Volunteers step forward to help city

BY PHIL CUSTODIO
Clarkston News Editor

As of Oct. 1, the city has no manager, but two residents stepped forward to help out.

Rich Little and Steve Percival, who volunteered his services at the Sept. 26 City Council meeting, are doing what they can to keep city hall running.

"We love being here, and anything we can do to help out here to answer questions, we're glad to do it," Little said.

According to the city charter, City Council "shall appoint a replacement within 120 days or may appoint an acting officer during the period of vacancy in the office." The council, which did not make a replacement appointment at its Sept. 26 meeting, next meets on Oct. 10.

The change in city management is an opportunity to improve relations between residents and the city, said City Council member David Marsh at the Sept 26 council meeting.

"People have been reluctant to come to the city manager," Marsh said. "We're going to have to have Please see City on page 5 a new city manager. Hopefully that changes."

City talks communications issues

City council discussed recommendations of the Communications Committee, which presented its list of recommendations at the meeting.

Recommendations of the committee, which included Council member Al Avery, and residents Sue Wylie, Mike Cascone, and Karen Eckert, included addressing residents' public comments at the meeting or "within a reasonable period of time."

"When the issue cannot be addressed at the meeting, the mayor or council member may request the matter be investigated by the city manager," Eckert said. "Some items may be placed on the agenda for a subsequent meeting, with the response communicated to council, city staff, and citizens by email and or in the manager's report."

This to-do list is key, said resident Steve Percival, who is running for mayor in November.

"Make sure people are heard, write it down and assign it, then come back and talk about it. That's the key to keeping the audience small," Percival said. "If people bring things to the council, they have to feel they're heard."

Recommendations also include adhering to the Open Meetings Act and City Charter; post meeting procedure in meeting room, website, and agenda; five-minute limit to public comments on non-agenda items; comment on agenda items when they come up; mayor monitors comments for respect and courtesy; citizen may yield time to another speaker who has exceeded the five minute rule, one time only; and speakers identify themselves and use the podium.

"A couple of us talked about coming up with a to-do list," said Mayor Joe Luginski. "I think it's a good idea."

The council may not have answers to questions coming up in public comment, but that doesn't mean they shouldn't be addressed, Luginski said.

"It's all about communications, being part of a team," the mayor said.

They should be careful not to turn council meetings into question-and-answer sessions, said Council member Al Avery.

"That's not what we're here for at this time," Avery said. "But there are times, someone comes up with a good point. We can assign it to the city manager, who would hopefully give people the information they're looking for."

"We need to remember this is a city council meeting. We're here to do city business," Marsh said. "It's not a town hall meeting. It's really for public comment, to give us information on decisions we're making that night."

"I think if people come up to make a public comment, they expect an answer," said Council member Jason Kneisc.

"The most helpful thing is more discussion just between council members, to find out what each other's thinking," said Council member Sharron Catallo.

"We don't converse and we should. We don't discuss things as a group and often it's because of the audience."

Resident Chet Pardee said he has submitted seven requests for information in July and August to the city and nothing happened.

"I appreciate you talking about this," Pardee said.

"It's shocking to me Mr. Pardee says he put in seven requests," Marsh said. "I would be frustrated as well."

The current council-meeting policy includes five minutes of public comment at the beginning of the meeting; topics on the agenda are addressed when the item comes up; mayor monitors comments, time, and appropriate exchanges; council does not generally respond during public comment; anyone may question the agenda item; and no public comment at the end of the meetings.

Funding for parks

Oakland County Parks and Recreation approved $25.1 million operational budget for 2017 for its 13 parks, including Independence Oaks and Springfield Oaks county parks.

The budget for the 6,700-acre system was approved by the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission at its Sept. 6 meeting and the Oakland County Board of Commissioners on Sept. 22.

"The budget was formulated to provide outstanding service for our 2 million annual visitors and continue the maintenance needed to meet visitor expectations for maintained, accessible and safe facilities," Executive Officer Dan Stencil said. "Remarks in surveys and patron feedback have always noted how well maintained the parks are and one of our top priorities is to preserve this high quality."

Oakland County Parks and facilities are funded by millages. For a home valued at $200,000, homeowners pay about $25 a year for the parks, which provide trails, campgrounds, dog parks, waterparks, golf courses, nature centers and a county farmers market.

Friendly Forest

The 2016 Friendly Forest, hosted by Independence Township Parks, Recreation and Seniors in partnership with the Clarkston Area Optimist Club, will be on Saturday, Oct. 15, from 3-6 p.m.

Children in costume walk the decorated enchanted trail with their parents and collect goodies from cartoon and fairy tale characters. The event includes a wagon ride, hay maze, and snack.

Family history

I've been working with genealogist, historian, city walker, and community activist Tom Stone lately on a project featuring families who have lived in the Clarkston area for generations.

There are quite a few of them, which Stone notes speaks well of the community. Their family names are familiar, up on street signs and lake markers throughout the area.

Response so far has been positive, with folks coming forward to share stories passed down from parents, their grandparents, and so on.

We'll feature them in upcoming editions, probably one a month. First up is the Bailey family, of Bailey Lake Elementary and, at one time at least, Bailey Lake.

Things have changed a bit, but I like how people can look around and know their great-great-great grandparents lived their lives in the same area, walked the same streets, swam in the same lakes.

I grew up in Dayton, Ohio – my dad was assigned to Wright Patterson Air Force Base in his work with the Department of Defense. I'd have to drive up to Montreal in Canada, or take a plane ride to the Philippines to experience something similar.

That's not actually a bad idea...

Many folks filled Depot Theater for the Clarkston Village Players' "Lend Me a Tenor," which closed up last week and in which I played the Bellhop.

I had a great time. With nine shows, I was always backstage behind one of the doors, waiting for my Act One, Scene One cue, which was Wendy Hedstrom saying her lines about why her husband Tito was so sick (he liked the waitress and let her serve him seconds even though he wasn't hungry).

The set was awesome, with two levels, six doors, windows, working phone (most of the time), and stairway, and it was all stripped away in one morning, to start getting the stage ready for the next show ("Farragut North," opening in November). That's show business.

I'll probably remember my lines for the rest of my life. I expect nightmares to start soon, where I find myself on stage not knowing what to do or say.

Council candidate wants to do his part

Dear Editor,

My name is Rick Detkowski and I am running for City Council.

I was raised in Clarkston and graduated from Clarkston High School in 1992, always enjoying the easy-going sense of community that I grew up in.

The thought of that changing never crossed my mind.

But not too long ago, someone asked me "Which side are you on?" Then another person asked my wife "What's it like living in the village with all of that going on?"

Once I finally understood what those questions meant, I knew that our easy-going community had taken a wrong turn somewhere. Things have become polarized and they don't seem to be getting better.

And so it hit me; I'm passionate about our city and folks around town are looking for something new.

Why not run for City Council? I want to do my part in getting us back to the basics of being a community.

At the same time, a like-minded friend announced her candidacy, that being Sue Wylie. Sue also has deep roots in the community and is passionate about promoting healthy, productive change.

As we discussed our views on the issues and our goals as potential council members, we realized that it made sense to deliver our message as a team.

So with the support of our collective families, our campaign began. And it wasn't long before our main goal became clear – to bring positive change to the city.

How would we do it? By promoting improved culture, clear two-way communication, and increased productivity.

As we talk to our friends and neighbors, we hear a community that is fed up with the polarization and conflict that has gone on for too long.

It has caused an unproductive environment and diminished the kinship that we should have in the CVC.

Many citizens want to see things get done. Many more want new ways to generate revenue, improved city services, and fresh approaches to solving problems.

Others just want the bickering to stop and allow City Council to do their jobs.

This is where Sue and I come in. After listening to and understanding all sides of the conversation, we know that the only way forward is to work towards having one voice.

It'll take hard work to get there, but we're ready to roll up our sleeves and get going.

With your support we can absolutely get back to being the easy-going town that we call home – and allow us to Have a Nice City.

So we ask for your vote on Nov. 8. Even if you don't normally get involved in local elections, please get out and vote. Change comes with new choices.

For more information about our campaign, you can find us on Facebook at Detkowski/Wylie for City Council.

Reader has high hopes for new manager

Dear Editor,

Carol Eberhardt's resignation is good news for the residents of the city of Clarkston and the surrounding community ("Manager resigns," Sept. 29).

Let's hope that city council doesn't replace the city manager with another "insider" who's main job is to obfuscate on the city's behalf.

Residents deserve a city manager who gives quick, truthful answers to any simple questions about city business posed to them, and not a city manager who is a defensive "wall of misinformation."

A Look Back

From The CNews archives

15 years ago - 2001

"Student enrollment up 2.3 percent"

As the Clarkston Community Schools Board of Education and administration grappled with a growing population, they were glad to know growth had slowed from previous years. The number of students in the district was 7,730, up 178 students from the previous year.

"Patriotic woodcarving stolen"

Clarkston resident Robert Schudlich put his emotions into his hobby the day of the September 11 terrorist attacks. He created a chainsaw wood-carving of an eagle and it was stolen from his front lawn.

"Swimmers avenge losses in league action"

Clarkston Girls Swim and Dive team earned a measure of revenge for two of the previous year's losses. They beat Oakland Activities Association Division IV rival Avondale, 125-61, and beat Dondero, 120-66, in a OAA crossover meet.

25 years ago - 1991

"Space wars" Enrollment was up in Clarkston Community School by 76 students with most of them in the elementary schools. The unaudited numbers from the Fourth Friday Count showed 5,600 pupils in the district. The increase meant a few classrooms started the year with more students than the teacher contract allows.

"Clarkston fire station for sale" The Independence Township Fire Station No. 1, located at 3 E. Church Street, was up for sales and Fire Chief Gar Wilson planned to move operations into First Federal Bank's former building at M-15 and Dixie Highway.

"On land or in the air, Wolves too much to handle for Lake Orion" The Clarkston Varsity Football team shut out the Lake Orion Dragons on their way to their fifth consecutive win, 20-0. It had been three years since the Wolves had beaten their rivals.

50 years ago - 1966

"News bought by Oxford publisher"

Ownership of The Clarkston News was transferred to James A. Sherman. He purchased the weekly newspaper from Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stamp of Clarkston.

"Quintet reigns during homecoming" The five young ladies chosen for Homecoming Court were for Queen Shayla Smith, Karen Caldwell, Jan Peters, Sherry Kosiba and Carrie Garlack.

"Round the town" Mr. and Mrs. Bruce King celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary with dinner and dancing in Detroit.

Handwriting dying? Don't tell our Daddies

These Jottings first ran Oct. 5, 2011.

Headlines are supposed to attract our attention. This one in The Detroit News, September 23 sure got mine: "Individuality is lost as art of handwriting dies."

The reporter is Marney Rich Keenan. She writes of her 92-year-old father comparing the speed of today's communications with the way it was in his youth.

Keenan writes, "Nobody handwrites anymore, save the occasional thank-you note or invitation. No wonder the U. S. Postal service is slated to close offices and cut back on services."

"It's not that we are communicating less -- supposedly we send something like 300 billion emails a day worldwide. It's just that we are not putting pen to paper."

Then, Keenan gets to the stuff I've heard about cursive writing not being taught in Oxford schools any more.

STOP right now.

It's not true.

Oxford Schools James Schwartz said, via email, "Cursive writing is still covered, however, not to the extent as it once had been."

Jim's Jottings

a column by Jim Sherman

Okay, back to Marney's dad and my daddy. Hers is 92 (Mine would be 121. He graduated from Parsons Business School in Chicago and retired hand writing stuff for Grand Trunk Railroad in Durand. I have the two daily diaries he kept while serving in the Army in France in World War I. Every word, on every page is perfectly, legibly written.)

Back to Keenan's article. She said by the time school started this year, 45 states (including Michigan) had adopted the Common Core State Academic Standard in their public schools, a curriculum, which, in part, phases out cursive writing in the classroom.

Common Core's mission statement seeks to teach skills that are "robust and relevant to the real world, reflecting the knowledge and skills our young people need for success in college and careers."

Thus, we can conclude from Common Core, handwriting skills are now deemed irrelevant to the real world.

Someone blogged Keenan (obviously they aren't cursively coordinated), "Pretty handwriting, if it has any place in modern elementary schools, belongs in the art classroom."

Another thing the computer, etc. has replaced is the individuality handwriting brings.

When a teacher or professor gets an email, blog, text or whatever electronically, do they proof read it?

I'm asking, does anyone critique it? Are grades given based on extremely shortened text messages?

Ah, I wish my daddy was around to write, in his perfect, individual handwriting what he thinks of all this in his perfect railroader's language.

• Our political leaders often cite their "oversight committees". Overseers like have allowed millions to be paid pensions, etc. to dead people, as announced this week. Webster says they can be "inadvertent omissions." I don't think so!

When the blood pressure rises, punt your next thought

I had this column all ready. It is ready to be typed. It is all there on my yellow Quill legal pad, penciled in my patented Don Rush shorthandish scrawl. It was, or is, about the hypocrisy of media coverage in regards to presidential campaigns.

I had gone through and pointed out how it is interesting that Democrat Hillary Clinton chastises her main opponent, Republican Donald Trump about:

1. Being for the war in Iraq while a private citizen
2. Bashing women
3. Not paying his "fair" share in federal taxes . . .

. . . while she:

1. Voted for the war in Iraq as a member of the legislative branch of our federal government.

2. Totally abused the women who claimed they were assaulted by her husband while he was governor of Arkansas and President of the United States.

3. Bashes private citizens for following the tax codes she and her friends in Washington, DC created.

But as I started typing I could feel and strong thumping in my chest, and my face getting read as my blood pressure started to rise. I stopped typing that column.

Then I thought, "maybe I will do something on the RTA -- the ever-lovin' Regional Transit Authority." You know, these guys are the ones who want to provide train service between Ann Arbor and Detroit, a bigger train in Detroit and bus service in Southeastern Michigan.

A 1.2 mil tax is proposed to cost $37 million dollars over the next 20 years with ZERO return for folks like us up here in the sticks.

Folks in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Washtenaw counties will vote on this issue at the November presidential election. Guess what, even if every one in Oakland County votes 'no', but the issues passes in Wayne, Macomb and Washtenaw counties, we still get stuck with the bill.

Nope. Can't write on that either. Blood pressure again.

Then I thought, I would comment on Detroit News columnist Nolan Finley's piece from last Friday headlined, Is Trump Trying To Lose?

Wrote Finley, "A lot of conspiracy theories cross my desk. I don't spend a whole lot of time considering them. Instead, I tend to believe things are as they seem, and that there's not an unseen hand moving about the chess pieces. But I'm starting to seriously believe that Donald Trump got into the presidential race to hand the White House to Hillary Clinton and to destroy the Republican Party."

No, thought I, nobody would get this far into something, just to lose . . . then the Trumpster went off on Hillary saying she was not mentally stable and wasn't faithful to her husband. Good gosh almighty, he is trying to lose, Finley and we are living in Bizzaro World!

ARRGGGG! How many days until this schmackin' frackin' election is over? Thirty-something?

Relax, Donald. Blood pressure. Oooohmmmmmm.

No, what I need to write about is something light. Something fluffy. Something to make me smile -- because, remember this folks: It is always about me, you guys and gals are just along for the ride.

I received an e-mail with pictures of signs found north of the border. The subject line: Why Canada is Great.

* A sign in North Vancouver states: Attention Dog Guardians: Pick up after your dogs. Thank you. Attention Dogs: Grrrr, bark, woof. Good dog.

* A billboard for a Saskatoon restaurant shows a scenic picture of a majestic moose near shimmering water with these words: There's plenty of room for all God's creatures -- right next to the mashed potatoes.

* A sign in a Canadian drinking establishment: Do not drop cigarette ends on the floor as they burn the hands and knees of customers when they leave.

* Same bar, different sign: NOTICE -- Public Bar. Our public bar is presently not open because it is closed. Manager.

* At a self-serve gas station the cost for a liter of regular was: Arm; for Plus: Leg and for Premium: First Born.

* And, finally, out by a beach somewhere there's a big yellow sign with big black letters. CAUTION: This sign has SHARP EDGES. Do not touch the edge of this sign -- also, the bridge is out ahead.

I (okay, we) need to find more humor in life. This election is sucking the fun outta' things. Send me your funnies, pictures, jokes -- whatever. Make me smile! (I will even give you credit.) Send them to Don@ShermanPublications.org.

For Clarkston and Independence Township

Extradition warrant

A deputy on patrol stopped a 36-year-old Independence Township woman for driving 42 mph in a 25 mph school zone on Maybee Road, 3:36 p.m., Sept. 21. She was found with an extradition warrant out of Minnesota. She was advised and released on the warrant, and cited for speeding and driving with an expired license.

Speeding in school zone

A deputy on patrol stopped a van for going 45 mph in a 35 mph school zone on Sashabaw Road near Baypoint Boulevard, 3:53 p.m., Sept. 22. The driver, a 22-year-old Grand Blanc woman, was cited for driving with a suspended license, and given warnings for speeding and failure to change her address on her license.

Incorrect plate

A truck with an incorrect, pickup-truck license plate on the trailer was stopped on Dixie Highway at Stonewood Drive, 10:42 a.m., Sept. 22. The trucking company was cited for registration plate violation, no medical certificate, no fire extinguisher, and no triangles.

Expired plate

A deputy on patrol stopped a car with an expired registration sticker, 4:5 p.m., Sept. 23, on Maybee Road at Sashabaw Road. The driver, a 54-year-old Independence Township woman, was cited for driving with an expired plate and driver's license, and no proof of insurance.

Assault at concert

After a verbal altercation, a crowd-control employee at a concert at DTE Energy Music Theater took a 31-year-old Shelby Township man's beer and he punched her in the ribs, 10:36 p.m., Sept. 24. He was cited for assault.

Felony warrant

A 38-year-old Burton man got into a two-vehicle wreck on I-75 near Sashabaw Road, 7:42 p.m., Sept. 24. He was found with a felony warrant out of 35th District Court for failure to appear on a driving while intoxicated, dangerous drugs, charge. He was jailed pending pickup by Plymouth Police.

Drunk driving

A 31-year-old Clawson man drove his pickup truck into the back of another truck on Sashabaw Road near Moody Drive, 12:18 a.m., Sept. 25. He smelled of alcohol, and preliminary breath test result was .109. He was jailed for drunk driving.

No taillights

A deputy on patrol stopped a vehicle with no taillights, 1:35 a.m., Sept. 25, after it ran a red light on S. Ortonville Road at Dixie Highway. The driver, a 25-year-old Independence Township man, was cited for no taillights, disobeying a traffic signal, and driving with a suspended license. His vehicle was impounded.

Marijuana arrest

A 59-year-old Independence Township man drove his work van past a school bus with red lights and stop sign activated and was stopped, 3:33 p.m., Sept. 26, in the 6000 block of Dixie Highway. The van smelled strongly of marijuana. With the help of a K-9 unit, two marijuana pipes, joint, grinder, and plastic baggie of marijuana were located in the vehicle. The 59-year-old had a medical marijuana card, but the items were not properly secured in a lock box. He was cited for failure to stop for a school bus and illegal transportation of marijuana. The marijuana and paraphernalia was taken and logged into the property room.

Tax evasion

Bernard Rumbold of Clarkston faces a plea hearing in U.S. District Court, Oct. 7, in a tax-evasion case. Rumbold was charged with filing false tax returns and not disclosing a $2 million, overseas account with Credit Suisse Bank. Rumbold owns several mining-related businesses in Michigan and Ontario, Canada, and opened the Switzerland-based bank account in 2004 in the name of Wisdom City, Limited, which does not exist as a business. Rumbold, who was the owner of the alleged false company and account, signed it over to a relative who lives in the United Kingdom in 2008, investigators said. According to the complaint, Rumbold's tax forms for four years said he didn't have a financial account. His tax forms stated he made $254,260 in 2007, when he had $1.6 million in the foreign account, investigators said.

Fight for playoff spot continues

BY WENDI REARDON PRICE
Clarkston News Sports Writer

The gridiron heroes were regrouping at Monday afternoon's practice as they get ready for the first of the final three games of the regular season.

Clarkston lost to Oak Park in a OAA cross-over game on Friday, putting their overall record 4-2, two wins away from securing a playoff spot.

Long-time head coach Kurt Richardson, the Wolves' coaching staff and the boys know it won't be a small feat since they have West Bloomfield, Lake Orion and Rochester Adams next on the schedule.

"They have three very good football teams they have to play," Richardson added. "If we expect to get in the playoffs we will have to turn it up a few notches."

The physical battle in the 14-7 loss to Oak Park opened the boys' eyes for the upcoming weeks.

"They are a pretty good football team," said Richardson. "They controlled the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball, offensively and defensively. We didn't play with much emotion or passion."

The Knights were first to get on the scoreboard in the second quarter with a touchdown from Keveon Clark.

Junior Michael Fluegel put the Wolves on the board with a 13-yard touchdown in the second half. A PAT from senior Zach Mansour tied the score.

Oak Park struck again before the game closed with another touchdown to win the game.

"They are pretty equal to Southfield, might be a tad better," Richardson added.

Senior quarterback JT King was 7-for-17 for 61 yards in passing for one interception. Fluegel was the leading rusher as he went 31 yards on 16 carries.

For defense, junior Gino Paese led the Wolves with eight tackles, one with loss of yards for the Knights and two assists. Senior Carson Stottlemeyer had eight tackles and one fumble recovery. Junior Zach Scott had six tackles and two assists.

Seniors Kyle Genter, Kole Gilbert, Nick Stalworth had three tackles each. Genter recovered a fumble; Stalworth had four assists and Gilbert had three assists.

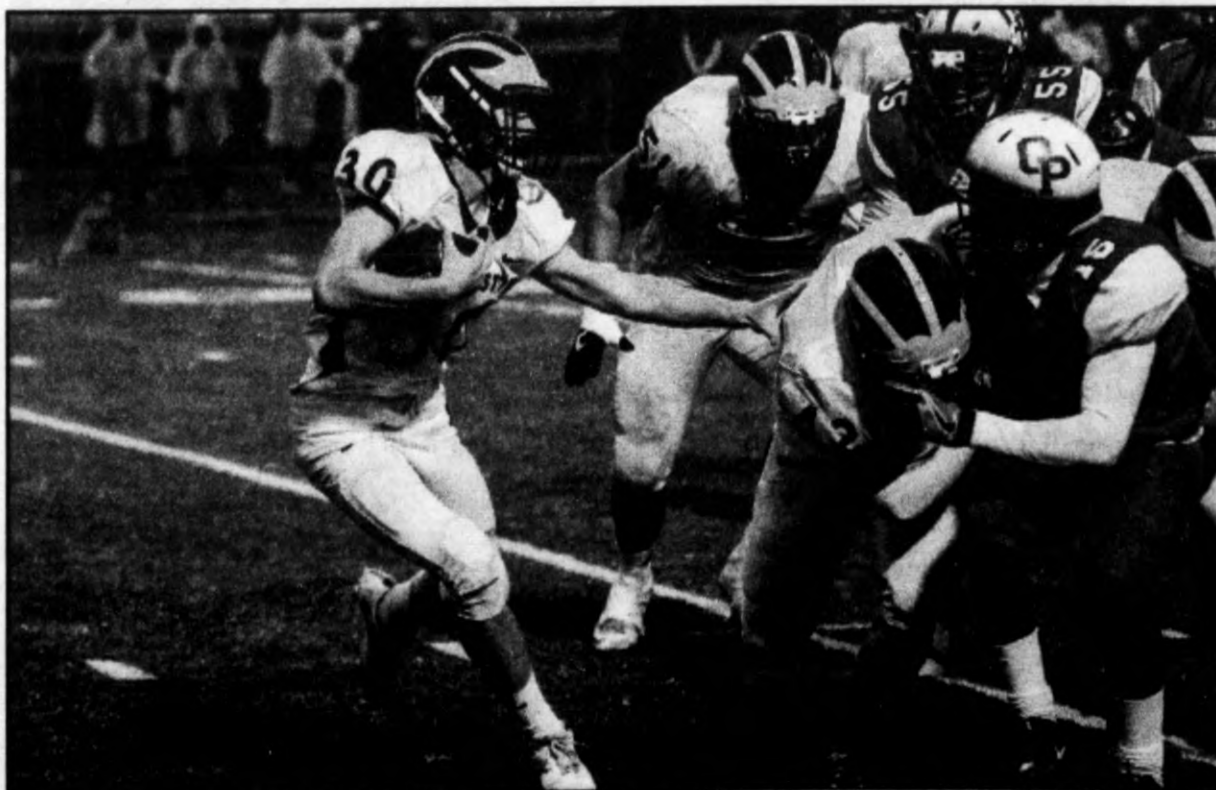

Senior Ryan Prisby had two tackles and four assists during the game.

The Wolves (4-2, 3-1 OAA Red) have home advantage this week as they host West Bloomfield (3-3, 3-1 OAA Red) this Friday.

"They are very talented. They are fast," Richardson said about the Lakers. "They are going to be very comparable to what we saw from Oak Park. They have a quarterback who throws the ball very well. We better respond."

He added the Lakers don't have a ton of returners from last year, but they do have four players who transferred to the high school.

Kick off is at 7 p.m., 6093 Flemings Lake Road.

Solid performances in league meet

BY WENDI REARDON PRICE
Clarkston News Sports Writer

Luke Baylis finished his last set in the OAA Red tournament with a victory as he defeated Andrew Zhang from Bloomfield Hills in the championship round last Thursday.

"It was an outstanding win for him," said Chas Claus, head coach for Clarkston Boys Varsity Tennis. "Luke and Andrew are considered the top two Single No. 2 players in the state. Luke lost to Zhang earlier in the year. It was a great solid win for him."

He finished with a 6-3, 6-4 victory.

Teammate Frankie Piana finished in second place against Bloomfield Hills' Brad Silverman, 7-6 (2), 6-3, on Singles No. 4.

The Wolves finished the tournament in fourth place with 25 points as Bloomfield Hills finished in first place with 43 points. Troy finished in second, 41; Birmingham Groves, third, 26; Troy Athens, fifth, 19; and Birmingham Seaholm, sixth, 14.

"We did very well in the league tournament," said Claus. "Not perfectly, but I thought we had a very good day overall. In several flights we had avenged wins against players we lost to earlier in the season. We didn't have any bad losses. It was a good day for us."

Alex Matisse on the Singles No. 1 court had close match to against Troy's Steven Forman before losing in two of the three sets.

"He came extremely close to beating Troy, who has been acknowledged as the No. 1 player in the state," said Claus. "It was a good outing for him to take a set from a player of that caliber."

He added David Carpenter and Tristan Greenlee, on Doubles No. 1; and Charlie Lussenhop and Cole Manilla, on Doubles No. 2; had good wins over Seaholm.

"It was a good confidence building day," Claus said. "We had good wins against Seaholm and Troy and teams and players we hadn't beaten in the past."

Clarkston finished in fifth place overall in the league with combination of duals and the tournament. Bloomfield Hills was first, Troy, second; Groves, third; Troy Athens, fourth; and Seaholm, sixth.

The Wolves will see Bloomfield Hills again this Thursday for the MHSAA Boys Tennis Division I Regional 7.

"We are playing with a lot of confidence," said Claus. "We have played well all year. I think if we do our job and play the way we have been playing we should make it to states and have a very good day on Thursday."

Clarkston will compete against Bloomfield Hills, Lake Orion, Oxford, Rochester, Rochester Adams, Stoney Creek, Waterford Kettering and Waterford Mott for a chance to go to the state finals next week.

The Wolves are hosting the tournament beginning at 8 a.m. Matches will be at Clarkston, Waterford Mott and Waterford Kettering. The finals will be at Clarkston in the late afternoon.

Runners take top spots during last week's meets

BY WENDI REARDON PRICE

Clarkston News Sports Writer

The Wolves topped the OAA Red once again as they took first place at the league's second Jamboree at Stony Creek Metropark, Sept. 27.

The Clarkston Boys Cross Country team finished with 42 points for their second win in the league races. Birmingham Seaholm finished in second place with 66 points. Lake Orion took third place, Rochester Adams, fourth; and Troy, fifth.

William Eisert led the Wolves as he finished in fifth place with a time of 16:26.4. The Wolves had four more runners finishing in the top 20 with Shawn Slater in seventh place, 16:44.7; Nickolas Favazza, ninth, 16:47.8; Brendan Favazza, 11th, 16:49.9; Mika Juuhl, 12th, 16:54.4; and Jacob Dolan, 20th, 17:11.

The Lady Wolves finished in second place during the varsity race as they finished with 51 points. Birmingham Seaholm finished in first place with 40 points while Troy finished in third; Rochester Adams and Lake Orion tied at fourth; Oxford, sixth; and Rochester, seventh.

"I really couldn't have asked more from them," said Kevin Breen, head coach for the Clarkston Girls Cross Country team. "They really performed well. It was the first showing our runners had where it looked like they were working together as a team - running together in packs and groups. It's always a goal at the end of the season - making sure our runners are closing the gap from our first runner to our seventh runner. There are also little things - everyone is working hard, everyone is healthy and we are focused on the right direction right now."

Elizabeth Dalrymple led the Lady Wolves as she finished in fourth place at the time of 18:54.1. Mallory Ferguson finished close behind in fifth place, 19:03.9. Rounding off the top five places for Clarkston were Emily Ferguson in 13th, 19:38.8; Mia Patria, 14th, 19:48; and Emily Gustafson, 15th, 19:58.3.

"Last time we raced against the teams in the OAA we had some slip ups and it cost us to drop back quite a bit," Breen added. "This past OAA Jamboree we showed what we were capable of."

The JV girls team finished in third place with 103 points as Rochester Adams finished in first, 26 points; and Seaholm finished in second place, 43 points.

Heather Burrum led the Lady Wolves as she finished in fifth place, 21:57.7. Alex Gladding finished in seventh; Riley Kloostera, 26th; Madeline Forshey, 36th; and Olivia Gilmore, 46th.

The boys JV team finished in fourth place with 93 points while Lake Orion finished in first place with 25 points. Jeremy Cavallo led the team as he finished in fifth place at the time of 18:22.6. Also finishing in the top five for the team were Ben Allen in tenth; Mark Sprague, 24th; Ryan Nicosia, 25th; and Quinn Schreiber, 33rd.

All teams continued the momentum with first place finishes at Hanson's Invitational on Saturday.

The Wolves finished in first place in the varsity Division 1 race with 66 points. Canton finished in second with 93; Grosse Pointe North, third with 103.

Juuhl led the team as he finished in tenth place at the time of 17:19. Five more Wolves finished in the top 20 with Eisert at 12th place, 17:21; Brendan Favazza, 13th, 17:22; Slater, 14th, 17:26; Nickolas Favazza, 17th, 17:37.5; and Nate Sesti, 18th, 17:38.

The Lady Wolves finished in first place in the varsity race with 24 points.

"Fifteen points is a perfect score and we scored 24 points, in an invitational setting when there's over 10 teams, you don't get scores that low unless everyone is performing on all cylinders and your team is ready to run," said Breen.

Grosse Pointe South finished in second place with 56 points as Rochester, Utica Ford and Port Huron Northern rounded the top five.

"We played around with a few things," said Breen. "Elizabeth made it more into a workout which helped our third runner to close the gap. She performed for two purposes - for her to get a workout in knowing she will be a front runner anyway and rather than go out there and be No. 1 runner she did the team a service and tried to help the third runner to close the gap."

Mallory Ferguson led the team as she finished in second place at the time of 19:32, 12 seconds behind the first place runner Karenna Duffey from Macomb L'Anse Creuse.

"She made some improvements and usually she is running with Elizabeth," Breen added. "By Elizabeth dropping back a little bit it gave Mallory an opportunity to front run and challenge the front of the pack."

Dalrymple finished closely behind for the third spot at 19:42. Ferguson finished in sixth place, 20:27; Gustafson, eighth place, 21:03; and Patria, tenth place, 21:09.

The teams head to the Oakland County meet this Saturday at Kensington Park.

"We are going to be in a really good position going into Saturday," said Breen. "I can see us battling it out with Troy and Birmingham Seaholm. Milford always come out and runs hard. They've got some of the best runners in the state, too. Waterford Mott has a number of runners. These are teams who will give us a challenge."

Lecture series kicks off with Vanderbilt expert

Elliott Engel kicks off the 2016-2017 Oakland Town Hall lecture series on Oct. 12 with a presentation on the Vanderbilts.

Engel, dubbed the "Stand Up Scholar" and expert on North Carolina history and British literature, is the first of four speakers in the new season.

"I like the lineup. We always have wonderful speakers," said town hall Historian Gerry Irwin of Waterford. "It's exciting and always educational."

"It's always fun to go have lunch and meet with the other women," said Natalie Zuehlke of Waterford.

"I've enjoyed it every season," said Joanne Belk of Clarkston. "I look forward to it, seeing friends and listening to the speakers."

Members come from all walks of life, Irwin said.

"Everybody is welcome," she said.

The non-profit group's speakers cover a wide range of topics every year.

"We look at all facets of people attending when booking speakers – they all have wonderful backgrounds," she said.

The series continues with playwright and screenwriter Marc Lapudula, talking about 10 Films that Changed America, Nov. 9.

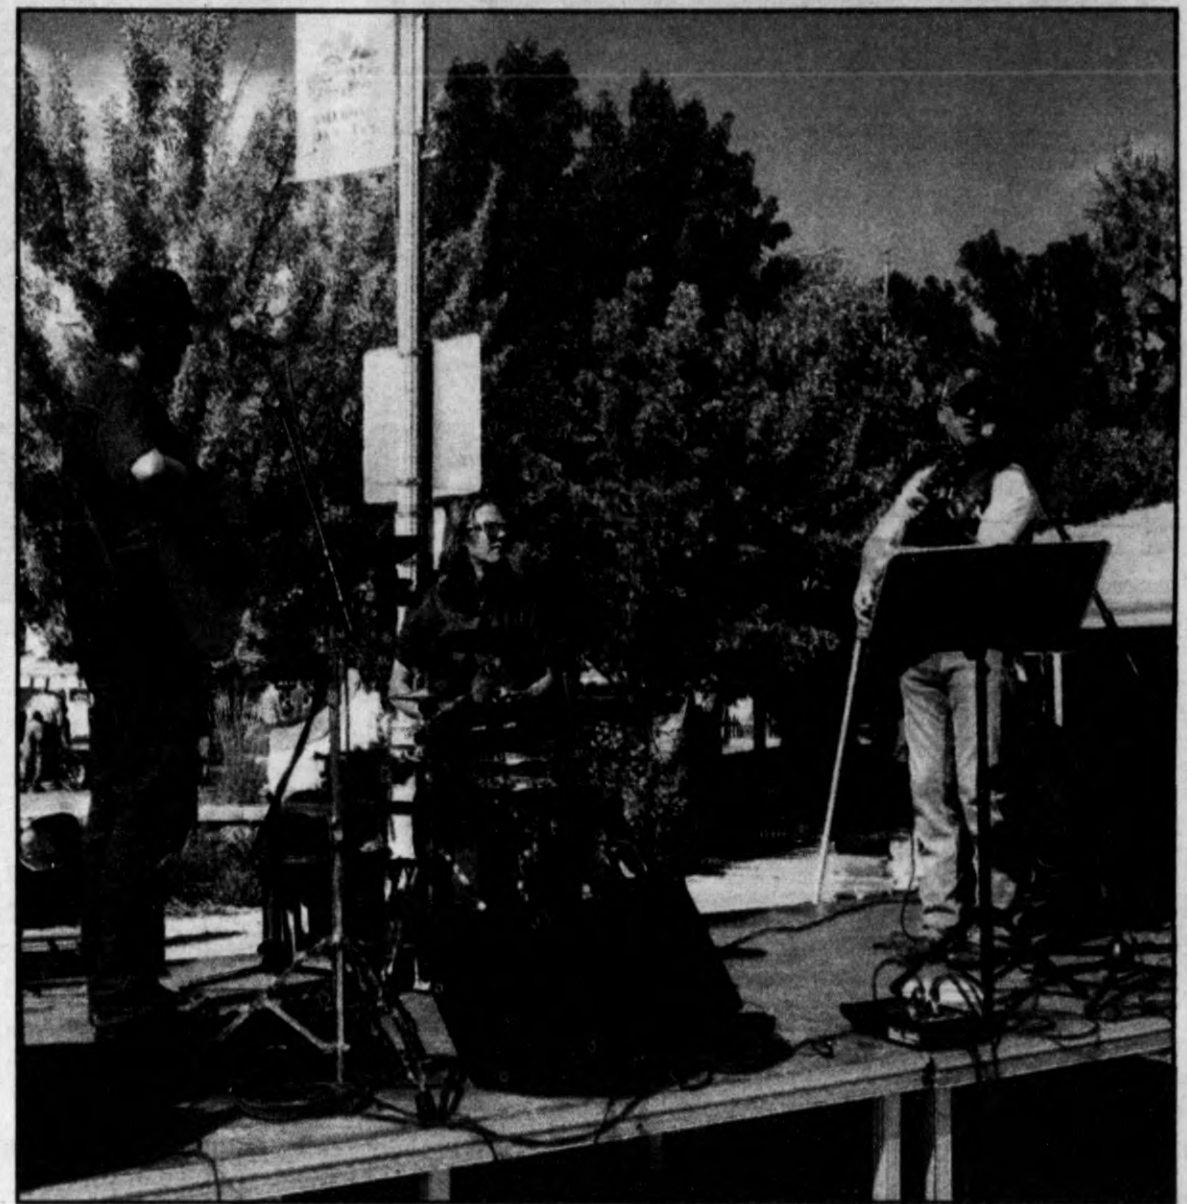

Ross Baker, political science professor at Rutgers University, discusses politics on April 12.

Antiques expert Frank Loomis talks about his life's work antiques, appraising, and dealing, on May 10.

Admission is $42 each, for lecture and lunch; $26 for lecture only. Call Linda Kolody at 248-625-4137.

Varicose Vein treatment covered by insurance?

"Americans who are suffering from unsightly, swollen, painful varicose veins might want to take closer look at their insurance", says Dr. Charles Mok D.O., at Allure Vein Center.

"What most people don't know is that the Affordable Care Act, commonly referred to as Obamacare, covers treatment for varicose veins," he adds.

"We're seeing more and more people for this condition. Why wouldn't you have it treated when it's an easy procedure with little to no out-of-pocket costs?"

Forty million people suffer from varicose veins, which can result in substantial pain and complications if not treated. Symptoms may include:

- bulging veins
- restless legs
- aching, throbbing, cramping

"Early detection with free vein screening is essential," says Dr. Mok. "Wait too long and you could experience unwanted skin changes including swelling and skin ulcers."

Tigers' treat

Mary Sadach helps pass the time during her chemotherapy treatments at McLaren Oakland Cancer Institute in Independence Township by talking about the Detroit Tigers with Pharmacy Tech Johnny Barnes.

When Barnes learned Sadach hasn't been to a Tigers game since she was a little girl and now, at 85 years of age, didn't think she would ever attend another game, he stepped up to fix that.

Sadach

"Thanks to Johnny, that dream came true," said Laura Gohl RN,BSN,OCN at McLaren Oakland Cancer Institute, 5680 Bow Pointe Drive. "Johnny brought Mary to last weekend's Tigers game!"

Neighbors appreciate dog rescue

BY PHIL CUSTODIO
Clarkston News Editor

Chris Kemmer went above and beyond as a neighbor last spring, and her friend and neighbor Renee Rustile wants people to know about it.

"Today is a celebration that wouldn't be happening if she did not do what she did," said Rustile at a birthday party for one of Kemmer's children.

"The Kemmer family exemplifies the definition of 'neighbor,'" she said.

Kemmer and her two young sons almost daily go to the end of the street for not only their mail, but also their neighbor Colleen Mullins' mail.

"It gives her a chance to see if all is well with our neighbor and her faithful dog," Rustile said.

On April 18, they were chatting in Mullins' garage with her dog, Sugar, tied to a leash when a neighbor's dog attacked.

"Without any warning, a German shepherd lunged and grabbed the small dog in its jaws. Chris responded without hesitation," Rustile said.

She managed to get the bigger dog to release Sugar, but not before the smaller dog suffered severe injuries.

Since then, Sugar has received a couple surgeries and recovered from her injuries.

"She's a good dog," Mullins said.

It's unlawful under Independence Township ordinances to allow dogs to run at large. Also, dangerous or vicious dogs must be registered with the township.

According to ordinance, "the owner of a dangerous or vicious dog shall not allow or permit such dog to be unconfined, either on or outside the premises of the owner, unless such dog is securely restrained, leashed and muzzled." Also, owners must carry liability insurance. In Sugar's case, the bigger dog's owner had insurance.

Generally, dogs must be leashed when in public, as well as immunized against rabies.

Dangerous or vicious dog means any dog exposed to rabies, or has without provocation attacked, bitten, or threatened a person or another animal.

Mountaineers fall in Homecoming matchu

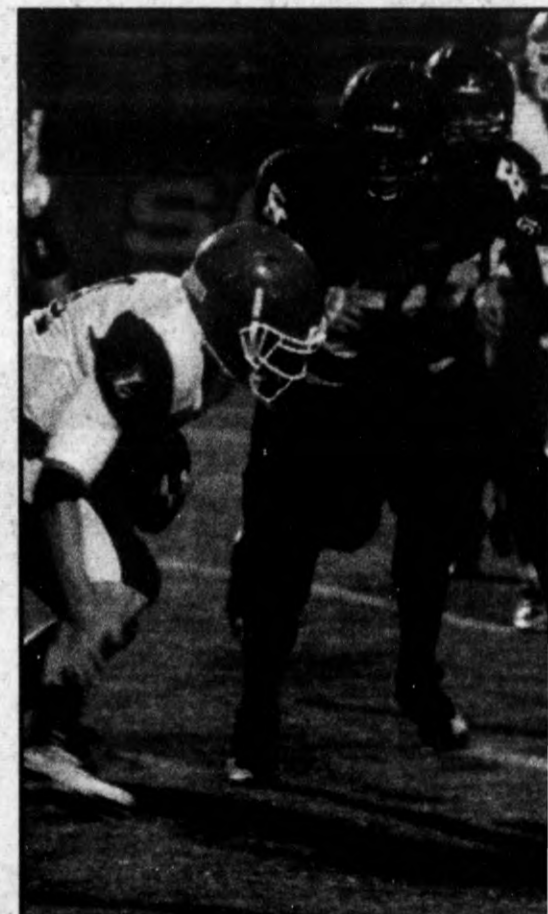

Rivals Everest Collegiate and Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes battled through the fall rain into overtime last Friday. The Lakers finished victorious with a 34-31 win during the Mountaineers' Homecoming game at Clarkston High School.

The Mountaineers (5-1, 1-1 Catholic High School League) opened the game with a 31-yard touchdown pass from Grant Burgess to Alex Legg. Our Lady of the Lakes took the lead on the next possession with their own touchdown and a PAT, 7-6.

The battle continued as both teams scored in the first half with Burgess connecting a 27-yard touchdown pass to Simon Fenske and the Lakers scoring twice.

Everest opened the second half tying the game at 20 points when Burgess scored on a quarterback keeper with his 25-yard run.

They tied again to close the game at 28 points with a 21-touchdown pass from Burgess to Legg. Burgess passed the ball once more to Fenske for a 2-point conversion. Fenske kicked a 37-yard field goal in overtime to give the Mountaineers three more points.

Trustee at Trump rally

When Jose Aliaga of Independence Township attended the rally for presidential candidate Donald Trump in Novi, Sept. 30, he got his own moment at the podium.

"I was super excited the Trump campaign asked me to lead the Pledge of Allegiance – it was truly an honor and privilege," said Aliaga, Republican trustee on the Independence Township Board. "The campaign was very appreciative I would come and show my support. It was the first time I had addressed an audience of thousands, and on Sunday many people at my church, and later at the Taste of Clarkston festival, congratulated me and wished me well."
