Japan, dropping 500-pound bombs on ammunition and airplane factories and other targets.

"The pilot came in one evening and said, 'they dropped an atomic bomb.' I said, 'What's an atomic bomb?' We didn't know what it was," James said. "He said, 'I don't really know what it is.' The second bomb, everybody knew. That one clinched it."

Japan surrendered on Sept. 2, 1945, after specially modified B-29s dropped atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. James was there, flying in City of Omaha over the USS Missouri, where the surrender signing took place.

"We were one of the ones who did a flyover," he said. "They told us, don't try anything funny."

They were sent home after three months.

"We had to clean the island up," he said. "When we reached the Golden Gate Bridge, we were tickled to death. We knew we were back in the states. When I reached St. Louis, I knew I was home."

He earned several medals for his service, including two Bronze Stars, but what was important to him was coming home to his wife, Imogene, to whom he was wed just before shipping out.

With an aunt living in Michigan, they moved to Clarkston in 1950. They were on Dixie Highway looking at properties when Imogene noticed the Ottawa Cemetery at Maybee Road.

"She said, 'turn in here, let's see what things look like,'" James said.

All empty lots and dirt roads at the time, they bought two-and-a-half acres, built a house, and raised their daughter, Susan K. James.

"We had nothing going for us. We took whatever jobs we could get," said James, who now has two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

James owned and operated Pontiac Overhead Door Company and his wife had an antique business.

Imogene passed away 15 years ago.

"She kept me alive during the war. She was my true love. I loved her so much," Charles said. "I walked to Maybee Road to the cemetery everyday for 12 years, usually crying all the way."

He stopped the walks after a fall a few years ago, breaking both shoulders.

"I can't walk very far now—I'm not looking for sympathy," he said.

He still has her red Pontiac Bonneville, which he bought for his wife in 1971.

"It has a bench seat so Susan could ride up front," Charles said. "I've had it now all these years."

Andrea's Anecdotes

A column by Andrea Beaudoin

Times gone by

When I was a kid I used to make my bed. I neatly sorted my occasionally written poem into its own special box. I loved dusting. I loved to scrub all the nooks and crannies. I loved to clean. And when the whole place was clean I wished I could clean it again.

Then a wrecking ball came in and things changed. I began writing a lot more and not even my room had a prayer at being organized.

I realize this is because I focused on all matters internal, and dusting went by the wayside.

I got good at some things. I grew strong at reading people, and my strength in writing grew too.

I got good at flowing into the world, but equally good at shutting it out. Perhaps even better at shutting it out.

You miss a lot of things when you shut certain things out of your world, especially the things that mean everything.

It's a bit startling to wake up, walk outside, and see a painter – you would surely take note of the painter, but not that he painted your house purple.

A lot of time passes and suddenly you realize your house is purple....and purple drives you crazy!

Seeing the big picture, you let some very important details slip by. To say with age comes regret is true.

When you realize how fast time passes, and how much you have missed, sad are the moments. A sadness that only grows.

To think of how much time was spent in nothing, and how time keeps passing so quickly. It's faster than the speed of light, and before you know it, it's gone.

A lot of gifts can be born in chaos. Life is first about survival.

All you can hope is someday you take gifts from the chaos, and change negative into positive. All you can hope is it does not take you too long time to realize your house is purple.

Standing there bewildered you realize you missed a whole lot more than your house being painted. And your darn house has been purple for a long time!

That's when you realize you missed the party in your neighborhood that has been going on since your house got painted.

It's OK, the painter's gone. Its time to paint the house and join the party.

Lone Ranger reminiscences appreciated

Dear Jim Sherman Sr.,

Thanks for the blurb about Brace Beemer ("Forever grateful to the Lone Ranger," July 22).

Brace Beemer was a relative of mine. I never met him that I know of. I was very young when he died, but my Dad, Ted Martin, had great stories about him.

My grandmother on my Dad's side was Frances Beemer Martin. I don't know the exact connection, but my Dad said he was a cousin or uncle or something, so I am always interested when I hear about the radio Lone Ranger!

We still have many Beemer relatives here in Michigan! Thanks for the story!

Sanctuary cities, glitches & more

Sanctuary is such a comforting word, a place of refuge, brought into our language by the Hebrews, and expanded quickly through the Christian church.

Then a people movement in about 1989 expanded the use of the word sanctuary to city limits on the west coast.

People began flocking to Los Angeles, Berkley and San Francisco.

These areas needed lots of labor in a hurry for their growing fruits, vegetables, etc.

Make some areas sanctuaries for religious growth, Spanish, Mexican, Chinese, whatever, labor.

More merchandisers needing everything fast, which prompted legals, illegals and expansions out there.

Those involved in people deals, including the aforementioned cities, fought over who could gain the most for the least. And the politicians, well they just did what politicians do, open their borders and their pockets.

Jim's Jottings

a column by Jim Sherman

Its sanctuary ideology, limit jail time, limit punishment, "After all this is a sanctuary."

And it came to a head this week.

An American woman was shot to death by a man who has been jailed and released several times from a city sanctuary for breaking laws.

But it just didn't matter. OPEN THE DOOR POLITICO!

City sanctuaries can hold law-breakers, but they are not covered by federal laws, so they are returned to whatever life they had before one of life's interruptions in a sanctuary city.

* * *

We have an ever progressing use of the word "glitch."

It's gone from a city street vernacular to the Chinese stock market to Wall Street to the New York Stock Exchange and to become a very descriptive word for television networks when there is an interruption.

Or if airlines loose contact with plane boarders, glitch is now the popular excuse for a "usually temporary" failure.

Another point of interest, to me, is the word "glitch" isn't in my Merriam Webster dictionary my wife gave my son on his 18th birthday in 1972. I don't need google!

Doing my kind of research, I called our office and asked whomever answered the phone what is glitch? She answered glitch is a "malfunction."

Expect to see more use of the word glitch as auto parts makers use it to soften the meaning of faulty products, personal goof-ups and other failures they don't want made public.

Bored into introspection

So, I took off a week from work last week -- one of about nine or 10 single weeks I have taken off in the last 30 years. I had no plans other than to work on This Crappy Old House. I thought I could patch stucco on the outside of the 99-year-old home.

I soon discovered on Day One of vacation that job was above my pay grade. Damn! Norm Abrams where were you when I needed you?! I contemplated going back to work, but soon discovered maybe, oh just maybe, I could use my time off to relax. For whatever reason, I wasn't able to connect with anybody so the week was to be alone with just Me, Myself and I. Let me tell you, I can hang with Me, but Myself and I are tough cookies. They ask hard questions!

During my seven-day odyssey of the mind, heart and soul I spent about two hours (total) in the company of other, living, breathing human beings -- which included trips to the library, hardware and grocery stores and a hour trip to visit my aunt who was in the hospital.

I went and visited my Dad at the same place he's been since 1996 -- taking the long dirt nap at the little cemetery on Sashabaw Road, across from Sashabaw Elementary School.

"Dad," says I, eyes getting a little squishy. "What do you have for me? Why do I do the things I do? What am I to do? Got any help? I hope you're in peace -- oh and a friend of mine, she says you're a badass."

I stood over his grave a little bit, bent over, picked some weeds and brushed the small bronze U.S. military marker with my fingers. He answered me not.

I wandered among the tombstones, reading the inscriptions, some from as far back as the 1850s. Most of the folks planted there all lived, laughed, loved, cried and endured hardship during their time on this side of the sod.

It was awesome weather last week, the sun shone brightly in a blue sky. And, I just opened up and let thoughts come and go with no real direction or focus. I reckon I've always been a contemplator -- a seeker for what? Something, I don't know?

When I worked for Independence Township at Lakeview Cemetery, I was given a new nickname (I think by co-worker Jon Territo) for what reason I am not sure. They called me Dhondi and when they would say it, sometimes they would hold out both hands, thumb to middle finger, "OOOmmmm."

I have been a sucker for helping people since before I was old enough to drive. I remember when I had my daily paper route, when I was about 12 or 13, the first part of said route was loaded with old-timers. The second half with families.

The second-half folks got their papers way late many times because I felt compelled to stop and listen to the old codgers and then either rake their leaves or shovel their drive -- I even helped Mr. Bassett replace the anti-freeze in his car one evening.

I studied journalism in college and had a burning desire, once graduated, to root out corruption, take on the bad guys, to right wrongs and fix that which was broken. Ah, the idealism of the youth.

I think I have stayed with community journalism so long because I have seen how these newspapers have a direct effect on the communities and people they serve. I felt/feel I could/can do the most good, if I stayed here.

Babies, kids, old timers and fair maidens always have found a direct way into my sense of duty. I wanna help them all, even when I know I cannot and when I cannot, it takes a little skip out of my step, a spark outta my light.

Why do I do what I do? Why am I who I am? Yeah, you can see the week alone started to work on me in ways I hadn't dared think about for many, many years.

Sometime during the week, I thought back to Dad. A couple of years before he died, I had written a feature series on sexual abuse of kids. We were at the Clarkston Eagles and he was not sitting at "his" stool at the bar, but rather in a chair at a table in the dark. He beckoned me over to him and with a somber look on his face, he told me he liked those stories. Thought it would help some people. And, that it had happened to him as a boy. "I have told no one else. Thank you, Son."

Those who knew Dad, knew he was full of passion, smiles, but most of all bravado. It served him well in athletics, Korea and throughout his adult life. What he told me explained a lot about the man I knew, loved and respected. I think I loved him more after that, enduring and being the best he could be, while carrying a burden he thought he couldn't share; one no person should have to bare alone.

If only he could have felt safe and secure in himself to reach out and ask somebody for help, would he have lived his life happier? Would he have lived longer than 61 years? (I just thought this as I am typing this column on Monday, July 27, 2015. Dad died July 27, 19 years ago today . . . Whoa, how's that for coincidence!)

Maybe Dad did answer me.

Maybe he said, accept who you are. When you need help, ask those about you whose arms are lovingly open to you. Fix what you break, but know it's hard to fix what you have not broken. A knight of the light goes into battle for no other reason than it's the right thing to do, expecting only to come out of the battle, bloodied and bruised. Anything more is a bonus. If you can do this, Son, you will be all right.

Reckon I will remain me. Bring your problems and your acts of kindness rekindles the flame.

Awards for Fourth parade

The 2015 Clarkston Fourth of July Parade included 94 community organizations, marching bands, businesses, politicians, and other groups, marching through a downtown filled with about 8,000 revelers.

The theme of the parade was "Grand Old Flag," and the parade committee presented ribbon awards to floats and groups in several categories.

"Congratulations to the award-winning groups and floats," said Joette Kunse of Clarkston Area Optimists Club, one of the parade sponsors.

Gerry Rouse, 81

On July 13, 2013, Geraldine Ann Rouse, age 81, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was reunited with her mother Ann Lang and father George Lang in heaven.

Those who love and will miss her deeply include Franklin Clark Rouse, her husband; her children Randy Rouse, Ranay Klaasen (Rouse) and Rachelle (Jackson) Rouse, and her 10 grandchildren; her brothers George Lang and Gordie Lang; also her five great grandchildren; and her great grandchild Arden as well, whose life she deeply touched. Gerry was born in Detroit and raised in Clarkston.

She was the Cherry Pie Contest winner, of which she received a scholarship to Michigan State. Gerry was the rose of her husband's life, and Clark brought her one home every Friday. She was a caregiver of her husband and all her family, and one marvelous lady. She made herself a part of everyone's world and did "whatever worked" for them. She was married to Clark over 64 years and during that time she raised three children and an exchange student, Melchor Tan, who she referred to as a son.

Her children grew up with an at-home mom, which her hard-working husband allowed her to do. Mom was always there for them, guiding them, loving them, and nursing them through Bailey Lake in Clarkston and later through the Forest Hills school system. This love extended to her grandchildren, who benefited from a grandma fully involved in their lives, spending quality time together.

No one was as selfless and nurturing as this wife and mom. There are so many good and loving memories to reflect upon. She and Clark opened their hearts to their children's and grandchildren's friends, and Melchor, who considered her as a second mom.

She took pride in her everyday tasks, and taking care of others. She loved helping out with ironing, and anyone who had a recipe from Gerry had the best. She was the best pie maker.

Even during this most difficult last year, her care and concern for others rose above her own pain and limitations. She would provide counseling without a complaint of her own.

She loved to read magazines, listen to her husband, and watch the Food Channel. She was a devoted American and would call locations when she saw a weathered flag to have it replaced, which made her husband very proud. There are no words, just the shared love for this exceptional woman to express her reflected memory and miss her presence in our lives.

Her husband lovingly continues to celebrate her rose, birthday, and more, and continues to work at the age of 81. They gave each other love and special moments of which no one really knows, a private loving couple like no other.

And if God was to look down upon Clark, her husband, and ask what have you done with your life, he could proudly and lovingly say, "I was devoted to my wife," making his wife in heaven smile and reflect upon all the great memories and caring for each other.

Public Safety

For Clarkston and Independence Township

Suspended truck driver

A deputy stopped a truck for making an illegal left turn into the gas station on Sashabaw Road at Waldon Road, 12:07 p.m., July 15. The driver, a 56-year-old Center Line man, was cited for driving with a suspended license, and given a warning for prohibited turn and no proof of insurance.

Drink and drive

Dispatched to a fender bender at Maybee and Waterford roads, a deputy found one of the drivers slurring her words and smelling of booze, 10:22 p.m., July 16. The driver, a 24-year-old Independence Township woman, said she had been drinking and was on her way home. Preliminary breath test result of .04. She was cited for failure to display a valid driver's license and property damage accident.

Misdemeanor warrant

A 26-year-old Commerce Township man was stopped for driving 35 mph in a 25 mph zone on Holcomb Road near Washington, 7:50 p.m., July 19. He was found with a misdemeanor warrant out of 52-3 District Court for disorderly conduct. He was cited for failure to answer a summons, improper vehicle registration, expired plates, no proof of insurance, and impeded traffic, for speeding.

Stolen camera

A Southfield woman reported her camera stolen at Independence Oaks park, July 17. She had left it in a public bathroom and when she returned for it two-and-a-half hours later, it was gone.

Check scam

An Independence Township man selling a loveseat online for $350 received a check for $2,099.90, July 20. The buyer sent a text asking him to cash the check and send the overage back, along with the loveseat. The seller reported the incident to deputies as fraud.

Red light runner

A deputy stopped an SUV for running a red light at Sashabaw and Waldon roads, 5:36 a.m., July 20. The driver, a 42-year-old Independence Township man, was cited for driving with a suspended license, no proof of insurance, and disobeying a traffic signal.

Registration violation

A deputy stopped a truck for being overweight and lacking reflective tape on N. Baldwin Road north of Indianwood Road in Independence Township, 7:58 a.m., July 20. The driver, a 25-year-old Metamora man, was cited for registration violation for a missing trailer plate, and given a warning for no reflective tape.

Robbery in progress

A 21-year-old Independence Township man was arrested for attempted unarmed robbery, 7:27 p.m., July 23. Deputies were dispatched to a restaurant in the 6600 block of Dixie Highway for a robbery in progress. A 911 caller said there was a man in the store demanding all the money. Deputies arrived and found a shirtless male standing at the counter. The suspect stood silently and refused to talk to deputies. He was taken into custody without incident. No money was taken and no one was injured.

Assault at concert

A 43-year-old Flushing woman was arrested for assault on a police officer and assault and battery, 9:27 p.m., July 20, at a DTE Music Theatre concert. Deputies working the Run DMC show were requested to assist crowd control personnel with ejecting a patron from the venue. A woman seated in the pavilion area didn't have a ticket and was refusing to leave. When deputies began to escort her from the pavilion, she punched one of them in the face and attempted to flee. The second deputy and crowd control personnel were trying to regain control of her when she punched one of the crowd control employees in the face as well. The Oakland County Prosecutor's Office issued a two-count warrant against the woman for Assault on a Police Officer and Assault and Battery.

Tips to avoid scams

Warning signs from the Oakland County Sheriff's Office to avoid summer home-repair scams include: repairperson drives an unmarked truck or van with an out-of-state license; worker has no business ID, local address, or telephone number; offered a "special price" if you sign today; worker wants upfront cost or fees, or accepts only cash; no written estimates or contracts; no references; offer sounds "too good to be true"; and worker cannot provide contractor's license, permits, insurance, or bonding information. Call 248-858-4950.

Mary and Jodi

Marriage years in the making

Jodi (Phillips) and Mary Sanchez of Independence Township were joined in marriage on July 18, in front of friends and family.

The couple was going to get married in Washington D.C. in May, but recent court decisions changed those plans.

"From what we were hearing, we had a feeling that gay marriage was going to be legalized in Michigan," said Jodi.

The ladies met on the dating site Plentyoffish and dated for over five years before getting married just weeks after a June 26 Supreme Court decision that the Constitution guarantees a right to same-sex marriage.

Michael and Caitlin

Spring wedding

Family and friends gathered to celebrate the marriage of Michael and Caitlin Brennan on May 2, 2015, at Planterra Conservatory in West Bloomfield, Michigan.

The beautiful spring day turned into a magical evening under the stars at this unique wedding venue. Pastor Robert Walters officiated.

Caitlin and Michael reside in Fort Myers, Florida, and will honeymoon in Crete in September. The proud parents are Mark and Penny Bennett of Clarkston and Tim and Debbie Brennan of Leamington Spa, UK.

The Recruits Baseball team won the 14U Ripken Baseball tournament in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, July 17.

The boys played teams from Virginia, Texas, Illinois and Michigan. They won seven games and lost one during the week long tournament.

The Recruits are Seth Bacon, Ryan Barber, Patrick Deardorff, Kyle Domzalski, David Hare, Brock Henley, Drew Loftus, Logan Malitek, Blake Ratliff, Austin Remick, Gehrig Williams and Ryan Wycoff.

The team is made of players from Clarkston and Rochester.

Repeat title for Fries

Clarkston resident Derrick Fries won his second national title on July 5 during the US National Sprint Triathlon.

The triathlon was held just north of St. Paul, Minn. at Phalen Lake City Park and included a 400-meter swim, 12.4-mile bike and 3.2-mile run.

Fries was the winner in the 60-64 age group, completing the course in 1:00:30 and setting a new American Course Record. He broke the previous course record set in 1995 by over three minutes. Frank Huyberts, from Wisconsin, finished two minutes behind Fries for second place at 1:02:37.

The urban bike was a closed course and bikers navigated rough pavement and many 90 degree turns. The swim portion was on Lake Phalen. Participants pre-qualified and came from 31 different states.

Fries has won a number of National and International Sailing titles but since completing in triathlons since 2007, this is his second National Title. His first national title was in 2013 in Cleveland, Ohio.

Players get personal at 'Cure'

BY WENDI REARDON
Clarkston News Sports Writer

Pink and blue jerseys will fill the field during the Seventh Annual Football for a Cure as the gridiron heroes raise money for McLaren Breast Center and McLaren Cancer Institute - Clarkston, Aug. 15 at Clarkston High School stadium, 7 p.m.

The names on the back of each jersey mean something personal for everyone and for players Tommy Gosley and junior Brandon Baker it represents a family member they have lost to cancer.

Gosley, a linebacker for the Clarkston Varsity Football team, is playing for his grandfather Verlin "Buck" Boggs for the second consecutive year.

"He was really close to me so it only made sense I would represent him," he said.

Boggs passed away last October after battling brain cancer.

"He loved golf and loved watching golf his whole life," Gosley shared. "I never got a chance to golf with him. I am terrible at golf. But having him around for the holidays and family events was important. He only lived ten houses away from us so that was really cool."

He added it was nice to have his grandfather at last year's game.

"I was just glad he could make it, Gosley smiled. "It meant a lot to him that his grandson was representing him at the football game. It means a lot to my family when I am supporting my grandpa, too. I just wish he could be here this year."

He added Football for a Cure for him is representing family members who passed away from cancer.

Baker, an offensive lineman and defensive tackle this season, never met his great grandfather Lee Humphrey, who passed away from lung cancer, but he is proud to play for him in the game.

"I like hearing past stories about him," he shared. "I am more connected to my mother's side and he is my mother's grandfather."

When Baker chose to play for Humphrey he asked his grandfather about it.

"He said it would be a really good thing because he loves football and the fact it is showing his name on the jersey," he shared.

Baker is also playing in his first Football for a Cure game and for him it is representing those who have passed away.

"It means respecting all the others who have passed away and representing them for what they had to fight through and go through," he said.

Both welcome the community to join them for Football for a Cure, the Wolves' intrasquad pre-season scrimmage, and help them raise money.

"Just come out and support all of the cancer patients and those who have lost someone to cancer," said Gosley. "Plus, raise money. The event brings the community closer."

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

The ICE Fastpitch 10U Blue team holds their trophies high after their tournament win in Clio. Photo submitted

Tourney champs

The ICE Fastpitch 10U Blue team recently won the Clio Classic Championship, July 12.

They went 3-1 during the tournament. In their first game, they lost to 4-3 against Muth Mavericks and came back with a win against Orange Crush in the next game, 4-0. They defeated the Mavericks the next day with a 6-2 win and won the championship with a 5-4 win over the Riverdaws.

The girls placed second in the NSA Spring Madness tournament, May 16-17. They went 3-1 during the weekend. The first day they won three games with wins over Anchor Bay Angels, 11-1; Ann Arbor Gold, 4-2; and Hurricanes Fastpitch, 17-7. They lost to Motor City Madness on the last day of the tournament, 9-6.

ICE Fastpitch Blue 10U finished their winter league at Oakland Yard in second place with a 8-2 record. They also had five wins which they scored eight or more runs than their opponents.

The 10U Blue team consists of girls ages nine-years-old and ten-years-old. The team includes Sophia Bowers, Ella Cady, Mikala Hall, Bella Lockitski, Sheldon Mjckel, Alexandria Moore, Keira Tolmie, Annabelle Whittle, Ava Wiscombe and Brooklyn Wyzaleck. They are coached by Joe Moore, head coach, and Jack Cady, assistant coach.

ICE Fastpitch is a Clarkston-based youth travel softball organization. Tryouts for the next season are Sunday, July 9 and Sunday, July 16, both from 6-8 p.m. at Clarkston High School.

Is God a grouch?

I love the classic story that C.S. Lewis tells of a young boy playing in a mud puddle.

Imagine this boy who has never been to the beach. He's playing in a mud puddle. There's the mud and there's the water. He's playing with his cars and trucks in a dirty little mud puddle.

As his parent, you come up to him, and you say, "We're going to the beach."

He has never seen the beach. He says, "I can't go to the beach. I'm having too much fun here."

You sit down. What can you say to your child? All you can say is, "You have to trust me. The beach is so much better than this mud puddle! The fun you're trying to find in this mud puddle is nothing compared to the beach! You have to trust me. Come on! Let's go to the beach!"

Your son doesn't understand. He just thinks you are a grouch. Your son doesn't trust you or believe you. So he throws a fit because he wants to keep playing in the mud puddle.

You and I are like little kids. We like our mud puddles. We like our sins. Sexual sins. Gossiping sins. Ego sins. We find a certain fun and satisfaction when we play in those mud puddles.

Spiritual Matters

Pastor Greg Henneman

Our Father says, "I have so much more for you than this mud puddle. I love you! I want you to trust me! Come on! Let me take you to the beach!"

When you and I sin, we are basically saying, "God, I don't trust you. I like this mud puddle and I choose this over you."

When you and I sin, we are basically saying, "God, I think you are a grouch. I don't think you really want what's best for me. So let me alone. Let me play in my mud puddle."

Do you realize that God is a good and beautiful parent? He wants to get you out of your mud puddles and to the beach.

Jesus said, "If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. (John 15:10-11)"

Notice the connections. Loving God is not a reason to disobey him. Rather, if we love God, we will keep his commands. If we keep his commands, we will experience more joy. Do you see how that flows? Love leads to obedience. Obedience leads to joy.

So the next time you're tempted to sin, say, "God created me for more than this mud puddle! He's taking me to the beach! I trust him. He's no grouch. He has something better for me than this mud puddle."

The Rev. Greg Henneman is pastor of Clarkston Community Church

Volunteers needed for Habitat

My Habitat Clarkston volunteers will soon be working on another project in Clarkston for a family in need.

A morning presentation about a home being refurbished on Everest Street in Clarkston was shown during a morning volunteer kick-off event on July, 20. Volunteer Julie Nemeth said many workers and donations are still needed for the project.

Corporate, church, organizations, and individual volunteers are needed. For more information visit www.myhabitatokland.com.

Golf, Rush for Food

The countdown to the beginning of the Clarkston Wolves Football season is on. Here are a few upcoming events to get you ready before the boys hit the gridiron.

The Wolves host their 15th Annual Clarkston Football Golf Outing with the Back-to-Back Division 1 State Champions at Pine Knob Golf Course, Friday Aug. 14.

The cost is $106 per golfer and includes dinner, door prizes and awards.

Registration is at 12 p.m. and the 18-hole scramble begins at 1 p.m.

A 50/50 raffle and a silent auction is also held to benefit the Clarkston Football Program.

You can sign up, pay or print out forms at Forms <https://sites.google.com/site/clarkstonwolvesfootball/home/friends-family-alumni-golf-outing>.

The gridiron heroes visit neighborhoods on Saturday, Aug. 22, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. as they collect food for the 18th Annual Rush for Food.

The Freshman, JV and Varsity Clarkston Gridiron heroes will collect non-perishable food in local neighborhoods and spend an evening stocking the pantry at the Lighthouse Emergency Services in Independence Township as they build awareness of community need, promote team unity, and allow players to give back to the community that supports them.

The players encourage the community to get involved and ways:

Drop off donations directly to the Lighthouse, located at 6330 Sashabaw Rd, during their business hours or from 6:30-7:30pm on August 22 labeled with Rush for Food/Clarkston Football;

Leave donations in a labeled paper bag on your front porch for football players to pick up on Saturday, Aug. 22.

Success at fundraiser

The Fifth Annual LaLonde Charity Golf Outing to benefit Veterans' Treatment Courts in Macomb and Oakland counties, July 19, at Pine Knob Golf Course in Clarkston raised over $125,000. The proceeds will help pay for various services for veterans struggling with legal troubles, substance abuse and emotional issues.

Last year, the outing raised almost $90,000.

Pat Kittle, Independence Township supervisor and new board president of The Friends of the Oakland County Regional Veteran's Court board of directors, thanked everyone who came out to help and make the event an enormous success.

Kittle got active with the court after his son David Kittle, a sergeant in the US Army, died in 2013 from substance abuse issues after returning from Iraq and Afghanistan.

In addition to golf, the event included wine tasting, and dinner.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
COUNTY OF OAKLAND
CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE
AVINGTON PARK
CONDOMINIUM SUBDIVISION
PRIVATE ROAD IMPROVEMENT
SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICT
PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

The Charter Township of Independence ("Township") has received a petition requesting a special assessment district for improvements to the following private roads in the Avington Park Condominium Subdivision in the Township: Avington Parkway, Avington Court, Rosebud Lane, Boulderwood Ridge Drive, and Forest Valley Drive within the borders of the condominium subdivision (the "Road Improvement Project"). Having received such petition from the record owners of land constituting more than 50% of the total frontage upon such roads (not including land that is not subject to special assessment), and based upon the request in that petition, the Township Board of Trustees has tentatively declared its intent to proceed with the Road Improvement Project and has tentatively decided to establish a special assessment district to defray all or a portion of the costs of such improvements by special assessment against the benefited properties. The improvements are intended to provide special benefits to the properties identified on the attachment to this Notice, which properties together tentatively constitute the "Special Assessment District." The cost estimate, plans, and petition relating to this matter are on file and available for public inspection at the Township Clerk's Office, which is located at 6483 Waldon Center Drive, Independence Township, Michigan.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that at 7:00 p.m. on August 25, 2015, the Township Board of Trustees shall meet at the Township Hall, located at 6483 Waldon Center Drive, Independence Township, Michigan, for the purpose of hearing statements and objections by any interested person with respect to the petitions, proposed Road Improvement Project and proposed Special Assessment District. Appearance and protest at the hearing is required in order to appeal the matters to be considered at the hearing to the State Tax Tribunal. An owner or party in interest, or his or her agent, may appear in person at the hearing to protest, or shall be permitted to file his or her appearance or protest by letter at or before the hearing and his or her personal appearance in such case shall not be required [MCL 211.741(2)(5)].

Planners say 'no' to restaurant

BY PHIL CUSTODIO
Clarkston News Editor

Plans for a new restaurant at 59 S. Main Street will move forward without the recommendation of the Clarkston Planning Commission.

Planners voted 4-1 against the conditional rezoning request at its Aug. 3 meeting.

Commission members said they want to preserve a "buffer" between downtown Main Street businesses and residences to the south. The 59 S. Main property, the Sutherland Building, is currently zoned Village Multiple and used for apartments.

Robert Bondy voted in favor of conditional rezoning to Village Commercial.

"Do we want government to legislate where and how people make money – I do not believe that is the case," Bondy said. "Government stops people from making money in a lot of ways – minimizing that is a good thing."

Builder Jeff Harrell, representing the owners, said they will present the plan to Clarkston City Council, which has the final vote on it.

"I wish the vote would have gone differently, but it didn't," Harrell said after the meeting. "We think it would fit in nicely with the rest of the community."

On March 2, the planning commission voted unanimously to recommend rezoning from Multi-family Residential to Village Commercial.

City Council tabled the request on March 9. The council referred the issue

New Dixie plan calls for rentals

BY ANDREAM BEAUDOIN
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Developers have a new plan for the east side of Dixie Highway at Deerhill Drive, calling for higher density and a change in use for the 26-acre parcel of land.

Developer Michael Furnari is requesting 92 rental units, up from 69 in his previous plan. The 69 units in the original plans were for individual homes, and would not have been rental units.

Neighbors remain concerned about the development.

"There will be a dramatic increase in traffic without any pre-emptive addressing of current traffic issues on Deerhill Drive," said Independence Township resident Chelsea O'Brien. "There is no guarantee residents in the rentals will be an older population like originally planned."

Another concern is what will happen when 26 acres of land are cleared, she said.

"The lack of environmental impact studies of Deer Lake Watershed, of which the proposed development is a part," she said. "Please seriously consider the long term impact on Deer Lake Farms, Deer Lake property owners, the Knolls community, Independence Elementary School community and others in the immediate vicinity of what will, if approved without changes, become a highly dense transient community."

Furnari is slated to appear on Aug. 13 before the Independence Township Planning Commission on the plan, submitted in April. His original development plan was submitted in 2014.

If recommended for approval by the Planning Commission, the plan would go to the township Board of Trustees for final approval.

Briefly

Election costs increase

Independence Township increased spending on elections in 2016 by 154.8 percent, over $102,000, from the 2015 season.

Labor increases accounted for about $38,000 of the increase. Other large increases were for equipment, health care, postage and printing and publishing. So far, three elections are scheduled for 2016, and three scheduled for both 2017 and 2018.

New chair for planners

Clarkston Planning Commission voted unanimously, Aug. 3, to appoint Derek Werner as chair.

The commission also set its next meeting for Aug. 11 at 3 East Church Street to discuss the corner lot at Main Street and Waldon Road.

The next regular meeting of the commission will be on Sept. 1, due to the Labor Day holiday.

Labor Day parade

The Clarkston Rotary Club, sponsors of the Clarkston Labor Day Parade for the past 74 years, is seeking parade participants to join in the fun-filled community event.

The traditional end of summer parade is seeking floats, classic cars, community service organizations, musical groups, local businesses, political candidates, families, and equestrian riders. The parade kicks off from Renaissance High School on Waldon Road, beginning at 10 a.m. on Monday, Sept. 7. The parade route will be Church Street to Main Street, north to Miller Road, and ends at Miller and Holcomb roads.

Corrections

In the July 29 News in Brief, "6 candidates for city council," Thomas Hunter should have been listed as not running for reelection.

In "City to review downtown parking," City Manager Carol Eberhardt did not make the request to the council to conduct a parking study. The recommendation came from the Planning Commission.

In the story "Milzow Memorial Fund awards $10,000," Forrest Milzow's name was spelled incorrectly.

Sutherland plan

back to the Planning Commission for conditional rezoning, to limit property development to restaurant use.

Commission member Mike Sabol said he changed his vote on the issue after he learned residences south of 59 S. Main Street were once used for businesses.

"If there's not a buffer, we could see rezoning requests coming from them – dominos could start falling," he said after the meeting.

Developer Larry Barnett said he didn't think they were treated fairly, especially with two restaurant plans moving forward at Union Joint properties across the street.

"We filed before both of those," Barnett said at the meeting. "We followed the requests of the city planner as per contract zoning – we think it's appropriate for rezoning."

Sharron Catallo, city council member and mother of Union Joints owner Curt Catallo, said the Sutherland building should remain residential.

"At this moment, it's back where it should have been," Catallo said, speaking as a member of the audience.

Another restaurant has been proposed for the former Clarkston State Bank property at 51 S. Main Street.

Commissioners and residents in attendance also discussed downtown parking – the 59 S. Main Street plan includes 31 parking spaces.

"I recommend we hold off on any rezoning until we can get clearcut enforcement of parking – some type of fee to businesses, a trolley or something to get people in and out of here," said Commissioner Frank Schoebel.

Bondy said parking was not relevant to the rezoning request.

"Parking would be in the site plan portion, not the rezoning portion," he said.

Roof seating OK'd

BY ANDRE M. BEAUDOIN
Clarkston News Staff Writer

Clarkston City Council approved rooftop seating for a new Union Joints restaurant at its meeting, July 27.

The restaurant still needs final approvals by Clarkston Historic District Commission and city council.

At the meeting, Curt Catallo of Union Joints showed plans for Hanchos Mexican Cantina.

"Rooftop seating will give people a great view of Clarkston," Catallo said. "It differentiates us from restaurant chains."

The proposed restaurant at Main and Church streets received preliminary approval from city council on June 22 with seating up to 138, with 20 seats on the roof.

Catallo is planning two new restaurants, one at 28 S. Main and another directly behind it at 3 E. Church. The Church Street building presently houses the city DPW and 28 S. Main has housed Morgan's, which is moving to the corner of Clarkston Road and Main Street, for decades.

Buildings would connect in the future via a breezeway.

According to city ordinance, new buildings or those changed or expanded are to provide parking. If located in the city Parking Deferment Zone, however, they can pay the city in lieu of spaces.

The zone is listed in the city Off Street Parking and Loading Ordinance as encompassing the business district from just north of Washington Street to Waldon Road.

Washington Management owner Bob Roth said parking rules are not being enforced.

"Are we just going to keep approving everything without addressing parking," asked Roth, who owns the Clarkston Mills building and its parking lots along with business partner Ed Adler. "When the old Clarkston State Bank building opens, are we just going to say we have enough parking?"

City Councilman Mike Sabol said city administration is in charge of enforcement.

"I'm confused – we discussed parking deferment," Sabol said. "This is all part of everything we have been doing up here since June 1."

Catallo said he understands parking concerns.

"Parking is a valuable conversation to have," he said.

Catallo said his plans follow city ordinance.

The city council has referred the parking issue to the Streets, Sidewalks, and Parking Committee.

The committee will look into commissioning a parking study, a process which will take less than six months, said Sabol.

SCAMP picnic with Rotary

Clarkston Rotary Club kicked off its new year with a picnic for SCAMP, which is tradition.

Every year, the first item in the new Rotary year is a picnic for the students and parents of SCAMP.

"As always, the picnic was held at Independence Oaks County Park, and the families enjoyed dinner along with a balloon sculptor and face painter," said Rotarian Mary Sloan. "It was a great start for the new Rotary year, which begins July 1."

SCAMP success

Clarkston SCAMP celebrated a successful 2015 season after five weeks of summer fun for kids with special needs.

Campers enjoyed games, music, art, and motor skill activities, field trips around the community, on-site visits by entertainment groups, hiking, swimming, boating, and fishing at Independence Oaks County Park, and other events.

Wendi's Word

A column by Wendi Reardon

Pre-season kick off

Here we are already in the first week of August and it doesn't mean you should be thinking about the end of summer rapidly approaching.

But you should start thinking about fall and not school supplies, which have been at retail stores since July or Halloween candy which I have also already seen on the shelves but sports - particularly football and the Clarkston Wolves.

Before the Clarkston's gridiron heroes open the season at Macomb Dakota, Aug. 27 (which will be here before you know it) - they have special events coming up in which they give back to the community who rallies behind them throughout the season.

The first event is the seventh annual Football for a Cure, Aug. 15 at 7 p.m. Each year the players get more excited for the pre-season scrimmage as they don pink and baby blue jerseys with a name on the back. The name represents a family member or someone close to them who is battling cancer, is a cancer survivor or passed away from cancer.

The money raised from the event goes back to the community to patient services at McLaren Breast Center and McLaren Cancer Institute - Clarkston.

The Wolves aren't stopping there. The following week as the freshman, JV and varsity football teams are collecting non-perishable food for Lighthouse during the 18th Annual Rush for Food.

This year is different - it's held on Saturday, Aug. 22 and the boys will be gathering in the neighborhoods and at Lighthouse, 12 - 1 p.m. If you aren't home, bags can be set on the porch with "Rush for Food" labeled on it or can be dropped off at Lighthouse. It is great when residents are home - it gives the players a chance to personally thank you for donating.

The cheer and dance teams are also helping out this year and you can also drop off donations at The Clarkston News office, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. until Friday, Aug. 21.

With help from the community, each year the boys break the previous record for the amount of food collected. Last year Rush for Food collected 7,000 pounds of food. Will you help them beat the record again this year?

Thank you for support at car wash

Dear Editor,

What a beautiful day for our annual Auxiliary Support Our Troops Car Wash Fundraiser, July 26! It was a combined effort and I'd like to thank the Legion, SAL, Auxiliary, Jr. Auxiliary and family members who helped.

A big thank you also goes out to Wint

Funeral Home for their support and donation, the Dairy Queen of Clarkston for the delicious ice cream treats, all of our customers, and Annie Germic and Deanna Perysian, who chaired this event.

Call for township to rearrange priorities

Dear Editor,

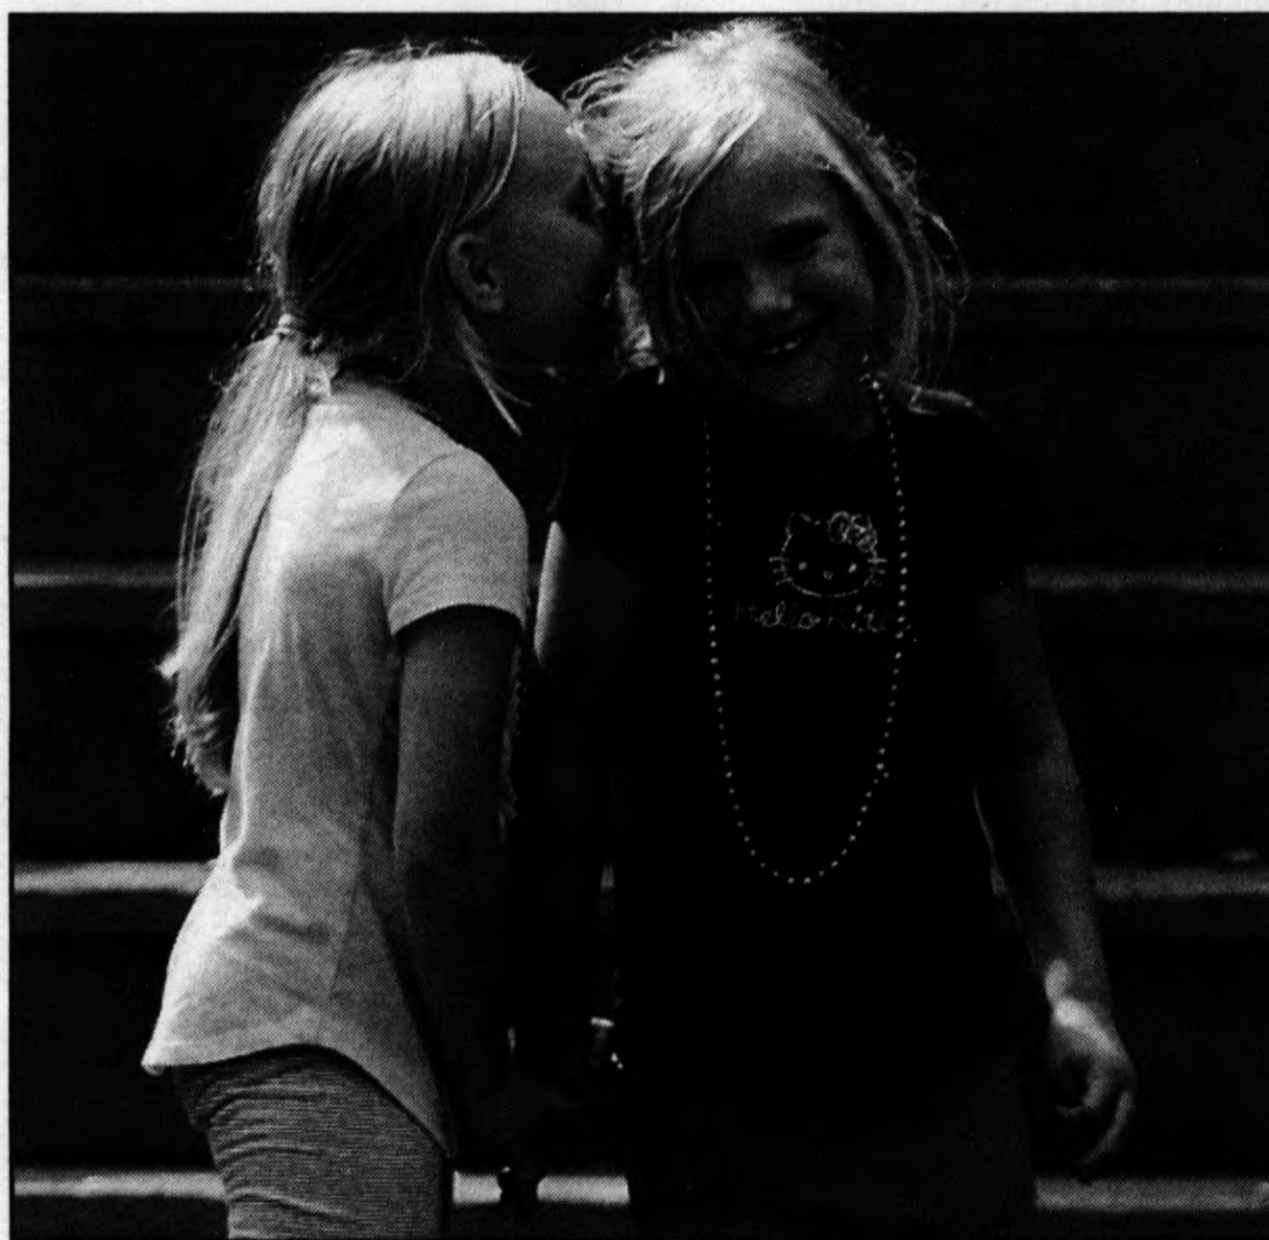

Regarding "Township considers road millage" (July 29 edition), Proposal 1, which proposed a tax increase to fix roads, overwhelmingly failed in May. Now, Supervisor Pat Kittle is proposing a property tax increase to fix our roads?

The voters said rearrange priorities and use existing revenues! If our local elected officials believe that fixing the roads is a priority that deserves local funding, then rearrange local priorities and use existing local revenues!

The voters have already spoken.

Notes from the Jotter's notecards

It's not terribly irritating, but when a newscaster says, "We have breaking news right after this commercial message," it's upsetting to me.

Darn it, if they have breaking news, tell it to me now!

I almost always have some yellow 3x5 cards in my shirt pocket. My short memory requires me to write notes.

In recent weeks I've made notes on my cards, but when I looked for them, they weren't there.

Then I discovered I'd written some of my latest notes on the blank side of the previous notes.

I know I ain't no Phi Beta Kappa, so instead of blaming my ignorance directly on myself, I blamed aging.

I write with a dull pen or pencil, and use that as an excuse for not getting a point.

Jim's Jottings

a column by Jim Sherman

I'm thinking of changing my grandson's nickname to Riga, because he spends so much time with his computer I fear he's getting rigor mortis.

Maybe you're like me, having spent a fortune on deodorant before realizing some people don't like me.

As for me, I'm going to continue hoping God grades on a curve.

* * *

Hillary (I've given up calling her Mrs. Clinton because Mrs. is too meaningful for me) recently said, "Being a woman" is one of the reasons to vote for her.

While campaigning recently, she said she was for "common sense reform."

Where's she going to get it? She sure didn't show it in helping our generals in Benghazi.

* * *

If you spent just a little bit of time watching the U.S. Open golf match in Washington state, you are undoubtedly still wondering where the golf course is.

This "golf course" is eight years old and with very little green grass on it. Someone spent a lot of money grooming dirt on this expanse of ugliness.

I watched very little of the game. I've been on several golf courses around the world. All can be classified as legitimate. This course came from clips of Jurassic Park, images from illiterate asylums confinees and the imagination of people who hate golfers.

The U.S. Open, one of the four top competitions in golf, was barely mentioned in the Sunday Detroit papers -- a 10 inch column. The only golfer's name in the story was Rory McIlroy.

This unknown course is in Chambers Bay, University Place Washington.

Some really big money had to be spent on somebody to bring this fiasco, to that terribly ugly golf course there.

Teen driver takes too many risks

All I can say is, "Wow." (Well, that ain't true. If that is all I had to say on the subject I am about to elaborate on, it would be a very short column, indeed.)

Holy cow! I saw some of the worst driving ever last week.

Moreover, it was reckless and dangerous driving I saw whilst motoring west on Clarkston Road, from Joslyn in Orion Township to M-15 in Clarkston.

It was so bad, I felt obliged to follow the aggressive driver, snap a picture of the back of his car, post it on Facebook and contact the Oakland County Undersheriff Mike McCabe.

Wrote I on the social networking website, Facebook: "So does anybody know this car and the driver/kid. Followed him and his buds from Orion to Clarkston on Clarkston Road this morning, just before 9. He passed a car on the shoulder of Clarkston Road (right side) on the curve by Eston Road (near where the deer are fenced in). He then passed a car where there is road work up by Clintonwood Park, double lines, traffic. Expensive car for someone so immature. I keep thinking he will kill himself, or somebody else. Circulate this picture between Orion and Clarkston... maybe his folks will find out."

That post was shared a whopping 3,458 times! Within a couple of hours McCabe emailed me with an update from the Orion Substation Commander Dan Toth.

Don't Rush Me

A column by Don Rush

"Everyone, I just spoke with the father who is very responsive to the concerns and he had already seen the FaceBook posts. He has already taken the vehicle from the son and he sounds like he is all over parental control of the 16-year-old. The vehicle actually has electronics which allows him to see all driving data like a Fed-Ex truck," wrote Toth.

Most of the folks who commented on the original post were positive in their commentaries -- they were glad I got involved.

Some said they had seen the same car doing similar maneuvers on other local roads. Some readers thought I had gone too far, that I should have only contacted the police and not publicly embarrassed the 16-year-old.

I see their point, and once the father was contacted and talked to, I did take the post down. What do you think?

* * *

I hopped on the old information highway and found myself reading information from the Centers for Disease Control. Here's what I found.

Motor vehicle crashes are the leading cause of death for teenagers. How big is the problem? According to the CDC, "In 2011, about 2,650 teens in the United States, aged 16-19, were killed and almost 292,000 were treated in emergency departments for injuries suffered in motor-vehicle crashes. That means that seven teens (aged 16 to 19) died every day from motor vehicle injuries."

Further more, "Young people ages 15-24 represent only 14% of the U.S. population. However, they account for 30% ($19 billion) of the total costs of motor vehicle injuries among males and 28% ($7 billion) of the total costs of motor vehicle injuries among females."

Who is most at risk? The CDC site reports, "The risk of motor vehicle crashes is higher among 16- to 19-year-olds than among any other age group. In fact, per mile driven, teen drivers ages 16 to 19 are nearly three times more likely than drivers aged 20 and older to be in a fatal crash."

Among teen drivers, those at especially high risk for motor vehicle crashes are: Males: In 2011, the motor vehicle death rate for male drivers and passengers ages 16 to 19 was almost two times that of their female counterparts.

And, finally from the CDC, what factors put teen drivers at risk?

Teens are more likely than older drivers to underestimate dangerous situations or not be able to recognize hazardous situations.

Teens are more likely to speed and allow shorter headways (the distance from the front of one vehicle to the front of the next). The presence of male teenage passengers increases the likelihood of this risky driving behavior.

Among male drivers between 15 and 20 years of age who were involved in fatal crashes in 2012, 37% were speeding at the time of the crash and 25% had been drinking.

Chelsea O'Brien and Chris Hardman are leading a new camp this summer.

Nature camp for kids

Local educators Chelsea O'Brien and Chris Hardman are leading Project WILD, a new wildlife-focused conservation education program for students in grades K-12.

The camp, offered through Clarkston Community Education, will include lessons on water cycles, worms and dirt, planting a garden, and other topics.

"This nature camp is something new, and provides a unique experience not just getting kids off their smart phones but inviting a re-engagement in the natural world all around us," O'Brien said. "Our classes are small, but there is still room for campers."

Learning about the outdoors makes the camp special, she said.

"Independence Township is very much about their sports camps, but my mom used to tell us all summer, 'Go out and play,'" remembered O'Brien. "My brother, sisters and I would spend countless hours making forts, catching frogs and climbing trees."

Parents trying to get their kids out of the house often find it challenging to tear kids away from TV and computer screens.

"It harder than one might think to get kids to simply play outside," O'Brien said.

"Project Wild, not only celebrates outdoor fun, but inspires critical thinking and enhances math, science and language arts skills."

Project Wild is inspired, organized and directed by Independence Elementary's Garden Club and Learning Garden, created and supervised by O'Brien.

O'Brien is a certified Project WILD instructor, directing the camp with Chris Hardman.

O'Brien spent most of her career as a science writer and nature photographer for international magazines. Hardman spent most of her career writing about science and nature.

When Hardman and O'Brien met, they learned they shared a common interest.

"When Chelsea and I first met, we shared our dream of starting a nature camp for kids in Clarkston. Our campers are going to have a blast," Hardman said.

The camp offers two, one-week sessions starting Aug. 10 and 17, 9 a.m.-12 p.m., at Independence Elementary. For more information contact Independence Township Parks, Recreation & Seniors Department or visit clarkstonwild.com.

Public Safety

For Clarkston and Independence Township

Caught with marijuana

While on a traffic stop on the northbound I-75 entrance ramp at Sashabaw Road, a deputy saw a car on northbound Sashabaw turn left onto the northbound ramp, 10:21 a.m., July 24. There is construction going on there and a sign posted for no left turns onto the ramp. The deputy waved the car over. The driver, a 19-year-old Holly man, smelled strongly of marijuana. He had two baggies of marijuana, which he said he bought from someone he met in Clarkston for a friend's birthday present. He was cited for possession of marijuana and driving with a suspended license.

Wallet, purse taken

A 22-year-old Hemlock woman went to a concert with a friend at DTE, July 25, leaving her purse in her friend's car but taking her wallet with her. She lost her wallet during the concert, possibly in the women's bathroom. Her friend left the concert early, and "hid" the Hemlock woman's purse under her car. When the 22-year-old arrived at her car after the concert, the purse was gone.

Child neglect warrant

Responding to a report of a couple fighting, a deputy found a 40-year-old Independence Township man and 38-year-old Independence Township woman parked at White Lake Road and Dixie Highway, 2:47 p.m., July 28. The 40-year-old said he and his girlfriend were just playing around. The woman agreed, saying "they were just messing around." The man was found with a Child Neglect warrant out of Oakland County and taken to the county jail.

Lawn vandalism

Someone drove over a lawn in the 4000 block of Ottawa Court around 12:20 a.m., July 29, leaving minor damage. Video shows what may be a Chevy truck doing the damage.

Suspicious circumstances

An Independence Township woman was out for a jog on Allen Road, 10:01 p.m., July 29, when she noticed an older, fullsize van, gold in color, possibly following her. She called her mother, who drove out to get her, but didn't call police until about an hour after. The driver was described as a white man in his mid 30s with no facial hair.

Road rage with gun

A 41-year-old Davisburg man reported being threatened with a gun during a road rage incident on Tindall Road in Springfield Township, 1:43 p.m., Aug. 1. He said he got into an argument with a motorcycle rider, during which the motorcyclist pulled out a small caliber handgun and threatened to shoot him. The suspect is described as a white man in his 50s, with a long gray goatee wearing a black leather "Iron Order" Motorcycle jacket and helmet, riding a blue Harley-Davidson motorcycle with Michigan registration plate.

Pool rescue

A 2-year-old Detroit boy fell into a pool in the 5000 block of Bridgewater and nearly drowned, 3:33 p.m., Aug. 1. Deputies and Independence Township paramedics were called to the apartment complex pool on a report of an infant not breathing. Deputies determined the victim and three other children under the age of 5 were dropped off at the pool to go swimming and do not reside there. Their parents were not present with the children, who were being watched by a 29-year-old female cousin at the pool. The cousin said she saw the child trying to retrieve a ball from the pool when he fell in head first. She dove into the pool, pulled the child out, and started CPR when she saw he wasn't breathing. The boy was taken to St. Joseph's hospital for observation.

Dancing in the park

BY WENDI REARDON
Clarkston News Sports Writer

Mia Gower, Hailey Alsup and Avery Roemensky grabbed each other's hands and danced to the music last Wednesday as they joined others in downtown Clarkston for Zumba in the Park.

It is the first year for Zumba in the Park, an idea from Jen Breen, Zumba instructor and co-owner of Mueva Fitness.

"I teach in the studio during the fall and I wanted to move the exercising outdoors in the summer time to bring to the community," Breen explained.

She added participants learn simple and kid-friendly moves and adults usually join the kids.

"I want to see kids outside," Breen said. "It's so easy for them to be on their electronics. I want to share my passion for dancing. I love outside and I love downtown Clarkston so it just fit."

Kids, parents and guardians spent 45 minutes reviewing Zumba dances they had learned during the month of July.

The kids began with a warm-up, then moved to a Brazil dance. Next, was freestyle as the kids tried out moves they had learned or shared their own moves. They danced as the music played, then froze in their spots when the music stopped. They started dancing again when the music started playing once more.

Parents and guardians joined in for the dances from Russia and Mexico. The session ended with kids and parents dancing freestyle moves with their partner.

"It's a great family outing," Breen smiled. "I always encourage them to bring a lunch and play in Depot Park or go to the beach or splash pad after. The moms always say the kids nap the best they have ever napped - that's always good."

Zumba in the Park continues every Wednesday, 10:45-11:30 a.m., with the last session on August 19. Kids are $5 and children ages 2-years-old and under are free.

Parents are requested to sign a quick safety waiver and must remain on premises in case of inclement weather or an emergency. The rain location is at Mueva Fitness, 6465 Dixie Highway.

Queens of the court

The Lady Wolves kept the tradition to Midland going as they qualified for their seventh consecutive trip to the MHSAA Division 1 Girls Tennis State Finals in May.

The Clarkston Girls Varsity Tennis team qualified for the trip by finishing in second place at the MHSAA Regional with 20 points.

"It was wonderful," said Becky Freeman, head coach. "They were thrilled and were very excited. They surpassed our expectations."

The girls had an up and down season leading up to regionals but they always had their goal set on the state finals.

"As a team it was all of our effort to get the team there so girls could compete at this level," Freeman added.

After the two-day competition at Midland Tennis Center, the girls finished in eighth place with eight points.

Four players received accolades from the Michigan High School Tennis Coaches Association for the season. Isabella Spindler was named to Division One All-State Singles First team and Alex Whall received honorable mention on the singles court.

Katie Hubregsen and Caitlin McCaghy were named to the All-State Doubles First team.

Soaring into fun

Over 60 campers spent four days learning how to jump, run and throw during Clarkston Track and Field Camp, July 20-23.

The camp was held for students going into grades third through eighth as they learned track and field events in hurdles, discus, high jump, long jump, relays and shot put.

They spent ten minutes at each station and then went to the pool after camp every day.

Success with summer softball league

The summer Travel Therapeutic Recreation Softball league includes two Clarkston teams, along with teams from Lake Orion, Waterford, Troy, and Rochester.

Rick Henry and Roger Yoder coach the Clarkston teams and help the players improve at practices and games throughout the season.

Henry, head coach of the Blue team, has been coaching it for eight years.

"Seeing the excitement on the players' faces and the improvement they make throughout the season is an incredible feeling," he said.

Yoder, head coach of the Gold team, has been coaching the Gold team for eight years as well.

"Rick asked me if I wanted to coach and I took the offer right away," Yoder said. "The first couple of years were rough, but after that things became easier for everybody."

The players have to be 14-years-old and older in order to play.

"We have one or two players who are between 45-50 years old, so we have a wide variation with the age of our players," said Yoder.

At each game, each player gets the opportunity to bat and play defense. Each team can score up to five runs when they are batting.

The teams play six innings each game so the games last for about an hour and a half.

Each team plays six games and practices eight times throughout the seasons.

At the once-a-week practices, the teams work on throwing, batting, fielding, and running the bases.

"I love baseball, I love coaching, and the kids love playing and that makes everyone happy," said Yoder.

"I enjoy coaching these guys and I love being around them at the games and practices," Henry said.

Both teams end their season by having an end of the year barbecue to celebrate the fun and exciting season they had.

— Julie Goldberg

Students light up at camp

The recycle room was a bustle of energy and excitement during Camp Invention, held July 20-23, as students entering first through sixth grade looked for the perfect component for their project.

This year's Camp Invention curriculum was Illuminate and was inspired by some of the nation's most brilliant minds.

Every day the students were inspired by different inventors and received a new challenge in each of their five modules. This year's modules were Inducted, MOVE (Motion, Obstacles, Variety, Excitement), Kartwheel, Design Studio: Illuminate and I Can Invent: Next Level Gamers.

"MOVE is like a physical education module," explained Beth Rogers, one of the directors and fifth-grade teacher from Springfield Plains Elementary. "They take traditional games and then the kids change it up. It's all about teamwork, challenges and how to overcome challenges."

Camp Invention encourages the students through Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) and is popular. Rogers added 50 percent of last year's students returned and some have come every year the past 4-5 years. Most are from Clarkston with a few from Lake Orion and one from Canada. Ford Motor Company volunteers also visited.

A million dollar idea

If you are like me, you have never struggled with coming up with ideas of what you would do if you were given a million dollars.

Over the years, as I have periodically thought about that question, my answers have changed.

As a youth, my thoughts were full of ideas of things I believed would serve to enhance my own life.

As I have gotten older and matured and God has grown the generosity in my heart, my thoughts about what I would do has centered on glorifying God.

I have come to the understanding people's needs are met as a result of introducing them to our great provider, Jesus. Because everything good we have in our lives has come from God (James 1:17).

So, (before reading any further) grab a pen and paper and write down your own ideas of what you would like to do if I were to give you one million dollars (insert Dr. Evil's laugh from Austin Powers).

The only stipulation is the money has to be used to bless others. I'd love to read some of your ideas.

The good news is your dreams of blessing others can still become a reality. When you dream million dollar dreams, it will probably involve working with others, as the body of Christ together.

Who knows how God might work through this exercise, pairing up people to accomplish extraordinary things for His kingdom through a simple question. Email

Spiritual Matters

Pastor Matthew
Webster

me your ideas at revmwebster@gmail.com

Did you know that over the course of our lifetime, the majority of us will in fact earn more than a million dollars?

So maybe the better question isn't what would you do if you won a million dollars? The better question is: What are you going to do with the million dollars plus you are already going to earn in your lifetime?

What do you do with the time and the talent and wonderful resources you are blessed to have? How do you invest your resources for the greatest impact?

Generosity flows from within. If you are generous with what you have now, you are going to be generous, as you are given more.

I can't tell you how many times a church parishioner has told me if they win the lottery, the church is really going to be in a good spot.

I politely tell them, God has given His people everything they need to accomplish His plan and purposes.

We need an awareness of just how blessed we are. This happens as we focus on the greatest gift God has given us, His only Son.

The results are seen in the early church in Acts 4: "God's grace was so powerfully at work in them all that there were no needy persons among them."

If children of God would grow in the gratitude for what they already have we wouldn't have to dream of one day what we could do but would instead begin that journey today.

The Rev. Dr. Matthew Webster is pastor of First Congregational Church of Clarkston

Volunteers needed for Leader Dog

BY JULIE GOLDBERG

Special to the Clarkston News

Leader Dogs for the Blind in Rochester Hills is looking for Clarkston residents who are interested in becoming a puppy raiser.

Carol Thompson, a Clarkston resident, has been a puppy raiser for 31 years and has raised 34 puppies with Leader Dog.

"Being a puppy raiser is a rewarding experience. You get to help clients fulfill life and help them have independence as well," said Thompson.

The Leader Dog website has a video that people can watch to see if they feel qualified enough to become a puppy raiser, Thompson said.

There are different breeds of Leader Dogs: black, yellow, and chocolate Labradors, golden retrievers, and German Shepherds. Puppy raisers get to choose what breed and sex they want to raise.

The puppies are about seven weeks old when they arrive at Leader Dog, then they go to a puppy foster home until they are a year old. The puppies then go back to Leader Dog to work with trainers until they are one and a half to three years old.

Puppy raisers have to follow requirements and take the puppy to certain places so they can learn how to socialize with people.

The puppy raiser meets with a puppy counselor once a month. The puppy counselor will support and guide the puppy raiser and make sure that everything is running smoothly.

Puppy raisers are responsible for housebreaking the puppy and teaching good manners. They practice basic obedience commands with the puppy, such as sit, down, stay, heel, and come.

Puppy raisers also socialize the puppies through exposure to many different kinds of people, vehicles, environments, and animals. The puppies learn how to cross the street and think on their own.

Clients receive the puppy when they are a year and a half to three years old.

"A big reward is that you get to meet the clients for around 45-60 minutes when they receive their puppy and hear their stories," said Thompson.

Leader Dogs always need puppy raisers and volunteers.

For more information about becoming a puppy raiser visit: www.leaderdog.org/volunteers/about-puppy-raising.

Clarkston Village Players season to start soon

Clarkston Village Players kicks off its 2015-2016 season with the romantic drama "The Sea Horse" by Edward J. Moore, Sept. 11-26.

Tough, fiercely independent Gertrude Blum operates The Sea Horse, a rundown waterfront bar frequented by sailors like seaman Harry Bales, her former tenant and lover. When Harry returns from a long voyage, Gertrude wants nothing to do with his dreams of settling down to start a business and maybe a family. But some dreams are big enough to support – or swallow – two.

The season continues with "The Smell of the Kill" by Michelle Lowe, Nov. 6-21; "The Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Dramatic Society Murder Mystery" by David McGillivray and Walter Zerlin Jr., Jan. 8-23; "Simpatico" by Sam Shepard, March 11-26; and "Hamlet II (Better Than the Original)" by Sam Bobrick – May 6-21.

Shows are performed at Depot Theatre, 4861 White Lake Road. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit ClarkstonVillagePlayers.org or call 248-425-5842. Ticket prices are $13 for Thursday shows at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday shows at 2 p.m.; and $15 for Friday and Saturday performances at 8 p.m.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Because the People Want to Know

INDEPENDENCE TWP.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
COUNTY OF OAKLAND
CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF INDEPENDENCE
AVINGTON PARK
CONDOMINIUM SUBDIVISION
PRIVATE ROAD IMPROVEMENT
SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICT
PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

The Charter Township of Independence ("Township") has received a petition requesting a special assessment district for improvements to the following private roads in the Avington Park Condominium Subdivision in the Township: Avington Parkway, Avington Court, Rosebud Lane, Boulderwood Ridge Drive, and Forest Valley Drive within the borders of the condominium subdivision (the "Road Improvement Project"). Having received such petition from the record owners of land constituting more than 50% of the total frontage upon such roads (not including land that is not subject to special assessment), and based upon the request in that petition, the Township Board of Trustees has tentatively declared its intent to proceed with the Road Improvement Project and has tentatively decided to establish a special assessment district to defray all or a portion of the costs of such improvements by special assessment against the benefited properties. The improvements are intended to provide special benefits to the properties identified on the attachment to this Notice, which properties together tentatively constitute the "Special Assessment District." The cost estimate, plans, and petition relating to this matter are on file and available for public inspection at the Township Clerk's Office, which is located at 6483 Waldon Center Drive, Independence Township, Michigan.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that at 7:00 p.m. on August 25, 2015, the Township Board of Trustees shall meet at the Township Hall, located at 6483 Waldon Center Drive, Independence Township, Michigan, for the purpose of hearing statements and objections by any interested person with respect to the petitions, proposed Road Improvement Project and proposed Special Assessment District. Appearance and protest at the hearing is required in order to appeal the matters to be considered at the hearing to the State Tax Tribunal. An owner or party in interest, or his or her agent, may appear in person at the hearing to protest, or shall be permitted to file his or her appearance or protest by letter at or before the hearing and his or her personal appearance in such case shall not be required [MCL 211.741(2)(5)].
